SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR

T. B. ASSOCIATION HAS MANY AIMS

Group Reports Gains in Various Projects.

It is the hope of this Association to use all their funds for prevention by supporting milk, hot lunches, paying for XRay of patients unable to pay for this service, cod liver oil and for an educational campaign. There were 37 white children and 41 colored receiving cod liver oil from this fund in January. In one colored school all children are reactors to tuberculin and 55.5 of them are under-weight. The Association voted to give Miss Townes Jeans worker $30.00 to provide hot lunches for these and another school during February, March and April. Miss Sue Ayees applied for funds for a white school to assist with their hot lunch program if necessary. This was approved. Miss Neel applied for fund to supply a patient with blankets and necessary apparel to go to the Sanatorium.

The Junior Red Cross helped to sell bangles in the school; and have helped in many other ways with our program among children effected with tuberculosis.

There are 85 white and 30 colored cases of tuberculosis in Prince William. 124 white and 54 colored suspicious cases and 320 white and 127 colored contacts.

Virginia stands second in tuberculosis death rate in the Southern States; and third in the United States. The public health nurse being every mindful of this devotes much of her time to tuberculosis work. Our Program can be effective only in so far as you the citizens of Prince William help to support it. Have you made your contribution to the Seal Sale Fund? 80 per cent of the money you contribute remains in our County. 15 per cent goes to the Virginia State Tuberculosis Association, and 5 per cent to the National Tuberculosis Association. Send your contribution now to your Local Chairman, if you have not already done so.

The guest speaker, for the meeting will be Miss Nancy Byrd Turner, author and poet.

Her program is varied and delightful, and her winning sense of humor and sincere humanity have endeared her to all who have heard her.

Miss Turner's lecture is being sponsored by the Garden Section of the Club and promises to be one of the most outstanding of the many fine speakers presented to the club this year.

The Executive Board is requested to meet at the home of the president on Monday, February 8, at 7 p. m. (Please note the hour.)

FLOOD REFUGEES ARRIVE SAFELY

Mr. Paul Rexrode and family whom the raging flood of the Ohio River caused to flee from their home in Louisville, Ky., are now in Manassas at the home of his father, Mr. J. H. Rexrode. He reports conditions in the flooded area beyond the power of human language to accurately depict.

The Red Cross organization, so generously aided by the people of the country in general, is doing a noble work in alleviating the sufferings and supplying the wants and privations of so many people in such dire distress.

The Garden Section of the Manassas Women's Club will meet with Mrs. J. P. Lyon on Monday, February 8, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Benjamin Johnson will speak on "Color in the Garden." All members urged to attend and visitors cordially welcomed.

LOCAL RED CROSS CONTINUES DRIVE

Flood Needs Said to be Unlimited.

While the drive for funds for the relief of flood sufferers in the Ohio river valley has been successful in Prince William County, the Chapter is continuing its drive for funds, under instructions from the National Red Cross Headquarters in Washington, D. C.

"The response to the Red Cross appeal on behalf of the flood sufferers exceeds the generosity and spontaneity of anything that has in recent years been experienced by the national organization," says Admiral Carey T. Grayson.

The Red Cross is now caring for nearly a million flood refugees, and more are being added daily as the flood progresses. If you have not made your contribution, do so at once, to any of the workers listed below in the Chapter Treasurer's report, or mail directly to Mr. O. D. Waters, Manassas, Va.

1937 VIRGINIA "GARDEN GUIDE" NOW AVAILABLE

Virginia's new garden week guide, listing more than a hundred Virginia estates that will be open to the public from April 26 to May 1—Garden Week in Virginia, came from the press today. The Garden Club of Virginia immediately will begin distribution in connection with its invitation to the public to see Virginia during this period.

Lovely old estates from Washington, D. C., to Danville, are included in the list of places to be visited. The James River plantation belt again is included, as well as many Piedmont estates and several in the Shenandoah Valley. The homes of a number of the presidents of the United States that came from Virginia and of other notables, are included. Several places will not only show their lovely old gardens but permit visitors to the homes as well.

Among these latter are Woodlawn, owned by Mr. Oscar W. Underwood, near Alexandria, Rippon Lodge, built in 1725, Belle Grove at Port Canaway, Sabine Hall, near Warsaw, the Virginia House, The Oaks, Amphill, Berkeley, Carter's Grove, Chippokes, and others of the James River plantation group, many places in restored Williamsburg, Berry Hill, near South Boston, Prestwood near Clarksville, Mountain View in the Danville area, Montebello, north of Orange, Breomo at Breomo Bluff, and in the Gloucester district, Goshen, and Long Bridge Ordinary.

Funds received from Garden Week admissions are expended by the Garden Club on the restoration of famous Virginia gardens and trees that are publicly owned. Beneficiaries of the past include Monticello, the college of William and Mary, Kenmore, the home of Washington's sister, at Fredericksburg, the grounds of the Lee Chapel at Washington and Lee University, the garden at Wilton, near Richmond, the Rolfe property garden, near Jamestown, and the Woodrow Wilson birthplace garden, at Staunton.

"LILLIAN STEVENS DAY"

The Women's Christian Temperance Union was entertained in January by Mrs. Thos. Broadus with Mrs. Geo. Baker and Mrs. Broadus in charge of program. Mrs. Henry Seeley was appointed 2nd vice-president and will be presiding officer in the absence of the president and first vice-president.

"Lillian Stevens Legislative Fund Day" is one of the twelve "Red-Letter Days" of the W. C. T. U. and is observed in January.

An offering taken by all local unions at this time makes possible the "maintenance of a qualified representative at National Legislative headquarters in D. C. who keeps watch of all measures pertaining not only to temperance but to the entire program of service of the W. C. T. U."

Dr. Izora Scott is the present representative and the "Union Signal" the official organ of the W. C. T. U. publishes her weekly letter. Dr. Scott very graphically gave the outstanding happenings connected with the opening of the Seventy-Fifth Congress and later gave excerpts from Senator Sheppard's Prohibition Anniversary Speech. Some of the points brought out in the Texas Senator's speech as given by Dr. Scott are "Modern Government Requires Clear Thinking," "Evils of Saloon and Bootlegging Remain," "Nature of Alcohol Not Changed" and "Conditions Challenge Action."

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Broadus served dainty refreshments. Francis Willard Day will be observed in February with Mrs. J. J. Murphy and Mrs. R. F. Saunders in charge of program.

BOARD MEETING POSTPONED

Owing to the illness of the division superintendent, the county school board yesterday postponed its regular monthly meeting to February 10.

Soil Conservation Meetings Scheduled

Farmers Urged to Take Advantage of Benefits Available.

The new 1937 Soil Conservation Program will be explained and questions pertaining to National agricultural policy discussed at the following meetings in the county during the coming week: Manassas Post Office, Saturday, February 6, 1:30 p. m.

Haymarket, New School Building, Monday, February 8, 7:45 p. m.

