U. D. C. NAMES MRS. LONAS HEAD

Birth Anniversary of Organization Is Celebrated.

The September meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held at the home of Mrs. Lucy Washington with Mrs. Middlethorn and Mrs. Ellis assistant hostesses.

The growing interest in this work of love is evidenced by the large attendance and enthusiasm shown.

One of the most interesting features was the presence of Miss Lon Moxley who is in her ninety-fourth year, wearing a gown made recently by her own hands. Miss Moxley is the oldest and most honored member of the chapter, an enthusiastic and loyal daughter of the Confederacy; indeed she is a real daughter, having experienced the pleasures and hardships of the trying days of the early Sixties.

Another appreciated guest was Mrs. Nellie Clarkson Reading, daughter of our friend, Dr. H. M. Clark, poet laureate of Manassas Chapter until his death. Mrs. Reading was a charter member of the chapter and received a cordial greeting.

Mrs. Hibbs exhibited an excellent picture of Col. Magnus Thompson, aged eighty-eight, which she had secured for the Scrap Book.

The question of organizing a chapter for the young people was discussed and favorably decided upon, and Mrs. Hite will be asked to be in charge.

The chapter is much indebted to Mr. Davies for his excellent work, making a list of all Confederate veterans enlisting from Prince William County.

The following delegates to the convention in Petersburg October 1 were named: Mrs. Robt. Hutchison, Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, Mrs. L. Byrd, Mrs. L. Weedon; alternates, Mrs. C. M. Larkin, Mrs. Herbert Nash, Mrs. Lucy Washington and Mrs. Ayleene Guthrie.

The officers for the ensuing year will be: President, Mrs. Lonas; vice-presidents, Miss Speiden, Mrs. Washington, Mrs. Allen, Miss Connor; recording secretary, Mrs. Hutchison; treasurer, Mrs. Byrd; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Weedon; historian, Mrs. Thornton; registrar, Mrs. Dowell; recorder of crosses, Mrs. Jackson; custodian, Mrs. Newman.

This being the fortieth anniversary of the organization, the following program was rendered under the supervision of the historian:

Mrs. Thornton gave the history of the founding of the United Daughters of the Confederacy under the auspices of Mrs. Goodlett and Mrs. Raines Sept. 10, 1894, also an interesting account of the organization of Manassas Chapter July 21, 1896. After which each one who had served as president was asked to give the important events of her administration. The first president, Mrs. E. E. Meredith, unable to be present, was represented by Mrs. Thornton. Mrs. C. M. Larkin, the next in roll, gave a brief resume of the principal events of the six years and four years later of her service. Mrs. Byrd gave an account of Mrs. Speiden's successful terms of office. Miss Lion responded for Mrs. A. W. Sinclair. Mrs. Thornton responded for herself. Mrs. Hynson being absent no report. Mrs. Newman gave the principal events of her ruling. Mrs. Lonas gave an account of Mrs. Westward Hutchison's accomplishments during her term. Mrs. Byrd and Mrs. Ashford told of the important events during their terms. Mrs. Ashford also told of Mrs. C. A. Sinclair's success. Mrs. Robert Hutchison ended the roll with the events of the past two years.

The exercises completed, two large birthday cakes were brought in, Miss Moxley cutting the anniversary cake and Mrs. Reading the Manassas Chapter cake.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses which were much enjoyed. This was one of the largest attendances on record with three guests, Mrs. Cocke, Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Roland.

WILL GIVE BARBECUE

The Young Democrats of Fairfax County, in association with the Democratic Executive Committee, met last night at Fairfax Courthouse and decided to hold a giant barbecue on the Fair grounds some evening in October.

The invited speakers will be Senator Byrd, Judge Smith, and some other prominent figure in national politics.

MACS TO TRY AGAIN

The opening game of the crucial series with Middleburg was rained out last Sunday, much to the disappointment of the followers of both teams. The game will be played, however, this Sunday, September 23, at Manassas. The delay seems to have caused more interest than existed before and the local management expects a record turnout Sunday. Dreifus will be on the mound for the Macs, and Furr, who has lost but one league game this year, will do the flinging for the invaders. Play starts on Swavely Field at 3 p.m.

CLUB DANCE A BIG SUCCESS

Junior Club Meets with Mrs. Lyon.

The Junior Woman's Club dance on Friday, September 14, was a tremendous success from every standpoint. The orchestra was exceptionally good, and their variety of numbers very delightful, the selections suiting everyone present. The funds made will be given to charities.

