MRS. ASHFORD ENTERTAINS MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

The quarterly meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association of Manassas was recently held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Ashford with the president, Mrs. C. M. Larkin, presiding.

Reports from officers and various committees were heard. The outstanding work of the past quarter was the compiling and typing lists of all Confederate soldiers who enlisted in Prince William County and served in the War Between the States. Much credit is due Mrs. E. H. Hibbs and her committee in perfecting this important historical work.

Two books written by Dr. Douglas Freeman on Lee were ordered purchased for the school library at a cost of $7.50. One hundred Confederate flags, suitable for decoration, were also ordered purchased. Mrs. A. O. Weedon was appointed custodian of flags, rituals, etc.

The following officers were elected to serve the association for another year:

President, Mrs. C. M. Larkin; first vice-president, Mrs. A. O. Weedon; second vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Thornton; recording secretary, Mrs. R. L. Byrd; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. H. Hibbs; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Compton, and historian, Miss Isabelle Hutchison.

A white oak tree, memorial to our Prince William Confederate veterans, will, in a short time, be planted on the Bennett School grounds with appropriate exercises. This tree, a gift from the association. Announcement of date will appear later.

MRS. RICHARDSON ADDRESSES CLUB

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting in the high school building yesterday afternoon after a vacation of two months, the president, Mrs. Paul Cooksey, presiding. After the routine business was disposed of, the club was ushered into the auditorium where they were entertained by Mrs. James A. Richardson, vice-president of the Community Recreational Club of Richmond, who spoke on "The Proper Use of Our Leisure Time."

The faculty and student body were guests of the club. At the conclusion of this charming discourse the meeting was turned over to the hostess committee, Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe and Mrs. Jos. P. Lyon, who served delicious refreshments.

GREEN OPENS CAMPAIGN HERE

Republicans Hold Enthusiastic Rally in Manassas.

Two hundred or more gathered in the high school auditorium last Saturday to hear the Republican speakers who opened the Congressional campaign for the 8th district.

Mr. W. E. Trusler, chairman of the district, introduced Col. J. G. Pepper who in turn introduced John Locke Green, congressional candidate.

Mr. Green, who is a lineal descendant of George Mason, author of the "Bill of Rights," is a pleasing speaker and gave a most interesting talk on the dangers which he considered were confronting the Constitution of the United States.

He paid his compliments to the New Deal and voiced his praise for the good old Democratic party which he said had passed away.

Green was warmly applauded and the meeting very enthusiastic.

A TRIBUTE

It is hard to express the deep sorrow not only of her own family and close friends but of the entire community and a large part of Prince William County in the sudden "calling higher" of La Point Trenis, sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. P. L. Trenis of Nokesville, Va.

It can be truly said of her, "No one ever met her but they met a friend." It made no difference to her old or young, man or woman, boy or girl, nor color nor creed. She was truly a friend to all. In the words of one of her friends "She not only belonged to us of the younger generation but she belonged equally to the older people." Her bright and beautiful character held the love and highest esteem of all who knew her. The little church she loved so much was filled long before the service began and not one fourth of those who came to pay a last tribute to this sweet life could enter. She was not only lovely in face and form but her beautiful Christian life was a shining example to everyone who came in contact with her. In all the relationships of life, as a devoted daughter, as an affectionate sister and a faithful friend she won the love and respect of all.

We cannot help but feel that Heaven is a fairer, lovelier place because she now dwells there. She had finished the work God gave her to do here and so His loving voice called her, "Come up higher." "So grant us, Lord, like her to live Beloved by all, approved by Thee." E. M.

MISS BAYNE ARRIVES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Miss Bayne's relatives are hoping for a visit from her next summer.

Mr. Nelson Bradshaw of Brentsville called by Tuesday and presented The Journal with a bouquet of most regal dahlias. Please accept our appreciation.

Second Consecutive Win Over Ballston Gives Manassas Section B Championship

Dreyfus, Given Good Support, Pitches Brilliant Ball in 7 to 1 Victory.

