FUN FEATURES ALUMNI DINNER

Grads of Many Classes on Hand.

The annual alumni banquet of Manassas High on Saturday evening was the usual source of renewed joy and inspiration for the various classes all way back to '94, which was represented.

Prior to the "eat", President Jum Davies read the results of the nominating committee reports, and ballots were distributed. Later in the evening, with much laborious effort, the future steering squad was named as follows: president, Mrs. P. A. Lewis; vice-president, Mr. Edward Dalton; secretary, Miss Nancy Lynn; treasurer, Miss Irma Ball. Executive Committee, Mrs. A. A. Hooff and Mr. H. T. Davies, Jr.

On motion of Miss Speiden, Professor R. Worth Peters was elected an associate member of the alumni.

The gathering was labeled this year as the "Alumni Inn Convention of 1936." Jack Holt Merchant was the forensic artist behind much of the evening's activities, and he himself took part in and operated several of the torture scenes.

Well, to start things, "Rev" OD. gave the blessing which was followed by singing of "Alma Mater" and the march of the newly fledged grads and then the undergrads hauled out some fine courses from the home economics room. OD was very happy—and why not? Admiral Waters had just arrived a few minutes before, fresh from a three year cruise.

The class yells were just a generation apart—'05 with four members, Rev. Joe Gulick, Wheatley Johnson, Miss Ruth Smith and Dr. Elizabeth Johnson came through in their usual style, followed by '26 with more numbers but not a bit more volume.

Cleveland Fisher showed his ability on the ivories (not the kind Wheatley and OD were fooling with) while the infernal set-up was being arranged. Only one flaw in the scheme was the failure of New Bradford to take his post as desk clerk but Lucy Gibson, of '35 filled in the part with plenty of pep. Jum, as the landlady, Walser, as the PBX operator, and as before mentioned, the said Jack Holt Merchant, all looked mighty cute in their bell hop caps and other finery. They liked the cap idea so much that they made this the official symbol later, presenting same to Raymond Davis, class president.

"1936" was NOW on the spot. In turn the following were lined up for mentality tests, futuristic designs, and any other idiosyncracies which happened along; Raymond Davis, Charles Bauserman, Dickson Morris.

The cracker test was used on them in a very satisfactory manner.

Next, Margaret White and Ruby Russell came in for their share (Ruby got shot at twice). In rapid succession came Mildred Parrish, Virginia Newman, Stanley Harpine, Louise Kincheloe, Esther Akers and others.

Professor Hayden then conducted the last quiz of their scholastic career in the home town. It was passed with credit.

