SIXTH FESTIVAL
GLORIOUS EVENTPageantry, Drills and Street
Parade Gorgeous Color Arrays.

The 1936 Piedmont Dairy Festival Pageant is over. Too much credit can not be given the workers this year.

With less time to carry out their work than for any previous Dairy first in 1931, the thirty-three festival committees became active immediately after it was definitely decided to continue with the annual program in late August.

Laboring so quietly and efficiently that even on the day preceding would not have suspected what was in store for the thousands of visitors Friday, each committee member unselfishly and continuously gave of his or her time toward the development of the best of the six festivals. To these committees is due the thanks of every citizen interested in the welfare of county and the Piedmont area.

With clearing skies and a friendly sun to greet the visitors, about four thousand persons either took part in or witnessed the Sixth Annual Dairy Festival Pageant at Annaburg last Friday morning.

The crowning of Queen Regina Sixth, Miss Elise Tripplett, of Fauquier, at the hands of Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, was greeted with most hearty applause and expressions of praise and admiration equal to any similar occasion that has taken place in Manassas.

The folk song, scenery and the elaborate pageant which was directed by Mrs. Mary Cabell Calloway of Alexandria, prepared and declaimed by Mrs. Paul Arrington of Manassas, followed the ceremony in which the colorful Richmond Howitzers had escorted the Queen and her court to the customary place in the south part of the amphitheater.

Rev. A. S. Gibson, of Dettingen Parish, presided as the ancient Saxon bishop and administered the oath modeled from the period of King Ethelred, while Major R. A. McIntyre of Warrenton, who simply fits into any such a job most admirably, through his cavalier bearing and knightly grace, acted as master of the Queen's wardrobe. Master "Bo" Williams rendered his part as crown bearer with precision and ease. The little train bearers, Misses Jane Fielding and Mary Howell Glascock, of Fauquier, were equally pretty and tastily attired as any other participants in the pageant.

The colors varied from the simple green and white costumes of the high school chorus to the gorgeous gold and rust dresses worn by the Queen's attendants. The pastoral scene was indeed lovely in its autumn setting. At the rear of the dais the old German towers, mossy green with ivy, formed an ideal background.

The county schools, having closed for the day, allowed hundreds of children to attend and many to take part in the dances and ceremony, all portions of which were declared as good as any of the other festivals. The author of the pageant this year sought a different motif in localizing the story of the pageant entirely to the history of Piedmont Virginia, beginning with the noble John Smith which Arthur Boatwright carried out with professional technique.

The scenes which ensued were portrayed by the following youngsters whose names are given by schools and scenes. These acts were interspersed by several dances by pupils of Mrs. Calloway of Alexandria. The old covered wagon with its oxen was perhaps the most realistic of the whole proposition, while the patriotic number and the star dance at the close of the program received most general comment. All of them, however, were equally good and it would be impossible to select anyone scene as having been better than all the rest.

Please don't forget the time, place and matters for action.

GEORGETTE TAYLOR WEIR

After an extended illness, Mrs. Georgette Taylor Weir, beloved wife of Robert Mitchell Weir, Commissioner of Revenue, Prince William County, passed away at her home on Fairview Avenue Wednesday, October 7.

Mrs. Weir was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Owen Taylor and was born at the old home place near Hickory Grove. The family later moved to Charlestown, W. Va., and in latter years came back to Prince William and made their home in Manassas.

Her people date back to the colonial days and are truly real Prince William people. Mrs. Weir was quite prominent for many years in both political and civic affairs, as well as a devoted member of the Trinity Episcopal Church where she was confirmed when a young girl. She was also an active worker in the Eastern Star.

Services were held this afternoon at her church, Rev. A. S. Gibson officiating. Interment followed in the local cemetery. The pall bearers were Dr. E. H. Marsteller, and Messrs. T. E. Dillake, James U. Kincheloe, F. R. Hynson, A. A. Hooff and Robert Hutchison.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, James B. and Robert M., Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. Alice Gulick; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Hutchison of Aldie, Va., Mrs. Selina Taylor Wilson of Haymarket, Va., and Mrs. Edmonia Taylor Sinclair of Manassas; and one brother, B. Conway Taylor of Baltimore, Md.

