

CLUB BREAKFAST IS NOVEL FEATURE

Splendid Reception Given New and Retiring Officers.

Members of the Manassas Woman's Club and their guests were the happy participants, on Wednesday of this week when they assembled in the beautifully decorated dining hall of Swavely School, to witness the "debut" of the May breakfast. This gala event, first of its kind held here, was held as a tribute to the retiring officers, and in compliment to the newly-elected ones.

Mrs. Robert Smith, retiring president, presided, in her usual gracious manner. The club will miss her as its leader, and is proud of its progress under her capable leadership. However, the organization feels happy in having as her worthy successor Mrs. Paul Cooksey, and her charming manner and appropriate response to the retiring officers presentation of the gavel, summed up in these lines gives great promise of fine things to strive for. "Getting together is beginning, keeping together is progress. Working together is success."

Mrs. Josephine J. Doggett, executive secretary of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs, was the guest speaker, and gave a most interesting and informative address, on the work of the federation and the increasing activities and participation of women's organizations in national and international affairs. She stressed the work of the Junior Clubs, and told of the many new phases of community and social work in which they are the pioneers and competent sponsors. The Junior Club of Manassas was represented by Miss Esther Warren Pattie, president; Miss Helen Lloyd, Miss Meaker Burke, Miss Christine Meets, Miss Ellen Bissan.

Musical number, rendered by the Manassas Octette, was greatly enjoyed and the singing of hymns by the winning class in the recent hymn contest was an added bit of real entertainment.

Those present were Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Paul Cooksey, Mrs. Ayleene Guthrie, Mrs. A. A. Hooff, Mrs. Harry Love, Mrs. C. C. Lynn, Mrs. F. R. Hynson, Mrs. Josephine J. Doggett, Mrs. Edgar J. The Garden Section of the Manassas Woman's Club, at its meeting on May 7, has set Thursday, May 24, as the date for its annual flower show. This exhibit will be held at heretofore in the Parish Hall, Manassas, and will be open to the public between the hours of 1 and 9 p.m. A small admission fee of ten cents will be charged, to defray necessary expenses. Plans for the garden pilgrimage which takes the place of the June meeting were discussed and as those who made the trip to the Monastery Rock Gardens and Bishop's Garden at the Cathedral last year gave such glowing reports, plans were made to go there again on Monday, June 4, leaving Manassas at 10 a.m. Those wishing to go are requested to phone Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, who is in charge of arrangements for transportation.

A pleasant social hour was enjoyed during which the guests were served with attractive and delicious refreshments by the hostesses, Mrs. G. R. Ratcliffe and Mrs. E. H. Merchant.

Many Lovely Contestants Enter Pageant

ON CAPITOL HILL

There are rather pronounced indications that the House may attempt to earmark the $1,600,000,000 President Roosevelt is to ask for relief purposes.

A warning that the leaders have something like that in mind came from Chairman Buchanan of the powerful appropriations committee the other day during consideration of the permanent appropriations repeal bill. He let it be known in no uncertain terms that there is a feeling that Congress should assert itself in its Constitutional appropriation right to dictate precisely to whom and for what purpose funds may go.

In passing the permanent appropriations repeal bill, the House took back control over about $300,000,000 in permanent automatic appropriations, which the appropriations committee had declared were going out of the "back door" of the Treasury.

The bill, in effect, returns to Congress in some instances, after the lapse since 1800, the power to appropriate funds annually for $17 different purposes which in the past have been taken care of through automatic withdrawals from the Treasury. In debate, it was described as the most important measure ever before Congress since it would end a "vicious usurpation and invasion of the rights of sitting Congresses."

The measure, however, cautiously avoided political flare-up by not providing for annual control by Congress of permanent appropriation items for agricultural extension work, land grant colleges and vocational education.

The President's new relief program is expected to reach the Capitol in the near future. It will be embodied in a deficiency appropriation bill and will carry funds for direct relief, work relief and construction projects.

Virginia Park Bill Introduced Representative Montague, Democrat of Virginia, has introduced in the House a bill providing for the establishing of the Richmond National Battlefield Park.

The park will be located in the military battlefield area in the City of Richmond or within five miles of the boundary of the present Richmond Battlefield Park. Establishment of the National Park would be contingent upon acquisition of the necessary property.

