HON. R. A. McINTYRE DELIVERS ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Dedicated to James Madison, of Constitution Fame

Despite leaden skies and a threatened hurricane ten doughty Washington Kiwanis journeyed to Manassas Friday evening to join with the local Kiwanis Club in commemorating Constitution Day.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. A. S. Gibson, of Trinity Church, and a splendid address was made by Hon. R. A. McIntyre of Warrenton, former delegate in the General Assembly, who came by the special invitation of "Senator" Conner.

Mr. McIntyre told much of the origin of the Constitution and how George Washington himself emphasized that success of the instrument lay in the fact that it could be amended to fit the times as they develop.

Passing briefly over the matter of states rights, in the matter of independent action, Mr. McIntyre declared that this issue had been settled by bullets which constituted an argument that was greater than any written authority. He dwelt lovingly on the part that Virginia had played in the whole scheme of government and reiterated the soundest of Americanization ideals of today.

During the ceremonies a number of patriotic songs were led by William R. Schmucker, of the Washington club, with Parson DeChant helping him to strike the chord. The volume was good and the enthusiasm encouraging to one and all.

The tree was dedicated by Edwin F. Hill, well known in Kiwanis circles in both this country and Canada. Mr. Hill's address appears in another column.

The ceremonies representing the entry of the thirteen colonies into the union was most entertaining. Master R. A. Muddiman held up a card with the name of the colony and each pretty Miss curtsied and said her piece. Secretary Frank Sigman was called on to recite a portion of Joyce Kilmer's beautiful poem on "Trees." After some more singing, Mr. Gibson closed the evening with an appropriate benediction.

A tree is in the parking space on Grant avenue near the end of the improved section which Town Manager Cocke and the local road force have been working on during the past summer. The bronze marker is embedded in a slab of native rock and commemorates the occasion as a special tribute to James Madison, Fourth President of the United States, native of Virginia and author of the Constitution.

Later in the evening the Club gathered in the hotel for the regular supper period and Bill Schmucker was again called on to lead in singing. The speech making was left to the former District Governors Harry Kimball and Charlie Pimper, Ed Hill doing the introducing. Other Washington men who made brief addresses were as follows: Bynum E. Hinton, Dr. Dave L. Maxwell, Virgil O. Barnard, William F. Smith, Charles F. Dowe and James C. Dulin, sr.

Those present agreed that the epitome of Kiwanis given by Dr. Dave Maxwell was perhaps the sweetest characterization ever heard at a local Kiwanis meeting.

SEPTEMBER 27 GOLD STAR DAY

Local Legion to Observe Anniversary.

Prince William Post 158 held its regular meeting at the town hall last night with Commander Jamison presiding.

The main feature of the meeting was the exhibit of two beautiful flags recently purchased by the club, the same being the United States Flag and the Post Banner Flag. These flags are four feet by five and one-half feet with a nine-foot staff and made of very good silk. They are double faced and hand embroidered. The Post is quite proud of this annex which has been one of their chief aims since organization.

Plans were discussed in re the Dairy Festival and the Club decided to take an active part in the parade. Upon motion of the Club an invitation was extended to all Posts in the Eighth Virginia District, American Legion, to participate in the parade and it is hoped that they will all be in attendance.

September 27 was set aside as National Gold Star Mother's Day. The Post is making a more sincere recognition of this day than ever before, and has requested that anyone whether they be a member of the Post or not, who know of any Gold Star Mother who lost a son or daughter in the service of the World War, to please notify Capt. Howard Jamison, Commander. This is an annual day which is becoming more celebrated each year.

It was adopted that the Post hold a Thanksgiving dance on the evening of November 25 in the Manassas High School Gymnasium. The proceeds will go for charity benefits.

FARMS TO LEARN OF NEW DAIRY REGULATIONS

A meeting of all Prince William County dairymen has been called for Monday evening, October 5, at 8:00 o'clock at the Prince William County Court House by E. W. Gaumnitz, Chief of the Dairy Section of the Agriculture Adjustment Administration. Mr. Gaumnitz states that this meeting is of vital importance to all milk shippers and urges that they be present Monday evening.

The Secretary of Agriculture has issued an order regulating the handling of milk in the District of Columbia marketing area, which became effective September 21. The issuance of this order was the outcome of the public hearing held in Washington from July 20 to 25.

The Secretary of Agriculture has appointed Mr. R. D. Alpin as Milk Marketing Administrator. It is very important that milk producers understand how the regulation of distributors, provided by the adopted agreement, affects them and it appears wise that the newly appointed administrator, Mr. Alpin, is coming in person to the county to explain the details of the new agreement and to explain in detail how milk shippers of the county will be affected.

BARBECUE TO RECALL OLD DAYS

Democrats To Make Merry in October.

The balmy days of October hold much in store for the people of Prince William. A week after the Dairy Festival, on Saturday, October 10, to be exact, the Democratic County Committee and the Young Democrats will combine their efforts in entertaining all the Democrats throughout the County at a Barbecue and Rally on the High School Athletic Field at Manassas, and in urging the re-election of President Roosevelt.

For historical and sentimental reasons, there was some discussion at first on holding this entertainment at Brentsville; however, it was decided that Manassas, being the County seat and accessible from every point in the County under all weather conditions, was the logical place for it.

A band has been engaged to entertain the people and lend a gala air to the occasion.

At one o'clock on the day of the 10th, a group of experienced chefs will start carving the two-hundred pound barbecued bullock that will be roasted to perfection, and delicious sandwiches with brown gravy, hot coffee, and rolls will be passed out to the public.

A prominent political speaker will address the crowd over a loud-speaker system. In the evening, there will be a dance at the Gymnasium, with music furnished by a popular orchestra.

A special engraved invitation will be sent to President Roosevelt, Mr. Farley, Governor Peery and other high officials.

