ASSEMBLY BALL BIG SUCCESS

Many Visitors Attend Annual Social Event.

Easter Monday night was made gay by another of the beautiful assembly balls staged annually by the oman's Club of Manassas.

Miss Margaret Lynch, general chairman this year, had the usual able corps of assistants and committee heads including Mesdames Paul Cooksey, Eula Holt Merchant, Harvey Steele, Fred Hynson, A. A. Hooff, and Charles C. Lynn, who joined in making the affair successful.

Excellent music added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. There were about two hundred dancers and box-holders.

The decorations were unusually lovely, Easter colors prevailing and featuring the apple blossoms for which Virginia is famous.

As usual, the funds from this will largely be devoted to public and charity work of the club.

AGRICULTURAL TEACHER ADDRESSES KIWANIS

The feature of the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club last Friday evening was an address by Professor Love of the Agricultural Department of the local high school.

Mr. Love's talk was almost entirely impromptu and dwelt along lines recently developed in the club particularly in relation to better fellowship between the business men of the town and the residents of the surrounding area. While Professor's talk did not greatly vary from any of the applied principles of Kiwanis, it was unusually good in many of its suggestions and more keenly appreciated because it came from one who has an excellent opportunity to get the cross-section view of county life. Professor's suggestions sank deeply into the minds of his hearers and he was extended an open invitation to join the club at once.

Bob reminded the club that the Bagot Treaty removing all guards from the Canadian border over a hundred years ago would be celebrated on Monday in the building on the site of the old British legation where the treaty was signed in Washington. The International president of Kiwanis will unveil the tablet and make the principle address at that time.

BOARD HAS VISITING DAY

The County School Board members journeyed to the Gainesville District School where they observed classes throughout the morning.

They were served lunch at Manassas High School by the Home Economics Department and later visited the classes of both of the local schools.

MR. HYNSON IS LOCAL DEALER

In our issue of last week we carried an item referring to the fact that the Warrenton Supply Company was the distributor for Electrolux gas refrigerators. It should also have been stated that Hynson Electric and Supply Company is the local dealer for this well-known product.

Mr. Hynson's advertisements of Electrolux have been appearing in The Journal and those interested should get in touch with him.

ORGANIZE TRADE GROUP

After an encouraging series of talks by some of the Fredericksburg business men last Thursday evening, initial steps were taken toward the formation of a chamber of commerce in this county.

Ben Pitts, movie magnate and head of the Fredericksburg group, made the most inspiring address. Others who came as boosters in the movement were Archie Smith and Jimmy Payne.

The charter membership papers carried the names of thirty-eight persons. By unanimous consent, C. C. Cloe, business man of Triangle, was named president.

District vice-presidents are: Manassas, John Burke; Occoquan, B. W. Brunt; Brentsville, P. L. Trenia; Gainesville, W. M. Jordan; Coles, Rev. Murray Taylor, and Dumfries, A. E. McInteer.

STATE GAMES AT UNIVERSITY

Many Will Compete in State Contests.

Hundreds of boys and girls from county high schools throughout the State will compete in district literary and track contests on April 27 for the honor of representing their schools in the 22nd annual Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League championship meet at the University of Virginia on May 10 and 11.

Under the general supervision of Charles H. Kauffman, executive secretary of the league, nine district championship meets will be held in eight college and university centers. County champions in debating, public speaking and public reading for both boys and girls, and spelling will be judged for district honors and the right to enter the competitions for the highest State titles in May.

High schools are admitted to membership in the league according to their size, with the larger city schools receiving class A designation, the intermediate schools, class B, and the county school with enrollments below 150, class C. Winners in literary contests are selected from each class, and a class champion in each event is picked for the highest State award.

Among those from class C schools who won State championships last year over representatives from larger schools were Miss Marguerite Graham of Kenbridge High School, in the verse contest, and the debating team of Elbert Hartless Turner from Fincastle High School.

CONCERT OF SACRED MUSIC

In the auditorium of the Brentsville District High School on Sunday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock, there will be a concert of sacred music. This program will be rendered by a Washington choir.

Some of the numbers to be given are the Hallelujah Chorus, The Gloria in Excelsis, The Sanctus, Ave Maria, several ancient carols, a group of negro spirituals and a group of hymns.

