LADIES NIGHT MUCH ENJOYED

Annual Event Featured by "Brain Twisters."

Ladies night at the Kiwanis Club was celebrated on Thursday last week in the Sunday school room of Grace M. E. Church. Frank Sigman as chairman of the program committee had arranged a well-balanced budget. The first number was staged by the club sponsors, Mrs. Pattie giving one of her delightful solos with Mrs. Bob Smith at the piano. This was followed by an equally pleasant number, a piano solo by Mrs. Bozarth of the local school faculty.

Immediately thereafter, Frank sprang a very pleasant surprise through the aid of the pupils of Mrs. Eloise Trimmer's school who were separated in two groups, the beginners and the more experienced ones. Both groups sang and gave tap dances. In the second number were Mildred Parrish, Edla Blakemore, Margaret Blakemore, Althea Hooft and Shirley Hynson, and in the first group were Dorcas Leachman, Betty Parrish, Nancy Parrish, Shirley Davis, Margaret Louise Robbins, Mary Mason Davis, Fanelle Pickeral and Lucy Morris.

Then Frank began his educational test, the first being a hidden saying which contest was captured by Mrs. Fred Hynson with Mrs. William Lloyd second.

Frank next introduced Miss Mildred Shackelford, a charming young visitor who gave two piano solos.

Frank's next contest was termed the "Hidden Flower" number and the gentlemen were allowed to compete with the aid of the members of the local flower fraternity. Ray Ratcliffe sang a solo when he finished his list.

Miss Bozarth again came on the program this time to give a soprano solo rendering the Irish melody, "Mother Macree."

Frank's last mathematical puzzle was agricultural in design, being a harmless looking ear of corn on which were an uncertain number of grains, varying between 300 and a thousand, according to Frank. The guesses ran from four to six hundred with Mrs. Bob Smith as the best estimator.

As a fitting conclusion to a pleasant evening, Hunton Tiffany selected the club's orator, Bob Hutchison, to thank the Methodist ladies for a splendid supper. It took considerable persuasion and a little energy to get the bashful cooks on the floor. Bob gave them a very nice little speech of thanks and the evening was over with a song.

Following is a list of the Kiwanians and their guests, numbering something over a hundred:

D. J. Arrington, Miss Lucy Arrington, Miss Virginia Frazier, Mrs. Mary Lee Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Merchant, Mrs. R. L. Sadd, W. C. Sadd, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hynson, R. DRAMATIC CLUB PRESENTS COMEDY

School Play Captivates Audience.

"I Will! I Won't!", the three-act comedy presented by the Dramatic Arts Club of the Manassas High School last Friday night, marked the close to the activities of this organization for the year.

The cast was well balanced and the pupils taking part well chosen for the parts. Though but nine rehearsals were held, the production showed both an interpretation of the essentials of acting and a finish of production not often seen in amateur acting. Mary DeeDee Lynch captivated her audience by her performance in the dual role of Lucille and her double, Joan. The part of Lynn, a roommate of Lucille's, was well sustained throughout the performance by Esther Akers in the role of go-between to her friends when they outwitted the keen eyes of Miss Willis, the dean of the school; Margaret Breeden, as dean, played the part well. Glad Howard, a co-ed, played by Margaret White, was a fair match for Lucille in her rivalry for the affections of Dr. King, the school doctor, a part played by Paul Cooksey. But neither she nor Lucille could out-wit Mrs. Stevens, grandmother to Lucille whose part was taken by Louise Kincheloe. Louise not only kept her hearers in a gale of laughter, but on the alert to see what she would do next. Her part was difficult and well played. George Talcott as a lawyer, John Waters, a man about town, and Cleveland Fisher, a man about school, all supported the leading characters in a most creditable manner.

Special mention should be made of Georgette, the school maid. This part was played by Evelyn Frame, who, upon a half day's notice, learned her part and substituted in a very efficient manner for Eula Slusher, who could not take the part on account of illness.