Independent Hill, The Hall, Tuesday, February 9, 7:30 p. m. Nokesville, High School Building, Wednesday, February 10, 7:45 p. m.

Bethel, G. C. Russell's Store, Thursday, February 11, 7:45 p. m.

All farmers of the county are urged to attend one of these meetings and learn the details of the new farm program now so that they may plan their 1937 farming to take full advantage of the benefits available.

1936 soil conservation and soil building payments to Prince William farmers will amount to approximately $12,000.00 and with a larger participation and the liberal allowance for soil building practices provided by the new program, the total should be considerably larger in 1937. Until the maximum soil building allowance established for a farm is earned, $2.00 per acre is allowed for seeding red clover, or bluegrass, $2.50 per acre for seeding alfalfa; $1.50 per acre for seeding lespedeza, sweet clover, crimson clover or alsike clover; $1.00 per acre for seeding white clover; $12.00 per ton for using 16 per cent Superphosphate on permanent pastures, rotation pastures, meadows, or straight seeded grasses and legumes; and $2.00 per acre for subsoiling land to a depth of at least eighteen inches on farms where subsoiling is needed.

The method of determining the maximum amount that any farm may earn by carrying out soil building practices, how a farm may qualify for diversion payments, and the rates of payment for other soil building practices not listed above, will be explained in detail at the Manassas, Haymarket, Independent Hill, Nokesville and Bethel meetings.

Any young women of the town and neighborhood who would be interested in taking the course are invited to attend this meeting to learn what is offered and be ready to start with the class since certain hours are necessary for a certificate.

WIN HONORS

ANNUAL MEETING OF FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Prince William County National Farm Loan Association was held at the town hall at Manassas on February 2, 1937.

This was one of the largest attended meeting of the association since its organization in 1917. The following members were elected to serve as directors for 1937: J. J. Conner, P. A. Lewis, C. F. M. Lewis, T. R. Hurst, and M. Bruce Whitmore, all of Manassas. The following officers were also elected: J. J. Conner, president; P. A. Lewis, vice-president, and M. Bruce Whitmore, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. L. W. Foster of the Secretary Department of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore was present at the meeting and outlined the activities of the Bank and the Association during the past year.

PLAN T. B. CLINIC FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

There was a meeting of the Prince William County Tuberculosis Association held on January 27th, in the Office of The County Nurse with eleven people present.

Miss Fleeman from The Virginia State Tuberculosis Association was present and helped us to plan our program for the year of 1937.

One of the projects the Association for the year is to arrange for a Tuberculin and XRay Clinic by one of the State Clinicians for all white and colored High School Seniors. It is at this age that our young people are stucken down with Tuberculosis. Remember that if tuberculosis is discovered early, it can be easily cured. It is preventable and curable when diagnosed early and proper treatment followed. The patient is not a menace to any one unless they have a far advanced involvement of the lung and are expectorating the bacilli. This is known as an open case of tuberculosis and should be isolated especially from young children. Unfortunately we lack funds to properly care for these patients.

Miss Ore Lee Colvin and Mr. Rufus Colvin of Washington, D. C., spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. Rosa Colvin.

We were sorry to hear of the sad accident Monday at Nokesville of Mr. Wells, the school bus driver, when a truck he was trying to crank, crashed into him injuring him badly. He was rushed to a hospital. Mr. Wells is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Wells of Nokesville. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

We are glad to hear that Rev. J. M. Frame, who has been in a Washington hospital for several months, is able to leave the hospital for a while. We hope he will soon be well again.

Rev. Frame has many friends in this community who wish him well.

PEACE-TIME ARMY

The devastating Midwestern flood has demonstrated to the Nation that its Army can fight other things than wars.

Some of the peace-time roles performed by United States troops—by Army Engineers and Army planes—are described in an article appearing in the next Sunday's Star.

HAYMARKET

Always the people of this locality have responded nobly, in times of disaster, when called upon to aid in the relief work of the Red Cross. Therefore, it is not now surprising to know that men and women from every hamlet, village and rural section around Haymarket are contributing, some of them even at the cost of personal sacrifice, to the fund for the relief of more than 900,000 of our fellowmen affected by the flood disaster of whom 774,612 are now under the care of the Red Cross.

Children of the junior grades are donating their mitts, and students of the higher classes are contributing to fund; chiefly because of the stirring appeals that have been made by Walter Haislip, jr., principal of the Haymarket School. Last week Mr. Haislip conducted two Red Cross meetings for the general public at each of which he made strong appeals in behalf of the relief fund. Having lived until recently in Louisville, Ky., naturally there was the personal note in Mr. Haislip's talks that was touching. Other speakers at these meetings were Rev. W. Carpenter, C. B. Roland and Dr. Wade C. Payne.

To the Vice Chairman of the local Chapter, Miss Loretto McGill, has been assigned charge of the Haymarket relief fund. She asks that all who can will contribute to the needs of those now dependent on the Red Cross for food, clothing, bedding, shelter, medical and nursing care.

The Patron's Turkey Dinner sponsored by the community league of Haymarket will be held in the school auditorium Thursday, February 18, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. C. B. Roland is chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner and this group of ladies have worked quite capably in their efforts to make this dinner a success.

During the evening the dinner guests will be entertained by a well directed program, and everyone is cordially to participate in this lovely affair.

The Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. W. D. Baker Tuesday afternoon. Following the routine business session, an enjoyable social hour was spent, with Mesdames C. B. Allen and

W. D. Baker, hostesses.

The Athletic Association of Haymarket High School is sponsoring a dance in the school auditorium Friday evening, February 5. A popular orchestra has been engaged and the public is invited to attend.

Haymarket High and Leesburg High schools played another exciting and interesting double header last week when the Haymarket girls were victorious over the Leesburg team and the Haymarket boys losing to Leesburg.

Misses Robert Payne and Jean Johnson of Fredericksburg State Teachers College were recent guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wade Payne and Mrs. J. N. Kerr.

BURKE

The P. T. A. met in the school Monday at 8 o'clock p. m. The teachers are anxious to have co-operation in regard to the small children that are not attending daily. We hope the parents of all children will try to make an effort to keep the children in school so they will continue on in the grades and not be retarded in their work.

Mr. Mathew Quirk died in the Walter Reed Hospital Wednesday, January 27, after a long illness. He leaves a widow and four children. Interment took place in Arlington Cemetery.

Norman Wright (colored) was so badly injured from the caving in of a sewer at Fairfax, Va., that he died without regaining consciousness. He leaves a wife and several small children.

Mrs. Mamie Stewart is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Mary Tumbly of Pender, who is quite sick.

Miss Helen Heath and Mr. Jack Cannon were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Merchant Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wyckoff were guests of his mother, Mrs. Rena Carter, on Sunday.

Miss Jane Ficklin of Washington spent Friday and Saturday with her aunt, Mrs. Neta White.

Mr. Bradford visited relatives at Bealton, Va., over the week end.

Miss Ann Fairfax Kirby spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Merchant.

The 4-H Club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. B. Merchant on Saturday afternoon.

