BYRD OPPOSES PENSION BILL

Predicts 130 Per Cent Tax Boost.

Declaring that the present presidential relief measure as applied to the old age pension plan would increase Virginia's tax burden about 130 per cent, Senator Harry F. Byrd yesterday stood in vigorous opposition to the new security legislation as it is now needed.

Governor Peery is today gathering data on the statistics in this State. It is unofficially stated that there are about 117,000 Virginians who would be included in the benefits of this Special act.

Senator Byrd has previously given the administration notice that he would consistently oppose the granting of broad powers to the administrators of the old age pension system by which that person could prescribe the requirements that must be met by the States.

In regard to this new plan, Senator Byrd was quoted as follows: "I shall never vote as a permanent policy to concentrate power in Washington in the hands of an appointive official, who is not confirmed by Congress, to punish or favor a State of the Union and thereby destroy the last remnants of the rights of the States. The power of taxation is the power to destroy and in this instance one man by his interpretation of a fair standard of health and decency can increase the burden of taxation upon the respective States to the point of disaster. This statement has no personal reference to Harry Hopkins, for whom I have the highest admiration and respect."

The exact fate of the proposed legislation is not yet definitely determined, but it is generally believed that there is sufficient reaction in Congress to force radical revision of the comprehensive scope of the original legislature proposed.

MANASSAS TEAM WINS OPENER

Local Team Victorious over Aldie in Thrilling Game.

The Manassas A. C. basketball team got off to a flying start last Friday night when they won their first game of the season at Aldie, winning in an overtime period, the score being 30 to 20. The score was 18 all at the end of the regular playing game but in the extra period the Manassas boys, led by Robert Leith, rallied strongly to win going away. Coach-Player Lynn used nearly all of his squad.

REAL WINTER

With snowfall ranging from twelve to twenty inches yesterday, northern Virginia was given the fifth consecutive storm in exactly seven days, three of which were snowstorms.

The keen wind added greatly to the discomfort of travelers and one-way traffic enforced itself in many places. Drifts of several feet in depth were not at all unusual. Schools were uniformly closed down in most of the area, mostly due to transportation difficulties.

No reports of actual zero were reported this morning although the readings in this county varied from 2 to 5 degrees. There is little doubt that this temperature will dip to the zero mark before the night is over.

CARSON GIVEN MEDAL FOR PARK WORK

William E. Carson, former director of the Virginia Department of Conservation and Development, has been awarded the Cornelius Armor Pugsley silver medal for park service during 1934, it was announced in New York.

Major William A. Welch, general manager and chief engineer of Fallsades Interstate Park, was awarded the gold medal for the year. Both medals are awarded annually from the fund established in 1929 by Chester D. Pugsley of Peekskill, N. Y., in honor of his father.

The work of Mr. Carson, who served as chairman of Virginia's Conservation and Development Commission since its formation during the term of former Governor Byrd, has been widely praised by Arno B. Cammerer, director of Federal park works, and others.

STATE RELIEF REORGANIZED

Conference in Richmond This Week Will Outline New Policy.

A conference between the field and headquarters staffs of the Virginia Emergency Relief Administration and the regional administrative staff of the FERA, headed by Alan Johnstone, the purpose of which will be to put the finishing touches to Virginia's area reorganization for the administration of relief, will be held in Richmond this week.

Telegrams went out from VERA headquarters advising all supervisory field personnel to be in Richmond in time for the opening conference Thursday morning.

Mr. Johnstone, who is regional administrator for the Southeastern States, is making a swing through his district aiding State administrations in perfecting the new type of organization which will go into effect throughout the country between now and February first.

Under the new program, relief in Virginia will be administered through area organizations comprising several counties each rather than as at present with each county and city being a separate administrative unit. The work will thus be centralized into not more than 35 administrative groups, with the probable number set at 28.

CLUB REPORT GIVES PRIZE AWARDS

The following report was read at the January meeting of the Manassas Garden Club at the home of Mrs. W. N. Wenrich and it was decided to publish it:

The committee appointed to award the prize for the best Xmas decoration in the business section of Manassas report that they had a difficult time in determining the winner since so many of the business people of Manassas made such an excellent showing.

Unfortunately several who decorated their places in a very attractive manner could not be included in the contest because their decorations were made up to show during the day time and not at night. The committee wishes to express its appreciation for the co-operation which it received and ventures to express the hope that next year even more will take part in the attempt to give Manassas an extra cheerful appearance during the holidays.

The prize was won by Rohr's 5c and $1 store. The following places deserve honorable mention: Prince William Hotel, Hibbs and Giddings, W. F. Hibbs (Radio Supplies), Mrs. Adamson, the Manassas Ice and Fuel Co., Conner and Kincheole, Atlantic and Pacific Store, Gulf Gas Station, Jenkins and Jenkins, Dowell's drug store.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

The schools in Prince William County closed yesterday at 12:00 o'clock due to the extreme cold weather and very poor condition of the county roads over which a large per cent of the school children are transported in buses and other riding vehicles.

However, they will open again for study on Monday.

JOHN BARTON PAYNE

The passing of such a colorful figure as Judge John Barton Payne can hardly be sensed in its suddenness.

Judge Payne had become such a figure in the American public eye that his age was a purely secondary matter. In fact his health was always good and only an unfortunate series of complications in the past ten days sapped his vitality.

Born in 1855 in what is now West Virginia, Judge Payne, at an early age, was admitted to the practice of law. This he began in Chicago in 1882 where his rise was fairly rapid. His first Federal position was given him in the first year of the World War. He later rose to the Cabinet, becoming Secretary of the Interior in 1920 just prior to the close of the Wilson Administration.

In 1921 he assumed his best work which was head of the American Red Cross, a position he still held at the time of his death.

A philanthropist by nature, this occupation was very pleasurable to him as he was an intent worker not only at his desk at national headquarters in Washington but also in the field. One of his other great interests was his large farm near Warrenton, over a thousand acres in extent and where he spent many happy hours.

He married late in life, his wife being Miss Jennie Byrd, a nationally-known artist. The wedding took place in 1913, but Judge Payne's married life was ended abruptly only six years later when his wife died.

During his last illness Judge Payne was visited by many of his old associates who were prominent characters in American life. Numbers of his relatives who live throughout Piedmont Virginia hurried to his bedside as the end approached.

Although Judge Payne expended large sums of money in his benevolent work, he leaves a large fortune which should reach into several millions. The disposition of this has not yet been made public but it is anticipated that a large share of it will go to the Red Cross.

MID-WINTER RECITAL JANUARY 30

Eloise Compton Trimmer will present her pupils in a recital of dance and song at the Manassas High School auditorium Wednesday night, January 30, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Trimmer has arranged many of the dances and composed music for certain numbers.