The play as a whole was among the best ever presented in the high school, and credit and honor should be given to these young students who represented their school on this occasion. It was a matter not only of disappointment, but of deep regret on their part that so many of the patrons of the school and the public generally were not present to lend their encouragement to their efforts.

DON'T MISS MUSICAL HIT OF SEASON "MARRYING MARIAN"

In the Manassas High School auditorium on the night of April 26, beginning at 8 o'clock, the curtain will rise on a modern day musical comedy in two delightful acts consisting of twelve musical and dancing numbers.

"Marrying Marian" is being staged and directed by Eloise Compton Trimmer under the auspices of the Bennett School League and the Manassas High School League. The best local talent is being used, most of the cast being pupils of Mrs. Trimmer's, and as an added feature there will be tap dancing between acts put on by Mrs. Trimmer's adult class.

The characters in the play are Bobby Davis, Mrs. Mylander, Frances Boling, Louise Kincheloe, Mr. Wilfong, Mrs. Bill Taylor, Paul Cooksey, John Burke, Jr., and a chorus of sixteen beautiful dancing girls. You'll have no regrets after seeing "Marrying Marian," which is being given for your schools. So remember the date, the time and the place.

EVERY HOME SANITATED FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH

ADVANTAGES OF RUNNING WATER IN THE HOME

Two thousand years ago when the city of Pompeii was buried it hid for a great while an adequate and up-to-date plumbing system. The water was supplied by seven large aqueducts or channels which brought clean, cool water from mountain springs and streams many miles away. These people depended upon gravity for the delivery of water.

The first water supply in America was introduced in Boston in 1652. In 1754 the power of pressure was realized and a wooden pump was built.

Almost two centuries later we find seventy-nine per cent of our white population in the state of Virginia carrying water the average distance of one hundred ninety-eight feet.

In a home where twenty-five buckets of water are used each day a distance of 1 4-5 miles is covered in supplying and disposing of the water.

Had we not lost the art of balancing the water jug on the head valuable posture assets could have been realized by means of this prehistoric fashion of supplying water. However, all we derive now is a pair of drooping shoulders and more fatigue for those who are over-worked.

The home maker is concerned with how to release time from the day which may so easily be spent on housekeeping duties and in creating a margin of time from true home-making activities. The hundred percent home should be mentally stimulating, spiritually inspiring, socially responsible, morally wholesome, economically sound, mechanically convenient and physically healthful. This is a large order and the possibility of the one hundred per cent depends largely upon the home being mechanically convenient and physically healthful—and thus the need of running water.

The country home can now have all the modern conveniences of a city home and at less cost or no more than the difference in the cost of the country and town lot.

These improvements consist of running water and waste disposal systems for kitchen, laundry and bathroom.

The best equipment for running water is a pneumatic tank, located in the basement, into which water and air are pumped under pressure. The compressed air in the top of the tank forces the water all over the house like any city supply. The compressed air in the top of the tank forces the water all over the house like any city supply. The pump may be operated by an electric motor, gasoline engine or windmill. The cost is within the means of the average farmer. Kerosene and other water heaters may also be purchased at a reasonable price.

Kitchen sinks, laundry containers and bath tubs may be made by enamelling wash tubs fitted with an outlet into pipes which carry the waste water to a safe disposal place. It is often possible to secure second-hand pipe and sinks when great economy is to be considered.

A good way to begin plans for running water is to secure U. S. D. A. Bulletins: "Farm Plumbing, F. B. No. 1426," "Farm Home Conveniences, F. B. No. 927," and "Farmstead Water Supply, F. B. No. 1448," and detailed information from your local dealer.

