MISS WHITMORE A LOVELY BRIDE

Trinity Church Scene of Afternoon Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Anna Bruce Whitmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bruce Whitmore, and Capt. Alan Francis Stuart Mackenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Mackenzie, of South Orange, New Jersey, took place last Saturday afternoon at the Trinity Episcopal Church of Manassas at 5:00 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. John M. DeChant, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church.

The church was tastefully decorated with ferns, white hydrangeas and clematis, over which fell a soft glow from Cathedral candles in candelabra. The altar was adorned with lighted tapers and white gladioli. Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson played wedding music while the guests were assembling, and also played the wedding marches for the bridal party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a white tulle dress fashioned on princess lines. The dress was made with a low V neck, which was edged with a narrow ruche. The long-fitted sleeves ended in a cuff at the wrist, also banded with the narrow ruching. The wedding veil of tulle was attached to a closefitting off-the-face cap and extended over the train of the gown. The bride's flowers were a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Wallace P. Whitmore, sister-in-law of the bride, was her matron of honor. Her dress was of pale yellow organza made redingote style, the coat of which was banded with a narrow pleated ruffle. Her hat was a matching off-the-face turban, and she carried an arm bouquet of delphinium, yellow roses and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Fox, of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. R. Jackson Ratcliffe, Manassas, Miss Lucy Arrington, Manassas; Miss Regina Faherty, Miss Muriel Faherty and Miss Virginia Cullen, all of Washington, D. C. Their gowns and hats were of aquamarine, made on the same lines as the costume of the matron of honor, and they carried arm bouquets of pale yellow gladioli.

Little Miss Peggie Anne Whitmore, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and was dressed in a miniature costume identical in color and lines to that of her mother, the matron of honor. Her bouquet was likewise a miniature of her mother's.

Mr. Roderick R. McCullough, of Baltimore, Md., acted as Capt. Mackenzie's best man, and the ushers were Mr. Wallace P. Whitmore, Mr. M. Rudolph Whitmore, brothers of the bride, Mr. Paul J. Arrington, Mr. Wm. Hill Brown, Jr., Mr. John Holt Merchant, Mr. Conway Seeley, Mr. R. Jackson Ratcliffe, all of Manassas, and Mr. Robert Fox, of Alexandria.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the wedding party and out of town guests was held at the home of the bride. Mrs. Whitmore, mother of the bride, received the guests wearing an afternoon gown of black marquisette with insets of black lace, and a large black lace hat. She wore a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Receiving with Mrs. Whitmore were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Mackenzie, of South Orange, New Jersey. Mrs. Mackenzie wearing a white lace afternoon dress, and large white hat. Her corsage was also of orchids and lilies of the valley. Also, assisting the bride and groom in receiving the guests was Mrs. Wallace P. Whitmore, matron of honor.

After the reception, Capt. and Mrs. Mackenzie left for a month's motor trip. The bride wore for travelling a beige crepe dress with brown accessories.

After October 5th., Capt. and Mrs. Mackenzie will be at home at Mt. Holy, N. J., where Capt. Mackenzie is on active duty in the Reserve Corps of the U. S. A.

THE SERIES WAS EVENED UP.

Despite a steady downpour, the Manassas-Nokesville baseball classic became "history" last week-end. The baseball scribes were not on the job this week and not even the exact score was reported to the Journal but it seems that "Cannball" Conner, who can field either standing or sitting, led his team mates to a substantial victory.

MISS CONNER ELABORATELY ENTERTAINED AT FESTIVAL

Miss Elvere Conner, who represented our town as "Miss Manassas" in the National Tobacco Festival last week, was the guest of Mrs. Lawson in South Boston during the festivities and together with a group of 75 maids of honor to Queen Rosaria de Blank was elaborately entertained. The Queen's Ball at which the Queen and her Court were introduced to the 5,000 people who packed the huge warehouse where Ted Lewis and his band played, climaxed the two day celebration.

U. D. C. ASKS FOR CO-OPERATION

Delegates Elected to State Convention.

The September meeting of the Manassas Chapter U. D. C. was held at the hospitable home of Mrs. Allen Green. Mrs. Green and her daughters Mesdames Celeste Brown, hostesses.

The usual opening exercises were led by Mrs. Thornton, after which Mrs. Ashford read a petition, prepared by a committee appointed by the Chapter, requesting the cooperation and aid of the Daughters of the Confederacy in having that part of the battlefield known as the Henry House turned over to the United States Government. A copy of this petition to be sent to all the chapters in the State, also, to the Governor and to Mr. John Rust one of the trustees. The standing committees were called in for reports. Mrs. Dowell reported two Crosses of Honor had been secured and would be presented later. Mrs. Weeden, chairman of the building committee, stated that the old cars had been removed from the U. D. C. lot, also stated that the building committee hoped to lay the foundation for the Chapter House in the near future.

A letter was read by the president, Mrs. Virginia Carper, from the state president, Mrs. Forest requesting the chapter not to forget contributory to the Jefferson Davis monument and to Strafford, also reminding the chapter that all reports must be sent in ten days before the annual convention which will be held in Danville, Oct. 5th to 8th.

