WILL CONTINUE DAY INSTRUCTION

County Religious Council Re-Progressive Year.

Prince William County Council of Religious Education held its regular annual convention of Sunday Schools at Grace M. E. Church, South, Manassas, on Tuesday, August 3, beginning at 10:00 A.M. The opening worship service was conducted by Rev. N. I. Miller, of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren. A welcome was extended by Rev. Harry P. Baker, pastor of the Manassas Methodist Church. The business session was then held, under the leadership of Frank S. Sigman, reports of the various committees being given. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Jessie Mae Conner and Cannon Branch Choir. The morning session closed with an address by Rev. Minor C. Miller, Secretary of the Virginia State Council of Religious Education. His subject was the alarming crime situation in Virginia and he pointed out the importance of Religious Education as a method of combating criminal tendencies among youth.

The afternoon session began with a worship service conducted by Rev. W. F. Carpenter, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Haymarket. Various group conferences were held, which were very interesting and helpful. There were three groups: Adult under R. C. Haydon, Young People under Rev. Minor C. Miller and Junior, Primary and Beginners under Mrs. R. H. Blakemore. Mrs. Virginia Speiden Carper presided at the piano and Misses Mae Conner and Hilda Moser sang a duet.

Officers were elected and committees appointed for the following year. The officers are: Rev. John M. DeChant, President; Frank S. Sigman, Vice President; Mrs. L. J. Bowman, Secretary and J. J. Conner, Treasurer.

It was voted to continue the work of week day Religious Education with Miss Emma M. Perkins as the teacher. Miss Hazel Saunders was elected to assist her on a part time basis. Miss Perkins taught 625 pupils in the 4th to 7th grades in the public schools of the county last year. Nearly $800.00 was raised for this work and the treasurer reported all bills paid and a small balance in the treasury.

The revention closed with an address by Rev. Walter F. Wolf, pastor of "Improving Your Sunday School."

ENTERTAIN EASTERN STAR GROUP

The bi-monthly meeting of the Matrons and Patrons of the Eastern Star was held at the home of Col. and Mrs. Robert A. Hutchison, on Richmond Ave., Tuesday night. Quite a bit of business was transacted at this time.

The meeting was held on the spacious porch, which was attractively decorated with cut flowers, ferns, hanging baskets, etc.

Cooling refreshments were served during the business session as well as at the close of the meeting.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sigman, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. John Broadus, Grand Organist of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bushong and Col. and Mrs. Robert A. Hutchison.

He slipped from the rope on which he was swinging and fell backward, striking the back of his head on a rock. His condition was much worse on Monday and he died during the morning of the following day.

He is survived by his parents and a number of brothers and sisters. Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 P.M. Wednesday at Valley View Church by Rev. A. H. Salter. A number of relatives and friends attended the funeral.

Mr. J. P. Kerlin, Sheriff, Prince William County, Manassas, Virginia. My dear Sheriff:

I have been informed of your recent election to the office of Vice President of the Virginia Sheriffs' Association.

ACADEMY TO OPEN SOON

Col. Hulvey Will Head Prince William Military Academy.

Definite information has been received that the attractive college property in Manassas will be taken over by Col. Otey Crawford Hulvey, an experienced military school executive, and will open in September as the Prince William Military Academy.

Col. Hulvey is a native of Augusta County, Virginia, and has an enviable record of service in this field of education. In former years he took over two defunct military schools and put them on their feet, bringing them to national reputation, with a country-wide attendance, and securing for them recognition by the War Department as honor schools.

For five years Col. Hulvey was secretary and treasurer of the Association of Military Schools and Colleges of the United States and an active member of their executive committee. He is in active correspondence with the Presidents of these various honor schools and has received many assurances of practical co-operation with the Manassas enterprise. Inquiries are already being received by Col. Hulvey indicating an increasing interest in enrollment of students here.

"It will take some time," Col. Hulvey states, "to get a proper set-up and to secure endowment resources with sufficient funds for complete business and educational success." In the meantime, the moderate rate of tuition and the high quality of the instruction given will attract many students who are not able to afford the higher tuition of older institutions.

