JUNIOR WOMEN TO AID POOR

Miss Bradford and Mrs. Lewis to Entertain Club.

As the main feature of the program for the Junior Woman's Club, which will be held tonight at the home of Mrs. Joe Lyon, the club sponsor, the young women will be enlisted in a sewing party. Miss Janet Trusler, chairman of the charities committee, and Miss Walsler Conner, chairman of the program for the evening, have worked out a scheme by which the club members will not only be entertained but will render service to the needy as well.

The usual notices sent out each month as a reminder of the club meeting, this month included the postscript, "Bring needle, cotton and scissors," so that when the members arrive at the home of Mrs. Lyon they will be fully equipped for their tasks. Miss Trusler and Miss Conner have selected and purchased a large quantity of material suitable for dress-making, together with other items necessary for dress trimming, and have enlisted the services of several mothers of the club members who very kindly assented to cut out the dresses ready for sewing. Patterns were borrowed from the local sewing room. Although a number of the girls are not versed in the art of sewing, with the help of some of the more experienced sewers they will undoubtedly be able to complete a very presentable dress which will be appreciated by some little girl this Christmas. Miss Neel, the county nurse, who will distribute the dresses to children she knows to be in need, informed the club members that girls between the ages of 6 and 12 are those who are most in need of clothes.

The Junior Woman's Club, in the past, has adopted a family each Christmas and prepared a large basket for them from the food articles contributed by each member. However, it is thought that the young ladies will obtain a great deal of enjoyment by making dresses and also will bring a great deal of enjoyment to a larger number of needy people. Each club member will be asked to donate a pair of stockings and an undergarment or some other article of wearing apparel to complete the costume she makes. Sewing will be started at the opening of the meeting and will continue throughout the business and social hours. Those who do not complete their dresses will meet at the home of Miss Conner on Saturday night to add the finishing touches. Miss Ann Bradford and Mrs. Higgs Lewis will act as hostesses of the meeting tonight.

C. C. CLOE FLIES TO CUBA

Mr. C. C. Cloe, prominent business man and president of the County Chamber of Commerce, left by plane for Havana, Cuba.

Mr. Cloe was, for a number of years, the West Indies representative for one of the largest meat packing houses in the United States, during which time he maintained headquarters in Havana and Santiago. When asked if this was to be a pleasure trip, he stated, "Well, it has been twenty-five years since I was in Havana and I am going back to renew old acquaintances and I expect to get a great deal of pleasure out of that." He also added, "I am stopping off at Miami, Fla., for the air races. You know, I always attend the air races whenever I have the opportunity."

Mr. Cloe is quite air-minded and whenever possible, travels by plane. He will return Sunday.

PROGRAM BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Unique Service Held at Manassas High School.

The Manassas Woman's Club met December 11 at the high school. The occasion was quite unique in that the members present were under the pleasing impression that the program was in the nature of a rehearsal for a subsequent event, when to their surprise it was found that the exercises were actually a formal procedure of the club.

Hostesses were Mesdames R. S. Hynson, Marshall Haydon, R. C. Haydon, Thos. Howard and C. R. C. Johnson.

The following new members were added to the rolls: Mrs. Richard Hayard, Mrs. John Hitchcock, Mrs. N. M. Driscoll and Mrs. J. B. Farmer. A letter of resignation was read from Mrs. Wissler.

Books, including textbooks, to be given to the C. C. C. Camps, it was stated, should be left with Mrs. Cooksey.

Among other announcements were the following: A benefit matinee, "David Copperfield," will be given December 16 for the Methodist Church at 3 p.m. at the Dixie Theatre. The club program will be in charge of the chaplain, Mrs. DeChant, assisted by Mesdames Gibson, Gill, Mylander and Miss Speiden.

The Christmas dance will be held December 27.

MARGARET BURDETTE HEADS 4-H CLUBS

The Prince William County Council of 4-H Clubs held its first meeting for the year 1935-36 Saturday, December 7, in the assembly room of the post office building of Manassas.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Here We Are Together" and "America," led by the song leader, Gene Morrison. As the roll was called each new president introduced the officers of his club. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved. Next, Miss Pitts explained the purpose of this meeting.

An excellent talk on Parliamentary Procedure was given by Mrs. W. L. Lloyd of Manassas. She emphasized the necessity for making nominations, motions and amendments in the proper manner.

Mr. Cox was asked by the president to lead the discussion on goals for 1936. The goals for 1935 were re-adapted after certain minor changes were made to raise the standards. After this the president asked the nominating committee for its report. The nominations were accepted unanimously. The new officers are as follows:

President, Margaret Burdette, Occoquan; vice-presidents, Margaret Blakemore, Manassas; Mary Parsons Carter, Haymarket; Marguerite Pearl, Bethel; secretary, Billy Hale, Nokesville; song leader, Thelma Moore, Buckhall; cheer leader, Claude Oleyar, St. Hayfield; reporter, Judson McManaway, Sr. Woodbine.

The meeting was then adjourned to meet at the Parish Hall of the Episcopal Church. Miss Pitts asked the new officers to remain for a few minutes to have their pictures taken. At the Parish Hall Miss Harriette Borth of Manassas conducted group singing of 4-H club songs.