The Secretary of Interior, under the Bill, would be authorized to accept in behalf of the United States donations of lands, interest in lands, buildings and other property within the boundaries of the proposed park as well as donations of funds for purchases.

The park, according to the Bill, would be dedicated "for the benefit and enjoyment of the people." Its administration, protection and development would be under the direction of the Secretary of Interior and National Park Service.

Milk Legislation Delayed

Action on the two milk investigating bills now pending before each House of Congress appears to be indefinitely delayed with the Senate audit and control committee refusing to consider the McCarran measure for a Senate inquiry and the House declining to act on a similar measure calling for a probe by the Federal Trade Commission.

The House Bill, sponsored by Representative Koppleman, of Connecticut, was called up the other day but an objection prevented its consideration.

Senator Byrnes, chairman of the Senate Audit and Control Committee, for some unknown reason, is holding up the McCarran Bill. His committee must approve the requested appropriation of $50,000 for the nationwide investigation.

Both the McCarran and Koppleman Bills call for a thorough inquiry into the dairy industry and the profits of large distributors.

Building Inquiry Planned Wholesale violations of the Bacon-Davis wage scale law on Federal building projects in Washington is expected to result in a sweeping investigation by a Senate Committee.

Senator Walsh, Democrat of Massachusetts, whose committee on labor already has looked into the situation, declares it is appalling and that "something has got to be done."

"It is intolerable," Senator Walsh said, "that during these many years there has been no prosecutions nor wholesale withdrawals of contracts from the contractors who have made no attempt to abide by the law or respect human rights."

PROGRESS ON PRINCE WILLIAM ROADS

On Tuesday, the Journal reporter was favored through the courtesy of the division engineer, E. D. Hubbard, with an inspection of the secondary roads in much of northern Prince William.

It is remarkable that with such a poor supply on native material for surfacing purposes the roads are in comparatively good condition.

The first stop was on the new cut-off at Nokesville. Here a stretch of nearly two miles had been graded and drained at a figure which would have been reasonable for less than half the distance. Fencing work for the adjacent property owners will shortly be under way.

Then we journeyed up to the new John Marshall Highway to the Fauquier line, through the big cut at Thoroughfare. A native supply of surface material from the foot hills of the Bull Run mountains seems to have splendid possibilities to set up for a base under a light chip surface.

The ninety-foot bridge over Broad Run is being built on a sharp skew to the course of the stream. High water has held up things a little but good progress is being made.

Route 234 (the cross-county road) is being doctored from end to end with that funds are available and the patrolmen and road gangs are making every minute count.

This is a large county stretching from the mountains to the sea, with more diverse conditions probably than any other Virginia county. As Engineer Hubbard drives around, he leaves a trail of instructions to his inspectors and foremen. These are frequently based on flying observations as he travels along and are hooked up with experience and "horse sense" that are so essential in a program that calls for getting results with only about half enough money.

The Journal hopes to have the pleasure of such another inspection of the roads of the southern part of the county some time this Spring.

FARM RECORDS MEETING SATURDAY AFTERNOON

W. J. Nuckolls will explain the use of the new Agricultural Adjustment Administration's Record Book at a meeting at the county agent's office Saturday afternoon, May 12, at 1 o'clock.

LADIES NIGHT HOLDS SURPRISES

Kiwanis Conduct "Brain Trust" Study.

The annual Kiwanis Ladies night of last Thursday passed into history as one of the most pleasant in years. Through the activities of the ladies of the Episcopal Church in whose parish hall the meeting was held and the able management of Fred Hynson in a systematic seating plan, the supper went off beautifully, Bish Gibson doing the honors and O. D. Waters presiding.

As flower boys, Hunton Tiffany and Ray Ratcliffe passed with high marks. Each girl received a long stem rose, all perfectly lovely.

O. D. gave a characteristic speech of welcome. The guests of honor were members of the Fredericksburg Club as follows: Roger Clarke, president; H. D. Scott, treasurer; Guy Brown and Billy Cole, commonwealth's attorney of the corporation; also the sponsors of the local club, Mrs. Beatrice Leachman and Mrs. May Smith, and Mrs. Elinor C. Johnson widow of "Bobby" Johnson, long a member of the Manassas Club.