There will be dances of tap, those of the Crinoline days and an exhibition of stretching exercises.

Those participating in the senior group are Althea Hooff, Mildred Parrish, Edla Blakemore, Shirley Hynson, June Pickett, Margaret Blakemore and Lucille Herndon.

The Juniors are Nancy Parrish, Betty Parrish, Fanell Pickett, Mary Mason Davis, and June Williams.

The beaux of the occasion are Harry Blakemore and Caton Merchant and the young lasses who open the program are Loa Mylander and Betty Ann Blakemore.

Mrs. Trimmer and her class extend a cordial invitation to all.

WILL ATTEND SESSION AT RICHMOND

Trial Justice William Hill Brown expects to leave Manassas in the morning for Richmond where he will attend a meeting called at the John Marshall Hotel by Governor Peery.

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the operation of the new state-wide plan as adopted by the last session of the legislature under the tutelage of the present governor. The trial justices have all had more than six months and their mutual experiences will be helpful.

Speakers of long experience in law enforcement will address the assembly.

Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of Stafford, will probably accompany Mr. Brown.

CLUB TO HOLD "SWEETHEART" PARTY

The January meeting of the Postal Clerks Wives Club was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Cooksey last Thursday night. Mrs. O. O. Holler, the new president, presided.

Committees were appointed, and the charities committee asked to purchase shoes for a needy boy. The sum of $5.00 was given for the tubercular fund and $5.00 for the shoe fund.

The entertainment was furnished by Mrs. J. H. Rexrode and Mrs. R. C. Bowers and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Next month the members will entertain at a "Sweetheart's Party" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davis on February 21.

OCOQUAN PLAYS NOKESVILLE IN A DOUBLEHEADER

Ocoquan girls were defeated by the Nokesville girls by a score of 26-6. Ocoquan boys were victorious over the Nokesville boys by a score of 17-13. The latter was a hard-fought game on the part of both teams.

MISS HENRIETTA AND ALICE ANN PICKETT

On July 27, 1843, a daughter was born to Mr. Sandford Pickett and his wife, Elizabeth Foley Pickett, at their home, "Springfield." She was given the name of Henrietta, which was shortened to "Henny" by her affectionate family.

On Aug. 17, 1847, another daughter arrived to bless the same household, and she, in turn, was named Alice Anne.

These two little girls spent their childhood and youth among a happy carefree family of sisters and brothers and with parents who were steeped in the principles of the old South.

One by one, the members of the family departed from the old home, until only these two were left to uphold the traditions of "Springfield." Many years ago, when their brother, Doderidge's wife died, leaving a daughter, they took the tiny girl and gave her the love and careful attention of foster parents. And how she repaid them! All through the years "Nannie" was their joy and pride. And when they reached the evening of life, she was their comfort and stay.

All through the vicissitudes of life, these two sisters were together, sharing its joys and sorrows. Together they watched the old home burn years ago; together they decided to move to Leesburg where they lived for a few years, but the call of the open spaces was too strong for them and together they returned and rebuilt at "Springfield," where they continued to live happy, peaceful lives.

Shortly after Christmas Miss "Henny" was stricken with pneumonia and at her advanced age of 92, she offered but little resistance and died on Jan. 8.

Miss Alice, suffering from shock and a weak heart, was not apprised of her sister's death, but she must have known it; in a subconscious way, for on Jan. 15, just one week later, she, too, slipped away to join her in that land where there is no more death; neither sorrow nor suffering.

Who can say that it was not an all wise Providence that, allowing these sisters' sweet companionship through life, did not see fit to separate them in death?

Their funeral services were held at Antioch Church on Thursday, Jan. 10 and 17, respectively. The pall bearers were Messrs. Winter Owens, Otis Latham, Louis Lightner, Albert Utterback, Wyatt Butler and Frank Pickett. The services were conducted by their pastor, the Rev. V. H. Council. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

PROMPT WORK

The County Engineer is much to be congratulated on the prompt and efficient way he and his force went after the snow. Most of the roads were usable before afternoon.

V. F. W. TO HAVE FEBRUARY RALLY

War veterans of the eighth Congressional district of Virginia will hold a Veterans rally at the Lyceum hall in Alexandria on the 6th of February. The rally will be sponsored by the eighth district commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Commander Preston, of Alexandria, but will be open to all veterans and their families and friends.

Invitations have been sent to the various Legion Posts and the other Organized Veterans groups. Invitations to speak are being extended to Senators Byrd and Glass, Congressman Smith, the National Officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and several other Congressmen, including Congressman Patnam.

A preliminary meeting of the 8th District Commanders of the V.F.W. will be held in Alexandria on the 3rd of February.

CLUB CONTINUES FETE ACTIVITIES

Will Solicit Aid of Other Counties.

The Kiwanis Club last week devoted most of its time to laying plans for assisting the Dairy Festival. Some member of the club will accompany the secretary of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Hollenga, to each of the board meetings in the counties of Piedmont Virginia in the next few weeks. Ed Conner was active in making the general arrangements.

The club thoroughly gave a rousing welcome to Walter Covington and Winfield Athey, both of whom have been quite ill.

President Hunton advised the club that Charlie Pimper, lieutenant governor, will be on hand this Friday night and further that he desired a meeting of the board and committee chairmen in advance of the regular meeting.

There was no special program; discussion of the Dairy Festival and its merits occupying most of the period. A number of absences, due to illness, were noted.

Dr. Eli Swavely, speaking for the underprivileged - child committee, proffered the services of an eminent lecturer at a nominal figure to be set by the club itself. This lecture will be held very shortly and the price of admission will be quite low so that a large audience will be guaranteed the speaker.

MR. AND MRS. SAUNDERS ENTERTAINED IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saunders have just returned from a trip to New York where Mr. Saunders met with members of the Milligan and Morrison Fox Breeders Association who were holding their annual meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel. The Milligan and Morrison Association is composed of the largest fur breeders in America. Mr. Saunders is a member of the regional advisory committee of this organization. This committee was entertained at a delightful formal luncheon after which a lengthy meeting was held. On Saturday night the members of the association were the guests at a large banquet given by the New York Fur Auction. They also attended the January sale of the New York Fur Auction.

CLINIC POORLY ATTENDED

The T. B. Chest Clinic which was held at the Court House on Tuesday was very poorly attended due to the inclement weather. However, ten patients were examined by Dr. Charles L. Savage of the State Department of Health.

Through these examinations, one positive and two suspicious cases of tuberculosis were found. The others were nothing serious.

Announcement has been made to the effect that another clinic will be held some time in May, and those who were unable to get to this one will have another opportunity for examination at that time.