Two new prizes are being offered this year—Best girls' live stock prize given by Mrs. Egbert Thompson, and best club reporter prize given by Eddie Russell.

Judson McManaway, reporter.

"CONSERVATION OF VIRGINIA'S RESOURCES"

Address of Wilbur C. Hall, Chairman of the Virginia State Commission on Conservation and Development before the State Teachers College, at Harrisonburg, Va., November 13, 1935, at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The State Commission on Conservation and Development does not make soil surveys; they are done by the Virginia Polytechnic Institute in co-operation with the United States Bureau of Soils. But the Commission participates in some of the work through the Geological Survey, in making geological maps showing the character of the parent formations and topographical maps on which the soil surveys are plotted, and through the Forest Service in conserving the forest cover and in reforestation.

Virginia contains a diversity of mineral deposits. I shall not take time to enumerate them in detail but they comprise large bodies of coal, numerous metals scattered over the State, and vast resources of the nonmetals. The coal is found chiefly in the southwestern counties, in Montgomery and Pulaski counties, and in the Richmond Basin. Some of the coal is of anthracite grade. The first coal mined in America was near Richmond. The metals included gold, iron, lead, manganese, titanium minerals, and zinc. The most important nonmetallic deposits are barite, cement rock, clays, dolomite, feldspar, gypsum, limestone, salt, sand and gravel, slate, soapstone, and talc. Although Virginia does not have the good fortune to have large stores of gold and petroleum, as have some other states, the value of annual mineral production has exceeded $80,000,000. The value of raw materials mined and quarried in Virginia during the last quarter century has been more than one billion dollars. Data about these deposits, in the form of published bulletins and maps, may be obtained from the Geological Survey at Charlottesville.

The natural wonders of Virginia are a most attractive and invaluable resource. They illustrate numerous processes of landscape sculpture and are interesting records of geologic history. Their aesthetic values and those of our diverse scenic features are unquestioned but their service in alluring visitors to the State is not often or fully realized. Here in the Shenandoah Valley you have no doubt visited some of the unrivalled caverns, annually visited by hundreds of thousands of tourists from many states. Natural Bridge is not far distant, but somewhat like a prophet it is more or less without honor in its own country. Then there is Natural Tunnel, in Scott County; Burkes Garden in Tazewell County; Mountain Lake, about 4,000 feet above sea level, in Giles County; the Pinnacles of Dan in Patrick County; and Dismal Swamp southwest of Norfolk. Myriad other scenic gems might be mentioned. Nearly 30 mountain peaks rise 4,000 feet above the sea. Neighboring Massanutten Mountain is a unique landscape feature. The Old Dominion has been blessed in the turn of geologic events with an unsurpassed assemblage of sea coasts, tidal rivers, plains, plateaus, and mountains that are destined to bring increasing recreation to our own citizens and to the innumerable visitors who will come if we but make our treasures known to them. Shenandoah National Park and the State Parks will for all time conserve some of these features in their natural state.

Virginia fortunately is blessed also with an abundance of water, both surface and underground. That may not seem to be exactly true when the recent droughts are recalled, but they are probably only swings in the climatic cycle. Surface waters, however, are not illimitable. The short-sightedness of man has done much to destroy the regularity of their flow, to reduce their volumes, and to pollute them beyond use. They depend not only upon atmospheric precipitation but also upon underground storage that replenishes them during dry periods. Ground waters are invaluable also in affording domestic, municipal, and industrial supplies. The need of conserving the quantity and quality of all of these waters is almost too obvious for discussion. Unfortunately, too much pollution has occurred. Available information about our water supplies is too scant to meet all of the demands for it.

IN APPRECIATION

The Antioch neighborhood was inexpressibly saddened on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5, when word was received here that our own "Bro. Council" had passed on.

The sunlight seemed to fade from the brief December day, as we realized that never again at old Antioch, or in our homes, would we see the sunny smile; no more, for us, the warm hand clasp; gone for ever, from our midst; the vivid personality that made of Virgilus Haldane Council truly a great man! Homer must have had such a man in mind, when he said, "He was a friend to man, and he lived in a house by the side of the road."

So close did Mr. Council live by the highway of our lives, that he grieved when we were sad and rejoiced in all our pleasures. He knew all of us by our first names, and always had a cheery greeting for every member of his congregation.

But we are looking beyond the dark clouds to the silvery lining, and it is with grateful hearts we thank our Heavenly Father that for nearly fourteen years we have had the leadership of this servant of God; than whom, old Antioch, in its nearly one hundred years of existence, has had no finer type of minister or more gracious Christian gentleman.

To Mrs. Council and her children, to whom we feel we are bound "with hoops of steel," we extend our deepest love and sympathy, and to give them the assurance that at Antioch, and in our homes, they will always find love and a welcome.

BRENTSVILLE MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At a meeting of the Brentsville District of the Manassas-Prince William County Chamber of Commerce the road situation in that district was the principal topic of discussion. It was stated that $80,000 had been allocated to secondary roads for Prince William County and very little of this money had been used. A committee composed of D. S. Diehl, chairman; Mr. John Harpine, J. A. Hooker, V. W. Zirkle and Mrs. E. C. Spitzer were appointed to take this matter up with E. D. Hubbard, State highway engineer, and report back at the January meeting. The road from Brentsville to Greenwich, it was stated, is in very bad condition and very little work has been done during the year to improve the situation.

