

KIWANIS HEAD
VISITS HEREGovernor Pimper Congratulates
Club on Achievements.

The Manassas Kiwanis Club was treated to a visit from Lt. Governor Charles W. Pimper last Friday evening. Charlie braved the weather and came down although his cohorts deserted him entirely. Before the regular meeting, Charlie held a special session of the directors and all the committee chairmen at which time he gave them much valuable instructions and directions. At the meeting, Charlie put on a little additional program which went through without a hitch. Charlie was very high in his praise of a ten-year record which the club has made.

Attention was drawn to the fact that the Kiwanis Underprivileged Child Benefit was only two weeks off. This will be given by Dr. William W. Ellsworth in the high school auditorium on Wednesday, February 13, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Ellsworth was a member of the publishing firm which produced many of Mark Twain's books and in that way was thrown into personal contact with Mr. Twain. This year is the centenary of Mark Twain's birth and the town, Hannibal, Mo., has already erected a prominent memorial for the great writer near his birthplace. Memorial ceremonies took place early in the month.

The admission fee will be very low and it is possible that both the subject of the lecture and the cause for which it is given will serve as a double impetus for attendance.

Tomorrow evening is "Wives Night" and the meeting will be at the Parish Hall.

MANASSAS FIVE
WINS TWO GAMES

Beat Oakton, 37-36, and Warrenton, 40-14.

The Manassas A. C. basketball squad won two games this week at the expense of the Oakton and Warrenton A. C. teams.

The Oakton game, played on the home court Monday, the 28th, was more closely contested than expected. The score was rather close until the second half when the local team forged ahead before the regulars were withdrawn in favor of substitutes a few minutes before the end of the game. At that time the score was 37 to 23 in our favor. However, we were given a scare as the Oakton boys rallied to within a point of tying the score before the whistle blew. The final score was 37 to 36. Lynn and Cosgrove were high scorers for Manassas with 12 points apiece while O. Levin and Compton led their team with 18 and 15 points, respectively.

Wednesday night the Macs won their third consecutive game of the season when they decisively defeated Warrenton on the latter's court, the score being 40 to 14. Neither team scored a point for the first few minutes before Warrenton made a pot shot. Then Manassas got started and worked up a lead of 9 points in the first half. In the second half the Macs, not contented with this lead, kept piling up the score to 40. The Warrenton team was helpless against the tight defense of the Macs, being able to amass only 6 goals, beside two free throws. Wurdemann and Vetter were outstanding for the Macs (Please turn to page 8)

FEED THE BIRDS

Heavy Snow Keeps Them From Obtaining Food, Unless Supplied.

The thick blanket of snow now covering the ground, will keep the partridges and other birds, the rabbits and squirrels from getting food, and if they are not fed by those who love wild life, then many will be dead before the coming of spring. Every one is urged to throw out handfuls of grain, pieces of bread, or other food where the birds and other wild things can get it. Food is not only necessary to keep them from starving but many will freeze to death as food is what keeps them warm. Help our feathered friends and the squirrels and rabbits, if we want to see them about after the bad weather is over.

A. B. C. BOARD
EARNS $2,000,000

Predicts Big Refund to Localities.

The Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Board has amassed net earnings of $1,843,721.43 since it began operations last March 22, it has announced. The figure quoted covers the period ended December 31.

Releasing the figure, officials said that by the time the board closes its books on June 30, 1935, there will probably be close to $1,000,000 available for distribution to localities, in accordance with the control act. The distribution on a per capita basis would return approximately 41.3 cents per person.

The distribution, however, hinges on what decision the governor takes with regard to the reserve fund he is empowered to set up. Under the terms of the law he has authority to set aside up to $1,000,000 as a reserve fund. If this is done the money for distribution to the localities will be considerably less.

The board's earnings by months were set forth as being: March 22 to June 30, $192,303.79; July 1 to September 30, $616,502.86; October, $297,491.42; November, $297,302.97; December, $440,120.39.

MRS. W. C. WAGENER
DIES IN BALTIMOREWidow of Former Manassas
Mayor Was Highly Esteemed.

In the death of Mrs. W. C. Wagener on Friday of last week, Manassas loses another member of the generation that knew the town from the early post-bellum days when it was a mere village.

Born near Sinclair's Mills, this county, on October 3, 1865, Mrs. Wagener, whose maiden name was Laura Jane Woodyard, attended schools at Manassas. She was a pupil at the private school of the late Mrs. Estelle Green Day; later she was a student at the Ruffner Public School, predecessor of the present Manassas public schools.

Mrs. Wagener was a daughter of Newton and Amanda (Cannon) Woodyard. On March 13, 1888, she was married to William C. Wagener. To the union were born two sons—Clarence W., who lives in Baltimore, Md., and Howard C., who died at the age of 15. Her husband, who served several terms as mayor of the town, died on December 13, 1932.

Prior to suffering a severe heart attack about nine years ago, which made an invalid of her, Mrs. Wagener took an active part in church and social service work. She was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Since October, 1933, Mrs. Wagener has resided in Baltimore. On Friday evening of last week she was the victim of another heart attack, which proved fatal within a few minutes.

Surviving Mrs. Wagener, besides her son, are two sisters, Mrs. Georgianna Bowman and Mrs. Flora Tyler, both of Manassas; a brother, John L. Woodyard, of Chase City, Va.; a granddaughter, Marguerite Wagener, of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held at Trinity Episcopal Church, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. A. S. Gibson officiating. Interment was at the family burial plot in Manassas cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Fred R. Hynson, G. Raymond Ratcliffe, C. A. Sinclair, J. L. Bushong, George Hixson and J. L. Moser.