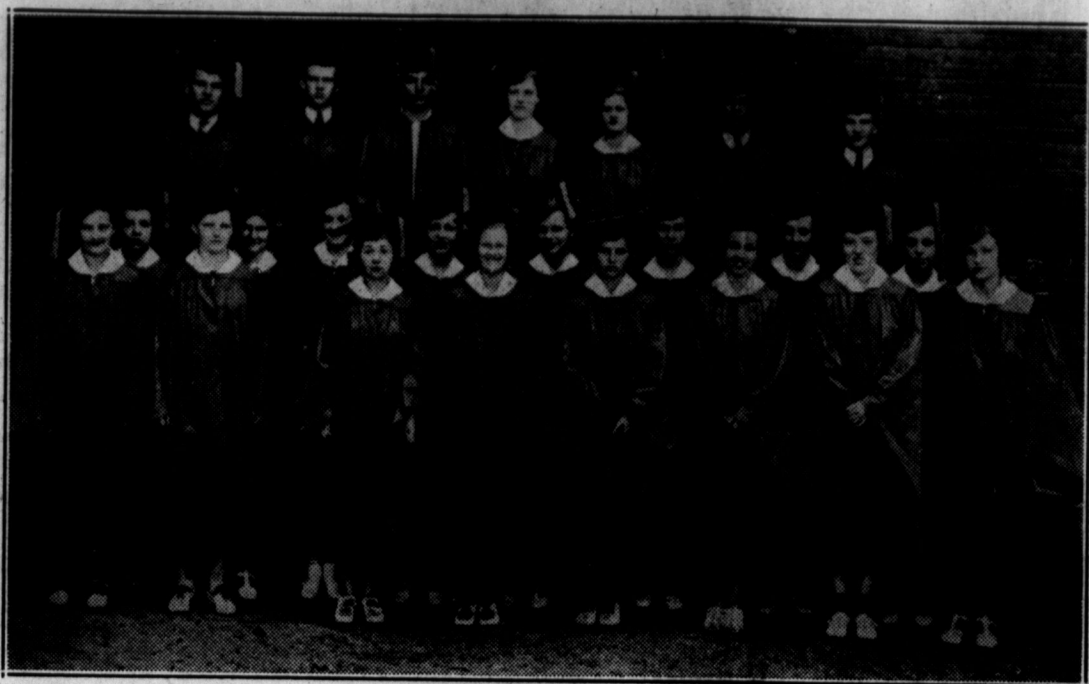

1936 showed very creditably under fire and the motion to receive them into the fold was accepted with much enthusiasm.

It was with genuine regret that the time for toasts and the singing of the parting song had arrived. Incidentally, during the evening, the customary thirty second silent observation for the deceased was observed, with "Taps" on the piano by Miss Virginia Speiden.

The guests who attended were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Waters, Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, Mrs. H. T. Davies, H. Thornton Davies, Kathryn Boorman, Mrs. E. D. Williamson, Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, Norma R. Davies, J. B. Johnson, Sarah Pitts, Wheatley M. Johnson, Dorothy Johnson, W. M. Hayden, Ruth P. Smith, Mrs. Fontaine B. Hooff, R. C. Haydon, R. Worth Peters, Mrs. R. C. Haydon, Elizabeth F. MISS CONNER RECEIVES HONOR

Chosen to Represent Virginia Democracy at Philadelphia.

On Friday, June 5, Miss Walser Conner was chosen by Congressman Howard W. Smith to represent the State of Virginia on a trip to Philadelphia, Pa., in the interest of the Democratic National Committee. The object of the trip was to present Mayor Wilson with the first edition of the Democratic Convention Program as a token of appreciation of the Democratic Party for the effort and interest he has taken in making it possible for the party to hold its convention in that city. Each of the forty-eight states was represented by a young woman chosen by a congressman, and the party was headed by Mrs. Emma Miller, Committee-woman from Pennsylvania.

The group of young ladies left Union Station for Philadelphia on a special train at 9 o'clock Friday morning. Upon their arrival at Philadelphia they marched the short distance to the City Hall, and as each of them was dressed in white they attracted quite a bit of attention from the Quaker City people. At the City Hall they were greeted by the mayor and other dignitaries and then presented the mayor with the beautifully bound program. The book was quite a beautiful one, having been autographed by President Roosevelt, and contained pictures of all of the leading Democrats and also a complete illustrated history of the City of Philadelphia. Mrs. Miller made an impressive presentation speech and was thanked by Mayor Wilson in an equally impressive manner. After having posed for numerous pictures the young ladies were given a police escort to the Penn Athletic Club where they had lunch. They then returned to the station for the trip home and arrived in Washington at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Miss Conner reports a delightful time, not only because of the honor of having represented Virginia and met and talked with the Mayor of Philadelphia, but mostly because of the pleasant association she had with the young ladies from every state in the union. She gave the mayor a cordial invitation to visit Virginia and impressed him with the fact that it was the finest state of all.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS FOR YEAR

Civic Group Adjourns for Vacation Period.

The last meeting of the Woman's Club prior to the summer vacation was held yesterday afternoon at the Manassas High School. This was also the first meeting of the Club for the coming year and the entire afternoon was turned over to the plans for the year's work.

Mrs. T. J. Broadbuss, general program chairman, outlined her setup for the year, included in which will be several quite outstanding speakers who will be present at the various meetings during the year.

Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Garden Section chairman, gave an outline of the plans of this phase of work and announced that an attractive feature this year would be a talk by Miss Nancy Byrd Turner who will visit the Club next spring. This group has also planned a trip over Skyland Drive to study the artistic and beautiful natural scenery. They are also planning a fall flower show which is quite new in Manassas.

The Music Section under the supervisions of Miss Virginia Speiden has promised a musical program for each meeting and as Miss Speiden is so well informed on this subject it is felt that this year's program from the study of music will be very valuable.

Mrs. Fred R. Hynson, chairman of the Literary Section, has divided her program into two parts, current events and book reviews.