This program promises to be inspirational, interesting and entertaining. We urge the attendance of as many as possible. This should be of special interest to churches and school pupils.

SHADBUSH IN BLOOM

The dainty little shadbush is in bloom. It is one of the most attractive and useful little trees or shrubs that compose that little known type of vegetation known as the "forest understory."

There are a number of trees and shrubs of little economic importance and entirely disregarded by the practical lumberman which play a really important part in the biological balance of Nature. These little species, generally able to flourish under the shade of over-towering timber trees, are at the present time facing a great danger.

The enormous increase in available man-power for the improvement of our forests has resulted in extensive improvement cutting and other "clean-up" work on the forest under a system which has placed a great hazard upon these little plants and upon the birds and other forest life which depends upon them. No one but a skilled forest-botanist is likely to recognize these plants in their winter condition or after the passing of the flowers and fruits. On this account it behooved forest foremen and their associated technicians to mark these species when in bloom so that they will be spared in later cuttings and also that they may be studied in their leafless condition as an aid to their recognition at all seasons.

The dainty shadbush is in bloom now in Virginia. The Indians believed that this signaled the time to begin fishing for shad. This attractive little tree or shrub produces an edible berry which was an important article of food to the Indians and pioneers and which is accepted hungrily by the robins, bluebirds and by many feathered friends which would sadly miss this early fruit.

The preservation of these "understory" species is important in maintaining the natural balance of nature.

CLEAN-UP WEEK IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

The week of April 29 to May 4 has been set aside as Clean-up Week. This week is better known as Better Homes Week that has been set aside throughout the United States for clean-up, repair and beautification. In the clean-up program in this county special emphasis is to be placed on cleaning and repairing.

The schools have been asked to clean grounds, buildings, and out-buildings during Clean-up Week. The boys and girls are to assist in the clearing of back-door yards and the collection of jars to be used in the canning of school lunches. The Women's Clubs in Manassas and throughout the county are calling special attention to attics, cellars, the removal of unused articles and rubbish from premises, the tearing down of disreputable and unused outbuildings, and the setting out of jars to be collected by school people. Men's organizations have been asked to give special attention to streets, vacant lots, dump heaps, fences and hedge rows.

Everyone is asked to co-operate in making the county a healthier place to live in by cleaning and beautifying it.—The Yellow Jacket.

MARIE GOCHENOUR

The many friends of the Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Gochenour, Durbin, W. Va. will regret to learn of the death of their daughter, Marie. Miss Gochenour was only 22 years of age when she died.

Her remains were brought from the hospital at Staunton, Va., where she died on April 13 and buried in Salem, Va.

MANASSAS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Another notable program on the conservation theme was presented at the high school last week before the Senior League. The chief feature was a description by Mrs. Virginia Lewis of the work in adult education being carried on in the rural districts of Virginia under the direction of the State Board of Education and the Division Superintendents with funds from the F.R.A.

Mrs. Lewis, who is the organizer of this work in Prince William, said that there are now 303 adult students in the county, in 16 divisions with 9 teachers, taking work in general education and in home economics. A number of grown-ups have been found eager to embrace this opportunity for more education. Some are just learning the three R's, others are taking advanced work. Classes are being held for instance on current events and one person has already prepared for the civil service examination.

Much good work is also being done in the home economic sewing classes. As no material is being furnished by the E.R.A. funds, every scrap of available material in the homes of the pupils or donated by others had to be utilized. Discarded garments were made over, flour sacks were converted into attractive pillow cases, scraps of all kinds were turned into gay looking quilts and excellent hand-knit rugs. Many specimens of this work were shown by the speaker at the end of her interesting address.

Mrs. Lewis' address was followed by a paper by Aldenia Blevins, a high school student, on the valuable work being done by the CCC camps—another field beside that of adult education—in which the nation is trying to conserve its human wealth, the most valuable of all its possessions. Other enjoyable features of the program were a talk on "What We Can Do to preserve the beauty of the Virginia Forests" by Virginia Hurst and a solo by Mrs. Stuart Pattie.

