Roland Well Known in Manassas.

Appointment of Lawrence E. Roland as commercial superintendent for the Alexandria district to succeed T. R. Harrell, who has been transferred to Norfolk as commercial superintendent for the Tidewater district, effective April 15, has just been announced by Charles H. Weber, general manager of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia.

LAWRENCE E. ROLAND

This northern Virginia district includes central offices at Alexandria, Clarendon, Culpeper, Fairfax, Herndon, Leesburg, Madison, Marshall, Orange, Gordonsville, Purcellville, and Warrenton.

William H. Hiatt of Richmond succeeds Mr. Roland as manager of the Alexandria office. Mr. Hiatt has been connected with the company at Richmond since July 11, 1927. His first employment was as clerk in the division office, later counter clerk, then chief clerk, assistant manager, later clerk to the general commercial manager, and at the time of his present appointment was district commercial supervisor.

He is a member of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce and of Tau Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities.

Mr. Roland, the new commercial superintendent, is a native of Alexandria and was educated in the public schools and at St. Johns College and the National University Law School, Washington. From the latter institution he received an LL.B. degree. He entered the service of the telephone company as a clerk in the Alexandria telephone business office in August 26, 1923. Subsequently he was appointed collection supervisor, a position he held until February 1929, when he was appointed manager at Winchester. In April of the same year he was transferred to the commercial engineering department at Richmond, but returned to Alexandria as manager in October.

He is a charter member of the Alexandria Rotary Club and has been active in the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce and the Citizens Association. He is interested in Boy Scout work and is a member of Sigma Delta Kappa fraternity.

SWAVELY BOYS SING FOR CLUB

Kiwanians Get Unusual Musical Treat.

After Bob Hutchison finished presenting Raymond Ratcliffe with a birthday cake Friday night, the members of the Kiwanis Club moved back their chairs, while the Swavely Glee Club filed in.

Their singing was more than good and the club showed its appreciation in its volume of applause. There was something inspiring as the young men closed with the well-known phrase, "I Am the Master of My Fate—I Am the Captain of My Soul."

At President Al's invitation, the lads sat down to partake of ice cream and cake, while Col. Bob introduced the hero-pitcher of Swavely, who that very afternoon had conquered Gonzaga school in a no-hit, no-run game. The young athlete had a slight struggle when called on to speak but pinch-hit very well, and modestly told the story of the conflict in a few words.

President Al transmitted a message from the district governor concerning the increase of membership of all Kiwanis clubs.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Editor, Manassas Journal, Manassas, Virginia.

Dear Sir:

I wish by this method to express the appreciation of myself individually, and on behalf of Virginia Forest Fire Service, for the very valuable assistance extended this department by the Aviation Corp. at Quantico, by reason of reporting its observance of fires which could not be discovered where proper officers could give prompt relief.

Too often we criticize the various department of the National and State Government and fail to appreciate and give credit for the service they render our community; and I adopt this means of expressing publicly the appreciation of the department and of the undersigned.

J. M. RUSSELL,
Chief Fire Warden,
Prince William Co.

O. D. WATERS HONORED

Only Virginian to Be Commissioned This June.

Only one Virginian of four hundred in the graduating class of the Naval Academy this June will be commissioned and Manassas has the distinction of claiming this young man—Odale D. Waters. He ranks only seventh in his class. Mr. Waters is a young man of unusual ability and The Journal predicts a future for him in our Navy.

OPERETTA AT MANASSAS

Bennett Pupils Will Entertain on April 22.

LECTION HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

Last Meeting Brings Out Important Facts.

Manassas Post No. 158, American Legion, held its regular meeting on Thursday night, April 7, in the Town Hall with Commandant Edgar Parrish presiding.

There are 127 men in the county who are eligible, and the Post hopes to have full hundred in billet before 1932 shuts down.

Paul Williams was appointed a special committee to investigate worthy cases where it is believed that veterans are not receiving proper compensation.

Commander Parrish stressed the value of the Post not only to its constituency but to the community at large as a permanent factor in civic enterprise.

Department Adjutant Glenn Elliott will be in town shortly with the state drill team for instruction purposes. Prince William is entitled to a live post and the organizers are going the limit to see an institution so necessary to ex-service men is properly put on its feet.

Colonel Elliott is expected to lend his aid in having one of the state quarterly meetings held in Manassas in the next few months.

HISTORIC HOME WILL BE OPEN FOR GARDEN WEEK

Through the courtesy of Richard Crane, present owner of Westover, home of William Byrd II, founder of the city of Richmond, this ancient colonial home, built in 1735, will be open to visitors during Virginia visiting Garden Week, April 25 to 30, inclusive, according to an announcement which has just been authorized by the Garden Club of Virginia. Visiting Garden Week is sponsored by the Garden Club in the interest of restoring Stratford, birthplace of three famous Lees.

BYRD OFFERS COMPROMISE

Proposes Vote by States on Dry Amendment.

