FESTIVAL PLANS RECEIVE BOOST

Prominent Visitors Attend Directors' Meeting.

A meeting of the directors of the Piedmont Dairy Festival was held in the council chamber at the town hall in Manassas on the evening of Thursday, August 13, at which the counties of Prince William, Fauquier, Fairfax and Stafford were represented.

Ex-Mayor Glass of Winchester and Assistant Director Richards, of the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival, were also present.

Mr. Glass, who was mayor of Winchester when the first Apple Blossom Festival was held eight years ago, addressed the meeting at some length, outlining the first intention of their annual festival and the steps by which it has grown until it has become an occasion of nationwide interest. He complimented this community for its enterprise and foresight in putting on a similar festival to advertise the dairy industry, for which the Piedmont Section of Virginia is preeminently noted, and predicted that an inestimable material advantage would result from this move in addition to the intangible benefits to be derived from being host to visitors from all parts of the country.

Among the suggestions made by Mr. Glass were that the festival be held in the same place each year; that the main purpose of the festival be let the world know in what we excel; that the affair be made attractive but that the utilitarian side be the main consideration; that the organization be not too close-jointed and that the people of Piedmont, Va., be made to realize that it is their festival; that the Queen and attendants be selected from the participating counties for at least the first year; that all floats be required to measure up to a high standard; that school children of participating counties be given appropriate costumes; that a housing committee be appointed to arrange accommodations for the flood of tourists and visitors that is sure to come; to have an efficient finance committee to arrange for the funds that will be necessary, and that the various committees be headed by active chairmen. In closing he added that in order to make the festival a success it would be necessary to have the cooperation of the women of the section.

It was reported that C. T. Rice had been named Vice President from Fairfax County, and McGill Bowen and Dan Chichester selected to fill the same offices for Fauquier and Stafford Counties.

In the absence of President R. S. Hynson the meeting was presided over by Managing Director F. R. Hynson who tentatively named committees to handle the following phases of the festival, viz.:

Pageant, Program, Dance, Inviting Distinguished Guests, Parking and Traffic, Marshals of Parade, Concessions, Finance, Ways and Means, Sale of Milk, Publicity, Federal Assistance, Housing, and Floats.

October 31 was tentatively named as the date for holding the festival. It was also decided that a general mass meeting should be called at an early date to enlist the help of every one in the Piedmont Section.

The keynote of the meeting was that every man, woman and school child in the Piedmont Section must be thoroughly impressed with the idea that this is THEIR FESTIVAL.

FATAL ACCIDENT

Harvey Cornwell Killed at Triangle.

Harvey Cornwell, 25, of Triangle, was instantly killed last Saturday evening when an automobile was overturned on the Dumfries-Joplin road. The other occupants of the car were Emory Lining, Archer Lining, and Willie Lining, all of Joplin. Harvey is reported as most seriously injured, but all were taken to the hospital at Quantico. The car seems to have left the road at a high rate of speed, overturned and was completely demolished.

O. F. A. FIELD DAY

Under auspices of Greenwich Council, No. 33, Order Fraternal Americans, a Field Day will be held at Greenwich, Va., on the grounds of Mr. M. M. Washington next Saturday, August 22. There will be races, ball games, horseshoe pitching, refreshments and various other amusements. The committee is making arrangements for a large attendance.

MARK TWAIN'S SPIDER

When Mark Twain edited a newspaper in Missouri one of his subscribers wrote him that he had found a spider in his paper and wished to know whether it meant good luck or bad.

Twain replied: Finding a spider in your paper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over the paper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward.

He is attracting a crowd each evening and we are sure you won't be disappointed if you come. The services will close Sunday evening, August 30.

REV. E. H. ZIEGLER

A few of Rev. Ziegler's subjects are: Christ Seeking the Lost, Evangelizing Christians, Beliefs that Matter, Orange Blossoms, A Lost Boy, A Full Reward, The Church and You, Running Away from God, Other Sheep, Jesus—Friend of Sinners, and What do You Think of Christ?