Before a record crowd that spread far out along the foul lines in both right and left fields, Manassas defeated Ballston Sunday for the second, straight time to win the post-season play-off and take the flag in Section B of the Northern Virginia League. Ballston, still smarting under the effects of a 17 to 5 lacing administered by the local knockers on Labor Day, failed to display the steadiness and snap that characterized their previous play and went down to defeat by a score of 7 to 1. They were charged with four errors, three of which materially aided the Macs' cause.

Upon the shoulders of Hull, the only pitcher who had stopped the local sluggers with any degree of success this season, rested the hopes of the Ballston followers. With but one run charged against the greying veteran in 14 2-3 innings, the confidence seemed justified. Three more hitless innings he added to his previous impressive performances. And then came the fourth. Vetter opened the inning with a line single to center for the first Manassas hit of the game. With the hit and run on, Saunders met the first pitch and sent it winging out to deep right close to the foul line, scoring Vetter with the tying run. Saunders pulled up at third but when Ball who took the throw from right field heaved the ball far over the third baseman's head, continued on to the plate to send the Macs into a lead which they never relinquished. The blow marked the end of Hull's effectiveness and the Macs went on to score another run before the end of the inning. They added two more tallies in the following inning on singles by Saunders and Wurdemann, coupled with a walk, an error and a sacrifice by Lynn. The total was boosted to 6 in the following inning and the final tally added in the 8th without the benefit of a hit. Woodard walked, went to second and then to third on successive wild pitches by Hull and scored as McQuinn was tossing out Vetter.

With the exception of a few uncertain moments in the second inning, Dreyfus was backed with faultless support. Kite at third proves a demon on defense, knocking down hot smashes, scooping up teasing rollers and cutting down runners at first with rifle pegs that proved disheartening to the Ballston cause.

The visitors scored their lone run in the second when Biggs walked, went to second on a sacrifice by Via and reached third when Ball bounced a single off Dreyfus' shins. Bowman walked to fill the bases and Biggs scored when one of Doc's low pitches got away from Lynn. Dreyfus then fanned Hull and forced Wolverton to roll out, Kite to Wurdemann to end Ballston's last scoring chance. From then on Dreyfus was never in difficulty. Including the last two outs in the second he retired twenty-two men in order. Miller scratched a single off Vetter's glove with two out in the ninth to break the string but Biggs popped to Wurdemann to end the game.

LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT WINS AGAIN

The Manassas Volunteer Fire Department participated in the annual Labor Day festivities held this year in Alexandria. With a comparatively green team the local boys won the four-man ladder raising contest, placed second to Harrisonburg in the four-man hose laying contest being less than two seconds behind the winner. Wilson Kite, in his first attempt in the one-man hose contest, lost by two-fifth of a second to the captain of the Harrisonburg team.

Two cups were garnered by the local department in these contests.

The following members made the trip to Alexandria: G. B. Cocke, R. B. Hynson, Wilson Kite, L. P. Byrd, R. B. Davis, Douglas Dodson, T. W. Howard and W. E. Coleman. The company also participated in the parade held on Labor Day.

The local company in a period of three years has won fourteen cups and numerous second places.

Marion Lewis, Director.

Don't Forget the Junior Woman's Club Dance—September 14, at High School Gym.

KIWANIANS ENTERTAIN PROMINENT SPEAKERS

The Kiwanis Club for its past two meetings has had speakers of prominence for its guests. On the 81st, former Mayor Edmund Ticer, of Alexandria, accompanied by City Manager Wallace Lawrence, were guests. Mr. Ticer was introduced by our own mayor, Hon. Harry P. Davis. His remarks dealt with the feasibility of establishing a penal farm somewhat similar to the District Alms House. He explained that Alexandria had spent $100,000 in maintaining its jail in a ten-year period. The opposition of city sergeants and sheriffs, he claimed, would be removed by the fact that their fees would be paid them under the new plan.

The address was well delivered and aroused much interest. The last meeting had a melodramatic tone as established by Bob Hutchison who told the story of several generations of a rural family and its fateful history.

