MERCHANT JOINS KIWANIS CLUB

The feature of last week's session of the Kiwanis Club was the formal admission of Wilson Merchant, Esq., into the fold. Mr. Merchant made a nice little speech which Fred Hynson wanted reprinted in The Journal but the exact copy was not submitted to the Editor.

O. D. Waters made one of his cheerful, progressive and fraternal little talks which had real old-time oratory and pathos in its midst.

Bob Hutchison gave an exposition as to how the budget had budgeted into funny angles, and then the club went home (No birthdays last week).

OCOQUAN PUPILS VISIT CAVERNS

A bus load of pupils from Occoquan high school left at sunrise last Saturday for Luray Caverns. The group consisted mostly of sophomores, but there were seniors, juniors and freshmen also present among the party. Two members of the faculty accompanied them, R. Worth Peters, principal, and John M. Kline, jr.

The party went way of Fredericksburg, and after several hours during which time it viewed the beautiful scenery along the way, it arrived at the Caverns beyond the mountains.

Within a short time the group was several hundred feet below the surface viewing the great miracles of Nature in stone. We will not undertake to describe the great beauty of the caverns for that would be impossible here.

After lunch at the caverns the party returned early in the afternoon by way of Manassas.

It is useless to say the trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Besides the good social times together many interesting and helpful facts were learned in Nature.

FESTIVAL PROGRAM COMMITTEE MET TUESDAY EVENING

A tentative program for the Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival was planned at a meeting of the program committee at the town hall Tuesday evening. This will be presented at the next regular meeting of the association on Wednesday, April 27, at 8 p.m. at the town hall.

SANITARY STORE OPENS TOMORROW

Local Men in Office Force.

The long-expected Sanitary (chain-store system) makes its formal bow to Manassas and vicinity tomorrow morning at its regular opening, details of which are printed elsewhere in this issue of The Journal.

Following its usual system, the Sanitary officials have wisely chosen local men as its working force. Robert L. Stephenson, who has been with the Sanitary for about three years, will be local manager, with Clay Ball as his assistant. Clay's brother, Clifton, will also assist. Their local acquaintance is naturally an asset of great value to their employers.

The men will work under the direct supervision of Louis Payne, of Culpeper, supervisor of the Sanitary system in this area.

HOT LUNCHESES PAY

AT WOODBINE

The boys and girls of Woodbine school began working toward better food and health habits the first of December. Hot lunches were started in school the middle of December and continued through the middle of March. During that time the boys and girls have made a steady gain in weight. When weighed on April 15 the thirteen club members who were present had made a total gain of 22 1/2 pounds; or an average gain of almost ten pounds. Nathan Posey and Elwood Beavers scored highest in weight gained, each of them made a gain of 17 pounds. Isaac Posey made a gain of fifteen and half pounds, while Irene Posey made a gain of twelve and half pounds. These boys and girls believe in hot lunches and are working now to grow vegetables to be canned for another winter.

The final levies for 1932-33 will be set by the Board of Supervisors at its April meeting on Tuesday.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

A county oratorical contest will be held at Manassas high tonight.

Interesting Meeting at Manassas Well Attended.

The annual meeting of the Community Leagues, in the northern Virginia district was held in Manassas Wednesday, April 20, with a large attendance of delegates from the leagues in the following counties which make up the district: Arlington, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William and the city of Alexandria.

Mrs. William Lloyd, district chairman, presided. After a brief opening program, during which delightful music was furnished by the Manassas high school glee club, under the direction of Miss Virginia Speiden, the Juniors took charge of the school auditorium and the community workers adjourned to the high school gymnasium for their sessions.

The speakers were Mr. R. C. Haydon, superintendent of schools Prince William county; Mr. C. C. Carr, former district chairman; Mr. J. H. Montgomery, state director; Mr. H. B. Derr, county agent from Fairfax county. Mrs. R. C. Haydon gave a most interesting and instructive report on the Findings of the Governors' Conference on Childhood and Youth, recently held in Richmond. Every league was requested to present these findings at its conference at an early meeting.

The reports of work done by the leagues were most interesting and some splendid community projects are being carried out.

Definite objectives were adopted for the coming year, and this district hopes to be a banner district this year.

The officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, of Prince William county, district chairman; Mrs. W. G. Trow, of Warren county, vice-chairman; Mrs. Emele Windle, of Purcellville, secretary.