There is no doubt that the depression is fast becoming only a memory with many of us, and that "happy days are here again." Every Democrat in the County is invited to come out and renew acquaintances, and boost the principles of their party.

RECEPTION FOR MANASSAS TEACHERS

One of the largest gatherings ever to attend a parent-teachers meeting took place at the high school on Tuesday evening when the Bennett and High School leagues were hostesses to the faculties of the Manassas schools.

It was a most delightful occasion. Mrs. Robert Newman, president of the high school league, welcomed the teachers in a very gracious address and Professor R. Worth Peters, speaking for the faculty, responded in hearty fashion.

During the evening a musical program was rendered as follows: two piano selections by Miss Gilley and two violin selections by Miss Miller; two solos, "The Gypsy Trail" and "Smiling Through" by Rev. John DeChant and two vocal numbers by Miss Jesse Mae Conner, namely, "Songs My Mother Taught Me" and "Coming Through the Rye."

After the program the guests were invited to the dining room of the home economics department where teachers and patrons informally exchanged greetings and delicious refreshments were daintily served by the committees under the directions of Mrs. Beatrice Leachman and Mrs. Margaret Lons.

ON BUSINESS TRIP

Capt. J. Emmett Rice is in Richmond this week on important business, and while there is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Mercer.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION

All committeemen and directors of the Piedmont Dairy Festival Association, and any interested in the Dairy Festival are urged to be present at an extremely important meeting at the town hall on Friday evening at 8 p. m.

Matters of much importance will come up at this called meeting and a large attendance is desired.

COVERED WAGON IN PARADE

Four Oxen Will Be Featured in Unique Exhibit.

The "COVERED WAGON", owned by Mrs. Nina Carter Tabb of Middleburg, Va., depicting the "pioneer" days of '49, will be a feature of the pageant, notable in many ways, of the Piedmont Dairy Festival, to be held at Manassas, Va., Friday, October 2.

This covered wagon has been shown at Madison Square Garden in New York, the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival and at the Upperville, Middleburg and Purcellville horse shows. Mrs. Tabb, who is the originator of this exhibit, has been asked to show her wagon as the Virginia feature of the Tri-Centennial in Rhode Island and in Lynchburg, Va., at their Centennial. She is also considering an invitation to take it to England.

Led by a lone Indian, guarded by outriders, drawn by four oxen, the wagon is filled with valuable antiques of the period and is an enjoyable, delightful and most instructive feature wherever it has been exhibited.

The pioneers will be represented by socialites of Northern Virginia, who take their part well. Those asked to be on the wagon with Mrs. Tabb are Senator and Mrs. Thomas Glasscock, Col. and Mrs. John Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sabin, Mrs. Courtland Barnes (who was Kitrina McCormick), Mrs. James Hamilton, (Peggy Keith), Mrs. Harry Frost, Mrs. Howard Jamison, Miss Janet Harrison, Miss Helen Lipscomb, Clay Bayly, William Hulbert, Taylor Hardin, Turner Wiltshire, William Lipscomb, Ross Lipscomb, Prosser Tabb, Daniel C. Sands and Billy Jamison.

"CO-OP" GROUP HAS PLEASANT EVENING

The annual Southern States Patrons meeting for Manassas and Nokesville was held in the Nokesville High School last evening, at which time advisory boards for both localities were elected. They were as follows: Manassas, P. A. Lewis, A. H. Roseberry, O. M. Kline, Elmer Hurst and J. J. Conner; Nokesville, F. M. Swartz, Davis Nolley, Lester Huff, J. F. Hale and John House.

Mr. W. G. Wysor, Richmond, Va., guest speaker of the evening, gave an interesting outline of the growth of the Southern States Cooperative, stating that for the past two or three years there had been a lack in "true cooperative" and that the aim for the coming year was to bring this up to a better standard.

He further stated that the company was well pleased with the manner in which the local representative in the two communities had carried on the business.

Three number prizes were given, the winners being Hawley Kline, first; Mrs. Harry Miller, second; and Mrs. Ashby Nalls, third. Other prizes given were one for the baldest man, won by J. E. Marshall; tallest man, won by Mr. Clem, and man with largest waist, won by E. M. Roof.

Delightful ice cream and cake were served the patrons present and music was furnished by the Rythm Ramblers. An enjoyable evening was had by everyone.

ENTERTAIN FOR HOUSE GUEST

Mrs. Conway Seeley entertained at a delightful bridge party Friday evening, September 11, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. John Cox of Farmville.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arrington, Mrs. R. Jackson Ratcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Sedrick Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Rice, Mrs. Everett Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kincheloe, Mr. and Mrs. William Leachman and Miss Jean Moyer.

Announcement of Queen and Princess for Sixth Event on October 2.

MANASSAS ALREADY DECORATED FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Many Floats and Attractive Features Entered for Big Parade.

Announcement was made today, of the selection of the Queen of the Sixth Annual Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival. She is Miss Elsie Triplett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Triplett of Fauquier County, the former being a member of the Virginia House of Delegates from that county. Miss Triplett will reign over the festival to be held at Manassas on October 2. She has chosen as her Maids-of-Honor Miss Olivita Thomas and Miss Louise Delaplane Strother, both of Fauquier County.

The complete list of princesses has also been announced as follows: Princess Arlington, Mrs. Thomas De Lashice E. Morgan; Princess Fairfax, Miss Rebecca Middleton; Princess-at-large, Miss Elizabeth Birkett of Fairfax County; Princess Loudoun, Miss Frances Orr; Princess Prince William, Miss Doris Brawner; Princess Stafford, Miss Anne Wycliffe Reamy; Princess Spotsylvania, Miss Elsie Perry; Princess Orange, Miss Rosa B. Utz; Princess Rappahannock, Miss Minnie Williams; Princess Madison, Miss Mary Lacy; Princess Culpeper, Miss Catherine Whitmore; Princess District of Columbia, Miss Margaret Davis, and Princess Fredericksburg, Miss Marion Lou Karsten.