REPORT OF FREE CLINIC FOR TYPHOID VACCINE AND TOXIN ANTI-TOXIN

The clinics closed August 15 with a total enrollment of 1371, of which 698 were white and 673 colored. Of these 168 white and 130 colored finished the Toxin Anti-Toxin treatments, and 324 white and 196 colored the Typhoid treatments. Those having only one or two inoculations were instructed to go to the family physician to finish the treatments. Sufficient vaccine will be supplied by the State Department of Health to finish the treatments free of charge and will be distributed to the county doctors named by the patients. Physicians may secure additional vaccine for free treatments by applying to the county nurse.

I regret that, being unacquainted with the county and having limited time, I was unable to advertise the clinic as widely as it should have been. I am sincerely grateful to those who so willingly helped to advertise and conduct the clinics in the several communities.

A number of adults very wisely took advantage of the opportunity to protect themselves against Typhoid Fever. I hope that none will fail to complete the treatments. Those who were not able to get to the clinics should go to their family physician and get this protection. I believe that most of the school children have had Toxin Anti-Toxin but there are still many pre-school children who have not and the little child is more susceptible to Diphtheria. Those children who had the Toxin Anti-Toxin in the clinic held in 1927 were able this year to have the Typhoid vaccine. Those who had not previously had it were given Toxin Anti-Toxin and are well protected against Typhoid Fever. Parents would be wise to see that they have this protection as soon as the doctor thinks it advisable.

M. SABINA NEEL,
County Nurse.

TRUCK OWNERS ORGANIZE

T. E. Didlake Presides at Manassas.

On Tuesday night a group of farmers and business men met at Manassas and organized a Prince William Branch of the Virginia Truck Owners Association. The objects of the organization are to promote the mutual interests of truck owners, and especially to fight any legislation which is regarded as detrimental to their interests.

The rapid expansion of freight and passenger traffic has created a number of problems which will be considered by the legislature this winter with relation to railroad taxation and the truck operators feel that only by organized action can they safeguard their interests.

Mr. T. E. Didlake presided, and after explaining the purposes of the meeting, introduced Mr. Jerome Fanchall, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Virginia Truck Owners Association, who explains the schedule of truck taxation which has been recommended by the Tax Commissioner and urged resistance to the plan.

Mr. G. C. Russell was elected chairman for Prince William County, and the following delegates were chosen to represent this county at the state meeting: A. S. Boatwright, W. E. McCoy, C. B. Roland and R. S. Hynson.

ENJOYABLE MEETING OF THE MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club of Manassas met last Thursday night in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian Church. Hospitality was dispensed by a committee of which Mr. F. R. Saunders was chairman. Dominating the bounteous refreshments were large and luscious helpings of fried chicken, pie and ice cream, interspersed with items "too numerous to mention."

The program committee was comprised of Messrs. W. C. Sadd and W. H. Lamb. After a piano recital by Master Cleveland Fisher, a reading exemplifying the heroism of the boy scout was given by Mr. Lamb. This was followed by an interesting talk on lumbering by Mr. Ralph Saunders. Then Mr. Carl Sigmund spoke interestingly on economic conditions in New York, and explained how much better situated we are in Virginia than in the great centers of population.

Mr. Lamb then appeared again on the program and gave a blackboard talk on "Life" illustrated by sketches from microscopic and other aspects of Nature as related to the ideals of men. The meeting closed with songs and all left with the feeling that while the meeting was not the largest on record, it was quite as enjoyable as any of the many interesting sessions of the Club.

DR. CLINE DIES AT DUMFRIES

Prominent Physician and Former Postmaster had Many Friends.

David C. Cline, for twenty-six years a prominent practicing physician and resident of Dumfries, Prince William County, died at his residence Sunday night at midnight after a comparatively short illness.

Dr. Cline was a native of West Virginia but had been a resident of Dumfries for slightly more than a quarter of a century and was closely identified with that section in a number of different ways. A leader in civic and community movements, Dr. Cline had long been regarded as one of the most progressive citizens of the section and had a large number of friends in Prince William, Stafford and elsewhere. He was a well known to a large number of people in Fredericksburg and frequently visited this city. In addition to his interest in matters pertaining to the general welfare and prosperity of his town and section, Dr. Cline was active in politics and for four years served as postmaster at Dumfries.