A delicious luncheon was served by a committee from Manassas high and Bennett school leagues, under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Lynn and Mrs. Hawes Davies.

The place of meeting for next year will be Annandale in Fairfax county. (P.S.) The objectives, as outlined and adopted, will appear in an early issue of this paper.

Junior Leagues Also Gather.

Nearly two hundred members of the Junior Leagues of the northern Virginia district gathered Wednesday morning at the Manassas high school for the annual meeting.

Miss Frieda Kootz, state secretary of Junior League work, was present throughout the entire day and promised to give the boys and girls a ten-hour talk at the first district picnic (which will be an equal pleasure should it ever materialize). Actually her time on the floor was not measured but it was all very interesting.

The most interesting feature was the detailed presentation of league work during the past year. The following clubs reported: Fairfax county: Annandale, Burke and Lee-Jackson; Fauquier: Bealeton, Catlett, Hume; Loudoun county: Lincoln, Purcellville, Round Hill, Unison-Bloomfield; Prince William county: Aden, Bennett, Nokesville, (both high and graded), Bristol, Dumfries, Haymarket, Manassas high, Occoquan, Quantico, Woodbine, Woodlawn.

(When Occoquan reported it was slightly difficult to see which one was reporting, as the little club secretary, Miss Mary Catherine Sanford, did not come up to the shoulders of any of her club—but her report was given perhaps more clearly than any during the day.)

Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, of Greenwich, is general chairman. This year's officers who presided are: chairman, Miss Wilva Bourne, of Occoquan; vice-chairman, Herman Swank, of Nokesville; secretary, Miss Betty Lynch, of Lee-Jackson.

The address of welcome was charmingly given by Miss Ann Bradford, of Manassas high. It was answered by Edward Pearson, of Hume League, in Fauquier county. A brief song program by the Manassas high glee club followed.

Then the cheer leaders (Burton Lyons and Arthur Carter, of the Manassas League) got busy and cheers were given at intervals for the following: for Fauquier county for the greatest increase in number of leagues; for Loudoun county for having the largest number of leagues; for Prince William for being the banner county (and almost a 100 percent county, having all but two leagues in it).

ADEN

Mr. Wiley Weeks is critically ill at his home here. Dr. McBryde is attending him.

The Aid members are looking forward with pleasure to the Aid conference that will be held at the Buckhall U. B. church May 5.

Colonial days were again brought to mind last Wednesday night when patrons and friends visited the little schoolhouse at Aden and enjoyed a very interesting colonial program.

You should have seen, those colonial ladies and gentlemen. How dignified they acted in comparison to the ladies and 'gents' of 1932!

Several appropriate songs were sung by the children. Then the audience was invited to sketch the pages of a large album revealing the life of Washington.—Miss Breeden as reader.

Allen Green, as wee George, was shown cutting down the cherry tree. On the next page, Wade Whetzel and his friends revealed the ability of the lad George as a leader in all military activities.

It was indeed impressive when Roy Breeden, impersonating Washington of 18, bade good bye to his mother, Louise Brown as Mrs. Washington. Then we turned to the next page

APRIL MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

All members please notice that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Miss Maggie Smith Monday, April 25, at 8 p.m. instead of regular date of Wednesday, the 27th. This change is made necessary as several members will be away Wednesday attending a missionary meeting at Mount Vernon church, Washington, and it is important for each and every member of the W. C. T. U. to be present at this meeting. There are some very important matters to be brought before the members so a full attendance is requested Monday afternoon.

OCOQUAN 4-H CLUB MEETS

The Occoquan 4-H Club held its regular meeting in the school auditorium April 19.

There were twenty-one members present. Mr. F. D. Cox, county agent, met with the club.

The club decided to plant a tree on the school ground. There was much discussion on the Jamestown camp in August.

After the meeting, Mrs. Egbert Thompson, the girls' leader, talked to the girls.

Mr. Cox and Mr. Dickerson from Blacksburg met with the boys.

After a general discussion the meeting adjourned.

COURT CONCLUDES

W. A. Kidwell was granted permission to carry concealed weapons. Stanley Owens granted a certificate of good character (preparatory to taking State bar examinations).

Sanitary Grocery Company (Manassas) given permit to sell soft drinks.

B. F. Hoover given judgment for $580.52 against B. F. Phillips (J. T. L. Rollins, foreman).

A CORRECTION

In our news columns last week we printed an item that a judgment had been granted against Mr. J. P. Kerlin when it should have read—J. P. Kerlin, administrator of Estate of J. E. Keys.

and viewed a scene of the courtship of the young gentleman and Martha Custis. (However, the customs have changed since 17—)

Washington as a surveyor, a military and a political leader, followed in respective order.

