The sum of $5.00 was donated for Christmas baskets to be given to needy families. The cost of renovating a chair, property of local Rest Room was also donated.

Mrs. Katie Lewis Burkes was voted in as new member of club. Mrs. Viola Proffitt's name was proposed for membership.

The corresponding secretary was instructed to write a letter to the Manassas Journal thanking them for their hearty co-operation in publishing proceedings of the monthly club meetings.

Mrs. T. J. Broadus, in charge of the program, opened by singing "Joy to the World" and "Hark the Herald Angel Sing" assisted by the Herald Angel Sing, assisted by the Herald Angel Sing, assisted by the Herald Angel Sing.

The musical feature of several appropriate songs were pleasingly rendered by the three little Sadd sisters, accompanied by their grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Sadd, on the piano. The closing song, "Auld Lang Syne," by the assembly with Miss Florence Kincheloe, piano accompanist.

The social hour was most enjoyable. The hostess were assisted in serving by Mrs. Walter Sadd and her daughters and Mrs. Fred Gue who were guests of the club.

Mrs. W. S. Athey and Mrs. R. L. Byrd will be January hostesses.

ASSEMBLY BALL DECEMBER 27

Miss Lynch Announces That Plans Are About Completed.

The annual Assembly Ball given by the Woman's Club of Manassas will be held at the gymnasium on the evening of December 27.

This affair which was instituted by the club several years ago, originally designed to aid the charitable and civic enterprises of the club, has become one of the most widely known social events in northern Virginia. The crowd which attends usually numbers several hundred, many coming from distant points.

The hall is being given its annual decorative treatment by a committee with Mrs. Mylander and Mrs. Parrish in charge. The invitations which have already been sent out, were penned by Mrs. Paul Arrington and Mrs. W. F. Cocke. A widely known orchestra will be on hand for the occasion to guarantee an enjoyable evening for the merry-makers.

Miss Margaret Lynch is general chairman. She has been directing arrangements for the past two weeks and everything is now in order.

The season at which this is given is not only one for general festivity but it affords a home-coming for many of the young people who will be here for the Christmas holidays as well as former residents and their friends who reside elsewhere.

MANASSAS BOYS STEER GOOD TEAM

"Buck" Albrite Is Assistant Manager.

The most successful football season in many years has just ended at the Shenandoah Valley Academy, Winchester, Va. Coach Walter W. Fraley (ex-captain, Davidson, '30), brought the academy team through 8 hard games without an injury and with the exceptional record of seven victories and one tie. The same eleven players who started the first game of the season on October 5 also started the last game on Thanksgiving Day. The various coaches who saw the team play remarked on the speed, accuracy, hard blocking and hard tackling of the cadets. A team with very few substitutes played football which was practically in the college class.

The record of the season of 1935 is as follows:

Luray High School 0, S.V.A. 13
Mt. Jackson Independents 0, S 6
Va. Episcopal School 9, S.V.A. 15
St. Paul's School 2, S.V.A. 33
St. Alban's School 0, S.V.A. 7
St. James School 0, S.V.A. 20
Woodberry Forest School 0, S 0
Randolph-Macon A. O. S.V.A. 13

As a result of their outstanding work, two of the players, Charles Leyburn Sears, of Barium Springs, N. C., quarterback, and Thomas Kite, of Manassas, Va., halfback, have received strong recommendations for the Virginia Prep mythical All-State Team. One of the opposing teams, St. Paul's School of Baltimore, Md., selected four of the cadets for their All Opponent Team.

As can be seen from the record, the academy's goal line was uncrossed in eight games. Only in one game that with Woodberry Forest, was their offense held in check and that on a wet field in a driving rain. The school is very proud of their 1935 football squad for the wonderful team spirit and ability shown by the cadets.

The Dramatics Club of the Manassas High School will give a Christmas program tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 p.m. A very attractive playlet entitled "Merry Christmas by Accident" under the direction of Esther Akers, Virginia Hurst and Cleveland Fisher, will be given. The public is invited to attend.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN FARMER OF SUDLEY

Mr. Ira E. O'Meara, 58, son of Thomas R. O'Meara, a Confederate soldier, and Nancy A. Buckley O'Meara, died at the Warrenton Hospital last Thursday at 5:30 p.m. He was buried from the M. E. Church, Sudley, Saturday at 2 p.m.