Other guests and members of the club were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truesler, Mr. E. R. Conner, Mrs. Bierhen, Miss Walsler Conner and Mrs. James Conner; Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Waters, Miss Nancy Waters, Miss Evelyn Frame and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jamison; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Diddlake; Mr. and Mrs. Hunton Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lloyd, Miss Helen Lloyd, Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, Mr. W. E. Lloyd, Mr. Jenkins Davies; Mr. F. R. Hynson, Miss Shirley Hynson; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn, Mr. J. C. Kincheloe; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sudd, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sudd; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cocks, Miss Evelyn Cocks, Mrs. Marion Lewis; Mr. R. D. Wharton, Miss Margaret Jeffries, Miss Helen Quigg, Mrs. Robert Logan; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hynson, Mrs. Stewart Pattie, Mr. and Mrs. John Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sigman; Rev. Jerome Leinbach.

Following O. D.'s talk, Mrs. Robert Logan, a talented singer, gave the group several solos which were well received. Then Mrs. Beatrice Leachman played a piano solo.

President Roger, of Fredericksburg, introduced his crowd. Billy Cole made the answering speech to O. D.'s talk, citing the comparisons in life shown through "by products." It was a beautiful talk, interspersed with considerable humor. His references to underprivileged child work were keenly appreciated by all present.

All this time Hunton Tiffany, Bill Cocks and Ray Ratcliffe had been strolling around with promiscuous bunches of paper in their hands. Rat then announced that a sudden call from Washington for new recruits to

QUANTICO GENEALOGIST HONORED

Lieutenant Howard N. Kenyon, U.S.M.C., authority on Kenyon, who has won local recognition for his work in genealogical and historical research, has been honored by being included in the list of the leading active genealogical researchers in the United States, in The Handbook of American Genealogy recently issued by the Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago. Recognition in this field affords access to the extensive lineage files of the National Clearing House for Genealogical Information, as well as professional contact with genealogists in 1,984 cities, in 1,285 counties throughout the United States and in 29 foreign countries, which will enable him to expand the scope of his work very materially. It will be of interest to the members and prospective members, and especially to the registrars of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, and other hereditary-patriotic societies to learn that a local resident has formed these international contacts, because they will make possible the necessary genealogical research to qualify for membership without outside aid.

CATHARPIN

At last we can with the poet sing, "Spring, beautiful Spring" for certainly we have had a change in temperature during the last few days and vegetation is now tumbling over itself trying to regain lost prestige. The rains during the past week have done much to recoup the losses caused by their procrastination, but all is now forgiven and farmers are busy harrowing, planting, making garden and trying to regain lost opportunities. Everything is looking beautiful this morning. "Lindy," little six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Griffith, is now much improved after a threatened attack of appendicitis. After a hasty trip to the hospital it was deemed unwise to operate at the present time owing to the probability that it may not again recur. The Griffiths have had four children operated for this trouble and naturally grow quite suspicious when trouble develops in that region.

The little girls, Rita Robertson and Caroline Lynn, who have been on the community's mind for the past several weeks are much improved and now able to walk a little around the room and prospects are bright for their final recovery.

Mr. Frank Lee Hoffman, of Deseret, is now a patient in a Washington hospital where he was hastily taken last week for an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Hoffman is with him and last report is that he is doing nicely.

Mrs. Hollman Willis, of Roanoke, Va., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower, paid the home folks a visit on Sunday and on her return home was accompanied by her mother who will spend a week or so among friends in that city.

Honey bees and "quilting bees" are some busy folks these days. The former paying their respects to the apple and cherry blossoms and the latter trying to get off a special "job" before warm weather sets in. Quilts are mighty fine things to have around where quilts are needed; but it seems that quilts and warm weather are not desirable companions, either in the wearing or the making, hence the haste to finish up an old contract.

Mrs. Mamie Lynch Dulaney and sister, Margaret, were Catharpin callers on Friday last appointing committees for the contest sponsored by the American Legion which is soon to take place. "Miss Mamie" is well known to our people and is always welcome among them.