The following delegates to convention were elected Mrs. Virginia Carper, Mrs. Laura Nash and Mrs. Lonas. Alternates: Miss Nolie Nelson, Mrs. Lee Jacobson and Mrs. Middleton. The business session ended a delightful social hour was enjoyed during which delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

CHURCH SCHOOL TO OPEN WINTER SESSION

The Trinity Episcopal Church School will open its winter session next Sunday, Sept. 12th with a meeting in the Parish House at 10 o'clock A.M. Invitations have been sent to the old members of the Sunday School with the announcement that extensive preparations are being made to have a larger teaching staff and more interesting lessons and materials. Rev. Gibson and Mr. O. D. Waters, superintendent of the Sunday School, will give short talks. Following the closing service the teachers will meet to plan their classes according to attendance, and the following Sunday lessons will begin. Parents who wish to enter their children are urged to have them attend next Sunday so that they may be counted among the members, or they can phone the following teachers: Mrs. C. A. Sinclair, Miss Marion Lynn, Miss Walser Conner.

Monthly Meetings of the Manassas Woman's Club Are Resumed

The members of the Manassas Woman's Club resumed their regularly monthly meetings after the summer vacation, on Wednesday afternoon September 8th, in the dining room of the Prince William Hotel. The President Mrs. Lloyd presided. Along with regular routine matters pertaining to the business portion of the meeting, reports of all outstanding committees were given by the respective Chairmen, which showed quite a little activity on the part of the various committees during the summer. Mrs. Carl Kincheloe reporting for the Junior Woman's Club gave an excellent report of the work accomplished by their Club during the summer and some of their early fall plans. The program Chairman Mrs. Broadus expressed keen regret that she did not have the yearbooks for distributed in the very near future. She spoke briefly of some of the programs as outlined for the coming year and felt that all the meetings as planned would be well worthwhile.

Mrs. Fred Hynson, Chairman of the Music-Literature Section was very much enthused over their program as planned for the coming year, and issued a very cordial invitation to all members of the Club to attend the first fall meeting of the Section which would be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith, on the evening of September 28th.

There being no new business to take up, the program was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Broadus. She introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Walter DuBois Brookings, past President of the Alexandria Woman's Club and also a former representative of the Mass. Legislature, Mrs. Brookings' subject was "Horse Shoe Nails". In subjecting her talk she extended greetings from Fairfax County to Prince William County and also greetings from the Alexandria Woman's Club. In explaining her subject, Mrs. Brookings said she that a subject for an address was something like a political party platform, that is "something to step out on, maybe you use it and maybe you don't."

REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL OFF TO GOOD START

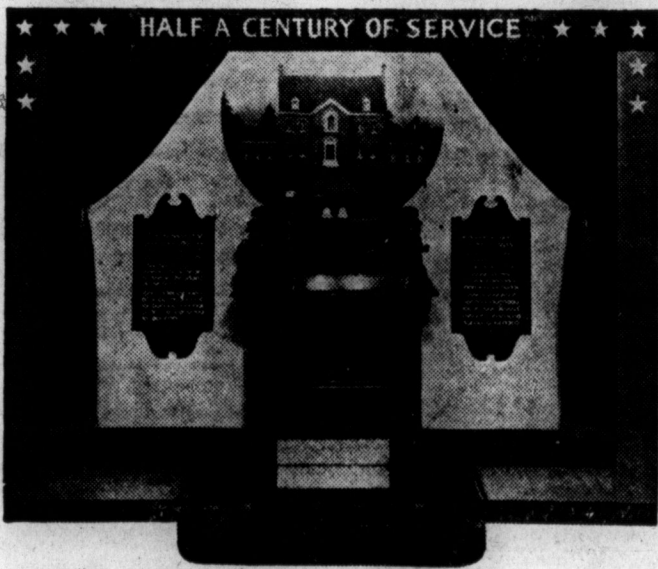

The Northern Virginia Regional High School for Negroes opened yesterday with pupils reporting from Fairfax, Fauquier and Rappahannock. The number enrolled already exceeds 100 and there is no definite method of ascertaining the probable enrollment for two or three weeks. It is suggested to all such pupils who have not received definite instructions from their respective school authorities to either report directly at the high school or else signal the bus which passes nearest to them and come to the school with their report cards as credentials.

The consolidated regional high school promises to be quite a success and in Fairfax County those desiring to attend have reached such numbers as to present quite a problem. Two buses have assigned by the Fairfax County School Board and the patrons were allowed to select their own drivers.

Mrs. Brookings closed her talk by stressing the importance of putting into practice that part of the Club Collect, namely, "teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid."

Old Telephone Served 17 Governors, Is Now Retired to Maryland Museum

This old cabinet-type telephone was installed in the Executive Mansion at Annapolis, Md., in 1884. After furnishing telephone service for eleven governors of Maryland, it was recently retired and was presented to the Maryland Historical Society, where it is now on exhibition as shown above.