The September meeting was held at Mrs. Joe Lyon's with a good attendance, on Thursday, September 13. Last-minute plans for the dance were discussed, and final details worked out.

The committee appointed to read plays, Pattie Hatcher, Meaker Burke and Frances Bushong, presented their selection of plays. The members discussed their favorites, and finally narrowed the choice to two plays. One of these will be presented in November by the members, and with local talent participating entirely.

Plans for either building a float for the Dairy Festival or making a contribution were discussed, and after a close vote, it was decided to make a donation of $5.00 to the Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival Association.

The budget committee, with Christine Meetze as chairman, reported that a budget had been drawn up, but if the wishes of the club permitted, they would wait to read it until the following meeting, as several things had been overlooked.

A scrap book, prepared by the publicity committee, was brought to the club, and articles of interest to the club requested for use in the book. Favorable report was made on publicity during the dance, and on other matters.

The program committee reported that work on the year-book was almost completed, and would be ready for distribution at the October meeting.

Chaperones in attendance at the dance were Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Mrs. W. E. Trusler, Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson, Mrs. Fred Hynson, Mrs. S. E. Bevans and Mrs. J. P. Lyon.

LEGION REELECTS HOWARD JAMISON

Enthusiastic Outlook for Coming Year.

The Prince William American Legion Post, No. 158, at the meeting held September 13, at the town hall, reelected Captain Howard Jamison, commander of the Post. Other officers are first vice-commander, Dr. Stewart McBryde; second vice-commander, Marshall Haydon; adjutant, Miss Margaret Lynch; finance officer, Clell W. Fitzwater; sergeant-at-arms, William Hanlon, and chaplain, Peyton Larkin.

Captain Jamison presented the post's first charter and announced that the enrollment was greater now than it had ever been, and he appointed special interest what could be done with the membership in this post.

A float will be entered in the Dairy Festival parade held here September 28, and Mrs. Stewart McBryde and Miss Margaret Lynch were asked to take charge of the plans.

SEPTEMBER MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. C. J. Meetze on Wednesday, Sept. 26, at 3 p.m. Election of delegates to the State convention at Roanoke, Va., will take place at this meeting. Any member who can go will please be present.

MRS. E. H. HIBBS ENTERTAINS GARDEN CLUB

The Garden Club of Manassas met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hibbs Thursday, the 13th, at 3 p.m. A short business session was held. Mrs. Jack Leachman and Mrs. Paul Cooksey were elected delegates to represent the club at the convention of Federated Garden Clubs of Virginia to be held in Richmond Oct. 18-19.

An invitation was extended from the Garden Section of the Woman's Club to the members to be present at a reciprocity meeting to take place at Swavely School Oct. 1, 2:30 p.m.

At the conclusion of the business the meeting was turned over to the chairman of program committee, Mrs. A. A. Hooff, who introduced Mrs. Robt. M. Reese of Alexandria, who lectured on the subject, "Birds of Virginia," illustrating with her large collection of stuffed and mounted specimens. Following the lecture, a display of beautiful flowers were exhibited by member in the dining room where refreshments were served Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton presiding at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Edgar Parrish, Mrs. Roger Cross, Mrs. Lamond and Mrs. Boock of Bristow and Washington were the guests of the club.

Manassas Already Presents Colorful Aspect.

With all plans practically complete, Manassas has begun its decorations, with trained artisans at work to dress the town in its coat of many colors. Banners, pennants, flags, fluttering in the breeze, make a very pleasing sight for the visitor.

The list of those in this year's court is as follows:

Miss Sheila Sultan, of Washington, will be crowned Regina IV by Governor George C. Peery, and she has chosen as her maids of honor Miss Emma Henry Tompkins of Washington, and Miss Dorothy Rust of Alexandria. The Princesses, one from each of the participating counties, are as follows:

Princess-at-Large, Miss Ruth Hooker of Nokesville; Princess Arlington, Miss Audrey Marcey of Clarendon; Princess Culpeper, Miss Mary Inskeep of Culpeper; Princess Fauquier, Miss Virginia Jones, of Markham; Princess Fairfax, Miss Mary Blake of Fairfax; Princess Loudoun, Miss Elizabeth Rust of Leesburg; Princess Madison, Miss Beulah Thrift of Madison; Princess Orange, Miss Adra Browning of Orange; Princess Prince William, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Lewis of Manassas; Princess Rappahannock, Miss Nancy Fletcher of Sperryville; Princess Stafford, Miss Nancy Moncure of Stafford; Princess Spotsylvania, Miss Mary Yourtee of Fredericksburg; Princess Alexandria, Miss Lorraine Littlefield of Alexandria. Little Miss Jean Melnick will act as crown bearer to the queen, and the Misses Ann Laser and Margaret Jarrell will serve as train bearers.