Mr. O'Meara belonged to one of the old families at Sudley where his entire life was spent. He was a prosperous farmer, a good church worker, and a kind neighbor.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Maude O'Meara, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. John Buckley of Centreville, Va. and two sons, Raymond R. of Chatham, Va., and Stonewall who lives at home.

Mr. O'Meara had been ill for several months.

A large number of friends extend their loving sympathy to the bereaved family.

BENNETT PUPILS ENTERTAIN PATRONS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Bennett School Community League the patrons were entertained by an attractive Christmas program presented by Miss Lorice Carter's third grade.

The health and sanitation committees reported hot lunches are being served daily to 75 underprivileged children and with the co-operation of other organizations the league will continue to serve them all winter.

Arrangements have been made with our local dentists to start dental corrections when school opens in January.

The attendance banner was won by Miss Carter's third grade.

After the meeting the patrons visited the classrooms which were decorated with lovely Christmas trees.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

We thank many kind friends who have so generously paid their subscriptions recently and we hope that other friends of The Journal may see their way clear to do likewise.

We enjoy a little Christmas, too.

PETITIONS OUT FOR ROUTE 234

Chamber of Commerce Sponsors Hard Surfacing of Important Road.

At the December meeting of the Manassas - Prince William County Chamber of Commerce, which was held at Occoquan, Thursday, December 12, this body went on record as sponsoring the relocation and hard-surfacing of State Highway No. 234 from Dumfries to Gilbert's Filling Station, at which point this road intersects Route No. 50. Petitions, addressed to the Virginia State Highway Commission, requesting and urging that this work be done are being circulated and have been posted at various points in the county. The Chamber plans to send a large delegation of citizens on from this county call upon the Commissioners during the early part of the year to present these petitions and ask that funds be allocated for this road.

Before taking up the regular business of the meeting the Manassas High School orchestra played several numbers. This being the first public appearance, the orchestra gave a very fine performance under the direction of Miss Harriett Bozarth. Stanley Harpine and Raymond Davis, both students of the Manassas High School, debated the question "Resolved: That the Manassas Prince William County Chamber of Commerce is an asset to the County." Mrs. Janie Abel, C. E. Nash and W. S. Lynn acted as judges of the contest. Both sides presented their arguments in a most creditable manner, Mr. Harpine being declared winner by the judges.

POSSIBILITIES OF REHABILITATION

The Rehabilitation program which was made possible by Congress and ordered set up by the President, is perhaps not as well known as the other branches of the Relief program.

In almost every community are to be found farm families who, because of unfortunate circumstances, are not financially solvent but are, nevertheless, industrious and deserve a chance to prove their worth. The Resettlement Administration hopes that through small loans, coupled with supervision, many of those unfortunate families may be enabled to become self-supporting. These loans are extended to enable destitute farmers to purchase seed, fertilizer, work animals and other things on the farm, and in some cases loans cover cost of food for the winter months.

The loans carry interest charges of 5 per cent and from three to five years to pay in. Persons eligible may be defined as follows: Farm owners, farm tenants, share-croppers, farm laborers, and other persons with farming experience without credit and who are found by the local supervisors to bear good reputations and show evidence of initiative and industry.

The administration is ready to put these loans out immediately and anyone interested should get in touch at once with the local Relief office or the Resettlement supervisor, Mr. Percival A. Lewis, Manassas, Va., who is in charge of the work in Fairfax and Prince William Counties.

MISS TRUSLER AND MR. OWENS HONOR GUESTS

Miss Janet Trusler and Mr. Stanley Owens were the guests in whose honor Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bond entertained at a dinner party last Saturday evening at Harvard Hall in Washington preceding the dance at Hay Adams House.

Major and Mrs. E. N. Leard are entertaining at dinner this week at their home on Massachusetts avenue in honor of the young couple.

KIWANIS CLUB READY FOR XMAS

Last Meeting Featured Ed Hill and Company.

Ed Hill, Kiwanis International trustee, and a group of his sidekicks from the Washington Club, chose Friday the 13th to help the local club to celebrate its 11th anniversary, the real anniversary date being Dec. 4.

Ed had a brand-new plan this time which he called "Capitol Ideas, Inc." the visiting club largely being the said corporation, and the Manassas club was invited to sit in with them at an experienced meeting. The only trouble with the corporation was that it did not have any money, otherwise it was "O.K." one hundred per cent.

One of the leading stunts of the evening was to disillusion the local group about Friday the 13th and when Capitol Ideas, Inc., finished it was hard to think that anything could have happened on any other date.