One of the most colorful features of the festival will be the street parade, which, as in former years, has been designated as the "Milky Way." The parade will be held in the afternoon, following the coronation of Regina VI, Queen of the festival. Spurred on by the attractive prize offerings this year, a great number of organizations have already signified their intention of entering floats. The committee on floats has arranged for the awarding of seven cups to those floats which best portray the spirit of the occasion, and will give special mention to those placing second and third in the opinion of the judges. Prizes will be awarded under the following classifications: 1. Best Commercial, 2. Best Organization Float, 3. Best Appearing Fire Department, 4. Best School Military Unit, 5. Best School Entry, 6. Best Farm Entry, 7. Best County or Municipal Float. The cups to be awarded are now on display in a local drug store. In addition to the large number of floats which have been entered, a great many organizations have signified their intentions of taking part in the parade. Numerous bands will march, as will fraternal and civic groups. Schools, 4-H Clubs and the Future Farmers will also be an important unit.

With its streets gayly decorated with flags, pennants and lights of many colors, and with a holiday spirit in the air, Manassas is prepared to play host to the largest crowd in her history. For the past week trained workmen have been busily engaged in dressing the town in its holiday garb and the stage is set for what promises to be the most elaborate and spectacular celebration in the history of the festival. The Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival had its conception 6 years ago and today has grown to become one of the outstanding events in Virginia.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT STONE HOUSE

Early Tuesday morning a fatal accident occurred at Byrne's Filling Station on the Lee Highway which resulted in the death of John Brownlie, aged 15, of Culpeper, and the detention in the Manassas jail of Eddie Washington, age 32, colored driver of one of the trucks which figured in the accident.

Apparently, the truck driven by Washington attempted to pass a car driven by S. L. Manson of Richmond but on account of fog or for some reason failed to allow clearance for an approaching truck driven by William Jones, colored, of Lynchburg. All three machines were badly damaged. Brownlie died as he was being taken to the Warrenton Hospital, and State Officer Ritter lodged Eddie Washington in the Manassas Jail for hearing before Judge Brown charges of manslaughter.

PWA MAKES LIBRARY GRANT TO UNIVERSITY

Sheridan Gorman, acting State director, announces approval by the Public Works administration of a grant of $427,909 for the proposed Alderman memorial library at the University of Virginia.

The grant represents 45 per cent of the total estimated cost of $950,909, the remainder of which will be provided by the university.

Dr. John L. Newcomb recently visited Washington to bring the project to the attention of Secretary Harold L. Ickes, and said at that time the university was ready to put up the required 55 per cent. President Newcomb said he believed sufficient relief labor was available to meet Federal requirements.

The visit to the secretary's office was made in company with Senator Carter Glass of Lynchburg.

Mr. Gorman said approval of the project brought the number approved in Virginia since Sept. 1 to eight and the amount of grants to be distributed for them to $695,287.

The library project, he estimated would require a year to complete and would provide 442,000 man-hours of work.

The 45 per cent grant will not have to be repaid by the university. The balance of the cost will be provided by the university by the sale of bonds.

The School League, Occoquan School met at the school building on Thursday evening, the 17th. Working committees were announced for this school year, and main objectives to be accomplished during the year were discussed and agreed upon. New acquaintances were made and old acquaintances renewed. The next meeting will be held at the school on Thursday, October 1, at 8:00 p. m. It is hoped all who are any way interested in the school and community will come. It is also hoped all will join the school league.

Mr. Leo Beach and family are going to move into his old home at Occoquan about October 1 from Fairfax. We are glad to have such good citizens move into this town. Mr. Beach is having a well dug and having water and toilet facilities installed in the house. Miss Lola Beach and Mr. Winston Beach, sister and brother, have been living in the house.

The girl's friendly society of Pohick Church will meet at the home of Miss Mary Nevitt near Pohick at 8:00 p. m., Friday, September 25. Come on, Friday, September 25. Come on and join with us and have nice evening's entertainment.

The Lor-Occo-Wood-Quan bridge club met at the home of Mrs. F. Martz, Quantico, on Monday, the 21st. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. E. Payne, Occoquan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Barnes of Rock Ledge, Occoquan, had a large number of friends from the District of Columbia, nearby Virginia and Maryland visit them Saturday afternoon, the 19th, as a get together party. Mr. Barnes took a number of them for a ride on his boat while the rest played various games on the lawns. After returning from the boat ride, all had an open air dinner, with tables and chairs set on the lawn. There were in all about seventy. After the dinner, all left for their various homes. This get together party is an annual occasion; and because of the spaciousness and historic connections of Mr. Barnes' home, Rock Ledge, it has always been chosen for the meeting.

Buck Keyes Post, American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting on October 6. The Legion will meet at the Red Brick Tavern at Dumfries, and the Auxiliary at the Masonic Temple at Quantico. Both the Legion and the Auxiliary extend a welcome to all eligibles to join them and become members. We need to organize and stick together now as never before. With the spread of Facism, Nazism, Communism, Bolshivism, and other subversive isms, it behoves such patriotic organizations as the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary to organize, stand together and combat those evil spreading ISMS whose motto is to destroy our form of Government, "by force and violence if necessary."

Thank God, so long as we have such Organizations as the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary, and other patriotic organizations, we need not fear that our Government will ever cease to function as it has and is functioning. Now is the time for all EX WORLD WAR VETERANS, THEIR WIVES, SISTERS, MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS to join the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary; because in unity there is strength, and we need unity and strength in the work we are undertaking. Remember COMRADES, we may some day leave widows and orphans, and our comrades of the American Legion are the ones we hope to look to the protect them in our absence. We have received to Ad-justed Compensation, but our work has only begun. As age overtakes us we must all stand together, not only for the best interests of our beloved country, but for our own interests.