Mr. W. F. Cocke, secretary of the Prince William Chamber of Commerce was present and presented each member of the Club with a complimentary ticket to the picture of Virginia Travelogue which will be presented at the Dixie Theater June 19, at 7:00 p. m.

The delegates, who attended the state meeting held in Fredericksburg last month, gave a very good resume of the meeting, and the local Club received from this much valuable information.

The budget for the year, as prepared by the Executive Board, was presented and adopted. Miss Mary Lynch of the Junior Club also presented an outline of their club work during the past year and stated that Miss Walser Conner, the new president, was arranging a very active program for the coming year.

Miss Jessie Conner gave several vocal selections and was accompanied by Mrs. John Broadbuss.

Following the program delicious refreshments were served. The hostesses were Mrs. Paul Cooksey, chairman; Mrs. R. C. Bowers, Mrs. John Hitchcock, Mrs. John Barrett, Mrs. Paul Arrington.

This meeting was in charge of the garden section, and the assembly hall was a profusion of beautiful flowers that had been grown in the various local gardens and were quite artistically arranged.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TO MEET AT PURCELLVILLE

The annual meeting of Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to Potomac Association will meet in Purcellville Baptist Church on Thursday and Friday, June 18 and 19. HONOR STUDENTS ARE ORATORS Haymarket Graduation Featured by Student Addresses.

Eleven diplomas were awarded to the members of the graduating class at Haymarket High School on Wednesday night, June 3. Instead of the customary speaker, the oratorical side of the program was handled by the honor students of the class. Forrest Sinclair was first honor student of the group, while second honors belonged to Virginia Ankers.

The class speakers gave vivid discussions of varied phases of their school life. Forrest Sinclair, valedictorian, explained how the school fits the student mentally, socially and spiritually for participation in the life which he meets after graduation. Virginia Ankers, salutatorian, showed what the new building really means to the school children. "The Relation of Biology to Character" was the subject handled by Betty Templeton, third honor student.

LIBRARY NOTICE

The Ruffner-Carnegie Library at Manassas High School will be open to the public through out the summer every Thursday morning from 9 to 11:30 o'clock. Two books may be borrowed at a time.

No fees charged except for the pay-shelf of recent fiction.

The Library has a good collection of standard fiction together with a number of carefully selected recent novels.

It has also a very good collection of biography including many notable contemporary biographies.

All looking forward to the Manassas Battlefield Park celebration to be held here this summer will be interested in the excellent supply of material in the library relating to the South and the Southern Confederacy. This includes history, literature, economics, social studies and biography —with Douglass Freeman's great new life of Lee—as well as a long list of Southern fiction, from the stories of Thomas Nelson Page. Mary Johnston and Ellen Glasgow to start Young's recent romance, "So Red the Rose". As a means of refreshing ones' memory of an historic period, there is no better way than to read a good novel vibrant with sympathy and understanding of that period, and the library patrons will find a number of these that are well worth reading.

SAFETY EXPERT

GUEST OF KIWANIANS

Mr. C. M. Kimball, safety engineer for the Southern Railroad, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club last Friday night.

Mr. Kimball made a dramatic appeal in the interest of common sense upon the highways and compared the high degree of efficiency of the railroad with the appalling death rate in other modes of travel.

It was a talk quite out of the usual and Al Hooff started the month off with a good program.

Frank Sigman announced that this coming Friday would be family night again.

Ed. Note: Incidentally Frank started something when he told the Clarendon boys that Amos could recite. Amos is getting numerous calls from his own club to make as good a showing as he did here.

The Kensington Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Judson Herring on May 28. Mrs. Lester Huff with Mrs. Ed Micheal will be hostess for the June meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nash and Mrs. C. H. Crowder of Wightman, Va., Mrs. James Kibler of Charles City and Mrs. J. L. Kibler of Baykin, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marshall and attended the Woman's Convention last week returning to their homes on Thursday.

Those attending the Woman's Convention from the local club were Mrs. John Flory, Mrs. Chas. Diehl, Mrs. Walter Flory, Mrs. T. N. Berryman, Mrs. Sam Whetzel, Mrs. Amos Smith, Mrs. Amos Long, Mrs. Mark Kerlin, Mrs. H. Marshall.

These club women consider it a real privilege to have been a member of such an organization in which character and high standards were that in the vast crowd only one woman outstanding features. It was noted an was seen smoking. It was also noted that the women were modest and dressed.