COMEDIENNE RUSSEL
ESSAYS DRAMA ROLE
FOR FIRST TIME

A transformed Rosalind Russel makes her appearance in Columbia's picturization of George Kelly's Pulitzer Prize play, "Craig's Wife," showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Pitts Theater with John Boles in the male lead. Instead of a charming, pert and roguish comedienne, the star is seen in the role of a grim, implacable woman who sweeps relentlessly to the goal that is to spell her ruin.

"This picture has proved once more," says Dorothy Arzner, Hollywood's only woman director, who brought "Craig's Wife" to the screen, "that an actor or actress who excels in comedy must also be capable of expressing deeper emotional feelings with equal artistry."

"Many comedians never have an opportunity to play 'Hamlet,' though invariably it is their secret passion. Often this is because the facial features of the actor lend themselves more to laughs than tears. But the main reason for the repression of their craving to go dramatic, is the fact that the public has become so used to laughing at their quips and actions that anything they say would evoke a guffaw.

"Miss Russel is lucky," continues Miss Arzner. "She has been given a chance to show her wares early in her career, and I don't mind telling you that her fans are going to cheer what they see. She gives a sensitive and highly intelligent interpretation to an exceedingly difficult dramatic role."

Movie-goers have known Miss Russel since the middle of 1935, when she made her first screen appearance in the comedy success "No More Ladies." She has subsequently been seen in light roles in "Forsaking All Others," "China Seas," "Rendezvous," "It Had to Happen," and "Under Two Flags."

Supporting Miss Russel and Boles in "Craig's Wife" are Billie Burke, Jane Darwell, Dorothy Wilson, Alma Kruger, Thomas Mitchell, Raymond Walburn and Robert Allen. Mary C. McCall, Jr., wrote the screen play.

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

LIBERAL supplies of many vegetables are in market at very moderate prices in spite of the California freeze which seriously affected supplies from that state. From Florida, Texas and the West Indies are coming GREEN and LIMA BEANS, BEETS, CARROTS, CELERY, EGGPLANT, PEAS, PEPPERS, SQUASH, SPINACH and TOMATOES as well as new POTATOES, TURNIPS and ONIONS are also plentiful and cheap. MUSHROOMS and salad GREENS, with the exception of Iceberg LETTUCE, are abundant and relatively inexpensive.

Eggs Plentiful and Cheap

EGG production has been unusually large for the season and prices are low. Take advantage of them for luncheon and supper dishes and use them liberally in cooking, for the value is exceptional and severe weather may at any time reduce production and raise prices again. High feed prices may also shorten their season of plenty. BUTTER prices, too, are somewhat lower.

Lamb Still Best Meat Value

LAMB continues to be the best meat value. When varied with less expensive cuts of BEEF and PORK and with POULTRY it can be the mainstay of several dinners a week. Poultry, with the exception of fowl, is like lamb cheaper than last year. A shortage of good beef is beginning to be felt. VEAL is high and scarce but fresh PORK is somewhat lower. FISH supplies at this season are not dependable.

Winter Fruits Reasonable

APPLES and BANANAS are reasonably priced and fairly plentiful while ORANGES and GRAPEFRUIT are abundant and cheap. AVOCADOS are plentiful for the season and very reasonable. Not many years ago at this season they brought a dollar and a half apiece now they are available for as little as fifteen cents in some markets. Winter STRAWBERRIES are unusually plentiful and cheap for the season. They are sweet and full of flavor as well.

Below is a menu planned around foods which are plentiful and moderately priced.

Egg and Anchovy Canapes
Fried Chicken
New Potatoes
Avocado and Grapefruit Salad
Bread and Butter
Strawberry Shortcake
Tea or Coffee

THE SIT-DOWN STRIKE

A minority of radical union workers in Detroit have been carrying on what they style a "sit-down" strike in some of the plants of General Motors. Borrowing the idea from Europe where many nasty ways have been devised to destroy life and property, they have been able to suspend the production of vital necessities, throwing hundreds of thousands of persons out of work.

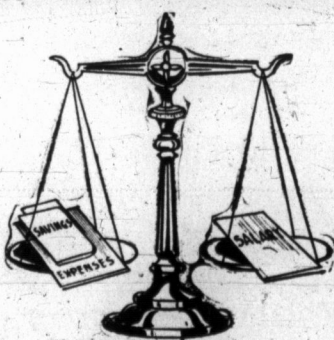

Encouraged by a leadership which is openly demanding that President Roosevelt ride with them as an election obligation, regardless of the merits of the case, and also emboldened by some unfortunate utterances by Secretary of Labor Perkins, they are now defying a court order requiring them to evacuate the property which they have been occupying unlawfully.

The whole structure of our government rests upon enforcement of the mandates of the courts. The strikes have seemingly forgotten the safety of the general public in their zeal for self advancement, and because of their selfish attitude they have lost a great measure of the support which they could have enlisted under a more intelligent leadership.

Just as something would be wrong in Prince William when the Sheriff has to come and get you; so something is wrong in Detroit when the court has to order the sheriff to act. Law abiding citizens respect a sheriff as they do. No other law enforcing officer and the public generally will support the sheriff at Detroit in whatever measures he sees fit to apply in evacuating these Detroit factories.

In the hours of frozen darkness, lashed by angry waters, thousands of people fled for their lives. Thousands of others stood by to help, and chiefest of these were the telephone employees. Without their help, and the help of faithful radio operators, the work of rescue could not have been carried on with the force and rapidity that meant saving lives by the thousands that otherwise would have been lost.

What would the world do today without the telephone and the radio?

Obedience

PERHAPS there is no mental quality more necessary to the happiness, health, prosperity, peace of mind, and success of the human race than obedience. Harmony is the proof of obedience to God's law, while discord is the result of disobedience to His law. The happiest homes are those wherein the Golden Rule is obeyed, where the children are taught to be obedient through love, and where the elders set an example of obedience to divine Principle, God, good.

A little child who has been rightly taught to obey God, will obey his parents and his school teachers, and will have little trouble later in life in observing the rules or regulations of his college or university. This habit of obedience will be of inestimable value to him in his business career; and he will seldom be found disregarding the traffic laws or the civil laws of his city, state, or county.

In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 183): "Divine Mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection, and strength. No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty. Obedience to Truth gives man power and strength." If we observe closely, we shall find that the great and good characters in history, and all who have achieved true success, have been obedient to their highest sense of good, and have prospered; for, as the Bible declares (Isaiah 1:19), "If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land."

Humility and obedience go hand in hand. The latter often serves as a protection from subtle evils. An example of this is shown in the following incident. A little girl who from the cradle had been taught, through love, to obey her parents instantly, was romping with a dog in a field through which ran the main line of one of the transcontinental railroads. The father, who was on the opposite side of the track, called to her to come to him, which she started to do. Just as she was reaching the track, he suddenly discovered the fact approaching limit, which was hidden from her view by a building. There was no time for words, so he raised his right hand in a gesture to stop, which she obeyed instantly, without knowing the reason for the signal. The child's obedience saved her from being struck by the train. Her parents, who witnessed the incident, gave thanks to the Father of us all for His law of love.