To you, Fishermen:—Plenty of bass and other game fish are now basking in the clear waters of the Occoquan Creek. Get your fishing licenses now and be among the first to boost a good catch.

The Methodist Church will hold a church supper at Bethel School Saturday evening of this week beginning at five o'clock. Mrs. Ruth Pearl and Mrs. George Hedges are in charge of arrangements.

A HILL-BILLY &amp; A DONKEY ...

Geo. Dent

Pappy went to town last week
And got a donkey fat and sleek,
Brough' him up hyar on Pine Top

Knoll,
And put him in the lot to wallow &
roll.

We watch'd him as he turn'd from side to side,
And Mammy sed, "Sur'ly he wuld rub off his hide;"

But that ol' donkey jest wallow'd on & on—

So Pappy coax'd him to the shed with a nubb'n o' corn ...

Got him insid' clos'd doah—
Pappy start'd out, sed, "Stan' ov'r, whoa!"

And jest abo't then the donkey had a notion;

Laid his ears on his neck & put his hin' legs in motion,

And when he start' to kick a rat-atat-tat;

Pappy yell'd blue murd'r & mov'd like a rat—

He ran up the wall, got astrid' uv a beam,

But the donkey kept kickin' as ef in a dream ...

With his eyes clos'd tite & ears laid back,

I culd hyar that donkey kick, whack, whack, whack!

Pappy jest sot on that beam, with a twinkl' in his eye,

And laud'd so long & loud I tho't he wuld die.

The donkey kept kick'n the sun wuz goin' down,

Pappy stopp'd laff'n & begun to frown;

It wuz soon dark, nearin' time to go to bed;

But Pappy & the donkey wuz still in the shed ...

Mammy look'd furr'd, voice kind'r weak & faint:

Call'd out to Pappy, "Is yo' cumin' out or is yo' ain't?"

But Pappy made no ans'w'r, thar wuz a din & a roah,

And out cum Pappy & that donkey thru the doah.

Pappy land'd on a straw stack jest outsid' the lot

Jest as that ol' donkey broke into a trot;

I start'd to laff, but Pappy culd'n see any fun,

Spittin' straw out uv his mouth, he call'd fur his gun ...

But Mammy with a voice always soft & low,

Jest kept beggin' Pappy not to carry on so:

But Pappy wuz ril'd & kept rantin'
'round

The donkey stopp'd trottin' & begun
pawin' the ground,

So Mammy went ov'r & caught the donkey by the head,

And without any trubble led him
strate into the shed,

Gave him a few nubb'ns & a armful of straw,

And with a twist uv his tail made him say "he-haw ..."

Mammy clos'd the doah & start'd
t'wards the well;

Pappy clos'd his eyes & whisp'r'd,
"Ain't that hell!"

Mammy walk'd ov'r thar beside uv
Pappy

With a smile on her face that made her look happy,

And said, "Yo' kno' Pappy, jest two-thirds uv our life

We've been livin' in these hills as man & wife,

So aft'r livin' with a man purty nigh
thirty years

I figger it is no secret to lead a donkey by the ears ..."

FILM IS FAST, FUN.
PACKED TAP-MUSICAL

A bright, fast, fun-filled musical, filled with swingable, singable tunes and featuring some of the most outstanding dance talent on the screen is presented at the Pitts Theatre Friday night, where "Three Cheers for Love" will have its initial showing.

"Three Cheers for Love" gives "swing music" its first screen glorification. A gay story with its emphasis on youth, it moves in a tempo built for summer entertainment.

Eleanore Whitney, called the owner of the "fastest feet in the world," and Robert Cummings have leading roles. Also featured are Olympe Bradna, French dance sensation; Louis Dapron, speed tapper of the first order, and a cast including William Frawley, Roscoe Karns, John Halliday, Elizabeth Patterson, Grace Bradley, Veda Ann Borg and Billy Lee.

The story deals with Eleanore, fast-stepping daughter of a movie magazine, Halliday, who is sent to a finishing school by her stepmother, Miss Borg. The school proves a fake, with chorines posing as students and vaudeville actors masquerading as professors, all in order to crash Hollywood. The plot is to get Eleanore to take part in a "school performance," invite her father to attend, and sell him the idea of buying the acts.

At the "school," Miss Whitney meets Cummings, song-writer posing as a music teacher. They fall in love, and their musical, dancing romance is carried off with refreshing deftness and lightness of touch.

"Three Cheers for Love" introduces a number of songs which moved to the hit classification as soon as the show was released. The ballroom dance staged by Miss Whitney and Cummings in one sequence, the "Swing-Along," is proving a nationwide sensation.

Hereafter news matter and classified ads will not be accepted after noon Thursday; ads of any size must be in the printers' hands by 10:30 a. m. of the same date.

EVERYBODY'S PLANE

Airplanes for every one, the plane that is just private as the private automobile, have been discussed now for almost nine years—ever since Col. Charles A. Lindbergh spanned the Atlantic. In the creation of such a plane lie two important developments: First, a new horizon for the average man, and, second, a new industry which promises great employment capacity.

Today the "flivver" plane, which features a high order of safety and a low initial cost, apparently is just around the corner. The story of its development and its likely meaning is told in an illustrated feature article in The Star on Saturday, September 26.

INCREASED ASSETS

Col. Frank Knox several days ago stated that insurance and savings accounts are endangered by the administration's fiscal policies.

His statement, however, was repudiated by six insurance company executives who called on President Roosevelt last Tuesday.