Former Governor Harry Flood Byrd, of Virginia, a life-long advocate of prohibition, occupied the center of the stage at the Jefferson Day dinner in Washington on Wednesday, when he made the proposal for a State Referendum on Prohibition.

"The prohibition law and all other laws must be enforced," the former Governor said, "but we must recognize that no law is stronger than the public sentiment to sustain it."

In the presence of fifteen hundred guests, the proposal was made after a sensational declaration by former Alfred E. Smith, of New York, that he would fight the nomination of Governor Roosevelt. "I will take off my coat and fight to the end," the former Presidential nominee declared.

Governor Byrd's proposal, which has created a national sensation, would require two separate votes to settle the question; one would provide an amendment permitting the people to vote directly on the question, and not legislatures or conventions, and the other to resubmit the Eighteenth Amendment.

The statement made by Alfred Smith that precipitated the Byrd plan was as follows:

"If this party desires to adhere to the principles of Jefferson, if it wishes to be true to itself and to the people of this country, it must at Chicago in no uncertain terms and in a language of the clear kind that Jefferson could write, declare for the return to the States of the power to control the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquor."

MONTHLY MEET- ING OF U. D. C.

Delegates Selected for District Meeting at Standardsville.

The monthly meeting of Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., was held at the home of Mrs. Guy Allen with Mrs. James Knox assistant hostess. Mrs. T. J. Ashford, president, presided. After opening prayer the minutes were approved and adopted.

The treasurer, Mrs. Byrd, reported all financial obligations had been met, with a registered enrollment of 103 members.

The registrar, Mrs. Albert Speiden, presented a certificate of membership for Miss Senie Cockrell.

A donation was made to library for books on Southern literature.

Mrs. R. A. Hutchison and Mrs. J. B. Thornton were appointed a committee to serve with Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson to purchase these books. The members of the chapter presented the library with a book entitled "The South in American Life and History."

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. A. Newman, was requested to write letter of sympathy to Mr. Eppe Hunton IV in death of his father, one of Prince William's most beloved and honored sons.

The following delegates were elected to represent this chapter at the district convention, U. D. C., to be held in Standardsville, Green county, Va., April 14 and 15: Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, Mr. T. J. Ashford, Mrs. Robt. Smith, Mrs. Compton, with the following alternates: Mrs. J. Jenkyn Davies, Mrs. E. H. Margstaller, Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, Mrs. Herbert Nash. Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. C. A. Sinclair and Mrs. T. J. Ashford were a committee to decide on subject of essay to be written by the students of the eighth grade in competition for the prize given by Mr. C. A. Sinclair in memory of his mother, Mrs. Ella Armstead Sinclair.

There being no further business, the historian, Mrs. Robt. Hutchison, took charge of meeting. Sketch of Father Ryan, poet-priest of the Confederacy, was read, also article criticizing the state board of education for adopting Muzie's history as text book in the schools.

During social period refreshments were served which were appetizing and daintily served in the Confederate colors. There were twenty-seven members present with two guests, Mrs. Jeter of Atlanta, Ga., and little Miss Nancy Lee Jenkins, youthful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ann Jenkins.

A BOY AIN'T BAD

When he bursts indoors,
And tears things up,
A boy ain't bad,
He's just a "pup."

When he goes outdoors,
With a noisy bolt,
A boy ain't bad,
He's just a "colt."

When he sasses back,
With words that bite,
A boy ain't bad,
He thinks he's "right."

But, when at night,
Ma tucks him in,
And sees his broad and loving grin,
Her mother-heart most bursts with joy!
Her boy ain't bad—he's just a boy!

Till now, gardeners could not get a spray that would kill both sucking and chewing insects. Those who didn't know one bug from another often lost a whole crop in spite of spraying. But now, in Nicotine Pyrox, there is one spray that kills all 31 common types of insect, sucking and chewing bugs alike, and controls plant diseases. All you have to do is mix it with water, and spray. It settles on the foliage in a fine mist, and sticks through hardest rains. Get it today and protect your garden!

NOKESVILLE

We are exceedingly sorry to report that little Jimmy Free, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Free, died in the Children's Hospital at Washington, Tuesday morning about 7 o'clock. The little fellow had been suffering from pneumonia. He was buried in Manassas at 2 o'clock Wednesday.

At a time like this words mean little, but we use them here to convey the regrets and sincere sympathy of the entire community, to the grief-stricken family.

Charles B. Fitzwater, Jr., was quite sick last week with influenza, but is now convalescent.

Mrs. Joseph Manuel, who has been ill with the flu for the past ten days, is gradually improving.

Mrs. Wesley King has been on the sick list for the past week.

Mrs. L. B. Heflin of this community, who has been seriously ill for three weeks, is now regaining her health.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Gough last week and presented them with a bouncing ten-pound boy. Mother and son are doing nicely. At last, Mr. Gough has that partner he's been needing in his barbering business. That boy will have to "get up in the morning" to cut hair like his daddy tho'.