GOV. PEERY WILL STUDY PENSION PLAN

An advisory commission will be named by Governor Peery to study the pension problem as soon as the Wagner-Lewis bill is advanced far enough in Congress to indicate what it may involve in the way of expense to Virginia, the State's Chief Executive announced this week.

Members of the commission, Governor Peery said, would include representatives of the public, labor and employers and they would be called on to make a study of the effect the national plan, if followed by Virginia, would have on this State.

Consultation with State officials and actuaries has convinced the Governor that the pension bill pending in Congress would cost Virginia at least $10,000,000 a year, an amount practically doubling the State's tax burden and one which he regards as "prohibitive."

The chief executive of the Commonwealth said he believed in the "principle" of unemployment insurance but doubted whether, under existing conditions, a satisfactory pension bill could be worked out.

Meanwhile, Dr. W. A. Plecker, head of the bureau of vital statistics of the State Health Department, indicated that comparatively few Virginians would be eligible for the proposed $30-a-month pension for persons over 65 years old because, with the incomplete records in his office, it would be difficult for them to prove their age.

Persons who have reached the age of 65 must have been born not later than 1870, he said, adding that the only birth records in his office covering the period 1853-1896 were collected by commissioners of the revenue as they traveled about the localities assessing property for taxation and that they are decidedly incomplete. At that time Virginia Negroes had been free only about five years and few of them had any taxable property. Hence, they were not visited by the commissioners. A great many whites of the period were missed also, according to Dr. Plecker.

The statistics bureau chief, who, like Governor Peery, is strongly opposed to the pension plan under consideration in Washington, said that if it were followed in Virginia his office would be swamped with requests for information which, in many instances, it could not supply. It is recognized that an applicant for a pension must establish his age.

NOKESVILLE FUTURE
FARMERS TO COMPETE

The Nokesville chapter of Future Farmers of America will be represented in the final contest of the basketball tournament which is to be staged at the Handley High School in Winchester on Saturday evening, February 2. The local boys won in the preliminary contest held at Herndon on Saturday, January 19. Twelve teams were entered in the area and five of the best ones came to the contest at Herndon. It was necessary for the winning team to play three almost consecutive games, but with it all the Nokesville boys came through in good shape and excellent spirits. This is the second time for Nokesville to be represented in the final contest at Winchester.

The tournament which is being played off started in the Agricultural High Schools of eighteen counties in northern Virginia shortly after the Christmas holiday season. Entering the contest at Winchester on Saturday will be four teams which have thus far remained undefeated. These games usually create considerable interest among the boys taking agriculture in the various schools. Nokesville will be represented by the following players: Philip Reading, Raymond Showalter, Oscar Aubrey, William Schaeffer, Raleigh Nelson, Ralph Rollins, Clemen Rollins and Billie Hale.

W. C. T. U. CONDEMNS LIQUOR TRAFFIC

"Temperance Education Day" was observed at the home of Mrs. T. R. Bywaters with an appropriate program.

The "Union Signal" furnished some splendid articles for this meeting. "Alcoholic Legislation" by the national president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was especially timely. She says two factors enter into the consideration of the liquor traffic question—"the individual and the traffic." For the individual there must be education; for the traffic there must be that method by which society protects itself from harmful agencies. To promote the general welfare, she reminds us, was one reason named in the preamble of the Constitution for the establishment of this government. When there is a great unsocial thing which injures the general welfare at every point of contact, it is the duty of government under the Constitution to rid society of that evil.

The liquor traffic can give no reason for its existence in view of this general welfare. The facts are all to the contrary. She further states, now that the liquor traffic has been legalized, its history is being repeated, every promise violated—sale to minors, Sunday sales, no restricted distance from schools and churches. Our country, Mrs. Smith says, is passing through a crisis. Representative government is on trial; financial security is tottering, government problems multiply, and each is difficult of solution. The liquor traffic complicates every such problem.

CONFEDERATE EXERCISES
TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 3

Because of severe weather, the Lee-Jackson birthday programme was postponed from January 24 to Monday, February 3. This will mark the celebration not only of the Lee-Jackson natal days but also of the Southern poet, Sidney Lanier.

These exercises are being sponsored by the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., in co-operation with the High and Bennett School students in the high school auditorium next Monday, February 3, at 2:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

A B C INSPECTORS
RAID RUM SELLERSInspector Saunders Catches One
at Train.

Yesterday evening about 7 o'clock, State Inspector C. W. Saunders of Richmond and his assistant, R. Nugent, together with the following local officers, Sheriff John Kerlin, Deputy Sheriff Dave Herndon and Constable C. C. Wittner and Constable John Adams made a concentrated drive in Quantico where considerable bootlegging had been rumored for some time past.

It is a well-known fact that approximately forty cents a pint can be made by buying whiskey in Washington and going into the State with it.

Nellie Field, colored, Quantico, was very much surprised when she stepped off the local train last night to be taken into custody by the sheriff's squad. On opening her valise they discovered forty half pints designed for retail among the Marines who receive their wages today. The officers had previously been to Nellie's house where they captured three half-gallon jars of corn whiskey.

