SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR

46 STATES GO FOR ROOSEVELT

WEDNESDAY DATE FOR ROLL CALL

Chairman DeChant Names Full Corps of Workers.

The Annual Red Cross Roll Call Membership Drive begins officially on Armistice Day, Wednesday, November eleventh.

On that day and continuing until Thanksgiving workers will be busy all over our county, giving the people an opportunity to enroll as members of the National Red Cross. An annual membership costs $1.00. Many people like to give more than one dollar. A contributing membership is $5.00; a sustaining membership $10.00; a supporting membership $25.00. No matter which type of membership you select, only fifty cents goes to National Headquarters, and the remainder stays in the hands of the Local Chapter for its own work.

"I have at hand," said Rev. John M. DeChant, Roll Call Chairman, "a copy of the annual report of the County Red Cross Public Health nurse, Miss M. Sabina Neel. She made a total of 614 tuberculosis visits among both whites and colored. She carried on a constant program of health education, working with infants and preschool children, and mothers. This means weighing, measuring, examining, advising, hospitalizing, conducting Hygiene classes and supervising clinics. To do it all Miss Neel travelled 16,032 miles." Public Health Nursing Service is the outstanding Red Cross project in the county. A later article will describe other Red Cross activities in the county.

A Special Gifts committee is already active. This is composed of Mrs. W. L. Lloyd and Mrs. Janie Abel for Women's Organizations; Mr. O. D. Waters, Fraternal Organizations; Rev. DeChant and Rev. J. Royall Cooke, Churches; Mrs. Mamie Delaney, Mrs. E. C. Spitzer and Mrs. Wallace Dawson, Civic Organizations.

Roll Call Workers who will be at work in the Manassas District are: Mrs. Guy Allen, Mrs. John Slaybaugh, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mrs. J. L. Bushong, Mrs. F. R. Hynson, Mrs. J. P. Lyon, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Miss Sally Lewis, Mrs. O. R. Hersch, Mrs. Alvin Compton.

Roll Call has already begun in some sections of the county. This is because Washington, D. C., and our neighboring counties of Arlington and Fairfax begin their campaign about a month earlier than the usual time. However, the nation-wide drive for memberships begins officially on Nov. 11.

AMATEUR SHOW DRAWS CROWD

The amateur contest, sponsored by the Bennett School League last Friday night, was an outstanding success from each and every angle. The first prize was won by the "Hill Billy Lions," and the second prize was awarded to Nancy and Molly Leachman who did a very clever tap dance.

Miss Jesse Mae Conner and Mr. Everett Kline received honorable mention; Miss Conner for her singing of "Beautiful Dreamer" by Stephen Foster and Mr. Kline who sings, yodels, and plays a guitar in a most professional manner. Another comedy skit put on by "Buck and Bill" went over in a big way.

A waltz number done in a very charming manner opened the contest: The lovely dancers were Fanelle Pickeral, Wilhelmina Lewis, Nancy and Betty Parrish. This was followed with Lelia Dellinger doing some of her acrobatic stunts which proved most difficult indeed. Others participating in the contest were Miss Dorothy Gassman, Mr. Walls and son, Mr. Joe Robey, Kenyon Davis, Sinclair Boatwright, Mr. Dudley Martin, Mr. Dick Hynson, and a military tap put on by Lucy Morris, Shirley Hynson, Mildred Parrish, and Margaret Blakemore. Many thanks go to all the participants for making this contest a worthy one. Mr. Martin and Mr. Hynson, two very prominent business men, showed remarkable sportsmanship.

The contest was put on by Mrs. Eloise Compton Trimmer who deserves much credit for her efforts.

LARGE TURNIP

Mr. W. W. Arnold this week presented the Journal Office with a turnip weighing over five pounds. It was grown on Mr. Arnold's farm.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

November 3, 1936.

Hon. John Q. Rhodes, Director,
Division of Motor Vehicles,
Richmond, Virginia.
Dear Mr. Rhodes:

I note from the newspapers where four young men from Harrisonburg are in the hospital on account of a wreck on route 50 near Chantilly which was caused by a barricade placed in the road, presumably by Hallowe'en celebrators.