Dr. and Mrs. Hume left Saturday, by auto, to spend the week end visiting friends in Richmond and Cartersville, Va. They returned Monday morning.

The local high school nine lost their initial fray to the Occoquan boys last Friday by a score of 4-1. It was a closer game than the score indicated. The boys are rounding into form quickly and will undoubtedly give a better accounting soon.

The Greenwich Rebels opened their season by taking a practice tilt from the Brentsville high boys to the tune of 5-4. The high school boys took the lead early in the game and didn't relinquish it until the final inning. In the final frame the Rebs shoved over two runs thus taking the lead. They held the opposition scoreless in their offensive half of the inning.

The Rebs met last week for the purpose of organizing. Mazyk Wood was re-elected president of the club and Newman Hopkins was given the secretarial job for a second term. Randall Foster, last year's captain, will hold his position until the entire club is together to elect another. During the evening new uniforms were ordered and a schedule arranged for the coming season.

The Rebels will face some stiff opposition this year. Games are already booked with such teams as Alexandria, Triangle, Annandale and Bristowburg. Out of nineteen starts last season, the Greenwich boys won fifteen. They look forward to another good season.

The club has suffered the loss of two veterans, Grim, catcher, and Gum, third-sacker. However, Vernon Wood, Brentsville high star, has been signed and will probably work behind the plate. Several other additions to the club are being considered. With the return of John Hopkins, sophomore at Duke University, the line-up will be complete.

WIND FROM THE SHORE

Wind from the shore, slow-lifting waves—serrated

By vibrant ripples—dark'ning as they rise

From changing grays to green—the sun belated—

Dropping half-radiance through misty skies.

Far on the dim horizon, slowly trailing,

Two barges beat across the bay again,

One in a patch of mirrored sunlight sailing,

The other softly veiled by blowing rain.

Quiet on shore, where waves to gentle measure

Caress in cadence unresisting stones—

Echoing memories of hidden treasure—

That rise and vanish with those rhythmic tones!

Wind from the shore—almost tranquility—

But shore winds call us—call us—far at sea!

DEATH OF MR. AND MRS. W. H. HIXSON

Double Funeral Held in Washington.

Death claimed two former residents of Loudoun county last week, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Hixson passing away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Florence H. Davis, 1368 Kenyon street, Washington, D. C. Mr. Hixson died on Tuesday afternoon, after a brief illness with complications, and Mrs. Hixson died a short time later, death being due to pneumonia.

Double funeral services were held at the Davis home on Friday morning, conducted by a Washington minister. Services were held at the Middleburg Baptist church on Friday afternoon, with interment in Sharon cemetery. Rev. Wirt Trainham, pastor of the Marshall Baptist church, their former pastor, conducted the services.

Mr. Hixson was born near Dover, Va., on Nov. 14, 1855. He married Miss Martha Ellen Loveless, of Leesburg, on Jan. 9, 1879. They resided at Little River for many years, where Mr. Hixson was engaged in farming. They were the parents of eight children, six of whom survive. They are Claudius T. Hixson, of Leesburg; Mrs. Florence H. Davis, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Ada H. Wise, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Mazie H. Lowe, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; Mrs. Lydia H. Bondurant and Mrs. Mary H. Hamlett, of Farmville, Va. He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. Tacie Tiffany, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Bertie Swart, of Middleburg; Mrs. Georgia Cerruthers, of Aldie, and Mrs. Parmelia Shoemaker, of Glen Dale, Md., and 14 grandchildren.

The first Mrs. Hixson died on March 10, 1892, and Mr. Hixson married Miss Annie Wright, of Aldie, on April 2, 1895. The latter is survived by two brothers, Joseph Wright, of California, and Hamilton Wright, of Montana.

Mr. Hixson, who was well and favorably known in the Little River section, led a quiet and unassuming life and was devoted to his family. He was actively engaged in farming at Little River until 1920, when he removed to Farmville, Va., he again engaged in farming, retiring about two years later. He and Mrs. Hixson then removed to Washington and made their home with Mrs. Davis.

The pall bearers for Mr. Hixson were six of his nephews, Robert Tiffany, Luck Tiffany, Garland Tiffany, Clarence Schooley, John Tiffany, and William Wildman.

SAFE FROM ALL EVIL:
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.—Psalm 121: 7.

TENNIS COURT NEEDED

Among the various facilities in Manassas available for recreation, no tennis court seems to be included. There are many here who would enjoy this exhilarating form of athletics and we pass the suggestion along for what it is worth that some group of interested citizens should consider ways and means of providing a tennis court at Manassas.

THE TITANIC DISASTER

Twenty years ago today one of the greatest maritime disasters occurred in the sinking of the Titanic, caused by collision with an iceberg.