The Scriptures are rich in promises of blessings to those obedient to the voice of God. Jeremiah records God as saying (7:23), "This thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God; and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you."

Habit tends to govern our acts. If we have formed habits of obedience to God's laws they lead us aright, while lawlessness leads to trouble. In "Miscellaneous Writings" Mrs. Eddy tells us (p. 117), "God is the fountain of light, and He illumines one's way when one is obedient."

Christ Jesus, our Way-shower, has set us an infallible example in His unswerving obedience to the Father's laws, and His positive refusal to accept as law that which enslaves men, namely, sin, sickness, and death. His adherence to God's law was also manifested in obedience to civil law, as, for instance, when He paid the tax or tribute money found in the fish's mouth. Realizing the need of being both humanly and spiritually law-abiding, He said (Mark 12:17), "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

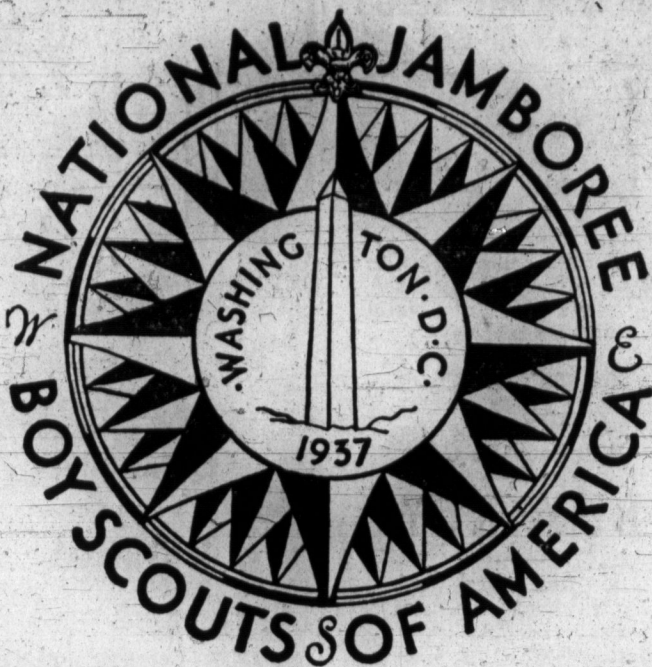

It is vastly important for us to know what are the laws to which we are yielding obedience, for as Paul says, "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" The children of Israel were commanded to partake of the manna which fell daily for their use, but when in disobedience they tried to store some, it spoiled. Many lessons are given to us in the Scriptures of the results of God's protection of the obedient, and also of the dire results which befall the disobedient. In "No and Yes" (p. 30) Mrs. Eddy writes, "God's law is in three words, 'I am All'; and this perfect law is ever present to rebuke any claim of another law."—The Christian Science Monitor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 31.

The Golden Text was—"The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing." (Zeph. 3:17)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." (1 John 4:7, 8)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "People go into ecstasies over the sense of a corporeal Jehovah, though with scarcely a spark of love in their hearts; yet God is Love, and without Love, God, immortality cannot appear. . . . Mortals believe in a finite personal God; while God is infinite Love, which must be unlimited." (p. 312)

CATHARPIN

This "sit-down" strike business is a terribly wretched thing; it spreads and spreads so rapidly that the first thing we know, all of us will be so obsessed with the notion that we shall wear out all the cushions in the household. We are all-ready feeling its influence in our reportorial business and have come to the conclusion that every body must be sitting-down someplace; at any rate, things are very quiet just now so that there isn't much to write about. Even plowing has ceased and all the usual activities of the season seem to be imbued with the C. I. O. spirit and resting comfortably or otherwise on their "oars." If that old saying is true that "No news is good news," this community must be in fine shape just now.

But the trouble is that when one sits down there is nothing doing. No matter whether he calls it a "strike," or whether or not he gives it a name at all, it amounts to the same thing—a cessation from work. So we fear that the Great Motor Strike is setting a precedent that we will all want to follow. We have all been sitting down too much for our good already, but we never called it a "sit-down" strike—just lazy. Now that we know its name and have an opportunity of observing its influence upon the welfare of the country, it may help us in our own domestic affairs at home.

Our esteemed little neighbor, Waterfall, has stepped out high, wide and handsome and given us a poem of Edgar Allen himself. Were he to venture back to this "Vale of Tears," he would certainly find a worthy successor who did not have to use the "classics" on an old, black raven, but could apply the beauty of its rhythm to other great things in life as well. We enjoyed your parody of the Raven very much and feel sure that if the Raven's author could know of it, he would feel that his works were appreciated.

At present this community is having its full share of sickness. In addition to mumps, measles and whooping cough the prevailing ailment just now is flu or its first cousin and forerunner—bad colds. The wet and unseasonable winter so far has been anything but conducive to good health. The entire family of Mr. George Davis of near this city have been bed patients during the past week or so suffering from flu, but better at this writing.

Mrs. A. B. Sapp, wife of Sudley's pastor, who has been confined to her room at the parsonage, Gainesville, Va., for the past five weeks, is still unable to be called convalescing, having had some very serious experiences during the past week from heart trouble. (This little lady who seems to be having more than her share of ailments just now, has the sympathy of the whole congregation who are hoping for her speedy recovery.)

The people of this community are much pleased anent the local improvement on Route No. 234 leading from Catharpin past what is locally known as "Dean's College." This short space of road had always been the "weak link" in the chain and always troublesome after rains. It is now being graveled and bids fair to become the "missing link," much to the delight of all concerned.

Mrs. Tolley and Miss Baker of Hampton, Va., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins of Marble Hill.

Many during the past week had the privilege of contributing to the Red Cross for the relief of sufferers in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys where suffering is greater than we in this part of the country can even visualize. After all, this is a great country. No sooner had the catastrophe happened than the entire Governmental forces consisting of Armies, Navy, Marines, equipment and cash were sent, post haste, to the scene of trouble to save those in dire distress. Action could not have been quicker or more resolute had the report come that Hitler or Mussolini had appeared before the cities with their armies. But we must not be surprised if the Red Cross should issue another call for be it remembered that the thousands of ruined and bereft people who have lost their all, can not be resuscitated in a moment.

Little Alice Elizabeth Lynn, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn, of this city, celebrated here fifth birthday on Sunday last when her little cousin Elaine Akers of Arlington, Va., accompanied by her father, Mr. Wade Akers, helped to partake of the dinner prepared by the mother and grandmother for this momentous occasion. Rains came and winds blew but nothing could stand in the way of a child's birthday. While we were children we loved to think of the added year with much pleasure and anticipation; but when begin to get older, we seem to shy away a bit from the advancing totals and somewhat loth to always tell the truth when confronted with oncoming antiquity; but it is always a joy to see the little ones grow up.