The question of taxation was also discussed and V. W. Zirkle, vice-president, was instructed to name a committee to make a study of the taxes in the district.

The next meeting is to be held on January 14, 1936.

CHURCH CONTRACT LET

The Manassas Baptist Church which was greatly damaged by fire several weeks ago will be remodeled at an early date.

Mr. Ira Cannon of Alexandria has the contract for the renovation work of this building. Mr. Cannon originally built this church in 1903.

This building will be rebuilt to look just as it was before the fire.

MASONS ELECT HUTCHISON MASTER

The Manassas Lodge No. 182 held its annual election on December 6 at which time the senior warden, Col. Robert A. Hutchison, was advanced to the master's chair. Other officers elected at the same time were Howard Luck, senior warden; W. Hill Brown, Jr., junior warden; G. Raymond Ratcliffe, treasurer; John T. Broadbush, secretary; Geo. B. Cooke, senior deacon; Oden A. Breeden, junior deacon.

Officers appointed by the master-elect are as follows: Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, chaplain; G. G. Allen and A. MacMillan, stewards; John P. Hyde, tiler.

The regular installation will take place on Dec. 27. The name of the installing officer has not yet been made public.

TUBERCULOSIS STAMP SALES

Prince William Organization Hard at Work.

The Prince William County organization for the Tuberculosis Christmas Stamp Sales has been perfected and is hard at work on this project which means so much to the welfare of the community. District chairmen and their assistants have been assigned and the work in the schools is progressing.

Rev. A. Stuart Gibson is chairman, Mrs. A. A. Hooff treasurer and Mrs. Marshall Haydon secretary for the county. The district chairmen are as follows: Manassas, Mrs. Eli Swavelly; Coles, Miss Cornwell; Dumfries, Mrs. J. F. McInteer; Brentsville, Mrs. Benj. Brown; Occoquan, Mrs. Eva K. Garner and Gainesville, Mrs. Holmes Robinson.

Until the present time the small fund raised by the sale of these Christmas stamps has been all that the County Nurse had with which to combat T. B. Lately an appropriation has been made by the county, but every possible cent which can be raised is sadly needed.

Under the provisions of the organization sixty per cent of the funds are retained in the county and forty per cent sent to Richmond. After Christmas the various district chairmen report their receipts to the county organization and the return to Richmond goes in January 12. Then a final rebate out of the 40 per cent is returned to the county on the basis of special requirements, so that it becomes possible for the county to get as much as 90 per cent of the amount subscribed locally.

In the schools the children are being encouraged to buy the bangles, which cost any amount of one cent or over, and they are taught the history of these little crosses.

The work in the colored schools is in charge of the colored school supervisor.

DEDICATION OF NEW AGRICULTURE BUILDING

On Wednesday, December 4, the Nokesville Future Farmer boys and home economics girls held their annual banquet.

This year they made it an open house and served all those who contributed and helped in the erection of the new agriculture building. About 130 patrons and contributors attended this banquet.

A program was rendered after the banquet in the high school auditorium of dedication of the new building.

Mr. J. W. Harpine, the former president of the Community League, presented the building to the School Board.

Mr. R. C. Haydon accepted the presentation in behalf of the School Board.

The supervisor of vocational agriculture of northern Virginia, Mr. W. R. Legge, was present and gave a very interesting talk on "The Boy of Today at the Crossroads."

EASTERN STAR NOTES

The Matrons & Patrons Association met at the home of Mrs. Robt. Smith at Bristow, on Tuesday night. Due to the inclement weather only a few reported.

Business was transacted, and plans made for Christmas. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Geo. Baker in February.

D. C. KIWANIS TO VISIT HERE

Local Club Adds D. J. Martin to Roll.

The Kiwanis Club at its regular meeting on Friday evening had the pleasure of inducting into fellowship Dudley Martin, Manassas business man. "O.D." acted as factotum for the occasion and used an entirely new brand of initiation policies—a sort of "New Deal" as it were.

Carl reported Christmas funds progressing nicely and an appeal was registered to complete the fund due to Dr. Marsteller for orthopedic work among the underprivileged children. The program went awry and the entertainment promised for last week will be provided this week by a unique organization comprising members of the interclub relations committee of the Washington, D. C., club.

This organization known as Capital Kiwanis Ideas Unlimited is headed by George H. Winslow, secretary emeritus of the Washington club, as president; Edwin F. Hill, international trustee, vice-president; James B. Edmunds, past president and chairman, interclub relations committee, treasurer; Harry G. Kimball, governor of Capital district in 1929, secretary, and Charles W. Pimper, lieutenant governor; Major James Asher, Virgil O. Barnard, William R. Schmucker, Clyde B. Melville, directors.

Capital Kiwanis Ideas Unlimited chartered under the laws of the universe will assume full authority for the promotion among all men, women and children, especially underprivileged children, the unselfish endeavors of Kiwanis International in cities, towns and communities throughout the United States of America and the provinces of the Dominion of Canada. "A Capital Idea" has been mutually agreed upon as the organization's slogan.