Every other angle of the affair has been arranged for in a most competent manner. School children will come from the schools throughout the participating area to march in the parade. The town and countryside will thro to the music of a large array of bands, school, civic and service. Bright red fire trucks from all over northern Virginia will add color to the event.

Enlarging on last year's program, officials in charge of the Festival have arranged to have the parade and coronation exercises supplemented by an aerial exhibition, dancing and musical entertainment by several bands. An opening ball will be held at the high school gym on Thursday evening and the Queen's Ball will be held at the same place Friday evening, with music furnished by a nationally known orchestra.

DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING CONTEST

A dairy cattle judging contest, open to 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America in Arlington, Culpeper, Loudoun, Prince William, Orange, Fauquier, Fairfax, Madison, Stafford, Rappahannock, and Spotsylvania Counties, is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. as a part of the program of the Fourth Annual Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival to be held at Manassas, Va., Friday, Sept. 28.

R. G. Connelly, extension division man, V. P. I., and Prof. P. M. Reeves of V. P. I. will select the winners of the contest and hold a review of the classes immediately after the contest. Liberal cash prizes are being offered by the Festival management and special bred prizes are being offered by dairy breed associations.

This is one of the many features of the program which has come to be recognized as the leading dairy event of the East. Included in the list of people who have accepted invitations to be present at the festival are Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, Dr. J. C. McDowell, Chief of Dairy Herd Improvement Investigations, U.S.D.A., and O. E. Reid, Chief of the Dairy Division of the United States Department of Agriculture.

ATTEND MUNICIPAL SESSIONS

Town Manager Cocke and Councilman E. G. Parrish returned this morning from Staunton where the annual convention of the League of Virginia Municipalities is being held. They were especially interested in the sessions held dealing with the building code. Mayor Davis, former head of the organization, remained for the entire proceedings.

ATTEND THE DAIRY FESTIVAL DANCES.

HIGH RATING FOR BOY SCOUTS

Manassas Scouts Among Sixteen High Troops.

Scoutmaster R. O. Bibb has been advised by the National Headquarters in Washington that Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, of Manassas, has been placed among eleven high score troops of Maryland, northern Virginia and Washington, D. C.

At a special inspection in August the local scout committee inspected the troop and forwarded the inspection report to Washington, where the rating was made at the national headquarters.

DAIRY EXPERT ADDRESSES KIWANIS

A. M. Loomis, of the National Dairy Union, a legislative expert who is working in the interest of the protection of the butter fat industry, gave the local Kiwanis Club one of the highest type addresses which have been made in recent months.

Coming as the guest of Walter Sudd, of the program committee, he held the attention of the audience for the entire period allowed him, and judging by the applause he received, the talk went over well.

JUNIORS TO HAVE CLASS INITIATION

A number of state and national officers of the Order of Fraternal Americans were guests of District Deputy George Baker, local councils, OFA and the Daughters of America last Friday night at the local hall.

During an intermission, the Daughters served a splendid supper which all hands enjoyed.

A number of speeches were made afterwards in an effort to boost the membership in this District. The members present agreed to put on a District Class at the hall of Aden Council on the evening of November 15. A goal of forty members has been set, fifteen of which are to be gotten by Bull Run Council.

PAINFUL INJURY

While working at the Manse Mr. R. F. Arey fell and dislocated his shoulder. While the injury was very painful it was not serious and Mr. Arey is much better.

FUTURE FARMERS SELECT BEAR

Nokesville Boys Arrange Busy Program.

The Nokesville Chapter of Future Farmers of America held the first meeting for the school year on Thursday afternoon at which time new officers were elected and installed. Clifford Bear was elected president by a unanimous vote after Philip Reading made clear the fact that he wished to work in the ranks this year and delegate the first office to someone else. The remaining offices were filled after considerable debate and discussion of the qualifications possessed by the respective candidates. The election was as follows: Robert Beahm, vice-president; Eugene Flory, secretary; Philip Reading, treasurer; William Schaeffer, reporter; Raymond Showalter, watch dog; H. M. Love, director. Clement Rollins, Roy Frederick and Robert Cocke compose the executive committee. The applicants for membership this year will be conducted by Beverly King and John Hively.