As we write this Tuesday morning—Groundhog Day—not a soul is in sight; the sun is shining brightly and the moon even seems loth to hide be-

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Make Your Own Exposure Guide

Pictures like this usually need an exposure different from that required for a landscape. It's better to know than to guess.

THE trouble with a good many amateurs is that they never get beyond the stage of happy-go-lucky shutter clicking. They keep on making haphazard guesses at exposures notwithstanding the indistinct pictures that too often result. They would be surprised at what they could accomplish as a regular thing if they really knew just what stop and shutter speed are needed with the type of camera they use for the existing light conditions each time they take a picture.

To be sure, exposure is a bit of a bugaboo even to the most experienced, which is why so many "advanced amateurs" use exposure meters. But, if you are still a guesser, nothing prevents you from learning to be a good one. Here is a suggestion to help you lick the problem.

Take the time some day soon to make an experiment with different stops and shutter speeds on the same subject. Have a pad of paper with you on which you have written the date, time of day and light conditions and the type of film. Then for every shot you make, put down the exposure data, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. Make two series of experiments like this, first with a group of persons, then with a landscape.

For the first experiment, why not get the cooperation of your family? Get them out on the lawn some afternoon and start shooting. Suppose it is not less than an hour before sunset and the sky is bright. Yours is a folding camera, with anastigmat lens, shutter speeds from 1/10 second to 1/100, and stops from f.6.3 to f.32. You have the family in the shade of a tree on a bright sunny day. An exposure of 1/25 second at f.8 seems right. Make that exposure No. 1 and carefully put down the data. Then make three other snapshots at f.8, No. 2 at 1/10, No. 3 at 1/50 and No. 4 at 1/100. Then make four more at f.6.3 and four more at f.11 at the same shutter speeds. This assortment has provided you with overexposures and underexposures of the same subject but surely several correctly exposed negatives at different stop openings under the same conditions.

Now get your photo finisher to make you the best possible prints of each negative. Then ask him to print all the negatives, in groups of four, on one sheet of paper, using the grade that will give the best print for the best negative of all. Result: you have learned something! And you will have a record to refer to of what different exposures will do to a picture and among them a correct one to emulate.

Do the same thing for a landscape picture, say at f.16, f.22 and f.32.

Right! The records will not serve precisely for other light conditions, but they will help you immensely to make the necessary adjustments. You will see for one thing that underexposure is a much more hopeless failing than overexposure; hence, in the future, you will tend to be more liberal in your estimates.

JOHN VAN GUILDER

hind the Western horizon; so, unless all signs fail, we are in for six weeks of "some kind of weather. If "unseasonableness" is to be the order of the day and the overt and unexpected to continue the rule, we refuse to prophesy just what that old gentleman may have in store for us during the next quarter. There is one thing sure, however, and that is that we shall have to take it as it comes. No use growling, no use complaining; the weather man is a law unto himself and neither the "New Deal" nor the Supreme Court may add to or take from, one iota from his most whimsical whims; so all we can do is to add grace, hope and patience to our "dignity" and be prepared to accept whatever may be vouchsafed unto us with a reverential and beign spirit; and add to our faith and hope, CHARITY

UNUSUAL COMEDY
FEATURES IRENE DUNNE

There are many reasons why you'll find "Theodora Goes Wild," which opens Monday at the Pitts Theatre, gay, impeccable entertainment, but above all is the revelation of Irene Dunne as a glamorous, captivating comedienne. Many believed Miss Dunne commanded such versatility but few dared believe she could be so completely charming so deftly subtle as a light comedy artist.

For her first feature-length laugh riot, Columbia production chiefs were shrewd in selecting a vehicle which allows the star full rein in displaying talents never before disclosed. "Theodora Goes Wild" has the flavor of "It Happened One Night" plus the delightful nonsense of "My Man Godfrey." It's action is fast, punctuated with rich directorial touches by Richard Boleslawski.

Until she writes several sophisticated novels under a nom-de-plume for her own amusement which unexpectedly leap into the best-selling class over night, Miss Dunne is just a small town nobody whose most notable achievement is playing the church organ. Despite the fact that the world is clamoring for a look at the woman-of-the-world author, her publishers refuse to disclose her true identity. It is the happy-go-lucky illustrator of her books, played to a turn by Melvyn Douglas, who finally discovers her secret and realizes that her every move is a pose. He follows her to her home town and it is not long before they have fallen in love. When Miss Dunne openly shouts this fact to her neighbors, the illustrator disappears. Forced to take matters into her own hands, the star deliberately follows him to Manhattan and, designing her approach from the pages of her own novels, participates in a series of adventures which finally bring the young man to his senses.

Miss Dunne's transformation from the kitten-like girl to the sophisticate is a superb portrayal, and Melvyn Douglas, playing opposite the star, likewise delivers an outstanding performance.

The supporting cast is exceptionally strong, with fine performances being given by Rosalind Keith, Leona Maricle, Thomas Mitchell, Elisabeth Risdon, Margaret McWade, Spring Byington, Thurston Hall, Nana Bryant, Henry Kolker, Sarah Edwards, Robert Greig, Mary MacLaren and others.

APPROVED SOIL PRACTICES PLAN

Latest provisions under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation program for soil-building practices, rates of payments, and other items were approved by the Secretary of Agriculture last week.

For Virginia, diversion under the 1937 program will be about the same as under the 1936 program. The rates of payment for diversion from the general soil-depleting bases were announced the third week in December.

In addition to the diversion payments as already announced, payments will be made for carrying out soil-building practices. The maximum amount that can be earned as a soil-building payment for a farm is called the "soil-building allowance," just as in 1936. But the method of determining this allowance is different from that used last year. In general, farms not eligible to earn a diversion payment will have a slightly larger allowance than similar farms that are eligible to earn a diversion payment.

On farms eligible to earn a diversion payment, the soil-building allowance will include $1 times the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm. This minimum acreage will be the acreage of soil-conserving crops normally grown on the farm, plus the number of acres diverted from soil-depleting bases in 1937.

On farms not eligible to earn a diversion payment, the soil-building allowance will include 75 cents times each acre of cropland, or $1.00 for each acre in the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops for the farm, whichever is larger.

In addition, the soil-building allowance for all farms, whether eligible to earn a diversion payment or not, will include: $1 for each acre of commercial orchards on the farm on January 1, 1937; $1 for each acre on which only one crop of commercial vegetables was grown in 1936; $2 for each acre on which two or more crops of commercial vegetables were grown in 1936; 25 cents for each acre of fenced, non-crop, open pasture land in excess of one-half of the number of acres of cropland on the farm.

Legumes and Perennial Grasses

The following rates of payment are provided for planting approved seeds of legumes and perennial grasses: Alfalfa, $2.50 per acre; red clover, mammoth clover, sericea, and bluegrass, $2.00 per acre; Austrian winter peas, vetch, crimson clover, alsike clover, sweet clover, annual lespedeza, orchard grass, $1.50 per acre; white acre.

