ACHIEVEMENT DAY VERY ENJOYABLE

4-H Clubs and Student Association Join Hands.

Several hundred school children of the country and a number of their teachers and adult friends attended the annual Achievement Day at the High School when the county federation of the School Co-operative Association and the 4-H Clubs joined hands in one big day.

The chairman of the Student Co-operative Association, Miss Mary Jean Holloway, presided. After the invocation by Rev. John M. DeChant, Prof. Worth Peters addressed the audience urging all hands to make themselves feel at home and expressed pleasure that Manassas had the honor of being host.

His talk was followed by a business session and a group song after which Prof. R. C. Haydon also made the children welcome. The theme of his remarks appeared to be to discuss the old time adage of the better things in life in the effort to give rather than to receive. After a charming skit by Bethel School, Haymarket put on a minut composed of little girls. It was quaint and piquant to a very enjoyable degree.

The group singing was indulged in after which unseen hands from the Occoquan group put on something not ordinarily seen at a meeting of this type. It was a puppet show in which at least a dozen or more characters appeared in several scenes. The manipulation was almost perfect and the piping voice imitation kept things in an uproar. Mother Goose children health habits, using rhymes of old-time vintage paraphrased to suit the from Nokesville gave some hints on modern circumstances, illustrating their ideas.

Some twenty or more girls dressed in white and red from Manassas High School, with Miss Grace Metz directing, gave a group of folk dances in a very attractive manner.

After a very brief announcement by Miss Ayres and cheering and singing the audience adjourned for the afternoon game session.

During the exercises Miss Gilly presided at the piano and Miss Joe Miller led the singing.

The afternoon was consumed with a hobby show at the gymnasium and a series of supervised games. A photograph in another column shows a group of boys of Prof. Griswold's class and some of their products.

The day was most delightful and the entire event a memorable one to all hands.

Miss Belle Burke, district supervisor of 4-H Club Work, was an honor guest and assisted in judging.

FARM PROJECTS ARE SUCCESSFUL

Agricultural Students Show Good Balance Sheets.

As a result of the application of approved farm practices taught in Vocational Agriculture Classes at Manassas and Nokesville high 66 boys during the past year enjoyed a total income of $3,956.08, it was learned today from R. R. Fishpaw, their instructor.

If all the projects of the students were combined, they would make a farm on which only proved, scientific methods are practiced.

The total net profit at Manassas averaged $48.09 and at Nokesville $72.51, Mr. Fishpaw said. At Manassas, they are 31 boys in the Vocational Agriculture Classes; at Nokesville, there are 34.

It was pointed out that in computing the total income from the various projects, all charges, including rent for land, labor and even interest on investments were taken into consideration, so as to arrive at a true figure.

In addition to their regular projects, each of the students are required to complete a number of supplementary projects designed to improve their respective farms. Among such projects are pruning fruit trees, and grape-vines, testing milk, also home ground improvement. Each boy is required to perform 3 of the supplementary projects each year.

The grand total at actly received by the students at Manassas was $1,490.77 and at Nokesville $2,465.31. This sum was obtained from cultivation of 35 1/2 acres at Manassas and 46 acres at Nokesville. Manassas students listed 51 animals and 1,276 fowls; Nokesville students, 141 animals and 3,149 fowls.

Corn was the most popular crop, there being 51 acres included in the projects. Other acreages were wheat, 17; Hay, 7 1/2; Truck Garden, 4 1/2; Barley 1; Strawberries, 1/2.

There were 3,097 broilers, 1,090 layers, 195 turkey poults, 29 guineas and 14 turkey hens in the poultry flocks 138 pigs, 4 brood sows, 5 dairy cows, 22 dairy heifers, and 23 calves.

The projects are part of a long-time training in which the boys engage. It is rare for a project not to be completed at Manassas or Nokesville. It sometime happens that circumstances beyond control presents a necessity for a boy to forego completion of the work he has selected.