The deceased was twice married and is survived by his second wife, who was Miss Amelia G. Keys, before her marriage to Dr. Cline, and two children of that union, Hilda E. Cline and David C. Cline, jr., both of Dumfries. Four children of the former marriage survived him as follows: Mrs. Ethel McIner, of Colonial Beach; Harry Cline, of Washington; Guy M. Cline, of Quantico, and Ira Cline, of Dumfries.

The deceased was a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Heaton, rector of Aquia Church, in the Methodist Church at Dumfries Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BUS-RAILROAD HEARINGS

CONTINUED

The recent hearings in Richmond on the taxation of Railroads and Busses have been continued until September 8, when the State authorities will again consider the matter in the light of further data to be supplied by the taxation department. Members of the Governor's Commission are quoted as stating that more rhetoric than facts abounded at the hearings just closed, while statistical evidence is desired. The subject of an additional cent gas tax and the diversion of gas tax money to other state purposes besides road building as well as the relative tax burdens of railroads and bus companies will be considered on Sept. 8.

BULL RUN GRANGE HAS BIG DAY

Field Day and Tournament Draws Large Crowds.

MISS FRANCES MELTON CROWNED QUEEN

Friday, August 14, was a big day at Haymarket, where the Bull Run Grange held a Field Day and Tournament on the estate of Mrs. Franz Peters. There were many kinds of amusements and games. The Horse Shoe Pitching Contest was won by C. C. Henson, of Arlington.

The ball game, Haymarket vs. Aldie, was won by the home team by a score of 7 to 2.

The committees in charge were: Mrs. Rolfe Robertson, Miss Bailey Tyler, Robert Sadd, F. B. Cox, Bailey Tyler, Thomas L. Tyler, Thomas G. Smith, Miss Mildred Ewell, Miss Jane Lightner, Mrs. Willis Foley, Mrs. M. H. Lightner, Thomas Cornett.

The outstanding event of the day was the old-time tournament which attracted a large crowd and was well carried out. Although the sport has come down from the middle ages, it only survives in a few states, Virginia being one of them. The winners of the tournament were: Seymour H. Henson, Knight of Arlington, first; Rolfe Robertson, Knight of One Hundred Oaks, second; Carl Smith, Knight of Golden Eagle, third; Tom Smith, Knight of Old Dominion. Other knights who entered and who thrilled the spectators with their equestrian accomplishments and gallantry were: C. E. Wilkerson, Knight of Bull Run Grange; George Gosson, Knight of Hickory Grove; S. L. Gulick, Knight of Loudoun; J. P. Smith, Knight of Haymarket; H. B. Foley, Knight of Cloverland; Howard Melton, Knight of Prince William; Harry Lynn, Knight of Mill Park; T. Ewell, Knight of Blue Ridge; Bernard Smith, Knight of Stepeny; Edward Carter, Knight of Long Ago.

In conformity with the ancient custom the knights lined up and received the charge, which was eloquently delivered by Mr. Hawes Davies, and in the evening, also as has been customary from time immemorial, the Queen of Love and Beauty was crowned by the winner and, together with her maids of honor, reigned at the ball. Miss Frances Melton was crowned Queen, Mrs. Rolfe Robertson, First Maid of Honor; Miss Jane Lightner, Second Maid of Honor; Mrs. Tom Smith, Third Maid of Honor. The coronation address was delivered by Hon. John Rust, of Fairfax.

DEATH OF ELDER

T. S. DALTON

Elder T. S. Dalton died very suddenly at his home, 3800 Green Mount avenue, Baltimore, Md., on July 30. Elder Dalton was 85 years old and had enjoyed perfect health up to the time of his death.

He had been a minister of the gospel for 63 years, and served three churches when the end came—one at Manassas, one at Bethel, and one in Washington, D. C., where he preached twice a month.

He was born in Robertson County, Tenn., and was the son of Tolbert S. and Angeline Mathews Dalton. He was for a number of years the Editor of the Advocate and Messenger, one of the Primitive Baptist Church papers, which is now being published by Elder R. H. Pittman, of Luray, Va.

To know Elder Dalton was to love him, and we feel sure when the end came he was able to say, "I am now ready to be offered, the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith; therefore, is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me." Written by one who knew and loved him.

FUNDS ALLOCATED FOR FAIRFAX CUT-OFF
$900,000 Distributed among Eight Districts.