Next the audience were then favored with a real minut of the 18th century, the last page of the album.

The Misses Stultz, Fritter, Aubrey and Horn and Masters Flory, Whetzel, Green and Earhart were the ladies and gallants on the 'finis' page.

GREENWICH
 The minstrel sponsored by the Greenwich Community League which was given in March will be given again at the Greenwich school on Tuesday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock. The cast features Messrs. George Wood, Elmo Gum, Lou, Foster and Albin Taylor as End Men, assisted by Misses Frances and Rhoda Foster, Mrs. M. B. Leach, Messrs. Vernon Wood and Newman Hopkins.

Additional features include some "special numbers" by Messrs. Clinton and Randall Foster, members of the gang known as the "Greenwich Racketeers."
 Refreshments will be sold so come, laugh, and eat!
 The school boys opened their baseball season on Friday afternoon, April 8, by defeating the Nokesville grade team on the home diamond by a score of 5-4.

The Greenwich League met on Thursday evening, April 14. The business meeting was quite successful. Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Mrs. John Ellis, Mrs. Nalls and Mrs. J. B. Cooke were appointed on a committee to represent the league at the district meeting in Manassas on April 20.

Miss Helen Lloyd (Penn Hall) and Robert and William Lloyd, of the State University, spent the week end at home.

RUTH CHATTERTON IN MEMORABLE ROLE

One of those events looked forward to, and cherished by movie millions, a new Ruth Chatterton picture, will be the draw at the Dixie Theatre next Monday and Tuesday. The newest opus for the "first lady" of films is titled "Once a Lady," and is a mélange of the surefire dramatic clay which this emotional sculptress so effectively handled in "Madame X," "Sarah and Son," and "Anybody's Woman."

Although Miss Chatterton has been surrounded with a notable and gifted cast, including a goodly sprinkling of English celebrities who ideally suit the earlier British environment of the action, it is again the royal sense of dramatic values which the star possesses and so facilely projects from the screen, which carries off the honors.

The manner in which the husband's faulty divorce decree, fear of scandal, and the woman's anonymous devotion to her grown daughter's love urge, are dramatically woven into a happy event for the second generation, makes an impressive climax.

CRIPPLED TEAM TAKES HARD FALL
 Old Man Jinx is still trailing the local diamond trotters. Last Friday the Occoquan boys stepped out on the diamond with a high score determined in their heads and when the game ended the tally was 18 to 1.
 Shepherd almost got in the Hall of Fame again by allowing just one hit. He also struck out 20 batters, holding the Manassas boys almost helpless. The boys at Occoquan appreciate Mr. A. W. Peters for the way he handles our devoted team. He has shown our boys the art in bunting and batting.
 The Occoquan infield and outfield handled their comparatively few chances with skill.
 Vetter saved his team from the utter humiliation of a no-hit, no-run card.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

A NEW CREATOR:—Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.—Psalm 51: 10.

THE RETIRED OFFICER'S GRAFT

On April 14, Representative Blanton introduced a joint resolution in Congress disclosing an appalling condition of affairs in the matter of abuse of the disability compensation administration in the Veteran's Bureau and calling attention to the villainy and graft involved. He cited hundreds of instances where men already handsomely compensated in private employment or in other branches of the government were also drawing large retirement or disability compensation. In addition to these hundreds of cases of unjustifiable compensation he also cited such outstanding and criminal condition of affairs in the Veteran's Bureau as surely will compel the Republican Administration to correct the matter and punish the guilty.

It is disclosed that the Chief Counsel of the Veteran's Bureau, who passes upon the claims of all of our veterans and their helpless dependents, possesses no personal or professional qualifications for his high position. Prior to his appointment at $4000 a year he had never tried a case in court. He was rapidly promoted to $9000 and was the prime mover in the legislation which permits the paying of all of these high disability compensations to men who are drawing plenty of salary in private life or in other departments of the government. He had served 13 days in an office position, when the war closed, and upon securing this legislation, put in his own claim for disability. Five medical boards turned him down before he finally devised a procedure for getting his own claim through, but finally he accomplished his purpose and in addition to his annual salary of $9000, he draws a monthly disability check of $187.50 and was allowed $5,860 back compensation.