Running water helps to create human efficiency and any type of efficiency creates a source of human happiness.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS PROJECTS COMPLETED

The Home Demonstration leaders working in the House Furnishings project will hold their last meeting on the living-dining-room unit on Tuesday, April 23, when they meet with Miss Sara Thomas, home demonstration agent for Fairfax County, to study "Slip Covers" and "Pictures for the Home." The meeting will be held in the assembly room, post office building at Manassas, beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

Leaders who are expected to represent their groups at this meeting are: Mrs. R. L. Persons, Mrs. Robert Moore, Dumfries; Mrs. Dewey Schaeffer and Mrs. Mabel Schwab, Bethel; Mrs. Robert George and Mrs. Walter Gardner, Hickory Grove; Mrs. John Ellis and Mrs. Raymond Ellis, Greenwich; Mrs. E. E. Hale and Mrs. A. Armstrong, Nokesville; Mrs. Amos Corder and Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Aden.

BULL RUN GRANGE TO SPONSOR "SPRING DANCE"

A "Spring Dance" will be held at the Masonic Hall at Haymarket, Va., on Friday, April 26. This is being sponsored by the Bull Run Grange of that place.

Arrangements have been made by the committee in charge for the same orchestra which proved so popular at the dance given by the Grange before Lent, and was attended by people from throughout Prince William, Loudoun and Fauquier Counties.

RED CROSS CONVENTION

The Red Cross convention held in the Red Cross building in Washington last Thursday was well attended by delegates and guests from all parts of the country.

The guests and delegates were received by the hostess, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, and her assistants, Admiral and Mrs. Harry T. Grayson and Miss Mabel Boardman at the White House where luncheon was served.

One of the most outstanding and interesting features of the meeting was a moving picture of the Red Cross work in different parts of Europe which was taken last year when John Barton Payne was chairman of the association.

Among the guests attending from Manassas was Mrs. Henry Payne who is a niece of the late John Barton Payne.

MODIFIED PLANS SELECTED FOR HAYMARKET

The special committee of the school board which went to Richmond last Thursday to confer with State Architect Long, selected a modified type of building and plans for this are being drawn at Richmond now, with bids to be asked for some time in May.

NAMED BY COURT

WM. H. BROWN, Jr.

Judge Walter T. McCarthy yesterday afternoon entered an order on the local records appointing Trial Judge William Hill Brown, Jr., general receiver for the Circuit Court of Prince William County.

Judge Brown is one of the younger jurists of the State having served in his present capacity as Trial Judge for about fourteen months. Recently when the trial justices of the State organized, Judge Brown was named as head of the Eighth District organization which was considered as a signal honor. In his present capacity he will serve as receiver in all cases unless the Circuit Court specifically names another receiver which is not usually done when there is a capable receiver to handle such matters.

LOCAL ARTISTS ENTERTAIN CLUB

Good Housekeepers Report on Good Work.

A well attended meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeeping Club was held Wednesday afternoon at "Birmingham," the hospitable home of Mrs. Maud Kincheloe. Mrs. Marion Lewis was assistant hostess. Eighteen members were present and among the guests were Mrs. L. B. Williams, Mrs. E. D. Wissler, Mrs. Beckwith, Mrs. John Broadus and Mrs. Hatcher.

Opening prayer, reading of minutes and roll call followed the official call to order by the president, Mrs. R. L. Sadd. Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, committee on civic relief, gave a splendid report from the Home Civilian Relief which showed much activity having dispersed $460.73 in the last fifteen months and having on hand a balance of $71.34. Mrs. Johnson also gave a report as committee on education naming an addition to the library of four valuable books on Robert E. Lee, written by Dr. Freeman, being a gift from local Confederate organizations.

Mrs. Thomas Broadus gave a full report of baskets of fruit sent ill members and read notes of appreciation from the recipients.

An invitation from the Woman's Club to the annual breakfast on May 1 was read. Mrs. Emily Round was chosen to accompany the president, Mrs. R. L. Sadd, as representatives from the club.

The hospitality committee distributed year books typed by Miss Christine Meetze. The May meeting will be entertained by Mrs. R. A. Hutchison and Mrs. E. M. Boteler. The program will be in charge of Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson and Mrs. Maud Kincheloe.

