HERRING FILES CONTEST NOTICE

Charges False Returns in Stafford County.

On Tuesday of this week Hon. George W. Herring filed formal notice of contest at Stafford County Court. The petition was presented by George E. Allen, prominent Richmond attorney, and signed by seven voters of Stafford and Prince William.

The complaint charges that the primary was an "undue election" and that the "returns thereof are false returns." A number of voters are cited as "illegal" and the petition states that when these are stricken from the count the figures will show that Mr. Herring was elected.

The petition asks that a certificate of nomination be issued to Mr. Herring, and that Mr. Moncre be declared "ineligible to hold office."

The vote of 85 Stafford citizens who voted for Moncre are declared illegal because of alleged failure of the individuals to make written application for registration. The Moncre margin is only 23 votes.

In addition, 52 mail ballots are challenged for various reasons, and 6 more are questioned because the names do not appear on the poll tax list of qualified voters.

The petition also states that Mr. Moncre "did knowingly violate the provisions of the code relating to the method of voting by mail and thereby aided in the illegal casting of votes, and by said conduct has disqualified himself from holding office."

The petition must be answered by Mr. Moncre within ten days and it is stated that the defendant has retained the services of Mr. Frank M. Chichester, of Fredericksburg, as his attorney.

KIWANIS GOVERNOR WILL VISIT HERE TOMORROW

Frank Sigman enlightened his fellow Kiwanians at last Friday evening's meeting with a discourse on Canada. This exposition was planned in honor of Governor Peery, of Salem who will visit the Club tomorrow night, this gentleman being a native of Canada.

This Kiwanis official is named George, the same as the Governor of Virginia but is quite another individual.

Frank told some wonderful stories using a hypothetical base map for his inspiration. Frank did everything but recite poetry, the muse apparently having deserted him.

The Club had as an honor guest on this occasion B. Lynn Robertson, a charter member, who is now residing in New York City. Lynn came along with his little brother, Rolfe, and both were quite welcome.

DAIRY FESTIVAL IS POSTPONED

Event Will Not Be Held In Manassas This Year

The call meeting of the Piedmont Dairy Festival Association was held Wednesday of last week, with Pres. R. S. Hynson presiding.

There was considerable discussion concerning the expenses involved and the present deficit incurred over a period of five years during which Manassas has virtually taken care of all the expenses.

Offers were made to representatives of other areas present to take over for 1937 with the pledge of support from Prince William County. There being no apparent willingness on the part of any other locality to sponsor the 1937 Festival, the matter will go over until 1938.

It would be a great pity for any proposition which so ably represented the dairy interests of Northern Virginia to be allowed to pass out of existence. It has cost in the neighborhood of $3,000 each year and the deficits would have been much larger, if any one festival had been subjected to bad weather. Although the deficit did not present such a serious handicap at the present time, those representing Prince William County did not feel that Manassas could not take it on for this year.

Vetter and son, Bobbie, and daughter, Gloria, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vetter and son, Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Vetter, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Vetter and daughter, Betty Jean, Mrs. John Vetter and son, Alvin, and daughter, Elizabeth Ann, Mr. Jake Vetter, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Lam and son, Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gareau, Mr. and Mrs. Donatien Libeau, Jr., Mrs. W. H. Maisel and son, Billy, Mrs. J. H. Langhyer and son, Billy and daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs. Virginia Breeden, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Butler and son, Junior, Mr. S. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cranford and son, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beeton and children, Frank, Jr., Ralph, Nancy, Pauline, Jane and Frances, Mr. Edward K. AN APPEAL TO EVERY CITIZEN IN PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

(By the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department)
Would you give ONE DOLLAR to save a person's life?

The horrible tragedy that happened at Lake Jackson Wednesday afternoon, when the life of a sixteen-year-old girl was snuffed out by drowning might have been saved had there been at their disposal a pulmotor—an instrument for the resuscitation of persons apparently dead by forcing oxygen into the lungs when the lung is distended, sucking out the air.

Heroic efforts were made by the members of the Rescue Squad of the Manassas Fire Department who worked for over three hours giving artificial respiration all this time in the hope of saving this girl's life and when an appeal was made to the Alexandria Fire Department to send their pulmotor—in twenty-three minutes these men were on the ground and trying to revive this girl. No word of praise is too strong for the gallant way in which these men worked and the rapidity with which they answered the call for help.