Under this charter, Capital Kiwanis Ideas Unlimited will urge the support of churches in their spiritual aims, foster friendly fellowship, promote international good will between Canada and the United States and sponsor service to underprivileged children, boys and girls, vocational guidance, more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship and friendly understanding among all citizens, both rural and urban. The organization also will urge that adequate educational facilities, especially those making for character development be provided in all communities and that education for the proper use of the new leisure be promoted effectively everywhere.

REV. MILLER PARTICIPATES IN SILVER ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. Luther F. Miller participated in the silver anniversary services of Bethany Ev. Lutheran Church, Baltimore, Md., last Friday.

He was pastor of Bethany from 1906 to 1923. In 1909 the church on Gough street was condemned and the congregation moved to Lakewood avenue and Madison street where a modest chapel was built in 1910. Today a splendid stone church occupies the corner.

Friday was congregational night with reunion of confirmation classes since 1910.

FRATERNAL ACTIVITIES

The Daughters of America, Prince William Council, No. 45, held its annual Christmas party at the Junior Hall last Saturday night, netting about $15.00 for the council treasury.

The party was in the shape of a bingo entertainment with Messrs. Kerlin, Bell and Carey officiating over the number. Miss Polen was custodian of the prizes.

The Council will meet next Monday night, Dec. 16, as neither the Juniors nor the Daughters will meet any more this month after that.

METHODIST BAZAAR MUCH ENJOYED

The bazaar held last Thursday by the ladies of the M. E. Church was eminently successful. $145.00 was cleared and everybody bought Christmas gifts and enjoyed a fine dinner and supper which sustains the reputation always held by the Methodists of being good cooks.

OLD STORIES

At Christmas time there comes to us The stories of the ages, Handed down from year to year By prophets, poets and sages.

Recalling them, there comes to mind The one the Master told About a widow, very poor, Who gave her bit of gold. Unmindful of the Stranger Who watched her cast her mite, She went her way with happy heart, And thrice-blessed in His sight.

Another story, often told To children of this land, Is of the good giant Offero, Who sought a fearless man. He scorned the court of mighty kings, And lived in humble style To serve the greatest King of All—A tiny little Child.

And then they tell of golden bells That wouldn't even sound When priceless jewels were offered, And the king's most precious crown. But when two little peasant boys Bestowed a copper piece, The bells began to clang and chime As if they'd never cease.

A little boy, one Christmas Eve, Garbed in clothes so poor, Peered searchingly in windows And passed from door to door Until He reached the humblest home, And there, midst childish din, The door was opened to His knock And He was taken in.

Our blessings are not measured By the goods which we possess; Our pockets lined with silver Couldn't bring us happiness. If we're as poor as churchmice, But our hearts are good and kind, We'll never be unhappy, And we'll be thrice-blessed sometime.

At Christmas time the Stranger comes And looks in all our hearts, And where He finds not charity And brother-like, departs. —A Junior Subscriber.

LONELY HILLSIDE

Let me live on the lonely hillside,
Where the branches swing and sway,
Where gentle breezes wake and sigh,
And crickets call at close of day.

Give me a life on the hillside,
The hillside of beauty and rest,
Where wild flowers bloom eternally,
On the beautiful hillside's crest.

So be it a life on the hillside,
Where skies are never gray,
And hearts are free from sorrow,
As dark of night turns into day.

I pray, let me dwell on the hillside,
Where unpure souls have never trod,
To me it's dearer than aught on earth,
My hillside that's nearer to God.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

THE SECRET OF GETTING: Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.—Luke 6:38.

THE SUFFERINGS OF WINTER

The family in the well warmed and comfortable home may not worry when the thermometer drops close to zero. But for countless families close to the hunger line, low temperatures means suffering. For winter is invariably the time when the tattered shoe of poverty pinches with the greatest severity.

The needs of the poor are not met when they are simply fed. Except in a few favored localities having a warm climate, there are many cheerless homes with no money to buy fuel. In millions of dwellings, the kitchen stove is the only heater. The family may get a bit of comfort as they huddle around this inadequate source of warmth. But if all the other rooms are cold and desolate, it is a hard situation for a growing family and for feeble elderly and sick folks.

It is one of the ironies of life, that as winter comes on and there is less work on farms, roads, and building jobs, then the weather grows cold, and more money is needed to buy fuel.

In many families, thin clothing suited only to the warm airs of summer, has not been replaced by warmer garments. Lean and hungry men are often seen looking for work without any overcoats to wear. Women thinly clad as they seek to purchase their meager supplies are a pathetic figure.

Comfortable people should look over their possessions carefully, and see if they can spare any warm garments. The poor folks will not care if such clothing is out of style, if it will only shut out the chilly blasts. The charity societies need liberal gifts of cash, for food, clothing, and fuel for those who need it. Let our hearts open to these shivering ones through the winter months.—Exchange.

AUTO DEATH RECORD ASSAILED

Virginia was warned against its highway accident record and praised for its "recreational and cultural advantages" Tuesday night as the society of Virginians met in its first function of the season.

Ernest N. Smith, executive director of the American Automobile Association in an address before the society and its guests, lauded Virginia's work for the tourist, but he said it "ranks among the very worst states in the union from the standpoint of highway accidents and injuries."