Col. Hulvey has expressed the purpose also to accept boys from Manassas and vicinity at extremely moderate rates for day students, believing that the good will of his neighbors is especially conducive to a fine local student spirit.

ALEXANDRIA BOY WINS FAME.

When the SS City of Paris pulls out of New York Harbor on August 21, it is very likely that the passengers will be listening to the lively harmonies of "Jimmy Michelbach's orchestra which is booked on that voyage as one of the three main music groups on that large liner.

Jimmy came into fame as a protégé of Bud Ward, of Franconia, Fairfax County, a radio promoter connected with the National Broadcasting Company. His regular Saturday morning broadcasts have become nationally known, and his engagements have since become greatly in demand. This week he is performing at Stone Villa, below Alexandria.

After leaving the ship at Harve, Mr. Michelbach will briefly tour France, spending most of his time in Paris where the World Fair is in progress. The return trip will be made in early September.

"Jimmy" is the son of Mr. Frank Michelbach, well known business man of Alexandria.

GAINESVILLE HOME-COMING

Sunday, August 15, is Home Coming Day at Gainesville M. E. Church, South. Rev. C. F. Phillips will preach the morning sermon at 11:00. Other former pastors are expected to attend.

AN EXCITING SPECTACLE

(Contributed.)

Well, it seems that this ball game scheduled for Sunday between Manassas and Haymarket is causing just about as much excitement as the recent election. You remember, early in the season the Haymarket boys all prettied up in new uniforms and calling themselves Moses A. C. got pushed and shoved all around by most every old team. The Macs even did their part to add to the humiliation of Moses A. C., trouncing them 22-11 on one occasion and 6-4 at a later date.

So the Haymarket fans dragged their team back home. There they scraped of a new diamond, practiced morning, noon and night, acquired a few more players and, finally, got pretty good.

Then they began winning games, in fact, it's been a long time since anybody has beaten Moses A. C., and one of their recent victims was Manassas by the lopsided score of 8 to 1.

Now if the Macs can win Sunday's game that will prove them to have the better team with a record of three out of four against the Haymarket gang. But if Moses A. C. wins Sunday's game it would necessitate a play off at some future date.

Ruffner, Haymarket's star pitcher, will probably start against Manassas. He is, as yet, undefeated this season.

Coach Saunders has not yet announced his pitching selection. "Lightning" Libeau, when last seen three weeks ago, pronounced himself fit. "Bullet" Bradshaw refuses to make a statement about the contest. "Cannonball" Conner, it is reported, was overheard to say that if he did the hurling it would be duck soup. Just what this term implies we hesitate to say.

Meanwhile Coach Saunders has promised to appear once more in his streamlined Canadian costume to thrill the customers.

Remember the game is called for 3 p.m. on Swavely Field.

Tickets are already going fast, yet there are a few thousand left and parking space available for several hundred cars.

LIQUOR PROFITS ARE DISCUSSED

W.C.T.U. Entertained by Miss Maggie Smith.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union was entertained in July at the home of Miss Maggie Smith. After the devotional and business program a number of papers were read among which was the following: "No doubt you all read in the Manassas Journal" of July 8 the "the gross profits of the A.B.C. for the year ending June 30 was $16,000,000. It said the estimated returns are about 25 per cent more than in 1936. The net profit for the year, it is believed, will be more than $40,000,000. These profits, after the State deducts $47,500, are distributed one-third to the state and two-thirds to the localities on a basis of population."

All this sounds like more and more prosperity for the country and a blessing for our Nation. But increase of liquor revenue means increase of liquor consumption, which results in more and more tragedies. We wonder how many accidents and deaths will result from the liquor that is to yield the billion dollars revenue in 1938.

Would any amount of revenue be worth the price?

One speaker at the World's W.C.T.U. Convention in Washington said "the liquor traffic has a stranglehold on our political leaders through the magic of revenue, but in social, moral and economic values the liquor revenue is the most expensive item of taxes ever collected."

Another speaker, Senator Morris Shepherd, said, "As to beverage alcohol, a terrible indictment stands against it in every country of the globe. Among most every people it is one of the principal sources of murders, suicides and the debauchery of body and mind. Every moment it destroys some home and breaks some heart. It arrests physical and moral growth of children, distorting the moral sense, promoting disobedience of parents and disregard for law. It multiplies the hazard of street and highway and should be outlawed, disowned and destroyed in every Nation of the World."