The sympathy of the entire county goes out to Mr. Weir and the family in their sad loss. The funeral was attended by scores of Mrs. Weir's friends as she was widely popular and had many friends in this and the adjoining counties.

Quadrennial Political Rally
Staged for Saturday.REPRESENTATIVE BLAND
TO GIVE LEADING ADDRESS

With mild weather in prospect, the Democrats in Northern Virginia are preparing to gather at Manassas on Saturday to repeat with the greater emphasis the wonderful barbecue that was held at Brentsville four years ago.

The same wonderful spread is promised by the cooks of the N. Auth Company, in Washington, who officiated on the last occasion and everyone remembers what delightful food they served.

Mr. E. R. Conner, who has been active in making arrangements along with Mrs. Nelle Hyde and Mr. W. T. Sweeney of the Young Democratic Club, phoned to the Journal from Washington this morning that Col. Leslie C. Garnett, U. S. District Attorney of Washington, has also agreed to be present and say a few words.

The other invited speakers include Gov. Peery, C. O'Connor Goolrick of Fredericksburg, who was one of the speakers at our last Barbecue; Congressman Howard W. Smith, who will preside over the meeting, and of course, Congressman Otis Bland of the First Virginia District. While Mr. Bland is well known over the State as a whole he has not spoken here before and a real treat is in store for those who care to lay aside their cares and responsibilities to join the day's frolic.

Congressman Bland is really one of the Party's great orators and his ardent support of the Democratic ticket will add much to the success of the Party in the State this year.

At the recent Young Democratic Convention held in Roanoke, Mr. Bland brought the 1,000 delegates to their feet and received thunderous applause for his constructive portrayal of the accomplishments of the Roosevelt Administration and his exhorting blasts of the Republican candidates and their program of glittering generalities and impractical dreams.

The barbecue itself will be served at one o'clock and will continue until the vast throng has feasted to its heart content.

At least 2,000 people are expected at the barbecue and the number will crowd the Manassas High School athletic field to capacity. The rally will continue through the afternoon and into the evening when the good time will be transferred to the dance floor of the high school gymnasium.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SERVES
FURNITURE INDUSTRY

The Southern Railway System is co-operating with the furniture industry in promoting National Furniture Week, October 4 to 10. During this week furniture manufacturers and dealers are displaying the latest and most up-to-date styles and types of furniture.

An attractive folder has been issued by the Southern Railway dealing with the furniture industry of the South and the furniture industry along its lines which is being distributed through its offices throughout the country and on the principal trains. This folder points out the fact that two Southern States, North Carolina and Virginia, now supply at least one-half of the bed room and dining room furniture used in the United States.

As stated last week the Journal unqualifiedly gives Mr. Hynson credit for persistently determining to carry on this festival in the face of well-meaning opposition and another year the success of past years will have been even more firmly established.

MINNIEVILLE

We have had a nice rain and things are very much refreshed. Don't forget the all-day meeting Sunday, October 11, at the Baptist church here.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clarke gave their parents a surprise party on Tuesday evening, September 29, it being their 49th wedding anniversary. They served ice cream, cakes, candy and other refreshments. The flowers were lovely. All enjoyed the evening very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramond Curtis entertained quite a crowd of relatives and friends on Sunday. There was a large table set on the lawn and about one o'clock everyone was invited to partake. Everything was good and appetizing and all enjoyed the day.

There were friends from Fredericksburg, Atlanta, Ga.; Manassas, Indian Head, and Quantico. There were ninety-seven guests. After dinner the evening was spent in Music. Piano and Violin. Croquet was enjoyed by the younger ones.

Quite a few from this neighborhood attended the Dairy Festival and report having a nice time.

HORSE SHOW CONTAINS MANY NOTABLE ENTRIES

The 37th Annual Warrenton Horse Show will be held Friday and Saturday, October 9 and 10. From all indications this year's exhibition promises to be a banner one.

The Mexican Show Team, the first foreign team ever to compete in a Virginia horse show, should give the open jumping stables of the East strong competition in the two hundred dollar jumper stake class, and in the International Course classes. These classes are shown over a difficult course without wings, and is one of the best and most exciting events of the show.