MANASSAS VETERANS TO ORGANIZE

On Tuesday evening, September 18, there will be a rally of the War Veterans with foreign service at the Town Hall in Manassas. The reason for the meeting is to reorganize the old Bull Run Post of the V.F.W. that became defunct some years ago.

Norman Roberts, commander of Russell Mitchell Post of Alexandria will preside, and Walter Johnson of Clarendon, deputy chief of staff, will speak.

All overseas veterans are invited to attend, and only those who have had overseas service in war time are eligible for membership. The V.F.W. was organized in 1899, and in some States leads all other Veteran organizations in membership. It maintains a widows and orphans home in Easton Rapids, Mich., where the dependents of departed members are cared for, and the children educated. Some of the boys have entered West Point from the home.

MARRIAGE RECORD

Sept. 8: Monroe Willard Robinson of Quantico and Cecilia Soltis, of Manassas.

HON. THOS. L. FARRAR.

URGED TO HEAD CONSERVATION

Hon. Thomas L. Farrar Endorsed by Delegation.

Appointment of Thomas L. Farrar, Charlottesville banker and for eight years an active member of the State Conservation and Development Commission, to the chairmanship of that body after January 1, was urged upon Governor Peery in Richmond this week by a delegation of fifteen men high in political and financial circles of Albemarle.

The delegation carried with it for presentation to the Governor resolutions of endorsement furnished by both the City Democratic Committee and by members of the County Democratic Committee. Both of these documents cited his interested and unselfish work on the Commission since his appointment in 1926 and the part which he had in promoting the Shenandoah National Park.

The actual presentation of his case was made by Senator John Battle, of Charlottesville, but the entire body waited upon the Governor.

Under the plan of reorganization for the commission, agreed upon at the last General Assembly, the position of chairman, now held by William H. Carson, will become vacant on January 1. The position will be put on a similar status with the place of Highway Commissioner, in that the Commissioner will have more executive powers.

Son of the Rev. J. M. Farrar, Baptist minister of Lynchburg, Mr. Farrar attended the University of Virginia. After leaving school, he was secretary of the Newport News Chamber of Commerce for a number of years while in business in that City. He went to New York to engage in banking in 1907 and returned here in 1924 to become president of the National Bank & Trust Company. Later he became executive vice-president of the Citizens Bank & Trust Company of Charlottesville and holds this position now.

BRADFORD-LANKFORD

At high noon on Saturday, September 8, St. Andrew's Church at Princess Anne, Md., was the scene of a beautifully appointed wedding when Miss Dorothy Leavitt Lankford of Princess Anne, Md., and James Edward Bradford, Jr., of Manassas, Va., were united in marriage. The church was lavishly decorated with ferns, evergreens, and white gladioli and lighted with white candles. The bride's gown was a brown ensemble with hat to match and she wore a corsage of talisman roses and painted daisies. Miss Marjorie Lankford, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was dressed in a gown of rust color trimmed with gold cord. Her corsage was lilies-of-the-valley and white rosebuds. The groom and the best man, who was Mr. Wallace Lynn of Manassas, wore boutonnières of gardenias. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. M. S. Lankford of Central Baragus, Cuba.

After the ceremony a breakfast was served to out-of-town guests at the home of the aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lankford of Princess Anne. After the breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bradford, Jr., left for a motor trip which will include a visit to the Century of Progress.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bradford, Miss Ann Bradford, Mrs. Frederick R. Hynson, Mr. Warren N. Hynson, Mrs. Eula Holt Marchant, Mr. J. H. Merchant, Mrs. A. S. Gibson, Miss Susie Gibson, Miss Evelyn Cocke and Miss Eleanor Gibson of Manassas.

U. D. C. PRIZES ARE ANNOUNCED

Use of Term "Civil War" Is Not Correct.

The historian of the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., invites special attention to the following:

The term "Civil War" is a misnomer for the War of 1861-65.

Prior to the war of 1861-65, the United States was a confederation of sovereign states, each state recognized as being independent. It was a voluntary union of states from which any one had the constitutional right to secede.