Annapolis 11 For half a century it gave tireless service, day or night, week day or Sunday, in peace or war. Eleven governors this telephone served, and it played its part in many an important historic event in Maryland. Now, Annapolis 11 is gone, but it will not be forgotten, for the old instrument is to have an honored place in the Museum of the Maryland Historical Society.

This telephone, the first in Annapolis, which for 50 years and more served Maryland's chief executives, was installed in the early part of 1884 in the office of Governor McLane, in the executive mansion. It was no ordinary instrument, this telephone of 1884, but a special "cabinet type" which was installed for important people only.

The then governor, Robert M. McLane, it is recorded, watched as it was being installed, and was shown how he could pull a chair up to the desk-like instrument and speak into the transmitter mounted on a curving iron gooseneck rising out of the desk top. On the left side of the desk hung a receiver and on the right was a little crank. In the space which in an ordinary desk would hold papers, pens and ink, there was a glass-enclosed cabinet inside which could be seen the inner workings of the instrument. On the shelf over this were two nickel bells. When Governor McLane first used the instrument, he heard the operator's voice coming to him from Baltimore, so there was no central office in Annapolis at the time.

Now, with the remodeling of the Executive Mansion, this famous old telephone has given way to more modern instruments, and no longer will it help with the activities of Maryland executives. Its bells are silenced. Quietly it takes its place among other objects of history. It has well earned its rest after fifty years in the Executive Mansion.

FINE ENROLLMENT IN ALL SCHOOLS

The Prince William County School opened Wednesday morning with an enrollment, in the grades, well up to normal and which promises to run ahead of last year's enrollment in two localities. Two of the high schools are showing a marked increase but as yet the school authorities have the matter well in hand and the capacity for handling the student body appears assured.

ANNUAL TEACHERS' INSTITUTE HELD

Faculty Receives Final Instructions For Terms

The first function of the County School System was the annual teachers' institute on Tuesday an account of which follows.

The institute was opened with scripture and prayer by the Rev. John DeChant, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church.

After a few appropriate remarks of welcome, Superintendent R. C. Haydon outlined the general plans for the school term. The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Frank Sigman, chairman of the Teachers' Association of Prince William County.

A short business meeting of the Association was held, including discussions on group insurance, representation at State Association, library of professional books, and summer school for the county. The following committees were appointed by the Chairman: Public Relations Misses Broadus, Blough, Morris, Mrs. Jordan, and Mr. Bittle; Educational Committee: Misses Johnson, Waters, Polen, Grace Metz, and Mr. Griswold; Coordinating Committee: Misses Vaughan, Neale Irons, Mrs. Sanford, and Mr. Harman. Misses Neale, Cadmus, and Billings were nominated to represent the Association in November at the State Meeting in Richmond. A committee, composed of Misses Ayres, Loman, and White, was appointed to plan a social evening when the teachers might get together and become better acquainted.

After the conclusion of the business, an enjoyable vocal selection was rendered by Miss Jessie Mae Conner accompanied by Miss Miriam Blough. The morning session then adjourned for an excellent lunch which had been prepared by the Parent Teachers' Association of the Manassas schools.

During the noon period, the school bus equipment of the county of which Mr. R. L. Vetter is in charge was inspected by Mr. Haydon and the members of the school board.

The afternoon session was spent in the discussion of specific problems with Mr. Haydon presiding in the High School Group, and Miss Ayres in the Elementary Group. Many definite and beneficial plans were formulated at this initial meeting of the teachers.

JUNIORS CALL EXTRAORDINARY MEETINGS.

State Secretary Babcock has announced special meetings in the next week to be held as follows:

September 13—Farmers and Mechanics (Kenmore)
September 14—Bull Run (Manassas)
September 15—Fairfax Council (Fairfax)
September 16—Independent Hill.

Robert G. Whitesell, representatives of the National Council will be present to discuss with and explain to the Order certain changes in the National laws and rulings that need the attention of all members.

District of Deputy C. A. Lane of District No. 4 (Fairfax) and John M. DeChant District Deputy of District No. 5 (Manassas) will be glad to give information to any Brother, or one may get in touch with C. E. Babcock, State Secretary (Vienna) in the meantime.

THANKS!

Mr. Ellicott stopped in the Journal office to express his appreciation of our editorial concerning Mr. Stinger. The approval of such a gentleman as Mr. Ellicott means a great deal to us.

MARRIAGE RECORD

Sept. 3—Richard Ellis Carter and Alice Elizabeth Allen, both of Woodbridge, Va.

Sept. 4—John Wilson Evans and Catherine Boone Salter, both of Pikesville, Md.

REPORT MADE BY RELIGIOUS GROUP

We feel as we are now starting our second year of week-day Religious Education, many people over the county who are interested and have contributed and who did not attend the County S.S. Convention would like to have a report of the finances of the past year.

We are glad for the splendid cooperation, and that so many people over the county realize that Religious Education is important in the formulation of moral character.

We are faced with the fact that the Department of Welfare has disclosed that 84,630 persons have been failed in our State of Virginia during the past fiscal year at a cost of $547,553.20. We wonder why one-third of this amount could not be spent in Religious teaching. Statistics show that only a very small per cent of the criminals ever had any kind of religious training.