The chapter is getting down to business at the very beginning of the school year and will hold regular monthly meetings on the first Thursday of each month. All former members of the local chapter are invited to renew their membership and assist in making this a banner year for our organization. Plans are being made for our chapter to be represented in the judging contest which will be held under the auspices of the Piedmont Dairy Festival on September 28. In addition to this we are making complete plans for a Dairy and Poultry show which will be held on October 19 in cooperation with the 4-H Club of Brentsville district. William Schaeffer, Reporter.

CATHARPIN
 One of our reportorial staff called in this Tuesday morning and said she had an item for the paper. We told her to let it come which she did as follows: "The sun's shining." It certainly was a relief to see the sun on Monday and Tuesday after the deluge of several days duration during which all records seem to have been broken. Down Stone House way the streams including Young's Branch had risen to heights unknown to the present generation. Over Groveton Way some of the inhabitants came out in their bathing suits mistaking the little branch there for the Potomac river. So Washington has nothing on us when it comes to floods and quick precipitation.
 Corp. John T. Crozier, wife and sister of Washington, were recent visitors at the L. J. Pattie home.
 Miss Mildred Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, and who has been visiting in the neighborhood, returned to her duties in the office of the Southern R.R. at Atlanta, Ga., last week.
 Mrs. J. L. McCutcheon and daughter, Mrs. J. T. Only of Washington, were Oakwood callers last week to say good bye before leaving for Modestown, Va., where Mr. McCutcheon has accepted a call to the Modestown Baptist Church. They are leaving this week, as happy and "figity" as a young married couple just going to housekeeping for the first time.
 The "Fifth Quarterly" conference of the Sudley circuit was held at the parsonage on Saturday with the presiding elder in the chair. Annual reports were made, records completed in everything except the financial end of it. This will be completed a little later when more contributions are in so we may know just how much red ink to purchase in order to balance the account. You know it's a pity somebody did not murder the man who invented red ink. It causes more trouble than anything we know of.
 Now listen a minute: All this time we have been censuring, chastising, abusing and otherwise maltreating the linotype machine for making so many mistakes in "setting our stuff," but we have changed our minds and hereby apologize to the linotype since it must be the fault of the printing press, for how could it be otherwise when whole lines come up missing? You know all printing presses have a lot of cogs fastened to them to make the wheels go round and it must be that some of them got to playing "leap-frog" with each other—"jumping cogs" you know, and jarring the "chase" so badly that some of the types must have fallen out. Grease her up good, boys, and see if you can not get her to running smoothly.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1934

If parents will have their children receive the daily Bible education, it will prove a permanent heritage to them in after years.

FINDING THE RIGHT WAY: Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. — Isaiah 55: 6, 7.

HIGH WATER

Not in the memory of the present generation has there been a greater September precipitation than has just occurred in northern Virginia. Highways have been flooded, bridges damaged, crops injured, cellars flooded and traffic impeded.

Why not have weather more convenient? What is the occasion of these deluges? Is man benefitted in any way by such down-pours. A biologist, skilled in the ways of microscopic life would unhesitatingly insist that untold good results both from floods and droughts. Particularly at this season is a flood beneficial. During the relatively dry season of mid-summer countless billions of microbes of great variety, both plant and animal are in their resting condition awaiting the proper moisture conditions to spring into activity and enormously rapid multiplication. They are often capable of retaining their vitality for many years in the dry condition.

The flood washes them away before they can get into action. The cleanly condition of fields and roadways after the recent deluge was not merely an appearance. The earth had been subjected to a wonderful cleansing, and mankind is greatly benefitted. That he should be bothered with impassable highways and leaking roofs is a mere incident and surmountable by his own intelligent effort. The flood is truly an act of God and a necessary natural phenomenon.

BITING THE HAND THAT FEEDS THEM

Forecasts say that when Congress meets again, it will put into law a "recovery program" of its own, as distinct from the program initiated and carried on for the past two years by the President.

A salient feature of the proposed congressional program is an old age pension system. Another is unemployment insurance. More public works are contemplated and are held to be needed as relief activities. Behind the entire program is the supposition that the capitalistic system has failed.

It is an interesting fact that, in spite of this presumed failure of the existing system, the advocates of change are absolutely dependent on it to put their schemes into effect. The program proposed will require billions of dollars—which must be raised by taxing capital. If that capital did not exist, or could not constantly create new wealth to be taxed, government would be absolutely unable to pursue its experiments. If that capital is destroyed, government relief work, government itself must come definitely to an end for lack of support. You can't spend forever without having some place to get money.

Thus, on the one hand the experimentalists denounce private business, (the capitalistic system), keep it plagued with uncertainty and faced with the fear of new and still more radical legislation, while bleeding it white in order to put their theories into practice. — Free Lance Star.