An impressive Easter assembly was also held last week, the address being given by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson. We look too often, the speaker said, on our material possessions as the things of chief importance, but the real wealth of humanity lies in its intellectual and spiritual values. The material splendor of Greece and Rome and the kingdoms of Judah and Israel have utterly passed away, but the literature and art of the one and the spiritual grandeur of the other remain today the immortal heritage of humanity. These intellectual and spiritual values are the real and enduring wealth of the race.

The seventh grade of Manassas High School selected Junior Red Cross work as their class project for this session, and have been busy all the year, making scrap books, jigsaw puzzles and toys and collecting children's magazines to be given by Miss Neel, the county nurse, to her little bedridden patients. Last week four happy members of the class, Betty Collins, Louise Wallace, William Knox and James Barton Payne, attended the general meeting of the Red Cross in Washington. Admiral Grayson, the present head of the American Red Cross, gave special recognition to Barton, who is a grand nephew of Judge Barton Payne, former head of the Red Cross. He autographed a book for him and put him in his receiving line.

WILL DISCUSS SCHOOL DATES

The regular monthly meeting of the County School Board will be held May 2 at Manassas High School at which time the school closing plans will be discussed as well as similar plans for opening in the fall.

WORK STARTED ON BRIDGE

Engineer E. D. Hubbard announces that work has been begun on the bridge at Wolf Run Shoals. It is located somewhat upstream from the present ford. The length is subdivided into two spans; each 107'.

On the Prince William side there is an old road which will need some improvement while on the Fairfax side new construction work will be necessary.

The bridge is being constructed jointly by the two counties, with the engineering supervision under the Prince William office. About $12,000 is immediately available for the work.

He named Rexford G. Tugwell, undersecretary of Agriculture, to head one of the three new agencies—an organization for rural resettlement.

The President has not decided whom he will place in charge of rural electrification.

MRS. HUTCHISON HONOR GUEST

Is Principal Speaker at Culpeper Meeting.

Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, of Manassas, chairman of the Fourth District Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was guest of honor and principal speaker at the March meeting of the Culpeper Chapter, U. D. C., held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. H. Calfee, on Jameson Hill.

In closing her brief, but interesting, talk, Mrs. Hutchison gave a cordial invitation to the Culpeper Chapter to attend the next meeting of the Manassas chapter and also urged a large attendance for the district meeting to be held in Fairfax on May 16-17.

Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, who accompanied Mrs. Hutchison, and who recently organized a chapter of Children of the Confederacy at Manassas with a charter membership of forty, spoke of the work being done by that chapter, and encouraged the organization of a similar chapter in Culpeper.

Mrs. Calfee, acting president at the short session of routine business, solicited the interest of the chapter in placing a memorial to Gen. A. P. Hill, Culpeper's distinguished son of the Confederacy. A contribution to that fund was unanimously voted.

The historical program, arranged for the afternoon by Miss Kate Perry, chapter historian, featured the reading by Miss Georgie Jeffries of Mrs. B. Ferguson Cary's address on "Virginia's Pressing Obligations to Robert E. Lee." This address, written and delivered by Mrs. Cary, historian, Virginia Division, at the Lee-Jackson celebration at Upperville, was received with such enthusiasm that it has since been published in pamphlet form for distribution.

A newspaper article concerning Confederate reunions, and the advisability of continuing these annual occasions, was read by Mrs. Garnett Bruce, and a short sketch of conditions after Appomattox was given by Mrs. Calfee, who brought out some interesting facts in local history. Miss Lizzie Leavell gave zest to the program by a humorous impersonation of one of Thomas Nelson Page's southern characters.

Among those present were Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. Hibbs and Mrs. J. B. Thornton, of Manassas; Mrs. Calfee, Miss Perry, Mrs. H. St. G. Tucker, Mrs. Malcolm Bruce, Miss Georgie Wager, Miss Flora Mosby, Miss Leavell, Mrs. J. G. Williams, Mrs. F. B. Bishop, Mrs. J. L. Fray, Mrs. J. N. Bickers, Mrs. E. B. Williams, Mrs. D. J. Coleman, Mrs. F. P. Bowman, Mrs. J. Garnett Bruce, Mrs. Ara W. Smith, Mrs. Mercer Jennings, Miss Georgie Jeffries and Mrs. Douglas Thrift.—Virginia Star.

The winners of the "Old Dominion" and "Northern Virginia" leagues will play a three-game series at the end of the season, to determine the champion of northern Virginia.