He spoke before the showing of the new Virginia Travelogue Motion picture produced by his organization in co-operation with the Virginia Conservation and Development Commission.

Smith said in a "warning" that "nothing short of an epidemic is so potent from the standpoint of causing people to avoid a state as the reputation for reckless driving within its borders."

"There is good reason for this charge at the moment as regards Virginia," he said, "and apart from the obligation that rests on the state to improve conditions, it is important that situation be taken in hand in order to give assurance to visitors from other parts of the country."

"It is not enough that the state advertise to the world what you have to offer in the way of recreational and cultural advantages; you must also do everything possible to protect the stranger within your borders, as well as your own people."

JAMES W. FRENCH

Mr. James W. French, age 75, a former resident of Manassas, died on December 10 at his home in Bethesda, Md. Mr. French was a prominent realtor and banker in Washington where he had been in business for more than fifty years. He was born in Manassas where he lived for twenty-five years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Trice French, and three sons, Raymond F. of Tampa, Fla., J. Lewis of Baltimore and Howell P. of Washington; an aunt, Mrs. M. V. Conner lives in Manassas. Another relative is Mr. Thomas Frank of Warrenton.

Among those who attended the funeral from Manassas were Mrs. Kinchele, Miss Mamie Conner, Mrs. James Conner, E. R. Conner, D. J. Arrington, and Carl Kinchele.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 1.

The golden text was "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Psalms 139: 23, 24).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Romans 8: 5, 6).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mind is the master of the corporeal senses, and can conquer sickness, sin and death. Exercise this God-given authority. Take possession of your body, and govern its feeling and action. Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can vitiate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man" (p. 393).

CATHARPIN

Mrs. Raymond L. Briggs and daughter, Patricia, of Washington, spent a week's vacation with Mrs. Briggs' parents recently.

The Brower children, Betty, Frances and Billy, spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Marie Larkin, of the Capital City, where they went to see what Santa Claus had to offer for the coming holidays.

Miss Virginia Hill spent the week-end with Miss Natalie Larkin in Washington last week.

Miss Eva and Mr. Smith Garrison of Thoroughfare, the Misses Irene and Virginia and Mr. Johnson Ankers and Messrs. Clifford and Richard Lunsford, all of Buckland, Va., were callers at the L. J. Pattie home on Sunday last.

Mrs. C. F. Brower spent last week in Purcellville, Va., with her son, Mr. Chas. F. Brower, Jr., of that city.

Who remembers when Mr. O. E. Newman was the best painter, grainier and house decorator in northern Virginia?

Miss Bertha Pattie attended the basketball game at Aldie between Haymarket and that city on Friday of last week at which the Haymarket team was the victor. Miss Pattie spent the night with Miss Frances Smith of Gainesville.

Miss Elizabeth McIntosh of Route 621 who has been ailing for the past month or so is slowly improving but is still far from her usual health.

Mrs. John F. Pattie and daughter, Elaine, of Manassas, Va., spent several days at the L. J. Pattie home last week.

As a reminder of old times, Catharpin is just now experiencing some very bad roads due to new construction and consequent fills which combined with the recent heavy rains, have just about put traveling out of the question at least for the moment, particularly in the Lick Branch section below Catharpin. This crossing has been a thorn in the flesh for a long time but the erection of the new bridge, new grades, etc., the trials and tribulations of past years bid fair to soon be forgotten. This particular crossing has been troublesome to motorists ever since the advent of the automobile. The old model "T" escaped with the least trouble but the low swung cars always had trouble if the water was high, which, during the winter season, it was. With the completion of projected improvements of section 621 this part of Gainesville District will have free access to the city of Catharpin and vicinity which all shall appreciate.

Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale recently returned from the bed side of her daughter, Frances, who is a patient in the Harrisonburg hospital suffering from an appendicitis operation, and reports conditions fine. Miss Frances, a student of the State Teachers College, will soon be removed to the infirmary of that institution. Her many friends are pleased to learn of her rapid recovery.

In keeping with the general trend of the times it seems our reportorial staff has gotten the notion that it is unconstitutional to do any reporting during "Hog Killing Time." Just how they got that way we know not unless the "New Deal" has them all mixed up by reason of its own unconstitutionality that they fear overstepping the boundary line. Or might it just possibly be that, being on a meatless diet for so long they have overeaten and are having internal troubles of their own, thus being unable to concentrate their mentality upon anything but pains and aches and indigestion remedies. If the latter, they have our sympathy and hopes for a speedy recovery.

Between the hours of 2 and 5 a.m. on Sunday morning last, the community was somewhat disturbed by a nocturnal visitor knocking on people's doors and asking the way to Leesburg. The night was dark, cold and very wet. To those answering his call and directing him, he made the further observation that it would be a great accommodation if they would let him in, that his feet were sore and he could not walk. Finding no accommodation after four appeals, he must have passed on since daylight found no trace of him in the neighborhood. His race, nationality and creed unknown but is thought to be colored. He certainly found a very inhospitable community. What would you have done had he come knocking at your door at that time of night?