Mr. Fishpaw stated that as far as possible, parents of students are urged to let the boys have a free rein in managing their projects. If it is felt that the land can not be spared, the boy is required to pay a fair rental for the land. It is sought, as far as possible, to hold the incentive of profit before the students and in most cases, each receives the entire proceeds from his efforts which is invested. As a general rule, profits the first year are small but each additional year in a typical case sees an increase and it is possible for the students to accumulate sufficient funds to see them thru college.

KIWANIS HEAD COURT TALK

The Kiwanis Club on Friday evening had the pleasure to listen to another learned and persuasive address from the lips of Ted Didlake, its theme being the Supreme Court, Its Origin and History.

Ted dwelt on the several phases of national history which were linked closely with the corresponding annals of the court and how their decisions have affected our history.

He read an unusually prophetic statement written years prior to the War Between the States by Bryon Lord McCauley on the subject of the collapse of Democracy where certain ideals of Government were abandoned.

The subject of ladies night was not completed but the general idea being to have it in conjunction with the annual entertainment for the high school graduates.

"Aunt Drusilla's Garden" to be Staged by Bennett Pupils.

The operetta, an annual feature of Bennett School, will be presented on Tuesday night, May 11 at 8:00 o'clock in the Manassas High School Auditorium. "Aunt Drusilla's Garden," an operetta in two acts, is the story of a poor girl who after many trials wins happiness and wealth.

Nelda, one of a large family living in poverty in a city tenement, is taken into the home of her maiden aunts for charity sake, but finds it very lonely in the little village. Her Aunt Drusilla has antagonized the boys of the neighborhood by her aloofness and temper. Nelda is seldom allowed to go outside of the garden.

When the play opens, as the children come trooping along from the last school session of the year, Nelda invites them into the garden. Aunt Drusilla appears; some mischief takes place and she drives them out in a rage.

After other acts of mischief by the boys and response of intolerance by Aunt Drusilla the "Gang" happen upon a chance to prove themselves heroes in time of need. Aunt Drusilla is grateful to the boys and as a reward she accepts Nelda's suggestion of a lawn party a few days hence.

Act II features the lawn party to which all the children of the neighborhood are invited. An entire reconciliation has taken place between Aunt Drusilla and the "Gang", and a happy time is spent. During the fete a letter arrives from a rich uncle of Nelda, which tells of plans he has made for her and her brothers and sisters.

The characters are as follows: Aunt Drusilla Rodgers, a prim spinster, Evelyn Reid; Aunt Prudence Rodgers, a deaf sister, Betty Jean Wilson; Nelda Alvena Rodger, their niece, Allene Miller; Pat, the gardener, Kyle Brown; Bob, leader of the gang, Robert Swank; Tod, member of the gang, Richard Callis; Tiny Little, member of the circle, Marie Dollard; the circle, playmates of Nelda, Iva Lee Fitzwater, Donna Harris, Elaine Barksdale, Torrence Johnson, Helen Hooe, Betty Parrish and Nancy Parrish; The Gang, chums of Bob, John Springs, Ralph Beeton, Nathan Stinnette, Franklin Cornwell, Oden Breedon and Buddy Merchant.

There are approximately one hundred children in the entire performance, most of whom are in the choruses and the dances.

The annual American Legion Poppy Sale in Prince William County, sponsored by Post No. 158, will begin Friday night, May 7, at the Manassas High School. The sale continues through Saturday, May 8, when the pupils of the Manassas and Bennett Graded Schools will make a house-to-house canvass throughout the entire county.

Poppy Day is an annual affair of the American Legion, and is held throughout the United States. The major purpose is, and has always been, to aid the veterans who are confirmed to hospitals and those who become in need of hospitalization. In addition to these aims, this year the Legion within all of the State of Virginia is emphasizing Child Health. That portion of the funds derived from the sale for Child Health will be applied to all children rather than just to the children of veterans.

Miss Naomi Smith, president of the Manassas High School Student Co-operative Association, has directed charge of all the sales groups. She has arranged groups to cover community in the County and sub-groups to cover the various sections of the towns.