"FAUST" SUBJECT OF CLUB MEETING

The Music-Literature section of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. V. Gillum on Tuesday, January 29, discussed is "Faust." Please note the Mrs. Stuart Gibson will have charge of the program and the opera to be the 29th.

SMITH HITS "GAG RULE" DEBATE

Leads Effort to Secure Liberal Treatment for Momentous Bill.

The powerful Committee on Rules went into action this week to curb the White House demands for gag-rule action in passing the administration's $4,800,000,000 relief bill. With orders from the White House to pass the bill with debate limited to one hour and with all amendments forbidden except as approved by the Appropriations Committee, the Rules Committee balked. The Administration Bill, carrying the gigantic appropriation of more than four billion dollars, also included blanket authority for the President to abolish or consolidate any existing federal departments and agencies and to set up any new governmental departments deemed by him advisable. The bill also gave the Chief Executive authority to impose penalties of imprisonment or fines up to $5000 for violation of executive orders.

Congressman Howard W. Smith, a staunch administration supporter, joined the revolt, it is stated, with the conviction that delegation of such authority to the President was unconstitutional. Associated with Judge Smith were sufficient members of the Rules Committee to enforce their demands. Thereupon a caucus of the entire Democratic membership of the House was called and the action of the Rules Committee was sustained. The proposed gag rule limiting debate on the gigantic appropriation to one hour was lifted. Debate of three hours was approved over the White House demands and amendments from the floor of the House were approved in spite of the objection of the Administration.

A major development of the Democratic revolt against the Administration's gag rule policy has been the concession from the White House that Secretary of the Interior Ickes will not direct the spending of this gigantic appropriation, and it is also believed by close observers of the situation that Harry Hopkins, Federal Relief Administrator, will also be eliminated in the selection of the man to administer the big project which will change the government's relief work from the dole to employment on public works. Both Ickes and Hopkins have many and bitter opponents among Democrats of the House.

No measure has ever been presented to Congress, even in time of war giving to the President so much authority. Until opposed by the Rules Committee, the President, without allowing debate, would have been given not only the power to merge any agency, but also to guarantee loans to needy persons and to exercise the right of eminent domain over property.

The action of the Rules Committee has occasioned much favorable comment throughout the nation, indicating that the big Democratic majority in Congress does not intend to become a mere rubber stamp for the Administration but will exercise its own rights without being disloyal in any sense to Party obligations.

FRIGIDAIRE EXHIBIT

F. R. Hynson, dealer here for Frigidaire Corporation, subsidiary of General Motors, today received an invitation from H. W. Newell, vice-president in charge of sales, to attend a confidential preshowing of 1935 products and advertising and sales plans.

The showing will be held on Jan. 30 in Richmond, where Frigidaire's district headquarters are located.

"In the invitation from Frigidaire headquarters in Dayton," the local dealer said, "it was stated that Frigidaire believes 1935 will be a bell-ringer for improved business and that the new products and plans actually are sensational in their scope. This information, coming from the world's largest producer of refrigeration and air conditioning equipment, indicates the belief in general business improvement held by our organization."

CATHARPIN

Do thyself no harm Brother-Sister "Justice," we are all here. Glad that leaf was turned before it was too late.

The January meeting of the Board of Supervisors was of more than ordinary interest to the people of Prince William County since several things were acted upon which are of general interest to the public at large; first and foremost of which was its resolution regarding the Bull Run Battlefield.

It will be remembered that a few years ago a movement was inaugurated to incorporate this field and private and public subscriptions received sufficient to purchase the property from its private owners and incorporated it into the "Manassas Battlefield Memorial Park Association." At that time it was the intention to build a Memorial Park, erect monuments and otherwise improve this most historic spot so that it would fittingly dignify the events it is destined to commemorate. For a time it looked as though something would be accomplished, but as time passed things slowed down until the present situation obtains. Since, sooner or later, all things must come to an end, may we now hope that this "rest period" has reached its zenith, and that the resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors may result in renewed activity. The resolution adopted "requested the Virginia Commission on Conservation and Development to acquire the property and improve it."

Another resolution of much local interest as well as to the county was one requesting Henry G. Shirley to "allocate funds to route 234 sufficient to put said highway in a traveling condition." Just exactly what that means you will have to help interpret; but there is no doubt but you that the Board of Supervisors does not intend to let Mr. Shirley forget us.

And still another resolution had to do with some 8 or 10 thousand acres of submarginal farm lands in lower Prince William and upper Stafford which the Government proposes to acquire ownership for the purpose of converting same into a demonstration recreation area; the board promising to "render any and all assistance it reasonably can in connection with the consummation of the said project."

It is common knowledge that there are hundreds of acres of cut-over land in the section named which are lying waste and eroding and uninhabited insofar as a "farming" population is concerned and which lands, under present conditions, are fast becoming useless. This is the Government is seeking to correct and improve against the day they shall be needed for agricultural purposes. From the versatility of resolutions adopted, one is impressed with the fact that the Board of Supervisors is alert to protect the interests of the county and the people it represents.

Mr. C. F. Caton, our efficient Road Foreman in this section of the county, was confined to his home several days last week suffering cold and flu ailments from which he has recovered sufficiently to be out again with his snow shovels.

Mr. A. S. Robertson of Wellington, Va., was circulating among friends and business men in the Catharpin neighborhood last week.

Mr. A. C. Ellison of near Catharpin received a severe shaking up one night last week when a front tire blew out causing the car to try negotiating a tree by the roadside with the result of a badly wrecked car and a much bruised up man. Mr. Ellison is still confined to his room but convalescing satisfactorily. Fortunately no bones were broken.

We were glad to note that at last week's Kiwanis meeting it was decided to continue the Dairy Festival and put on a program for 1935. We have always regarded this festival as a great feature in the development of Prince William County and very important to the people and all its institutions. There is no advertising medium comparable to it. It is the one occasion upon which the whole people may congregate and see what is going on whether it be milk, livestock, agricultural displays, school exhibits, Patriotic Societies, Fraternities or just what have you? Prince William has the goods and the ability to display them. Keep it going.

Mrs. Mary Florence Roland, Farm Census Enumerator, was in the Catharpin neighborhood last week "censusing" the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith of Gainesville were callers at Belle Farm last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pabst of Washington are receiving the congratulations of friends over the arrival of a son who came last week and took up residence with them for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Pabst will be remembered as Miss Evelyn Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Lynn, formerly of Sudley but now of Manassas.