In case a mixture is used, the rate of payment will depend upon the kind and quality of legumes and grasses in the mixture.

Green Manure and Limestone

Rates of payment for plowing or discing under certain crops as green manure, after the crop has attained a normal growth of at least two months; or leaving on the land certain of these crops grown in 1937, vary from $1.00 to $2.00.

Payments for applying ground limestone will be based upon the number of tons applied, rather than the acres covered, as was the case last year. Also, three different rates of payments will be applicable in the State, depending upon the cost of limestone in the respective counties. In Fairfax County the rate for applying ground limestone is $2.00 per ton.

For applying not less than 1,000 pounds per acre of ground limestone, or its equivalent, on cropland or non-crop pasture land, or not less than 500 pounds per acre, if the application is made by drilling with the seed of specified legumes or perennial grasses, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 2½ tons per acre at rates of from $1.50 to $2.50 per ton, depending on the availability of lime. Five hundred pounds burnt lime or 700 pounds hydrated lime equal to 1,000 lbs. ground limestone.

Superphosphate and Potash

For applying not less than 100 pounds per acre of 16 per-cent superphosphate, or its equivalent, on any permanent pasture, or in connection with seeding or maintaining specified legumes or perennial grasses, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 500 pounds per acre at the rate of 60 cents per 100 pounds; or, if the superphosphate is applied in connection with specified legumes or perennial grasses seeded in connection with soil-depleting crops, payment will be made at the rate of 30 cents per 100 pounds.

For applying not less than 30 pounds per acre of 50 per-cent muriate of potash, or its equivalent, on land on which 16 per-cent superphosphate or its equivalent is applied, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 250 pounds per acre, at the rate of $1 per 100 pounds; or if the muriate of potash is applied in connection with a legume or perennial grass grown in connection with a soil-depleting crop, at the rate of 50 cents per 100 pounds.

For terracing cropland or non-crop

pasture land which the County Committee finds is in need of terracing, with a sufficient amount of properly constructed terrace to give adequate protection against erosion, payment will be made at the rate of 40 cents per 100 feet of terrace.

FACTS AND FIGURES ON YOUR TELEPHONE

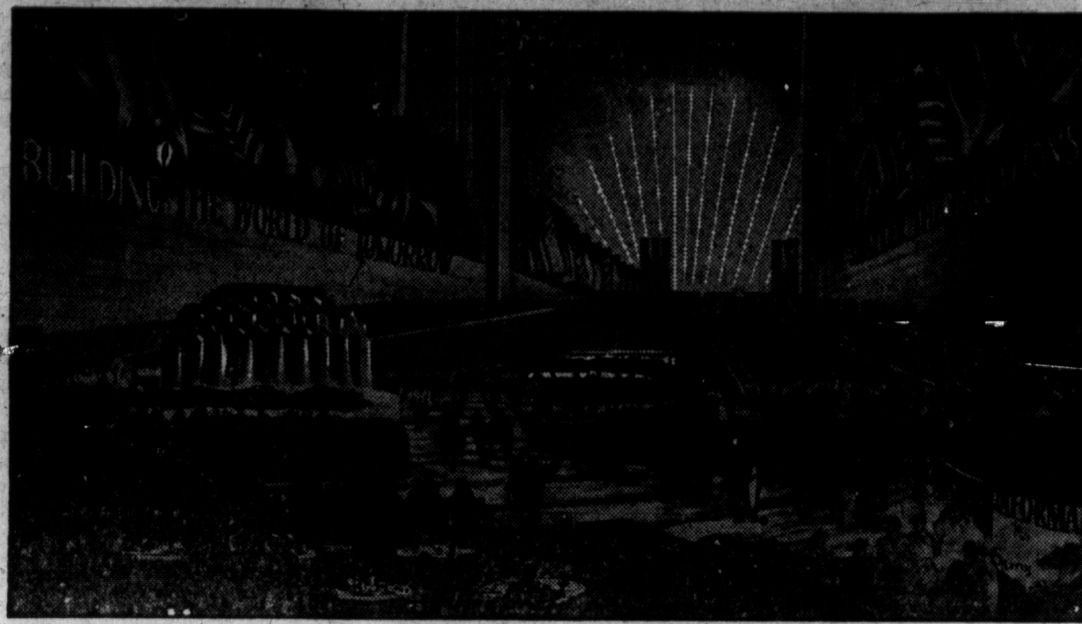

BY
Edwin F. Hill

Good telephone service is dependent on the good health of the companies' employees. In the interest of eliminating so far as possible the common cold which may result in something more serious, Dr. Leverett D. Bristol, health director of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, urges telephone employees to build up body resistance against colds through the development of proper health habits.

These include sufficient outdoor fresh air, sunshine and exercise, keeping the body warmly clothed and the feet dry, being careful not to become over-fatigued, obtaining the right kind and amount of food, including milk, eggs, butter, green vegetables and fresh fruits, and going to a doctor for periodic examinations and professional advice if in the sizable group of so-called cold-prone individuals.

If a cold is developed, Dr. Bristol urges that the employee not become a broadcasting station. A germ exchange may be started through personal habits. So far as possible he urged protecting others from a cough and sneeze, using only personal toilet articles, towels and drinking utensils and washing the hands frequently. Prolonged or deep-seated colds should always have the attention of a physician, particularly in the interest of preventing serious complications and lengthy disability. With reasonable care employees may avoid becoming either a receiving or sending station for the common cold.

THROUGH BROAD AND BEAUTIFUL ENTRYWAYS VISITORS WILL PASS TO THE NEW YORK FAIR

NEW YORK. (Special).—Forty thousand persons an hour—visitors from every state and every nation—must be accommodated in comfort at but one of the entryways to the New York World's Fair of 1939, according to arrangements the Fair Corporation is completing to handle a maximum daily attendance of 800,000. The artist's drawing, as reproduced above, calls for a magnificent double-decked entryway with underpasses, overpasses, pedestrian walks, bus terminals, comfort stations and bridge connections assuring comfort while providing an area of architectural splendor.

Shown is a ramp leading from the exposition grounds toward the I.R.T.-B.M.T. subway terminal, at a point where it is necessary to cross over the Long Island railroad tracks and to avoid undue congestion of pedestrian traffic. Shown in the left foreground is a domed restaurant within a fountain basin and a concourse bordered by grown plane-trees, and, nearer, an open-air cafe and an information kiosk. Along the flanking walls the artist has delineated the Fair's world concept which looks to the building of a peaceful, happier World of Tomorrow.

In the interest of developing telephony in Japan and for the manufacture of communication equipment, Dr. E. H. Colpitts, vice president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, will lecture there under the auspices of the Iwadare Foundation. The invitation was tendered by the Japanese Institute of Electrical Engineering and specified four weeks this spring as the period during which the addresses will be made.