The most important hunter class is the Corinthian, which carries the famous John Barton Payne perpetual memorial trophy, this trophy being presented by Judge Payne's friends and admirers, and valued at seventy-five hundred dollars.

Warrenton has gained the title of "The Hunter Show of America" and nowhere else can be found so many high class outstanding horses as gather here.

The management has been most fortunate in securing such well known horsemen as Henry L. Bell, Bayside, Long Island, N. Y.; Gordon Grand, Millbrook, N. Y., and W. Brock Fuller, Milwaukee, Wis., as judges in the hunter and breeding classes, and in having Estler M. Palmer, Arlington, Va., to judge saddle horses and ponies.

With entries from the following exhibitors, Mrs. John Hay Whitney, Upperville, Va., Ray S. Shoemaker, Harrisburg, Pa., Dr. L. M. Allen, Berryville, Va., Miss Wilhelmine Kirby, Bedford Hills, N. Y., Mr. Morris Clarke, Orange, Va., Robert S. Waters, Johnstown, Pa., Mrs. Beaty Brown, Portchester, N. Y., E. L. Redman, Middleburg, Va., Miss Betty Couzens, Pontiac, Mich., A. Mackay Smith, White Post, Va., Miss Elizabeth Nesbit and Miss Emily North King, Warrenton, Va., Gude M. Watkins, Richmond, Va., Hubert Phipps, Rectortown, Va., J. North Fletcher, Warrenton, Va., Miss Louise Myers, Washington, and numerous prominent exhibitors, this year's show will register a big success.

CENTREVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward LeGallais of Baltimore were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. LeGallais' parents near here. Master Edward Randolph had his first view of Virginia on this occasion. Mrs. LeGallais will spend the remainder of the week with her mother at Clifton, returning to Baltimore on Sunday.

A car driven by drunken drivers ran into Mr. Lacey Compton and party of Manassas on Saturday evening near Willow Spring, badly wrecking both cars. Mr. Francis Compton was the most seriously injured, suffering a bad gash in his head.

The community league has reorganized and elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. Katie Grave; vice-president, Mrs. Agnes Robey; secretary, Mrs. Will Beahm; treasurer, Mrs. C. D. Roberson. The association will hold its first public function tomorrow evening, an oyster supper at the school house.

Regular church services will be held at St. John's on Sunday next. St. John's Guild with Mrs. Eva Uterback on Monday evening.

Miss Margaret Jeffries of Culpeper formerly a member of the local faculty, was the week-end guest of Mrs. W. H. Lamb.

Rev. Nelson Dame, missionary of the diocese, will start a series of evening services at Christ Church, Chantilly, on Sunday evening, continuing through the entire week. He recently completed a week at St. John's at this place. He will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Henderson while here.

A recent asset to the neighborhood are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richards who have located on the Thomas Lee farm near Bull Run. They will be welcomed to the various church and civic activities of the community.

GAINESVILLE

The ladies of Gainesville M. E. Church will hold a turkey and oyster supper in the cream building Friday, October 16, beginning at 4:30 o'clock.

Your Unbalanced Budget

THE Federal budget is not the only one which is out of balance. The budget of the housewife is out of balance, and this is as much the act of the New Deal as is the unbalanced budget of the nation. When we hear of the budget being unbalanced, remember it is your budget which is being discussed.

By plowing under, the New Deal has put its heavy hand into the balances of supply and demand, and by destroying food, has created an artificial scarcity and an increase in price, which is felt in every household in America.

It is a mistake to think the city housewife is the only one who is feeling the pinch caused by this folly. The wife of the small farmer is feeling it too. The small farmer is not a wheat grower. He can't afford the machinery necessary for the harvesting of wheat. His wife buys flour by the sack at the country store, also lard and bacon. Whatever adds to the cost of living helps the few and hurts the many and the government which does this is the friend of the few at the expense of the many.

A policy of squandering which from March 4, 1933, to June 30, 1936, spent the sum of twenty-five billion dollars, has left no unsoaked citizen in America, and since that is $2.12 spent for every dollar received in taxes, every citizen is menaced with a still bigger soaking. On the back of the small man that huge burden must be borne.