Several years ago this mountebank "Poker Bill" Smith, was exposed by Collier's Magazine as a dishonest, journalistic lobbyist. He sued Collier's in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. (Cause No. 50,264). The magazine pleaded truth of the facts as its defense, admitting publication of the statements upon which they were being sued, and proceeded to prove their statements so conclusively that the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the magazine.

So this is the kind of a man that the Republican Administration is intrusting with the legality of claims of our veterans, and we cannot help wondering how many more like him are swaggering around the country, drawing similarly framed-up compensations, while at the same time drawing handsome salaries in private life—and also often supplemented by the earnings of an industrious and capable wife, while real veterans who saw Hell in France, go begging in the streets.

The real trouble with the budget in Washington is graft. It seems that about the only crime that can be officially committed in our Federal Departments is the crime of getting caught. That is a nasty, unforgivable offense, immediately punishable. Otherwise it is apparently o.k. for a Government official to plunder the Treasury to the limit, because they all seem to be doing the same. Citizens throughout the country have no conception of the nasty coterie that reign as little monarchs in their respective Bureaus, and divide their time between doling out injustices to their clerks, who do what work is done, and grabbing emoluments for themselves and their office favorites.

We notice that following Representative Blanton's startling disclosures, that President Hoover has recognized the unfairness in allowing double compensation to men able to command handsome salaries, and we cannot help keeping our eye on what he is going to do about retaining such a dissolute, dishonest character in the high position of chief counsel of the Veteran's Bureau.

In all probability the people of the United States will kick out the whole rascally outfit next November, but in the meantime, in an effort to at least maintain a posture of self respect, the present administration ought to clean out the dirtiest spots in their house before they retire in favor of Democracy.

CATHARPIN

The voice of the tractor is abroad in the land; fields that have been plowed for weeks and even months are now being mellowed ready for the planting and ere long the crooked corn rows will begin to appear and then one will hear that old familiar "saw" that "more corn grows in crooked rows than in straight ones." If anyone should ever dispute that saying, all that would be necessary to convince would be a trip to the country through these potential fields of yellow corn about the middle of May when one may behold the lines that nature never drew. One often wonders how old Lady Nature ever finds all the kinks, bends and angles in which to sprout her seed; but being a kind old soul she overlooks man's idiosyncrasies and helps him in spite of his weakness; so keep up your courage, do your part and all will be well.

Mrs. W. S. Brower of Lone Oak has been visiting friends in Washington during the past week.

Mr. F. H. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald attended the District Conference on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower have returned home after an extended visit to Purcellville and Washington.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. L. McCutcheon, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Feuschel and sons and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Onley of Clarendon were recent guests at Oakwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson and family spent Sunday last with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCarty at Delaplane, Va.

All in anticipation and conjecture in regard to what the new road law will do for the county and State and as usual the community prophet is doing business at the same old stand and is working the job from both ends; but the fact that it affords "tax relief" gives it free right-of-way in the minds of people who are ready to see it tried out. The first tangible evidence here is that the several water crossings in the Catharpin neighborhood which have given trouble to traffic for low these many years are soon to become extinct, the order having gone forth that all crossings shall be bridged or culverted before July first; also it was published in the press that since all roads are now State roads the future policy is not to just maintain as had been done in the past but to improve the system in every way to the end that all roads shall be good roads. You remember that old adage, don't you? that "All things come to him who waits?" well we certainly have done a good job at "waiting" so now we are ready for the "coming."

L. J. McIntosh and sister, Elizabeth, were Manassas visitors one day last week.

The Rev. Dr. Balthis, presiding elder of the Alexandria district, will preach at Sudley next Sunday, the 24th, at 11 a.m. This will be Dr. Balthis' first visit to Sudley and am sure a large congregation would be a delight to all.

The road leading from Catharpin to the Patton ford on Bull Run is soon to be included in the State system. As is well known this road formerly extended to the Patton farm line and from thence through gates and over private property to the ford. This short cut will be of great convenience not only to the residents along the line but to traffic in general. Again the old adage about "waiting" comes to mind.