Well sir, that old adage that "All things come to him who waits" has at last proved its worth and Catharpin has now come into her own. She has waited long and hard, really not knowing where the trouble was until the announcement was made that the American Legion was putting on a "Beauty Contest." This awakened her from her lethargic stupor and sent her sailing away into the realms of glorious anticipation, for if there is anything, in all the world, that she boasts of, it is her beauty; and now that she has a chance, she will shine forth with a radiance that will dazzle the world. All she needs is the opportunity and some one to sponsor her. But from the latest reports, it seems that the sponsors are choosing those who are "already good lookers." This, we think, is a grand mistake. The nominees should be selected from among those in need of improvement and the one making the best grade should receive the prize. Then again we wonder who is to be the judge? and upon what basis is the grading to be done? Full specifications should be circulated so that all may know just how to paint up. Some consider that blue finger nails are prettier while others think red is a beautiful color; and still others think purple is mighty fine, and so on thruout the whole spectrum of the rainbow. Some think that eyebrows should be "plucked" to an infinitestimably blind extremity pointing upward while others would have them point downward and not so sharp on the ends; so considering all the cosmetics, lipsticks, powders, etcetera, it seems there should be some kind of a standard set-up so that all may compete upon a common level. As we aforesaid, Catharpin can use any or all of them or even none at all and still look pretty. Our interest is an unselfish one and our sympathy is with those who need contests to spur them on to better looks; but as for Catharpin, we are so good looking anyway, that we can but sympathize with the rest of humanity.

escaped convict. This is the T. N. T. loaded, thrill-laden climax that brings "Police Car 17," the new feature on the Dixie Theatre bill beginning next Friday, May 18, to its exciting conclusion. Dynamic Tim McCoy, in the starring part, discards his familiar cow-boy togs for the natty blue Radio Police uniform and retires his faithful steed for a powerful 100-horsepower automobile. Opposite Tim in the feminine lead is Evelyn Knapp, who last was seen as the intrepid aviatrix in "Air Hostess." Others in the strong cast are Ward Bond, Edwin Maxwell, Wallis Clark, DeWitt Jennings and Harold Huber. Lambert Hillyer is the director.

Why Visit a Funeral Home?

As we extend this invitation for you to visit our funeral home, the thought arises that you may wonder what reason there is for your accepting it. Briefly, it is no longer customary to wait until need arises before visiting a funeral home. Almost everyone may be obligated to make arrangements for a relative, friend or neighbor. Foresighted people are making it a point to visit and know about the facilities of modern funeral homes, as one of their responsibilities. By doing this they avoid hurried decisions, made in emergencies, that might result in lasting regret. They secure information which helps make their final tribute to loved ones as considerate and beautiful as possible.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
What is the meaning of the Bible?
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

THE FOUNTAIN OF PRAISE: O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it.—Psalm 51: 15, 16.

THANKS, JUDGE SMITH

Considerable concern was felt over the very possible moving of the CCC Camp and the local business men got busy. A delegation of local business men consisting of G. R. Ratcliffe, Ed Conner and J. W. Smith called on Congressman Smith. Our representatives in Congress liberally put their shoulders to the wheel with the result that late last week, Judge Smith made the announcement that the camp would remain here this summer.

Thanks, gentlemen, this was a help for the county and means something in a business way.

MUSIC WEEK

It is very appropriate that the American people designate a definite period of the year as "Music Week," and there is no season of the year when the heart is tuned to the expanding beauties of nature as in the spring.

The ancients considered as music any art over which one of the muses presided. These inferior or secondary divinities were thought to preside over the welfare of such arts as painting, poetry, music and rhetoric. The most ancient of these were the patrons of memory, reflection and song.

The national character of any people is well defined in their music, and enough cannot be said in behalf of the noble art which makes such a direct appeal to the finer sensibilities of mankind. The harmony of tone influences which keep the world inhabitable.

Rev. John M. DeChant and Prof. F. G. Sigman were attendants last Saturday and Sunday at the meeting of the botanical section of the Virginia Association of Science at Teacher's College at Harrisonburg. They went under the leadership of Dr. Ivey Lewis of the University of Virginia and Prof. Chappellear of the Teacher's College with the Annual Botanical Foray. The party of forty or fifty visited a number of rich botanical sections in Rockingham County. They camped for the night in the George Washington National Forest.