The Iwadare Foundation is so-called for the gift in 1929 of 500,000 yen to the Japanese Institute of Electrical Engineering by Mr. Kunihito Iwadare, who was for many years managing director of the Nippon Electric Company. The principal of the gift is held as a trust fund and half of the income pays the expenses of selected Japanese students of electrical engineering for graduate study in the United States. The other half of the income pays the expenses of distinguished electrical engineers who are invited to give a series of lectures at various Japanese universities.

Previous lecturers from the Bell System were A. E. Kennelly, C. E. Skinner, Irving Langmuir and D. C. Jackson.

SCOUT WORK IS REVIEWED

National Executive Guest Kiwanis.

As a preliminary move toward observing the boy scout anniversary week, the Kiwanis Club had as its honor guest, Scout Master R. Jackson Ratcliffe and the scout executive, J. Wallace Talley of Washington.

Mr. Talley very ably outlined the history development and methods of boy scout in this country stating that he had been associated with it for about twenty-five years and was one of the first scout masters in Washington city.

His talk was extremely interesting and contained many very human stories. He pledged to aid the scout committee of the club and at his request, Mr. Ratcliffe called this committee together for an executive session following the adjournment of the club.

The members of the club were also very much delighted at the presence of Bill Lloyd who has been on the sick list off and on since Christmas.

O. D. Waters gave a statement regarding the amount of the contributions made to the flood relief and showed how an inaccuracy had crept into a newspaper account of it.

NOTED POETESS ADDRESSES CLUB

Ladies Welcome Miss Turner on Visit Here.

The regular meeting of The Woman's Club was held in the hotel on Wednesday, February 10. The various chairmen reported and the Committees for the Charity Ball were announced. Mrs. A. L. Mylander being General Chairman.

Upon conclusion of the regular business, Miss Nancy Byrd Turner, our own Virginia Poetess was graciously introduced by the Chairman of the Garden Section, Mrs. Margaret Lewis. The subject of her talk was "Who Makes a Garden?" and Miss Turner said she felt more or less like a fraud in talking on such a subject as she had never made a garden herself but as she read many of her poems, we all realized that a great deal more goes into a garden than the mere scratching of the soil and placing of a seed. Miss Turner said she felt right at home in Manassas, that while she was a child, her father was the Episcopal Rector at Haymarket for three years and her very first poem was published in the "Manassas Gazette."

"Gardens have meant a great deal in the life of the world and in the life of every one of us. If any of us who had made a garden should die the day after, nevertheless we would live on in that garden as year after year the flowers that had been planted would spring to life in the proper course of time."

"In a like manner, certain flowers come to have precious meanings due to the association of the fragrance." Due to the fact that many small animals live in gardens, she brought in the readings of her "Epitaph of the Toad" and the "Epitaph of the Rabbit."

"Gardens are doctors, teachers and preachers. Working in a garden brings back health; in a garden the eternal truths are expressed in our minds, gardens preach to us the truth of Eternal Life."

Miss Turner mentioned the wonderful gardens in England, at Warwick Castle, Lynmouth and especially those lovely ones in our own country, the herb garden at the Washington Cathedral and the gardens of Virginia, particularly the one of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg. Her audience was entranced with the reading of several dialect poems which included "Ise Gwine Whar Ise Gwine, Thar's Whar Ise Gwine."

She read that most beautiful poem, "Death is an Old Door Set in a Garden Wall." Miss Turner says that she has always been inspired in the writing of that poem as she modestly feels she could not have written it without help and it simply flowed from her pen without the usual forethought. In closing she read her poem, "Who Makes a Garden" in her own inimitable way which is so delightful and we are all anticipating the pleasure of again hearing her in the not too far distant future.

HARD LUCK VISITS BASKETBALL SQUAD HERE

Manassas High School lost another practice game to Lee-Jackson Tuesday night with a score of 25-16. Manassas did some very outstanding playing although the Lee-Jackson cagers were victorious.

The Lee-Jackson girls were also victorious over the Manassas girls with a score of 29-15.

Last week the "Generals" at Washington-Lee took a very one-sided game from the boys. This was largely due to the fact that the first team was used against Manassas and all sorts of unusual transformations in both teams were used.

MAIL ROBBERY AT MANASSAS

Pouch Stolen Last Saturday from Southern Railway.

Last Saturday evening, shortly after dark, a pouch of United States mail disappeared at the Southern Railway station at Manassas a few minutes before arrival of the east-bound train which carries into Washington the last mail of the day.

It is believed that the theft may have been carefully planned with inside knowledge concerning mailing practices in towns on Saturday evenings, where facilities for registration and for securing postal money orders are not available in the afternoon. In any event the pouch suddenly disappeared, probably at a moment when the Railway employee was briefly occupied with some special duty just before arrival of the train.

As negotiable securities and money are rarely sent in regular mails, the amount of actual loss from the robbery can not be at present ascertained, but the inconvenience occasioned by the theft has already been keenly felt as business concerns and individuals began to be advised through their banks and other business contacts that non-negotiable checks and other papers, invoices and orders would have to be duplicated if they had been scheduled for dispatch from Manassas on the last mail on Saturday.

Authorities of the Post Office Department and detectives of the Southern Railway are said to be investigating and while they apparently have very little in the way of clues to aid them, it is hoped that they may be able to solve the mystery and bring the offender to justice.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION PLANS SPECIAL SERVICES

Several matters of interest to Manassas church goers received action at the regular meeting of the Manassas Ministerial Association on Monday, Feb. 8. The first was the Good Friday union services. This will be held in the Presbyterian church on March 25, from 2 to 3 o'clock. The Rev. R. M. Graham, pastor of the Manassas Baptist church will preach the sermon. The stores and business places of the community will be asked to close for this hour, as has been the custom for several years past.

The second matter is new in the new religious history of the community. This is a dawn service to be held in the open air on Easter, March 28. The service will be in charge of the Association. The location is not yet decided upon, but the Portner Estate is the most probable location. Rev. H. P. Baker is chairman of the arrangements committee, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson is to secure the speaker, and Rev. John M. DeChant is to provide the music.

The ministers of the Association have been, conducting services each Sunday at the Convict Camp, The preaching schedule for the Sundays up to May 30 was announced.

The offering at the union service held on January 31, amounting to $8.00 was forwarded to the Red Cross for the Relief Fund.

It was decided to conduct a Religious survey of the Community in March. Rev. Baker will be in charge of the Survey and committee from all churches will be appointed to assist him. The last Religious Survey was made in December, 1934.

In addition to local ministers, Rev. J. Royall Cooke of Greenwich and Rev. A. B. Sapp of Gainesville attended the meeting.

The annual card party of the Wimodausis Chapter, O. E. S. held in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening proved to be quite a success. Everyone who attended reports a very enjoyable evening.

Despite the very inclement weather, there were nineteen tables of cards. One especially interesting table was comprised of eight players of "set-back".

There was a lovely prize given at each table and seven attractive door prizes. The door prize winners were Mrs. C. C. Lynn, Mrs. John Broadus, Miss Abby Lutes, Mr. Theodore Ritter, Mrs. J. Lawrence Gregory, Mrs. Wade-Dalton and Mrs. J. L. Bushong.