We need a pulmotor for the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department NOW, for use anywhere in Prince William County. Would it not be gratifying to you to know that your DOLLAR has helped to save a person's life? Who knows when some one near and dear to you might suffer the same fate.

Will you answer this call for help as quickly as the Alexandria men did?

Send your donation to George B. Cocke, President of the Manassas Fire Department.

HISTORY OF BATTLEFIELD PARK

Interesting Letters Describe Work Devoted to Patriots.
Mr. B. Lynn Robertson was one of the prime movers in raising money to pay for the Henry Farm.

August 5, 1937
Col. T. Gilbert Wood,
Commander-in-Chief, S. C. V.
c/o Norfolk and Western Rwy.
Roanoke, Virginia

My dear Col. Wood:

Your letter of August 4, enclosing copy of letter from a Mr. Bolling Lynn Robertson, of New York City, addressed to Senator Rust, received, for which please accept my thanks.

As you know, I have been Adjutant-in-Chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans since 1922 and that I have attended every General Convention of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, both State and National, since 1921. But I have never seen this gentleman at a single Convention, either State or National. I have searched the records here carefully, but fail to find that he is or ever has been a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. I have what is apparently a complete list of the members of New York Camp No. 985, of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, New York City, but he is not listed as a member of this camp.

It seems that I have a faint recollection of this gentleman being from Manassas, Virginia originally, and I am writing you on a supposition that he was originally from that town.

I have always found that those who criticize the most are those who do the least. Mr. Robertson, in this case, is running true to form. If he is from Manassas, he is also running true to form to the people of Manassas in regard to the Manassas Battlefield.

For your information, I wish to state that if it had not been for the Sons of Confederate Veterans the Manassas Battlefield would have long ago been in the hands of Northern Yankees and would now be used for strictly commercial purposes. This property is located just outside of the town of Manassas and laid there undeveloped for more than sixty years, yet the people of Manassas were not sufficiently interested to purchase this property, but it was left for the Sons of Confederate Veterans of Virginia to initiate the purchase of this property. As you know, the purchase of this property was initiated by Major E. W. R. Ewing, then Historian-in-Chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and Mr. J. Roy Price, then Commander of the D. C. and Maryland Division of the Sons. The purchase was first endorsed and approved by the Virginia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans' Convention in 1921 and by the General Organization of the Sons of Confederate Veterans in 1922, and was purchased by the Sons through this Committee, through Major Ewing, who held a personal option on the property, I believe, in 1923, and was placed in a separate and distinct corporation, known as the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park, so that it could be properly administered.

At the beginning, the Manassas and Prince William County citizens contributed small sums to its purchase, which was raised at the solicitation of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. I believe it was in 1924 when a Bostonian Yankee stated that he would pay $50,000 for the Manassas Battlefield if he then present members of the Board of Directors would resign and allow him to appoint a new Board of Directors. Of course, the Board of Directors refused to accept this insulting offer. A great majority of the citizens of Manassas and Prince William County were in favor of accepting this insulting offer and as a result, in 1924 they had the Virginia Legislature to pass a statute in order that this offer might be accepted. It is a matter of common knowledge, that the Sons of Confederate Veterans spent about $5,000, (which would otherwise have been applied to the purchase of Manassas Battlefield), in fighting this iniquitous law. Court proceedings were instituted and the case was carried to the Supreme Court of Virginia twice and the Supreme Court of the United States once, the Sons finally winning the case.

I, also, wish to call your attention to the fact that in 1935 I personally prepared a resolution, at the instigation of a few loyal members of the U. D. C., protesting against the conveyance of this property to the Federal Government, and presented it officially to the 42nd Annual Convention of the U. D. C., which was held at Hot Springs, Ark., in November, 1935. Our Commander-in-Chief, W. Scott Hancock, went from St. Louis to Hot Springs, Ark., and personally appeared before the U. D. C. Committee, urging the Convention to adopt this resolution. This resolution, not a substitute, was adopted by the U. D. C.