Inspector Saunders and his assistant had already been to the home of Carson Street, Quantico, and found that Carson had one hundred and seven half pints and twenty-three pints of whiskey. The raid on James Whitten, Quantico, was not so profitable as he only had a part of a gallon of corn whiskey.

When brought before Judge Brown this morning each of the three pleaded guilty on the violation of having more than the lawful amount of liquor which an individual is entitled to under the new liquor law, or better known as section 58 of the ABC Act.

James was given a suspended sentence of six months and fined $50.00. Carson was sentenced to jail for six months and fined $100 while Nellie Field fared the worst of the lot, drawing a year in jail and $100.00 on one charge and six months on another. Nellie is also charged with violation of section 50 of the ABC Act.

This is the second of the series of raids by the ABC inspectors in co-operation with the local authorities following Governor Peery's plea to the local authorities to assist in the proper enforcement of the ABC Act. It is stated that the inspectors are perusing a very wise policy in not raiding at random but conducting personal investigations before striking.

Mr. Saunders is well known in this area as he was for several months stationed at Alexandria. His record was such that he was rapidly promoted to the position of State Inspector, a position which he is filling with equal efficiency.

O. R. HERSCH DAIRY AMONG FIVE HIGH STATE HERDS

The herd of O. R. Hersch was listed in the December issue of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association. News Letter as being one of the five high State herds in milk production for that month. Hersch's herd of 20 cows on test produced an average of 872.5 pounds of milk in December.

HYDE HAS FOURTH FLOCK IN EGG PRODUCTION

The White Leghorn flock of J. P. Hyde, Bristow, was fourth among the flocks enrolled in the State Farm Flock Demonstration Project for December. Mr. Hyde's flock of 172 hens produced an average of 16.04 eggs per hen for the month.

FOUR COUNTY MEN
HELD AS BURGLARSSheriff Kerlin Rounds Up Those Accused.

On the night of January 21 some one broke into Francis Lewis' meat-house and stole nine hams, five shoulders and five middlings. Mr. Lewis reported this to the local police officials and they proceeded to investigate at once.

They found a track, with chain tread that was easy to mark. In doing so, they were led down the Joplin road, near the Bellefair Mill. As they neared the intersection, a car drove out and started toward Joplin. On being pursued, it quickly turned into the woods. The officers stopped and ran into the woods where they found the car and nearby a sack of meat, bag of flour and in the car a sack of rye chop, some pieces of turkey and a pair of bolt clippers.

Two of the officers remained to watch the car and three went to the home of Alonzo Grayson, a suspect. Arriving there, they found that Grayson and others had gotten there and removed therefrom about sixty pounds of flour, about 175 pounds of meat and in a brush pile nearby a live turkey and a pan of cut-up turkey.

The officers tracked the outfit into Stafford County, near Bellefair Mill. Pursuit was found impossible and the posse came back to Manassas.

On Saturday night, the 26th, Sheriff Kerlin was tipped that the parties wanted were at Noah Grayson's near Kopp. The officers went to Ben Hoover's and left their car there. Walking nearly three miles in heavy snow and mud, they failed to find their prey. Returning to their car, they noticed someone coming out of the Stafford road, carrying a lantern.

He was run down. He gave his name as Bill Washington. The suspect was taken to Ben Hoover who identified him as Aaron Butler, the owner of the car left in the woods.

The posse then went into Stafford, in search of Joe Grayson, Louis Johnson and Alonzo Grayson. After going into eight or nine houses, all three men were located, and they were put under arrest at once.

It was 9 o'clock Sunday forenoon when Sheriff Kerlin and his force got back to Manassas, almost completely exhausted.

In the hearing held on Monday morning, it was stated that these parties had taken four turkeys from Will Haydon and about $100 worth of meat from Francis Lewis, and about a barrel of flour and 100 lbs. of rye chop from G. E. Snook's mill near Brentsville, all thefts being made in the one night.

Judge Brown held each man under $3000 bond, waiting the action of the grand jury which meets Monday next.

The sheriff's posse included D. H. Herndon, Will Smith, Francis Lewis, Henry Wallace, and Archie Reid. The sheriff and his deputies are high in their appreciation and praise of the assistance and co-operation given in capturing these men.

LOCAL JUSTICE
IS HONOREDJudge Brown Named to Head
Congressional Group.

Prince William County was given the distinction of having its Trial Justice named as chairman of the Eighth District Association of Trial Justices when the State Organization was formed in Richmond last week. Mr. Brown was also named one of the twelve members of the State Executive Committee. In his months of service Mr. Brown has made an enviable record as a jurist and his preference among his associates may have the possibilities of future advancement in the judiciary of the State.

FEED THE BIRDS

The Prince William County Fish and Game Protective Association is urging that suitable food be placed for quail and other birds. The grain should not be placed in the snow. Those interested in more elaborate bird feeding than they are able to care for personally should get in touch with their local game warden.

Well, we are at it again—every one of us. Talking about the weather and comparing notes. No need now to read Whittier's "Snowbound" for we have one of our own; so there.

It is hardly necessary to tell you that Catharpin has been buried under snow drifts for the past week and at this writing, Monday morning, we're still there, shut out entirely from the vain, wicked world; have not had a daily paper for 6 days, but fortunately the telephone remained intact so that people could compare the merits of their thermometers; else what on earth would we have done? You know it's so comforting to have some one tell you "Our thermometer was 10 below" and the reply—"Well ours was 16," and so it went from morning until away into the night. Fruit closets and water pipes have a habit of freezing up sometimes, hence the "nocturnal vigilance" of keeping "The Home Fires Burning" and calling each other up to keep awake. And so it went and they are still at it.