The demonstration on Bread Making given at the home of Mrs. Don Landis on May 27 was quite a success and a large number of club women were present.

CATHARPIN

Did you miss us last week? Well, we doubt it, but you must remember that even poor news hawks need a vacation once in a while.

The young people's organization will hold a box social in the lecture room of Sudley church on Wednesday night, June 17, beginning at early candle light to which all are cordially invited. The whole female population of the neighborhood, either single or double, are to bring with them a box of good things to eat in quantity sufficient for two. These boxes will be auctioned off and the lucky purchaser shall have the privilege of dining with the lady whose name he finds in his package. So here's a great opportunity for the men to "dine out" and get something really good to eat.

Prof. & Mrs. Sidney Lawler and daughter, Covell, of Maryland, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Carey last week.

Mrs. W. K. Caldwell of Six Acres, attended the Reception given by the First Lady in the White House last week in honor of the Home Makers organization which was in session in the Capital City at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Light of Loudoun county are the proud parents of a son recently born to that happy couple. Mrs. Light will be remembered as Miss Belva Ellison of near Catharpin.

Mrs. P. S. Buckley, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Lawler, in Maryland for some time, is now at home with her daughter, Ruth, for a several weeks' visit.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn of Catharpin spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Akers, of Rock Hill.

The Catharpin Good Housekeeping club was entertained in the home of Mrs. W. S. Brower of Lone Oak on Friday of last week. If there ever were a more happy-go-lucky organization in existence than this one this column knows it not. The "chair" began rattling the gavel at 2 p. m. Eastern Standard daylight savings time trying to get some semblance of order, but all efforts failed until about 4 p. m. when the usual delicious refreshments began to appear. This pleased the hungry but teased the "reducers." Finally by the hardest, the chairman succeeded in restoring order long enough to entertain a motion to adjourn, thus ending another very pleasant afternoon together.

Many from the Catharpin neighborhood attended the commencement exercises at the Haymarket high school last week where they found the large and commodious auditorium of that institution crowded beyond capacity with interested citizens of the district all interested in the progress of youth. The Catharpin community saw two of her daughters, Miss Ethel Hoffman and Miss Emily Polen, graduate from the high school, and four others, Muriel Ellison, Meredith and Curtis Polen and Charles Hall promoted to first year high. And so the "Story Grows."

The Misses Betty and Frances Brower and little brother Billy were guests of the Misses Rose and Betty Tribble and their little brother John on Sunday last after attending Sunday school at Sudley. These two groups are about "tit for tat" insofar as ages are concerned for both of the girls and the two boys. They are frequent visitors of each other.

This neighborhood began to get a little jittery last week due to the continued dry weather and the prospective drying up of corn fields and gardens, but Old Man Providence finally came across in fine shape, with some very much needed moisture and saved the day, so all things are now forgiven and forgotten. Peas, roasting ears and new potatoes are just around the corner and spring chicken not far away so why complain? My! how we love to brag to our neighbors about our gardens. Did you ever do it? Yes, you know bravely well you did.

Unless all signs fail, this section of Gainesville district is destined to become noted for its turkey farms since large consignments of that "peace-de-resistance" fowl are coming in almost car lots; orders of 500 day-old poulters are no exception; in fact one party is receiving 1000, all from the "Show-me" state of Missouri. This is somewhat a new experience with an old industry. The "hen" method is too slow for these days so she has been assigned the task of laying the eggs and "We will do the hatching" ourselves. One farmer last year received 100 day-old poulters and sold 91 in the fall—a record surely. This year he has received 500. Others, seeing "his good works," are doing likewise, and so "The Story Grows." Young turkeys, like the automobile must be handled properly to avoid accidents, and people seem to be learning to do that.

These are interesting days; school closings, graduations, promotions, home comings, parties, feasting, visiting former companions and just about anything one can think of is liable to happen once the young and rising generation is set free for its annual vacation. Schools are good things both to attend and get away from and jolly usually attends them at both ends with lots of good, hard work in between. So this neighborhood just now is experiencing the return of some of her daughters who have completed another year's work in college. Miss Mary Currell Pattie of this city is home from Strayers college, Washington; Miss Marguerite Latham of Snow Hill, has bid adieu temporarily, to Mary Baldwin, Staunton, and Miss Frances Robertson and Miss Virginia Piercy have returned from Harrisonburg State Teachers' College for a summer's rest; so things are now "set" for much fun and recreation during "The Good Old Summer Time" just ahead. Isn't it wonderful to look back upon those happy days of youth?