CATHARPIN

Miss Anne Piercy of Gainesville and Miss Louie Strother of Delaplane were Easter guests of Miss Ann Robertson at Lawn Vale.

Mrs. W. S. Brower spent Wednesday and Thursday in Washington last week in consultation with her oculist for eye trouble which has been bothering her of late.

Miss Frances Robertson, Miss Virginia Piercy and Mr. Reginald Morrison, all of this section, spent the Easter holiday season among friends and relatives in Berryville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Brower and family of Purcellville, Va., spent some time last week among friends in the Catharpin section.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn spent a very uncomfortable week suffering from neuralgia or its kindred ailments, all of which did not vouchsafe unto her a very enjoyable Eastertide.

The Sudley Young People's Organization conducted an Easter program at Sudley on Sunday morning which was well rendered and demonstrates just what our young people are capable of doing. Among Sudley's membership may be found many high school graduates and these are now beginning to give a good account of themselves in so many ways—teachers, officers or anything that is needed. Sudley is justly proud of them.

Homer, Jr., little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schaeffer of near Catharpin, died suddenly on Sunday evening, April 14, at Warrenton Hospital after a short illness of appendicitis. His remains were interred in the family plot in the Lutheran cemetery near Buckhall, on the following Wednesday. The little fellow was taken ill on Saturday and suffered intensely until death relieved him.

The Sudley Sunday school reorganized on Easter Sunday for the coming summer's work and starts off with much enthusiasm and all glad to be at work again after about three months rest. Vacations are always enjoyed and in fact are beneficial, but Sudley would prefer hers not quite so long; the weatherman, however, seems to have a way all his own and adheres closely to his code, IART—I Am Running This—so that we have to exercise patience, take things as they come and do the best we can; and we believe we are doing just that.

Miss Delsa Brown and Mr. Keyser of Washington were callers at the L. J. Pattie home Sunday before Easter, and, accompanied by Miss Harriet Pattie, spent the remainder of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Pattie and daughter, Elaine, accompanied by Mr. Luther Miller of near Stone House, motored to Washington on Sunday, and returning, brought with them Mr. Miller's son, Floyd, who had been a patient at Emergency Hospital for 10 weeks where he had gone for an appendicitis operation. Young Mr. Miller will have to return twice weekly to receive treatment for complications arising from pneumonia and pleurisy which followed his operation. The many friends of the young man will be glad to know of his recovery.

Mrs. A. W. Smith spent the past week in Washington visiting her daughters, Mrs. William Towers, Jr.,

Mrs. Emory Carter and Mrs. Royce Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Briggs and daughter, Patricia, of Washington spent several days last week with Mrs. Briggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie, and called upon many of their old friends.

Among the Belle Farm guests during the Easter week-end were noted Mr. Charles H. Sterner and two sons, Charles, Jr., and Robert of Washington; L. J. Pattie, Jr., of Falls Church, Miss Eva and Smith Garrison of Thoroughfare and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Holmes and other relatives of Washington were callers in this community on Sunday.

Miss Elsie Byram of Orange County, who has spent the past several months with Mrs. E. N. Pattie, recently visited her cousin in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Ward and daughter, Thelma, were callers at the E. N. Pattie home on Sunday.

Mr. James Riley spent the Easter holidays with his family in the Capital City.

Mrs. Powhatan Buckley, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney T. Lawler of Faulkner, Md., returned home accompanied by her host and hostess to spend Easter with Mr. and Mrs. George Carey. The Lawlers returned next day but Mrs. B. will remain at home.

The many friends of Mrs. Sue C. Swart of near Sudley will be glad to know that she is slowly recovering from her serious burn of several weeks ago but is ordered to remain in bed for the next 10 days or so to help recovery.