Of course, you are well acquainted with the Memorial presented to our Convention at Jackson, Miss., this past June, by the Manassas Chapter No. 175, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Manassas, Virginia, of which Mrs. Lewis J. Carper is President, begging and pleading with the Sons to consent to the conveyance of the Manassas Battlefield to the Federal Government. This petition was headed "Memorial of the United Confederate Veterans, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy" and is signed by a number of people, including Mrs. Carper, President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter at Manassas, probably some Confederate Veterans, but I note with interest that notwithstanding the fact that the Memorial states it comes from the Sons of Confederate Veterans, it does not bear the signature of a single member of our Organization.

I wish further to call your attention to the fact that when suit had been brought to foreclose this property and it was necessary to raise about $5,000, immediately by the Sons Organization, that $2,000 of this amount was allotted to Virginia. I sent out hundreds of letters asking for $5.00 contributions. I sent a letter to the 112 Chapters of the U. D. C. in Virginia, urging the Chapters to contribute $5.00. After sending these Chapters two letters, one Chapter, the Ashland, Virginia Chapter, contributed $5.00. This, to my mind, did not show a very deep interest.

I wish further to call your attention to the fact that through and under the auspices of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, that approximately $40,000, has been raised for the purchase and upkeep of this property, but in the raising of this money I have never seen Mr. Bolling

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE MANASSAS FIREMEN

The Manassas Volunteer Fire Department attended the Firemen's State Convention at Charlottesville on August 13.

Those who attended were: J. A. Vetter, R. J. Davis, J. H. Stauff, A. McMillan, R. W. Cross, F. D. Vetter, C. H. Mathias, Proctor Byrd, Bobbie Davis, Judd Holmes.

The boys who took part in the one man hook up and the four man ladder contest lost by a fraction of a second, but were victorious in the four man hook up. They brought home another beautiful cup which makes a total of 16 cups which the boys have won.

Next year the Convention will be held at Luray, Va., and we hope that all members of the Volunteer Fire Department of Manassas will be able to go.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD DANCE SEPT. 10

At the Junior Woman's Club meeting at the home of Miss Walsen Conner last Thursday night it was decided that a dance would be given on the 10th of September as a farewell to the young people who go to college during the winter months. Miss Irma Ball was appointed general chairman of the dance in charge of the following committees: Publicity, Miss Walsen Conner; orchestra, Hall and decorations, Miss Lucy Gibson; invitations, Mary D. Lynch; flowers, Mrs. R. Jackson Ratcliffe. A popular orchestra has already been engaged and plans are being made for specialty numbers during the evening.

Two new members, Mrs. Stewart McBride, Jr., and Miss Evelyn Cocke were unanimously voted into the club. Following the business meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Stanley Owen, the club president, a most interesting talk was given by Hon. Harry P. Davis on civic improvement. Mr. Davis spoke of the possibilities of a portion of the Portner estate as a community park and memorial to Mr. Robert Portner, and of the future usefulness of the town airport to the younger generation. He said that a number of aviators had praised the airport for its fine location and that in years to come he thought it would be of great benefit to the town. After his talk the club members questioned Mr. Davis about the possibility of having a sign put up at Camp Washington Crossroads indicating the direction of Manassas, as there is no marker at that important section. They were told however, that they would have to approach the state authorities in regard to it, as the town authorities could do no more than render their support. Cooling refreshments were served by Misses Mary D. Lynch and Mary Fauntleroy Cocke, hostesses of the evening.

TRAGIC DEATH AT LAKE JACKSON

Madison County Visitor Victim of Water Accident.

A sad accident occurring yesterday threw a gloom over the whole community when Miss Margurite Shoemaker, aged 16, of Madison, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Shoemaker, of that town, drowned in Lake Jackson.

The young lady came here a few days ago to visit the Misses Helen and Hilda Lion. After lunch yesterday, she and Hilda, in company with others, went to the water side, at Lake Jackson.

Accurate accounts are somewhat difficult to obtain but it appears that the young lady who could not swim had been playing about the shallow water when she suddenly took a mood to go further into deep water. The bank does not deepen rapidly for some thirty feet, and apparently she did not realize that she was getting beyond her depth until she plunged to the bottom.

