DISTRICT II WILL HOLD BIG MEET

Plans Being Completed for Saturday's Contests on Round Athletic Field.

Entries for the first annual track and field meet of District II, which comprises practically all counties of Northern Virginia, closed last Tuesday and there is every indication that the meet will be one of the largest ever held on Round Field. Approximately eighty high school athletes will take part in the various events, including the 100-yard dash, 22-yard dash, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, one mile run, 120-yard low hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, 12-lb shot put and discus throw.

Several schools will be represented on the local field for the first time, and most of the schools formerly competing in the eighth district meets will send strong teams. Alexandria will have seventeen contestants; Floris, 14; Manassas, 14; Leesburg, 11; Calverton, 8; Herndon, 8; Jefferson, 6; Haymarket, 4, and Nokesville, 1. The figures are proof in themselves that competition will be keen in each event.

After considerable delay a steam roller has been secured to roll the recently cindered track. This will put it in ideal condition and make it easier for the athletes to establish new records. Lunch will be served to the visitors by the members of the Athletic Association of the local high school, and other details of the plans for the meet are being completed.

Ribbons will be awarded in each event to the winners of the first four places and a medal to the highest individual point winner. The school making the highest number of points will receive a felt banner for permanent possession and a silver loving cup. This cup will be competed for each year until won three times by one of the schools of District II, after which it will become permanent property. In addition to these awards, the Lynch memorial prize will be special incentive for greater effort by the local boys. This prize is in the form of a medal and is awarded annually by Mrs. P. H. Lynch in memory of her son who will long be remembered as one of the best athletes of Manassas high school. It is an especial honor to win this prize since its award is based on the academic record as well as the track record of the contestant.

The meet will begin promptly at 1:30 and will be called as rapidly as possible. You are especially requested to come out and support the boys of Prince William county. At the same time you will have the best entertainment that the high schools of Northern Virginia can offer those who enjoy track and field events.

COUNTY BOARD VISITS SCHOOLS

Members Learn of Needs Heretofore Unknown to Them.

In order to become better acquainted with the teachers and with the needs of the various schools in the different districts, visits of inspection are being made by the newly-appointed county school board to the most central school in each district.

At the April meeting of the board the members visited Manassas high school where they were guest of honor at a luncheon prepared and served by the second year domestic science class, an account of which appeared in last week's Journal.

On Tuesday, May 8, a trip was made to Bethel high school, where the needs of the schools of Occoquan district were discussed. Here they were served a delightful luncheon by the domestic science class of the school.

The next meeting place will be the hospitable home of Superintendent C. R. McDonald, near Catharpin. If the new members of the board have not already visited the well-equipped and up-to-date office of the superintendent, where so many of his hours are spent working for the good of the county schools, they will, no doubt, after this visit, be convinced that the position held by Mr. McDonald is no sine-cure.

REUNION OF MOSBY'S MEN

There will be a reunion of the survivors of the Forty-third Virginia Battalion (Mosby Men), at Marshall, on the 19th of June. Come one, come all and let us have a good time on our old fighting ground. The ladies of the U. D. C. have promised us a good time.

BIG DAY IN ALEXANDRIA

Corner-stone of Masonic Memorial Temple to Be Laid in Fall.

An elaborate program is to be arranged by the local committee for the corner-stone laying of the George Washington Memorial Temple now being erected at George Washington Park, Alexandria, which will take place at noon on November 1.

The event will be one of the biggest in the history of the Masonic fraternity and it is estimated that 10,000 Masons from every state in the Union will be present.

Following the ceremony attending the laying of the corner-stone, a banquet will be served at the plant of the Alexandria naval torpedo station, this being the only place in the city large enough to accommodate the 1,000 special guests invited.

MANASSAS BATTLEFIELD PARK

Writer in Warrenton Times Makes Urgent Appeal for Financial Aid.

The Warrenton Times of May 10, contained an extensive article concerning the Manassas Battlefield Memorial, in which the writer, whose name was not given, made an appeal to the readers of that periodical for immediate financial aid.