For several nights last week the hill near Catharpin was filled with neighborhood children having the time of their lives coasting on the moonlit snow. To watch them was but to grow young. Do you, granddaddies and grandmammies, remember when you were young and how you delighted to roll and tumble in the snow? When you used to go "belly-bumper" and "head-on" down the hills in hilarious delight? When earmuffs, mittens and overcoats were a nuisance and not to ride down paid big dividends on the walk-and-pull up? When callisthenics were unheard of? When the digestive "apparatus" could digest most everything within reach? Yes, we remember it all very, very distinctly, don't we?

Mrs. Frank Lee Hoffman, who has been suffering some weeks from stomach trouble, was taken to Sibley hospital on Monday for an operation. It is sincerely hoped that her condition may soon be improved.

THE WORLD AROUND US

THOMAS EDISON was not only a great inventor but also a profound thinker. Some years ago he said: "Thinking after a while becomes the most pleasurable thing in the world. Give me a satchel and a fishing rod, and I could hie myself off and keep busy thinking forever. I don't need any one to amuse me. It is the same with my friends John Burroughs, the naturalist, and Henry Ford, who is a natural-born mechanic. We can find the most satisfying joy from thinking and thinking and thinking."

A "COLLEGE" MAGAZINE offers this suggestion to youths planning to go to college:

"If I were to choose a school for a young person I should choose for him a University where new views were a matter-of-course, and only orthodoxy was unusual; where to be 'different' was to be ordinary, and common-place folk were regarded as eccentric."

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD is not always dry reading. A few years ago when Representative Wingo was addressing the House, Mr. Compton interrupted him, saying:

"I should like to have the attention of the gentleman . . ." and Mr. Wingo cut him short by saying:

"I decline to permit the genial gentleman from Michigan to inject his partisan remarks into the bowels of my statesman-like utterances."

SENATOR BORAH once said in a public address:

"Instead of persecuting men with ideas to express we should hire halls for them. Their patriotism would prevent trouble. We must remember that after all, the real master under the United States flag is public opinion, and when we try to curb that we try to destroy our government."

A PROMINENT JAPANESE, referring to the great nations of the west, made this pregnant remark:

"As long as we produced only men of letters, men of knowledge, and artists you treated us as barbarians. No what we have learned the arts of war and to kill, you call us civilized."

HENRY FORD, when he was being considered as a candidate for the Presidency, was asked what he would do if he were President, and replied: "The first thing I would do would be to fire all the lawyers on the payroll."

And PETER THE GREAT of Russia, while in England learning ship-building, was greatly surprised to learn that the great structure, Lincoln's Inn, was occupied exclusively by lawyers.

"Lawyers!" he shouted. "Why there are only two lawyers in all my empire, and I am seriously thinking of hanging one of them as soon as I reach home."

OUR THOUGHTS make up the world around us. Some one expressed it better by saying:

"Nature is visible thought; thought is invisible Nature."

BRENTSVILLE

Mrs. K. M. Bradshaw is right sick at this writing.

The community is much grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Jim Cooper. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, two sons, Linnard of Washington and Grady of home, one daughter, Mrs. Romp Shoemaker, of Washington, besides his many friends. Mr. Cooper was 79 years old.

Most all the Best family are in bed with the awful colds that have been going around.

Mr. Joe Keys is also right sick at this writing.

Mr. Cash Keys is doing nicely and sat up yesterday for the first time. We hope he will be able to leave the hospital now in a few days.

The wedding bells have been ringing again, followed by a big rattle banding last night. The bride and groom are Miss Helen Spitzer and Mr. Hubert Michel, both of near here.

We are sure having some winter weather for a change.

Mr. Bill Golliday fell on the frozen ground a few days ago and hurt his hand. He has not been able to use it much since.

DUMFRIES

Mr. Alfred Coulter, a citizen of Dumfries, was retired from the Navy Yard at Washington last Friday after 35 years of service.

While the Marines of Quantico are away on maneuvers, the movies will start at 7:30.

The Dumfries School children have finished their mid-term examinations and we are ready to start our new semester today.

Mr. Jack Wood, a well-known citizen of Joplin, departed this life January 21. It is reported that he died from an heart attack.

Miss Ruth Henderson from the State Department of Education will be the guest of Dumfries School Tuesday afternoon, January 22.

4-H CLUB NOTES

Occoquan 4-H Club will meet Monday, January 28, at 11:45 o'clock, at the school building. Mr. Egbert Thompson will have charge of the demonstration on "Main Dishes for Breakfast."

Manassas 4-H Club will meet Monday, January 28, at 2:15 o'clock, in the home economics kitchen.

Bethel 4-H Club will meet Thursday, January 31, at 10:30 o'clock. Following the business meeting, the girls will go to the home of Mrs. Eva Kidwell Garner for work on the foods project.

Buckhall 4-H Club will meet Saturday, February 2, at 2 o'clock at the school building. All members are urged to be present.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

BACK TO THE LAND

With a billion dollars devoted to that purpose, the federal government is asked to sponsor the greatest back-to-the-land movement this country has ever contemplated.

In the past we have heard a good deal about the necessity of restoring more of our population to the self-support of agricultural pursuits. Of course, a good deal of that talk has been based on the assumption that any man can be a farmer, and that any land is farm land. Neither of those propositions is based on fact. Farming is distasteful to many men who have had experience with it and to others it is a closed book. These latter would not know any more about farming than about making shoes. Still, perhaps they could learn.

However, here we are with suggested plans for taking four million persons off the relief rolls by returning them to the land—only this time it is to be good land—not only old piece of land. The costs, estimated between $750,000,000 and $1,000,000,000 would come from the $4,000,000,000 President Roosevelt is asking from Congress to finance work for the 16,000,000 persons now receiving government relief.

The plan, backed by the National Resources Board, would supply 500,000 needy families and 500,000 city unemployed—1,000,000 family heads and 3,000,000 dependents—with ten acres of fertile land, a comfortable house, a cow or a horse and seed for crops. The money would be paid back over a fifteen to twenty-year period at not more than 3 per cent interest.

Sounds good, anyhow. Maybe it could be made to work out.—Winchester Star.

THE STARS AND BARS FLOAT ONCE MORE!

Today the Stars and Bars float quietly and peacefully over the Capitol of the Confederacy in Richmond.

It is the birthday of Robert

Edward Lee—
Everywhere throughout the entire Southland the two great heroes are receiving homage from people who will ever revere the memory of Lee and his peerless Captain, Thomas Jonathan Jackson.

Still Anglo-Saxon in its national characteristics, the southland possesses a loyalty of ideals and adherence to blood that inspires the confidence of English-speaking people in one another.

Today the U. D. C., now largely made up of granddaughters of those who wore the Gray, show the steadfast purpose of their forebears to "carry on" and honor the name of the Confederacy and its sterling leaders.