On Monday the State Highway Department announcement the allocation of approximately $900,000 for road work in the eight construction districts of the State. These funds, together with the money to be made available by the Federal Government, are expected to provide work for the construction forces of the State until about November 1.

The allocations are based on the ratio of area, population and road mileage in each district to that of the State as a whole.

Culpeper District will use its allotment on two projects—the Fairfax Cut-Off and a stretch in Madison County between Criglersville and Dodson's Store.

The Fairfax Cut-Off has been projected for some time, but no funds have been available up to this time, and there has also been a local road contest going on in Fairfax which has caused the Department to announce that it would take no part in the local fight at Fairfax. The Supervisors of the County and the Town Council have gone on record as favoring the immediate widening of the highway through the town. A number of prominent citizens of the community have opposed the widening of the street, or at least, have urged the building of the cut-off before the town work was done, so there would be an adequate detour.

The present announcement would indicate that the Fairfax Cut-Off will be built first. The new road will leave the present route of the Lee Highway at the Black Lantern Inn, about a mile west of the Court house and will cross the Huddleson Farm, coming into the Lee Highway east of Fairfax in the vicinity of Gibson's Garage.

In many sections of the country it has been found that arterial highways through the main business street of the town are detrimental to business growth, and where strenuous fights have been made to achieve such a situation, later such communities have sought relief. So it is felt in the present situation at Fairfax, that the new cut-off will actually mark the beginning of real growth at the old county seat.

The amount made available for the Fairfax project is $85,000 and for the Madison county work, $16,000.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

Life and Good Days:—He that will love, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.—1 Peter 3: 10.

A DESPERATE SUGGESTION

The Federal Farm Board has suggested to the Southern States that every third row of cotton be plowed under to sustain the market price. The suggestion is a valuable one, not because it is a practical nor advisable, but because it serves to emphasize the desperate situation of the Hoover Administration. Unless something satisfactory comes from administration headquarters which at least will help the American people to bear their sad predicament, Republicanism is doomed in the next National election.

Republican relief to Agriculture has been a tragedy in statesmanship. From the Federal Farm Board down, or up, whichever way it may be regarded, the various schemes of succor have been political clap-trap with which to ensnare the vote. Now, in all seriousness, we have the Hoover administration advising the farmer to commit an economic crime. The willful destruction of God-sent products of the field will never solve the economic problems of any nation, and those who have made the suggestion should blush with shame at its mention.

The Federal Farm Board did not offer to destroy a third of the cotton now held by the government as a part of its price stabilization program. Instead they asked the planter to destroy his third in a desperate attempt to bolster the market prices. If plowing under a third of his wealth will help the planter, why not plow it all under and prosper sure enough!

Of all of the blunders of President Hoover, this is the worst. The suggestion will long be remembered, not as a possible remedy, but as concrete evidence of Administration Desperation.

THE TOURNAMENT

Last Friday at Haymarket an old-time tournament was held under auspices of one of our fraternal organizations. The event was well attended. There was a gratifying number of entries and the success of the tournament indicates that this ancient sport, which has come down to us from the Middle Ages, is not yet ready to pass into oblivion. It was noticed, however, that the most accomplished knights were not the youngest boys on the grounds.

The Tournaments, with its attendant sociabilities, is worthy of perpetuation. When "Knighthood was in Flower" these events were more desperate in character, but they represented the essence of chivalry, that gallant institution which carried honorable manhood and deference to womanhood through the Dark Ages and to fruition in our best Christian citizenship today.

It is to be hoped that the Tournament will continue to have representatives among our sports, not only for sentimental reasons but because of the many accomplishments which it cultivates.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

(Editorial PUBLIC MANAGEMENT August 1931)

He never appears before committees of the city council at public hearings, telling the councilmen what the people want. Nor does he write letters to the newspapers. He doesn't even read the letters that other people write. The chamber of commerce, the taxpayers' association do not count him among their members. He hasn't signed a petition for or against anything in a dozen years. He isn't organized, can't be mobilized, and won't be hypnotized by the palaver of politicians. Because he makes no noise we call him the silent voter; between elections his interests and desires are crowded out of the way by his more vociferous fellow citizens he is the forgotten man of municipal politics.