Certainly every child who honors God and respects the sacred teachings of the Bible will also become happier and a better citizen than he would without this attitude.

Following is a report in detail of the Treasurer of the County Sunday School Association, beginning with the school year and including all the expenses of the Week-day religious Education.

MAY ENTER UNIVERSITIES

Colonel Crawford Hulvey, principal of Prince William Military Academy, reports that he is in receipt of letters from Dr. John Lloyd Newcombe, president of the University of Virginia; and Mr. George W. Mullins, Executive Secretary of the College Entrance Board, of New York, by which perfectly satisfactory arrangements have been made for the entrance of all students who graduate at Prince William, recommended as to moral fitness by the academy authorities, may enter the University of Virginia or any other college or university in the United States.

The conditions set-out are perfectly reasonable and simple; and should be satisfactory to any good student and his parents. Any student who is willing to meet the reasonable requirements of the University of Virginia, or the College Entrance Board, need have no fear about his credits, Colonel Hulvey reports.

Colonel Hulvey says that arrangements have been made with teachers of very satisfactory ability and fitness, and that Prince William will offer a faculty capable of meeting all standards required for college entrance anywhere. Some of these men, owing to the lateness of Prince William starting, will be delayed in arriving, but arrangements have been made with local young college graduates to hold their places at the academy until the regular men can adjust their affairs to move to Manassas.

ANNUAL HORSE

SHOW AT FAIRFAX

The Fairfax Horse Show will hold its annual field day, Saturday, Sept. 11, on the show grounds at Fairfax, Va.

Members of the County Chamber of Commerce in colonial costume will serve food and refreshments on the grounds.

President Estler Palmer has announced a fine slate of 18 classes. The first being for yearlings at 10:30 A.M. and the final being the award for champions which will come shortly before 6:00. The other classes are all that might be expected at a first class horse show.

FERNAND GRAYET SCORES BIG HIT IN MUSICAL FILM

A new star, with a genius for quiet comedy and high voltage romance, flashes on the cinema horizon!

He is Fernand Grayet, screen idol of the Continent, whose first American picture, "The King and the Chorus Girl," opened at the Pitts Theatre September 16-17.

His fame abroad is understandable after seeing this picture. M. Gravet is handsome in a tall, dark haired, board-shouldered and thoroughly masculine way. Add to that masterful acting, a warm and friendly personality, an excellent speaking and singing voice and you'll understand the eation of Mervyn LeRoy when he signed him to a contract last year.

In "The King and the Chorus Girl," Mervyn LeRoy's first picture as a producer for Warner Bros., M. Gravet plays the role of wealthy, spendthrift ex-King Alfred VII who tumbles madly in love with an independent little American chorus girl, portrayed by Joan Blondell. The king loves the chorus girl, she turns up her nose at him, and the merry, mad fun is on.

Edward Everett Horton is magnificently humorous as the worried uncle of the profligate king, as is Mary Nash, the veteran co medienne, as his aunt.

MOSES A. C. TO

PLAY NOKESVILLE

Sunday, Sept. 12, Moses A. C. will play Nokesville. Neither of these teams have faced each other, so they don't know how the game will turn out. They were supposed to play several Sundays ago, but the game was called off on the account of rain. They are hoping this game will turn to be a success.

Moses lost to the Fire Stone team Sunday. The score was 10 to 2. Monday they lost to Fairfax with a score of 6 to 0.

Moses A. C. seemed like they just could not manage the old ball. They are hoping to have a better chance Sunday. Due to the fact that they played in a heavy mist Sunday, and Monday it was damp and the diamond was wet. Moses is not good in the mud, but give them a good hot day and a dry diamond.

GIVE YOURSELF THE "POCKETBOOK TEST"

Dixie Dunbar, Dancing Movie Star, Suggests Clever Way To Set Your Beauty Straight

AS an index to your personality and beauty habits there's nothing more revealing than a "pocketbook test"!

Vivid young Dixie Dunbar, whose dancing is lifting her quickly to movie stardom, submitted to such a test recently. Here is the character sketch drawn from what she carried in her purse:

Tiny facon of perfume, youthful and dainty Studio pass, an actress Automobile key, owns a car Automobile license, drives it herself

Fountain pen, signs her own checks Spare hankie, a bit providential Lipstick tissues, fastidious A comb, well groomed Matched cosmetics, discriminating and hazel-eyed. Now could they tell she was hazel-eyed? Easily, because her matching powder, rouge and lipstick were all scientifically keyed to hazel eyes.

Give yourself a "pocketbook test." Perhaps you'll be horrified at the collection of useless junk and misfit cosmetics. If so, don't be discouraged. It's great fun bringing order out of chaos and planning a well-organized handbag that contains just the things essential to a well-groomed appearance at all times. Makeup will come first and it is much more flattering as well as more chic to use matched makeup. To be certain it will be becoming, why not take a tip from Dixie's clever bag of tricks and use makeup blended to your eye-color. You can get it in expensive little kits for brown, blue, gray or hazel eyes. And here's another hint which has something to do with your personality, if not your appearance. Stock your powder or guestroom with these kits. They are an exquisite touch of thoughtfulness for they mean that each guest will always find makeup that actually suits her own coloring.