Spring seems to be about here and gardens are rapidly rounding into shape and the mind is taking on new thoughts and poetry, that ever-present rhythm of thought, seems to envelop the blossoms and posies and the green grass and everything so that by some unknown mental process one feels that he wants to write it. Now wouldn't you be amused if we should write a poem? Just think of the "setting" one would have to spur his intellectual machinery when he would think of the great storm, and the trees falling, and the wires crossing, and the prostrate poles, and the winds a-blowing, and the cattle shivering, and the roofs blowing off, and, then comes spring, gentle spring with her zephyrs, aromas, her verdure, the opening buds and the sweet scented onion and the prospective cucumber and the roasting ear; the bunny rabbit and his fluffy Easter eggs, and the laying turkey hen and, and just everything nice. Now wouldn't you enjoy a spring poem? I'm sure you would but no, no, no! I shall not inflict such a punishment upon an innocent client as to foist anything like that upon them. I know I could do it but should hate to throw into the discard all our reverted poets of old especially Riley and Will Rogers, so I spare you that fiction and sign off and go out and plant my onions.

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF PRINCE WILLIAM, APRIL 2, 1932.

HAZEL LEONIA HAYNES.

WALTER M. HAYNES.

The object of the above styled suit is for the complainant, Hazel Leonia Haynes, to secure from the defendant, Walter M. Haynes, a divorce from the bond of matrimony which was created by the marriage of the said parties in the District of Columbia, on the 28th day of April, 1928, on the grounds of wilful abandonment of the complainant by the defendant, on the first day of April, 1929, without any justification whatever; for the award of the custody and care of the infant son of the said parties, free from the interference or control of the said defendant, also that the defendant may be required to contribute a reasonable amount monthly for the maintenance and support of the said infant son until he shall reach the age of twenty-one years, and for general relief.

And an affidavit having been made and filed in accordance with law, by the complainant, that the defendant is not a resident of the State of Virginia, and that his last known address was Silver Springs, Maryland; and an application having been made in writing for this order of publication,

It is therefore ordered that the said defendant do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court, addressed to Walter M. Haynes, the said defendant, at Silver Springs, Maryland; a copy published once a week, for four successive weeks, in The Manassas Journal, a newspaper published and circulated in the County of Prince William, Virginia, and a copy posted at the front door of the Court House of said County, on or before the 18th day of April, 1932; that being the first Rule day after this order was entered.

NOKESVILLE

The Brentsville District high boys hit their stride last Friday and trounced the Haymarket nine in snappy fashion. While "Aldie" Newland, local pitching ace, was holding the visitors in check, his teammates were hammering out a number of hits, shoving eight runs across the plate. Haymarket tallied four times during the afternoon. We see where Ex-Governor Byrd has at last cut his cable loose from the dry land of Prohibition to sail on the Tammany sea with Al Smith, Ritchie and the rest of the soaks. No doubt he has been on the sea all the while, but thought this the opportune time to climb down off the fence and tell the people so. Mr. Byrd says that no law is stronger than the public sentiment to sustain it. He will probably discern the true sentiment of the substantial people of the country in their reaction toward him since his "publicity stunt" at the Jefferson Day dinner in Washington.

The surprising part of the affair is how the former Governor could be so fooled about the sentiment of the public by a string of howling wet newspapers, who blast their filthy propaganda, because the Eighteenth Amendment hasn't in a dozen years eradicated an insidious habit that fettered the human race for three thousand years.

Rather than believe that Mr. Byrd was fooled, it seems more likely that, in view of the split between Smith and Roosevelt, he thought he would stand a good chance of getting Tammany's support for the Presidency—if he was wet enough.

It seems to some of us that it's time the so-called Democratic leaders awoke to the fact that the sound people of this country elect a man to the Presidency who is running, and not swimming for the office.

At a time when a Democratic victory in the presidential campaign would be possible, it is a pity that there is not a Democrat who is big enough and dry enough to fit the chair. And if such a one could be found, he would have as much chance of getting the nomination as a snowball would have of existing in the Stygian realms of Satan.

Mrs. V. W. Zirkle has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Wilton, at Harrisonburg.

Mr. P. Howard Payne of Silver

Springs spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMichael.

Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Mrs. E. C. Spitzer, Mrs. G. L. Delaney went as delegates to Red Cross convention in Washington last week.

Mrs. M. J. Shepherd, Mrs. John Harpine and Mrs. E. C. Spitzer attended the league meeting in Manassas Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hale and sons, and Mrs. S. Fogle of Washington spent the week end with Mr. E. E. Hale and W. F. Hale.

"MATA HARI" HAS STRONG PLOT AND BRILLIANT ACTING

Greta Garbo and Ramon Novarro make a sensational first appearance together in "Mata Hari," which appears at the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. Both stars have long since won the approbation of the public for distinguished work; together, they offer the finest portrayals of their respective motion picture careers.