Let us keep this fact constantly in mind that though the spending of these many billions may create an appearance of prosperity, we and our children, to the third and fourth generation, must pay them, and for every borrowed dollar must pay back two dollars.

Mr. Roosevelt is being generous with your money. Taking as his example the illustrious Mr. Wimpy, he invites you to a duck dinner with the understanding that you bring the duck.

SOUTH MUST ACT FOR ITSELF

That newsprint — and even book paper — can be economically and successfully made from the pulp of Southern pine has been so thoroughly demonstrated that the proposition is no longer questioned.

The only question for some time has been one of finances. Northern and Eastern mills — and Canadian — are naturally exceedingly solicitous as to their future, should the South engage in a large way in the production of newsprint, for which the United States is now sending abroad $170,000,000 annually. A feature of the situation that is having its effect behind the scenes is that a large amount of Northern and Eastern capital has been invested in Canadian mills. These mills, as a consequence, are in a position to exert influence in financial centers in the United States, in addition to that of the plants located and owned in this country. This reluctance of Northern and Eastern capital to engage in the industry in the South has become plain.

This resistance creates an issue that must be met. The opportunity for the establishment of a great industry in the South is question. As the money cannot be obtained, and for a well understood reason, in the North with which to establish the initial plant, it is up to the bankers of the South to finance it. It will cost only $4,000,000 and that is a bagatelle when the financial resources of the South are considered.

There are about $7,000,000,000 on deposit in the banks of the South today. This is an amount practically equal to the deposits in all the banks in the United States when the first Roosevelt was President; it is nearly half what was in all the banks of the country on the eve of the World War.

Industrial leaders and representatives of the banks and representatives of the banks should get together; go over the entire situation, consider the mass of facts that has been accumulated and conditions as they actually exist from a practical, investment viewpoint; subordinate local pride as to the location of the initial plant to the general interest, for its success would mean that similar enterprises would spring up in various parts of the vast pine area of the South.

Employment would be given to tens of thousands of operatives; the construction industry would be stimulated; agriculture would be expanded, and a great service performed for the nation, as well as for the South in that the dependency of the United States upon other lands, costing a vast sum annually, would be forever brought to an end.

This opportunity to establish a great industry in the South means a great responsibility, also. Southern leadership cannot afford to fail to meet this challenge to its vision, interest, and loyalty.—Nashville Banner.

"Why are 'Banking hours' so short?"

THE hours during which a bank is open to the public for the transaction of business are usually called, "Banking Hours." They are only a part of the working day for bank employees.

A bank is very much like an efficient housewife who has work to do before a dinner party and work to do after the guests leave. There is much work for employees to do before the bank opens to the public. At the close of "banking hours" window tellers count and balance their cash; bookkeepers prove accounts and tally ledgers; checks are arranged for clearance to other banks and to other cities; conferences are held; officers dictate and sign correspondence, go over reports and tend to many other duties.

Our bank does much of its work before and after "banking hours."

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE FARM LAND

Under and by virtue of a decree entered in the cause of Cora E. Settle et al, complainants, and Lois C. Sullivan, et al, respondents, entered on the 18th day of June, 1936, by the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia, in the certain cause therein pending, styled as above, the undersigned commissioners, T. E. Didlake, and Thomas H. Lion, who were thereby appointed for the purpose, will offer for sale, by way of public auction, in front of the Peoples National Bank, at the intersection of Battle and Center Streets, in the town of Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, on,

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1936 at about noon of that day, those four certain tracts or parcels of land, lying and being situate in the Counties of Prince William and Fauquier, Virginia, mostly in the County of Prince William, described as follows:

(a) One tract of 268 acres, more or less, in Brentsville Magisterial District, county and state aforesaid.

(b) A lot consisting of about a quarter of an acre, on the south side of Southern Railway's right of way in the town of Manassas, Virginia.

(c) A tract of 64 acres, more or less, lying in Cedar Run District, Fauquier County, Virginia.

(d) A tract of 30 acres, more or less, lying and being in Cedar Run District, Fauquier County, Virginia.