TRANSPLANTING DOGWOOD

The dogwood, with its masses of early spring flowers, its dark-red autumn foliage and its bright-red berries, is probably our most ornamental native tree. It may be used either in mass planting or as isolated specimens, and is especially suitable for highway beautification where electric wires make the use of a low growing tree necessary. Dogwood thrives throughout the state and on a variety of soils. Its selection by the General Assembly as Virginia's State Flower was both natural and fortunate.

While dogwood is often transplanted to home grounds, many have experienced difficulty in moving the trees successfully, especially where they have attempted to bring large trees from woods or field. The best method for handling such specimens is to make preparations a year in advance by digging a trench all round the tree at a distance of two feet or more. The purpose of this is to cut the long spreading roots and encourage the formation of short branching ones. After the roots have been cut, the soil should be replaced until time for transplanting. The tree is then moved with the mass of earth and roots intact. When handled in this manner, little top pruning is necessary and growth is scarcely checked.

Most people, however, desire a simpler and less expensive method. For this, smaller trees are necessary; the smaller the tree the easier it is to move. If moved with a ball of soil in place about the roots, success is assured. In most cases, however, this is impractical and to insure success the following precautions should be observed:

(1) Dig the trees carefully so as to avoid damage to the roots. If any

TIME LIMITS NOTED BY LOAN EXPERT

The attention of all farmers in this section of the state has been called by M. Bruce Whitmore, secretary-treasurer of the Prince William National Farm Loan Association, to a statement recently made public by Charles S. Jackson, president of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore.

According to Mr. Jackson's statement, farmers in the Baltimore land bank district have just nine months left in which to obtain special privilege loans from the bank. He said that all loans granted before May 12, 1935, are eligible to the deferred principal payment plan, whereby no land bank borrower need begin making payments on the principal of his loan until July 11, 1938, provided there is no default on any other condition or covenant of the mortgage. All land bank loans granted after May 12, 1935, will not carry the privilege of postponing the semi-annual principal payments, as they now do.

"In setting May 12, 1935, as the deadline for special privilege loans to farmers by the Baltimore land bank," Mr. Jackson said, "Congress undoubtedly believed that by this date there will be no urgent need for the deferral of principal payments on loans of this nature closed thereafter. If the record of collections on due interest payments mean anything, the farmers in the Baltimore land bank district, (which includes Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) truly will not be in need of principal payment exemptions." Mr. Jackson said that according to recently compiled figures regarding interest payments on land bank commissioner loans, farmers of the Baltimore district lead the country in making such payments when due. Approximately 93 per cent of all interest payments due on land bank commissioner loans as of July 31 were paid on or before July 31 or the date of maturity, he said.

The interest charges on all loans granted after May 12, 1935, in all probability will be raised, Mr. Jackson said. At present they are 4 1/2 per cent on all made through National Farm Loan Associations.

Secretary Whitmore said he considered Mr. Jackson's statement very "significant and conducive to much thought."

ATTEND THE DAIRY FESTIVAL DANCES SEPT. 27-28.

SHOULD PREPARE FOR CROP LOANS

Dairy and livestock farmers of this section of the state are urged by J. K. Doughton, general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Baltimore, to plant their "credit seeds" early, just as they plant their crops early.

Mr. Doughton said that the Warrenton Production Credit Association is now prepared to handle all applications for production credit loans in short order, but at the same time the association can render much more satisfactory service if prospective borrowers will establish their credit ahead of the date on which they will need their loans.

"Production Credit Associations of the Baltimore district (including Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Puerto Rico) have already loaned out more than $3,000,000," Mr. Doughton said, "in the comparatively short period of seven months. The first loan was not closed until the first part of last February. Judging by the reception generally given these associations to date, their future lending activities will be even greater than they have been."

Mr. Doughton pointed out that the Warrenton Production Credit Association Credit Association, located at Warrenton, Va., is in position to make short-term and intermediate-term loans for almost any farming purpose. He said that loans by this association may be made for practically anything, the nature of such loans being so diversified that they parallel the farmer's needs from the time a farmer begins preparing his products to the time they are marketed.

The Warrenton association serves the counties of Fauquier, Fairfax, Loudoun, Prince William, Culpeper, Rappahannock and Arlington. Mr. J. Alfred Austin is secretary-treasurer. The correspondent for Prince William County is Mr. William Hill Brown, jr., attorney with office in Manassas.