Having given many reasons why there should be constructed upon these fields some great memorial after the general order of battlefield memorials, the writer went on to say that in many respects the first battle of Manassas is considered the most epochal in the history of the world, and that from the standpoint of the south, there is the most urgent reason for the preservation of its accurate story.

The hundreds of events which occurred there are worthy of commemoration as anything which occurred at Gettysburg. It was on the fields of Manassas that Jackson received the name of Stonewall, and it was there also that the heretofore untold southern troops won for the south one of its most brilliant victories against overwhelming numbers.

The writer pointed out that Fauquier county and particularly Warrenton, would be financially benefited by the establishment of such a memorial, as the management proposed, should the plans for the park materialize, to build a splendid road from Washington along the Lee Highway, via Warrenton to The Plains, thence through historic Thoroughfare Gap to Gainesville and on back to Washington.

This road when marked by monuments will prove one of the most beautiful of battlefield drives, the whole trip being made in less than a day. Therefore both sentiment and financial interest should appeal strongly to the people of Loudoun, Prince William, Fauquier, Fairfax and all nearby counties.

The existing option on the land expires very shortly now and the owners of the land refuse to again extend it, therefore the people of this section of Virginia are concerned with the urgent need of assistance in raising $5,000, the amount still needed, before title can be taken to the land.

$50.00 DONATION TO PARK

Money Will Be Turned Over to the Proper Authorities at Any Time.

"It was my good fortune to be born in Prince William county but left there in 1867 for Baltimore where I have resided ever since. I often think of my first visit to Manassas in 1862 on my way with some neighbors to visit the battlefield along the old railroad cut and around Groveton where there were literally some thousands of dead soldiers still unburied. The bodies of the New York Zouaves with their striking red, baggy trousers and red caps were scattered thickly over the side of the field about Young's Branch.

"I heartily endorse the proposition for the battlefield park and the proper officers of the Association can call on me for $50 when payment is desired."

SHRINERS ENJOY BIG SHAD BAKE

Widewater Scene of Delightful Outing—Mr. Ratcliffe Master of Ceremonies.

The plank shad dinner participated in by the Prince William County Shriners Club at Widewater, Va., last Friday was, according to all accounts, one of the most enjoyable affairs of its kind held recently.

At an informal gathering of the local members of the club a shad bake was mentioned. Widewater was suggested, and on invitation of Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, the club members, accompanied by their wives, journeyed there on Friday, May 11, and partook of a sumptuous feast of shad and rock fish.

The fifty-seven guests were served at long tables attractively arranged on the veranda of Alabama Lodge, the club house of a Manassas colony, and the menu consisted of the following: Plank shad and rockfish, Saratoga chips, potato salad, olives, pickles, rolls, coffee, cigars and cigarettes.

Among those present were Shriners from Alexandria, Occoquan, Broad Run, Buckland, Haymarket, Culpeper and Manassas. Those attending from the latter place were: Hon. Thos. H. Lion, Miss Ethel Lion, Mr. J. P. Leachman, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nash, Miss Elizabeth Merchant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Cocke, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hynson, Mayor and Mrs. Harry P. Davis, Miss Leone Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Walker Merchant, Mr. Gilbert Merchant, Mr. W. C. Aylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thornton Davies, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe and children, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, Mr. D. J. Arrington, Miss Lucy Arrington, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burke, Mr. Frank Gue, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Larkin, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Hough, Miss Marjorie Hough, Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Dr. and Mrs. W. Fewell Merchant, and Miss Katherine Lewis.

Much credit is due Mr. Ratcliffe for the success of the occasion, he having been appointed a special committee to make all necessary arrangements.

RECITALS AT EASTERN

Graduating Exercises Tonight Will Close Session of the School

The children's recital of Eastern College-Conservatory was given at the institute on Wednesday evening last at eight o'clock, and those taking part in the program acquitted themselves most creditably.

The children from the community appearing on the program were Misses Esperance and Ogretta Holliday, Meaker Burke, John Henry Burke, Elizabeth Colman, George Byrd, Preston Lyon, Wallace Lynn and Winnie Wenrich. These represented the departments of piano, violin and expression in solos, duets, trios and readings, and were greeted with cordial applause which they justly elicited.