During prohibition the Keeley Cure places for treating alcohol addicts were all closed but one, now they are open and crowded with victims.

The summing up of the whole matter is the more revenue for the state there will be, and what is revenue as and nation, the more drunkards compared with broken mothers, for every drunkard is some mother's boy!

BOWERS-HATCHER

Miss Betty Hatcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hatcher, and Mr. Richard Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bowers, were married on Sunday, August 8, at 5:30 p.m. at the bride's home. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride was dressed in a white tailored suit, with navy lace blouse and white accessories. She wore a corsage of roses and babies breath. After a short trip they returned to make their home in Washington.

MORE ABOUT THE BATTLE PARK

We have received some very interesting letters from our friend, Mr. Bolling Lynn Robertson, giving a review of how the fund was raised to purchase the Henry farm, and of the subsequent efforts to develop the same.

These letters we shall publish next week. We know how hard Mr. Robertson worked on this project, as well as on many other civic and patriotic propositions, and we sincerely hope that his dream of having the old South rise to meet her obligations to those who fought and died on that historic field may be realized.

U D C HOSTESS TO CHILDREN

Daughters of Confederacy Hold Garden Party.

On the afternoon of Wednesday, August 4, a delightful garden party was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Newman, when the mother chapter was hostess to the children. The guests assembled on the lawn and porches where they were warmly welcomed by Mrs. Newman and the committee appointed to arrange for the entertainment. Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. Lomas, and Mrs. Byrd. Flags and flowers in the colors we love so well, were tastefully displayed. A number of games and contests were arranged for the children with all present taking part after which they were served refreshments.

It was the privilege of the children at this time to be present for the business session of the mother chapter where the routine business and usual opening exercises were observed. During a short historical period Mrs. Ashford read an interesting article on Alexander Stephens. The minutes of last meeting were read.

The treasurer reported a balance of $8.13.

Two sets of papers were turned over to the Recorder of Crosses ready to be signed. Mrs. Jackson offered a motion that this chapter write a letter of resolutions to all U. D. C. chapters regarding the Battlefield Park urging them to support a move to turn over the Henry Farm to the Federal Government. The motion was carried and Mrs. Jacobson, Mrs. Ashford were named a committee to write same.

Mrs. Dowell, Mrs. Compton, and Mrs. Nash were asked to serve on a nominating committee for the election of officers at the September meeting.

SMOKERS CAUSE FOREST FIRES

State Forester Urges Greater Attention to Fire Prevention.

Cigarette and cigar butts and brush burning were the causes of the majority of forest fires in Virginia during the spring season of this year, Wilbur C. Hall, Chairman of the Virginia Conservation Commission, stated recently as he studied a report on the forest fire conditions from F. C. Pederson, State Forester.

The report itemized the causes of the 948 fires listed as being burned on privately-owned land in the sixty-six counties organized for fire control as follows:

Lightning, none; railroads, 83; campfires, 19; smokers, 268; brush-burning, 271; incendiary, 82; lumbering, 31; miscellaneous, 43, and unknown 143.

The report showed that 30, 107 acres were burned over during this period, and the total estimated estimated damages to fences, buildings, orchards, etc.

"Man is still the cause of practically all the forest fires in Virginia," the report declared. "At first glance, the total area burned over may appear excessive, but it is less than three-tenths of 1 per cent of the total forest area that is under protection in the organized territory.

Mr. Pederson reported that definite progress in the reduction in forest fires can be noted from season to season, and added that the Virginia Forest Service this spring broadcast a daily report of forest fire weather conditions from Charlottesville and Richmond as one of the new methods employed to curb fires. These broadcasts will be resumed in the fall.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY AT HAYMARKET

The fifth annual Field Day of Bull Run Grange on Peters' field, Haymarket, Virginia, will be held on Friday, August 20, 1937.

The athletic events call for the following: Rhops (shoe, sack, etc.), 10 to 11 a.m., Gymkhana and calling contests, 10 to 11 a.m. automobile tournament, 11 to 12 noon, jousting tournament, 1 to 3 p.m. The baseball at 3 p.m. will include two games by Moses A. C. vs. Edinburg A. C.