Beginning at the County Music Festival in Manassas on Friday, at which an estimated 1,500 people will be in attendance, the sale continues through Saturday night.

All persons in the county are urged to support the project and help those veterans who need your help, and to assist in the work of improving the Child Health of the County.

LOCAL STUDENTS HONORED AT STATE CONVENTION

Five delegates from Manassas High School attended the third annual convention of the Virginia Student Government Association of Secondary Schools at Danville, April 30 and May 1. Those attending were Miss Pauline Smith, Althea Hooff, Thelma Ward, Shirley Hynson, and Jack Herrell.

On arriving at Danville, the delegates were taken to private homes where they were to stay. At 8 o'clock Friday night a program was given at the George Washington High School. Several interesting speakers spoke at this meeting, the most interesting one being Nat Adamson, of Portsmouth and President of the state organization. Following this meeting, an informal reception, was given the delegates in the High School library.

The meeting opened Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock when Nat Adamson again addressed the delegates. Other speakers discussed various phases of Student Government. Discussion groups on the problems of Student Government were held, at which members of the delegation were given an opportunity to compare their problems with those of other schools. The groups were: "The Home Room in Relation to Student Government", "Students' Part in the Care of School Property", and "Problems of the Recess Period".

An open forum and election of next year's officers were then held. Jack Herrell, of Manassas, was nominated for the presidency but was defeated by Gordon Willis, of Roanoke by one vote. However, Manassas had the honor of having Shirley Hynson elected as state treasurer.

At one o'clock the entire delegation was entertained at a picnic lunch and dance at the Country Club Inn of Danville. A formal banquet was given Saturday night at 6:30 o'clock to end the convention.

The Word of God
By word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119:105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in later years.

REMEMBERING THE POOR: When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it; it shall be for the stranger, for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands.—Deuteronomy 24: 19.

MR. HERRING HAS ANNOUNCED

Since the last issue of the Journal went to press, Honorable George W. Herring of Featherstone has announced that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates subject to the Primary to be held in August. This action was taken after careful thought on his part and is a result of a series of requests emanating from both Prince William and Stafford counties for sometime past.

The contest promises to be lively, for both contestants are able campaigners. If judged on a basis of legislative experience and performance, Mr. Herring would have the edge because of the prominent part he took in the session of the legislature in 1934 when he took the lead in the fight that secured a comfortable revenue for rural schools from the distribution of the A. B. C. funds in Prince William.

That particular session had a great deal of responsibility thrust upon it due to the change in the entire national set up as it affected Virginia. Mr. Herring's supporters demonstrate the fact that he has been the author of a number of movements for the best advantage of both his counties, and are going to wage a very strenuous campaign to see that he be permitted to go ahead with his legislative work.

It is well known to most everyone that Mr. Herring in his capacity as Clerk of the Court in Stafford, showed business ability that was unquestionable and his affiliations in Prince William appear to be equally satisfactory. Probably more than anyone else in public life just now, he belongs very intimately to both counties.

The state contest may echo in the local fight because from the time that Mr. Price announced and before Mr. Herring had begun to seriously consider announcing himself, he has been a 100% supporter of Mr. Price while on the other hand Mr.

Moncure, the present delegate in the legislature, although not having expressed himself recently, is reported in the press to have advocated opposition to Mr. Price.

The appearance of Mr. Page in the field may give him the opportunity to fall in line with the anti-Price sentiment. This is more or less a Price county. Many feel that the governorship race is decided now and may throw support to Mr. Herring on that ground, if for no other reason.

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF ANNA URSULA CONNER

MY MOTHER'S TENDER LOVE.

While traveling down the Road of Life

I notice with surprise
A shining light that leads the way,
The light of Mother's eyes.

I hear a gentle, guiding sound
That helps me in my choice
When I do not know which road to take,
The sound of Mother's voice.