$5000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR $5000

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas has received from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at Washington the official signs which will hang at all receiving windows as visible evidence that the depositors of this institution are insured.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas is one of more than 14,000 licensed banks in the country which are receiving these signs. Insured banks are able to offer protection to their depositors up to $5,000. Statistical studies have shown that this maximum fully protects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured banks.

"The purpose of the signs is to let depositors know which banks are insured. Heretofore, although 90 per cent of the licensed banks are insured, depositors have had no easy means of identifying them.

"If, by any unforeseen circumstance, an insured bank should suspend, the Insurance Corporation would begin paying off the depositors just as soon as a receiver was appointed for the closed institution. The depositors would receive their money in a few days instead of waiting months or years as was the case in the former method of liquidation. This is not only a benefit to the depositors, but it saves the community from a terrific economic and social blow. When the depositors receive their insured accounts they assign their claims to the Insurance Corporation. Thereafter liquidation proceeds on a business-like basis with the maximum chance of the Corporation and other creditors being paid in full."

"A CANCELLED CHECK won the argument for ME!"

A Bank Depositor recently told of an instance where he proved a bill had already been paid in full by producing his cancelled check which showed proper endorsement as evidence of payment. His cancelled check won the argument, saved him time, embarrassment, and money.

A Checking Account at this bank is worth dollars and cents in protection and convenience. It gives a systematic record of deposits and payments; it gives prestige and credit recommendation in business transactions; and it offers your funds the protection of Deposit Insurance.

PROCLAMATION OF ORANGE MAYOR

Invites Nation to Celebration Sept. 25-28.

Dr. Frank B. Perry, mayor of the little Virginia community of Orange, has issued the following invitation to the Nation to be the guest of Orange Courthouse during the coming Bicentennial celebration and pageant scheduled for Sept. 25-28.

Mayor Perry's invitation reads as follows:

"As Mayor of Orange and in behalf of the County of Orange, I wish to extend to you, the people of the United States, an invitation to attend the historic pageant and tour of famous homes during the time of our Bicentennial celebration which is to be held in this county Sept. 25-28. Since this county at one time embraced all of the country north of Tennessee and extending as far west as the Mississippi River, and north to the Great Lakes, I feel that this celebration is of interest to all people whose families were at one time connected with the history of the county. Organized as a county from royal grant in 1734, Orange County has fostered and been a part of the western movement and so progressed westward and northward with the advancement of the country. So, I say to all of you who are interested in the past as well as the present, come and join with us in this celebration of the 200th birthday of Orange County. Review with us the history of the United States which will be presented in an historical pageant with a cast of over 1,000 lineal descendants of famous families of Orange who have come from all over the country to take part of their ancestors. In addition to the pageant there will be a museum of relics donated for the occasion by their present owners. A tour has also been planned in order that the old homes, many of them as old as the county itself may be seen. A most cordial welcome will await you in Orange and it is sincerely hoped that you will be able to be present with us on this occasion."

Signed: Frank B. Perry, Mayor of City of Orange, Va.

From the Editor of The American Boy

During the coming year, the boys of America will get a half-fare rate to adventure and fun! THE AMERICAN BOY — YOUTH'S COMPANION, the nation's leading magazine for boys, formerly $2.00 a year, now costs $1.00. A three-year subscription, previously $3.50, costs only $2.00.

Griffith Ogden Ellis, editor of THE AMERICAN BOY, brings boys the hearty assurance that the new prices will in no way affect the editorial contents of the magazine. It will be as large, as beautifully printed, as full of high-spirited adventure as ever.

"THE AMERICAN BOY's leadership has been no accident," Mr. Ellis states. "We publish the magazine on the firm belief that boys deserve a magazine as good as any publication for grown-ups. So we use the best illustrators obtainable—well-known artists who work for the biggest magazines. We send our staff writers all over the country digging up the interesting facts of science, interviewing world-famous explorers, talking to coaches and athletes.

"We encourage and assist our writers to go everywhere for material—to Haiti, Africa, the South Seas, China—and bring back adventure for American boys. We hire experts on hobbies and boy problems to advise boys and young men. These steps account for our position as the quality magazine for boys, and we shall continue to take them."

Twelve issues of fun and excitement for $1.00. Three years for $2.00! Spread the news among your friends — and send your own subscription direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

JOE E. BROWN FACES BIG HAZARDS IN MAKING FILM

They used to pity film comedians who had to dodge hurled pies and occasionally eat his face out of a mass of huckleberries. In the old swash-buckling days, the "dangers" encountered by the gallant swordsman on the ship's bridge brought lumps to throats of lovely ladies who eyed their somnulent escorts askance, as they compared them to the dashing hero.