BURKE

The Lee District Improvement Association held last Thursday, Sept. 2, was a splendid affair. The exhibits were excellent and the contest in the pie and onion eating, and sack race caused much fun for all. They were won by Billie Vermillion, Fred Maley and Elgin Kirby.

Burke Home Demonstration Club will meet in Community Hall, 2 p.m. Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Conner and son, Jack, of Kingsville, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Young of Galveston, were the guest of Mrs. Neta White over the week-end.

Mrs. Nora Estes Messick, Miss Myrtle Eastes, and Miss Sara Gillenwater will resume their duties as the teachers of the school again on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh spent the Labor Day holidays with relations in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bryce spent Clifton he week-end with their parents in Clifton Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kidwell.

Miss Beulah Dyer of Atlanta, Ga., visited her sister, Mrs. Malcolm B. Merchant over Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hollenbeck and children of Chevy Chase, D. C. were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm B. Merchant Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Millner and children, Miss Jane, Louise and Nancy, spent the holidays with relatives near Lynchburg, Va.

There will be services at the Methodist Church at 11:00 A. M. on Sunday morning.

Hey, folks, have you heard the news? Beers-Barnes Big Three Ring Circus is coming to Manassas on Monday and if you are looking for something different in circus presentation, then here's your chance to see the greatest aggregation of circus entertainment at popular prices.

Arriving early Sunday morning aboard a fleet of gayly decorated trucks and semi-trailers packed with the wonders and animals from the far corners of the earth; you will be thrilled as Frank P. Meister's famous Concert Band strikes up those circus marches so dear to the hearts of every steel arena Captain Moyer presents his man-killer trained lion, "Albert" in feats of sensational daring; Madam Tillie's group of mixed trained animals direct from Forest Park, Miami, Fla., will please everyone as they do routine after routine in perfect time. These are only a few of the many acts that make up this two hour performance of delightful circus entertainment. Performances start at 2 and 8 p.m. daily with the circus side show with its montrosities of the freak world opening one hour before each performance. PROTECTING AMERICANS ABOARD.

In the Far East today nearly 10,000 Americans in Navy blue, Marine khaki and Army serge, many of them well known in this section of the country, are officially keeping watch over American citizens.

Details about these men, their officers, organizations and duties are given in a story appearing in next Sunday's Star, a story that tells how they operate to prevent death and damage to their fellow citizens in war-torn China.

FOLLOW the lead of experienced growers throughout the country. Use Armour's BIG CROP Fertilizer—it gets into action quickly, and stays with the crop right through harvest time. See your nearby Armour Agent.

NOW AVAILABLE

VIRGINIA TREES

By William Harrison Lamb

Manassas :: Virginia

Volume I of this valuable publication explains just how our native trees are associated in the forest and how they should be handled to the best advantage.

Detailed descriptions and illustrations of each species are carried in this volume through the commercially important group known as the conifers and a complete checklist of all Virginia hardwood species is included.

Students, boy-scouts, farmers, timber-land owners, and nature-lovers generally will derive as much pleasure and profit from this book as will the professional forester.

Orders are now being accepted for immediate delivery.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Manassas Journal
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

A WISE EVALUATION

What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ—Philippians 3:7,8.

GEN. LEE'S TEMPERANCE

As a part of their campaign to combine temperance and state liquor control, the boards of several North Carolina counties are displaying a poster on which there is a picture of General Lee and this familiar quotation from one of his letters: "My experience through life has convinced me that while moderation and temperance in all things are commendable and beneficial, abstinence from spirituous liquor is the best safeguard to morals and health."

The general meant this—as he meant everything he said. It is proper to note, however, that the general drew a distinction between the beverage use of hard liquor in youth and the medical use of liquor in later life. One of his temperance arguments with the students of Washington College was that if they drank whiskey when they did not need it, they would not benefit by it when they might require it for their health. Again, it is proper, in the quotation the North Carolinians are using, to underscore the word spirituous in the clause where he commends "abstinence from spirituous liquor." He never put wine and hard liquor in the same category; whiskey he never served or drank except when in feeble health; wine he kept in his home, served on gala occasions and drank then with his characteristic moderation.—Richmond News-Leader.

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

AFTER the holiday week-end most families will want to live inexpensively for the rest of the week. FISH FILLETS are easy on the pocket-book and are liked by many people because of their freedom from bones and the number of simple ways they can be prepared.

EGGS continue to be fairly plentiful and reasonable in price. An egg dish or eggs combined with CHEESE with a little ready-to-eat meat or with vegetables can make a very acceptable main dish for lunch or for dinner.

Fall Vegetables Appearing The arrival of PUMPKINS and HUBBARD SQUASH, of quantities of RED and GREEN PEPPERS, both sweet and hot, is a herald of fall. The first BRUSSELS SPROUTS also bring a breath of fall into the air for with prominence. BROCCOLI is more plentiful and lower in price. POTATOES are again lower and SWEET POTATOES more plentiful. CELERY, ROMAINE or COS LETTUCE, EGGPLANT and TOMATOES are good values.