Approximately 1600 lives were sacrificed amid heart-rending scenes of heroism, the outstanding example of fortitude consisting in the gallantry of the men who went to their doom by choice, when by strength and according to the law of self-preservation, they could have sacrificed the weak and the helpless.

FARM WAGES

Information released from the Department of Agriculture at Richmond indicates that farm wages are lowest since 1916. The greatest decline is reported from the Southern and Southeastern sections of the State, where tobacco, cotton and peanuts are the principal crops. It is stated that the average farm wage by the day with board is now less than a dollar for the first time since the beginning of the World War. The supply of labor is said to be much greater than the demand, which is less than usual because of the farmer's lack of money for paying labor. The supply of labor is reported as 78 per cent greater than the demand, while a year ago it was 69 per cent.

When we consider these facts and view the kind of rescue measures which are proposed by the Administration of Herbert Hoover for the restoration of agricultural prosperity, and read the glossy campaign promises that were made by the Republican party four years ago, it is hard to believe that Virginia would ever again turn from her traditional Democracy, no matter who was selected as the national standard bearer. It will only be upon Democratic lines that prosperity will ever be restored to the masses of the people.

LINDBERGH OUTWITTED

As we went to press last week we shared a country-wide feeling of conviction that negotiations in the Lindbergh kidnapping had reached a stage where the safe return of the child was momentarily expected.

Within a few hours following our statement last week definite information became public to the effect that a fifty-thousand dollar ransom had been paid. The facts constitute an amazing story, out of which developed the disappointing conclusion that after receiving money, under promise that no trick would be attempted in its payment, the child was not returned.

Evidently suspecting what kidnapers with their high-keyed sense of "honor" would consider treachery, the return of the child was deferred, with the result, now widely believed to be unfortunate, that Colonel Lindbergh, in his frantic dilemma, published the numbers of the bills paid to the kidnapers, thus substantiating their apparent fear that, contrary to promises, a trap was being laid.

Under the present situation, a fear is growing in the public mind that the child will never be restored alive. No one will be disposed to criticize the Colonel in his decision to publish the money numbers, but many will fear that he has been very indiscreet in view of the possible reaction on the part of the ghouls with whom he has sought to deal.

Cherry Hill, Va.
The Editor Manassas Journal,
Dear Sir:

The past two years of depression has taken its toll from every industrial and commercial organization, farmer and individual alike, and we see no bright prospect just around the corner as so many of our leading citizens would have us believe.

There is no good reason to assume or to expect any change in these conditions before 1932. What we need just now is the courage to face things as we find them, and just so long as the buying power of twenty-five per cent of our people is curtailed through lack of employment, and the industrial and commercial organizations through lack of market for their surplus commodities, and the farmer through his inability to get a fair price for his product, we will find our economic structure foundering in a mass of uncertainty.

There are hundreds of economical doctors prescribing daily to these patients and their medicine has failed to bring about one single cure. Great efforts have been made by our Congress to cure the banking system of the country through large appropriations, however, this has not fully served its purpose.

Every effort made by this Congress and previous ones to cure the farmer's ills has only intensified the already deplorable situation. We cannot blame the Congress for all these difficulties. Our farming is as diversified in the many states that constitute this Union as all of our other individual industrial organizations. No one remedy or one dozen remedies can bring relief to all.

What effects our country today, effects every country on this globe, and the recovery of any single one will reflect to all others.

We are having much trouble just now to balance the budgets of our Ship of State, National, and County alike through increase taxation in some cases, and in other cases the slashing and cutting of salaries of employees and the general trimming down of budgets at the expense of our school systems and other important agencies.

In the State of Virginia we have 100 counties, sub-divisions of the State and functioning as independent Governments, partly supported by State aid in some cases, in other cases special taxes is levied on the people. All these separate systems of Governments are a duplication of functions and is it any wonder then that the farmer calls for relief?

Virginia is strictly a farming State and the farmer should be given some encouragement.

The number of our counties should be reduced to 25 thus eliminating 75 per cent of our county system of local government. Our county school system should be directed by the State Board of Education thus relieving the counties of this function, and directly relieving all school boards that now function under the county system.

The centralization of our county school system would be an important economical step in bringing about a unified system in all of our educational units, and would materially reduce the cost of our school system.

No large organization can function economically and properly without a centralized head and this is just as true in government as in large corporations.

The hundreds of little towns with less than 500 population and which is incorporated, should be taken over by the State Highway Department for upkeep.

Many improvements in State Government has been made in the past few years. However, there is much to be improved on before we have a perfect business system that will be better and much cheaper for the people.

Our State is top heavy with its sub-divisions and other functioning bodies that run cost of government up to the breaking point. We cannot go on borrowing money and increasing taxes if we are to survive and keep our credit sound. We must live within our income and keep taxes down by the reorganization of our worn-out and obsolete State machinery.