Jim Asher brought in a little local Scotch color and almost got in a class with O.D. Harry Kimball, former district governor, gave a recitation of the performances of the local club. Charlie Pimper, district chairman of the underprivileged children, made his usual plea for co-operation along those lines while George Small, the one-man band, gave us some very pretty Christmas music.

Several others of the visitors spoke all in a cheery and encouraging fashion.

Carl Kincheloe was in a happy frame of mind over the work of the Christmas gift committee and the said Kiwanian journeyed to Washington today to make up the Santa Claus orders for next Tuesday.

No announcement has yet been made about the annual Christmas tree sing and if any is held it will be on the evening of Dec. 17.

WILLIAMS HEADS AMERICAN LEGION

Prince William Post Elects Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Prince William Post, 158, American Legion, last Thursday evening, the election of officers took place at which time Mr. Paul Scott Williams, local Manassas attorney, was named commander to head the Post for 1936, to succeed ex-Commander Howard Jamison, who has faithfully served the Post for the past year.

Other officers elected at that time were Edgar Parrish, first vice-commander; Wheatley Johnson, second vice-commander; Margaret Lynch, adjutant; Cleve Fitzwater, financial officer, and W. R. Coverstone, sergeant-at-arms.

The Post is anticipating a very active year. A membership drive will be staged at the beginning of the new year as a part of the national program. Charity benefits to be given during the year were discussed, and it is believed that the Post will prosper under its new commandship as Mr. Williams has always been quite active in the work of the Post.

HOTTE-FLAHERTY

The Methodist Parsonage of Manassas was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Friday evening when Miss Edith Flaherty and Mr. John Hottle were united in marriage, Rev. W. M. Compton officiating.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Lathe of Baltimore, is a graduate of the local high school, having been quite outstanding in athletics. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hottle, was also educated in the local schools, and is at present employed with the Pence Motor Company.

After the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the immediate families of the bride and groom, the young couple left for a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Hottle will make their home on Fairview avenue.

The windows at the Manassas Post Office will be open during the holiday rush period at the following hours:

Saturday afternoon from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday morning from 11 a.m. to 12 noon.
Christmas Day from 11 a.m. to 12 noon.

RESOLUTIONS

The Woodbine Baptist Church offered the following resolutions of respect to the late Rev. Virginius Haldane Council at a meeting held at Woodbine December 15.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to promote to higher service our friend and pastor, Rev. Virginius Haldane Council, and

Whereas, his long, efficient, and untiring services as a minister in the Baptist Church have erected to his memory monuments more enduring than any memorial his contemporaries can devise, and

Whereas, the members of this church have lost a faithful friend and pastor and the field and Association an outstanding leader, who with unselfish devotion and untiring zeal gave his life to the members of his churches,

Therefore be it resolved:

That we, the members of Woodbine Baptist Church, do humble bow in submission to the will of the All Wise Providence, realizing that deeds, not words, will count when to the throne of God we mount and meet our Savior face to face.

That we express our deepest sympathy to the family and friends.

Further be it resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, published in The Manassas Journal and written in the minutes of the Woodbine Baptist Church.

Respectfully submitted,
C. F. WHITMER,
PAULINE SMITH,
Committee.

CHRISTMAS

By Inno McGill

Undimmed by the ages through which it has passed, the radiance of Christmas is with us again, gladdening with ineffable joy the hearts of young and old and lending a transcending beauty to this drab world of ours. Under the wonderful spell of Christmas, the world no longer seems its sordid self, but something new animated by fine impulses and untouched by human selfishness.

What a transformation is wrought by this day! It is the one time of the year when men and women are at their best; above the pursuits of meanness toward their fellowmen. In some subtle way, love holds sway over the hearts of men. The world is infinitely richer and better for Christmas.

To have been the dwelling place of the Son of God, is a glory that our little earth can never lose; a glory that imparts to it a distinction no other star in the universe can boast of. It is not surprising, then, that the day commemorating the birth of the Saviour should thrill the heart of man and bring to the world a splendor in which all may share, for on this day the human race was lifted up to kinship with God Himself and privileged beyond understanding.

The hopes of humanity are securely anchored while the memory of Christmas survives. To lose the brightness of the Christmas message, the world would be plunged into darkness and despair. But this unspeakable calamity can never occur; because nothing can undo what took place that night in Bethlehem to which choirs of angels bore witness. Re-echoing throughout the world in the tongue of every nation, at this glad season, are the heavenly words: "Glory to God in the Highest and Peace on Earth to Men of Good Will," heralding the birth of man's Redeemer in the Stable of Bethlehem. That message finds response at Christmas in the hearts of all Christians, and sweet refrain in the music of every church dedicated to the worship of God.