Lamb, Pork and Fowl Attractively Priced All cuts of LAMB are moderate in price. Lower prices are being asked for FRESH PORK. Whether the weather be hot or cold, fresh pork and new apple sauce have appetite appeal. FOWL is again the most economical member of the poultry family.

Peaches Cheap, Plentiful PEACHES are cheap and plentiful and the same might be said of APPLES, BARTLETT PEARS, SEEDLESS GRAPES, NECTARINES and PLUMS. The first TOKAYS along with CONCORDS and NIAGARAS have arrived to swell the variety of grapes in market. HONEYDEW MELONS are a good value. HUCKLEBERRIES continue in market at reasonable cost. The fall season for western STRAWBERRIES and RASPBERRIES has begun.

Here is a Menu* made up of seasonable and moderately priced foods. Roast Lamb Pan-browned Potatoes New Broccoli Apple and Celery Salad Dressing Butter Peach Pie Coffee

WESTERN MOVIES NO LONGER JUST "HORSE OPERAS"

The Western picture still holds its own as one of the most widely popular types of films. But Westerns seem to have gone a little high hat.

Formerly, a rousing Western—known to the trade as a "horse opera"—required nothing but a few cowboys, some broncos, some Indians and a sackful of guns. But that time has passed.

"Land Beyond the Law," starring Dick Foran, the singing cowboy, is a case in point. The picture comes to the Pitts Theatre on Sept. 1. It title was the name given to the territory of New Mexico when General Lew Wallace, (later author of "Ben Hur") became its Governor.

The gravest problem at the time was the dishonest cattle baron who set himself up as lord of all he surveyed. This included the and and cattle of smaller operators called nesters. The big fellow maintained his position by force, employing his own gunmen.

The story of how this problem was solved and the country opened up for peaceful, law-abiding settlers is a saga of pioneer days.

SERVICE EMBLEMS AWARDED

Service emblem awards have just been presented to George W. Benzie, Walter B. Follin and Joseph L. Percy, for twenty years' service. Roy G. Allen, for fifteen years' service and Richard W. Goodrick and Jessie M. Gideon for ten years' service each, employees in the Arlington office of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia, according to an announcement made by J. A. Cummins, local manager.

YOUR WATCH.

Is a wonderful piece of mechanism. It serves you day and night. It helps you to regulate your goings and comings at work or at play.

It is also a very DELICATE piece of mechanism, and needs occasional attention.

DON'T NEGLECT it. Give it the best of care that it can receive only at the hands of an expert.

So bring your watch and clock work where you KNOW that it will receive the attention a FAITHFUL FRIEND deserves.

VIRGINIA: IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, IN VACATION, THE 1st DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1937:

THOS. H. LION, Executor of will of F. E. SAFFER, dec'd., v. SUSANNA HEFLIN, et al

The object of the above styled suit is to make parties defendant the children and grandchildren, who are not residents of this state, of the late F. E. Saffer, deceased; to have aid and assistance and guidance of the Circuit Court of Prince William County in administering said F. E. Saffer's estate; to settle the executorial account under the guidance of this court; to settle the partnership existing between Legnidas Saunders and F. E. Saffer, deceased; to construe the wills of the said F. E. Saffer, deceased and direct who shall pay the mortgage on a portion of the real estate; to allow a reasonable attorney's fee for instituting and prosecuting this suit, and for general relief; that Lillian Cullen, Lucy Davis, Eleanor Lathrop, Aulwida Connell, Nannie Adams and William Braden Adams of the above mentioned defendants are not residents of this state, it is therefore ordered that the said Lillian Cullen, Lucy Davis, Eleanor Lathrop, Aulwida Connell, Nannie Adams and William Braden Adams do appear within ten days after due publication of this order, in the Clerk's Office of our said court and do what is necessary to protect their interests; to appoint a guardian ad litem for William Braden Adams, an infant, at rules, to answer an amended bill filed against them.

And it is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Manassas Journal, a newspaper published and circulated in said county.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be posted at the front door of the courthouse on or before the next succeeding rule day, and that another copy of this order be mailed to each of the non-resident defendants to the post office addresses given in said affidavit.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM & STAFFORD COUNTIES

Being urged by many of my friends to offer as a candidate for the Legislature from the two above counties, also, after the Kettle it appears has called the Pot Black & et cetera. I have come to the conclusion that an intelligent constituency of which our two Counties are composed should have some one to really vote for a representative.

Should I be elected, the following are some of the major issues that I shall advocate for the betterment of our counties.

1st. If you wish to vote for one who has no corrupt political connections. VOTE FOR ME.

2nd. If you wish to vote for one who will truly represent you and your interest. VOTE FOR ME.

3rd. If you wish to vote for one that will save you dollars for new school books, twice in the same session, other-wise advocating free text books for your and my children.

"TRAPPED" OUTDOOR DRAMA AT ITS BEST

"Trapped" another dramatic Peter B. Kyne Columbia production of the pioneer West starring Charles Starrett, plays at the Pitts Theater Sept. 11.