OCCOQUAN

Miss Evelyn Herring, daughter of Hon. Geo. W. Herring, returned to Fredericksburg State Teachers College Sunday night, after spending an enjoyable holiday with her parents, and visiting friends in Washington.

Cadet C. E. Noxon of Occoquan and a student at the Hargrave Military Academy was promoted from technical sergeant to second lieutenant. Lt. Noxon has been a student at H.M.A. for five years, and during this time he has made rapid advancement in the military department.

BUCKLAND

A series of revival services are scheduled to begin at the Buckland Church on Thursday, Dec. 12. Rev. Fred Powers of Nokesville, evangelist, will preach each evening at 8 p.m. except Saturday. Plans are going forward for the annual Christmas entertainment which this year promises to be better than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carter, of Strasburg, were guests on Sunday of Mr. Carter's mother, Mrs. E. B. Carter.

We are indeed very sorry to report that Cecil Hedrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hedrick, whose misfortune in breaking his arm was reported in this column last week, is not doing satisfactorily at all, and it is feared that an amputation will be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Russell and children visited Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fletcher, of Fairfax, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee and daughter, Marion, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Lunsford, Mrs. M. H. Sims and son, Conway, and Mr. Maurice Graham, all of Washington, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham.

Little Miss Laurie Russell is a victim of chicken pox at this writing.

Messrs. J. F. and J. Welton Graham, who have been employed in Washington for the past two years, have returned here, and commenced the construction of a ten-room stone residence on "Cerro Gerdo" for Mr. P. H. Lee. An old colonial house was destroyed on this site by fire not so many years ago.

It was with a saddened heart that the writer read an account of Rev. V. H. Council whose death, which occurred on Thursday at his home at Clifton Station, will be deeply felt by a host of friends who knew and loved him. It was the writer's privilege to attend for many years services at Antioch Church, while he was pastor there, and also to be united in marriage by him.

WATERFALL

Mrs. Stuart Pickett and Peggy Anne, who spent last week with relatives in Washington, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Hulfish of Alexandria were recent guests at "Oakshade."

Miss Mattie Matthew of Stone House and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sinclair and son, of Washington, were week-end guests of Mrs. G. A. Gosson.

Miss Margaret Shirley and Mr. Herman Shirley will close "Oakshade" this week and after spending several days with Mrs. Henry Thomas of Ft. Myer Heights will sail from New York on Dec. 17 on "S. S. Ancon," for Panama.

Mrs. Parke Torbert, Miss Mildred Torbert and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, of Washington, were recent guests at "Hagley," the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas and children of Ft. Myer Hts. were guests at "Oakshade" over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thomas of Ballston visited Mrs. Howard Bell on Thursday last.

Mr. Robert Smith of Washington is spending some time at his home here.

Services were conducted at Antioch Sunday by the Rev. W. O. Estes of Bristow. The service on the 4th Sunday afternoon will be discontinued during the winter. Sunday school as usual at 10 o'clock a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gosson and Phil Thornhill were recent guests of Mrs. R. J. Wayland of Occoquan.

We take this opportunity to thank all of our friends who had a part in the delightful surprise "farewell party" at "Oakshade" on Saturday evening. We deeply appreciated all the lovely gifts and the fellowship of old friends. At the end, the sweet strains of "God be with you 'til we meet again" convinces us that—

"He who from zone to zone Guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight

In the long way that I must tread alone Will lead my steps aright."

NOKESVILLE

The dedication of the new F.F.A. building was held December 4 at 7 o'clock. Mr. Harpine presented it to Mr. R. C. Haydon. He accepted it and Mr. W. R. Legg, supervisor of vocational agriculture of northern Virginia, gave the message.

The comic convention was held Thursday, December 12, at 8 o'clock. The main characters were: Maggie, Margaret Dodd; Jiggs, Eugene Flory; Andy Gump, Roy Frederick; Min Gump, Louise Foster; Mutt, Cleveland Flory; Jeff, Raymond Showalter.

The Bethlehem Christmas pageant, directed by Mr. David Weimer, will be sponsored December 20, at 7:45 p.m.

There have been three speakers at our school recently. They were Mr. James Elman, a native of Holland; Mr. James Moore, a native of Japan; and Mr. J. Royal Cooke, a resident of Greenwich, Va.

The basketball games played at McLean on December 3 were a big success for us. The girls' score was 26-13 and the boys' score was 19-16.

There will be a Christmas pageant at the M. E. Church of Nokesville on December 23 at 8 p.m. It is called "Miriam's Visions."

The regular meeting of the Brentsville District Community League was held Tuesday, December 3, the new president, Mr. D. S. Diehl, officiating.

Rev. De Chant conducted the devotional exercise. After the business meeting he gave a talk on "Why We Do Not Have Good Leaders in the Rural Communities."

The next meeting will be held on January 7 at 7:30 p.m.

CITY'S KING PIN SPORT

Few cities have made a sport so emphatically and particularly their own as Washington has with bowling. The game, played by both men and women, has become not only a city-wide recreation, but a very considerable business as well.

The many-sided story of its development here is told in a vivid, colorful article in the feature section of The Star next Sunday, December 15.

No More Slavery
CONSTIPATION

Not a word to say about your favorite laxative or cathartic—that's your business.