The same being the real estate of which L. A. Mooney died, seized and possessed, and upon which the said L. A. Mooney resided upon the larger tract as his home for a number of years.

Terms of sale: One-third cash, residue in two equal annual payments, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent from day of sale, title to be retained until settlement therefor has been made, with the right of the purchaser or purchasers to anticipate any or all of the deferred payments. Purchaser of purchasers to give their promissory notes, waiving the homestead exemption, evidencing the deferred payments.

T. E. DIDLAKE,
THOS. H. LION,
Commissioners of Sale.

J. P. KERLIN,
Auctioneer.

This is to certify that a bond in the penalty of $4,000.00, required by the Court in above decree, has been executed before me by Thos. H. Lion, with approved security.

Given under my hand this 17th day of September, 1936.

GEORGE G. TYLER, Clerk.

TODAY In Politics . .

by Geo. Dent

Reds and Fascists riot in the streets of Paris . . . London Reds defy Fascists, halt parade . . . Fifty thousand Nazi farmers see Hitler parade army's might . . . Soviet citizens live dull life, obey the boss . . . You see the Soviet citizen does not have to worry about his club dues, does not have to drive his own car, does not have to worry about owning his own home, does not have to worry about politics and help to elect a president . . . He is just another ox and the State takes care of him and does his thinking . . .

Spain continues her desperate battle . . . A Fascist army and a Socialist Communist government, simply reminds us to "remember Spain" . . . Of course I do not agree and we find very few thinking men and women agreeing with Mr. Hearst . . . We may not all see eye to eye with the New Deal, but there are millions that are unable to pierce the haze and see beyond the present darkness and Red government because of acts of the New Deal . . . If we follow the general trend of the times and fall into socialistic state, whether it be Red or Nazi or Fascist or some other political ism of our own making I believe a majority of the thinking people will be able to properly place the blame . . . Every thinking American knows that Mr. Hearst is a menace to a democratic form of government . . . Look at his record . . . Space does not allow me to point out a record that is covered with the pox marks of a money baron, a man who has not failed time after time to discharge his hired help when they have asked for better living conditions . . . He wants to continue the "American Way" (as he calls it) why, because it means more power to Hearst and actual slavery to the worker . . . The Securities and Exchange Commission the other day made public the annual report of the publisher's Hometake Mining Co. Last year this rich mine, and it was gold, returned Hearst a clear profit of $9,389,544, about twice as much as its wage bill and a little over 100 per cent profit . . . Hearst owns 3,000,000 acres of old mother earth and believes firmly in a high standard of living for Hearst . . . The blue Pacific laps his shore line for fifty miles, and upon the mountain top, he surveys his vast domain . . . He invites his chosen few to break bread with him around his festive board and we count seats for three hundred in his golden dining room . . . But the gold that glitters is for Hearst and Hearst alone . . . Hearst is bitterly opposed to collective bargaining so far as labor is concerned . . . His sole idea seems to be that money is king and the king can do no wrong . . . To him, money must get its pound of flesh . . . Hearst believes that human interest is secondary to property interest . . . Knowing the history of Hearst; who is planting the seeds of Communism?

Read the spy racket, the utterly disreputable nature of the spy racket . . . The foul breath and Frankenstein efforts to the inhuman philosophy of the property gentry . . . The inquiry being directed by Senator La Follette acquaints us with facts even revolting to a second grade civilization . . . Such a cancerous growth fattening on the wealth of industry and sucking the life blood of the workers . . . Think of industry spending millions of dollars for deadly weapons and munitions, tear or nauseating gas bombs for use in industrial disputes . . . Think of the worker going on the job and every fifth man a spy, working side by side with the worker and being paid by a private detective concern . . . Think of the high powered guns and gas bombs being stored in the factory ready for his spy friend to turn against him . . . Think of the jets of live steam ready to sear the flesh from the bone, if you a worker, should happen to be so thoughtless as to dare ask a few of your fellow workers to help form a union for better living conditions . . . Knowing this, how long will the intelligent workers of America walk with out stretched hands, bowed head and meek voice beg for the crumbs that fall from the fruits of his labor? Knowing this, who is sowing the seeds of Communism?