"SUICIDE FLEET" IS
THRILLING STORY

"Suicide Fleet," the big attraction at the Dixie Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, is destined to win acclaim as one of the screen's outstanding achievements. This RKO special is a motion picture with all of the sweep of the epic silent films, enhanced by the dramatic power that dialogue and sound add in realism. Filmed on a grand scale with entire divisions of Navy vessels participating, it is a big picture in every sense of the word.

The picture tells in graphic and thrilling fashion the story of the war adventures of three sailor pals. The men are aboard a destroyer that finds and sinks a German mystery ship and later are part of the crew manning a duplicate vessel which acts as a decoy for enemy submarines. Especially notable are the sea battle scenes in which destroyers and submarines carry out actual fighting maneuvers and send real ships to the bottom.

Excellent performances are given by Bill Boyd, Robert Armstrong, James Gleason, Ginger Rogers and Harry Bannister, the leads. Some ed. Lew Lipton gets the laurels for five thousand sailors participate in the production. Albert Rogell directs the screen play based upon Commander Herbert A. Jones' story and P. McGrew Willis takes the bows for the dialogue.

Miss Ruby Keyes is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wine near Fredericksburg.

The play, "That Blond Person," which was put on by the Hayfield 4-H Club in the Odd Fellows Hall Saturday night, was quite a success. Each of the actors rendered their parts splendidly, showing real talent and training. Altho the attendance was small, a very nice little sum was realized and all that were present gave the verdict of a splendid play. Good singing and a happy time. Three cheers for the 4-H Club!

Little Emma Shetlock was among those to go to the hospital in Washington last week for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. She was able to return to her home Thursday and is getting on very nicely.

Friends of Mrs. Betty Ashby are glad to welcome her home again after having spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Crabtree, at Catlett. Mrs. Ashby seems to be in good health and is as spry as a young chicken. Look out, widowers.

Mrs. Charles Linton entertained at luncheon Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Edward Gouldin of Fredericksburg, who was a recent bride. The guests were Mrs. Linton's mother, Mrs. Forrest Tayloe, and Miss Virginia Tayloe of Chatterton, Mrs. Clyde F. Miller of Washington, Mrs. Edward Gouldin and Mrs. Julia Gouldin of Fredericksburg, and Mrs. Walter Wine.

Mr. Bence Cole is still quite sick and is as yet unable to leave his room.

Mrs. Poole and son, Billy, are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herring. Billy is attending Hayfield school.

Miss Dorothy Linton was a weekend guest of her grandmother, Mrs. James Luck of Manassas.

Mr. John Wine of Waynesboro was a visitor in the neighborhood last week.

With so much rainy weather it looks as tho' the early gardens will have to be late ones as very few people have been able to do any plowing as yet.

Cards have been received here from our home demonstrator inviting all the women of Prince William to join the "More Living From Your Garden and Pantry Shelves" campaign. We hope that every woman in the neighborhood will enter into this campaign, thus helping to take the "press" out of depression.

Rev. A. H. Shumate of Dumfries will preach at the hall, Sunday, April 17, at 2:30 p.m. Mr. Shumate is a splendid speaker and a treat is in store for all those who attend. Let's all be there and show our appreciation.

Mr. Herbert Keys has been sick with flu for the past two weeks and unable to work at Quantico where he is employed by Mr. Chas. Linton. Mr. Linton is building a large swimming pool there for the use of the officers and enlisted men on the Post.

Miss Belle Kincheloe is spending the week with Mrs. E. L. Herring.

Mr. L. F. Murrel had the misfortune to have his hand badly bitten by a hog. Dr. William dressed it for him and from last reports he was getting on nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oleyar and family attended the movies in Manassas Wednesday night to see the George Washington film. Mr. Luther Carter took up a load of pupils from Hayfield school to see the picture also.

Mr. C. M. Long has returned from a Washington hospital where he has been for eye treatment. On his way home Sunday the automobile in which he was riding was overturned, but he was not seriously injured.

Acrobat, Aviator and Sculptor
Are Pie for This Man

Paul Lukas, one of Paramount's most popular featured players, has portrayed many and various roles in his career as a talkie actor. He has been an acrobat, an aviator, a painter, a diplomat, and a sculptor.

He was an acrobat in "Buddy" Rogers' "Half Way to Heaven"; an aviator in "Young Eagles," also starring Rogers; a painter in "Women Love Once," with Eleanor Boardman; and a sculptor in his current picture, "The Beloved Bachelor," in which he plays the title role.

In "The Beloved Bachelor," he is a man who is beloved of three women. The first is a French woman who has been model and inspiration for his earlier works of art. The second is an actress who, through a misunderstanding, suspects him of having a dishonorable "past"—and the third is the young daughter of the now deceased model.

The play is a delightfully romantic one, with Lukas' characterization bringing a romantic glamor to the action throughout — and with the side-bursting comedy bits provided by Charlie Ruggles bringing a high levity in just the right spots.

ADEN

Rain has stopped the farmers' work in the ground for a few days, but there is still plenty of other work to be done and everyone is busy.