Mr. Claud Ellicott of Washington was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson of this community last Sunday.

FORD V-8 ECONOMY MEANS HIGH "Dollar Mileage"

(MORE MILES PER DOLLAR)

NO MATTER how you classify your expenditures for car up-keep—it's your total expenditure that counts. How much "dollar mileage" is your car giving you?

Dollars do go farther in the Ford V-8. Modern improved carburetion gives you unusual gasoline mileage with brilliant V-8 performance. Most owners of today's Ford change oil only every 2000 miles and add none between changes.

And after the first few thousand miles you begin to understand what Ford V-8 "dollar mileage" really means.

It gives you more miles per dollar because it gives you all-round economy—low first cost, low up-keep cost, low depreciation and long life—as well as low gasoline and oil consumption. All these are big items if you aim to buy the most economical car.

 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

A SUPREME CHALLENGE:
 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse; that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.—Malachi 3: 10.

THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

Joseph Wellington Byrns was not a great political leader. He did not evolve any new social or economic doctrines. But he will go down in congressional history as a Speaker who developed his own effective method of controlling the unwieldy popular branch of the national legislature and who used it with tact and skill, earning the gratitude of an Administration which he served loyally, and the affection of the entire membership of the House.

A lanky, almost Lincolnian figure, both in appearance and mannerism, he possessed an understanding of and a sympathy for the political perplexities of his colleagues which enabled him to deal with them as effectively as some of the famous House dictators of the past.

Speaker Byrns was not primarily concerned with the merits of Rooseveltian legislation sent to him from the White House. In his concept of the American political system that was not his job. He felt it was his job to see that whatever the White House wanted went through with a minimum of trouble and change. Had he taken time out to consider the merits of the bills he pressed through, he might have questioned many of them. Government economy stood first on the record of his long career in the House. His influence whenever exerted on the course of the New Deal tended to temper extremes—Christian Science Monitor.

IRMA BALL IS BEAUTY WINNER

Fire Department Sponsors Prize Contest.

Taking into consideration the short time in which to work, the beauty contest, sponsored by the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department was quite successful. The business men of the county were quite helpful and but for their contributions the fire department would have been at a loss.

First to appear on the program was the Shirley Temple Parade. Nothing could have been any sweeter than these little tots whose sizes ranged from fifteen months up to six years. The contestants were Lea Mylander, Betty Jane Alexander, Nancy Lee Lynn, Betty Lee Jenkins, Peggy Ann Ritter, Barabara Lynn, Mary Catherine Seeley, Miriam Gregory, Lois Woodyard, Vera Rose Merchant, Esther Sutphin, Barbara Jones, Dolly Lonas, Norma Jean Wells, Chalice Haydon, Pat Hodge, Jo Dellinger, Liana Komenda, Gem Elizabeth Parler, Virginia Lee Hughes, Donna Lou Hughes, Pauline Beeton and Betty Ann Miller. Betty Ann Miller, the winner, received a Shirley Temple Dress.

Next were the amateurs' contestants. Mr. Everett Kline won and will receive a trip to Charlottesville to appear in the State contest. The Hatcher sisters, Sinclair Boatwright and Cleveland Fisher received honorable mention.

The beauty contest which followed was very hard to decide. All the contestants were perfectly beautiful in every way.

The line-up was as follows: Mildred Parrish, Hilda Lyon, Shirley Hynson, Pauline Cross, Marilyn Oleyar, Helen Marsh, Helen Suthard, Virginia Crummett, Betty Hatcher, Frances Boling, Rowena Posey, Jesse Lee Boling, June Hatcher, Margaret Breeden, Pauline Boling, Elvire Conner, Margaret White, Mary Cocke, Mary Lynch, Esther Akers, Irma Ball, Eula Slusher, Elizabeth Cross and Laverne Wood. Several eliminations took place and the honors then rested between Frances Boling, Hilda Lyons, Helen Marsh, Mary Cocke, Pauline Cross, Irma Ball, and then the decision went to Irma Ball who from now on is "Miss Prince William".