The hostesses included members of the Ways and Means Committee.

APPROVED SOIL PRACTICES PLAN

Latest provisions under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation program for soil-building practices, rates of payments, and other items were approved by the Secretary of Agriculture last week.

For Virginia, diversion under the 1937 program will be about the same as under the 1936 program. The rates of payment for diversion from the general soil-depleting bases were announced the third week in December.

In addition to the diversion payments as already announced, payments will be made for carrying out soil-building practices. The maximum amount that can be earned as a soil-building payment for a farm is called the "soil-building allowance," just as in 1936. But the method of determining this allowance is different from that used last year. In general, farms not eligible to earn a diversion payment will have a slightly larger allowance than similar farms that are eligible to earn a diversion payment.

On farms eligible to earn a diversion payment, the soil-building allowance will include $1 times the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm. This minimum acreage will be the acreage of soil-conserving crops normally grown on the farm, plus the number of acres diverted from soil-depleting bases in 1937.

On farms not eligible to earn a diversion payment, the soil-building allowance will include 75 cents times each acre of cropland, or $1.00 for each acre in the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops for the farm, whichever is larger.

In addition, the soil-building allowance for all farms, whether eligible to earn a diversion payment or not, will include: $1 for each acre of commercial orchards on the farm on January 1, 1937; $1 for each acre on which only one crop of commercial vegetables was grown in 1936; $2 for each acre on which two or more crops of commercial vegetables were grown in 1936; 25 cents for each acre of fenced, non-crop, open pasture land in excess of one-half of the number of acres of cropland on the farm.

Legumes and Perennial Grasses
The following rates of payment are provided for planting approved seeds of legumes and perennial grasses: Alfalfa, $2.50 per acre; red clover, mammoth clover, sericea, and bluegrass, $2.00 per acre; Austrian winter peas, vetch, crimson clover, alsike clover, sweet clover, annual lespedeza, orchard grass, $1.50 per acre; white clover.

In case a mixture is used, the rate of payment will depend upon the kind and quality of legumes and grasses in the mixture.

Green Manure and Limestone
Rates of payment for plowing or discing under certain crops as green manure, after the crop has attained a normal growth of at least two months; or leaving on the land certain of these crops grown in 1937, vary from $1.00 to $2.00.

Payments for applying ground limestone will be based upon the number of tons applied, rather than the acres covered, as was the case last year. Also, three different rates of payments will be applicable in the State, depending upon the cost of limestone in the respective counties. In Fairfax County the rate for applying ground limestone is $2.00 per ton.

For applying not less than 1,000 pounds per acre of ground limestone, or its equivalent, on cropland or non-crop pasture land, or not less than 500 pounds per acre, if the application is made by drilling with the seed of specified legumes or perennial grasses, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 2½ tons per acre at rates of from $1.50 to $2.50 per ton, depending on the availability of lime. Five hundred pounds burnt lime or 700 pounds hydrated lime equal to 1,000 lbs. ground limestone.

Superphosphate and Potash
For applying not less than 100 pounds per acre of 16 per-cent superphosphate, or its equivalent, on any permanent pasture, or in connection with seeding or maintaining specified legumes or perennial grasses, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 500 pounds per acre at the rate of 60 cents per 100 pounds; or, if the superphosphate is applied in connection with specified legumes or perennial grasses seeded in connection with soil-depleting crops, payment will be made at the rate of 30 cents per 100 pounds.

For applying not less than 30 pounds per acre of 50 per-cent muriate of potash, or its equivalent, on land on which 16 per-cent superphosphate or its equivalent is applied, payment will be made on a quantity not exceeding 250 pounds per acre, at the rate of $1 per 100 pounds; or if the muriate of potash is applied in connection with a legume or perennial grass grown in connection with a soil-depleting crop, at the rate of 50 cents per 100 pounds.

For terracing cropland or non-crop

pasture land which the County Committee finds is in need of terracing, with a sufficient amount of properly constructed terrace to give adequate protection against erosion, payment will be made at the rate of 40 cents per 100 feet of terrace.

FACTS AND FIGURES ON YOUR TELEPHONE

BY Edwin F. Hill

Good telephone service is dependent on the good health of the companies' employees. In the interest of eliminating so far as possible the common cold which may result in something more serious, Dr. Leverett D. Bristol, health director of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, urges telephone employees to build up body resistance against colds through the development of proper health habits.

These include sufficient outdoor fresh air, sunshine and exercise, keeping the body warmly clothed and the feet dry, being careful not to become over-fatigued, obtaining the right kind and amount of food, including milk, eggs, butter, green vegetables and fresh fruits, and going to a doctor for periodic examinations and professional advice if in the sizable group of so-called cold-prone individuals.

If a cold is developed, Dr. Bristol urges that the employee not become a broadcasting station. A germ exchange may be started through personal habits. So far as possible he urged protecting others from a cough and sneeze, using only personal toilet articles, towels and drinking utensils and washing the hands frequently. Prolonged or deep-seated colds should always have the attention of a physician, particularly in the interest of preventing serious complications and lengthy disability. With reasonable care employees may avoid becoming either a receiving or sending station for the common cold.

NEW YORK, (Special).—Forty thousand persons an hour—visitors from every state and every nation—must be accommodated in comfort at but one of the entryways to the New York World's Fair of 1939, according to arrangements the Fair Corporation is completing to handle a maximum daily attendance of 800,000. The artist's drawing, as reproduced above, calls for a magnificent double-decked entryway with underpasses, overpasses, pedestrian walks, bus terminals, comfort stations and bridge connections assuring comfort while providing an area of architectural splendor.

Shown is a ramp leading from the exposition grounds toward the I.R.T.-B.M.T. subway terminal, at a point where it is necessary to cross over the Long Island railroad tracks and to avoid undue congestion of pedestrian traffic. Shown in the left foreground is a domed restaurant within a fountain basin and a concourse bordered by grown plane-trees, and, nearer, an open-air cafe and an information kiosk. Along the flanking walls the artist has delineated the Fair's world concept which looks to the building of a peaceful, happier World of Tomorrow.

In the interest of developing telephony in Japan and for the manufacture of communication equipment, Dr. E. H. Colpitts, vice president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, will lecture there under the auspices of the Iwadare Foundation. The invitation was tendered by the Japanese Institute of Electrical Engineering and specified four weeks this spring as the period during which the addresses will be made.

The Iwadare Foundation is so-called for the gift in 1929 of 500,000 yen to the Japanese Institute of Electrical Engineering by Mr. Kunihito Iwadare, who was for many years managing director of the Nippon Electric Company. The principal of the gift is held as a trust fund and half of the income pays the expenses of selected Japanese students of electrical engineering for graduate study in the United States. The other half of the income pays the expenses of distinguished electrical engineers who are invited to give a series of lectures at various Japanese universities.

Previous lecturers from the Bell System were A. E. Kennelly, C. E. Skinner, Irving Langmuir and D. C. Jackson.