One of the most enjoyable programs of the year was presented by Mrs. Frank Gue, Jr., and Mrs. Hebe Jackson. Mrs. Jackson read a beautiful selection, "The Voice of Spring" and Mrs. Gue followed by reading an article contributed by Rev. and Mrs. T. D. D. Clark on the origin of the festival that we celebrate as Easter. The musical feature was a vocal solo "Leave It With Him" by Mrs. Hatcher, accompanied by Mrs. John Broadus on the violin. Mrs. Hatcher's voice was unusually lovely in this rendition. The last number on the program was a poem entitled "Easter Morn" composed by a much beloved member of the club, Mrs. Chloe E. Lay Hodge, and was sent as an Easter message from Mrs. Hodge. Miss Florence Kincheloe presented it in reading in her usual attractive manner.

In closing the assembly song in chorus, the club song "Auld Lang Syne." Refreshments were enjoyed and a pleasant social hour was spent.

JUDGE SMITH OFFERS PRIZE

Essay Contest in Schools Limited to Senior and Junior Classes.

Representative Howard W. Smith of the Eighth Congressional District is sponsoring an essay contest in the Senior and Junior classes in the Public High Schools of the Eighth Congressional District. The contest is being held with the approval of Dr. Sidney B. Hall, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Representative Smith is offering a first prize of $50.00 and five prizes of $10.00 each, awards to be made at commencement time this spring. The subject of the essay is "The Advantages of the Constitutional Form of Government of the United States." In announcing the contest Judge Smith said:

"Theorists, jingoists, and demagogues in our own country are taking advantage of the present abnormal conditions of distress of their fellow citizens to promote idiotic and impractical schemes of Government utterly subversive of our Constitutional form of Government. We have taken our American form of Government for granted for so long that it is possible that we have failed to realize the extent of harmful undermining that may be occurring through this character of propaganda.

The object and purpose of this contest is to stimulate study and discussion, in the schools, and in the homes, of our form of Government, and its advantages over the experiments that are being tried in other countries and some of the theories that are being advocated here."

The final judging of the contest will be made by the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction in Richmond. A large number of students have signified their desire to enter the contest.

FARRINGTON YOUNG PEOPLES UNION MEETING

The Farrington Young Peoples Union met at Warrenton April 11.

A very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Gilliam on missionary work in foreign countries. She was a missionary to Japan and worked there for a number of years as well as in America. She told of the dress and the customs of the Japanese. She also said that the Methodist Church South had done a lot for the Japanese people.

After the talk by Mrs. Gilliam, Mr. York showed a reel of "The City of Jerusalem."

Nokesville won the banner with 100 per cent of members present. This is the second time in succession that Nokesville has won the banner. The next meeting will be held at Nokesville June 14. Catlett will have charge of the devotional program at this meeting.

After the meeting adjourned we went into the basement where games were played and refreshments served.

CATHERINE E. REID

Miss Catherine E. Reid, of Hoadly, died suddenly at her home on Monday at 7 p.m. She was a lifelong resident of the community and her sudden death comes as a distinct shock to her many friends and relatives.

Miss Reid had been a good neighbor and faithful community worker and she will be sadly missed. She leaves to mourn her loss three brothers, Bennie, of Minnieville; Ernest, of Quantico, and Eddie, of Hoadly. There are also a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services are being held today at the old Bacon Race Church which in later years has been designated as Oak Grove. Elder Smoot will preach.

MEMORIES OF EVERGREEN

On Evergreen where I was born,
The place I love so dear.
It always seems like home to me,
Whenever I am near.

I've roamed the fields with corn and wheat,
And everything so pure and sweet,
With orchards red and meadows green,
On that dear old farm called Evergreen.

I've roamed the mountainside for flowers,
And also berries blue.
I've drunk the water from that spring
That flows the whole year through.