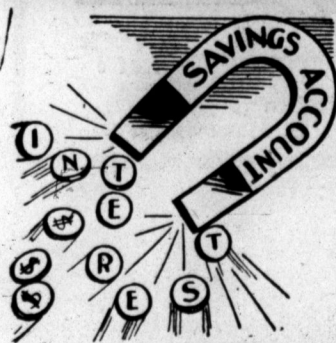

They advised the President that between January 1, 1933 and June 30, of this year, the company assets of all life insurance companies in this country increased more than $3,000,000,000. These assets now total approximately $23,915,000,000. In addition, there are now 2,000,000 more policies in force than there were 4 years ago.

In 1933 loans to policy holders totalled approximately 18 per cent of the companies' assets, whereas today they have declined 14 per cent. This is indeed a healthful sign.

It might be well for Col. Knox to check his figures before making more speeches on this subject. —Winchester Star.

Dear Editor:

I am at work on Alabama soil. I am in "De land ob cotton." I deem this a great state but I like Virginia better.

Here is Montgomery, the original capital of the Confederate States. But Virginia has the real and historic capital of the Confederacy — Richmond.

Cotton picking is on; big men, women and children are harvesting the snowy-white crops which are good, and yielding, this year, from $40 to $75 per acre. Everybody seems to work on farms in Alabama. It is such a good place to go barefooted. All seem to be crazy to be at it.

This is the state of the great Senator Underwood and the hero of the Merrimac. I once rode to meeting at Boneytown, Va., in a two-ox team. But Alabama is the first state to give me a ride to church in a one-ox wagon. Why, it really takes one away back to the time folks were still honest. Soon to be in Virginia again.

I. N. H. Beahm,
Nokesville, Va.

September 15, 1936

Dear Editor:

When my Father, L. W. Cox, and I attended the Manassas Celebration, we enjoyed the whole proceedings so very much that I feel that it will always stand out in our memory as a Red Letter Day.

I shall remember, especially, the delightful luncheon at Annaberg to be seated with the veterans—on where we were so graciously entertained and where it was my privilege one side, my Father and on the other a survivor of the Federal Forces, Veteran Napoleon Bickelman who had taken part in the Second Battle of Manassas. At the head of our table sat Mayor Wooding, who as a lad of seventeen summers was engaged with the South in the First Manassas Battle.

Everybody was so lovely to the veterans and other guests that I feel like saying over and over again, thank you, thank you for such lovely visit in and around Manassas.

Sincerely,

HONORS MEMORY OF FORMER HOME DEMONSTRATOR

In recognition of the noble work done by the late Miss Lillian Gilbert, former Home Demonstrator of Prince William County, a memorial window has been dedicated in Buchanan County, where Miss Gilbert labored among the mountain people and endeared herself to that community.

The memorial has been placed in the Methodist Church at Grundy by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society and the lovely memorial has been the occasion of much gratification in Prince William County where Miss Gilbert also left a wide circle of friends to mourn the passing of such a lovely character.

Miss Gilbert will be remembered not only in Manassas where she made her home during her work here, but throughout the county where she so faithfully served as County Demonstrator for a number of years.

Miss Gilbert was a member of Grade M. E. Church during the years she spent in Manassas and for several subsequent years, giving generously of her services and means, in all the branches of the work of the Church. Her many friends will be glad to note this recognition of her splendid qualities.

MR. PITTS' WELCOME

In response to many requests we print the welcome shown on the screen by Mr. Pitts on his opening night.

We now dedicate the PITTS' THEATRE to you, our neighbors, for whom it was built.

Welcome—

It is not for us to tell you whether it is beautiful, but for you to see for yourselves.

It is not for us to say whether the engineers, architects, upholsterers and decorators have done their work well or ill. You, our neighbors, and only you, will be the final judges of that.

We submit—we do not proclaim. If there is evidence of good taste, unostentatious comfort, in these new surroundings, it is because your taste and comfort were our first consideration.

Behind this array of stone, metal and fabric, there was as we built, always the thought of you, our neighbors, and we hope, our friends.

With much modesty and with a little pride—we dedicate to you this interpretation of your amusement needs, with hope that it may not be unworthy.

General Manager

At this time the best articles will be selected for exhibition in Manassas on Achievement Day.

Mrs. E. E. Payne and Miss Thomas demonstrated the use of home-grown vegetables and prepared three delicious vegetable dishes.

At the conclusion of the demonstration refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. S. D. Lloyd, and delightful social hour was enjoyed.

"What are the advantages of a checking account?"

THIS question was asked us recently by a man who came in to cash his pay check. When we suggested that he ought to have a checking account he replied, "What are the advantages?" This is what we told him:—

"Your money in a checking account is kept in a safe place. It saves time and steps in paying bills. You can write a check when you wish—during or outside of business hours. You can send your check anywhere, safely, conveniently and economically. You have a legal receipt for your files in the form of an endorsed check. You get an accurate statement of your account from the bank."

A checking account in this bank adds to the speed safety and accuracy of the transactions making up the business life of this community. If you do not have a checking account now, we invite you to open one at this bank.

DO YOU ADVERTISE

When Mark Twain was editor of a western newspaper a merchant wrote to him, asking whether a spider found in his morning paper was an omen of good fortune. Mark Twain replied,

"Finding a spider in your paper does not mean either good or bad luck for you. He was merely looking to see which merchant advertised, so that he could go to the store of the one who did not do so, build his web over the door and remain peaceful and undisturbed for the rest of his days."