Even as the memory of the Southland's leaders is preserved so must their shrines be kept intact. The organization needs yet $53,000 to complete its purchase and improvement of Stratford.

That is a project on which those noble women of the United Daughters of the Confederacy work with the same tenacity as kept a starving force of ragged men going months after all hope had passed—Those who would like to be known as friends of this project should lose no time in making this known.

There is nothing militant in their work. "Love makes memory eternal" is their motto. The flag that waves in Richmond today waves in the hearts of all true southerners.

Any local U. D. C. member will be glad to receive your donation.

—Commonwealth-Monitor.

ACTIVITIES OF GOOD HOUSEKEEPING CLUB

The January meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeeping Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Athey with Mrs. R. L. Byrd, assistant hostess.

The meeting was opened at 2:30 p.m. and the usual routine followed. The principal business of the afternoon was naming committees for the new year. They are as follows:

Hostess: Mrs. W. M. Johnson and Mrs. R. A. Hutchison.
Civic relief: Mrs. R. L. Lewis and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson.
Education: Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson.
Flowers and baskets: Mrs. Broadus and Mrs. John Lyons.

Music: Miss Florence Kincheloe.
Visiting sick: Mrs. Frank Gue.
Program committees—

January: Mrs. R. L. Byrd and Mrs. W. S. Athey; February: Mrs. M. M. Washington and Mrs. Nannie Middleton; March: Mrs. John Lyons and Mrs. M. E. Hart; April: Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Frank Gue; May: Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson and Mrs. Maud Kincheloe; June: Mrs. W. M. Johnson and Mrs. W. M. Pierson; July: Mrs. R. A. Hutchison; August: Mrs. Annie Spies; September: Mrs. Emily Round and Mrs. P. A. Lewis; October: Mrs. B. F. Knox and Mrs. Myrtle Boteler; November: Mrs. T. J. Broadus; December: Mrs. R. L. Sadd.

The secretary gave the following report as a summary of the club's activities for the past year:

$15.00 to school library, a prize of $2.50 established for 4-H Club, $2.00 given toward an educational evening, $5.00 for lunches for undernourished children at Bennett School, baskets of fruit and flowers sent to ill members, baskets of groceries sent to needy families amounting to $7.50, $2.50 given to Bennett School League for shrubbery for school grounds, new window draperies given to rest room, $5.00 membership to Red Cross subscribed, miscellaneous $7.45.

At the close of the business session a very delightful program was presented consisting of a reading by Mrs. P. A. Lewis, humorous recitation by little Jackie Martin and two vocal selections beautifully rendered by Miss Jessie May Conner, accompanied on the piano by Miss Miriam Blough. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung by assembly.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where a spacious table was spread with colorful delicacies and over which the hostess presided, ably assisted by Mrs. Dudley Martin and Mrs. Carlton Athey. A most pleasant social hour was spent and an important meeting of the club came to a close.

REST

When the shades of night have fallen,
And you settle in your chair
For a needed rest from labor,
Do you find contentment there?
Is your conscience light and carefree;
Do you know you've done your best;
Can you say with all sincerity
"I've really earned this rest?"

Did you rise and greet your family
In a cheerful happy way,
And get them in the proper mood
With which to start the day?
Did you speak to all the neighbors
As you met them on the street,
And pass the time of mornin'
With the copper on the beat?

Did you heed the beggar's pleading
"Brother, can you spare a dime?"
Instead of passing quickly
With a harsh "Some other time?"
Did you do your day's work gladly
And strive as best you could,
With willing hands and eager heart
To earn your daily food?

Then when you come at eventide
And settle in your chair
For a needed rest from labor,
You'll find contentment there.
Your conscience will be carefree
Because you've done your best,
And you can say, and know it's true,
"I've really earned this rest."

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

The new contract forms are now here at the office where the new contract will be explained and assistance given in filling in the necessary forms. The price outlook for the future unquestionably depends upon what the farmers of the country choose to make it.

With a fair growing season, a burdensome surplus of corn and a low price is a certainty next fall unless a large percentage of the farmers of the country agree to hold plantings within reasonable limits. There are four reasons for expecting excessive corn acreage in 1935 unless farmers continue to co-operate in the control program. First, the normal tendency after a year of good prices is to plant a larger-than-average acreage to corn the following year. Secondly, even if farmers do not follow the usual tendency to increase corn acreage above the average, they may raise an excessive crop because of the fact that there has been a reduction of more than thirty per cent in hog numbers and from ten to fifteen per cent in cattle numbers. It is doubtful if farmers, planning independently of each other, would make sufficient allowance for these reductions in corn requirements. Third, the relative scarcity of some farm seeds, particularly of grasses, over the country may stimulate a heavy planting of corn. Fourth, on account of the drought damage to hay and pasture seedings, a larger-than-average acreage is available for planting to corn.

Low hog prices for the future naturally are to be expected if corn production should not be held in control in 1935.

All corn-hog farmers are eligible to sign the 1935 contract, whether or not they took part in the 1934 program. The benefits from co-operating should come through maintaining a fair price for the corn and hogs that are produced. While payments are made for reducing, the real benefits should again come through causing a fair price by preventing the disastrous surpluses of both hogs and corn that we have had during the past few years and that were practically eliminated during the past year by the drought and adjustment programs.

Two Kinds of Deposits

—may be arranged for by the customers of this bank according to their needs.

A Demand Deposit, that is, a checking account, is for those desiring to utilize the economy, safety and convenience of banking facilities in their business or personal affairs.

A Time Deposit, earning a moderate rate of interest, is more suitable for those who do not want to make active day to day use of their funds but desire to accumulate a financial reserve for general or special purposes.

Both types of deposits are safeguarded by the sound loan and investment policies of this bank, which at the same time utilize them to help cover the costs of banking services rendered.

WELCOME NEWS FOR BANK DEPOSITORS

After December 31, 1934, bank depositors who maintain checking accounts will no longer have to pay the Federal Tax of two cents on each check issued; PROVIDED the next Congress does not reimpose the tax.

Bank customers everywhere will welcome the repeal of this tax. Ninety-five per cent of all business transactions in this country are settled by check. A checking account is a convenience, a safeguard, a time and labor saver.

To the people of this community, we are glad to offer the protection, the convenience and many benefits of a checking account in this institution.

Japan Sixtieth Country Connected By Telephone

Telephone Tokyo. Above, trans-Pacific radiotelephone channel connecting the United States and Japan. Below, Miss Chizuru Kashuagi, one of twenty-three Japanese operators who will handle calls to this country, and right, Bess L. Dvorak and Mary L. Pisani, foreign language operators of the telephone company at Washington, completing calls.