Well, everything seems to have its compensating qualities as well as those not so compensating. While some of us are penned up around the heating stove, shivering and shaking and teeth chattering, there are others out on the hillside or along the highways coasting and enjoying a situation which "kind Providence has vouchsafed unto them."

So it is the way one looks at things and who the "looker" is, that usually determines their quality.

But it is from Haymarket that our reportorial staff reports an innovation in the coasting line. The John Marshall Highway, level, wide and handsome as it is, was useless as a coasting proposition until the boys made a big bob-sled and using an automobile for motive power, now go sailing up and down that wonderful concourse counting distances only by mph's and having the thrill of their lives. Thus the whole town is out for a holiday while the school is closed by reason of drifted roads.

But while Haymarket is "joyriding" over the "beautiful" it must not be forgotten that Catharpin is doing a little of the same thing, but in the natural, original way of pull-up-and-slide-down. The schools being closed temporarily, affords the kiddies everywhere a splendid opportunity to enjoy this wonderfully delightful experience; and believe it or not, the "kiddies" are not the only portion of the population represented on the hills. Well, we still say it is wonderful to be living in that stage of life where thermometers have no terrors.

The present snow and the continued severity of temperature naturally leads one to think of others like it or perhaps worse, as the case may be. Many are recounting former experiences with hard winters and comparing them with the present "cold snap." One lady ventured the information that back in 1887 they had experienced one as big and as cold as this one; but coming from "ancient" to "medieval" times it was remembered that there were some three or four pretty stiff propositions sent out by the weather man that were so uncomfortably mixed up with Old Man Zero and his fluffy overcoat, that all were glad when they were gone. Among these might be mentioned that on November 17, 1917, a heavy snow fell and some of it remained on the ground until February, and the winter was reputed to be one of the severest known. Then on January 26, 1920, according to the record, was the "big thaw." Rain had fallen and frozen as it fell until a heavy layer of ice covered everything and very cold. On February 21, 1923, witnessed a heavy snow fall followed by rains and floods. But it is "modern" times with which we are mostly concerned and find on February 21, 1929, a snow fall of 8 inches was followed on the 20th by another of 12 inches and thermometer recorded 8 below. This seems a close rival of the present month when we find that the week of the 20th of January, 1935, may stand high up among the record-breakers of modern times since within a period of 8 days, 21 inches of snow had fallen and the thermometer had twice dropped to around 10 below zero; and as we write, the end is not yet. 1934 produced a very cold snap with thermometer reading as low as 20 below zero, but 1935 seems to be making a record all her own.

Owing to the fact that people have been so busy during the past week shoveling snow, splitting wood and trying to keep things from freezing, themselves included, they have had neither time or visit nor were they in a mood to receive visitors, so our social reportorial staff had a well-deserved holiday. The only thing that approached the "news" column was the report that a certain person had fallen down, but landing in a snow drift, no injury was received, therefore a news item was spoiled. So we "sign off" for the present.

MISSIONARY TO SPEAK

The Presbyterian Church presents Rev. C. S. Hoffman as its guest speaker at a special service in the church on Tuesday night, Feb. 5, at 7:30. Rev. Hoffman has spent twenty-four years in Syenchun, Korea, where he teaches in the Boys' Academy. The city of Syenchun has a population of 10,000, one-third of whom are Christian. In the surrounding territory there are over 250 churches with a membership of 62,500, the largest Christian development known to the mission field.

Rev. Hoffman has oversight of 25 churches in the territory. These he visits on his bicycle. On market days he meets with the church leaders who have come to town and discusses church problems with them.

On Tuesday Rev. Hoffman will tell the thrilling story of Christian progress in Korea. He will tell of native superstitions, "Devil Posts," tree worship, the use of fetishes and the activities of the sorcerers.

All of our churches are interested in missions. What Rev. Hoffman is doing is a sample of what the missionaries of other denominations are doing. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Truth" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 27.

The golden text was "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name" (Psalms 86:11).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yes, I shall observe it with my whole heart" (Psalms 119:33-34).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "What is this supposed power which opposes itself to God? Whence cometh it? What is it that binds man with iron shackles to sin, sickness, and death? Whatever enslaves man is opposed to the divine government. Truth makes man free. . . . Men and women of all climes and races are still in bondage to material sense, ignorant how to obtain their freedom" (p. 224).

STUDY GROUP FORMED

Under the direction of Mrs. Edgar G. Parrish, president of the Bennett School League, and Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton, chairman of the educational committee, a study group for parents was formed at the home of Mrs. Thornton Monday night, January 28.

The object of this organization is to afford an opportunity for parents to meet and discuss freely and frankly some of the problems common to them as mothers relative to present-day childhood and youth.

Those present were very enthusiastic about the possibilities of such an organization and expressed appreciation to Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Parrish for sponsoring the idea.

Those present at this initial meeting were Mrs. De Chant, Mrs. Betty Leachman, Mrs. T. E. Didlake, Mrs. John Broadbush, Mrs. Pickeral, Mrs. R. C. Haydon, Mrs. Edgar Parrish and Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton.

The next meeting will be held February 25 at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haydon.