LOCAL STUDENTS CAPTURE EVENT

In the first thirteen entrants in the annual Strayer's contest which was held at Warrenton recently eleven were from the schools of this county.

They are in order: Howell Barnes, Occoquan; Samuel Iden, Marshall; Elizabeth Harrover, Haymarket; Jane Lynn, Manassas; Evelyn Frame, Manassas; Bernard Hooe, Nokesville; Catherine Luck, Manassas; Samuel B. Read, Calverton; Louise Beach, Haymarket; Robert C. Teates, Warrenton; Miriam Blough, Manassas; John T. DeBell, Manassas; William T. Allen, Nokesville.

The group examined came from Prince William, Fauquier and Stafford. Nearly a hundred entrants were present.

TO HOLD DRILL AND CONCERT

Linton Hall Military Band will give its third annual radio concert over W.R.C. in Washington on Saturday, May 12, at 2 p.m. The band, under the direction of Sister M. Loyola, B.Mus., consists of twenty cadets, whose ages range from nine to thirteen years of age. They have given many delightful concerts during the past year, and is a big feature in the military activities at the school.

Linton Hall Military School, conducted by the Benedictine Sisters, is just thirty-five miles from Washington, D. C., and is an ideal country school for boys in the grades. Military training in boys so young has many excellent advantages. At Linton Hall there is no high school department, which makes it imperative that all cadet officers, from the highest to the lowest, come from the grammar and primary grades. No parent can possibly overestimate the value to his son of becoming accustomed to assuming responsibility and command during the tender years when his character is forming.

Sunday afternoon the cadets at the school will hold their annual competitive drill, which will be followed by dress parade, guard mounting and retreat. Relatives and those interested in the school are cordially invited to attend the exercises.

The members of the band are: Louis Kengla, Kensington, Md.; Jerry Keogh, Grenville Keogh and Conde Benoit Keogh, Lebanon, N. H.; Marcus Carroll, Margate, N. J.; Norbert Mountjoy, Widewater, Va.; Joseph Salm, Cairo, Egypt; Howard Somma, Richmond, Va.; Eugene and Mauck McGrath, Cristobal, Canal Zone; and the following from Washington: Page Porter, Edward Brennan, Francis Clairvaux, Edmund Burgess, Leonard Doggett, Warren Reid, Francis Cromwell, John Buckley, Robert Harrison and Justin Harrison.

MRS. W. P. SUTPHIN

Mrs. W. P. Sutphin, of Haymarket, died at her home last Saturday, May 5, after an illness of about a week. She was 73 years of age and beloved by a wide circle of friends. Her husband, the late W. P. Sutphin, passed away two months ago and apparently weakened by the shock of her husband's death, Mrs. Sutphin failed to rally in her last illness.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Council and the burial rites at the grave in Marshall were in Marshall were in charge of Rev. Frazier, of that town.

Mrs. Sutphin is survived by four children, Mrs. T. W. Wadter, of Nokesville; Miss Agnes Sutphin, of Washington, and Messrs. Amos and Whitely, of Haymarket. A sister also survives, Mrs. Benton Sutphin, of Aldie.

Mrs. Sutphin had been a faithful member of the Baptist Church and her father was the occasion of widespread regret.

The Manassas Journal, Manassas Virginia.

Dear Friends:

I should like to take this opportunity to thank you folks for the courtesy shown me while working in Prince William County. Your comments in your paper as well as personally, did much to help me in my work there. There is no paper published in Amelia County and now I can fully appreciate what a "County paper" means to a "County" and "town." Prince William can justly be proud to have a paper like The Manassas Journal to help make the county an outstanding one in the state.

Again let me thank each of you for your many considerations during my stay there.

If at any time I can help you in any way please call on me.

Most sincerely,
 BEATRIX CLARK HAWKES,
 Rural Supervisor of Amelia County Schools.

EPPA H. BRYANT

Eppa H. Bryant, aged sixty-two and a lifelong resident of the county until 1916, died at his home in Flint, Mich., on May 1 after a two months' illness.

Interment was in the local cemetery, the funeral services being held at Grace M. E. Church, South, last Saturday afternoon, Rev. W. M. Compton officiating.