A visit to our neighboring city of Gainesville on Saturday last found some of her No. 1 citizens in a quandary as to where they might parade on Easter when they all got decked out in their seasonal finery. The reason was that they could boast of only about 150 feet of pavement and that not wide enough for two abreast to pass. Our sympathy, of course, was very great and we soon fixed it all up for them, we thought, by extending an invitation to come to Catharpin and enjoy ours. But "the unkindest cut of all" was that they didn't accept. We can't imagine why, but some people are funny that way, aren't they? But we all have to surrender to Haymarket; she has much pavement and in addition she has the John Marshall highway so that she wants to spread herself she has plenty of room. Gainesville dare not use the Lee highway for fear of getting run over; so the only difficulty we see about it all is that Haymarket forgot to invite us all out there to help enjoy her sidewalks, streets and highways with her. Poor Catharpin, as usual, had to content herself at home by looking at her finery, carefully posed on its hangers, because on that day it R-A-I-N-E-D, so her great ambition was spoiled. Our streets are not paved but they have a coating of something or other on them with which people do not wish to associate especially on rainy days. Perhaps that's why Gainesville did not accept our invitation but hated to tell us so. Well, at any rate, we hope "you alls" both Haymarket and Gainesville, had a very pleasant Eastertide and enjoyed the day with friends and in the spirit of the occasion.

CENTREVILLE

A benefit chicken supper and bingo party will be held in the school auditorium tomorrow evening beginning at 6. This is for the benefit of the school.

Miss Lucy LeGallais spent the holidays in Washington.

Miss Sada Woltz and Master Shreve Simpson Woltz jointly celebrated their birthdays on Easter Monday by having a party at which there were nearly forty of their young friends.

The Guild of St. John's spent yesterday cleaning up the church. Services will be held there Sunday at 3 p.m., Rev. A. S. Gibson officiating.

Mr. William Powers is giving a new coat of paint to Mrs. Eva Utterback's home.

Mr. John DeBell has returned to William and Mary and Cadet George R. L. Turberville, 3rd, has returned to Massanutten Academy, after spending the Easter holidays at their homes here and enjoying the Easter festivities.

Mrs. Lucille Rinehart has returned after spending the winter months in Washington.

Mr. Bernard Cross is constructing an addition to Ben Cross' garage.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
 If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

GUARD YOUR THOUGHTS: Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. — Philippians 4:8.

THE EASTER SEASON

On Friday last, pursuant to the service set last year by Rev. DeChant and Rev. Kesner, aided by the Ministerial Association of Manassas, business houses were closed from 2 to 3 p.m. that opportunity might be given all to commemorate with prayer our Lord's last hour on the Cross.

Services were held in the Episcopal Church, Rev. Gibson, Rev. DeChant, Rev. Kesner and Rev. Miller officiating with a large number of worshippers filling the pews.

Judging from the news items in our various exchanges, religious services were unusually attended throughout the South. Red propaganda and godlessness will never make headway in a land where men serve God. This staunch adherence to the religion of their fathers is the safety of the South today.

A WISE EXAMPLE

This week the County School Board began its annual visit to the schools of the county by visiting the schools of two of the districts. Next Wednesday they will go to Brentsville and Coles District while on May 15 they will visit in Occoquan and Dumfries.

This happy plan is not only to acquaint the members of the board with working conditions at the schools but through an open invitation to all patrons will enable the county to better acquaint itself with the members of the Board.

We doubt very much if there is another county in the State which has set up such a unique and far-sighted plan. In this day of social and economic unrest such level headed procedure will account for better relations between official and civic life in this community and thus set an example which may be well followed in all other sections.

Joe Estes, second grade.
 Paul Rollins, second grade.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. Susie Graham Powell, who departed this life four years ago today, April 20, 1931.

'Tis not the tears at the moment shed,

'Tis the life's whole pathway shaded,
 'Tis the one remembrance fondly kept
 When all lighter griefs have faded.

Some may think you are forgotten,
 Because oftentimes they see me smile,
 But little do they know the heart-aches
 That I suffer all the while.

No one knows, dear mother, how I miss you.
 More and more each day
 Life has not been the same to me,
 Since you were called away.

I will meet you some bright morning,
 'Tis a happy thought in store
 So keep her, Jesus, in thy keeping,
 Until my weary life is over.

—By her devoted daughter,
 Grace Yowell.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Edith R. Gough, who departed this life one year ago, April 23, 1934.

One year has passed, dear mother,
 Since you were called away,
 How well do we remember
 That sad and weary day.

It was sad when you left us
 But God knew best,
 He knew that in Him you put your trust.
 So he called you home to rest.

Sweet memories will linger forever,
 Time cannot change them, 'Tis true,
 Years that pass cannot sever,
 Our loving thoughts of you.