CREDIT CORPORATION ORGANIZES FOR 1935

The first year's record of the farmers' new cooperative short-term credit system, as represented in this section of the state by the Warrenton Production Credit Association, was discussed and approved at the annual meeting of the association's stockholders held in the Court House at Warrenton January 22.

There were present persons, most of whom were farmers and stockholders, representing every county within the association's territory, which includes Arlington, Culpeper, Fauquier, Fairfax, Prince William, Loudoun and Rappahannock.

The new board of directors of the association, elected at the meeting, is as follows: L. L. Triplett, T. O. Latham, H. S. Morean, and J. B. Wood.

The new officials are: L. L. Triplett, president; T. O. Latham, vice-president, and J. Alfred Austin, secretary-treasurer.

All of the speakers at the stockholders meeting stressed the importance of co-operation among the individual borrowers or stockholders of the association, pointing out that the responsibility, both financially and morally, of collecting loans as well as making loans rests entirely on the stockholders' own shoulders.

The meeting was frankly conducted, all questions being answered directly and simply. It was reported that of the total of the association's borrowers by far the majority of them are maintaining their loans in good standing and are meeting their payments promptly when due.

The association has loaned approximately $142,000.00 and has 100 borrowers or stockholders.

Those who made the principal talks at the meeting are: Mr. L. A. Wingo, vice-president, Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Willard Wilson, field representative from Production Credit Corporation of Baltimore, Md.

The Warrenton Production Credit Association was organized in January, 1934, and it is partly capitalized and supervised by the Production Credit Corporation of the Farm Credit Administration of Baltimore.

Although its organization was sponsored by an agency created by the Federal Government, it does not loan government money. Its lending funds are obtained through a rediscounting agreement with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Baltimore, which also is a part of the Baltimore Farm Credit Administration. The Federal Intermediate Credit Bank in turn obtains its rediscounting funds from the public money market through sale of its debentures to the public investment market.

The Warrenton association represents the first payment and complete short-term credit system for farmers that ever has been established in its territory. It makes available every type of short-term loan a farmer may need for the normal operation of his farm. It is conducted on a purely business basis, requiring adequate security on all its loans, and is open for business during the whole year, like any other business institution.

AN EDITORIAL FAUX PAS

That estimable newspaper, The Richmond Times-Dispatch, is heaping criticism upon those members of the Virginia delegation in Congress who balked at the proposed delegation of such unprecedented powers as are given to the President in the four-billion-dollar relief bill. The Governor of Virginia also comes in for a measure of displeasure.

"Both Mr. Byrd and Mr. Peery," The Times-Dispatch says, "seem to be living in the nineteenth century era of laissez faire, when anybody who advanced the idea that governments were socially responsible for their citizens was regarded as a radical or a crank."

Apparently after disposing of the task of criticizing Senators Glass and Byrd, Congressman Howard Smith and the other staunch Democrats who rendered distinguished service to the nation in successfully resisting the proposed gag rule, the Times-Dispatch, on the same page, in discussing a circumstance in the legislature of West Virginia, advanced a justification which exactly expresses the viewpoint of thousands of Virginians who heartily endorse the Glass-Byrd-Smith revolt against such unnecessary delegation of unconstitutional powers to the President.

"Although he has become the political god of millions of his countrymen," The Times-Dispatch observes, "Mr. Roosevelt is not infallible. He is subject to error as are the rest of us. In stringent times like these it is well, perhaps, to set up the sort of mild dictatorship we have established for administrative purposes, but those Democrats in political position who follow blindly and without question the leadership of the President not only sacrifice at times their intellectual integrity but they are not true to the best interests of the country. In matters of major importance it is their duty to exercise their own judgment."

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

The cost of the World War to the United States has been officially set at "about $50,000,000,000." This figure does not include about $12,000,000,000 owed to the United States by foreign governments.

Let us see what this means. This $50,000,000,000 would build a new $100,000 school in every town over 10,000 population in the United States, and a new $1,000,000 high school in every city over 100,000; in addition, it would build a $10,000,000 university in each state, and provide a $40,000,000 endowment for each of the forty-eight institutions; added to this, it would double the salary of every teacher in the American public schools, and pay it for ten years; then, too, there would be enough to give every family in the United States a little nest egg of $1000. There would be enough left to pay the soldiers' bonus—only there would not be a bonus question.—Christian Science Monitor.

VIRGINIANS' REVOLT

Those who admire independence of action will join those who oppose governmental extravagance in noting with pleasure that three Virginians were among the little band of 78 Representatives who voted against the $4,880,000,000 appropriation for public works and relief.

However, thoroughly one agrees with Mr. Roosevelt in abandoning direct relief for work relief and however much one might desire, from humanitarian motives, to help all the needy in the country, the harsh fact is that the country cannot afford to add four billions, or anything approaching that amount, to its public debt.

The Virginia Congressmen, for the record, are Colgate Darden of Norfolk, Willis Robertson of Lexington and Judge Howard Smith of our own district.—Charlottesville Progress.

OZLIN GETS NEW STATE POST

To Succeed Hooker as Chairman of Corporation Commission.

Thomas W. Ozlin, member of the State Corporation Commission since 1933, will become chairman on February 1, H. Lester Hooker, present chairman, has announced.

The change will take place under a system of rotation by which each member of the commission serves one year as chairman. Mr. Hooker has been chairman since February 1, 1933, and the twelve months previous to that William M. Fletcher was chairman.