I sincerely hope that you and your department will do some intensive detective work in an effort to run down the criminals who were responsible for placing this barricade. It would certainly seem that persons who would place a barricade across a public highway in the nighttime should receive the same punishment as that provided for train wreckers.

With best personal regards, I am,
Sincerely yours,

WM. F. COOKE,
Town Manager.

(Editorial Note:

(The above letter has the hearty endorsement of the Journal and we commend Mr. Cooke for his valuable suggestion.)

JOIN THE RED CROSS

CLUB WILL AID STUDENT MUSIC APPRECIATION

The Music-Literature Section of the Women's Club will sponsor a card party to be held Friday afternoon, November 13, at the home of Miss Margaret Lynch.

There will be six tables of bridge. This party is being put on to help defray expenses for the student concerts given by the National Symphony Orchestra in Washington during the winter months.

The Music-Literature section has taken advantage of this opportunity in previous years and it has benefited the Manassas students greatly in their appreciation for better music.

The committee comprises Miss Margaret Lynch, Mrs. Florence Hynson, and Mrs. Irene Duling.

EUROPEAN TRIP IS RECALLED

Local Educator is Guest of Kiwanis Club.

The Kiwanis Club had one of its rare treats last Friday evening when Miss Eugenia Osbourn, who was for so many years head of the Manassas High School and one of the founders of the local educational system, addressed the meeting.

Miss Eugenia toured England, Scotland and portions of the continent during July and August. She very vividly described her ocean voyage and the many points of interest in the cities and country sides.

Her descriptive ability was splendid and the members almost felt as if they were taking the trip again with Miss Eugenia.

The club was also delightfully entertained by several piano numbers by Miss Elizabeth Gilley.

Announcement was made of the fact that the club will shortly initiate two very excellent additions, whose names will be given after they have been escorted into membership.

This is education week and very likely something apropos along this line is to be expected tomorrow night.

Nominations for officers for 1937 are in order and the spirited contest is said to be on.

On Tuesday evening an inter-club meeting is being held at Fredericksburg and a delegation from Manassas will unquestionably be present. The meeting will be held at the Princess Anne Hotel.

FIRE CAUSES SAD LOSS

Last Saturday at noon the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Wright of Nokesville, Va., was completely destroyed by a fire of unknown origin.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wright were away from the house at the time the fire broke out. Their three year old son, who was recovering from a broken leg, crawled to the door and called for help.

When Mr. Wright finally got to the house, he found that nothing would be saved, but did make a desperate effort to remove their small baby from the flames, which he did.

The child was immediately taken to a hospital but died several hours later.

The building was partially covered by insurance.

The county joins in deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Wright in their sad losses.

DR. MCBRYDE GUEST SPEAKER AT MEETING

The Garden Section of the Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Mamie Lynch Delaney.

Dr. Stewart McBryde was the guest speaker of the afternoon and his subject was "A Man's Garden." Dr. McBryde gave his personal appreciation of a pretty garden and centered his theme around "Roses." He had a great deal of new thought on the selection, planting and care of roses which was of deep interest to his listeners.

The Section planned a fall trip over Skyland Drive as the woods and forests are very attractive and colorful at this time.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Only Maine and Vermont Remain Republican.

GREATEST POLITICAL VICTORY OF CENTURY

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was re-elected on Tuesday by the greatest popular majority ever attained by a presidential candidate.

Forty-six states were swept by the Democratic avalanche, leaving only Maine and Vermont to the Republicans. And even Kansas, the home state of Gov. Landon, was carried by the New Deal.

Most of the forty-eight state governments were also captured or retained by the Democrats. The gigantic victory left the Democrats, as well as the Republicans, completely stunned by the magnitude of the victory which gives Roosevelt 523 electoral votes to 8 for Landon.

The Virginia vote followed the national trend and despite the ripple caused by the "Jeffersonian" supporters of Landon, gave Roosevelt large majorities.

On early returns with scattering precincts missing, the Eighth Congressional District, gave the following presidential vote for Roosevelt and Landon, respectively.