In 1930 Mr. Morgan, the great J. P., said, both he and his partners were able to wipe out all tax obligations to the government . . . Again Mr. Morgan seems to be able to repeat . . . the Van Sweringens borrowed $48,000,000 from the Morgan House, and later the deal was closed for a paltry sum of $4,730,000, showing a loss of $43,000,000 to the Morgan House . . . Presto, this amount was marked up as loss to the House of Morgan and when the income tax was juggled for the great J. P., the $43,000,000 was offset the earnings and Mr. Morgan's income tax was "NIL" . . . How about your paltry little $3,000 you paid, didn't you? Knowing this, who invites the reds to come over and take charge? When Col. Knox makes a speech and tells his auditors that their life insurance policy has dwindled to a mere nothing, that they have lost all, that their savings have been stolen by the New Deal; who does he think he is talking to?

The Col. opposed the New Deal bank guarantee . . .

Knowing this, who is baiting the reds?

OCOQUAN & VICINITY

Miss Doris Bubb of Woodbridge was home for the week end from Teachers' College, Harrisonburg.

Messrs. Houston and Marvin Hoyt, sons of a former minister of Ocoquan Methodist Church, were Ocoquan visitors during the week end.

We are glad Mr. Harvey Petelet, who had an accidental fall while working on Ocoquan School Gymnasium, was not seriously injured.

The Girls Friendly Society of Pohick Church will meet at the Vestry House on Saturday, October 10, at 3:00 p. m. This is a very important meeting, so be sure to attend.

Do not forget the oyster supper at Ocoquan High School next Friday, October 9, at 5:30.

At a recent meeting of the Alumni of Ocoquan District High School, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Janet R. Murphy, president; Mrs. Harold Lloyd, vice-president; Miss Muriek Hicks, secretary; Miss Frances Malcolm, treasurer; Miss Burnetta Brockett, chairman of social committee, and Mr. Howard Petelet, chairman of athletic committee. Other appointments will be made later by the President.

The Oyster and Chicken dinner announced to be held at Pohick Church in last week's issue was an error, in that it should state October 16th, instead of November 16. Be sure to note that this dinner will be on Friday, October 16th, commencing at 5:30 p. m.

Fish are still biting good in Ocoquan Creek.

THE KENSINGTON CLUB WILL SERVE LUNCH

CATHARPIN

Sunday was the last service of the present conference year on the Sudley circuit and all were anxious that the pastor go to the annual meeting with a balanced budget so that Old Sudley could have a "par" standing among her sister churches throughout the conference. This was not quite accomplished but it is hoped this week will finish the job. The past year has been a fruitful one in many ways and the pastor's return is fully expected and desired.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Beard of the Hamilton-Purcellville charge and Miss Allie Norris of Purcellville, Va., were dinner guests at Oakwood on Wednesday of last week. The Beards always make diligent inquiry about the people of Gainesville and Sudley.

Miss Hallie Dorsey of Berryville, Va., is now with her niece, Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale where she will probably remain for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sowers of North Carolina were recent guests of friends and relatives in the neighborhood.

Mrs. "Bub" Sanders of Atlanta, Ga., was a visitor in the Catharpin community last week.

Mrs. J. T. Onley and Mrs. C. F. Feuschel and children of Arlington, Va., were recent callers at Oakwood.

Miss Frances Robertson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale, has entered business college in Richmond.

Mr. A. J. Bitterly, Real Estate Trust Officer with the Munsey Trust company, Washington, D. C., after spending many summer evenings and week-ends at his "Rest Cottage" on Groveton Avenue, near Sudley, has broken camp and returned to his city residence for the winter. Mr. Bitterly loves the quietude of the forest after his day's work is done where he can rest and listen to his pet mocking bird as he warbles from his palatial cage the size of an ordinary sitting room from whence cometh the music his owner loves to hear.