Mr. Ozlin became a member of the State Corporation Commission April 17, 1933, succeeding George C. Peery when the latter resigned to run for Governor. Previous to that time he was one of the State's most prominent legislators, serving in the House of Delegates from 1918 to 1930 as member from Lunenburg. He was speaker of the House from 1926 to 1930.

Mr. Ozlin has been high in the councils of the Democratic party for a number of years and was vice-chairman of the State Democratic Committee from 1929 to 1933. He has been mentioned as a candidate for the Governorship in 1937.

He was mayor of his home town of Kenbridge from 1912 to 1916 and has been practicing law there since 1910. He was counsel for the Virginia State Bankers' Association and local counsel for the Virginia Railroad for a number of years, and at present is a director of the Farm Credit Administration for the Baltimore area, which includes Virginia.

FORESTRY WORK IN VIRGINIA

3,445 Families to be Given Employment.

The government expects to give employment to members of 3,445 families in developing its huge new forest project in southwestern Virginia.

The forest service announced that today in discussing its aims for the mountain lake unit—a project comprising 1,977,516 acres—between George Washington National Forest and the North Carolina state line.

Besides giving employment to a large number of residents of the locality, the government bureau said the forest work probably would require several CCC Camps.

The primary objectives of the government are to afford watershed protection, erosion control and also to demonstrate forest management.

All these the government deems important to the permanent welfare of the region.

Re-developing of stands of commercial-size timber, it was pointed out, is necessary to the permanence of the large pulp plants and other forest products industries which abound in the state.

Stream-flow regulation affects local and municipal water supplies navigation and water power development.

The forest service estimated that one-fifth of the area of the new unit bears timber of commercial size. Half of it has been burned-over or cut-over, but is in process of restocking. About 25,000 acres, it was estimated should be replanted.

The new unit lies on the watershed of the James River. The new river, among other important streams, traverses it. It concludes portions of Bath, Alleghany, Bland, Botetourt, Russell, Smythe, Tazewell, Washington and Wythe counties.

ENTRY DEFEATED

Glass and Byrd Support the President.

By a narrow margin of votes the United States Senate has rejected the President's proposal for the United States to enter the World Court.

Virginia Senators Glass and Byrd backed the President on this issue. Eighty-eight Senators voted and the Roosevelt Administration, exerting every possible pressure, could only muster 43 Democratic votes on the final roll call. Twenty Democrats and fourteen Republicans voted against the proposal.

The action is regarded as the third major defeat of Roosevelt policies in Congress, the other two being the rejection of the St. Lawrence waterway treaty and the voting of more liberal veterans benefits over the President's veto.

The action of the Senate on Tuesday ends a twelve-year fight to put the United States in the World Court.

ADJUSTMENT RAISES HOG INCOME

Inspected Hog Slaughter, and Total Paid by Packers, for
First 8 Months, 1933 and 1934

PRELIMINARY studies indicate that a substantial increase in hog income is resulting from the adjustment in hog marketings effected by the 1933-34 emergency hog-buying programs and the 1934 corn-hog production adjustment program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The graph above shows that the total estimated cost to packers for hogs slaughtered under Federal inspection during the first eight months of 1934, including the processing taxes due, was approximately $100,000,000 larger than for the corresponding period in 1933. This represents an increase of about one-third in total cost and of more than one-half in the hundred-weight cost of live animals. At the same time, the total inspected slaughter of hogs for the first eight months of 1934 was about 13 per cent under the total for the corresponding period for 1933.

A part of this gain has been due to an increase in consumer's income and to some adjustment in tonnage effected by the shortage of feed supplies resulting from drought, but production control under the Agricultural Adjustment Act has been a large factor. Hog prices throughout the current marketing year are expected to average higher than for several seasons.

Corn-hog farmers of the United States will have an opportunity to hold gains made this past year by cooperating in the 1935 corn-hog program now being offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

FAMED LOVE TALE THEME OF NEW FILM

"Cleopatra," Cecil B. De Mille's newest Paramount production, which tells the dramatic story of Egypt's glamorous queen and her love affairs, is playing at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Monday.

Claudette Colbert, Warren William and Henry Wilcoxon play the principal roles, and the supporting cast includes Ian Keith, Joseph Schildkraut, C. Aubrey Smith, Gertrude Michael, Irving Pichel, William Farnum, Robert Warwick, Edwin Maxwell and Harry Beresford.

The film is the adaptation of the screen play which was written by Waldemar Young and Vincent Lawrence.

Of all love stories, the romantic side of Cleopatra is perhaps the greatest love theme ever printed on any page, either history or fiction. Using Rome and Egypt in all their glorious splendor for his background, DeMille has woven his screen story into spectacular entertainment.

When Marc Antony, stalwart warrior and staunch friend of Caesar, sets out to capture Egypt's beautiful queen, little does he realize how he was to get her. Not with sword and shield but with his heart. And when love changed a queen into a woman the destiny of the entire world was changed.

Staged against the background of Rome and Egypt in their glory, the film utilized more than five thousand actors, workmen and technicians to bring a faithful account of the undying love story of these two immortals to the screen.

"WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS"

HELEN HAYES STARRED IN

Lovers of Sir James Barrie's whimsical romance, "What Every Woman Knows," who have been spectators at the stage play during the past decade, are to receive a new thrill with the picture version to be shown on the Dixie screen in Manassas starring Helen Hayes next Wednesday.