R. M. Gough and family.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

Testing Seed Corn Important.
As corn is showing poor germination, it is especially important that seed corn be tested this year. Samples may be mailed directly to Mr. G. W. Koerner, State Commissioner of Agriculture, Richmond, Va., or they will be forwarded if brought to the county agent's office. Samples should be carefully taken so as to represent the whole supply of seed on which the test is desired.

Grazing Lespedeza.
Experiments at the Beltsville Farm and observation of fields on farms where it has been grown show that new lespedeza may be pastured after small grain is cut without much damage to the lespedeza, if livestock is kept off when the land is too wet and sufficient time is given it to make some growth after the small grain crop is harvested. There will be a considerable increase in lespedeza acreage in the county this year. The value of the legume as a pasture crop, particularly on poor soils, is becoming increasingly evident.

Rural Electrification.
It is possible that part of the work relief appropriation will be used to subsidize rural power lines but the amount to be provided and the method by which it will be used has not been announced. Through the Allen J. Saville organization, a hurried survey was made early in the year by the State Corporation Commission. If Federal funds are available to assist in building new lines, the work necessarily will have to be done in co-operation with companies owning existing lines. To supplement the survey, farmers desiring electric power should make surveys of their own to determine the number of people in their locality who would use current and for what purposes and present this data, with the request for an extension, to the power company owning the line nearest to the proposed line or locality.

FOR STATE SENATE

To the voters of the 30th Senatorial District:
I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination for the office of State Senator for the 30th Senatorial District, subject to the Democratic primary, Aug. 6, 1935.
I am deeply grateful to the people of my District for the splendid vote given me in my last campaign, and their co-operation and help during my tenure in office. I am under lasting obligations to them and if re-elected to this high office, I will continue to represent them in an honest and fearless manner and to the very best of my ability. My record is an open book, and I have but one desire, and that is, to work for the best interests and welfare of my District and State.

SCHOOL PLAY AT CLIFTON

"A Ready-Made Family," a three- act play, written by Joy Tobias, will be presented in the auditorium of Clifton High School on May 2 and 3 at 8 o'clock. The play is sponsored by the senior class of the high school.

The play, the third one to be pre- sented by the Dramatic Club this year, is a hilarious comedy from be- ginning to end. A critical situation arises when Mrs. Martyn, a widow, returns from her vacation at Day- тона Beach and presents her three fatherless children with a fiancé. The fiancé is as much surprised as the three children. In turn, he presents his "wife-to-be" with a "ready-made family." His family consists of a son who is a kleptomaniac and a daughter who is a monomaniac on the subject of her operation. Mrs. Martyn's children turn out to be even worse. Her son has epileptic fits, her daughter talks "baby twaddle" in- cessantly and the baby is a "perfect baby tender." Begano and Nicodemus, the negro help, add both amuse- ment and color to the story.

The cast is picked from the three upper classes of the student body. Each member has displayed special talent in previous performances.

Those taking part include Agnes Martyn, a widow, Bellma Allen; Bob, her son, Everett Koontz; Manile, her elder daughter, Mary Buckley; Gra- cie, her youngest child, Cora Buck- ley; Miss Lydia, her sister-in-law, Frances Ruggles; Henry Turner, a widower, Tom Mahoney; Doris, his daughter, Ruth Chesley; Sammie, his son, Harry Collier; Begonia, the col- ored cook, Virginia Hunsberger; Ni- codemus, the colored handy-man, Robert Buckley.

SPRING BRIDES WEAR LACE

Lace is going to be a favorite ma- terial for wedding dresses this spring, according to Peggy Randolph, who writes of spring bridal fashions in the April 36th issue of The Fam- ily Circle Magazine, being distributed this week by all Sanitary Food stores to their customers.

Furthermore, this year's bride has a weather eye on economy and plans her wedding dress so that with the sleeves removed, the hem evened around the bottom, it makes a charm- ing and informal evening frock. Veils are yards and yards of filmy tulle, bridal caps are simple, and flowers are very formal.

For travel, Miss Randolph recom- mends silk suits, and some ideas for these, and for lingerie, are contained in the April 26th issue of The Fam- ily Circle, which is distributed all this week without charge by the Sanitary Food stores.