Albermarle	1,835	634
Alexandria	3,381	1,225
Arlington	3,077	1,880
Charlottesville	1,393	335
Fairfax	2,839	1,586
Fluvanna	582	210
Goochland	569	231
Greene	341	321
King George	469	295
Loudoun	2,287	867
Louisiana	1,095	428
Madison	802	662
Orange	1,242	402
Prince William	1,599	517
Stafford	562	517

The great personal popularity of Hon. Howard W. Smith was also reflected in his vote throughout the Eighth Congressional District where in numerous precincts he ran ahead of the Roosevelt landslide despite of some voters to vote the local congressional ticket at the end of the presidential ticket.

At Nokesville, in Prince William County, where Landon carried by three votes in one of the hardest fought of local contests, Judge Smith carried the precinct.

The minor candidates in Virginia and throughout the nation failed to attract much attention at the polls. In Virginia where the party name does not go on the ballot, only a few voters really knew the political affiliation of these lesser candidates.

They were Dr. D. Leigh Colvin, prohibition; William Lemke, Union; Norman Thomas, Socialist; John W. Aiken, Socialist-Labor; and Earl Browder, Communist. The last named was not admitted in some states and was personally "rotten-egged" in some places where he attempted to speak.

The nearby congressional vote, on early returns was as follows: Alexandria: Smith, 3,516; Green, 838; Shelton, 74. Arlington: Smith, 2,831; Green, 1,331; Shelton, 23. Fairfax: Smith 3,193; Green 1013; Shelton 72. Prince William: Smith, 1,397; Green, 290; Shelton, 7.

Senator Carter Glass had no Republican opposition, those voting against him being obliged to favor the unknown names of Rohlsen and Burke both of whom failed to make a substantial showing.

The popular vote in Virginia stands Roosevelt, 230,378; Landon, 95,556.

CLUB HEARS INTERESTING TALK ON FLOWERS

Mrs. Lomax Tayloe, of Vienna, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Garden Club last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. G. Allen. Sixteen members and eight guests heard the interesting talk on "Roses." The speaker explained the history, culture and varieties of the most loved flower in the world and answered the many questions asked by those present. The President, Mrs. Hutchison, presided and welcomed guests from Herndon and Haymarket as well as those nearby.

At the business meeting Mrs. Bocock was made chairman of the Program Committee. The Conservation committee was voted an extra $10 for its work.

Mrs. Bocock reported placing the Welcome to Prince William sign near Bull Run bridge.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

By
Dr. James T. Marshall

WHY DO THE WICKED PROSPER?

Asaph, the Hebrew poet-philosopher, raised this question 3,000 years ago. (Psalm 73) Looking about him he saw men who defined the Almighty, practiced justice and laughed at death itself. Yet they amassed great fortunes, lived in luxury and seemed to escape the common troubles of life. "When I sought to know this," he said, "it was too painful for me." This has a very modern ring. All of us have felt the same perplexity and wondered what use there could be in our trying to do right. In the year 1935 A. D. we see wicked people having a magnificent time. Criminals lay an annual levy of fifteen billion dollars upon the people of the United States. Fortunes are built up by bandits, kidnapers and bootleggers and many a legitimate business is carried on with unscrupulous methods while thousands of industrious and honest persons can scarce keep the wolf from their doors.

One day Asaph discovered that he had been making a mistake in envying the prosperity of the wicked. "I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end." He learned that they were standing in slippery places and were destined to destruction, while God was ever the portion of the righteous who would guide them by His counsel and afterward receive them into glory.

We are stupid if we waste any time begrudging wicked people their wealth. Let them get what they can out of it, since it is all they have and will not last very long. Their ill gotten gains give them no real satisfaction. An embezzling bank president now sitting in a prison cell looks back over sixteen years in which he was able to escape detection and spend his money. It is his testimony that the torments of conscience turned those years into a hell and he found no peace until he surrendered himself to the authorities. There is no prosperity in any real sense when the heart is not right.