When eleven states withdrew from the Union because their rights had been violated, twenty-two states waged war against them: the conflict was a war between states, not a "Civil War," as that term signifies a strife between two parties in one state—one side upholding the authority of the state, the other fighting against it.

SKYLAND OPENING
 IS POSTPONED
 On account of the inability of President Roosevelt to attend the formal exercises next Sunday the dedication of Skyland Drive has been indefinitely postponed.
 In making the announcement, Secretary of the Interior also stated that only about 15 miles of the drive will be opened to the public next Saturday. This will be the portion from the Panorama gateway to Big Meadows.
 While no official reasons for not opening the entire highway was given in the announcement, it is assumed that delay in the oiling of the rest of the road is responsible for its remaining closed at this time. This activity is under supervision of the Department of Agriculture and it is believed that the recent rains so retarded the oiling operations as to make it impossible to complete the surface work in time for the formal dedication.

CHAMBER BACKS PARK
 Told that the Federal Government might select a site in Fairfax County for a large park and recreation center, the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce, meeting at Fairfax Tuesday night, unanimously went on record favoring the project and directed that copies of its resolution be forwarded to senators Carter Glass and Harry Flood Byrd and Representative Howard W. Smith.

CATHARPIN

Say, how about that linotype machine? You know we advised you some time ago to get it "streamlined" so it would not make mistakes.
If our memory serves us right it mixed things up a little for us last week. Did you notice it?

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Manassas were Catharpin visitors last Sunday evening calling upon Mrs.
Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N.
Pattie.

Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, are on a week's visit to Mrs. Lynn's sister, Mrs. Stephenson, of Front Royal, Va.

Many silos were filled last week throughout the neighborhood and the "hum of the cutter" almost compelled one to feel that prosperity was almost here. This, coupled with the fact that the corn crop is good and feed, particularly the "long" variety, is more plentiful than usual, sort of put new life into things. Many head of Government cattle have been applied for; some have been delivered while others are held up pending price adjustment. The farmer has had a long siege of nonproductive energy but it is now hoped the cattle situation may help him realize on his available resources.

The adjourned meeting of the fourth quarterly conference of the Sudley circuit will be held at the parsonage on Saturday the 15th at 10:30 for the purpose of closing the year's business ready for the annual conference which meets in Baltimore the first week in October. It is important that all stewards be present.
From the beginning of the new conference year the Board of Stewards assumes an entirely different relation to the church than formerly due to new laws enacted by the last general conference of the church. This and the financial situation is in need of the attention of all—both official and lay.

Services at Sudley were pretty well attended on last Sunday morning when the pastor preached an excellent sermon on "Giving." We hear so much these days about "always wanting money" but usually the complaint comes from those who give little or nothing while, usually, those who bear the burden say the least about it. However, it seems that the country churches, at least the ones we know, are in distress; financially, spiritually, and in most every way a church is supposed not to be. Just where the trouble lies is probably a matter of opinion, but "trouble," by whatsoever name one wishes to call it, seems to be lurking around in every "nook and corner"
ready to furnish excuses to palliate one's conscientious scruples for neglect of known duties. "But one thing is as sure as the sun school maintained in the community they've got to support it both financially and in person; and that doesn't mean "just maybe."

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald visited the Rev. and Mrs. K. D. Swecker of Colesville, Md., enjoyed an excellent dinner and found them in their usual health. They send greetings to all and singular the friends of Sudley and Gainesville and seem well contented with their lot.

This community last week witnessed a scene which had almost been allocated to the past ages when a drove of more than 100 cattle passed along the highway from Gainesville thru Catharpin to the Sudley neighborhood where the Government is sending them to pasture and for winter's provender. The scene reminded one of the "good old days"