Somehow, though, no one pities Joe E. Brown, who twists his several yards of mouth in comical grimaces, even though, in his new First National picture, "The Circus Clown," all he had to do was this:

Stand with his back to a wooden plank while a knife-thrower hurled sharp pointed knives at him, the blades sinking into the soft wood to form an outline of his body;

Push and shove about a 4200-pound hippopotamus, which might or might not have had a friendly disposition;

Walk between two rows of six elephants, holding the trunks to get their mouths open;

Enter the lion's cage, and push and maul about one of the Kings of Beasts. It was in this sequence that Joe was bitten;

Pretend to be asleep on a cot while a lion licked his face and awakened him;

Slap the lion and then run around a circus arena with the lion in pursuit;

Stand with his back to an animal cage while a huge chimpanzee thrust its hairy arms between the bars and encircled his neck and shoulders;

Save a child from the hooves of galloping horses when the beasts were but seven feet away;

Run down a hotel hallway while electric light bulbs were hurled at him, the bulbs bursting all around;

Fall down a flight of stairs; Trip and fall on the floor of a train, and do it nine times while the cameras click;

Allow himself to be tossed from one trapeze to another; Be thrown into mid-air from a springboard trap;

Train night and day for three weeks re-learning aerial acrobatics. Besides, learning a role, supervising technical details and, of course, dropping like a rock into net in order to bounce high and rebound again.

These are just a few of the gentle pastimes of a screen comedian.

However, Joe didn't mind. In fact, he reveled in it. You know that his first job was in a circus and even yet, the tang of the tanbark still lingers with him. So Joe didn't mind in the least doing a picture with a circus background.

FAMOUS REBEL YELL ECHOES OVER SCREEN

When Courier S. S. Simmons rode beside General "Jeb" Stuart, the firebrand of the South during the early years of the Civil War, his rebel yell — famous throughout the regiment — inspired Stuart's cavalry in many of its historic charges.

More than seventy years later, that same rebel yell, as lusty and fearful as ever, became a vital part of the new M-G-M-Cosmopolitan picture "Operator 13" which opens next Monday at the Dixie Theatre with Marion Davies and Gary Cooper in the stellar roles.

And it was followed by the same S. S. Simmonds now 90 years old and Major-General commanding the Pacific Division of the United Confederate Veterans.

General Simmonds, hale and hearty and over six feet tall, was the guest of Miss Davies during the filming of a historic scene in the picture. It was in a replica of the War Department as it existed in 1862 with such notable characters as Allan Pinkerton, secret service chief of the Army of the Potomac, and John Hay, Abraham Lincoln's secretary, in the scene. Perhaps the scene aroused old memories for General Simmonds of episodes and people that meant "the enemy" to him seventy years ago, for when the scene was finished, General Simmonds released a screeching rebel yell.

It was a yell Director Boleslavsky had been trying for days to record on the picture's sound track. General Simmonds gladly volunteered to thunder his yell at the microphone, consequently the rebel yell heard is actually the yell of one of the real soldiers who fought with "Jeb"

WILL HOLD POULTRY SHOW

A committee from Brentsville district headed by M. J. Sheppard, chairman, met on Friday evening for the purpose of making final arrangements for assisting the Future Farmers and 4-H Club members in a Dairy and Poultry show. The show will be held on the school grounds Friday afternoon, October 19. Exhibits and fowls which have been produced by members of the respective organizations will be on display. The outlook seems very promising for a show that will be interesting and of educational value to all those participating as well as the public in general.

The committee feels very fortunate in securing the services of a home economics specialist from the State College who will direct the showing and award the premiums. Recreation activities are being provided and will be of considerable interest to those in attendance at the show.

A party of unusual enjoyment was given by Roger W. Cross, jr., on Tuesday evening at Lake Jackson when a number of his young friends were invited to a "weenie" roast in celebration of his eleventh birthday. Delicious ice cream and home-made cake were also a part of the menu. The woods resounded with merry voices from 5 to 7 o'clock when the revelers bade farewell to their host declaring the occasion to be one of the best.

Those invited were L. L. Lomas, jr., Billie Blakemore, Garland Boatwright, William Knox, Archie Silvia, Frank Browning, jr., Bobbie Byrd, Bobbie Lion, Wilson Sutphin, Harry Blakemore, Dickson Morris, Harry and Frank Parrish, Caton Merchant, Dicky Haydon, Bennie Cross, Wallace Partlow, John Broadus, jr., Tommy Athey, Joe Lyon, Douglas Morris, Kenneth Lyons, Marvin Gillum, and the grown-ups were Misses Helen Dunkley, Virginia Polen, Dorothy Evans, Mr. Proctor Byrd and Mr. and Mrs. Cross.