CATHARPIN

Well, this is the time of year when one begins to think about the "frost being on the pumpkin and the fodder in the shock." Most of the fodder is already doing duty as "sentinels o'er the landscape" but old Jack Frost has not yet arrived with his pincers to nip off the tops of the lespadeza fields. At any rate, the country is beginning to look rusty, weeds that were not supposed to exist, are now much in evidence since the corn is removed; leaves, especially those of the gum trees are beginning to illuminate the forests and ere long "the sere and yellow leaf" will give rise to poetic thoughts along with the more serious problems of coal bins and wood piles. Taking it all in all, this community has much to be thankful for; epidemics and sickness have been at a minimum, no fatalities of consequence have visited us, crops as a rule, have averaged up well, prices on the up-grade, fall work well advanced, chicken and turkey crops satisfactory including guineas, so that the approaching Thanksgiving Day will give a splendid opportunity to all devout souls wishing to render obeisance and thanks to the God of Nature for the blessings heaped upon us.

Mrs. Ellsworth Senseney of near Catharpin is suffering from a very painful injury to one of her fingers which was caught in the door of her car, mashing it to such an extent that at this writing it is doubtful if it can be saved from amputation.

The Sudley Wesley Bible Class at its regular monthly business session, projected a program which it hopes to carry out during the month of October. First of all it wishes to observe a "Sudley Shrubbery Day" at which time shrubbery of various kinds and young trees shall be planted on the terraces and grounds to beautify the landscape. Also it is designed to to enlarge and repair the ground entrance by graving the surface against muddy weather; then too, all members of the class asked to donate some article to the booth for sale at the bazaar and supper to be given on October 23. This is a pretty good program and one worthy of every one's attention. The ladies want the "man contingent" of the class to furnish the labor and they will furnish a luncheon for all the faithful.

A number of Sudley people attended the all-day services at Gainesville on Sunday and enjoyed a "re-enactment" of their own meeting of several weeks ago. Both meetings were well attended and enjoyed as only such meetings can be enjoyed by the coming together and co-workers of other days.

Miss Marguerite Latham of Snow Hill has returned to her studies at Mary Baldwin at Staunton, Va., and Miss Virginia Piercy of Gainesville resumes her studies at the Harrisonburg State Teachers College of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Caldwell returned home on Thursday of last week after a very pleasant visit of over two weeks around Johnson City and Roan Mountain, Tennessee where Mr. Caldwell's relatives are located. Many changes had taken place in the "Old Home Town" during the lapse of some 45 years since Walter as a school boy, bade farewell to kith and kin and put out to sea. "Down Home" they call him Walter not "Bill" as the Marine appellation would have it.

Just like all of our visits, however, one often has to come home to rest and to recuperate. Of all the hardships one has to endure, we believe the "one-night-stand" variety among friends and relatives is, perhaps, one of the most excruciating, particularly if the trip lasts several weeks for the reason that each place visited puts up so many good things to eat that before the time is up one becomes almost fonder. You know at home we take things mighty easy most of the time, usually eat when hungry and then be satisfied with the easiest thing gotten, especially during hot weather—a practice pretty good for both health and pocketbook; but when called upon to undergo a "three-meal-per-day" program and each one a "top-notch" is just a little more than an average citizen is used to; hence one must come home, starve a while to even things up a bit and give himself time to regain his normal stance in life. This has been our experience and perhaps yours also. At any rate, Mr. Caldwell did not feel so well upon his return but we feel sure that once he gets back to normal life and eating common things along with the rest of us, he can spend many an hour in reverie, recalling the days of his youth together with the scenes and pleasures of his recent visit to the land of his birth.

Mr. L. J. McIntosh, one of the "faithful" on the State road force, took a vacation last week spending the time combatting a case of "flu" and getting his corn in shock. Being successful in both instances, he is ready for duty as usual where his services are highly appreciated by his superior offices of the State Road Commission.

Tropical Travelings Basis Of Simone Simon's Exotic Charm

Small wonder they call her "La Sauvage Tendre."

Simone Simon, petite Parisienne whose twinkling eyes and laguing lips made her Europe's sweetheart, weds the sophistication of her native France to the mystic charm of the Orient.

Simone, who is making her American debut in the widely heralded Twentieth Century-Fox production, "Girls' Dormitory," coming soon to Pitts' Theatre, in which she is starred with Herbert Marshall and Ruth Chatterton, was born in Marseilles. There, where the crossroads of the world meeting riotous color, where adventure and romance perpetually lie around the corner, she first peeked at life through a whirling kaleidoscope of changing lands.

On her tenth birthday, April 23, she sailed with her mother to Madagascar.

In the tropics, where nomads form a myriad different races mingle in the streets, she absorbed the wild spirit of its ever-changing moods and moments.

In Paris, Budapest, Turin, Berlin, a dozen different towns and a dozen different schools where she continued her wandering education, she acquired a more polished veneer, a scintillating sophistication that even at the tender age of seventeen made her a woman mature in the ways of the world.

Simone settled in Paris to study sculpture under a winner of the Prix de Rome.

A chance meeting with Tourjansky, noted European director, led her to become interested in a theatrical career. Simone made a test for Adolphe Osso, the producer, and found herself with a short-term contract and the role of Pierrette in "Chanteur Inconnu." The star was Muratore, the famous opera singer.

In the next year she played increasingly important roles in three films—"Un fils d'Amerique" and "Le Rois des Palaces," both produced by Adolphe Osso. The third, "La Petite Chocolatiere," was directed by Marc Allegret, who, says Simone, is the man really responsible for the rapid strides she made to screen success. It was he who first cast her in a serious role although previously she had been typed as a comedy ingenue. After careful experiment and many tests he began to exploit a new and even richer side of her artistic capabilities. He teamed her with Jean Pierre Aumont in "Lac aux Dames," the screen play of Vicki Baum's novel "Martin's Summer," and her delightful portrayal of the elf-like Puck made her popularity grow by leaps and bounds.

Simone's fame reached Hollywood's ears, and soon the film companies were spiritedly competing for her services Twentieth Century-Fox was successful in signing her to a contract, and Simone forthwith departed for Hollywood.