All we ask you to do is to get one 40 cent jar of Kruschen Salts and take as much as will lie on a dime in your morning cup of tea or coffee.

The six precious salts in Kruschen help to cause stomach, liver, gall bladder and bowels to function naturally and healthfully—you clear the system of poisonous waste and acid and regular blissful bowel action will gladden your heart.

Before the jar is empty you'll feel fine—keener mind—actively alive—more ambition.

No more laxatives—no more cathartics and no constipation when you take your little daily punch of Kruschen. At Cocke Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

JOHN RANDOLPH OF ROANOKE

Virginia's unique statesman, he was called "the firebrand of Congress." He was admired for his talents, respected for his courage, and feared for his sarcasm. No man possessed a more vitriolic tongue than he. There are so many anecdotes of this famous man that they would fill a goodly sized book.

When he had first begun the practice of law he was present at a sale where a poor widow was being dispossessed of her few effects for non-payment of rent. Among the articles was a sugar bowl containing sugar. The heartless landlord insisted that the bowl and its contents should be offered for sale. The distressed widow protested that the sugar be exempt. The landlord appealed to Randolph who was standing nearby. The latter said, "You are perfectly within your rights, Mr. Johnson." The sale continued a few minutes longer, when Randolph tapped the landlord on the shoulder and presented a bill for ten dollars. "Why," said the landlord, "What is the meaning of this?" "For legal advice," said Randolph, "and I want the money forthcoming, else there will be no further sale." The ten dollars were paid, and Randolph said to the widow, "Here, madam, take this and fill another sugar bowl."

On one occasion he was traveling through Virginia when he stopped at a wayside inn. The hostess, observing that Randolph was scrutinizing very closely the menu, and wishing to be facetious, said, "You know, Mr. R., the old saying, 'one must eat a peck of dirt in one's lifetime.'" "Quite true, madam," said Randolph, "but I prefer my peck in broken doses."

Once in Congress there was a new member for whom Randolph had taken an extreme dislike. This member was making his maiden address. He had prepared a very ornate, elaborate speech, beginning with "Mr. Speaker, I hold in my hand the credentials from the sovereign State of . . ."

There was another member of Congress for whom Randolph was laying in wait. Whenever Randolph sought to gain the floor this member would interpose by saying "Previous question." Finally Randolph gained the floor. Revenge was his. He was at his best, and he was loaded for bear. "Mr. Speaker, in the northern part of Europe those long, dreary nights, they manufacture a toy of wood and leather that by pulling a string emits a sound resembling 'tee, hee, tee hee, but the people of . . . have sent to this august assembly an individual who, upon every possible occasion, says, 'Mr. Speaker, previous question.'"

Randolph was a purist proper. A few days before his death the parson who had been visiting him fretted him by his mispronunciation of words. Randolph called the minister's attention to his error, but the latter persisted, "Mr. R." said the minister, "you should be thinking of your soul and not of correct pronunciation."

Randolph raised himself by an effort and replied "I'd rather suffer the torment of hades than hear you pronounce that word again."

ACTIVITIES AMONG OUR COLORED SUBSCRIBERS

The Pastors Aid Club of the First Baptist Church of Manassas sponsored a debate on Friday evening, December 6. The subject was: Resolved that Religion and morals are on the decline with each generation.

The Reverend A. H. S. Johnson and Dr. Stephen J. Lewis spoke for the affirmative and were opposed by two Washingtonians. The decision was reserved to individual opinion.

Supper was served afterwards in the lower auditorium by members and Mrs. M. R. Carroll, chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by her daughters.

On Friday, Dec. 6, Mrs. M. R. Carroll and daughter, Miss Lu Jean spent the day at Howard University where Miss Lu Jean took an entrance examination for the Harlem School of Nursing, under the direction of Mr. F. D. Wilkenson, later taking lunch in the teachers' dining room.

VIRGINIUS COUNCIL

A much loved Baptist preacher passes away. Funeral services were held on Saturday last at the Baptist Church for Rev. Virginius Council who died at his home at Clifton Station Dec. 4 after a lingering illness. Services were in charge of Rev. Barnett Grimsley, assisted by Revs. U. S. Knox of Falls Church, Gerald H. Payne of Portsmouth, Va., J. Murray Taylor of Manassas, Gerald Moore of Norfolk, and T. D. D. Clark of Manassas.

The presence of twelve of his brother ministers, the large crowd of friends and the beautiful floral display attest the esteem in which he was held.

Beside his wife, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. George H. Rucker of Clarendon, Va., and Mrs. James G. Ridd of Norfolk, Va., and two children, Mrs. David J. Carver of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Judson Council of Clifton Station, Va. Beneath the lovely flowers his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Fairfax.

GIRLS SUCCEEDING IN BUSINESS

Virginia Report Shows They are Replacing Men.

Virginia women have increased their participation in business "and to some extent have displaced male workers or, at least, lessened the opportunities for their employment," a report on a study by the State Planning Board asserted yesterday.

The national shift of women from domestic service and farm work to clerical and professional jobs during the last 30 years was reflected in this State, the board's researchers discovered.

The number of female nurses was found to have increased 20 times in the past 30 years. The large number of young women who entered this field, as well as teaching, was chiefly responsible for an increase in those in the professional service from 7,770 to 25,277 in three decades.