On Thursday evening a recital by the more advanced students of the conservatory followed. The program opened with a brilliant number on two pianos by Misses Greene and Wenrich. The voice department was represented by well-rendered solos by Misses Mary Covington, Margaret Greene, Bobbie Carr, and Enid Edie, while Misses Elizabeth Coleman, Ruth Eckelman and Master George Byrd charmed the audience with selections on the violin.

The piano numbers by Misses Frances McDonald, Mary Boone and Margaret Greene were enjoyed likewise. The graduation exercises tonight will close the session of the college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Aylor accompanied by their niece, Miss Blanche Whitworth, left this week on an automobile trip through the valley of Virginia. They will stop at Staunton to visit their son, Prof. Aylor of Staunton Military Academy, attend the Shriners' Convention to be held in Harrisonburg on May 18, and visit friends in Roanoke before returning home.

Little Miss Jane Elliot, of Charlotte, N. C., arrived in Manassas on Wednesday for an extended visit at the home of her grandfather, Mr. R. M. Waters, on north Grant avenue. She was accompanied to Manassas by her father, Mr. J. L. Elliot, who continued his trip to Washington, returning the same evening to his home in Charlotte.

The meeting was called to order by master of ceremonies, R. C. Linton. After which the school rendered the following program:

This was followed by prayer by Rev. T. D. D. Clark and Prof. J. H. Dodge made an excellent address on Education. Hon. C. J. Meetez made a speech highly commending our school teachers, and also spoke on how to make the best of our opportunities.

Hon. C. A. Sinclair, representing the O. F. A., spoke on why we present the Bible and Flag.

Mr. D. P. Bell, state representative of Bull Run Council, No. 15, O. F. A., gave a short address on the principles of the Order of the Fraternal Americans.

All joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

The speech of presentation of the Bible and Flag, on behalf of Independent Hill Council, No. 34, was made by Rev. J. A. Gollibew, who paid a glowing tribute to our country and flag.

The speech of acceptance on the part of the school was made by Mr. J. J. Murphy, a former teacher of the school, now a resident of Manassas, who expressed appreciation of the gifts on behalf of teacher and patrons, and of the interest of the Order in thus presenting to this school the first Bible and Flag in Coles district.

A fine pole having been prepared, the flag was raised and as a gentle zephyr unfolded it, cheers were given by all present. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Utsler, of the Manassas, pronounced by Rev. Eustler.

Mrs. Adams was a resident of Manassas for many years and had many friends here. Truly it may be said of her that a good and true woman has gone to her reward. A kinder and a more unselfish person never lived, this being evidenced by the many and beautiful floral tributes.

She is survived by seven children: Mrs. W. P. Larkin and Mrs. R. B. Larkin, of Manassas; Mrs. Murray Hawkins, Mrs. Kirby Prince, Messrs. Harry and George Adams and Miss Annie Adams, of Washington, and by ten grandchildren.

TO THE PUBLIC

ADVERTISEMENT

The undersigned, who is the owner in fee-simple of a tract of land containing 50 acres lying one and one-half miles from Manassas, has had it brought to his attention on two occasions when he had prospective purchasers for his farm, that certain party or parties of responsibility have stated to such prospective purchasers, or to their near friends, or acquaintances, that good title to the property could not be given by me by reason of the fact that my wife would have to join in a conveyance. This party or parties have made such statements without knowledge of the facts, and by such statement have prevented a sale of the land. In order to set the matter at rest, and to prevent a repetition of such statements, I am herewith publishing a copy of a decree of the District Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Nye, which will show conclusively that such statement has been made without knowledge on the part of the party or parties making the same, and which will further show that my former wife has no interest of any kind or character in and to the said land. The party or parties referred to have spoken in ignorance of the facts and cannot make good the statements which have been made, and which have caused damage to me in the loss of the sale of my property. BETTER KITCHEN CONTEST WAGES

Miss Belle Burke, District Home Demonstration Agent Here Assisting Miss Gilbert.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, County Home Demonstration Agent)

Miss Belle Burke, district home demonstration agent, is spending this week in Prince William county. Her time is being spent visiting homes in behalf of the second "Better Kitchen" contest, which is starting and which will last until the last of July.