The committee is charging a very modest fee on everything, even the coronation ball in the evening. There will be cash prizes on many events.

Bull Run Grange has always staged successful field days in the past but the present one has a more imposing program than any preceding.

ATTEND RELATIVE'S FUNERAL

Among those attending the funeral of Mrs. Charles Myers, of Clifton Station, Virginia, which was held from Greenwood Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, were Mrs. Julian Athey, Mrs. Winifred Athey and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Martin.

Mrs. Myers was a sister of Mr. Athey, also of Mrs. Lloyd Brawner, of this county, and a daughter of the late Elder and Mrs. W. S. Athey, of Orleans, Virginia. She is survived by her husband, five children, and several grandchildren.

FINAL RETURNS OF STATE VOTE

Mr. Price Makes First Speech Since Primary.

In the first speech since his nomination last Tuesday as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Lieutenant Governor James H. Price reiterated at Richmond. His opposition to any diversion of highway funds to purposes other than maintenance and construction of roads. He spoke informally Saturday at Bland at the 8th annual meetin of the Blue Grass Trail Association. Using as his theme, "Selling Virginia to Virginians", The Old Dominion's next Governor declared this state, "has more to offer to the nation than any other State in the Nation". But he added, "We in Virginia are not completely sold on what Virginia has to offer." Mr. Price also expressed opposition to a $5 automobile license tax as advocated by State Senator Vivian L. Page, of Norfolk during the gubernatorial campaign. He said he believed a reduction in this tax would "deplete" roads funds and place on Virginia roads "old, obsolete cars that would add to the hazards of the highways."

According to complete unofficial returns from Virginia's 1,704 precincts, Mr. Price defeated Senator Page by a majority of 140,193 in the primary election. The unofficial complete count was: Price, 167,218; Page, 27,025.

In the race for the Democratic nomination as Lieutenant Governor, State Senator Saxon W. Holt, of Newport News had an unofficial majority of 26,428 votes over State Senator Robert W. Daniel of Brandon. The count was: Holt, 109,729; Daniel, 83,364.

In his successful bid for renomination, Attorney General A. P. Staples of Roanoke had an unofficial majority of 25,038 over John Galleher, of Leesburg. The count was: Staples, 100,764; Galleher, 75,731.

FATAL ACCIDENT

As a result of the head on collision near Canova Sunday afternoon, Clarkson McIntosh was almost instantly killed. The drivers of the two cars, Richard Wheaton and Merlin Reed, were arrested and the trial held yesterday afternoon.

Judge Brown fined Mr. Reed $100.00 and imposed a sentence of 60 days which was suspended. No penalties were imposed upon Mr. Wheaton.

From all accounts available it seems that the two boys were coming north from Dumfries and the Reed car proceeding south, cut around some parked cars at the CCC Camp. It appears that Mr. McIntosh sought to jump from his car when a collision was impending and was killed as a result of the car turning over on him. Both cars are said to be badly wrecked.

Mr. McIntosh's funeral was held at Antioch at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, August 10.

Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. Isabel Bigelow, and two half brothers.

FRATERNAL PICNIC

Members of the Order of Fraternal Americans and the Daughters of America in Prince William County held their annual picnic yesterday at Davis Beach.

The feature of the day was an address by Past President, Alvin Shade, of Winchester, who gave a talk on management of business matters of the order. He also gave some very interesting data on the affairs of the Valley District.

Mr. Shade was introduced by former district deputy, George D. Baker. Former State President E. L. Alger, of Millwood, and former district deputy of the Valley District, J. W. Luttrell were also present.

Although the day was excellent for picnicking, only a small crowd attended. Those who did go, had a very a very nice time, particularly at the noon hour, when the girls prepared a most delightful luncheon.

A BIGGER CUCUMBER.

On Saturday, our friend, Mr. J. H. Rexrode brought in a specimen cucumber from his garden, namely a fine cucumber approximately 13 inches long and nearly that in circumference and weighing a bit over four pounds.

"This is the season for exhibits from the garden. Who will have one for us this week?"