when Henry Lynn, Peter Polen, Gus di Zerega, and others were wont to traverse the highways with herds of cattle ready for the market. It was undoubtedly a sight beautiful to behold when a herd of fat, sleek steers passed by and every one within "eye-shot" would take a peep at them and being guessing what this one and that one would weigh. The guessing of weights became almost an actual science among the dealers since profits and losses, oft times, were contingent upon the accuracy of the guess. The "newcomers," however, did not look as sleek and oily as those of yore but many of them showed signs of being the "fore-runners" of good steaks, roasts and tee-bones to say nothing of soups, tripe and sausages. But the times have changed and the people-at-large no longer have the opportunity of viewing the "finished product" as it treks to market but must be content with the rumble and roar of the big twelve-wheelers as they transport them to the Metropolitan areas where they are destined to become the piece de resistance on the menu cards for those able to pay the price.
But the old days are gone and the new ones are here with a vengeance.
Some day the present will become the "old days" and no doubt some one will be doing just what we are doing just now—trying to say something pathetic about the by-gone days which, after all, will not be fully understood by any one except the "old timer" who may yet be alive and who had witnessed the things spoken of. But that is the way of life.

"WELCOME HOME" PARTY
AT "MOUNTAIN REST"

"Mountain Rest," the interesting home of Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Berkeley, was the scene of a hospitable gathering on Monday afternoon, Sept. 10, when the daughters of the 8th Va. Reg't Chapter met with a twofold mission, namely, to observe the 40th anniversary of the founding of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and to give a "housewarming" to Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley, who have been living in Alexandria,
and have just recently returned to their home here.

Mrs. Berkeley was unanimously elected an honorary member of the chapter and as she is a talented musician and possesses a gracious personality, she will be a charming addition to the 8th Va.

Delicious refreshments were served on the wide veranda, where the guests divided their attention between the ice cream and the wide view of the surrounding country, which seemed literally to be spread at our feet.

Afterwards music was indulged in and old Southern songs were sung,
to the delight of all present.

The "Daughters" voiced their appreciation of the fact that during the entire life of the 8th Va. Reg't Chapter which was organized in 1899, at the home of the Misses Wise, near Woolsey, the chapter has been blessed with the services of one president only; our own beloved Miss Lucy Berkeley, and we gave her three cheers with a right good will,
and a silent prayer in each heart;
that she may long be spared to reign
over the affairs of the 8th Va.

A GREAT PRAYER: Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake; let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.—Psalm 69.6.

THE MORRO CASTLE FIRE

One of the most terrific holocausts of recent years took place in the early hours of last Saturday morning when a placial ship, enroute from Cuba to New York was destroyed by fire in sight of land, off the New Jersey coast.

More than a hundred lives were lost and the terrible experiences of the survivors indicate improper discipline and inadequate fire-fighting organization. It is for the investigating agencies to determine the true facts and all will hope that out of the frightful disaster will come more efficient inspection and regulation of ships carrying human lives. Fortunately this ship is beached and a full inspection of what remains can be made. If it is found that there has been criminal activities in connection with the fire the utmost punishment should follow.

SCHOOL ZONES

The opening of schools brings into action the thousands of "school zone" signs along the nation's highways. All intelligent motorists know the usual hours the children are on the roads in their daily journeys to and from the schools and it is important for the protection of the boys and girls to heed these signs and also to exercise due caution in passing the school busses. Little children are likely to pop out of unexpected places and should always be passed at greatly reduced speed.

TEXTILE STRIKE FAILING

Already there are indications that the great textile strike which agitators claimed would paralyze the nation is failing. Many mills, particularly in the South, are opening again and the extent of unemployment in the North is not particularly increasing. The temper of the American public is something which has to be reckoned with finally and while Labor Unions generally seem to be fostering the present tie-up, evidently they see that a general sympathetic strike would react in an undesirable way upon the cause of Unionism. Therefore the strike will not be successful.

JOHN THOMAS COLEMAN, C.S.A.
(contributed)

John Thomas Coleman, Confederate veteran, passed away Wednesday, Sept. 5, at the home of his grandson, Warren E. Coleman, on East Center street, Manassas.

With the dawn of the new day, he departed, peacefully, without suffering, closing his eyes in sleep. Gradually he had approached the end, with strength ebbing, by passing of relentless time, but retaining his faculties until the last. Conscious of the sickle that knows no distinction, he bade his aged wife and grandson "goodbye."