The person with the largest bank account may be the world's truest pauper. The real millionaire may dress shabbily and live in a hut. If I were listing the world's most wealthy men I would include Mozart who died in poverty; Schubert who went hungry because he had not enough money to buy a meal. Tolstoy who gave up his worldly possessions and was content to dine on porridge and Livingstone who refused comfort and even luxury in England and died in the solitude of an African forest. At the head of my list I would place the name of Him who was born in a stable, reared in the home of a carpenter and when He died left nothing behind Him but a peasant's robe.

No one is poor who has brains, character, a love of nature and of books and a passion for friendship, specially if he knows the meaning of the life which "is hid with Christ in God."

'LADY BE CAREFUL' SEEN AS REAL LAUGH FESTIVAL

Lew Ayres, Mary Carlisle, Larry Crabbe, Benny Baker and Grant Withers head the cast of Paramount's uproarious comedy of gobs and girls, "Lady Be Careful," which opens next week at the Pitts' Theatre. The farce deals with the exploits of a mild young sailor who suddenly finds that he has gained a reputation as a demon with women, and has been slated to make a date with the most inaccess-sible blonde of Panama City, Miss Carlisle.

Dialogue of the Dorothy Parker variety — she collaborated with Alan Campbell and Harry Ruskin in penning the screen play — marks the comedy throughout.

J. T. Reed, ace Paramount director who made the picture, lined up an outstanding cast to support the chief players. Comedy talent is packed into the group.

"Lady Be Careful" opens aboard a battleship, where Larry Crabbe, a marine, is boasting of his prowess with women. He makes a bet that he can meet a group of society girls, seen aboard a sailing boat nearby.

Crabbe fails, but Ayres, known as "Dud" to his fellow sailors, goes fishing and chances to get his scow rammed by the girls' sailboat. They rescue him and take him ashore, bringing him back to his ship several hours after the deadline set by ship's officers. "Dud" becomes "Dynamite" in the eyes of his fellows. They cook up a bet that he can date Miss Carlisle in Panama City, a girl whose coldness to sailors has won her the name of "Stonewall" Jackson.

This bet is the basis of the hilarious story which follows. Ayres meets, dates and becomes engaged to the girl by the end of the ship's Panama stay.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

It would be a long time any day, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119: 105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE GROWING KINGDOM:
For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.—Mark 4: 28.

VICTORIOUS DEMOCRACY

Not since the unanimous reelection of George Washington have the American people endorsed a President of the United States as vigorously as they voiced their approval of Franklin Delano Roosevelt on Tuesday.

The re-election of Judge Howard Smith to Congress from this District is equally gratifying to local Democrats.

The work of Judge Smith in his District has been so evident and effective that the National Committee called upon him for help in the doubtful territory in the middle west. This places him before the public as a national figure and his District is more than proud of his record.

THE PRESIDENT'S VICTORY

The nation yesterday re-elected Franklin Delano Roosevelt President of the United States in what seemed early this morning to be the greatest landslide in the nation's history. Never before has a President seeking re-election been accorded so overwhelming a vote of confidence by the people of the country. Today the tumult and the shouting will be dying down and the nation will turn its attention back to normal concerns of life, relieved that the strain of the campaign is over. Fortunately, political wounds heal rapidly, and the followers of all parties can, if they will, bury all campaign bitterness with the campaign itself.

The main thing to consider now is the future of the country. That too will be safe enough if the President and the Congress and the American people work together to obtain the best solution of our problems. Our national problems are still serious and difficult in spite of the fact that conditions in the nation have vastly improved since we reached the depths of the depression in 1933. At least we have laid the groundwork for solid building. Our greatest concern now should be that the structure we rear on this groundwork shall be both solid and enduring.

these circumstances is whether the President, fresh from his astounding victory, will continue to be influenced by theorists whose aim appears to be to regiment the American people in industry and agriculture or whether the trend of his second administration will shift more to the right and he will be content to consolidate the gains the nation has made in its progress toward a sane and liberal government. The latter course, we believe, would be the wisest and safest course for him to follow. Certainly the nation is not now in the mood for further governmental experimentation.—Northern Va. Daily.

MISS MERCHANT ENTERTAINS CHILDREN OF CONFEDERACY

The Children of the Confederacy were entertained at their October meeting by Miss Mildred Merchant at her home on Center street. There were 25 members present.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Elizabeth Davies. The Ways and Means Committee suggested giving a dance to make a little money. This was put in the form of a motion, voted on and passed. The club also voted to give a little contribution to the Dairy Festival Fund.