"Mata Hari," however, is more than a mere combination of stars. It achieves the eminence of an auspicious cinema occasion in entertainment value. Produced upon a lavish scale, it boasts a glamorous romance that runs the gamut of emotionalism and strikes deep into the sympathies of the audience with a final scene unequalled in dramatic potency.

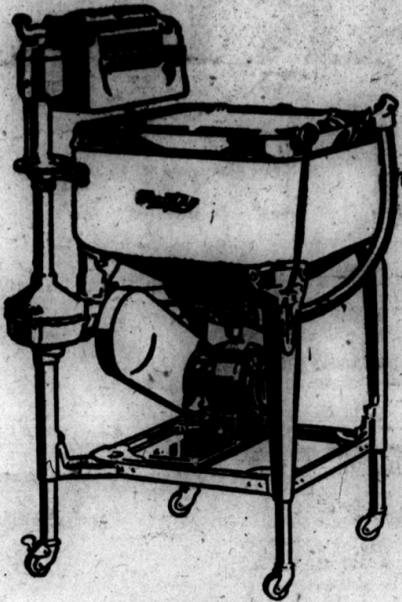

The plot is based upon the life and loves of the notorious World War spy who meets her death before a French firing squad for her career of intrigue and adventure. Novarro plays the part of the Russian aviator for whose love Mata Hari ultimately pays the death penalty.

No less impressive than the sterling performances of the co-stars is the artistic direction of George Fitzmaurice. He has endowed his screen treatment with an interpretative camera mood and a rare ability to stress characterization during the unfolding of the plot.

Lionel Barrymore and Lewis Stone head the distinguished supporting cast and as usual give flawless performances. Excellent work is also done by C. Henry Gordon, Karen Morley, Alec B. Francis and Blanche Frederici.

"Mata Hari" is easily the outstanding production of the year and will provide a new treat for the hordes of Garbo and Novarro fans.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE CONVENTION

Miss Nancy Weir Waters officiated at the piano and Miss Virginia Speiden led in the singing which was a constant mainstay every time the program lagged the least.

Miss Virginia, Wynkoop, of the Round Hill League, gave a very instructive talk on the all-important subject "Guidance."

The last feature of the day was the nomination of next year's officers. The committee, headed by Miss Milliscent Lacey, of Occoquan, retired and shortly brought out a report that gave next year's chairmanship to Bealeton high, the vice-chairmanship to Manassas and the secretary to Round Hill. Each of these schools will select the officials allotted at some subsequent meeting this year.

The following were selected as district objectives: (1) to increase 5-pointers; (2) to increase number of junior leagues; (3) school beautification; (4) 100 percent reports from each county; (5) library improvement; (6) improvement of league programs.

The following figures were taken from the published report in February of this year, relative to last year's other work: number of leagues, 112; number reporting, 82; banner leagues, 61; membership, 5848; amount raised, $5013.36.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. Susie Graham Powell, who departed this life one year ago today, April 20, 1931.

'Tis not the tears at the moment shed,

'Tis the life's whole pathway shaded,
'Tis the one remembrance fondly kept
When all lighter griefs have faded.

Some may think you are forgotten,
Because oftentimes they see me smile,
But little do they know the heart-aches
That I suffer all the while.

No one knows, dear mother, how I miss you.
More and more each day
Life has not been the same to me,
Since you were called away.

I will meet you some bright morning.
'Tis a happy thought in store
So keep her, Jesus, in thy keeping,
Until my weary life is over.
—By her devoted daughter,
Grace Yowell.

49-1*

One year has passed, dear mother,
Since you were called away.
How well do we remember
That sad and weary day.

You suffered hours, yes, hours of pain
To wait for cure but in vain
Till God alone knew what was best
He called you home to give you rest.

Forget you—no—we never will.
We loved you then, we love you still.
Your memory is as fresh today,
As in the hour you passed away.

God alone knows how we miss you.
Never shall your memory fade
Loving thoughts shall always wander
To the spot where you were laid.

What is home without a mother
All gifts this world may send
But when we lost our dear mother
We lost our dearest friend.
—Her devoted children and husband.

In Memory

In loving memory of my brother, Walter A. Davis who departed this life February 22, 1932.
You suffered hours, yes, hours of pain
To wait for cure but in vain,

I think of you in silence,
No one can see me weep,
But many a silent tear I shed
When others are asleep.