And in my hand I hold a thread,
The sign of grief and care;
It's silver sheen consoles me,
A thread of Mother's hair.

I see some footprints in the dust
Of the narrow, winding street;
So firm, and sure and steady,
The prints of Mother's feet.

A guiding touch upon my arm
Helps me to understand
That it will lead me on my way,
The touch of Mother's hand.

And as I go I hear soft words
Borne gently on the air;
They seem to cheer me when I'm sad,
The words of Mother's prayer.

A picture comes into my mind
That time can not erase;
The loveliest picture ever drawn,
My Mother's kind, sweet face.

And a presence hovers 'round me
Like an angel from above
The greatest gift I ever had,
My Mother's tender love.

THE FEDERATION OF STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

The S. C. A. was held at Manassas High School on May 1. The meeting was presided over by Mary Jean Hallows, of Occoquan. The other officers were: Secretary, Anne Piercy, of Haymarket; Treasurer, Robert Beahm, of Nokesville.

During the program the four delegates from each school met for a business session. The aims and purposes of this Federation are: Health, Citizenship, Co-operation, Recreation, and Self-Improvement. These aims were adopted in 1936 when the S. C. A. was established, and included all phases of co-operation among Junior Leagues. The slogan was "Interpret your school to the Community". Greater interest in schools should be stimulated in the communities. Miss Ayres, as Federation Sponsor, explained more fully the meaning of the S. C. A. Then the schools which will appoint the officers of 1938 were designated. The chairman will come from Haymarket, the vice-chairman and reporter will come from Nokesville, the secretary from Occoquan, and the treasurer from Manassas. The installation banquet will be held on May at Haymarket. activity in the work of the Students' It is our purpose to produce greater Co-operative Association.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,

That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing,

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and loved,

and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;

To you from failing hands we throw

The torch. Be yours to hold it high!

If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

FORMER CONNIE MACK PITCHER NOW DIRECTOR

Fred Newmeyer is one of the veterans of Hollywood. Born in Denver, Colorado, he aspired for a professional baseball career and achieved the ambition of all ambitious ball players in reaching the major leagues, getting a tryout as a left-handed pitcher with Connie Mack's famous Athletics in 1908.

Cushing, Okla.

5-3-37

Dear Editor, Journal.

I'm glad to be in the great new state of Okla., the home of Will Rogers and Alfalfa Bill.

The green fertile plains and rich oil fields abound.

Tulsa is a new city of 150,000 and one of the very few most beautiful cities of the world. Indeed, I think it is the prettiest town my blue eyes ever seen. It is the oil capitol of the world although less than 40 years old.

I am onward and westward and always glad to represent Prince William County and my home village, Nokesville, the loveliest of the plains.

Rev. I. N. H. Beahm.

Mr. Lee Fair of Limstrong had the great misfortune to lose a fine young horse last night.

AMERICAN AIR SUPREMACY

What of the aircraft of tomorrow? The planes of today will be mere sparrows by comparison to some of the eagles now a-building or a-planing. American aviation factories, world leaders, are developing sky ships with greater speeds, longer cruising ranges, greater passenger capacity. The latest of these developments are reported in an article which appears in next Sunday's Star.

INDEPENDENT HILL

Miss Anne Shutlock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shutlock of Independent Hill, has returned from Florida where she has been spending an enjoyable winter. She is now staying home for a few days before leaving for New York. She will return in July for her summer vacation.

Miss Jane Shutlock and Mr. Clifford Bond of Washington, D. C., were week-end guests at the home of Miss Shutlock's parents.

There was a church mass held at the Greek Catholic Church at Token Monday. All members were present. Father Moniosky from Baltimore was here to hold the services.

Mr. A. F. Woodyard is seriously ill.

Miss Mary Gaba was a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gaba Sunday.

CULPEPER MAN IS

LOW BIDDER

Latest advices on the rural electrification bids which were opened here recently indicate that Thomas A. Jeffries, of Culpeper is low bidder in a sum said to be $51,182.87. The Hitt Company appears to be next lowest, with a bid running slightly over $52,000.