After the business meeting Miss Lelia Dowell started the program by playing "Dixie." Nancy Lu Dillake read her piece on "How General Jackson got his Name" with which she won a prize last year and Howard Cooksey read the story of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack.

Then the hostess and her mother served delicious refreshments.

NOTICE

This is to advise that there is to be NO HUNTING or TRESPASSING on my farm on the Fairfax side of Bull Run. Please do not disregard this notice!

R. L. LEWIS, JR.

JOSEPH ROBBERSON

One of the old land marks of wartime Centerville passed away on October 22 when Joseph Roberson, aged eighty-seven, died at his home, south of the village, after a brief illness.

He had been failing for many months, but his last illness was quite brief.

Born here on July 18, 1849, Mr. Roberson, as a boy witnessed all the war time rigors which with the disappearance of the stage lines nearly wiped from the map a town about to incorporate when hostilities broke out.

He was a very quiet citizen, a good neighbor and an industrious farmer. He joined the old Southern Methodist Church at Centerville a half century ago and was a devoted Christian.

He married in 1889, his wife dying in 1932. There are three sons, all of whom live in Fairfax County, two on the home place. They are J. M., Denny and Willis, the first named living near Fairfax.

Funeral services were held at his church on October 24, the Rev. S. V. Hildebrand, one of his old pastors officiating. The pall bearers were all old neighbors: J. U. Kincheloe, Beauregard Swart, George Schneider, John DeBell, Oden Hutchinson and Norman Crouch.

ANOTHER BIG POTATO

Mr. Joe Keys of Brentsville has brought in a sweet potato (red yam) which weighed 7 pounds when dug. It weighs 6 1/2 pounds now.

"How does a Bank handle out-of-town checks?"

WHEN you deposit a check written on a distant bank, your bank ordinarily routes it for prompt collection to a city correspondent bank with which it maintains an account, or to a Federal Reserve Bank. The following steps are usually taken:

1. The account of your bank is credited with the amount of the check at the correspondent bank or Federal Reserve Bank.
2. The check is charged against the account of the bank on which it is written.
3. It is sent to the bank on which it is written, and charged by it against the account of the person or firm which issued it.
4. The amount is then credited to your account as soon as advice are received that the check has been honored.

Our bank is a part of this nation-wide system which transfers funds safely, quickly and conveniently.

OUR PATH

If shadows never crossed our path and skies were always blue;
If never tears bedimmed our eyes and friends were always true;
If n'er we saw another's needs or had a chance to give,
We'd never know the blessings of a Christlike life to life.
It's only after tempests that we know that peaceful calm.
And after heartache that we find in Jesus healing balm;
'Tis only sorrow that can bring that comfort sweet and sure,
While trials draw us close to Him and strengthen to endure.
It takes a bitter and the sweet to make of life a whole;
The disappointments and the tears to help us reach the goal.
Yea, heaven will seem fairer for the battles fought and won;
Eternal rest the sweeter when we hear that glad "well done."

"SINGING COWBOY"
NEWEST GENE AUTRY

The greatest musical western picture ever seen, with no less than seven fine new Gene Autry songs and two comic this critic's estimation of "The Singing Cowboy," Republic's spirited new musical western which opens a two day run at Pitts' Theatre next.

Autry and his guitar sang and played two he-man cowboy ballads, two charming love songs, and with his excellent cowboy orchestra effectively put over three other notable numbers. Burnette, as usual in the Autry westerns, furnished some original, laugh-getting comedy songs and scenes.

Lois Wilde, a screen newcomer who shows the results of several years training in the Ziegfeld Follies and on the stage, is not only the most beautiful but also the most able feminine lead seen in the western picture in many moons.

Director Mack Wright has handled the lavish production with crispness, getting the full effect of auction into what is chiefly a delightful musical picture in an out-door atmosphere. Nat Levine produced.