Audiences greeted the thrilling and action-replete picture with enthusiasm, and there can be no doubt that this is one of the finest outdoor productions that has been screened for many months.

Starrett, handsome, big, hard-riding cowpuncher who is gaining fame as America's "Outdoor Hero, No. 1", has a new leading lady in the person of charming and talented Peggy Stratford. Miss Stratford's performance is a capable one and would seem to indicate a bright future in the films for her.

The story hinges on the villainy of Sol Rothert (Robert Middlemass), a supposedly honest rancher of the West who, in reality, is the chief of a murderous gang of bad men. As the picture opens, Ted Haley (Charles Starrett) finds his brother dying from knife wounds and hears him gasp the name of Rothert as his slayer.

Adele Rothert (Miss Stratford) is Rothert's city-bred niece who has come to stay at the Rothert ranch. Haley meets her under dramatic circumstances, and later, as Haley is attempting to solve the mystery of his brother's murder, the two fall in love. The robbery of the cow-town bank and the gun battle at the Rothert ranch between Haley and the gang form the exciting feature of the climax.

In the strong supporting cast, the work of Robert Middlemass, Allan Sears, Ted Oliver and Lew Meehan is especially worthy of mention.

REPRESENTATIVES AT NATIONAL DAIRY CONTEST

Mervyn Williamson, of Appomattox, and Elvin Caldwell, Spout Springs, Appomattox County, will represent Virginia in the National dairy production contest to be held at the National Dairy Show in Columbus, Ohio, starting October 9, by virtue of winning the Virginia safety bull pen construction contest at Petersburg last week from a field of eight 4-H club teams, G. A. Elean, state boys' club agent, said today. The not-toway County team of Thomas Green and Waverly Green of Burkeville was second and alternate. A. G. Birdsall and Paul Rose were respective coaches of the leading teams.

Teams from Prince William, Culpeper, King and Queen, Dinwiddie, Prince George and King William counties, all winners of gold medals as county champions, took part. The Prince William team was composed of Gilbert Rollins, Wellington, and Selwyn Smith, Nokesville, coached by T. D. Cox, county agent.

Each team set up a miniature safety bull pen, complete to the smallest detail. The State winners receive a free trip to Columbus to compete for the National title and for valuable college scholarships.

LOCAL GIRLS VISIT

BLUEFIELD, W. VA.

Misses Edith Caudle of Manassas and Dorothy Weatherholtz of Great Falls have been spending the summer in Bluefield, W. Va., visiting relatives and friends.

They had the opportunity to visit a number of points of interest in that section. One which seemed to impress them most was the operation of huge hand saws of the lumber companies.

A popularity contest was staged for Bland County, Va., and although a visitor Miss Caudle won second place in a large group of entrants. Both girls are back at their homes

THE WELL

For thirty years I've had something to tell

About the merits of a good drilled well,

My wells are made good and tight Cased with the best of standard pipe, No surface water can enter there; That gathers filth from everywhere; Secure for rats, toads and snakes, Which often cause pain and aches. Don't be afraid a few dollars to spend—

The best is the cheapest in the end. My terms are easy and my prices are low,

So don't hesitate, I can please you, I know.

When once it's done it always will last,

And you will be happier than you were in the past.

Stock well watered will do with less feed,

Let me drill your well and you'll have more'n you need.

You may say what you will, but this I do think,

Your health will be better if pure water you drink,

So take my advice of a very good plan,

And come and see me as soon as you can.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

IT'S FAIR TIME

It's Fair time! Take your camera with you.

SEPTEMBER is fair time and I'll wager that mighty few of you have given any thought to this angle of snapshooting. Right? Honestly, the county or state fair offers more possibilities for snapshooting than space will permit telling about. There's the side-show band with its battered instruments letting forth loud blasts of discordant music. And there are the not so clean-looking vendors of dolls, trick gadgets, balloons and various other things of questionable value. Everywhere you turn is a subject for good human interest pictures.

But let's look toward the more serious side of the fair—the exhibits, for instance. By making intelligent use of your camera you can snap record pictures that may later prove invaluable. Then there is the judging of cattle, sheep, horses and hogs. If the judging is done in an open-air ring you can get the picture of the winner of the blue ribbon with any camera—box type or folding.

In taking such pictures, or any picture, as far as that is concerned, don't just look in the finder and snap the first thing you see. If the animal being judged has any unusual markings, manage to get to a place near the ring where these markings show up the best in your finder. Try, too, to avoid unattractive backgrounds such as telephone poles, wires or sheds.

Among the innumerable picture possibilities at the fair you will surely want to take some action pictures and a fair isn't complete without the thrill of horse racing whether they feature the veteran driver proudly seated in his sulky or the young, dare-devil jockey.

Snap a picture of the start of the race as the drivers or jockeys maneuver their horses to the barrier or starting post and by all means take your position at the turn of the track as the horses dash perilously around the curve and into the "home stretch."

Remember this, however. If you do not have a camera with a very fast shutter, say one that will operate at 1/500 of a second or faster, don't try to snap a rapidly moving object as it whizzes directly across the lens of the camera or direct line of vision. Your chance of getting a good, sharp picture is much greater if you catch your subject at an angle of about 45 degrees. It's always better to play safe than to take a chance and perhaps get a blurred picture. Load your camera and take along plenty of extra film on that eventful day when you are "off to the fair."