Felicitations of friendship between the United States and Japan, the suggestion by the Japanese ambassador at Washington to the American ambassador at Tokyo that he improve his golf, and the unexpected greeting, "Hello, Daddy," of Mrs. Pierpont Moffett to her father, Joseph C. Grew, Ambassador of the United States to Japan inaugurated telephone service between the two countries.

The exchange of greetings was held in the State Department at Washington and in the Telephone Headquarters Building at Tokyo. Secretary of State Cordell Hull extended greetings to the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs Koki Hirota, expressing the thought that "This new means of communication which we inaugurate today spans the wide ocean as an additional link between our peoples. It is my hope that by furthering the interchange of ideas and of commerce, which play so important a part in the relation of states, radiotelephone service will be of great mutual benefit to our two nations."

Mr. Hirota in reply said to Secretary Hull, "I am exceedingly happy to express my sincere congratulations upon the inauguration of the radiotelephonic service between America and Japan and to reciprocate the spirit of cordiality of which you have just spoken."

The Japanese Ambassador at Washington, Mr. Hiroshi Saito, in speaking with Ambassador Joseph C. Grew at Tokyo, wished him much success in business and "an improvement in his golf."

Mrs. Moffett, a daughter of Ambassador Grew, who was present at the Secretary of State's office extended greetings to her father and sent love and best wishes to members of her family including her sister who was then also in Tokyo. In this way, Mrs. Moffett became the first woman to speak by telephone between the two capitals.

Judge Eugene O. Sykes, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, in speaking with Mr. Takejiro Tokonami, Minister of Communications expressed his appreciation of "the opportunity at this opening of service of extending greetings from the Bell System to the Telecommunications Bureau of the Government of Japan and to assure you that we look forward to a long and happy association in which, we trust, we can together usefully serve the people of the two nations." Mr. Tokonami, in felicitating the opening of telephone service, said: "I earnestly hope that this radiotelephone service will widely and freely be used, its functions be displayed to the fullest degree, and thus contribute to promote the welfare of and friendship between the two peoples."

Arthur W. Page, vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, was master of ceremonies at the Washington end of the circuit with Mr. Seichi Shindo, director general of Telecommunications for Japan, in charge of the ceremonies in Tokyo.

Japan is the sixtieth foreign country to be connected by telephone with the Bell System network. Of the total 30,850,000 telephones available for interconnection, approximately 18,350,000 are in North America and 445,000 in Japan and other Asiatic countries. It is estimated that out of a total of 33,275,000 telephones in the world, 93 per cent may be interconnected.

The telephone channel connecting Washington and Tokyo is about 8,000 miles in length. This includes 5,100 miles of radio channel from San Francisco across the Pacific to Tokyo.

"The Man From Utah" Bristles With Fast Action, Roughriding And the Thrills of a Rodeo

John Wayne, the ace of western stars, shows the stuff of which the real heroes of the old West were made in his latest starring thriller, "The Man From Utah," a Lone Star Production, which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Friday, February 1.

From the opening scene which shows Wayne frustrating a bank robbery by some fast-shooting and hard riding to the happy finale with Marjorie Carter, "The Man From Utah" is brimful of the action that western fans crave.

The story concerns the adventures of John Weston who is relegated to the dangerous task of rounding up a band of rodeo racketeers.

Joining the gang as one of their kind, he grabs off all the prize money in the contests that are staged and when it appears that his doom is to be that of others who tried to win against the ace of the band, Cheyenne Kent, he discovers the secret that causes the death of his predecessors and destroys the crooked outfit.

A real rodeo with all the trimmings is staged. Yakima Canutt, who for seven years was the holder of the Roosevelt trophy emblematic of rodeo championships, offers some of the feats that won for him this coveted prize.

LONG-RANGE WEATHER FORECASTING

Are we headed for another drought? Experts disagree, the groundhog is all washed up a prophet, and what we need is an accurate man like Noah. The scientific side of long-range weather forecasting and what possibilities are held in store for this hoped-for service are described in an article appearing next Sunday in the Magazine Section of The Washington Star.

INDIGESTION, GAS

Mrs. Kathryn Nutter of 25 E. Washington St., Grafton, W. Va., said: "I had a poor appetite and my digestion was bad—certain foods I could not eat without distress. After taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a short time I could eat anything I liked without being upset, and I have since been in the best of health." New size, tablets 50c, liquid $1.00. Write Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., for free advice.

Better Breakfasts

BREAKFAST should be a good lever for a good liver. The prospect of it ought to pry you out of bed with a minimum of resistance on these cold winter mornings. Which would you do—make a dash for your bath or turn over and have another forty winks—if you knew you had in prospect a breakfast like the following?

Tomato Juice (Mmm!)
Hominy Cooked in Milk (Mmm!)
Bacon and Fried Bananas (Mmmmm!)
Toasted Rolls (Mmmmmmm!)
Coffee (Mmmmmmm!)

Here's the recipe for the hominy cooked in milk. Drain two cups canned hominy and put through fine food chopper. Add one-fourth teaspoon salt and seven-eighths cup hot milk, and cook in double boiler for thirty minutes. Serve with cream and sugar. Serves four.

But you doubtless noticed that in this menu it was the coffee that got the most "mmm's." That was because you can be sure nowadays of always getting the best of coffee in a perfect state for brewing, and there is no more delectable or delicious breakfast drink. The tomato juice is a fine eye opener, the hominy goes good, and the bacon and bananas even better. The toasted rolls add a tempting touch, but it is the coffee that crowns the morning feast. It's so simple, too, howdays, to get perfect coffee. All you have to do is to look at the can you buy it in carefully, and see that it is marked "vacuum packed." Those two little words assure you that it will come out of the can as fresh and flavorsome as it went in. And it has the advantage, too, of offering you a choice practically as wide as the market since so many of the good coffees are now vacuum packed. Just get the blend you like the best.*

BRIDGING THE GAPS

THIS is the right season of the year for bridge parties. That excellent game is more than useful in providing interest and excitement on those cold, sleety winter days when you can't go skating or sleighing or skiing without coming home encased in ice. It bridges the gaps between the spells of good weather.

Presumably you have your own pet way of giving a bridge party, but there are one or two considerations to keep in mind. If the affair is in the afternoon and your guests are bridge "fiends," have a light lunch so as not to produce sodden brains, and serve it early so as to have plenty of time to play.

The lunch for the "fiends" need not be elaborate. Just open a can of crab meat, chop up some celery, parsley, and a little onion, (if you know that none of your guests has an antipathy for the aroma or taste of that succulent vegetable) and serve it with mayonnaise. Start with a tomato juice cocktail, and have some hot rolls, and that's sufficient.