CATHARPIN

On Tuesday, November 10, 1936, the truck belonging to the Home of the Aged at Gaithersburg, Md., will call at the parsonage, Gainesville, to receive any donations which may be at the point for the Home. Donations of anything the farm produces will be gladly received. Year before last, the Sudley circuit made a record by the liberality of the donation offered, but last year was not very large, but it is hoped this year will find many things awaiting their call. The truck will arrive some time during the afternoon.

Cynthia, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie, has been confined to her room for the past several days suffering from cold and sore throat which seems to be somewhat epidemic just now in the community.

Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale accompanied by Miss Hallie Dorsey, visited Berryville on Sunday last. Kittie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dogan of Groveton, is at present confined to her home suffering an attack of scarlet fever. Her condition at this writing is very satisfactory and her early recovery is anticipated.

The Lone Oak Browers spent the day on Sunday with the Larkinton Larkins when all the children were at home anent the birthday celebration of their mother, Mrs. William Larkin, of that vicinity.

Shrub Day was observed at Sudley on Wednesday of last week when a number of trees and plants were set out around the building and on the terraces including pines, altheas, forsythias and irises; the irises being planted on both sides of the main entrance, all of which will add much to the general appearance of the landscaping which this may be but the beginning.

People are still rehearsing events of last week's Golden Wedding which seems to have awakened in their minds many things which probably would never have been vocalized had not this coming together offered an opportunity to recall past pleasures and things of interest. People get busy in this "Vale of Tears" or at least think they are busy and in consequence they neglect one of the greatest blessings of life, that of mingling together in friendship's holy bond of neighborliness. Thomas R. Marshall, one of our best vice presidents, once made a remark that has oft been quoted when he said — "What this world needs is a good five-cent cigar." We can not just get the full interpretation of that remark unless it may mean that when a man is thru with his daily tasks and sits down to dream over his day's gains or losses, he can soothe himself into a quiescent mood so restful to his tired nerves. Now if we were but able to invent a similar phrase applicable to our community's social life, we should feel well paid for the wear and tear of the brain tissue involved. Phrases of a helpful, lasting value are rare creatures indeed; hence when one is mired in the whole literary world seizes upon it and translates it into everlasting fame.

We believe that every one will agree that sociability is the keynote of life itself; and that if there is one thing we are short on, it might be just that. Without sociability anything can happen; with it, the best that life holds for humanity can be realized. Without it, Nations go to war; with it they are at peace; and what holds good with the world at large, holds good with the individual both in the city ward or in the rural districts of the country. So may we paraphrase Mr. Marshall's observation to read? — "What this country needs is more pure friendly sociability."

A number of times we heard the remark — "Why can not people get together oftener? They all seem to enjoy it so much?" This observation awakens in our mind the query — Are we losing the old-time sociability? and if so what is taking its place? Human nature is naturally friendly if allowed to follow the even honor of its way. People love to mingle, to talk and enjoy the company of their friends, but apparently, they seem to have lost the art of visiting and rapidly growing into the habit of staying at home, too busy to visit or even attend church; consequently we begin to feel that the neighborhood is not friendly when in fact we, ourselves, are not doing much to make it friendly.

The best way we know to promote friendships and friendliness is to attend church regularly. This community has but one church and needs no other place to centralize its interests. To neglect this one thing is to neglect the only thing of value to the souls of men and their general welfare. It should therefore, be the concern of every citizen in the neighborhood, not only to maintain the church but that the church may show the true source of community spirit and friendliness such as all must have if we are to properly enjoy the best things in life.

56 pounds of burned lime, 74 pounds of hydrated lime, 100 pounds of ground limestone and 100 pounds of ground oyster shell have approximately the same neutralizing power. DEALER VISITS
FORD PLANT

Mr. Sharrett Enjoys Trip to Detroit.

Mr. Ralph L. Sharrett, of Prince William Motors, has gone to Detroit to take part in the first general meeting of Ford dealers from all parts of the United States and Canada held with Henry Ford, founder, and Edsel Ford, president, since the company was organized 33 years ago.

Unveiling of the new Ford V-8 cars for presentation to Henry Ford in Greenfield Village of the chislori three-centuries-old Cape Cod windmill which once stood at the four corners ad West Yarmouth, Mass., are the high spots on the program.