I've climbed the cherry tree so tall,
And picked ripe cherries from them all,
And berry vines so black as night,
On that dear old farm called green.

Down to the spring
swinging,
I've eaten apples and
And peaches oh! so
On that dear old
green.

Now spring is here the flowers in bloom,
And everything green.
It brings me back sweet memories
Of dear old Evergreen.

Now time changed, the old folks gone,
The Col. and his wife,
They lived so happy on that farm,
All their married life.

And then Lanier, with wife so dear,
They came back there to rest,
On the dear old farm where he was born,
The place he loved the best.

He taken sick and in bed
Some several months or more
He passed away so peacefully
Without a word or moan.

But he's not dead, he just asleep,
Awaiting for that morn,
When God will call his loved ones home,
No more to part, no more to roam.

The spring is here again once more,
With everything so green.
This time it brings me back sad memories
Of dear old Evergreen.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in later years.

THE REWARD: Verily, there is a reward for the righteous; verily, he is a God that judgeth in the earth.—Psalm 58:11

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

To sell a product an advertiser must enter the home. He must make that personal contact which is so vital in the sales field. If he or his agents were to call upon every family in a community he would be confronted with a tedious disagreeable, thankless and impossible task. Housewives are too prone to chase the salesman away with the dust which settles on the back porch.

The newspaper does away with this roundabout task. It reaches the home. It is read. The advertiser who wishes his product to become known is fully aware of the advantage of the daily and weekly newspaper.

Though the advertiser may be a stranger to the potential consumer, the newspaper is not. It is part of the consumer's life. He has learned to rely upon it as a reliable source of news. He knows also that when products are advertised in its columns he may rely upon them. He has faith in the publisher.

Comparing the newspaper with other media we find that magazines, radio, billboards, circulars and mail solicitations all serve their purpose. But not one is as effective as the newspaper.

The cost which is always of vital importance to any business, is lower, for the results obtained, than any other form of media. By eliminating duplication and by taking advantage of the reasonable national and local rates he is sure to reach his field at a minimum cost. — Newsdom.

MRS. DELANEY IS CHAIRMAN

Mrs. A. J. Delaney has accepted the chairmanship for Prince William County, in the annual State-wide campaign for funds for the Children's Home Society of Virginia, according to the announcement made by E. Randolph Williams, of Richmond, Va., who is State chairman for the campaign.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise funds to provide for approximately 700 homeless, neglected and dependent children now in the care of the Society and to extend the work, enabling the Society to take as many more children as funds will permit during the coming year. The minimum budget that must be raised is approximately $75,000.00 and the Society is making an effort to exceed this budget so that it will not find it necessary to turn down so many requests for help during 1935.

AN HONOR FOR MANASSAS

Among the many just claims to distinction which Manassas enjoys is one recently recorded in the history of George Washington University, Washington, D. C., which the Journal takes pleasure in announcing to its readers.

Those who have really lived in Manassas know that for years the local school system was closely connected with two eminently superior educators—the Misses Osbourn—and that it has continued to maintain the high standards established by them. That the high school still looks to Miss Eugenia Osbourn in the associated principalship, long after the passing of her sister, is a testimonial to her faithful service.

Her life has been and is—education. She has kept herself trained and up to date by constant study. So much "on the job," she has never felt, until recently, that she could take the time off to complete her university work.

On February 22, at the mid-winter convocation of George Washington University at Constitution Hall, Miss Osbourn received her B. A. degree. In conferring the degree, the president of the university, Dr. C. Heck Marvin, requested the graduates to stand while he paid tribute to one of their members. He said there was among them one who had done outstanding work as a student and as an educator, an inspiration to all who knew her and an honor to the university—Miss Eugenia Hilleary Osbourn of Manassas, Va.

Our fellow townsman received the eulogy with characteristic poise and dignity and then said nothing about it. The Journal has learned indirectly of the event and takes pleasure in reporting it at this time.