Every facility of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios was concentrated in close attention to detail in both human and pictorial values under the personal supervision of Irving Thalberg, the producer.

Scenes and dialogue of the original Barrie play were transferred to the screen by Gregory La Cava, who has won critical acclaim for his work on "Gabriel Over the White House," and recently "The Affairs of Cellini." Only the slightest compromises were worked out to better clarify the story for the camera.

To insure absolute authenticity in Scotch accents and backgrounds, Harry Lauder II, nephew of Sir Harry Lauder, famous Scotch singer and comedian, was obtained as technical advisor. Under his guidance the actual atmosphere of a Scottish home was created on the sound stages as a vital part of the sparkling action.

From photographs of villages in the neighborhood of Glasgow and Edinburgh, all exteriors were reproduced to the point where even real Scottish extras recruited in Hollywood declared they were homesick!

Scotch kilt bands provided backgrounds for much of the action. Scottish heather gathered from California nurseries was used for decorative purposes in sets.

To carefully mould the appealing Barrie romance into the living reality of a screen play was the task of Monckton Hoffe, noted English author, who made a trip from London to assist Irving Thalberg in preparing the new picture.

REPORT OF SENIOR 4-H CLUB OF HAYFIELD COMMUNITY

The Senior Hayfield 4-H Club held its regular meeting on the evening of January 18 at the home of Mrs. E. L. Herring. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Marie Copen. The other officers are as follows: vice-president, Gordon Keys; secretary, Helen Gaba; treasurer, Patsy Keys; song leader, Marie Copen; cheer leader, Claude Oleyar, and reporter, Mildred Oleyar.

This year we organized a senior 4-H club. We are sponsoring a junior club which will take gardening as their major project while the senior club will continue the foods project.

We are planning to have a social in February. We will play bingo and some active games. Refreshments will be sold.

We have secured a building which we are going to repair and fix up as a club house. We will start out with one room but we hope to add to it in the near future. The club boys are going to do all the carpentering and the girls will clean the building and arrange for the making of curtains and other things which will make the room look like our own kitchens.

We made plans for meeting one night every other month until April. We will then begin having two meetings a month until October. We are going to do all of our project work during the summer months.

After playing games and singing some of our club songs, the meeting was adjourned until March.

NEW BUCK JONES THRILLER
FILLS ACTION-DRAMA NEED

Audiences want action, action and more action, theatre managers everywhere say. Which is probably why Buck Jones, the Western star, has flashed into new prominence. Nobody is more experienced than Jones at setting jaded nerves quivering with excitement. The smiling, handsome cowboy actor and his famous horse are known all over the world. He can be depended on, with his natural nerve and daring feats of horsemanship to set hearts pounding and hands clutching the sides of seats from the first flash of the picture to the last.

Film-goers will find that he has exceeded himself to meet a great new demand for thrills in his latest Columbia feature, "Shadow Ranch," which comes to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Friday, February 8. Expert riding, gun-fights, hand-to-hand combats and spectacular stunts fill this outdoor drama, with an unusual love story and a liberal sprinkling of hilarious comedy. Buck is surrounded by a well-known cast of players including Marguerite De La Motte, Kate Price and Frank Rice.

JOHN WAYNE IN "MAN FROM UTAH" SATISFIES CRAVING OF FANS FOR MORE ACTION

"Action such as actually did occur in the old days of the west is what western screen fans want today" declares John Wayne, popular outdoor favorite, and that is exactly what this Western star offers in the latest of his Lone Star Productions, "The Man from Utah," which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas tomorrow. Opening with the thrilling frustration of a bank robbery and continuing through to the exciting capture of a crooked band of rodeo promoters, "The Man from Utah" fills every desire for the fans' craving for rapid fire action.

Wayne, the star, was born in Winterset, Iowa, and educated at the University of Southern California where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity and the varsity football team.

While working in a studio laboratory, he was selected by Raoul Walsh to play the lead in "The Big Trail" for Fox, which marked his debut on the screen. Since then he has appeared in such features as "Three Girls Lost," "Girls Demand Excitement" and "Men Are Like That."

STORM CAUSES HEAVY LOSSES TO TELEPHONE COMPANY

Sleet and storm damages to telephone lines of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia are estimated at $250,000, with 2,000 telephones out of order, 2,500 poles broken down and 140 long distance lines out of commission in various sections of the state, according to a statement made by Charles H. Weber, general manager of the company.

Central offices at Orange, Gortonville, Louisa, and Craigsville are completely isolated for the time being from a telephone standpoint, but all available linemen are engaged in making repairs and service is expected to have been restored on a temporary basis this week. Line crews are being augmented by emergency forces from other areas, but repairs are slowed up to some extent by the heavy snow which has blocked many of the highways, especially those over which there is little normal traffic at this time of the year.

As soon as the amount of damage was determined by a survey, the Western Electric Company, suppliers of the company, started truck loads of material to the stricken sections, which has helped materially toward the restoration of service, Mr. Weber stated.

Sleet-covered wires rocked by heavy winds caused poles to break like pipe stems. Also trees and limbs falling across the lines in wooded sections did considerable damage.

CAMERAGRAPHS

IF YOU HAPPENED to see this unusual looking ship flying over your home one of these days, you'll know you've seen the latest in modern airplanes. It's a new craft with staggered wings and disappearing landing and tail wheels. It is one of three ships carrying H. L. Faust, and seven other members of the aviation department of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., on a coast-to-coast air tour of America to introduce the new Aero Mobilite made by the revolutionary Clearasil Process.