Christmas is the children's time. To save this glorious day for them, they must be fortified with sweet faith in the Babe Divine. We cannot retain Christmas and its blessings without belief in the divinity of Christ. As well might we attempt to keep the fragrance of the flower without the blossom from which it emanates. The fragrance and the sweetness of Christmas will be lost if faith in Christ be not preserved.

Only through the coming of Christ was the earth made a safe and happy place for childhood; for only then did love become an active power.

We must keep Christmas for the world, because the world needs Christmas for its happiness, for its peace and for its children.

MR. W. P. WILSON

Passed away in the early morning of Friday, the 13th, instant, William Parker Wilson, of "Woodrow" in Upper Prince William.

Mr. Wilson was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson of "Enfield" in the same county. He was born in Harford County, Md., as the Wilsons came to Virginia from there some years after the War Between the States. It would seem that William Parker Wilson combined the best traits of the Marylander and the Virginian. He was a singularly upright man, exemplary in all the relations of life; a valuable member of the Episcopal Church and an active worker in the Sunday school at Grace Chapel, of which he was long superintendent. He married, when quite young, Miss Frances Hutchison of "Little River" in Loudoun, and she was the mother of his three children. Several years after her death he married Miss Anna Selina Taylor, who survives him. He passed away after a long and trying illness, and was buried on Sunday last on the Taylor lot in the Manassas cemetery.

Mr. Wilson had many friends. Among those who owed him a debt of gratitude were the members of the Eighth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C. His liberal help when money was needed for the Memorial Hall at Hickory Grove made possible the early construction of that building.

The beautiful service at Trinity Church on Sunday was conducted by three clergymen who were former pastors of Mr. Wilson: Mr. Gibson of Trinity, Mr. Campbell Mayers of Middleburg and Aldie, and Mr. Carpenter of St. Paul's, Haymarket. The music was sweet, and all were much impressed by Luther's splendid hymn, "A Mountain Fortress is our God," sung as a solo by Miss Klara Wahnschaffe, who had so faithfully nursed Mr. Wilson in his last illness. Attendance was large, and the flowers were many and beautiful. All were glad when the rain which had been falling held up for the cemetery service.

Among the survivors of Mr. Wilson are his brother, Mr. Christopher Wilson of Fauquier, and a sister, Mr. John Adams of "Enfield," also his two living children, Mrs. Herbert Sowers of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Francis Wilson of "Woodrow" in the Hickory Grove neighborhood, where his father will be long missed.

The reception will follow at the bride's home on South Main street.

Miss Trusler has chosen for her matron of honor Mrs. Warren G. Keith of Rock Hill, S. C., and as her maid of honor, Miss Hilda Moser of Manassas. The junior bridesmaids will be Misses Virginia and Janet Newman, cousins of the bride. The senior bridesmaids will be Miss Wilbenta Buswell of Lumberton, N. C.; Miss Connie Fowler of Houston, Tex.; Miss Margaret Plummer of Gaithersburg, Md., and Mrs. R. Jackson Ratcliffe of Manassas.

Mr. Hubert Owens of Athens, Ga., will be the best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Robert Ridgway of Madison, Ga.; Mr. Wm. Trusler, brother of the bride; Mr. Phillip Slaughter of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. Carlyle G. Dyer of Washington; Judge Wm. Hill Brown and Mr. R. Jackson Ratcliffe of Manassas.

ANENT THE XMAS PRIZES

In order to relieve the minds of those who are interested in the drawings to be held for the cash prizes on Christmas Eve, the merchants' committee has announced that while the number of prizes to be allotted will not allow much time between drawings that the numbers will be called repeatedly in order to give anyone a reasonable distance from the booth a chance to get his number checked up.

All of the numbers will be drawn by some little girl, most likely from the town. A large Christmas tree is being set up to add to the general attractiveness of the scene.

The drawings will take place on the front steps of the hotel and not at the town hall as some had been informed. A real live Santa Claus will be on the job to help the young lady draw the numbers and to call them off.

SCHOOL IS OUT!

With the closing of the county schools tomorrow a season of festivities and a holiday generally will ensue until the reopening of school on Thursday, January 2.

An elaborate program is being staged at the Brown colored school tonight and tomorrow and tomorrow evening will see exercises of some sort in practically every other school in the county.