The pall bearers were former associates, D. J. Arrington, James E. Nelson, C. E. Fisher, Joseph Muddiman, S. T. Weir, and E. R. Conner. Besides his widow, he is survived by one daughter, Christine; four sons, Keivel, Clarence, Floyd and Paul; three grandsons, Edward, Richard and Kenneth Bryant, and three granddaughters, Edward, Richard and Kenneth Bryant, all of Flint, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. Nella Colbert and Mrs. Emma Clark, both of Washington, and Mrs. Ida Payne, of Lake Toxaway, N. C., and two brothers, Berne and James Bryant, both of Washington.

The deceased belonged to an old Prince William family. Although he had been away for many years, the high regard and esteem in which he was held brought grief to those who knew and liked him.

BUCKHALL LEAGUE TO HOLD "HOME COMING"

The Buckhall Community League will have its regular monthly meeting Friday, May 11, at 8 p. This is to be a "Homecoming" meeting, and all former teachers and students of the Buckhall School are especially invited. Mr. Arrington will talk on Trustees and Superintendents. Mr. H. T. Davies will give the history of the school. The Manassas male quartet will sing and the Carter brothers will furnish some music. Everyone welcome.

Honor Mother by going to church next Sunday.

The prizes were given by local business men and were both beautiful and useful. Next, having settled the matter of the local brain trust, Ray and Hunton went after the male persuasion to orate. Three minute speeches and gurgles were given by R. A. Hutchison, T. E. Didiake, Professor R. C. Haydon, Biah Gibson, Mrs. Bob Smith, Ed Conner and R. D. Wharton. After a lengthy struggle, the committee announced the winner was T. E. Didiake, with Biah Gibson a close second. Ted won by virtue of not keeping to his subject.

With Mrs. Smith at the piano, the meeting then closed with "Best Be the Tie" and the 1934 Kiwanis Ladies Night had been put over par excellent.

COMPLIANCE FORMS CALL FOR REPORTS OF WHEAT SIGNERS

Farmers who are taking part in the national wheat adjustment program will soon be asked to fill out a "1934 proof of compliance" blank which will record the facts and figures of their crop activities in carrying out the terms of the wheat adjustments contracts.

Among the definite information which will be filled out in the compliance forms will be:

1. 1933 wheat record of acres seeded and acres and bushels harvested.
2. 1934 wheat record of acres seeded and acres abandoned.
3. Acres, if any, destroyed in order to comply with contract.

MOTHER'S DAY — MAY 13

Dear Editors:

The following lines were suggested to me and written several years ago, when after the funeral of my mother, one of my children remarked: Grandma's hands looked so pretty! Beautiful hands, Folded at rest; Clapping the lilies On her breast. Wonderful hands that Toiled for me. Patiently always and tenderly. Tireless hands that sewed and mended; Loving hands that labored and tended; Resting, now that this life is ended, Sons and daughters of a dearly loved mother, Remember on that last day When she lies silent and peaceful before you Keep in your heart the memory of her Of days gone by and the love that she bore you, Love so tender and true.

ANGEL MOM

Why is it, Mo, that yuh're always near
Like a still, small voice whisperin' in my ear
The wisdom o' right . . . the folly o' fear?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom, that it always seems
Like yuh're watchin' o'er me in my dreams,
Steerin' me straight in my wakin' schemes?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom, yuh kin only see
The good there is in the heart o' me,
When the world finds . . . all there oughtn't be?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom, when days are long
An' the joys that I thought would last are gone,
I think o' you . . . an' carry on?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom, yer whole life thru
Yuh're singin' my praise . . . when it oughta be you,
Buildin' me up . . . fergettin' yer due?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom, that yer silvery hair
Seems like a halo shinin' there,
Like the light o' heaven the angels wear?
Why is it, Mom?
Why is it, Mom? . . . Well, I think I know;
God needed some love spread here below,
An' the reg'lar angels couldn't go,
So He sent you, Mom.
—Paul Alger.

WOODBIDGE

The May Day entertainment held by the Occoquan School last Monday was attended by a good crowd who were rewarded with a fine program very well executed. The program consisted of the Dance of the Nations given by the pupils of the school who were costumed to represent the various countries, each giving a dance symbolic of the nation they represented. After the dance Miss Doris Brawner received her crown as queen of the May Day from Mr. Richard Haydon, superintendent of schools of Prince William County. The queen was attended by the Misses Rita Hines, Marjorie Anderson, Ruby Lynn, Lillian Bryant, Julia Wolfendon and Elinor Brawner.