The young people's class, "Happy Builders" of the Valley View Sunday school, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flory on Wednesday evening. A large crowd and a delightful social hour was reported.

Mrs. S. G. Whetzel entertained the Aid Society of United Brethren church on Thursday afternoon.

Club was held at the home of Mrs. Homer Swank on Thursday afternoon. The business and social periods were so snappy that the afternoon was all too short.

Mrs. Swank never fails to prove her art as hostess. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Butler.

Mrs. Webb of Annandale spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Hummer.

The Community League met on Friday evening. With other business attended to a delegate was also appointed to attend the district meeting on April 20.

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF PRINCE WILLIAM, APRIL 2, 1932.

HAZEL LEONIA HAYNES

vs in chancery
WALTER M. HAYNES.

The object of the above styled suit is for the complainant, Hazel Leonia Haynes, to secure from the defendant, Walter M. Haynes, a divorce from the bond of matrimony which was created by the marriage of the said parties in the District of Columbia, on the 28th day of April, 1928, on the grounds of wilful abandonment of the complainant by the defendant, on the first day of April, 1929, without any justification whatever; for the award of the custody and care of the infant son of the said parties, free from the interference or control of the said defendant, also that the defendant may be required to contribute a reasonable amount monthly for the maintenance and support of the said infant son until he shall reach the age of twenty-one years, and for general relief.

And an affidavit having been made and filed in accordance with law, by the complainant, that the defendant is not a resident of the State of Virginia, and that his last known address was Silver Springs, Maryland; and an application having been made in writing for this order of publication,

It is therefore ordered that the said defendant do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court, addressed to Walter M. Haynes, the said defendant, at Silver Springs, Maryland; a copy published once a week, for four successive weeks, in The Manassas Journal, a newspaper published and circulated in the County of Prince William, Virginia, and a copy posted at the front door of the Court House of said County, on or before the 18th day of April, 1932; that being the first Rule day after this order was entered.

IN APRIL

If I am slow forgetting,
It is because the sun
Has such old tricks of setting
When April days are done.
The soft spring sunlight traces
Old patterns—green and gold;
The flowers have no new faces,
The very buds are old!
If I am slow forgetting—
Ah, well, come back and see
The same old sunbeams petting

My garden-plots for me.
Come smell the green things growing,
The boxwood after rain;
See where old beds are showing
Their slender spears again.
At dusk, that fosters dreaming—
Come back at dusk and rest,
And watch our old star gleaming
Against the primrose west.

TOM KEENE WESTERN

HAS SPECIAL SONGS

Music composed especially for the production is an original feature of "Freighters of Destiny," the new RKO Pathe Western picture starring Tom Keene, which shows at the Dixie Theatre on Saturday. Two songs, "The End of the Trail" and "Driving Home," were composed for the picture by Bernie Grossman and Arthur Lange of the RKO Pathe music department.

Both numbers are sung by cowboy choruses and the music fits the action in mood and situation. "Driving Home" is sung by the men of a pioneer wagon freighting outfit as they swing along the trail with a consignment of supplies. A campfire scene introduces "The End of the Trail."

Still a third musical number is sung by the cowboys. This is an old range ballad known as "The Cowboy's Dance Song." A corral where a broncho-breaking contest is later pictured is the setting for the number.

Mr. J. W. Alvey and sons and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter were Washington-visitors last Friday calling on Mrs. Etta P. Lynn and incidentally getting the Lynn baby's picture "took." My O My! these babies.

Died: Henry Shellington, at a Philadelphia hospital after but a few days' illness of double pneumonia. The subject of this notice was a young negro boy, native of Catharpin neighborhood and a grandson of "Aunt" Amanda Ewell, an old colored woman who was known to everyone. Henry was a boy worthy of passing notice; leaving the neighborhood some five years ago he was engaged as waiter at a boys' boarding school and being of a very pleasant, amiable disposition was appreciated by his employers and grew in favor generally. It was his habit to spend his vacation "back home" and was welcomed by all for whom he had worked. Upon one of these visits he told the writer that he had $400 in a savings bank drawing interest. At another time this had grown to $700 and he was paying installments on a house he had bought, though not married. He jokingly said he was just getting ready. So this young negro boy is a concrete example of what a good disposition, willingness to work and the ability to save will do for any young man, white or black, Henry was all of this.

Miss Harriet Pattie spent the week end with her sisters, Mary and Claudia, in Washington returning home Sunday night.

Mrs. Fredrica Spencer of Stone House neighborhood was a caller at the home of Mrs. E. N. Pattie last week.

And still it rains; roads bad, no church, or Sunday school on Sunday last, and the old grapevine telephone, spasmodically speaking, still goes in to spasms and squeaks, sputters, buzzes, quits, goes again and fusses around until you get fidgety, cuss a little, either privately or publicly, sometimes both; stamp your foot, throw the receiver on the hook with a bang and yell, "WHAT HAS PROHIBITION DONE ANYWAY?"
(Sorry you had to cut your correspondence short this time. Always enjoyed "setting" your stuff.—Operator.)