"MUSIC IS A TOUGH TASKMASTER," observes Lawrence Tibbett, baritone star of opera, concert, radio and screen, and this informal shot shows what he means. The camera caught him at home while he looked somewhat fed up with the prospect of mastering a new melody. Tibbett sings over the NBC-WJZ-Blue network Tuesday evenings.

FINDS RARE PAPER AT AUCTION SALE

Local Business Man Makes Lucky Buy.

Mr. A. McMillan was in the office this forenoon with the first copy of the Maryland Journal and the Baltimore News produced on Friday, August 20, 1773. It is edited by a gentleman who signs himself, "A Devoted Humble Servant of the Public, W. Goddard."

It contains notices from Philadelphia and New York, London, Portsmouth, Baltimore, stories on the simplicity of dress, a true story on the young Pretender in Scotland. It also has the marriage notice of Mr. Englehart Yeiser to Miss Katherine Keemer of Baltimore. It contains advertisements of hotels in Philadelphia, lost notices, a list of prices on the Baltimore market to which wheat is quoted at six shillings, six pence, and corn at two shillings, nine pence; flour at sixteen to seventeen shillings, West India Rum at three shillings, six pence per gallon, and muscovado sugar at forty-five to fifty-five shillings and many other interesting items.

There are numerous other interesting articles, one being signed by George Washington and being dated at Mount Vernon July 15, 1773, which states that the signer has obtained patents for twenty thousand acres of land on the Ohio and the great Kanawha and the New River in Western Virginia to the effect that persons inclined to settle on these lands should apply to Mr. Washington or in his absence to Mr. Lund Washington before the first of October. There is numerous descriptive matter concerning this tract of land. The paper is too full of items to describe properly.

Mr. McMillan, who is a curio and antique dealer of long experience, states that he obtained this paper at an auction in Washington. He also has a copy of the old London Courier printed on Friday, August 18, 1807. This paper has many items of great interest and is a more or less of a legal publication for the barristers of the London Court at that time.

STATE BOARD TO STUDY TEACHERS' DEGREE PLAN

Affairs of State Teachers' Colleges and financial problems of a number of weak counties of Virginia unable to pay their statutory portion of teachers' salaries will be before the State Board of Education this week.

Dr. Sidney B. Hall, superintendent of public instruction, said that the docket will be an unusually heavy one. The committee which is considering the petition of teachers' colleges for the right to grant A. B. degrees will not make any recommendation at this meeting, but will merely report progress, Dr. Hall said.

MARINE SAVED COMRADES FROM EXPLODING GRENADE

Through the trackless forests of Nicaragua, a small patrol of native troops was slowly making its way in April, 1932. They were on the trail of bandits and their senses were keenly attuned to each movement in the jungle that might indicate the presence of the enemy.

Eager to make a contact, yet wary of some hidden ambush, one of the leaders of the party was Corporal Donald L. Truesdale, a U. S. Marine, who also held the rank of lieutenant in the native military force.

No soldier of fortune or adventurer on the high seas was ever thrust into a position fraught with graver potentialities. Death lurked behind every rock—every tangled mass of tropical foliage. It was the custom of the enemy to choose the place of combat, strike with sudden fury, and then hastily withdraw into the jungle fastness.

The Marine leaders, some of them mere boys, were expected to show a courageous example to their native followers. They never betrayed that trust, even to laying down their lives, as some of them did to prove to the native soldiers that devotion to duty must be prized even more than life itself.

Corporal Truesdale fully realized his responsibilities. Despite his eagerness to come to grips with the bandits, he felt that it was his duty to afford as much protection as possible to his native charges. Without warning he was faced by a crucial test.

A rifle grenade fell from its holder, carried by one of the native soldiers, and struck a rock, igniting the detonator and endangering several members of the patrol.

Corporal Truesdale could have sought safety in flight, but he chose to risk his life in an effort to save his comrades. He sprang toward the grenade, grasped it in his hand, and attempted to throw it away from the patrol before it exploded. He was a split-second too late.

His patrol was saved, but Truesdale lost his hand and suffered painful wounds about his body. Today he wears a Cross of Valor, of Nicaragua, and a Congressional Medal of Honor for a self-sacrificing effort which his citation truly states was "worthy of the highest traditions of the profession of arms."

RELIEF AREAS CONSOLIDATED

Administration Units Reduced from 113 to 28.

William A. Smith, a Virginia emergency relief administrator, this week announced the number of administration areas in the state would be reduced from 113 to 28 February 1, and that beginning on that date a new policy will be effective, providing only work relief in cities and industrial areas, and only rehabilitation activities in the rural sections.

Six area administrators already have been appointed, Mr. Smith said, and the others will be named at an early date.

Those appointed are Paul C. Rogers, for Northampton and Accomac; Frank Mitchell for Norfolk, Princess Anne Counties, the City of Portsmouth and South Norfolk; Fred McGee for Surry, Sussex, Greensville, Southampton, Isle of Wight and Nansemond Counties, and Suffolk; C. C. Tennis for Elizabeth City, Warwick, York, James City, New Kent, and Charles City Counties and the City of Newport News; E. R. McKesson for Petersburg, Hopewell and Dinwiddie Counties, and Miss Mabel C. Mecklenburg and Lunenburg Counties.