Yet when the polls are opened he is often the most influential factor in the whole electorate. When the ballots are counted it frequently appears that he has turned the trick. Indeed, when upsets and surprises come on election day it is usually because somebody has failed to reckon with the potential sovereignty of the forgotten man. With a ballot in his hand he has become articulate, and as a rule he votes his resentment rather than his appreciation. He resents the fact that no one, in the seats of the mighty, has regarded his interests or paid heed to his unuttered opinions.

No one need tell him that the city administration is flawless if the garbage collectors come irregularly, or if the sewage backs up into his cellar, or if he can't locate a policeman when he wants one. The city government may forget him; but he does not overlook the sins of omission when the time comes.

Pressure-groups and propagandists obtain too much solicitude, day in and day out, from our public officials. Someone should make it his business to look out for the silent multitudes whose opinions cannot be ascertained except by being sought, or they also are of the kingdom of democracy.

SUPERB POLITICS

The Hoover scheme for unemployment relief next winter—is so beautifully simple that we do not see how it can fail to work. It may not do the unemployed much good, but it can hardly fail to rebound to the advantage of Mr. Hoover. As relief its efficacy remains to be tested, but as politics it is obviously superb.

The scheme in essence is that people shall contribute to charity next fall precisely as they always have contributed, but that this year Mr. Hoover shall be given credit for their contributions. The Federal Government is not to give anything, but is simply to be thanked for what private individuals give. This is to be accomplished by having all the drives for all Community Funds made between October 19 and November 25 and the results reported to Washington. The same campaign workers who went out last year and all the previous years will go out again this year and struggle to collect the money. The same people who have given to these funds in previous years are expected to give again this year. The Federal Government will not put up a dollar, will not pay for so much as a postage stamp, will not assume responsibility for any office rent or printing bill. But in December Mr. Hoover will be able to go before Congress, point to the total amount contributed to all the Community Funds, and say "See what we have done."—Baltimore Evening Sun.

THE HIGH FUNCTION OF HUMOR

The weeds which have grown up over many a deserted miniature golf course throughout the country suggest an inquiry as to why the popularity of this open-air recreation seems to have waned so quickly. A Pittsburgh owner stoutly maintains the newspaper jokesmiths "are to blame for the failure of the business," and that "the public would have stuck to the game if the professional fun pokers had left us alone."

Perhaps there is an undercurrent of sound fact in what the promoter says, but if shafts of exaggeration and displays of wit have anything to do with displacing popular customs and tastes, then the "tin chariot" called the Ford car would long since have found its way to the scrap-heap, and the noble game of golf itself have given way to other types of amusement. Probably no sport lends itself so easily to the quips and bars of the humorist as does parlor ping-pong, and yet this recreation is finding a new haven for itself in basements and attics where whole families enjoy buffeting the white balls across a table top. No, there are probably other reasons to account for the decline of miniature golf—disappearance of novelty, too many courses, sizable fees charged for playing, the fact that miniature golf is a modification of a more strenuous game with more difficult hazards. Possibly it did not win and keep very many adherents from competing pastimes. Kindly humor never drove any custom or institution into oblivion, if these deserved to thrive as useful and helpful adjuncts to work and play. Rollicking wit does little real harm to a thing possessing merit, may indeed give that article just the advertisement needed for more general acceptance. At its best, humor clarifies, sweetens, mellows; it does not destroy.—Christian Science Monitor.

HOME-MIXED DAIRY GRAIN MIXTURES RECOMMENDED

The concentrate mixture formulas which follow are recommended to enable Prince William dairymen to make use of their home-grown grains with the minimum of expenditure for protein supplement materials. From late quotations it appears that peanut meal, cotton seed meal, linseed oil meal and 32% protein supplement mixtures are the cheapest sources of purchased protein. It is believed that some wheat bran should be used in all home-mixed concentrate mixtures, both from the standpoint of supplying protein and adding the bulk needed in mixtures containing coarsely ground wheat. It is advisable to add common salt to the mixtures at the rate of 1%. With Good Legume Hay and Corn Silage or Good Pasture.

THE BOY YOU CAN TRUST

He's prompt on the job when the meetings begin,
 With his hand at salute and his face in a grin;

He pays strict attention to all that is said,
 And the words that are spoken stick tight in his head.