It is interesting to note this university where Miss Osbourn decided to complete her work is the largest collegiate institution in the south with an enrollment of nearly eight thousand students and is among the class A universities of the country.

CHANCELLORSVILLE CELEBRATION MAY 2
Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania County National Military Park
Fredericksburg, Va.

The celebration which will be held on the seventy-second anniversary of the Battle of Chancellorsville promises to be the outstanding event of the year. The Battlefield Park Association of Fredericksburg and the National Park Service are putting forth every effort to realize an ambitious program of long standing, and plans for the event are materializing rapidly.

Although the battle consumed the better part of three days (May 1, 2, and 3, 1863), the activities to be reenacted will be confined to what occurred on May 2 and 3, 1863, because they hold more of human interest as well as tactical value. The Federal army will be represented by a contingent of the United States Marine Corps. Much colorful action will be witnessed during the day; the reputation of the Marine Corps needs no enlarging upon and the Virginia Military Institute will fulfill Stonewall —protect the interests of depositors, borrowers and stockholders.

SOME practices, however, are not in accord with sound banking, no matter how pleasantly and courteously they may be performed. These practices include such things as:

Non-banking services and free favors that cause operating losses; the carrying of a checking account when the income received from it is less than the handling cost; the granting of loans on insufficient security or in connection with transactions which have dubious chances of success.

In the interests of our depositors, borrowers and stockholders, and the Community as a whole, this bank adheres to accepted principles and methods of sound banking.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Susie C. Powell, who was called from us four years ago, April 21, 1931.

It's sweet to remember you, mother, who once was here. Though absent to us you are just as dear. The midnight stars shine on the grave Of the one we loved but could not save.

We miss you tonight as the lights burn low
Yes, mother, we miss you for we loved you so.
We loved you truly and that you know
Is why tonight we miss you so.

Sleep on, dear mother, in peaceful rest
We loved you well but God loved you best.
By her Husband and Children.

CATHARPIN

Things are coming to life again, mud drying up, roads becoming passable once more so that the "urge" to move about is again asserting itself so things are beginning to happen. I tell you it's mighty hard to keep the human family under control. People got out to church on Sunday for the first time, really, since Christmas; that is, a few of the people did, not all of them. It is now hoped that when Old Man Winter shall have taken his departure, he will take with him all the colds, flus, grips, aches and pains and all the "what-nots" that have been causing us so much trouble, suffering and excuses during the past season so that we may come to our own and "carry on" as of yore. We have all had a good rest so let's get busy and make life worthwhile again thruout the neighborhood.

When we say "Make Life Worthwhile" that is just what we mean. A short time ago our pastor preached a sermon from the text "Why sit ye here until ye die?" This thought can be applied in so many ways. People often get so busy with home affairs and devote so much time and care to things domestic that it absolutely becomes a burden, mostly from the fact that they fail to "ease" their duties with the "sweets" of life. It must not be thought for a moment that we do not advocate attention to home duties; far from it, but too much of any one thing is nauseating; too much candy, meat, coffee, tea, sugar or any of the necessary foods of life is just too much for health and comfort; they must all be mixed up and blended so that the proper amount of vitamin A B C D, or all the minerals and fats are in happy harmony to supply all the needs of the body so that all parts shall be nourished. If one part is lacking, the human body suffers accordingly.

Now what is true of the physical man is just as true of the spiritual. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." You have often heard that, haven't you? Well, it's just as true of dad, mother, sister, brother, cousin, aunt, or granddad or grandmother as it is of Jack. Work is necessary, so is play; home cares are necessary, so is relaxation; farms and schools are necessary, so are churches. Just as with foods, it takes a happy combination of all to make a good, wholesome whole. Just so it is with our spiritual, mental and social well-being. Community spirit, domestic economy, love of family, love of neighbor, love of church and country, these, amalgamated and blended, will make a good citizen. With a happy combination of these characteristics, one is fortified for excellent service both to his neighborhood, his church and to his God—a person beloved of his people.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Piercy and family of Gainesville were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey at Catharpin last Sunday.