WOODBIDGE

Miss Evalyn Herring, daughter of Hon. Geo. W. Herring, has returned home after spending some time in Delaware and New York visiting friends. Miss Evalyn Herring and friends motored to Richmond last week. Mrs. G. F. O. Laughlin, of New York is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Herring at Woodbridge, Virginia.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet at the church on Tuesday 17th at 2:30 P.M. with Mrs. John Broadus as leader. Topic for the month, "The Indian Missions."

Ocoquan, Va.
Editor of the Manassas Journal
Dear Sir,

The Porcine agitation here is absorbing most attention at present. The lowly, humble hog, the quadruped, not the biped species. From the hog comes these succulent hams, slices of which grace the festive board of royalty. The raucous disease, catarrh, ever prevalent here is now of the past, due to many hogs raised here.

In the science of medicine two schools are taught, allopathy and homeopathy. The latter teaches that which produces disease will cure that disease. By the same parity of reasoning who knows but that the stench and effluvia arising from a limited number of hogs would, if the number of hogs were increased be conducive to eliminating bronchial disease. It is true that a number of hogs squealing and grunting when hungry is not harmonious, yet they are in keeping with one taking first lessons on the fiddle or flute.

It maybe indirectly traced to the hog that Ocoquan was deprived of being the oldest place in the world. Noah, when commanded by the Almighty to build the ark was, upon its completion placed in command. As he left the banks of the Euphrates he set his course westward, this would have brought him to the Potomac. But Noah was called away to feed the hogs and left his son, Japhet to navigate the ark. Japhet changed the course of the ark to due East, which brought the ark upon Mt. Ararat in Armenia. Ocoquan thus deprived of being the oldest town in the world holds the hog responsible.

CATHARPIN

The two weeks protracted service at Sudley resulted in some very good preaching by the visiting pastors and five new members added to the church record. Nor was this all; the Weather man was ever present with some choice samples of his warmest greetings so that many did not venture forth and some very good messages had to be absorbed by some small congregations. The second week, however, was much better when larger numbers were present. The all-day meeting on Sunday last was largely attended at the morning service especially, when the new members were received into the church.

Just now there seems to be a sort of an "up-rising" among the different churches since we see notices of a number of special meetings and home-comings in various neighborhoods. Antioch and Sudley are good neighbors but both happened to choose the same day for their special meetings much to the disappointment of this column who had anticipated a good dinner at Antioch at the expense of some of our good friends at that point. But perhaps it is well that we could not get there since we have been short on rations for the past few weeks and not able to do ample justice to the many good things usually found at such places. However, we wish you all success in your meetings during this week.

An all-day meeting is announced for the Gainesville church on next Sunday the 15th. to which all friends and members are cordially invited to bring their baskets and enjoy the day with the congregation of that church.

Miss Ann Robertson of Lawn Vale and Miss Anne Piercy of near Gainesville, attended a party at the home of Miss Louie Strother of Delaplane, Va. on Thursday night of last week.

We often hear the remark—"How Time Does Fly." And isn't it the truth? when you are reading this just meditate long enough to realize that but nine more weeks intervene between now and the Annual Conference. And while you are in the mood, just quietly look over your memo and see what might be added to balance the budget. It must be acknowledged that there is considerable water that must pass under the bridge before the "reservoir" can meet the demands of the closing year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins of Marble Hill are having as guests for a few days this week, their nephew, Mr. Ernest Collins, wife and two sons from Chicago, Ill., who are on for visit with uncle Bob and other friends in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hughes and family of Catharpin, returned home on Saturday last after a 10-day sojourn with Mr. Hughes' parents and other relatives near Johnson City, Tenn.