Although the weather has been very inclement, showers coming at almost any moment, and the roads quite muddy, eight homes have been visited. In each of these homes plans are on foot to make the kitchen workshop one of the most comfortable, convenient and attractive places in the home. Also several girls were visited and help were given each girl in her effort to make her own bedroom a place of beauty, comfort and healthfulness—a place that she will love. Only a few girls have this work, but they are in earnest, and it is evident that we are going to have some good work from them. This work is being done with the least expense possible to the girls. This also applies to the women in the "Better Kitchen" contest.

Last week a great deal of the time was spent with the club members in Coles district. Much of the work in sewing was finished, and a very creditable exhibit was seen at Independent Hill on last Saturday.

Boys and girls are getting ready for the summer work. Poultry club members are busy with their little chicks. Tomato seeds have been sown by canning club girls, and gardens are being planted. We are hoping for some splendid work with the canning club girls. Some splendid prizes are again being offered to the girls in canning club work. These prizes are to be awarded for work shown at the state fair. Instructions will be given to the girls by the county home demonstration agent at the next club meeting. It is expected that a number of the older girls in the club will take advantage of this work. Cans will be furnished to the girls. The prizes are as follows:

First prize, $15; second, $12; third, $10; fourth, $5; fifth, $3. All instructions will be given, so that no mistakes will be made. We want at least four of these exhibits from the county. Girls, get busy.

MISS SALLIE HOUGHTON DEAD

Mrs. W. S. Athey of Manassas Loses Her Only Sister.

Miss Sallie Houghton, only sister of Mrs. W. S. Athey, of Manassas, died at the University Hospital, Charlottesville, on Friday, May 4, after a lingering illness, in her fifty-fourth year.

Funeral services were conducted at her late residence at Little Washington, Rappahannock county, on the following Sunday by Elder Hudson, of Sperryville, and her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground. The deceased was the daughter of Thomas and the late Martha Houghton. She is survived by her aged father, six brothers, Roscoe, of New Mexico; Benjamin and Lamar, of Missouri; Brown and Wilbert, of Markham, Va.; Edgar, of Front Royal, and by one sister, Mrs. W. S. Athey, of Manassas.

Those serving as pallbearers were: Edgar, Brown and Wilbert Houghton, three of her brothers; Hubert Keyser, a cousin; Carleton Athey, a nephew, and Mr. Edgar Gore, a neighbor.

The beautiful floral tributes and the large assemblage of friends and relatives gave evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

"HOME, SWEET HOME"
"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home."

One hundred years ago, a young American, John Howard Payne, drew these words from his soul as he sat in a London apartment and thought of his little home in Hampton, Long Island, a home from which he was separated by three thousand miles of water.

Payne, then 32, was a man of the world, a man who already had quaffed deeply from the foaming cup of success and choked over the dregs of failure.

"Home, Sweet Home" was one of a number of songs in "Clari, the Maid of Milan." It is the only one which has survived and is one of the most popular songs of today. Payne wrote from the heart when he wrote "Home, Sweet Home," and, like everything which comes from the soul in its proper moments, it will endure forever.

Payne wrote many songs, but he wrote them for money, and they have long since been forgotten. On the dull September day on which he placed in words his memories, his longing and his love for the little Long Island cottage, his pen was inspired by dreams of home and he composed a song which never grows old.

The music to "Home, Sweet Home" was composed by Henry E. Bishop, and Payne afterwards said it was an adoption from an old Italian folk song. The music lends color to the words and the words life to the music, the combination being one in a million.

Payne died in Tunis at the age of 61. Thirty years later his body was brought back to America, his home. America today honors the composer of one of the greatest songs ever written, honors him by the rendition in millions of homes of the tune which awakens sweet memories no matter who we are or where we are.

"Home, Sweet Home" was first rendered on May 8, 1823, before a small London audience. The city went wild; the song swept around the world and is still going. Payne unknowingly erected himself a monument more lasting than the pyramids, a monument for which we are all the better for helping to perpetuate.