ORLANDO

Folk begin to think "Old Winter" has come back, with its wind and hard rain.

Mr. Odie Cornwell and Luther Cornwell called to see Mr. Warner Fox Sunday.

Miss Viola Breeden was the guest of Miss Helen Spitzer Sunday night. Mr. John Petty moved to his new home near Brentsville. We all will miss them.

Mr. Aubrey Breeden and Mr. Ralph Cornwell called to see Mr. Howard Pearson of Hoadly Saturday.

Mr. Kenie Breeden called on Miss Elsie Ritenour last Wednesday night.

Mr. Fred Petty of Washington was the Sunday guest at the home of Mr. W. Y. Ellicott.

Mr. Dan Utterback and Mr. John Evans motored to Staunton one day this week.

Mr. Jim Crummett and Mr. Herschel Williams of Brunswick, Md., were neighborhood visitors last Sunday.

The play which was to be given at Gold Ridge school last Saturday night was postponed on account of the rain. It will be given this Saturday night at 8 p.m. Everybody come!! Free admission!!

MARCH REPORT OF H. D. AGENT

1. Names of communities in which home demonstration agent worked: Manassas, Occoquan, Purcell, Woodbine, Gainesville, Greenwich, Bristow, Woodlawn, Bethel, Independent Hill, Nokesville, Hayfield, Haymarket, Cherry Hill, Aden, Woodbridge, Quantico, Dumfries.

2. No. girls clubs met: 18

3. No. women's groups met: 7

4. No. other meetings held: 9

5. No. homes visited: 41

6. No. miles travelled: 767

7. No. letters written: 140

March was a busy month. Beside the regularly scheduled 4-H club and home demonstration meetings held two leader training meetings, a 4-H council meeting, the spring meeting of the Homemakers' Association, an executive meeting of the Home Demonstration Advisory Board were held; a county-wide piece of work launched and scoring of the farm grounds for that campaign made. All told, specialists help was provided for the county ten days during the month.

At the 4-H club council meeting the plan of work for the remainder of the project year was made; which included plans for county, district, and estate club events as well as the project and community work. Investigation was made to determine whether Prince William should participate in the Northern Virginia short course or hold its own county camp. It was finally decided that our folks join in the Northern Virginia short course again.

Representatives from the club council met with representatives from other counties late in the month and outlined plans for the short course which will be held at Jamestown 4-H club camp again this summer.

The services of L. B. Dietrick, Vegetable Gardening Specialist, were provided for the communities working on gardening. He met with groups in Haymarket, Greenwich, Nokesville, Woodbine and Bethel communities and discussed with them problems pertinent to vegetable gardening. Woodbine holds the record in attendance at these meetings; sixty people being present at their meeting. Again we will have to give the 4-H club credit for getting things done.

The local Red Cross chapter has agreed to help the 4-H gardeners by providing garden seeds for those who need them. Woodbine 4-H club boys and girls are planning to provide their families with good year round gardens and to can a sufficient amount of vegetables for hot lunches in the school another winter. A similar plan is being worked at Purcell where another organization is providing prizes for the best gardens.

A county-wide garden and canning campaign has been launched into which all women of the county are invited to join. The Home Demonstration Advisory Board is sponsoring this campaign and providing prizes for those who do outstanding work.

The first scoring of the grounds of those in the Brentsville District Farm Grounds Improvement Contest was made early in March. Contestants are now at work to make needed improvements.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"
One of America's Favorites
Among the Classics

When Robert Louis Stevenson wrote his famous story of a man's dual personality, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," he fashioned into words-on-paper the stuff of his neurotic dreams. But he never dreamed anything so fantastic as the thing that has actually occurred—the phenomenal success of his narrative in its play-form. The history of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," the play, is as glamorous as the amazing progress of the theatre itself. Since 1887, this famous drama-romance has been before the public almost continuously, starting with its remarkable debut in the capable hands of Richard Mansfield, onward through the respective hey-days of the legitimate, the silent movies and now finally, the talkies, with Fredric March as the exponent of this latter-day play-form in the Paramount production which comes to the Dixie Theatre on Monday for two days.

Stevenson's biographers tell us that he conceived the story of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" in a dream. He wrote almost continuously for three days, in the febrile zeal that was alike his affliction and his motivating power.

He read the completed tale to his wife and his step-son, Lloyd Osbourne. They were enthused, but Stevenson later lapsed into a different mood, regretted having written the story, and tore it up. He was persuaded to re-create it, and after six weeks of revising and building anew, he sent it to Longman, the British publisher.

Because of its startling theme, Longman hesitated to publish it as a serial in a magazine owned by him, and so put it out in book form as a "shilling shocker."