Those on shore, and there were no good swimmers nearby, set up an outcry which attracted Messrs. Roger Cross and Douglas Dodson, who were fishing. They were coming in for some drinking water, and hurried faster to learn the trouble. As soon as it was seen that a person had gone down, Mr. Dodson dived into the water and almost immediately located Miss Shoemaker, who was already suffering badly from strangulation.

As the two gentlemen were getting their burden into the boat, others who had ventured out, swarmed onto the same side as the young lady, upsetting the boat, and making the rescue almost hopeless, as a second dive was necessary, and more time was lost getting her to shore as the boat was still capsized.

A call to Manassas brought more members of the fire department rescue squad in a few minutes and a call was later sent to Alexandria for a pulmotor.

Although the Alexandria Fire Department responded with almost unbelievable haste and worked faithfully, their efforts were unavailing. It is generally admitted that a pulmotor sooner on the scene of accident might have averted the tragedy.

HAYMARKET

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McQuin of Bon Air, Virginia, are spending their vacation with the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel McQuin.

Miss Mary Parker Peters, a student nurse at Emergency Hospital Washington, is spending her vacation at her home here.

Rev. B. N. Wagner and his son, Mr. Belford Wagner, who have been visiting Rev. W. F. Carpenter, left on Wednesday for their home in Warrenton, N. C. Accompanied by Mr. Carpenter who will spend a vacation of two weeks with them.

Mr. Lewis F. Hite of Cambridge, Mass., and his daughter, Miss Harriette Hite, were Haymarket visitors this week.

St. Paul's Guild will hold a chicken salad supper at the Parish Hall next Wednesday evening, August 25. Chicken salad and home-made ice cream certainly sound tempting and it is expected the supper will be well patronized.

Mrs. H. E. Batcheller, Custodian of the United Thank Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary Diocese of Va., was present at a well attended mtg. of the Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon, and made an interesting and helpful address concerning the offering.

OCCOQUAN (AND VICINITY)

Do not forget the Alumni dance at Occoquan on Friday, August 20, August 20. Great preliminary arrangements are being made for your enjoyment.

There will be a Horse Show held at Ruby, Va., on Labor Day, September 6. Ruby is near Garrisonville and on an excellent road. In addition to the regular show, there will be jumping, fancy riding, etc., and several other kinds of entertainment. Do not miss this. It was excellent last year, and there is every promise of being better this time. Plenty of parking space for autos.

The Pohick Branch, Rector's Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Smith, Newington, on Wednesday, August 18. There was a very good attendance. A very important business was transacted. A delightful lunch was served. All had a very pleasant afternoon.

There will be a special service held duty at the next elections.

at Old Pohick Church next Sunday, August 22. It will be the 200th anniversary of the appointment of the first Rector of Truro Parish. Also, there will be a celebration on the occasion of the indebtedness on the Vestry House being fully paid, and the burning of the notes which have all been redeemed. We invite all who can to come and join with us in divine service, and also in the celebration of the occasions above mentioned.

Your scribe stated last week that there surely must be plenty of honest men in our state to select to supervise an election, so that no one could possibly make any complaint on the results. Unintentionally the women were left out, and they should be considered in any such important duties as supervising an election. I believe they should take part in this duty. They would be good influence, and their honesty and faithfulness could be depended on. Let us appoint some of the women on this duty at the next elections.

HORSEMAN FINED FOR "DRUNK RIDING"

When Perlie Shelton, 35, was arraigned in Stafford Courthouse last week on charges of "Riding a Horse While Intoxicated," Judge R. H. L. Chichester asked him why he had insisted on crossing and re-crossing King's Highway and tying up traffic. "Well," explained the defendant, "When I'm walking I'm supposed to stay on the left side of the road, I know, but I wasn't sure whether the rule held good for riding a horse, too. So, I kept crossing over and riding some of the time on the left side and some of the time on the right side of the road so I'd be obeying the traffic laws part of the time anyway." Judge Chichester fined him $7.75.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. —Luke 9:62.