The director of the show and contest was Mrs. Eloise Compton Trimmer of Manassas, who is a very successful instructor.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of cream brocade satin, Queen Elizabeth style and a white sap veil and carried calla lilies, baby breath and fernes.

Miss Claudia Thomasson, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor wearing pale pink mousseline de soie with pink head-band and carrying a bouquet of pink snap-dragons, blue larkspur and fernes. The bride's mother wore a chiffon print gown in pastel shades. Mr. Everett Kline, brother of the groom was best man. License bearer was Master Orrin Kline, jr., nephew of the groom.

(Questions That Are Asked About Banking)

"Am I asking a favor when I seek a Bank loan?"

A LOAN is a business transaction. It is no more of a favor for a bank to lend you money than it is for a property-owner to rent you a house. Both make a fair profit when the business is on a sound basis.

This bank welcomes loan applications—for this in one of the ways we make money. You do not have to say "please" or "thank you" when you borrow here. Your application is judged strictly on its merits like any other business matter. If we think your loan is a proper investment for our depositors' funds we shall approve it promptly—and appreciate getting it. If your application does not meet our requirements of sound banking we shall tell you frankly together with our reasons.

This bank is actively seeking good loans.

ENJOYABLE PERFORMANCE

Miss Virginia Speiden presented her pupils to an audience composed of both Prince William and Fairfax County folks on Monday evening at the Parish Hall.

There were twenty five numbers, all given in excellently and which reflected much credit on their instructor.

The first portion of the program was devoted to the theme of flowers and the latter section to the dance. There were several duet and quartet numbers.

Those taking part included Kittie Jean Blakemore, Ruth Johnson, Doris Staples, Madeline Clinton, Roberta

Sadd, Wilma Kline, Gertrude Johnson, Sallie Proffitt, Mildred Clinton, Maxine Ball, Dorothy Mathers, Harley Kline, Alma Lipscomb, Jimmie Gorman, Douglas Mathers, Eleanor Adair, William Knox, Irma Ball, Louise Koontz, Jessie Mae Conner and Cleveland Fisher.

Immediately before the closing number which was a very difficult waltz by Tschakowsky, Miss Speiden presented certificates to Miss Conner and Mr. Cleveland, the announcement being greeted with hearty applause.

Both young performers have appeared in public before here and have a very pleasant style and expert technique in their work.

HENRY ELMER CROSS

Much sincere sorrow among his many loving relatives and friends was expressed at the sudden death of Henry Elmer Cross at his home at Occoquan, Va., May 28 and the exceedingly large attendance and beautiful and numerous floral tributes at his funeral services, conducted at his home by the Rev. Mr. Morrison on May 30, and expressed the love and esteem accorded the deceased.

His remains were laid to rest in Cranford Memorial Cemetery in Fairfax County.

Henry Elmer Cross was born at Occoquan January 31, 1905. He was the beloved son of Mr. William Sherman Cross and Ella Seelman Cross. Also surviving him are his two devoted brothers, George Thomas and William Duty Cross.

His family home at Bush Hill, Hudson, N. H. is still owned and occupied by members of the family.

Another ancestor was Jabez Freeman who was born in 1582 and came to Haverhill Hill in 1640. Another ancestor was Hannah Dustan, of Haverhill, Massachusetts, and in whose

BRENTSVILLE HIGH ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS

On Thursday night, June 4, the seventh annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Brentsville District High School was held at the auditorium.

The toastmaster for the evening was Mr. Ray Swank, '31. During the evening he called on different members of the association for music, speeches, etc. much to the embarrassment of most of them. It seemed like a family reunion, for many members of the Association do not see each other from one meeting to the next.

Although our Alumni Association is yet very young, our members are already acquiring success. Many of our members have homes of their own, while others have gone out into the business and professional world.

After the banquet which was so delightfully served by the Nokesville Home Demonstration Club, a business meeting was held. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Charles Beahm, '31; vice-president, Clifford Bear, '36; secretary and treasurer, Hazel Bowman Shepherd, '32.