But if the object of the bridge party is just a get-together, with the bridge a minor interest, it doesn't matter how much you eat. Then you can elaborate the above lunch by serving the crab meat combination in halves of alligator pears, and adding a dessert.

An Elaborate Luncheon

Creamed Chicken and Mushrooms in Patty Shells.
Cranberry Jelly Salad.
Hot Buttered Rolls.
Pumpkin and Coconut Tarts.
Glassed Pineapple.

Cranberry Jelly Salad: Strain the contents of one can of cranberry jelly and heat it with one-half cup orange juice and two tablespoons lemon juice. Soak four teaspoons gelatin in two tablespoons cold water, and then dissolve it in the hot, melted cranberry. Strain and cool, add one-fourth cup diced celery and one-fourth cup chopped nuts when beginning to stiffen. Pour into molds wet with cold water, and chill. Turn onto lettuce leaves, and serve with celery hearts stuffed with cream cheese. Serves eight.

Appetizing Sweets

Pumpkin and Coconut Tarts: Mix two cups canned pumpkin with one and an eighth cups sugar, one and a half teaspoons ginger, one teaspoon cinnamon and one teaspoon salt. Add three well-beaten egg yolks, two cups milk and one-half cup canned moist coconut. Fold in the three stiffly-beaten egg whites, and fill pastry-lined tart tins with the mixture. Bake, having oven hot at first, then more moderate. Keep it at 450 degrees for the first ten minutes, then reduce it to 325 degrees for rest of time. It is done when knife comes out clean. Serve cold with a spoon of whipped cream on top. This makes one pie, thirty small tarts the size of muffins, or fifteen regular tarts.

Glassed Pineapple: Boil two cups sugar, one cup water and one-eighth teaspoon Cream of Tartar without stirring to the crack stage, or 300 degrees. Keep hot with hot water while dipping the pineapple. Cut the pineapple in convenient sized wedges for serving, and drain well. Then dip a few at a time in the syrup, and remove to an oiled paper to dry. It's most important to have the pineapple well drained, for at least several hours, before using. Otherwise, the juice will prevent the glazing.

A Bridge Tea

Or, if they don't come to luncheon at all, and you simply plan to assuage the sharp appetites induced by a grand slam bid and made, here are a couple of hearty sandwiches which, together with tea or cider, will do the trick.

Chicken Almond Sandwiches: Mix well together one cup chopped chicken, one cup chopped blanched almonds, one-half cup mayonnaise, one teaspoon salt and paprika. Spread between thinly sliced and buttered bread. Cut in stars and crescents and Christmas tree shapes and garnish outside with bits of pimiento.

Hot Christmas Tea Muffins: Mix and sift two cups flour, three tablespoons sugar, four teaspoons baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt. Beat two eggs well, and add one cup milk. Combine with the dry ingredients. Add three tablespoons melted shortening and three-fourths cup canned mince-meat, and bake in tiny buttered gem tins at 400 degrees for twenty minutes. This makes forty-eight very tiny muffins or about two dozen of medium size. Be sure to ask your grocer whether he carries canned mince-meat before you plan to serve this sandwich. If he doesn't, he can easily order it for you.

REV. A. J. VAN INGLESEM

The Catholic parishes of Falls Church and Herndon are especially grieved to learn of the death of Father Joe, as Rev. A. J. Van Inglesem was known to the Catholic world of Fairfax County. Father Joe, who has recently been chaplain of the Monte Maria Convent near Richmond, died Monday, Jan. 14, in his 83rd year.

Father Goevert, now located at Clifton Forge and an associate for many years of Father Van, was the celebrant of the solemn Mass, assisted by Father Brennan of Richmond and Father Beattie of Norfolk. The oration was delivered by Msgr. Waters and the absolution pronounced by Msgr. Kaup.

A special dignitary at the funeral was the Belgian ambassador of the United States, Prince Eugene de Ligne, a life-long friend of Father Van. Father Van, himself, was a native of Belgium, being born at Lippelvo, Belgium, June 18, 1852. He attended the Antwerp school and prepared for the priesthood at Mechlin. He was also a friend of the late Cardinal Mercier.

He was ordained on September 18, 1875, and had he lived would have celebrated his diamond jubilee this coming September. He was vice-president of the Pope's College at Louvain where he received his degree in canon law.

In 1879 he was made curate of St. Gudule, at Brussels, and took an active part in the foundation of the daily paper known as "La Libre Belgique."

While in Brussels he was spiritual advisor to the Noble House and one of his altar boys was Prince de Ligne, a mourner at his funeral.

Father Van's first charge in the United States was at St. Francis in Stanton in 1900. He later went to the pastorate of the Oak Ridge. Estate of the late Thomas Fortune Ryan.

In 1910 he came to Falls Church when all of Fairfax was under his charge. Later St. Mary's at Fairfax Station was placed under Manassas and Father Van saw one of his life works accomplished in the construction of the little stone mission at Herndon which is named St. Joseph's in his honor.

Full of years and deeds he retired to the more inactive post as chaplain at the Convent where he passed away this week.

COLLEGE ATHLETES AND 20 LOVELY CO-EDS RECRUITED FOR "STUDENT TOUR" CAST

Music, youth and laughter!

Those three ingredients, skillfully mixed, are the bases of "Student Tour," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's merry laughabanza which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Wednesday.

For comedy, Jimmy Durante and Charles Butterworth, each a comic star in his own right, hold the center of the stage. They form a contrast that, in itself, is screamingly funny.

For youth, M-G-M scoured the colleges and universities of the West seeking the most beautiful co-eds. Twenty of the loveliest girls in America take part in the picture. Many of them never before have been before a camera.

For music, Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed, who wrote "Singing in the Rain" and scores of other outstanding hits, have contributed seven new numbers, notably the "Carlo," new dance-rhythm now beginning to sweep the country. Other hit songs are "From Now On," "A New Moon Is Over My Shoulder," "Taj Mahal," "The College Hymn," "Snake Dance" and "Fight On."

Determined to make "Student Tour" a true saga of modern hotcha college youth, M-G-M also recruited college men from half a dozen universities, notably the University of California at Los Angeles. They are brawny athletes who make their bow to the world in this picture.

"Student Tour" deals with the hilarious adventures of a group of college boys and girls on a trip around the world. They visit China, India, Monte Carlo and many other points of interest, and at each stop they run into screamingly funny complications.

Romantic leads of the picture are played by Maxine Doyle and Phil Regan, two singing newcomers to the screen, expected to become one of the film's outstanding sweetheart teams. Miss Doyle, a California girl, was "discovered" on the stage of a Washington theatre where she was mistress of ceremonies. Regan was a young detective on the New York police force when his fine tenor voice attracted attention.