MR. STINGER SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN STUNG

When some one issues a bid for notice and cheap publicity we usually consider the source and pass it up, but so many have asked us to express ourselves concerning an article entitled "Sunday at Manassas" which appeared in the Washington Post of August 15 that we feel constrained to make a few remarks.

In the first place, it is very apparent that the writer is ignorant. To start out Sunday afternoon on a railway train to have a red hot time in a cultured and conservative Southern town shows that he is without the slightest conception of niceties or proprieties.

Manassas contains hundreds of aristocratic and exquisitely ordered homes where invited guests are entertained to a queen's taste. But they are not open to nondescript thumbers. Seven or eight churches open their doors to worshippers at the eventide services, which do not happen to be at six o'clock, and even thumbers are welcome in these quiet and dignified places of worship.

The flower gardens surrounding Manassas homes equal any in the State for beauty and sylvan luxury but they are private property, not public resorts.

All stores are closed in Manassas on the Sabbath except the drug stores at certain hours and the very orderly and home-like eating houses.

If Mr. "Stinger" had been a well informed man, he would have known all this.

No public bus is run to the Battle Park because we do not care to encourage Sunday crowds—idlers for the most part—and because almost every one who visits that great Southern Shrine comes in his own car. We do not like to have our Sabbath quiet broken by seekers after entertainment.

In the second place, Mr. "Stinger" may belong to that army of social nonentities who drift about criticising what they would gladly possess—people without background or conception of what makes the world worth while and whose only hope of entity is to attack their superiors with a cheap brand of criticism that suggests back alley training.

The very first gentleman of the District of Columbia, Mr. Melvin Hazen, is proud to have passed his boyhood near Manassas.

As to the Journal headlines, we publish what interests our subscribers. We leave heavy melodramatic outbursts on drunken highway accidents and vicious child-murders to the classical city dailies.

In the South today the real dignity and culture of the Nation is best expressed in the farm and village life. We think it would be a real good thing if cheap outbursts of seething, fed city gutters never slopped over our side of the Potomac.

BALL—THOMASSON

An attractively arranged wedding took place last Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock when Miss Sally Kinsel Thomasson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thomasson, became the bride of Mr. Clayton Wilson Ball, son of Mrs. Alma Tobin and the late Mr. Booton F. Ball.

A very pretty arch had been arranged on the lawn at the home of the brides parents, which formed the setting and background for the ceremony that was preformed by Rev. Byron F. Flory, pastor of the Church of the Brethren. Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was played by Miss Miriam Blough who also accompanied. Mrs. Eugene Russel White, sister of the groom, who sang in her usual charming manner, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was accompanied and given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white broaded satin dress fashioned on princess lines. Her floor length veil fell from a halo cap of lace and net held in place by orange blossoms and she carried a formal bouquet of calla lilies. She had as her only attendant her sister, Miss Agnes Thomasson, who was becomingly gowned in a lilac lace dress and carried a bouquet of gladioli and ferns.

Mr. Ball had as his best man, Mr. Worth H. Storke. Following the ceremony a reception was held after which the bride and groom left on a short motor trip. They will make their home in Manassas where the groom is employed by the Manassas Hardware Co.

The judges in the girls' contest were Col. E. P. Beverley, Messrs. Hunton Tiffany and H. C. Dulaney. Messdames W. P. Whitmore, T. M. Browne and Conway Seeley judged the boys.

A dance followed the contest. Both the contest and dance were well attended.

THE "RETORT COURTEOUS" (Contributed.)

The game of ball, that was to prove which team was the strongest, turned into an argument.

Manassas finally got to the point that they wanted to start a new baseball history. This new history happens to be a baseball team with 11 players. Two extra players that called themselves base umpire's, turned into a pig tail for Manassas. Moses, of course had in mind that the game was in the bag, but not running into a new history. For Manassas the umpire yelled "safe," but for Moses it was "out." The next time Moses plays the eleven players of Manassas, they are gladly going to make a present to the third base man pig tail, "umpire" he would like to be called. This will be either a mitt on pig tailer's glove. They are so afraid he will hurt his hands, in fact he might forget to say "out" once in a while and say safe. The umpire only made four errors. One error which would have brought Moses in the winning run. The game was called off on the account of the pig tail umpire.