The dealer meeting was scheduled to take place in the Coliseum at the State Fair grounds in Detroit. It has been transformed into a huge theater, in which the new cars were presented in a spectacular setting created by Walter Dorwin Teague, noted industrial designer.

The dealers were to visit Henry Ford's Greenfield Village for a tour of the historical sights there. Later they were to make formal presentation of their gift to Henry Ford. The old mill, moved intact from its original site on Cape Cod, was purchased by individual contributions of Ford dealers in 1934. In its Greenfield Village site, it has been re-erected, just as it was when build by the Pilgrims in 1633.

Returning to the Coliseum in the evening, the dealers were to be guests of the Ford Motor Company at a banquet. A huge floor show featuring a broadcast and other acts famous in the entertainment world were to be presented.

Detroit staged an enthusiastic welcome for the dealers. Flags and pennants line the streets, giant signs bear messages of greeting.

The 4-H Club group and the community Sunday School will serve lunch at Mr. L. F. Merrill's also on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tuttle and Mr. Phillip Carter, of Washington, were out from Washington on Tuesday to cast their votes.

FACTS AND FIGURES

ON YOUR TELEPHONE

BY

Edwin S. Hill

A net gain of 600,000 telephones was reported by the Bell System during the first nine months of this year, which was approximately twice the gain shown in the corresponding period of 1935, President Walter S. Gifford of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company reported to the stockholders at the regular quarterly meeting.

Toll business, Mr. Gifford states, has also shown substantial improvement. The number of toll and long distance calls for the first nine months of the year have been about 12 per cent over those for the corresponding period of last year.

Reductions in long distance rates, effective September 1, are expected to save telephone users more than $7,000,000 annually. These reductions are another step in a definite program for better and cheaper telephone service.

Earnings of the Bell System were reported as $8.87 on each share of American Telephone and Telegraph Company stock as compared with $6.38 for the same period last year. Net income applicable to A. T. & T. Co. stock for the twelve months ending August 31 was $165,519,125 as compared with $112,110,139 for the same period last year. Net income applicable to common stocks of the associated telephone companies held directly by the public was reported for the twelve months ending August 31 as $9,202,015 as compared with $7,892,073 for the twelve months ending August 31, 1935. Dividends on preferred stocks of associated telephone companies held directly by the public for the twelve months ending August 31, were $6,346,284 as compared with $6,425,087 for the same period in 1935.

The tabulated report follows:

	12 Mos. Ending August 31, 1936	12 Mos. Ending August 31, 1935
Operating Revenues	$984,832,348	$914,500,794
Operating Expenses	$303,000,620	$244,023,041
Taxes	112,521,272	92,608,232
Operating Earnings	$569,309,456	$577,869,521
Other Earnings—Net	22,375,000	7,825,000
Total Net Earnings	$591,684,456	$585,694,521
Interest Deductions	50,978,002	52,533,201
Net Income	$181,667,424	$183,427,296

Dr. Jewett Says:

Long speech highways have a basic characteristic in which they differ fundamentally from other highways. The telephonic highway must respond as a single unit from end to end or not at all. It is a single entity, almost a living organism which, if disturbed at one point, reacts throughout. As a coordinated, balanced and self-contained unit, it is undoubtedly the most extended structure man has thus far built. Not like the highways for rolling stock which may be torn up for considerable sections and leave other portions perfectly operative, we must consider the telephone line, even though thousands of miles long, as a single integrated entity.

Dr. Frank B. Jewett is vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories.

MANASSAS H. S. WINS

AN UNKNOWN HERO

For 15 years the greatest and the least of men who have visited the National Capital have paid reverent tribute to the memory of an unidentified hero who lies in a simple tomb on the hills of Arlington National Cemetery. On next Wednesday this hero, the Unknown Soldier, will again be paid the honor due those whose spirit lives on in a world that is not always forgetful.

Behind the Armistice day observance at Arlington there is a dramatic story of how the body of the Unknown Soldier was selected and brought to its present resting place. That story will be told, as a fitting prelude to Armistice day celebration, in The Sunday Star, November 8.