On Tuesday of last week, Catharpin held another election, and history has repeated itself and has again shown that as Catharpin goes so goes Virginia. In other words Catharpin has lead the state in the right direction for so long that it is time now to do a little thinking. You have no doubt heard many complaints of the great expense of holding nominations and elections; so many, indeed, that the suggestion has been made to consolidate election precincts as a matter of economy. So now we have a real proposition to put up to the new governor. Why not just cut out all the other precincts in the State and just let Catharpin run it? We feel sure that this would not only reduce expenses but would save a lot of trouble on the part of the poor candidates, running hither and yon, making speeches and coming out with last minute exhortations of each other in the press just before the fatal day. Noah Webster defines "excoriation" as "stripping off the bark." Did you ever know a candidate, no matter how well qualified he may be for the position he seeks, that his opponent did not try to rip the "bark" off his back? In so many instances does this happen that one sometimes wonders why the different political parties can not find a decent man to run for office. This excoriation business is carried to such an extent by the opposing candidates and their friends that if they were to be believed, there is not a single office in the State of Virginia whose incumbent is not a grand rascal of some kind. Now it takes real discernment to pick the right man and since Catharpin may be safely intrusted with such a duty, we feel sure that she could run things as decently and in as good order, at least, as some of the precincts we often here about elsewhere. We are sure this suggestion will meet the hearty approval of the entire intellectualism of the proud old State of Virginia.

If you are afraid of letting the devil corner you, why not try a completely rounded out experience?

EARNED REST: The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.—Ecclesiastes 5:12.

COULD HE REPEAT?

"Over 100 years ago a youth of 18 journeyed from Cape Cod to Boston to seek his fortune. Diligent search failed to reveal a job, so he set about to make one," relates the Christian Science Monitor.

Casting about among some refuse, he found a board suitable for building an oyster stand on a street corner. Then he borrowed a wheelbarrow and went three miles to an oyster smack, where he purchased three bushels of the bivalves, and wheeled them to his little stand.

"He sold all his oysters in one day, and continued in this pursuit until he had saved $130, with which he purchased a horse and cart. Presently he was able to move his growing business into a commodious building, where he continued to prosper.

"Thus did Isaac Rich lay the foundation of a great fortune which, after his passing, provided for the establishment of the Boston University."

When we consider some of the present policies of the government, the burden of taxation and its penalties for reinvestment of earnings, we wonder if such an enterprise as that of Isaac Rich could overcome today's discouragement of small business. The "little fellow" is severely penalized these days while government spokesmen rail at "bigness." It is a curious anomaly and one that sadly threatens American initiative and industrial progress, for practically all of our big businesses were started somewhat as Isaac Rich started his.

Sunday, August 15, Moses A. C. will face Manassas once more. This will be played at Manassas. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy a swell game of ball.

Saturday, August 7, Moses A. C. played the Yellow Cab two games of ball at the field day. The first game was 2-1 in favor of Moses. The second game was 5-0 in Moses' favor. Dennis pitched the first game and Ruffner pitched the second. Sunday's game with Warrenton Springs was called off on account of rain.

"Smitty" Garrison, who was hurt and unable to play, is back and will be ready to play Sunday. "Doc" Godfrey was out Saturday to watch Moses play. He will be able to play in a couple of weeks. Everyone will be glad to have "Doc" again.

Executive Defeat Recalled.

A hilarious story on a fight that took place 30 years ago, between "Teddy" Roosevelt, then President, the supreme Court and Congress, on the subject of simplified spelling will appear next Sunday in the magazine section of the Star.

"Teddy" ordered the official adoption of the new spelling, but the opposition of the court as well as Senators and Congressmen ordinarily placid about his wielding of the "big stick," eventually defeated him. Had they not done so we would today be spelling fight, "fite," supreme "supreem" and court "cort."

Comrade C. G. Paris and Comrade John W. Hagerty are authorized to select and arrange for the installation of this furniture, and it is hoped it will be such as to reflect credit on the post.

It is with great regret we notice that there seems to be a lot of dissatisfaction with the way the elections were held in Prince William and Stafford Counties last week. Rumors have it that there was a lot of crooked work done, which is always regrettable. Should the candidates be blamed for this, or should the blame be placed on the shoulders of those supervising the voting booths? Your scribe believes the blame if any lies in those who are detailed to supervise. Surely we have plenty of honest men in those counties, and no doubt most of those supervising at the polling booths were honest enough, but perhaps a little careless. As a remedy, it would be well to change those supervisors every election. When a person is too long at the same job he is inclined to become a little careless, and the same applies to those supervising at the polls. When it gets to the point that people who are not qualified to vote are allowed to vote, there is something

The Woman's Club sponsored an outing on Thursday. Thirty-one took advantage of this trip to and around the interesting and historic Richmond. All report a most excellent trip.