The memory of this noble, gentle, brave, kind man will live long in the minds of those who knew him best. Mr. Coleman was born near Markham, Fauquier County, Va., Sept. 22, 1843. He was the son of John and Amanda Farrow Coleman. His maternal great grandfather was Colonel Richard Route of Revolutionary fame.

When a boy of eighteen years, Mr. Coleman enlisted in the Confederate army as a member of Co. A, 38th Battalion, Virginia Artillery, Pickett's Division. His company was formed in Fauquier County with Capt. Stribling, a noted physician and personal friend of Mr. Coleman in command. Capt. Stribling later became Colonel at which time W. C. Marshall, a great grandson of Chief Justice Marshall, was promoted to rank of Captain.

Mr. Coleman was often detailed by Col. Stribling to go on errands of important mission. The following letter received by Mr. Coleman from his captain tells something of his record as a soldier:

Markham, Va., April 19, 1916.
 To John T. Coleman
 Dear Sir:

This is to certify that you were a member of Fauquier Artillery for several years and to state, we did not have first or last a braver or more faithful soldier in the company, and though you were nearly blind you remained with us to the last. I am truly glad to be able to testify that I saw you in many battles and you never failed to do your duty and do it well.

Hoping you will get the pension you so richly deserve,
 I am truly yours,
 W. C. Marshall,
 Capt. Fauquier Artillery,
 Co. A 38 Va.
 Bat. of Artillery.

As stated, Mr. Coleman remained with his company throughout the war from 1861 to Appomattox. It was at the battle of Gettysburg on that intensely hot July 4 that he, not yet recovered from measles, received permanent injury to his eyesight which a few years later resulted in total blindness. While over half of his ninety years was spent in darkness he was never heard to complain of his affliction and in conversation, very seldom, if ever did he refer to it.

On March 23, 1868, John T. Coleman married Helen Theodosia Stickley, Catlett. To this union were born two children, Thomas F. and Fannie Lou Coleman Brock, both preceding him in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman had passed their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary, a record to which few attain. Mr. Coleman is survived by his widow, ninety-three years of age, by five grandchildren, namely: Mrs. Harrison Richards, Kelley Field, Tex.; Mrs. Luther Redcay, Hanover, Pa.; Miss Helen Coleman of Washington; Francis Brock of Massachusetts, and Warren E. Coleman of Manassas, and five great grandchildren.

After the war Mr. Coleman engaged in the mercantile business in Warren County, coming to Manassas about thirty years ago to reside with his son, Tom.

Funeral services were conducted from the home on Friday morning by Rev. W. M. Compton of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The beautiful floral offerings bore evidence of love and esteem in which he was held by friends and loved ones.

The pallbearers were R. L. Byrd, Yost Meetze, J. L. Bushong, E. K. Evans, C. B. Compton and W. R. Akers.

Through the quiet aisles of the cemetery where many of his comrades are sleeping, his body was laid to rest in the Coleman plot near the Confederate monument to await the resurrection—

"For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

CASH BUYERS OF COUNTRY PRODUCE

DEPOSITS INSURED
 BY
The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
 WASHINGTON, D. C.
$5000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR $5000

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas has received from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at Washington the official signs which will hang at all receiving windows as visible evidence that the depositors of this institution are insured.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas is one of more than 14,000 licensed banks in the country which are receiving these signs. Insured banks are able to offer protection to their depositors up to $5,000. Statistical studies have shown that this maximum fully protects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured banks.

"The purpose of the signs is to let depositors know which banks are insured. Heretofore, although 90 per cent of the licensed banks are insured, depositors have had no easy means of identifying them.

"If, by any unforeseen circumstance, an insured bank should suspend, the Insurance Corporation would begin paying off the depositors just as soon as a receiver was appointed for the closed institution. The depositors would receive their money in a few days instead of waiting months or years as was the case in the former method of liquidation. This is not only a benefit to the depositors, but it saves the community from a terrific economic and social blow. When the depositors receive their insured accounts they assign their claims to the Insurance Corporation. Thereafter liquidation proceeds on a business-like basis with the maximum chance of the Corporation and other creditors being paid in full."