The biggest piece of news from school circles is that the final inspection of the Haymarket school was made today and January 2 will see use of the new quarters. This will indeed mark an epoch in that old-time neighborhood.

Most of the county faculty will return to their homes in other counties, but some will remain here over the holidays.

CENTREVILLE

The annual Christmas tree service will be held at St. John's Church Sunday afternoon. The congregation is invited to use the tree for the distribution of gifts among each other and for the Rector.

The pupils of the graded school will present a Christmas play tomorrow afternoon.

The Bank Check

—is one of the most efficient of modern business devices.

OVER ninety per cent of all the business of the nation is carried on by means of bank credit. It is in the form of deposits which are transferred by checks in settlement of business transactions, ranging from a few dollars to several million dollars.

For large amounts and small, for short errands within the Community, and long ones to distant points, the bank check performs its work swiftly, surely, safely and economically. In addition, bank checks help in the book-keeping of those who use them and establish a legal record of payments.

These business services are available to you through a checking account at this bank.

A PERILOUS NIGHT AT SEA

Mr. Editor:

Many times when I am sleeping in a warm, comfortable bed-room in my old boyhood home here, where four generations have lived and are buried, I fancy I still hear that doleful shrill whistle, "All hands on deck," supplemented by "Stand by to save ship." Imagine a wintry morning in January, 300 miles off the coast of South Carolina, caught in an 80-mile hurricane, the sea washing everything portable before it, and when it struck the sides of the ship it sounded like a score of cannons.

I had been on watch from 8 to 12 midnight, a most strenuous watch, drenched to the bone, and had gone below to change my clothes, when the boatswain's whistle, long, shrill and piercing, sounded. The barometer was falling, the wind biting cold and the cooking gear was functioning. Huge tin receptacles containing hot coffee were strung on iron rods and we would dip quart tin cups into the coffee and grab a few hard tack and call it a meal.

The captain was on the bridge 24 hours without relief, a good sailor, and a Christian. We were bound from Norfolk, Va., to Barbadoes, West Indies, and we were happy in thinking we should spend the winter in a warm clime. On the third day after the storm abated we made Charleston, S. C., where we were ordered to Halifax, N. S., and after remaining there two weeks were ordered to St. John, Newfoundland. There we took on board a big pine box containing the remains of a naval officer who had been buried ashore the year previous, and was to be carried to Washington, D. C., for burial.

We were to take part in the dedicating ceremonies of General Thomas' statue, and I have passed that statue thousands of times since, but never without reverting to the time I presented arms, and stood at attention at 14th and Mass. Ave.

The people of old Alexandria, Va., did not know what to make of 3 warships lying off their town. After reaching the ship there was a joyous surprise awaiting me, for my discharge was awaiting me, and that, too, at my home town, Alexandria, Va.

I had seen the mountainous waves off Cape of Good Hope, Cape Horn, but that one cruise I had just finished surpassed them all. Our Captain did not go with us on our northern passage but another captain took his place. We lost one lifeboat, the deck house, and had half the crew on sick list, the other half cursing the remains of the naval officer for being the cause of sending us to Newfoundland in the middle of a very severe winter.

There were eight of us in the party in Newfoundland, and what we had gone through made us intent upon getting all the pleasure obtainable. All the males of the island were sailors and fishermen, and the majority of them were at sea. We put up at a tavern run by a fisherman's wife and daughter, their name was Ray, and Maggie was pretty. When we went ashore we had 48 hours liberty, and had we gone back to the ship when our liberty was up everything would have been o.k., but we did not and that night the ice came in from the sea precluding our return, and for 5 days we had a good time, not realizing that we would pay dearly for our holiday. On the 6th day two strapping island officers came in, took our names and said there was a small steamer waiting at the dock to take us back to the ship, and it would cost us $20.00 each for we were absent without leave. I carried Maggie's picture over many miles of salt water after this.

Very respectfully,
Geo. Davis Duty Seaman.

A Northern Virginia Livestock Meeting will be held at the Front Royal High School auditorium from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, December 21.

Dairy Farmers' Conference Week.

A Dairy Farmers' Short Course, to be held at Blacksburg, has been announced for February 18, 19, 20 and 21. Discussions and lectures will include such problems as, breeding up a dairy herd for production and type; herd sire selection; diseases of dairy cattle and their control; dairy cattle management problems; improving pastures and lengthening the grazing season; production of dairy cattle feeds; feeding cows in milk, dry cows, bulls, heifers and calves.