His dues and assessments are never behind,
 He's ready for service of any kind.

When orders are given, he'll do them or bust,

He's a boy you can bank on, the boy you can trust!

He doesn't suspect, but it's true all the same,
 That he's getting his training for playing life's game.

He'll find, when he's older, as others have found,

There aren't enough boys like that to go 'round,

Who tackle their work with a resolute heart,

Determined to finish whatever they start.

And if you'd succeed in this world you must

Be sure you're the kind of a boy folks can trust!

A Two-Dollar Dinner for Six

THE times are looking up, but it's still worth the time of an economical housewife to plan a good, substantial dinner for six people which will not cost more than two dollars. Some housewives haven't the time to spare, so we have had our dietitian do it for them. Here's the menu:

- Pork Chops with Grilled Pineapple $0.65
- Baked Sweet Potatoes $0.20
- French Artichokes, Mock Hollandaise $0.20
- Boleyn Bread and Butter $0.15
- Baked Apple de Lusse $0.41
- Coffee $0.15

Pork Chops with Grilled Pineapple: Fry one and one-half pounds of pork chops as usual and remove to a hot platter. Meanwhile drain the slices from one 12-ounce can of pineapple, place on the broiler rack and brown under flame until golden brown on both sides.

Baked Apple de Lusse: Core six medium apples, and pare half way down. Combine one and one-half cups water, one cup sugar, the syrup from one 8-ounce can of strawberries and twelve red cinnamon candies, and boil five minutes. Pour this syrup into a baking dish, place the apples in it, pared side down, and bake ten minutes in a hot—400°—oven. Turn the apples right side up, fill cavities with the strawberries, and dot with two tablespoons butter. Continue baking until tender, basting often. At the end sprinkle six tablespoons sugar over the tops and place under broiler flame until glazed.

GAMBLING RACKET

In an interview with United States Attorney General William D. Mitchell, gambling is shown to be the leading racket in America. Income tax prosecutions against organized gangsters reveal that bootlegging is only a drop in the bucket and that not over 20 per cent of their revenue came from the liquor traffic. It's the "big money boys" playing for high stakes in games of chance who top the list, according to Mr. Mitchell, whose opinions on the gambling racket are given in an article appearing next Sunday in the magazine section of The Washington Star.

IN MEMORIAM

After a lingering illness of over two years and much suffering born with Christian patience, Dr. David C. Cline of Dumfries, Va., passed to a deserved rest Sunday night, Aug. 16, in his home, age 63 years. Dr. Cline has been the beloved physician of a large territory for 26 years. He came to this county in March of 1925 from Wardensville, W. Va. His funeral was conducted in the Methodist Church South of Dumfries Wednesday, Aug. 19. Officiating ministers were Rev. Mr. Henry Heaton, pastor of Aquia E. P. Church of which Dr. Cline was a member, and Rev. Mr. A. H. Shumate, friend, and pastor of Quantico Charge. The many beautiful floral pieces and the large crowd attending attested his friendship and esteem.

He leaves three sons and one daughter, Ethel, Harry, Guy and Ira, by a former marriage in W. Va., and a daughter and son, Hilda E. and David C., jr., by a latter marriage to Miss Annie G. Keys, of Joplin, Va.

Let not your hearts be troubled: Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you into myself: that where I am there ye may be also.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

St. John 14:1-2-3-27.

here's a way TO KEEP YOUNG

LET electricity do the hard, beauty robbing household tasks. Cooking, for instance. No woman can hope to keep her beauty if she has to slave over a hot stove in a hot kitchen.

One Virginia* woman recently told us: "My electric range has really added years to my life. My kitchen is always cool, it's a pleasure to work there. And my range is so fast and so accurate that I have more time for relaxation. It gives me extra hours."

You ought to have an electric range in your kitchen. There's no soot to soil walls or ceilings. It's easy to keep clean. The heat is concentrated just where you want it. An electric range simplifies cooking and baking.

See the beautiful new electric ranges today. Prices are lower than ever before, and you can have one installed for as little as $6.38 per month on the Budget Plan. This summer, have a cool kitchen—one that helps you stay young.