New Safety Device Patterned After Eyes of Cats and Dogs

Left, above, Jonathan Cass Stimson, of Chicago, who discovered that the same principle that causes light to be reflected from the eyes of the Tabby in the upper right corner could be used effectively on the tail lights of automobiles. Drawing shows how a ray of light is reflected.

NEW YORK—Eyes of cats and dogs reflecting the lights of on-rushing automobiles along our highways at night have resulted in the perfecting of important new automobile and highway safety devices exhibited at this year's New York Automobile Show.

For the first time all passenger cars and trucks exhibited at this year's show are equipped with tail lights made of reflex reflector glass, while most of the latest highway safety signs are similarly equipped for the benefit and safety of night drivers.

The new reflex reflector, like the eyes of night animals (prowlers) is so designed that it is self-focusing and returns the illumination from approaching headlights to the eye of the approaching driver with little loss in efficiency.

By introducing this new feature in rear automobile lamps and in road signs, lights of approaching cars produce their own safety signals, even in cases where tail lamps fail or cars have been parked without lights.

New York state, effective this month, requires reflex reflector tail lamps on all trucks and on all new passenger cars, and similar legislation is expected this year in many other states.

This new safety device is a product of the depression years and is largely the life work of Jonathan Cass Stimson of Chicago, who determined a number of years ago to make a mechanical mirror which would compare in efficiency with nature's animal eye reflector.

The beauty and variety of design used in incorporating this reflex safety feature in the various tail lamps, is a tribute to the ingenuity of the modern motor engineer.

A $1.50 Dinner for 6

BLESSINGS on the person who reminds us of a succulent dish which we can serve as the pièce de résistance of a dinner. Have you thought recently of having scalloped oysters play that part. They are not only very good, but very good for you. And so as not to make this suggestion a half way measure, here is one for the rest of the dinner to serve with that popular dish.

Scalloped Oysters 60¢
Baked Lima Beans 19¢
Bread and Butter 12¢
Cabbage, Celery and Apple Salad 19¢
Shredded Wheat Fruit Pudding 35¢
Demi-Tasse 5¢

This dinner will cost you approximately a dollar and a half—twenty-five cents per person—and here are the recipes for the beans and pudding:

Baked Lima Beans: Dice two slices bacon, fry till crisp, add two tablespoons diced canned pimiento and the contents of a No. 2 can lima beans. Season with salt and pepper, and turn in a baking dish. Bake about thirty minutes in a moderate oven.

Shredded Wheat Fruit Pudding: Melt three tablespoons butter in skillet, add three crumbled shredded wheat biscuits and stir until evenly mixed with the butter. Mix two-thirds cup sugar, one-half teaspoon cinnamon and a few grains salt, and add. Have the drained fruit from a No. 2 can apricots cut in quarters and two bananas sliced. Put a layer of crumbs in a buttered baking dish, and cover with half the apricots and bananas. Add another layer of crumbs and then the rest of the fruit. Top with the rest of the crumbs, combine one-third cup of the apricot syrup with one tablespoon lemon juice, and pour over. Bake for about forty minutes in a moderate—375° oven. Serve warm with top milk or with half milk and half cream.

AN EXPLANATION

Today is the 58th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Powell, of the Henry Farm, at Stone House. Mr. Powell is the well-known caretaker of the famous battlefield farm. Continued indisposition of the editor plus the worse sort of weather has prevented the production of the picture of this dear old couple which had been hoped for.

BEERY AND COOPER JUST A "COUPLE OF KIDS" TOGETHER

Jackie Cooper is happy—For he has just completed another role with his screen partner, Wallace Beery, his closest personal friend since their success together in "The Champ."

Their latest picture is "Treasure Island," famous pirate classic, with Beery as Long John Silver and Jackie as Jim Hawkins, to be shown at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Monday and Tuesday—and every day of the picture brought them a new adventure.

"Can you imagine me bein' scared of Wally the first time we met?" are questions the child star. "Gee Whiz—he is such a big guy that my knees were sort of trembling when I did my first scene with him."

"But next day he brought a big bunch of papers with him and asked, 'Like to see these, Kid?' And I said I sure would and by golly there was plans for his big new airplane and we sure became friends quick. He's my best pal now."

Jackie's yell of "Here I Come, Wally!" always denotes a football scuffle or wrestling match between them on the studio lawn.

In the lunchroom Wally's steak has a habit of mysteriously disappearing and after a search he often finds it hidden on a nearby table with a big grin from Jackie across the room.

At Wally's suggestion Jackie took up a course in physical training from Mike Cantwell, famous trainer of Max Baer, and for months Beery wasn't safe from "body blows" and "upper cuts" while the body tried out his lessons.

New flying suits in Beery's wardrobe are tried out with pants and sleeves rolled up until Master Cooper looks like a penguin in distress!

During the pirate picture Jackie has been in a "seventh heaven" of his friendship with Wally. For nearly a month they worked together on the sailing ship "Hispaniola," and on beach locations near the Isthmus of Catalina Island.

WILL GET NEW BANK

After several weeks of anxious suspense the people of Herndon and vicinity are assured that they will have a bank. The present bank was closed on January 4 owing to heavy shortages in the accounts of Asa Bradshaw who had been cashier almost since the bank was organized in 1907.

The business men of that town have conducted a thorough canvass which was brought to a happy conclusion on Tuesday evening when it was learned that nearly $30,000 had been subscribed.

Mr. George Robey, attorney for the bank, went to the Treasury Department yesterday and filed the application for the new charter. Directors will be elected in the near future and the bank will be in active operation by the first week in February.

Have you read the Clark and Arrington History of Prince William County? ### Facts And Figures On Your Telephone

BY EDWIN F. HILL

Improvements and betterments to the Bell Telephone System this year will involve expenditures of $200,000,000 which is $25,000,000 more than was expended in 1934, according to a statement recently made by Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The additions and improvements involved in this expenditure will undoubtedly allow for the installation of hundreds of thousands of new telephones.

Net gains in telephones and increased use are seen by many people as indications that economic conditions are improved, so the statement that there was a net increase of about 280,000 telephones in the Bell System companies in 1934, as compared with a very considerable loss the previous year, is indicative of better times.

This increase in telephones is also reflected in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, with a net gain of approximately 26,000 telephones in 1934, as compared with a loss of 19,079 in 1933.

On December 31, there were about 637,750 telephones in service in this area as compared with 612,270 on the same date in 1933.

Use of the telephone is also on the increase, with 100,000 more calls a day having been made in the central offices of the Chesapeake and Potomac Companies this year over last. The average originating daily calls in 1934 were 3,200,000 as compared with 3,100,000 the previous year.