Several selections of music were rendered by the Foster Trio. Mrs. Ernest Spittler gave a reading, "Speak up like, and 'Spreess Yourself.'" When the roll was called the following members were present. From 1930—Virginia Collier, Willard Wilkins, Christine Hedrick Cowan, Geraldine Shepherd Seese, and Virginia Garber Michael. From 1931—Harry Miller and Ray Swank. From 1932—Hazel Bowman Shepherd, Herman Swank, and Lurty Long. From 1933—Louise May, Howard Miller, Bendil Wood, Elizabeth Allen, Lettie May and Ella Beahm. From 1934—Burnard Hooe, Ivan Fountain, Harold Neff, Kathleen Kerlin, Trenton Cooper, Robert Nelson, Pauline Wells Wise, Virginia Swank Smith, Vernon Wood, and Ernest Hale. From 1935—Margaret Horn, Hazel Owens, Allen Shaeffer, Evelyn O'Bannon, William Shaeffer, Bob Cook, Lloyd Diehl, Christine Earhart, Marie Harpine, Mildred Wood and Eleanor Smith.

The members of the new graduating class which were so heartily welcomed into the Association were: Marguerite McMichael, Ruth Somers, Arline McMichael, Virginia Carrico Clifford Bear, Margaret Dodd, Gayle, Bowman, Billy Hale, Raymond Showalter, Clement Rollins, Muriel Summers and Agnes Wood were not present.

MANASSAS AIR MARKED BY HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Mr. A. B. Crosby, Unit Supervisor, W. P. A., today completed an airport sign on the roof of the Hynson Department Stores which is large enough to be seen 10,000 feet in the air.

The letters in the sign are seven feet high and spaced four feet, three inches apart. In addition to this a north meridian arrow, twenty-two feet long was painted, all lettering being in beacon yellow.

Mr. Crosby is working under Mr. H. W. Pettigrew, assistant engineer of highways in the State of Virginia. These markers will shortly be shown through an air map of all towns with such markers in Virginia.

The idea of the marking is to enable the flyer not only to locate his position but also his direction.

Other towns which have already been marked in this area are Amherst, Pedlar Mills, Crozet, Lovington, Covettsville, Waynesboro, Skyland Drive, Ruckersville, Mineral, Ferncliff, Goochland, Scottsville, Gordonsville, Warrenton, Sperryville, Fredericksburg, Spottsylvania Court House, Front Royal, Thornsburg, Carmel Church.

Mr. Crosby goes from here to Opal in Fauquier County and from there will proceed to establish other units containing the following towns, Leesburg, Middleburg, Winchester, Point of Rock and Alexandria.

This work is a progressive step in the history of flying and is a credit to the State Highway Department in its desire to keep abreast with other sections of the country.

PLAYGROUND OPEN TO ALL CHILDREN IN COMMUNITY

(Opened June 8.)

The grounds around the Bennett school building and gymnasium are open with supervised play for for any child who wishes to attend.

The playground is under the supervision of Miss Virginia Frazier, assisted by several capable girls and boys in the county. The hours are from nine until four, a child may arrive at any hour and leave at any hour. They may bring lunch and there will always be a director to supervise the lunch hour.

The gymnasium is open and free to be used for any activity. In case of rain, this building will be used for all games.

It is suggested that if the smaller children are to remain until noon, a light lunch may be sent.

There are hours for reading stories, telling stories, playing quiet games and rest.

Baseball, basketball, volleyball and horseshoe pitching has been arranged for older boys.

Those children who have any games, puzzles or story books are asked to bring them for use. They will be cared for and returned at the children's wish.

FIREMEN OUTDONKEY
THE KIWANIANS

On Saturday evening a number of the youthful sportsmen of Manassas journeyed to the power plant field to try the new wrinkle, termed "Donkey Base Ball".

These donkeys are well trained and fairly sprightly. The score ended one to nothing in favor of the firemen and it is said that if took the whole team corral the donkey on that deal. Sedrick Saunders was the victorious rider.

Numerous spills and minor agitations featured the evening before over five hundred spectators. Ed Conner was general manager and captain of the whole affair. Ed says that at a later date another game will be played and at which time there will be some whippet dogs to run races as well.

The line up for the two teams was as follows:

GRADS GIVE PLAYLET

In connection with the commencement exercises, the Senior Class of Manassas High departed from the time honored custom of having a class night and put on an original playlet on the evening before graduation.

Every member of the cast had an active part in the wide variety of trades and progressions. It smacked of the class night prophecy as seen from mature eyes rather than those of the pupils.

The class and the audience both had a fine time. The dances of Edla Blakemore and Mildred Parrish were especially good. Inability to practice the play in its original length caused an abbreviation but it was much enjoyed at that.