GUNSTON HALL — GEORGE MASON'S SHRINE

(This Shrine to one of the illustrious sons of Virginia was made possible by LOUIS HERTLE in MEMORY of his WIFE)

On the west banks of the Potomac Where the tides rise and fall— Is George Mason's home—Gunston Hall.

Built of brick made by hand When we were subjects of the King—

When England's praise we were wont to sing . . .

Built to withstand the ages, A firm foundation—massive wall A volume in brick stands Gunston Hall.

From its open windows George Mason heard the Liberty Bell ring.

And a new born Nation, the Star-Spangled Banner sing . . .

In its beautiful garden of box wood and ivy He clasped George Washington's hand

And breathed a prayer of FREE-DOM for our promised land.

In silent meditation before the open grate The Father of Virginia's Bill of Rights Mused and dreamed by the flickering lights . . .

The Patriots of the Revolution Dined and slept at Gunston Hall— The oratory of Patrick Henry—one clear call—

The penning of the Declaration of Independence By Jefferson, and inspiration— . . . A guide to future legislation—

The truths of Liberty burned deep— And etched upon the hearts of a patriotic Nation

Is the "Bill of Rights"—written by George Mason

A lover of freedom and for freedom's cause— A Virginian—Our George Mason

Whose memory is enshrined with Washington.

When we stand before the Shrine at Mt. Vernon

Our memory goes back to the Great Washington

And in the shade of Monticello we dream of Jefferson;

The commanding figure of Robert E. Lee

Is enshrined at Stratford Hall, And on the banks of the Potomac— Gunston Hall

The home of the author of the "Bill of Rights"—

Now a Shrine to our beloved George Mason—the man Whose memory untold ages will span . . .

OCOQUAN WINS

OPENING GAME

Ocoquan annexed its first victory of the season from Nokesville by the score of 4 to 1.

Ralph Sheppard, twirler for the maroon and orange, stole the entire show by just missing the Hall of Fame with a one-hit, one-run, exhibition.

The stock-work of both teams was weak, Hinton doing the heavy batting for Ocoquan and Fountain doing the heavy work for Nokesville.

It was a very quick and snappy game lasting only one hour and twenty minutes. Ocoquan plays Manassas Friday, the 15th, at Ocoquan's field. Nokesville plays Haymarket at Haymarket.

HAYMARKET PLAYS

WEAKENED TEAM

The Manassas high school baseball team played host to the Haymarket high school team on Friday for the opening game of the season, and bowed to the visitors by the score of 5-3.

Although greatly handicapped by the loss of several stars from last year, both teams showed the same old fighting spirit and put up an excellent defensive game.

Bradshaw made his debut on the mound for Manassas and pitched a good game, but his teammates lacked the ability to connect safely with the slants of Garrison, the Haymarket pitcher. It was also Marsteller's first game behind the bat.

Garrett, the winners' dependable slugger, led with the willow with three hits out of four trips to the plate. One was a smashing drive to right field for a lusty double. Vetter pulled the star catch of the afternoon and got a good hand.

SALE BILL OF NINETY YEARS AGO

(Given to The Journal by Mr. Grati Shoemaker.)

SALE BILL OF 1842

Notices of sales of all sorts are all so common in these days of depression that they merit more than a passing glance of the busy reader, but the following which we clip from an old paper of ninety years ago is—paradoxically as this assertion may seem—so old that it possesses by its age the merit of novelty for the people of this age with the exception of a few of our oldest citizens. It possesses all the interest of a "Back Whinner," for many of the articles listed therein are now obsolete and useless; and legislation has outlawed some of the articles listed in this sale bill of ninety years ago. The notice is as follows: "Having sold my farm and am leaving for Oregon territory by ox team, I will offer March 1, 1842, all my personal property, to-wit: All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Perry; 2 milk cows, 1 gray mare and colt, 1 pair of oxen and yoke, 1 baby yoke, 2 ox carts, 1 iron for poplar weatherboards, 1 plow with wooden mole board, 800 to 1,000 three foot boards, 1,500 ten foot fence rails, 1 60 gallon soap kettle, 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons of maple sugar, 2 spinning wheels, 30 pounds of mutton tallow, 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 300 poles, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels, 1 32-gallon keg of Johnsons elder whiskey, 7 years old; 20 gallons of apple brandy, 1 40-gallon copper still, 1 dozen real books, 2 handle hooks, 3 scythes and cradles, 1 dozen wooden pitch forks, one-half interest in tan yard, 1 32-caliber rifle bullet moulds, and powder horn, rifle made by Ben Miller; 50 gallons of sorghum molasses; six head of fox-hounds, all sort-mouthed except one. At the same time I will sell my six negro-slaves, 2 men 35 and 50 years old; 2 mulatto wenches 40 and 30 years old; will sell together to the same party as will not separate them. Terms of sale, cash in hand or note to draw 4-per cent interest with Bob McConnell as surety. My home is two miles south of Versailles, Ky. Sale begins 8 o'clock a. m. Plenty to eat and drink."