Saturday, May 5, Alvis L. Dovel of Fredericksburg, Va., and Miss Dorothy P. Gay of Woodbridge were married at Rockville, Md. Rev. J. Lloyd Black of the Christian Church officiated.

WEEKLY LAUGHS FROM WOODBRIDGE

You know that old saying, "When the cat is away the mouse will play." O.K. Now don't misunderstand me because I don't mean to insinuate at all that Mrs. Thompson is a cat. What little I've known her she seems a fine and lovely lady. Last Tuesday she took the car and went to Manassas so E. W. took his bay mare and rode to the post office. While there the boys got together and put on a show like the boys at Fort Myer. Of course it was on a much smaller scale. Where Fort Myer would have hundreds of horses and thousands of spectators the little show at Woodbridge had one horse and rider and about 5 or 6 spectators otherwise it was very much like the Fort Myer shows. There was one big difference however; the boys at Fort Myer stay on their mounts. This mare of E. W. is a jumper so the boys put up a pole and E. W. started for the jump. Up went the mare and up went E. W. until he was wound around her neck. Down came the mare and E. W. somehow got back in the saddle. The next time the pole slipped, and the jump was only 6 inches and E. W. went over in the saddle. Feeling pretty good he waved the boys to put the pole back to 20 inches. "All right!" yelled Harry Tyrrell and here comes E. W. down the field. Had there been any old dyed in the wool horseman present the thundering hoofs of the spiritual mare would have been music to their ears but alas! there were no horseman around. Now the excitement is running high; they are about to take the jump. Everyone is wild. Harry just ripped the buttons off his shirt and didn't notice it. Reuben is jumping up and down. Oh boy! Everyone is having a swell time. There they go over the jump; the mare is up in the air so is E. W. The mare is coming down by herself. Wait, here comes E. W. Oh, what a sickening thud when E. W. came down. There goes the arc across the field head up, mane and tail flying—what a beautiful sight and there go the boys to pick up E. W. Nothing beautiful about that. But boy, oh boy, E. W. did a good, no, a perfect Prince of Wales right over the head like an airplane leaving the catapult on the good ship Lexington. Well E. W. has what it takes because he got up and explained that the stirrups were too short and if they could catch the mare he would show them how to jump the right way. In about half an hour they caught her and fixed the stirrups but E. W. found she was too hot to run again so the show ended. It is funny how things go. The next two or three days E. W. had a bad case of rheumatism and could hardly get out of bed. Wasn't that odd?

SOUTHERN RAILWAY GETS FARE CONTINUATION

In response to an petition to the Interstate Commerce Commission the Southern Railway has been granted permission to continue the experimental fare schedule put into effect on December 1 of last year.

The extension granted will permit the continuance of these experimental low fares until Dec. 31, 1934.

Far ahead
OF LAST YEAR'S
—and here's what's doing it . . .

It was a great record of leadership that Chevrolet made in 1933! It's an even greater, more impressive record that Chevrolet is making for 1934! Already, sales are tens of thousands of cars ahead of last year. Production is running higher than that of any other automobile company in the world. And every day, from state after state, comes the same report on registrations: Chevrolet is leading all other cars!

The big reason for such preference is plainly shown at the right. Chevrolet has so many vital features that others in the low-price field have left out: Knee-Action wheels that are fully enclosed for complete safety and absolute dependability. A six-cylinder valve-in-head engine with an exclusive "Blue-Flame" head. Big, "cable-controlled" brakes, the best in the low-price field. Large, spacious bodies by Fisher, with Fisher No Draft Ventilation. And real "shock-proof" steering that brings new ease and comfort to driving. No other low-priced automobile has a single one of these five leading 1934 features. That's why no other can be backed by such a confident statement as this:

WINNING

COMBINATION OF

1934 FEATURES

60 HORSEPOWER—60 MILES AN HOUR valve-in-head six of matchless economy

CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES smooth and safe in any weather

BODIES BY FISHER
the biggest and finest among low-priced cars

SHOCK-PROOF STEERING
not found on any other low-priced car

Drive it only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car