COLEMAN RULING WIDELY DISCUSSED
Compensation of Commonwealth's Attorneys Effected.

The State will lose revenue and Commonwealth's Attorneys will benefit, if the recent decision of Judge Frederick W. Coleman, of Fredericksburg, stands the tests of appeal. The rulings of Judge Coleman have always shown a deep insight into correct interpretation of statute law, it is stated, and the Chairman of the State Compensation Board, Hon. E. R. Combs, is quoted as expressing the opinion that Judge Coleman's ruling will be likely to stand.

According to Judge Coleman's decision, handed down this week, the compensation of Commonwealth's Attorneys should approximately equal their average salaries for the last three years. Until this decision, it has been the ruling of the Attorney General that the compensation should not be more than that received in 1933. The decision was handed down in the Circuit Court of King Georges County.

"THE THIN MAN" PRESENTS
BAFFLING MURDER MYSTERY

If you enjoy sitting on the edge of your chair, and if you enjoy being left completely in the dark while trying to solve a most baffling murder mystery, don't fail to see the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer - Cosmopolitan picture, "The Thin Man," which opens next Monday at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas.

Alexander Woolcott declared "The Thin Man" to be the best detective story ever written by an American author, and Sinclair Lewis described it as the most breathless of all of Dashiell Hammett's stories. This reviewer agrees with both these learned literary men.

"The Thin Man" is the story of Nick Charles, an ex-detective who is Sherlock Holmes, S. S. Van Dyne and all other crack detectives rolled into one.

It tells of three murders which involved Charles, against his will, with the unusual Wynant family. His method of solving the crimes provides one of the most exciting and unusual climaxes of all detective pictures.

William Powell plays Nick Charles, and surpasses all his earlier detective roles in the role. Myrna Loy appears as his happy-go-lucky wife, Nora and Maureen O'Sullivan carries off honors with her successful handling of the part of Dorothy Wynant.

Minna Gombell, more often seen in comedy parts, appears in a tense emotional role in this picture, and Nat Pendleton, always a gangster heretofore, becomes a bewildered detective lieutenant. Other roles are ably handled by Porer Hall, Henry Wadsworth, William Henry and Edward Ellis.

Think twice before you use
16 PER CENT

Read how L. M. Farmer, of Brandy, Culpeper Co., got 15 bu. more wheat per acre with AGRICO for Grain

YOU'RE sending a boy on a man's errand when you use "16 per cent" to grow wheat. Wheat needs a complete, well-balanced fertilizer. Give it a liberal supply of all the plant foods it needs to get off to a good start, carry through the winter, and develop good, plump kernels that make heavy-yielding, quality wheat.

That's the way to get a better-than-average crop that means the difference between a good profit and just average farming. Try Agrico for Grain, the fertilizer with the extra plant foods, like Mr. L. M. Farmer did, and see your profits jump, too. Here's what Mr. Farmer says:

Agrico produced 15 bu. more than 16%. "Six years ago Mr. Thrift, of Ratic & Thrift, A. A. C. Agents, advised me to use Agrico 2-12-4 on my wheat. That year I sowed 20 acres of wheat. Ten acres I fertilized with 16% and ten with Agrico 2-12-4, 300 lbs. per acre. I made 15 bu. per acre on the part fertilized with 16% and 30 bu. per acre with Agrico. Since then I have used Agrico 2-12-4 every year. The yield per acre has increased each year. "Last Fall I sowed 13 acres in wheat, with corn shucks in the field. With the loss of space taken up by the corn shucks, I threshed 469 1/4 bu. off of this 13 acres, an average of 36 1-9 bu. per acre. The wheat is such good quality that I have been offered 15¢ a bu. above the present market price. So the quality premium alone will more than pay for the entire cost of the Agrico I used."—(Signed) L. M. Farmer.