The number of Virginia women teachers tripled in the same period.

All in all, the number of women employed increased 2 per cent.

The board's study showed that in 1900 there were 22,729 Virginia women employed on farms, while 74,169 were in domestic and personal service. Only 16,429 were employed by industry. Today the number of women in agriculture has dropped from 18.1 per cent of the total number employed to 10 per cent; in personal service from 59.1 per cent to 38.5 per cent.

Virginia women in clerical occupations were numbered at 1,485 in 1900, while in 1930 there were 21,041 of such employees. Those in professional service grew from 7,770 to 25,277. Those in trade increased from 2,354 to 11,384, and those listed in the transportation and communication field from 358 to 3,139.

The number of men employed as clerical workers arose from 2.4 per cent to 3.7 per cent, or from 12,736 to 25,487 in the same period. The total of men in personal and domestic work decreased from 76,110 to 25,181, or almost two-thirds. The number of agricultural workers dropped off sharply, but industry in 1930 was employing twice as many as in 1900.

"These exhibits show quite clearly the changed system of social organization in so far as this system is indicated by the means of making a living," the report declared.

CENTREVILLE

On Sunday night last about 9:30 Mr. William Yowell who has operated a filling station at Willow Spring for over a year, heard his burglar alarm ringing. Starting for the scene of the trespassing his signal was previous for Mrs. Yowell turned on the floodlight too quickly, thus allowing the robbers to escape. Mr. Yowell, who is considered a fair shot, fired five times and is known to hit one of the men. Washington police are investigating the criminals in Washington and believe they have a clue. Sheriff Kirby has been working in close co-operation with them and has a fair chance of detecting the criminals. Other filling station men in this locality are said to be following Mr. Yowell's suit in protecting themselves.

Mr. Ira Byrnes, age 54 and a life-long resident of this locality, died at his home at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning after a brief illness of pneumonia. Besides his widow, who was a Miss Payne of Warrenton, he leaves several children and grandchildren. Funeral services were held yesterday from his late home.

Mrs. Katie Groves has returned to the community and is boarding with Mrs. Eva Utterback. Mrs. Groves is an earnest church and civic worker and the community is glad to welcome her return.

Home

IT IS safe to say that there are few people to whom the thought of home is not dear. I stand to companionship, affection, shelter place where one can throw off the cares of the world and pursue one's own bent unhindered. It provides opportunity for mutual consideration unselfishness, and reciprocal respect for the feelings and opinions of others perhaps afforded in no other way.

A home is indeed a sacred trust. There is probably nothing in our human experience whose influence is more formative. The right home atmosphere can do a great deal to offset inimical outside influences. Its training can help to plant integrity and uprightness in the youthful heart. Indeed, there are not many who can shake off in after life the effects of a godly childhood home.

Moreover, the atmosphere of a beautiful home is felt far beyond its own immediate precincts. People are naturally drawn to a household where happiness and harmony reign. Having entered it, they can go their way with new inspiration, mentally refreshed and encouraged, and thus better equipped to deal with their own individual problems. Such a home may truly become as "the shadow of a great rock in a weary land."

Dear as home associations are, however, to those who can constantly share them, they are perhaps still more dear to those who are compelled to pass much or most of their time away from such companionships. Today business conditions apparently demand that a vast number of individuals shall spend many months of the year away from home. Not alone is this the case, but the occupation of many necessitates constant travel, a continual moving from place to place which forbids any settled sojourn for protracted periods of time. Such a mode of living may tend to become somewhat unsettling, and may even engender a false sense of freedom from certain responsibilities.

No matter what a person's earthly location may be, he who has grasped the fact of his spiritual at-onement with God knows that in reality he is always at home, dwelling in "the secret place of the most High," constantly enfolded by the Father's love and care. Furthermore, he realizes that this same love and care also surrounds those who are dear to him, even though many leagues may lie between them, for there can be no actual separation when thought is at one with the understanding of spiritual reality.

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, has expressed this thought most beautifully in one of her much loved hymns, where in speaking of the ever-presence of Infinite Love she writes (Poems, p. 4):

"His habitation high is here, and high,
His arm encircles me, and mine,
and all."

It is impossible to estimate the number of people to whom these lines have brought succor from anxious thought, replacing any troubled sense with reassurance and comfort when time and space have seemed to separate them from those dear to them. The same arm of tender, omnipotent care enfolded all! Surely such confidence, with its promise of no division, no severance, its assurance of but the one household of God held in His tender care, is worth striving for and attaining!

The effect of realizing that man as the spiritual idea or child of God is always at home in divine consciousness, cannot be overestimated. It supplies a new standard for ethics and morals. It provides a plumb line for righteous thinking and living by which each suggestion or situation can be appraised. It is an impregnable defense against temptation. Moreover, this realization of true manhood engenders genuine self-respect, supplies poise and balance, and imparts a consciousness of dominion over material conditions which can be gained in no other way. The assurance that "His habitation high is here, and high," and that every moment we can mentally abide in this secret place of Love's dwelling and there know the true sense of home, heals all feeling of loneliness or isolation. . . . —The Christian Science Monitor.