Considerable time and effort were devoted to selecting the proper vehicle for the Continental star's first American production and "Girls' Dormitory" was finally chosen because it was thought ideal for Simone's brilliant talents.

In addition to Herbert Marshall and Ruth Chatterton, who are starred, the cast also features Constance Collier, J. Edward Bromberg, Dixie Dunbar, John Qualen and Shirley Deane.

TO serve our Patrons well and make each service a stepping stone towards their perfect confidence, is the desire and constant endeavor of our organization.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly. You can hunt till you are dizzy, but somehow it will get by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps: It shrinks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps, That typographical error, too small for human eyes. Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss stares with horror, then grabs his hair and groans; The copy reader drops his head upon his hands and moans— The remainder of the issue may be as clean as clean can be, But that typographical error is the only thing you see.

ADDRESS OF EDWIN F. HILL

Dedication of Manassas Memorial Tree at Manassas on Sept. 18.

In honoring James Madison, "Father of the Constitution," and fourth president of the United States, the Manassas Kiwanis Club and the school children of Manassas and Prince William County are adding another leaf to the history. Today we commemorate the 149th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States. It was on September 17, 1787, that George Washington, president of the Constitution Convention, James Madison and John Blair added their signatures to the bill of states, acknowledging that this, the greatest of all constructive documents of governments, was ready for the ratification of the thirteen sovereign states of the United States of America. Kiwanis has for its slogan "We Build." Madison and the men who framed the Constitution were builders of the country, and we today are proud to honor them.

Madison was born in King George County, Va., March 16, 1752 and lived for his entire lifetime, with the exception of his term in the White House, in the Old Dominion. He died June 28, 1836, and buried at Montpelier, his estate in Orange County.

Madison was educated at Princeton University and later studied law. He was a member of the legislature in Virginia in 1776 and while not an orator, became one of the most eminent, accomplished and respected American statesmen. He was elected to the Federal Congress in 1779 and in 1784 to the legislature of Virginia, in which he supported the measures of Jefferson in the revision of the laws and in the placing of religious denominations on a quality of freedom without state support.

Serving as a member of the Constitution Convention, Madison was one of three men from Virginia to sign this greatest of all Constitutions. He was made secretary of state in 1801 and was elected president in 1808. Following his election, Madison used every possible means to avert war with England, which was declared in 1812 and continued for two years at a cost of 30,000 lives and $100,000,000. He was elected president for a second term. Upon his retirement in 1817, he settled at Montpelier, where he served as rector of the University of Virginia and was a promoter of agriculture and public improvements. Varily he was a builder.

Madison, thirty-six years of age while a delegate to the Constitution Convention, collected daily notes as written by various members of the Constitution Convention, which have since been credited with having great literary value and have been used for signing of the Constitution of the United States of America by delegates of the colonies in convention assembled September 17, 1787, the Kiwanis Club of Manassas, Virginia, dedicates this tree to James Madison of Virginia, born 1752, died, 1836, "Father of the Constitution," September 18, 1936, seal, Kiwanis International."

affixed their signatures to the Constitution. Edmund Randolph and George Mason of Virginia were two of the delegates present who did not sign. Randolph became a convert to the Constitution and is said by historians to have been probably the deciding influence in securing its adoption by the Virginia convention. Mason never signed the Constitution. George Wythe and James McClurg were not present at the time the Constitution was signed.

The Kiwanis Club of Fredericksburg in conjunction with school children of that historic city and surrounding counties dedicated an oak tree to George Washington on the seventeenth and the Winchester Club, a maple tree to Edmund Randolph, a member of the Constitution Convention Committee, September 16, and today (September 18) this group assembled here is adding "another great moment in history" to many other events contributed by Virginians to Virginia and the nation.

It is a pleasure and privilege to dedicate this maple tree to James Madison and behalf of the Kiwanis Club of Manassas and the school children of Prince William County. With this as a start you should dedicate trees to other members of the Virginia delegation and encourage your children to dedicate tree to those members who made their names immortal by signing the Constitution of the United States of America.

A shield shaped tablet, imbedded in concrete at the base of the tree reads: "Madison Maple—Commemorating the signing of the Constitution of the United States of America by delegates of the colonies in convention assembled September 17, 1787, the Kiwanis Club of Manassas, Virginia, dedicates this tree to James Madison of Virginia, born 1752, died, 1836, "Father of the Constitution," September 18, 1936, seal, Kiwanis International."

STATE FAIR HAS NEW ATTRACTIONS

Final preparations were under way here today for the annual Virginia State Fair, which opens Monday morning, September 28, and continues through the week.

Displays of farm products, live stock, poultry and pet stock, including cats, a dog exhibition, a large department devoted to women's and children's work, the annual exhibition of the Virginia Dahlia Society, an industrial exposition featuring displays of manufacturers and merchants of varied lines, and a huge outdoor exhibit of farm machinery, plows and tractors are among the attractions which are expected to surpass those of many years.

Boys' and girls' 4-H clubs will have a large number of entries, and several thousand club members and students of vocational schools will attend the fair on Tuesday, September 29, which will be designated "4-H Club Day."

One entire building will be devoted to the display of Virginia-raised apples, the largest showing of this crop ever held at the fair. Honorary vice-presidents have been appointed by the fair association in each of the State's 100 counties, and these men are co-operating with the management in their endeavor to have every county represented by exhibits of some sort. About 50 counties are already listed among the displays, with the entry books still open until Friday of this week, except for the women's department, which closes Thursday afternoon.

An elaborate musical and dancing revue, styled "Revue of Revues", tops the entertainment features of the fair. It employs 100 people and is presented on a special setting in which three revolving stages are used. Fourteen aerial and stage vaudeville acts supplement the revue, all of them new to the Virginia fair.