Francis Scott Key wrote our national anthem, but John Howard Payne wrote our national love song. —Newport News (Va.) Times-Herald.

A RICH MAN

An old German preacher had undeservedly gotten famed for being rich, because he had lived like most of the preachers of all denominations in all lands have to live—temperate in all things, economical, on small salaries.

One day out in the country he met the assessor who at once began to examine him:

"Is it so, Mr. Pastor, that you have capital?"

"Yes," said the preacher, "in a way I am a rich man."

"In that case," said the assessor, interestedly, and pulling out his book, "how much is your possession?"

"I'm enjoying good health," said the preacher, "and health is better than riches."

"Well," said the other, "What more have you?"

"I have a good wife and that's worth more than pearls."

"Congratulations," said the assessor, "but don't you own more?"

"Yes, I have healthy, well-shaped, intelligent, well-behaved children, and it's a gift from the Lord which makes me rich."

"You own anything else?" asked the assessor.

"Yes, I own citizenship in heaven and the spirit gives that assurance in my heart, that I'm a child of God."

"Don't you own any other fortune?"

"No, otherwise, I own nothing," said the preacher.

"Mr. Pastor," said the assessor, "You are a rich man, but your fortune cannot be taxed."

Rich and not paying taxes! That beats all. Let's go and get rich, ALL—J. P. Holm, in The Open Door.

ONE CONSOLATION

Breakfast was over and Adam had gone to his daily occupation of pasting the names of the animals on their cages. Eve took the parrot to one side and said: "It was this way: He made a big kick about those biscuits not being good at breakfast."

"And what did you say," asked the parrot.

"I told him there was one consolation; he couldn't say his mother ever made any better ones."

Progressive Times

¶ This is the day of the forward march. No farmer would now attempt to harvest his wheat with an old-fashioned cradle, nor thresh his grain with an old horse power machine.

¶ There's the new radio outfits, the airplanes, wireless telegraphy, submarines, hydro-electricity—a hundred new things every decade. And in money matters, are we keeping step? Most of us are. We keep a balance at the bank and pay our bills by check, instead of keeping our money somewhere about the house, subject to loss every day. Our modern Bank invites you to do business the modern way.

HAYMARKET

The schools of Gainesville district united in a May-Day celebration on last Friday at Haymarket high school which was directed by Miss Grace Moran, supervisor of graded schools and at which a large crowd of patrons and friends were present. The program was announced by Superintendent McDonald. There were two May pole dances, one by the primary and one by the older grades of Haymarket school. Little May Terrill was crowned and made a lovely and dainty queen. Her attendants were McNeal Tyler and Louise Beech. The other numbers of the program included "The Star-Spangled Banner," Catharpin; Hoop Drill, Gainesville; "Going a Maying," Waterfall; Betsy Ross and the Flag, Thoroughfare.

An interesting feature of the day was an exhibit of the work of the schools, which was very attractive and reflected much credit upon both pupils and teachers, and showed hard study and careful work. A bountiful lunch in the order of a basket picnic was enjoyed and a treat of lemonade served by the high school.

The afternoon was devoted to foot races and a game of baseball. In spite of rather unfavorable weather, the day was a pronounced success, and the celebration will, no doubt, become an annual event.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hagerdorn and children, of Washington, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Hagerdorn's mother, Mrs. F. Peters.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE

is not only the price of liberty, but the very life of a successful business. It has never been our policy to pursue the easiest way—to employ "slipshod" methods to "get" business. Our aim has been rather to "keep" business. Everything that goes to make the handling of meat safe and sanitary you will find here. As the warm weather approaches, we have to be very careful that you are protected, for the good old summer time always has its drawbacks. Now comes the fly and other pests but they cannot touch our products. Here you will be safe in buying your meats, for from the time they are killed in our inspected slaughter house until it reaches your home from our dust-proof cases, no insect can have even a speaking acquaintance with it. If we could get a consensus of the opinion of the customers we have been serving these many years we believe their voice would be of one accord, "KEEP THE QUALITY UP."