ORANGE HONORS BLIND PREACHER

As a special tribute to James Waddell, blind evangelist, who was pastor of the "Church of the Blind Preacher" in Orange County, during colonial days, the Bi-centennial committee today announced an elaborate exhibit of handicraft, period furniture and needlework to be staged in cooperation with the Virginia Association of Workers for the Blind, which operates vocational training schools for the near and totally blind in Charlottesville, Richmond and other centers throughout the state.

L. L. Watts, executive secretary of the association, will visit Orange this week to arrange the details for the exhibits which has been assigned a large booth in the home economics section of the exhibition building. Mr. Watts informed the committee today that in addition to examples of needlework, wicker work and embroidery that the outstanding feature of his exhibit will be period spool bed in walnut spool lamp table and mattress all products of the vocational school. Of special interest will be a hand corcheted bedspread, the work of Miss Kathleen Frazier, head of the music department of the training unit at Charlottesville.

James Wardell, to whose memory the exhibition is dedicated, was born in Ireland in 1739. His parents immigrated to Pennsylvania and later after training for the Presbyterian ministry he came to Virginia, where in Hanover County he was licensed as a probationer April 1761 by the Presbytery of Hanover. While in Hanover he met Col. Henry, father of Patrick Henry, and the celebrated Samuel Davies. Later he married Mary Gordon, the daughter of Col. James Gordon, the ancestor of General Gordon of the Confederate Army.

GOVERNOR PEERY TO CROWN QUEEN

Dairy Festival Pageant Will Be More Elaborate Than Ever.

Announcement has been made that Governor George C. Peery, of Virginia, will crown Miss Sheila Sultan, Queen of the Fourth Annual Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival. The festival is to be held at Manassas, Va., beginning with a ball on the evening of September 27, and the coronation will take place on the morning of September 28 at Annaburg, the historic old Portner estate. The ceremonies will be held on a stage erected at the foot of the old tower located on the estate. Space for thousands of onlookers is provided for in front of the stage.

Immediately following the coronation of Regina IV, an elaborate pageant will be presented by the school children of Prince William County a pageant designated to illustrate the value of milk, the chief commodity of Piedmont Virginia. In conjunction with the pageant the Marion D. Venable ballet group, from the Venable Schools of Washington and Virginia will present several attractive ballet numbers. The pageant will also be supplemented with group singing by the Glee Club from the State Teachers College at Fredericksburg. The pageant for this year's festival was written and will be supervised by Miss Sue Ayers, rural supervisor of Prince William County. Miss Ayers spent most of the past summer working on her production, the theme of which will be announced at an early date. Rehearsals for the pageant have been under way for several days and will continue up to the time of the festival.

On the afternoon of the 28th, following the pageant, a parade, which has now become known as the "Miky Way" parade will take place, the course following the principal streets of Manassas. From the number of organizations which have already entered floats, and signified their intention of marching, it is conservatively estimated that the parade will be of three hours duration. In the parade there will be artistic and commercial floats, including the reproduction of Mount Vernon and other historical homes of Fairfax County, military, civic and agricultural organizations, including that of the Future Farmers of America, 4-H Clubs, Fire Departments from the Piedmont territory, and other outstanding organizations. And, of course, school children from the public and private schools throughout northern Virginia will be on hand, among them being the Band from Linton Hall, this being worthy of note because of the fact that it is composed of young boys, most of whom are hardly the size of the instruments they carry.

GREENWICH WOMEN TO MEET
The Greenwich Home Demonstration Group will meet Thursday, Sept. 27, at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. K. Middlethon. Mrs. Margaret Lewis will give a demonstration on "Flower Arrangement."
The women of Greenwich community are cordially invited to attend.

(3) Plant the tree at the same depth it stood in its original location. If it needs support, tie it to a stake driven in the ground.
(4) Spread the roots in as near their natural position as possible and pack fresh top soil tightly about them. Do not use fertilizers next to the roots.

(5) Much transplanted trees with coarse manure, straw, lawn clippings or any suitable material, and water occasionally but thoroughly during dry weather.

Although slight color variations are often found in the woods, the deep pink varieties are available only in nurseries, where they are propagated by budding. It is reported that the pink forms thrive best in an acid soil and gradually lose their color if grown in a soil which is rich in lime.