"Carmonball" Conner, which was reported said "he would make duck soup if he did the pitching". Yes, and did he tell the truth he did make a soup out of Manassas and the pig tail umpire was the duck.

Also Moses players went home feeling blue on account playing 10 innings and then being cheated out of the winning run.

Moses A. C. will play Edinburg A. C. a double header Friday, August 20 on the Haymarket diamond.

They will also play Nokesville and Catlett a double header Sunday beginning 1:30 P. M. Be present and enjoy seeing the boys play. This will also be played at Haymarket.

FARMERS URGED TO USE LIME

The growth of legumes and the removal of free nitrogen from the air is slowed up, phosphates are locked up in unavailable forms and non-legume crops will not grow as well when soils become acid. When the soil is sour, plant food in the soil can not be used in sufficient quantities to make profitable crops and plant food added in the form of fertilizer is less efficient.

T. B. Hutcheson states: "We may say that as lubricating oil puts the automobile in proper condition to run when plenty of gasoline is in the tank, so lime puts the soil in proper condition to produce crops if sufficient plant food is present. It makes little difference what kind of liming material is used provided the equivalent values of the different forms are kept in mind. The user simply has to find out which he can get on his land the cheapest, one ton of burnt lime, one and half tons of hydrated lime or two tons of ground limestone, ground oyster shell or marl. How much lime to apply depends upon the soil and the crop and the surest way knowing how lime to use is to have the soil tested."

WATERFALL

Mr. Milton Davis and Miss Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Clark, of Baltimore attended services at Antioch on the 8th.

Mrs. Charles Sinclair and Charles, jr., of Aurora Hills visited Mrs. Sinclair's parents here last week.

Mrs. Albert Gaines and sons, of Falls Church and Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thomas and son, of Ballston and Mr. Ashton Bell, of Washington were recent guests of Mrs. Howard Bell.

Mrs. Lee Howdershell, who has been visiting Mrs. Milton Peake, of Alexandria, has returned home.

Mrs. Alice Wright and Ed, Bob and Carroll Wright, who have been enjoying a delightful motor trip thru the south and west have returned to the home of Miss Flora Smith.

Miss Mary Margaret Thomas, of Ft. Myer Heights is a guest at "Oakshade."

Mrs. Jack Robertson, of Greenville, Kan., has been visiting Mrs. Frank Pickett, of the Springfield neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rupp, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of Warrenton were guests at "Oakshade" on Tuesday last.

Among the guests who enjoyed a buffet supper at "Oakshade" following the reunion at Antioch, were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Guilford, of Staten Island, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Caruthers and Mr. Clarence Thomas, of University Virginia; Miss Anne Shirley, of Cristobol, Panama; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas and "Peg," Shirley and Bill, of Ft. Myer Heights; Dr. and Mrs. William Dodge and Dorothy, Wesley and Charles, of McLean; Mr. and Mrs. O. Carper and Mrs. Lura Carper and Mrs. Brown, of McLean; Miss Mildred Torbert, of Washington and Mr. Carlton Guilford, of McLean. A delightful "sing" was rendered by the Guilford Choir which was conducted by Artie Faye Guilford of radio fame.

The annual home coming day on August 8 celebrating the 100th anniversary of Antioch Baptist Church was a day of delightful memories. A huge crowd filled the church and over flowed into the shady yard. The Rev. Mr. Chelf, of Flint Hill preached the anniversary sermon, using as his theme, the importance of the church. After a delicious and bounteous basket lunch served on the ground, old friendships and acquaintances were reviewed. Conspicuous among the old timers were Messrs Pete Shirley, Jim Utterback and Warren Peake, who knew and attended services at Antioch in the days of Mr. Thad Herndon and other preachers of by gone days. At the memorial service which was conducted in the afternoon for our late beloved pastor, the Rev. V. H. Council and an early layman and founder of the church, Mr. James Smith, of "Hagley", a beautiful duet, "Redemption" was sung by Messrs. Robert Foley of Warrenton and the Rev. Barnett Grimsley. A picture of Mr. Smith was unveiled by two of his great grandsons, Robert Louis Smith and Richard Benoni Gossom, jr. Every year we are indebted to Mrs. Ford Anderson, of Warrenton and to Mr. Robin Powell, of Bailey's Cross Roads for the gorgeous gladioli which grace the pulpit and later on, the cemetery.