Hints for Homemakers

By Jane Rogers

If you reach for the catsup bottle and find that it has a black ring and a thickened plug of sauce at the base of its neck it is wearing an old-fashioned cap.

The latest fashion in catsup bottle caps prevents both these unattractive conditions. These caps which may be single or double shell have no liners, such as cork, to contaminate the flavor of the product. They are trim and give a neat closure that may be removed simply by lifting up with the flat side of a sturdy table knife, and when replaced afford perfect hermetic resealing as many times as the bottle is uncapped.

The caps are originally applied by a process called vapor-vacuum sealing. This process involves the evacuation of the head space by hot, dry vapor, which in addition to evacuating the air, sterilizes the head cap, and seals the package with a high vacuum. This high vacuum condition in the head space of the bottle eliminates oxidation, which process turns the surface of the catsup dark, preserves the aroma in all its freshness, prevents the plug of catsup usually found in the neck, and by reason of the cap, gives a perfect hermetic vacuum airtight.

Continuity of Benefits

SOMETIMES we hear people say, when they have just received some concrete benefit, that it cannot last, and that they will soon suffer some calamity to counteract the good received. This is the result of ignorance of the cause, nature, and purpose of the beneficial effects which we experience. It is due to the false belief that evil is as real and powerful as good.

John tells us (1 John 2:17), that "he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." Now the prospect of abiding forever would not be very satisfactory if we had to continue forever experiencing calamity, discord, and suffering. Evidently John's sense of immortality included health, joy, harmony, that is, perfection, not in-terruptedly, but continuously. In un-interrupted manifestation of that which is wholly beneficial. Whatever else seems to have existence appears only as a mistake, a misconception. The real spiritual universe, including man, is maintained and governed by the ever-operative divine Principle, the source of all that is beneficial. Mary Baker Eddy says (Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures, p. 124), "Spirit is the life, substance, and continuity of all things." Since Spirit could not be the source of aught that is harmful or oppressive, it is apparent that discords are illusions, not actualities.

Christ Jesus was always willing and able to benefit mankind in whatever way seemed necessary, and his acts were in accord with spiritual law and order. He was able to heal the sick, give sight to the blind, and raise the dead, because he refused to recognize any interruption in the spiritual order and continuity of harmony and perfection. The Bible tells us (Proverbs 28:10) that "the upright shall have good things in possession;" so Jesus cast out evil from human thought, and wrought untold benefits for humanity. Health, peace, joy, and prosperity are natural, and their manifestation in experience is inevitable when we consistently express the qualities which support them, namely, honesty, goodness, righteousness, and spiritual understanding. It is our privilege to protect ourselves and our affairs by knowing that there is no law operating in opposition to our well-being; that there is no power apart from eternal Love; that perfection is an established and provable fact.

We may deprive ourselves of a great many benefits by a misconception of our true spiritual nature. God is the creator of perfect man, and this spiritual man is the indestructible and ceaseless expression of omnipresent Soul. Everything man possesses or reflects he derives from immortal Life and Love. Mrs. Eddy states (Science and Health, p. 325), "When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image." This is scientific reasoning which reveals the unbroken line of beneficial activities that are inherent in true consciousness and expressed in the ideal man. As we rid ourselves of the old, worn-out concept of man as material and mortal, we put on the true or new man with all the attendant benefits. The ever-available Christ-idea inspires us to relinquish the false concept of God, man, and the universe which is responsible for a limited, intermittent, and uncertain sense of harmony, satisfaction, and peace.

We derive unceasing benefit only from that which inspires us to spiritual thinking and living, for this is the only way by which we come to regard good as more normal than evil, and so escape the penalties exacted by the belief of evil as real. This is the only way by which we can maintain the true thinking which unfailingly contributes to the highest ends of life.

Reaction, relapse, and retrogression are human concepts, which can never hinder or stop the continuous and eternal unfoldment of infinite Truth, from which emanates all that is constructive and beneficial. It is normal for us to be happy and healthy; and the law of divine Mind is ever-operative and available to establish harmony in individual consciousness and experience.—The Christian Science Monitor.

LOUISE RAINER IN DARING ROLE

"The Emperor's Candlestick," produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer from the novel by the Baroness Orczy, comes to the screen of the Pitts Theatre Sept. 13-14 with William Powell and Louise Rainer in the starring roles.

It is a daring film, not only because it gives these celebrated stars a new opportunity to prove their versatility.

In the new picture, Powell, famous for his creation of "The Thin Man," is seen as a debonair secret agent in Europe. Miss Rainer, erstwhile Chinese slave-wife in "The Good Earth," now becomes an exotic spy. The contrast is startling and the two stars achieve their divergent roles to perfection.

In a setting of glamorous beauty in Vienna, Warsaw, Paris, London and Russia, the action of the story follows the adventures of these two across a continent. Always there is suspense, danger and intrigue and, presently, there is romance.