Mrs. W. S. Brower accompanied her brother and sister to Richmond on Friday and spent the day in the capital city of the Old Dominion.

Mrs. Roberta Lynn of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. E. May Dogan and Mrs. C. C. Lynn of Ben Lomond were recent callers on Dr. and Mrs. Brower.

Miss Virginia Hill, teacher of the Catharpin School, attended teachers' meeting in Manassas on Saturday last.

Misses Lucretia and Natalie Larkin of Washington were recent visitors of their sister, Mrs. W. S. Brower, at Lone Oak.

Mrs. L. J. Pattie of Belle Farm is suffering the effects of a fall which has given her a good excuse to rest from her labors for the time being.

Mrs. Mildred Collins Shelton of Buchanan, Va., is spending the week with her parents at Marble Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carey motored to Haymarket on Sunday calling on Mrs. Demory and Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford of that city.

Misses Bettie, Frances and Billy Brower spent the week-end with their grandmother at Larkinton last week.

Mrs. J. M. Allison and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Allison, were Monday guests of Mrs. Allison's parents at Marble Hill.

The astute chairman of our advisory committee No. 1, which committee is better known as the QTAW, advised us to say nothing this week about the weather. Well we know a good soldier always obeys orders, but little did the "Quit Talking About Weather" bureau realize the temptation awaiting us when on awaking Tuesday morning we were to find the ground covered with snow, the thermometer down to 30, the rain barrel frozen over and the Old Model "T" not drained. This all proved too much of a temptation so we have to break out for just this once to express our surprise. But surprises come easy sometimes and this seems to be one of them. The Weatherman certainly got March and April mixed up this year, much to the detriment of the fruit trees, but we must not complain, and dare not if we but think of the dust storms which have been afflicting our neighbors in the West. One of our neighbors reported yesterday that he dug down to his potatoes and found sprouts 2 inches long. Good thing they were still down there wasn't it? So if you feel aggrieved, just take another "reef" in your suspenders, buckle down a little tighter, do the best with what you have and things will come out all right yet.

Valuable Trees Can Be Protected by Spray.

Since 1933 considerable defoliation of elm trees has occurred in this and other eastern areas through damage done by the Imported Elm Leaf Beetle. The insect confines its attentions to elms alone, and has two complete life cycles during a calendar year. The second generation beetles winter in any convenient hiding place, and come out about the time the first elm leaves begin to show in the spring. These beetles feed on the young leaves and deposit egg masses on the under sides of leaves. The eggs hatch in a few days, the young larva then feed for about 20 days, and the first annual generation of beetles is soon hatched. The second larva usually does the most fatal damage.

Last summer, the second egg generation apparently failed to hatch. There is some possibility that the 1935 infestation may not be as severe as during the past three years. Within a very few days from now, trees should be inspected closely for adult beetles. Spraying with lead arsenate is one effective control. Small trees are readily sprayed, but large trees present a problem. An orchard spray rig can be used with fairly good results by carrying the hose up the tree. The appearance of first beetles will be watched, and those interested in spraying for control, will be notified.

FORD DENIES PENNY RUMOR

The Ford Motor Company is trying to trace a widespread rumor that Henry Ford is offering a new Ford V-8 to anyone having a U. S. coin bearing the date of 1922 or any other date.

For the past several weeks the company's home offices in Dearborn, Mich., have been deluged with letters, all offering 1922 or other U. S. coins in return for the rumored "prize."

The company has been unable to trace the source of the groundless report, which not only has reached the home offices but many branch offices throughout the country. Ford branches have been advised that "there is no truth in the rumor."

"We have received over 2,000 letters from people who have 1922 Lincoln pennies," the letter to branches reads, "which would indicate they are by no means rare."