The Misses Betty and Frances Brower of Lone Oak spent last week-end with the Misses Rose and Betty Trible of Tecumseh Farm near Fairview, Va. It is just almost uncanny to thing how soon children of but a short time ago begin to take their places amid the "social whirl" of life's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Brower of Purcellville, Va., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Brower's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins of Sudley. Mrs. Wilkins is expected soon to go to Purcellville, to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, and Mrs. Etta P. Lynn, were calling on friends in Arlington on Sunday afternoon last to see the new arrival in the Wade Akers home—a bouncing boy who has taken apartments at that address for an indefinite period.

Messrs. L. J. Pattie and R. L. Briggs were recent visitors of Sergt. Clifford C. Ward of the Marine Corps, Quantico, Va.

We are just wondering what influence the Dairy Festival people must have had on the Weather Man that compelled him to throw all his resources into high gear to drive away the preceding inclement weather and produce such a perfect, ideal, lovely, beautiful day upon which to stage its sixth most successful program of that annual event... Viewed from any direction the parking lots reminded one of the scene at the Henry House where all available space was occupied by parked cars and room was at a premium. One can not help the thought that this has been a year of wonderful opportunity for Prince William county and its county seat to introduce themselves to the country in a big way. The Bull Run Battle Field can always be rated as "Back Log No. One" from which can be produced "episodes" of almost if not quite National interest. With this and the Dairy Festival having outgrown its infancy, has settled down and is fast becoming a fixture in the minds of people similar to Winchester's Apple Blossoms, neither of which can ever be ignored as long as trees bloom and cows give milk. With these advantages this country has opportunities rare to show her skill in the art of producing programs of far more than local interest—an asset of far more value than we sometimes think. That this year's event was a success is the consensus of all; it could not be otherwise with the efficient staff in charge of it. This festival should never be discontinued unless a better thing be found to take its place.

With the coming of fall and the sharpening of weather temperatures and the ripening of the turkey crop, people's appetites begin to wander a-field for a change of diet. To this end, church and social societies are beginning to take notice and are prepared to meet this unrest and coming eventualities with full and plenty. Nor must that other delectable dish—the oyster—be forgotten. A happy combination of these "hi-lights" of the epicurean's portfolio of delectables, will satisfy the most fastidious appetite. You know what is said about "good cooks and good books?" well we have them both; and our good cooks will be ready to serve their friends with all the "delectables of the season" in full and plenty upon the dates announced.

To start the "fall campaign" in all its fullness and glory, the ladies of the Gainesville Missionary Society will give an oyster and turkey supper in their rooms in that city on Friday night October 16, 1936. On the following Friday, October 23, an all-day bazaar with dinner and supper will be held in the Sudley church; this being the regular annual occasion held by the Missionary ladies at that point. It is unnecessary to say that all shall be eaten out of "house and home" be welcome upon these occasions. Sudlast year but she thinks she has the measure of the community appetite this time and hopes to prevent a repetition of last year's experience.

OCCOQUAN

Dr. Clifford Beach and Miss Jebbie Whitehead of Richmond, Va., spent last week with Miss Lola Beach.

Mrs. Nettie Petry has returned from Camden, N. J., where she spent several weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. Pauline Thornhill and Mr. Barton Padgett of Seat Pleasant, Md., and Mrs. Pickett and daughter, Peggy Anne, of Waterfall were recent guests of Mrs. Robert Wayland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, who have spent the summer at their home, "Rochledge," left on Monday for Washington where they will pass the winter.

Mrs. Jennie P. Hammill had as her guest over the week end Mrs. Corinne Reardon of Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Seelman spent several days recently with friends in Camden, N. J.

Mr. Colyn Jellison, who has been in Denver, Colo., for the past several months, returned on Saturday. He left on Monday accompanied by his family, expecting to make their home in Denver.

Mrs. F. L. Morrison, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mrs. O'Bierne of New York City is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Powell who is ill at her home in Woodbridge.

BURKE

On Thursday, October 15, at St. Mary's Parish Hall, Fairfax Sta., a dance will be given by the ladies of the Church.

Her former neighbors at Burke have been interested to hear of Miss

Francis P. Sangster's new position, which takes her to Philadelphia. She is leaving her former place with the national Education Association in Washington, D. C., to become personal secretary to Dr. Daniel A. Polny.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas spent the Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cake on their yacht down the Potomac.