Four days of horse races, starting Tuesday, with purses double those of last year; AAA-sanctioned championship auto races, with many of the country's most famous pilots; a greatly enlarged midway, with 50 side-shows and riding devices; and a spectacular fireworks display each night, are among the fair's other amusement features.

Monday is "Children's Day", when all children of 15 years and under will be admitted to the grounds free, to the grandstand for 10 cents, and to the midway attractions at half-price. Tuesday is "4-H Club Day"; Wednesday "Richmond Day"; Thursday "Farmer's Day"; Friday "Northern Neck Day"; and Saturday "Auto Race Day."

Railroads and bus lines will offer special round-trip rates for fair week. Some of the lines will have special one-day excursions on Thursday.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

By Dr. James T. Marshall

THE COOL OF THE DAY

In the Eden story we read, "And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day." (Genesis 3:8) Broadly speaking, the Old Testament represents law and justice while the New Testament represents grace and mercy; yet justice is not absent from the New. The Israelites were directed to place the mercy seat above the ark and the prophet wrote, "As I live, saith the Lord, I desire not the death of the wicked."

The Eden story gives us a beautiful foregleam of gospel sunshine when it tells us of the visit the Eternal Father to his erring children. He does not appear in earthquake or storm, but as a friend "walking in the cool of the day," and the air is fresh and cool and everything is suggestive of heavenly calm.

It is in such an atmosphere that God delights to talk with us. Many parents have committed an unpardonable sin when they have represented God to their little children as an object of dread, as a sort of magnified policeman. Our old time theologians took delight in emphasizing the severity of God. This was true of almost all the religious reading the religious reading which was put in the hands of young people.

In my early boyhood my father gave me a book for my Sunday reading. The only thing I remember about it is its frontispiece, which was a picture of a cemetery with a little boy sitting upon a grave where he was supposed to be meditating upon the solemn fact of death.

The Sunday services in the old country church were similarly depressing, and I still carry vivid memories of the bareness of the furnishings, the seriousness of the sermons and the gloominess of many of the hymns. I mingled my childish treble with my father's bass and my mother's alto as we sang, "God loves His saints, He knows them well; He turns the wicked down to hell," etc. and Wesley's, "Just and holy is Thy name, I am all unrighteousness;

False and full of sin I am," etc.

Human life is hard and bitter enough at best and we may be thankful that we of today have reached a fuller comprehension of the truth that "God is Love." When a man goes to church on Sunday after a week of turmoil and anxiety about worldly affairs he has a right to expect a service that will bring him something of heavenly peace and calm. He craves to hear something about the Savior who came "to bind up the broken-hearted and set at liberty them that are bruised." I am sure he would like a chance to sing,

"God is love, His mercy brightens - All the path in which we rove; Peace He wakes and woe He lightens, God is wisdom, God is love."

The worshipper who has met such an experience will leave the church saying in his heart, "Surely, the Lord is in this place. This is none other than the house of God and this is the gate of heaven."

Grace Moore Hunted for New Trail to Blaze—and Found It

If imitation can be said to be the highest form of flattery, Grace Moore can take a bow as Hollywood's most modest person. She has refused to imitate herself!

When Miss Moore set the entertainment world afire with her divine voice in the now memorable "One Night of Love," frantic producers scanned the world's opera marts for "another Grace Moore." They hopefully set out to produce "another 'One Night of Love'" and succeeded only in approaching but not surpassing this history-making film.

With her new production scheduled and imminent, Miss Moore was firmly convinced that the cycle of semi-operatic musical productions which she launched with "One Night of Love" had run its course. The formula which had proved so successful for her heretofore was relegated to limbo, and a newer, more refreshing musical type of film devised. How well she succeeded is evident in her current Columbia production, "The King Steps Out," at Pitts Theatre next, in which Franchot Tone, Walter Connolly and Raymond Walburn lend their able support.

The most unusual departure apparent in "The King Steps Out" is the music which was written by Fritz Kreisler, violin virtuoso and outstanding contemporary composer. Heard, too, will be Kreisler's famed composition, "Caprice Viennois." Unlike the accepted classical arias which were interpolated in former films, the songs which Miss Moore sings in "The King Steps Out" are all from the pen of Kreisler with lyrics by Dorothy Fields.

GAINESVILLE

Mrs. Howard McCuin is now in Georgetown Hospital. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

PIEDMONT VIRGINIA DAIRY FESTIVAL
October 2, 1936

Are You Air - Minded — If So, See Manassas from The Air

The Goodyear airship, ENTERPRISE, is scheduled to operate in Manassas Friday, October 2, in conjunction with the Piedmont Dairy Festival. This has been made possible through the co-operation of your local "GOOD-YEAR" dealer, THE MANASSAS MOTOR CO., INC., who is also your CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH dealer.

The ENTERPRISE is the newest and largest of the fleet of five ships operated by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. These ships have a unique safety record, having flown over 2,000,000 miles and carried over 200,000 passengers without a single accident where passengers were involved. It is 148 feet long, 57 feet in maximum diameter and contains 128,000 cubic feet of helium gas. During the 22 months it has been located in Washington it has made over 4,500 flights and flown over 114,000 miles. The smaller ships serve primarily as training units for pilot and ground personnel to be used when regular trans-oceanic dirigible service is inaugurated. They have proven invaluable for experimental purposes in flight and ground handling and Goodyear trained pilots are now making regular flights on the Hindenburg.

The ENTERPRISE will arrive at Manassas, weather permitting, about 9:30 a. m. on October 2, and THE MANASSAS MOTOR CO., INC. has arranged and secured a reduced rate of $1.50 per passenger for flights over Manassas. Regina VI, Queen of the Dairy Festival, together with her court of princesses, will be given flights over Manassas during the day.