Lynn Robertson "on the firing line". It appears that he "was eating fried chicken, cooked by the Daughters," when the members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans were raising money to save this Battlefield for the South, after it had lain undeveloped a few miles from Manassas for more than sixty years.

It was the members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and no one else, who saved this Battlefield for posterity and if it becomes Mr. Bolling Lynn Robertson, or any one else, to criticize our Organization, when he did nothing as far as I know. They should give credit to those to whom credit is due, for everything that has been done for the saving of this Battlefield has been done by and through the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

I failed to say that in the letter from Mrs. Lewis J. Carper, President of Manassas Chapter No. 175, U. D. C., of Manassas, Virginia, she stated: "The 4th Division, U. D. C., embracing all of northern Virginia, wherein, of course, the Battlefield of Manassas are located, went on record by a recorded resolution passed at Winchester, Virginia in 1936, favoring proposal. It appears that wherever the matter has been presented to U. D. C. Chapters or State Convention throughout the South, the action taken, if any, has been general approbation."

The foregoing actions and sentiments expressed by the U. D. C., seem to be at variance with the sentiments of that great and noble organization, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, as expressed by Mr. Robertson in his letter.

Everybody agrees with Mr. Robertson that the U. D. C., has done a wonderful work, but the purchase and up-keep of the Manassas Battlefield has been the work of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, with little co-operation from any other organization.

Of course, we want the co-operation of the members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and every other citizen and organization, but I repeat that when it comes to the Manassas Battlefield, this has been saved from being commercialized by Northern interests by the Sons of Confederate Veterans, yet it appears that Mr. Robertson wants to give us no credit.

I have never heard of Mr. Robertson in the South as to spend any of his son even taking sufficient interest in "paying beautiful tributes to Southern valor". Apparently he hasn't been sufficiently interested to pay the mealy dues for membership in the Organization.

I, also, wish to mention a fact, which you already know. The Sons of Confederate Veterans has bought and paid for in full, and has preserved "Beauvoir", Jefferson Davis' Home, at Biloxi, Miss. This property is certainly worth a half a million dollars, yet from Mr. Robertson's letter you would think that the Sons have accomplished nothing.

If Mr. Robertson will expend his efforts in co-operating with the Sons of Confederate Veterans and assisting the Organization in carrying out its objectives and ideals, instead of wasting his efforts in criticism, I am sure they would be much more effective.

With best wishes,
Sincerely yours,
WALTER L. HOPKINS
BOLLING LYNN ROBERTSON

Mr. Walter L. Hopkins,
Adjutant-in-Chief,
Sons of Confederate Veterans,
Richmond, Virginia
Dear Sir:

I thank you kindly for sending me the copy of your interesting letter addressed to Col. Wood.

I think you have made some errors and omissions, but I am glad you agree with me in the main—that is, the Southern people, not the Federal Government, should own and care for the Henry Farm, now the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park.

Capt. Westwood Hutchison, of Manassas was one of the original directors with Ewing and Price. Capt. Hutchison, his wife and daughter, Miss Isabelle, worked very hard for the Battlefield Park. If I remember correctly, I was instrumental in raising over half of the first $10,000.00 that was used as a payment on the property. This was followed, as I remember, by a contribution from the State of Virginia.

Among those I solicited in Richmond was John Stewart Bryan who gave me $100.00; Eppa Hunton, now deceased, $200.00; and my cousin by marriage, Mrs. Henry Fairfax, who contributed $100.00.

Don't worry my good friend, I was up to my neck in the affairs of the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park. I am not positive, but I believe I gave $500.00.

The Manassas Chapter U. D. C. contributed, and have been loyal supporters. They recently got a little mixed up, but they are as fine ladies to work with as ever met.

I am interested only in seeing that the Park is kept as a truly Confederate memorial park, even if it has no other markers than those glorious old pine trees.

Sincerely yours,
BOLLING LYNN ROBERTSON

NOTE: The remainder of Mr. Robertson's interesting correspondence will be published next week.