It is expected that the contract will be let within a day or two.

Janet and Edward Tyler, jr., of Washington are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. E. Robertson.

Mr. Noah Mayhugh of Linton Hall was a pleasant caller at the Journal office Saturday.

Mrs. Bertha Brawner of Buckhall, who underwent an operation in Columbia Hospital last Friday, is better.

To My Friends

I am celebrating my twentieth year serving you in this vicinity. So to show my appreciation of your patronage, I am reducing the prices on all watches in stock for the next 30 days—20 per cent.

I also wish to announce that I am better equipped than ever before to do your watch and clock repairing in a first class manner at the lowest prices, consistent with expert workmanship. I use genuine factory material in all my work, which is warranted one year.

I also carry a good line of watches both pocket and wrist in stock.

Pocket watches, $1.50 and up. Wrist watches from $5.00 and up, white and yellow.

I am extending to you an invitation to come in to see me when in town.

CHURCH GROUP MEETS AT CLIFTON.

The Sunday Schools of Centreville District met for their spring convention at the Clifton Baptist church Sunday afternoon. The President, Randolph Buckley presided and the secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Pyles, kept the minutes.

The leading address was delivered by Rev. R. Maxwell, pastor of the Fairfax M. E. S. Circuit. He gave an inspiring address on how to improve Sunday schools. Mr. Maxwell is a forcible talker and has a very practical way of appealing to his audience.

The program committee arranged a new type of program this time by having the separate church schools give talks on selected themes on all of which proved of unusual interest.

Attendance was extremely good knowing that the meeting was confined to an afternoon session. On the invitation of Mr. Birch the convention adjourned to meet with Pender Methodist Sunday school on either the second or fourth Sundays in October.

Holy Communion will be administered at St. John's this Sunday.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, sister, Anna Belle Cornwell who departed this life three years, two months ago, Feb. 28, 1934.

Our precious darling has left us, Yes, left us for ever more, But we hope to meet our loved one, On that bright and happy shore, Lonely the house, sad are the hours,

Since our dear one has gone, But hers is brighter than ours, As Heaven is her home.

The Golden Gates were open wide, The gentle voice said "Come," The Angels from the other side, Welcomed our loved one home.

By her mother, father, sister and brother.

KITCHEN GREASE WASHES RIGHT OFF

my beautiful, long-lasting Sem-I-Glo or Fres-Co-Glos

LATELY I've been seeing lots of pictures of those fancy, modernistic kitchens, and I guess they must be all right for cooking purposes.

Perhaps folks like you and I can't afford all that finery, but with a little bit of paint you can work wonders in any kitchen, particularly if you use my Sem-I-Glo or Fres-Co-Glos, because they're so easy to put on and so easy to keep up and span like the pictures in the magazines.

The only difference between these two paints of mine is in the finish. Sem-I-Glo gives you a happy medium between flat and high gloss finishes while Fres-Co-Glos is the bright enamel-like finish that so many people seem to like. Both of them are my first quality paints. For kitchens (and bath-rooms, too) there's nothing finer—and they last and keep their gloss so long, they're mighty economical.

Get a free color card from my authorized dealer today and take advantage of the special price he is offering on my Sem-I-Glo and Fres-Co-Glos Paints this week.

KINGSWOOD COLLEGE and AFFILIATED SCHOOLS AND HOMES

Thus saith the Lord—"He that hearth, let him hear". Ezekiel 3:27
"Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?"

"He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn de-ceitfully." Psalm 24:3,4

"LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh upright-ly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor. Psalm 15:1-3.

"But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." Romans 14:10

"Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law and judgeth
the law, but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge."

"There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy, who art thou that judgest another?" James 4:11,12

"Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom de-scendeth not, from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. Jas. 3:
13-16

Those who are to stand as spiritual and moral leaders in a community should first seek "that wisdom that is from above which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy." James 3:17