The course is planned for those who can spend a limited time away from home.

Brooder House Plans.

Many brooder houses will be built in the county between now and spring. Plans and bill of materials for houses, used and approved by leading poultrymen, will be supplied promptly upon request.

Poultry Lice.

Too many of the poultry flocks in the county are badly infested with lice. When being constantly irritated by these pests, they can hardly be expected to lay. Sodium fluoride, most of the commercial powders and nicotine sulphate, when properly used, will control lice. Ask for your copy of the 68-page booklet, "Diseases and Parasites of Poultry."

CATHARPIN

Try this one on your radio: A "suburban" resident called an "urban" resident of Catharpin to ask if the paper boy had arrived when the following conversation or dialogue took place—

Sub: "Hello—I wonder if we will get the paper today?"

Urb: "O yes! the paper boy is in town now." Now mind you; the imagination of some people—town.

It was with a touch of sadness that we read in the Waterfall letter that "Oakshade," for so long the residence of the Shirleys, would be closed, and feel that the loss of this old family shall be keenly felt by neighbors and friends far beyond the immediate neighborhood in which they lived and wrought.

Mr. Henry Supplee and son of New Jersey left Saturday for home after spending a few days on the "Game Preserves" around Catharpin. This was their second trip of the season and we suppose, much to their chagrin, were rained out both times. That is why we call it a "game preserve" because the rains undoubtedly saved many a bird and rabbit from duty in the culinary department.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Sapp of Gainesville and Mrs. Cummings and daughter, Miss Clara Grayce McGovern of Falls Church, Va., were dinner guests at Oakwood on Wednesday of last week. Miss McGovern closed a week's evangelistic service in the Gainesville Church on Sunday night last.

Miss Dora Anderson of near Catharpin, who has been under the doctor's care for several days, is reported better as we write.

Next Sunday the Sudley Church school will hold its annual Christmas exercises in the church at 11 o'clock at which time the regular collection for the Home at Gaithersburg will be taken. The very bad roads and weather of the past two weeks have interfered very materially with the preparation for this annual event, but barring the impossible, the program will be rendered as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Merchant and children of Alexandria and Mr. and Mrs. Shelton of Manassas were Sunday visitors at Marble Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale attended the funeral of Mrs. Margaret L. Robertson, widow of the late Powhatan W. Robertson, at Little Georgetown Cemetery on Saturday, December 14. The Powhatan Robertsons were long residents of Washington but since 1923 have lived at Owatunka, near Keswick, Va.

Many in the Sudley neighborhood were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Ira O'Meara of near Fairview Church, who was buried in the Sudley cemetery on Friday, December 13, after services conducted by a former pastor, the Rev. Homer Welsh of Fairfax, assisted by Rev. A. B. Sapp, pastor of the church. Mr. O'Meara was well known to many who regret his passing.

Well by the time this reaches our "many readers," Christmas will be "just around the corner" so we take this opportunity to wish you all one of the happiest, best and most abundant Christmas you ever had. During this season it seems every one, the country over, is ready, willing and glad to wish one and all, neighbor and friend, rich and poor, far and near, a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We wonder if any of you ever stopped to think just how often during this festive occasion, you have had that happy salutation wished upon you; and how often you, yourself, have wished it upon others? And did you enjoy the process? Did you like it? Did it make you feel better? Did you feel a nearness to friend and neighbor greater than at other times during the year? In other words, did you enjoy it all? Well we know exactly what your answer would be.

Now the thought occurs that if it is a pleasant and enjoyable during these eight days of kindly feeling and thinking, would it not be just as enjoyable during the other 357 if we could only train ourselves to think that way? Thanksgiving and Christmas seem to call us back to the sweet things of life, when good wishes are floating around everywhere and all is jolly, peaceful and friendly; why can we not keep it up? We form good resolutions every year and honestly think we are going to keep them, but alas and alack, by Groundhog Day there is hardly a trace of those bright and shiny oracles left to even identify the cause of their adoption. Is there then not a happy medium some place between too much of a good thing in one place and not enough in another, so that our good cheer, good works, good intentions, kindly spirit, helpfulness and sentiment could be distributed all along the Pathway of Life so that the Spirit of Him who gave us "Peace and Goodwill" might be the legacy of all mankind throughout the year? Wouldn't this be a happy world if that were only true? So here again A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

Mr. F. H. May is improving slowly from a broken leg which he received about two weeks ago while hauling fodder. Dr. Martin is waiting on him.