"rotten in Denmark" as the old saying goes. Your scribe does not consider that either Mr. Herring or Mr. Moncure should be blamed for any laxity at the Polls. The blame lies entirely with those detailed to see that voting was done in accordance with the law. It would not be such a hard job to see that no one but those qualified were allowed to vote; then, there could be no question raised by either candidate as to the legality of the election. We of the grand old State of Virginia should take pride in the honesty of elections, as well as in everything else we do.

We surely have plenty of honest people to see that elections are properly conducted, if they have not been so conducted.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear one, one, Harvey L. Cornwell, who left us six years ago, August 15, 1937.

Gone is the one we loved so dear
 Silent the voice we loved to hear
 Too far away for sight or speech
 But not too far for thoughts to reach

Sweet to remember him who once was here
 Tho he is absent he's just as dear
 Time speeds on, six years have passed
 Since Death, its gloomy shadows cast.

Within our hearts where all seemed bright
 And took from us a shining light
 We miss that light and always will
 His vacant place there's none can fill

Down here we mourn but not in vain
 For up in Heaven we will meet again

Brothers and little Son
 Loving Mother, Sister,

CATHARPIN

(Reprinter by request from issue of July 29, 1937.)

A wedding of more than local interest was solemnized in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Haymarket, Va., at 6 P. M., on Saturday, July 24, 1937, when Miss Frances Lynn Robertson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson, of Lawn Vale and Mr. John M. Piercy, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Piercy, of Gainesville, Va., were united in holy wedlock in that historic old Shrine of Jurisprudence and Religion by their pastor, the Rev. W. F. Carpenter, witnessed only by the immediate families of the high contracting parties. While the ceremony was private, the reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately thereafter, was one of the events of the season when fully 200 friends and relatives came to enjoy the festivities and to wish the happy couple a joyous and prosperous journey through life. The large, spacious living rooms were beautifully decorated and everything pertaining to the "Marriage Feast" was bountifully provided and was enjoyed by the host of friends and well wishers who had assembled from far and near to assist this young couple in launching forth on the "Sea of Wedded Bliss."

Of course, all want to know just how the bride looked. While we have not the necessary vocabulary to describe in detail all the many accessories to a well-appearing bride, yet we, from a "perspective" standpoint, would have to say that "beautiful" would be the proper word to describe all things. Both bride and groom, clad in immaculate white presented a picture to behold. Not only in appearance but in composure as well did they seem to excel. One large room had been entirely devoted to a display of gifts, silver, china, crockery and almost everything conceivable from hardware to fabrics were on exhibition. . . the offerings conceivable from hardware to fabrics were on exhibition. . . the offerings of devoted friends and well wishers of this young couple.

A delicious buffet luncheon was served to all guests, who talked the nite away at what might be termed a happy reunion of friends; many of whom had met for the first time in months and seemed to hugely enjoy the occasion for which Nature herself, seemingly had planned one of her most beautiful nites with moonlight illumination to safely guide the visitor homeward.

During the whole evening a close watch had been kept on the bride and groom, whom it was rumored, were seeking an avenue of escape. All things went well until about 10 P. M., when it was discovered they were missing. Naturally this created an "upheaval" and a number of cars at once started in pursuit. But here is where dusty roads seem to have an excuse to exist. The pursuers were so "fogged" up with dust that they lost the trail and the pursued escaped. This "decampment" naturally broke up the "conclave" and every one returned home feeling that a very happy event had come to a close.

The Bingo Party sponsored by the Confederate States Chapter was a success. The inclement weather caused a hasty retreat, but not until a good profit had been realized. The regular services conducted by the Rev. Harry Baker, of Manassas will be discontinued during the month of August.

The Sarah Herbert Guild of the Good Shepherd P. E. Church is sponsoring lawn party at the home of Mr. Cam Sheads Saturday evening, August 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Cam Sheads had a quite a number of friends and relatives visiting them on Sunday.

Mr. Robert M. Merchant is motoring with a party of friends in the New England States.