REV. AND MRS. HALPENNY

CELEBRATES 96th BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Last Sunday, Rev. J. Halpenny celebrated his ninety-sixth birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bertha Embrey. His daughters gave him a dinner and his two granddaughters each brought him beautifully decorated birthday cakes.

During the day some of his favorite hymns were sung.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. Halpenny, his two daughters, Mrs. Embrey, and Mrs. Alberta Fritter, of Garrisonville, his sons-in-law, Rev. J. M. Bell, of Manassas and Mr. R. D. Fritter, of Garrisonville; his granddaughters and grandsons, Mrs. Lora Bell Orebaugh and Mr. Orebaugh, of Washington, D. C., Miss Dorothy C. Fritter, of Garrisonville and Mr. Lewis Bell, of Manassas. Others present were Miss Mary Sessen, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Vaughan of Garrisonville.

Rev. Halpenny's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. S. Halpenny, of Washington were unable to be present on account of illness.

ANOTHER BALL CLASSIC

(Contributed)

Sunday's baseball game made me just a little reminiscent. Remember when we were kids playing ball down by the old red barn—often some youngster would get angry and then break up the game by taking his ball and bat and going home.

Moses A. C., proud possessor of a long unbroken string of victories, and parading their star pitcher of no-loss fame, ran into a very aggressive Manassas team in the first inning. Neatly placed bunts trickled across the diamond, through the fingers, and up the sleeves of the Haymarket infielders. Bewildered, they stared as the Macs hopped into a three-run lead. Manassas then elected to let Moses A. C. set the pace through the next few innings.

Laboring desperately, Haymarket finally managed to accumulate six runs. Even as late as the eighth inning the Macs let them hold a two-run lead. Then, as the record crowd of the season called for a score, Manassas whistled singles all over the lot to pull within one run of the opponents. Again, in the ninth base hits sprinkled through the infield as the Macs evened the count.

And then, with the score tied 6-6 in the last half of the tenth inning, and Manassas base-runners on second and third with only one more out—Moses A. C. gave up—tossed in the towel. Seeing defeat inevitable they disputed a decision upheld by the umpires—but 'twas to no avail—the game was forfeited to Manassas, and the Moses A. C. victory string was broken and their ace pitcher had his season's record blotted very badly.

Due to a heavy chest cold "Lightning" Libeau, the Mac's ace pitcher, was unable to face Moses A. C. In his race Manassas used Conner, substitute right fielder, and Bradshaw, assistant manager. Apparently they had no trouble holding Haymarket in check.

On Sunday, August 22, Manassas plays Remington at Swavely Field. This team defeated Nokesville last week and is looking forward to a victory over the Macs.

Don't forget the following Sunday you will find Manassas facing Nokesville in a playoff of a series which is tied at one victory each.

Mrs. Dora Evers from Bridgewater Va., spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Herring.

Mrs. Paul Wine and family from Alabama are spending some time with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wine.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Oleyer motored to Buffalo N. Y., Niagara Falls, also to Canada last week, traveling over 1,000 miles. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mildred and son, Carl.

We were shocked to hear of the sudden death of our friend, Mrs. Nettie Wright here. Daughter, Lettie, and other relatives have our heart felt sympathy.

Norman Horris, of Bull Run, was in to pay Manassas Robinson's subscription on Mandy. He says that Manassas is getting along real nicely.

The August meeting of the Bethlehem Housekeepers' Club was held on Wednesday, the eighteenth at Clover Hill Farm. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Pearson were hostesses.

A short business meeting was held prior to the program. The program topic was "Flowers" in charge of Mrs. B. F. Knox and Mrs. Frank Gue. The committee had cut out extracts of the care of flowers, preparation for planting and new varieties. Each member drew a slip and read the information given.

Miss Emily Johnson was then asked to give us a talk on the planting and care of bulbs. A great many different kinds were suggested for planting from the very earliest to the late ones. Miss Johnson made it very interesting and gave numerous helpful suggestions.

Blanks were then distributed which were to be filled in with names of flowers. The result was a story of "A Floral Wedding"

The hostesses were assisted in serving delicious ice cream and cake by Miss Elizabeth Johnson and Miss Lucy Johnson.