M. M. FAULCONER
Brandy, Va.

Agrico Beat 16% by 9 bu. per acre. "I used 16% for two years after I came here, but my neighbor, Mr. L. M. Farmer, was beating me on wheat, as well as clover. So I asked what kind of fertilizer he was using and he told me Agrico for Grain. Since I started using Agrico I have increased my average yield of wheat by 9 bu. to the acre—that is, from 14 bu. per acre with 16% to 23 bu. with Agrico. And I now get better clover, too. When I used 16%, my clover was spotty and full of weeds and the yield was one and one-quarter tons per acre. Since using Agrico, my clover averages two tons per acre and it's all clover."—(Signed) M. M. Faulconer.

JOHN C. HUTCHINSON
Newport, Va.

Better Clover Alone Pays for Agrico. "Last Fall I sowed 14 acres in wheat with Agrico. Weather was very unfavorable, but I have harvested 19 bu. per acre, of the prettiest headed wheat I ever grew. This is far above the 10 bu. an acre average for my neighborhood this year. My surplus grain will bring a premium of 50¢ a bu. for seed. With Agrico, I have also obtained one of the best sets of clover in years. In a year when meadow grass yields are short, this alone will pay the cost of Agrico."—(Signed) John C. Hutchinson.

R. P. SMITH
Locust Grove, Va.

Has used Agrico for 10 years. "I was the first man in this county to use Agrico for Grain, more than ten years ago. Before that I used the ordinary fertilizer in the section, 16% and 2-8-2, and my average yield was 12 to 14 bushels. Since using Agrico, my yields average 22 bu. per acre, an increase of 10 bu. One year I did try some 16% again, but the wheat wasn't worth cutting so I turned the stock in on it. That experience switched me to Agrico for good. Agrico is so satisfactory on wheat that I use it on corn, too. I'm glad to recommend Agrico to other farmers."—(Signed) R. P. Smith.

Now's the time to get back some of the money you couldn't make when wheat was selling for 50 or 60 cents. Agrico will help you do it. Remember, in addition to the right amount of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, Agrico contains extra plant foods that provide the extra crop-producing power these farmers tell you about. Give it a trial this year—you'll not regret it.

Operation of some of the NRA codes, such as the fertilizer industry code, make it expedient for cooperatives to charge patrons the going price. Such a policy on certain commodities has already been decided upon by the Southern States Board of Directors. The result will probably be a substantial increase in patronage dividends. 2% paid on last year's business before codes set prices. Insist upon receiving Patronage Refund Certificates on each purchase of Southern States supplies and preserve them.

SPECIAL SUPERPHOSPHATE is supplied at the price of regular 16% Superphosphate. Special Superphosphate contains 16% readily available phosphoric acid and 4% slowly available—a total of 20%. Thus you secure 80 pounds of slowly available phosphoric acid in each ton of Southern States Special Superphosphate you purchase—and at NO EXTRA COST! Experiment Station tests show slowly available phosphoric acid to be a valuable source of plant food.

ENROLLMENT UP IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Congestion Relieved by Prompt Action.

With an increased enrollment of from 5 to 8 per cent several congestion problems have been offered both in the class room and on the bus routes. Both of these have been effectively handled by the Division Superintendent, Professor R. C. Haydon.

Delegations were present from the Hickory Grove section relative to possible changes in the bus route which runs from Haymarket to Hickory Grove, via Waterfall and terminating at Gossom's Store. After considerable debate, the Board made no changes in the present routing.

The Sweeney bus to Catharpin being congested, the Board ordered the Buckley bus to back track to McCuin's gate.

The Board endorsed a proposition made by representatives of the Dumfries school who informed them that the school league there has a central heating plant as its main objective for this year's work. A committee of the Board will secure estimates and the Board will co-operate as far as possible.

The commercial department at Manassas and the new one just organized at Occoquan were reported as getting under way nicely.

The report of Harry P. Davis, who made the audit of the school funds, was found to indicate a satisfactory condition of the school funds.

All members of the Board were present and a large number of details were attended to.

Plan now to increase your yields per acre, improve the quality and hasten maturity of your crops by using Armour's BIG CROP Fertilizers this fall.

Made of the right materials to supply the plant food your crops need, Armour's BIG CROP Fertilizers will help you make every acre produce a profit-making yield at a lower cost per bushel.
