DAIRYMEN ENJOY STATE MEETING

Dan Chichester, of Falmouth, Retained as President

One of the most successful of State Dairymen's Conventions closed at Alexandria Friday with annual business meetings and luncheons of the three dairy breed clubs. Two full days were given over to live discussion of current interest as breeding, legislation, pasture improvement, disease control and promotion of greater consumption of dairy products.

Among the outstanding addresses were those on pasture and grassland improvement by J. B. Abbott, the value of disease free cattle by Dr. J. R. Mohler, activities of the Va. State Dairymen's Association by C. Nelson Beck, nutritive value of milk by Mrs. Rowena Carpenter, cooperative milk marketing by B. B. Derrick, consumer-producer relationships by W. L. Kirby, J. C. Eller, Gertrude Drinker and W. L. Burlee, and others.

An interesting talk was delivered by Representative Marvin Jones, for the past 18 years a member of the House Agricultural Committee, at the annual banquet on Thursday night. At this time a humorous and philosophical speaker, "Count" Rossi, scored a big hit.

Outstanding at one of the special breed meetings was a panel discussion of permanent pasture improvement, led by D. T. Painter and C. T. Rice. At this time, approximately twenty farmers gave their experiences and favorable results from the liming and fertilizing of pastures. Much favorable comment was heard on the address, "The Forgotten Page in the Dairymen's Ledger" by Prof. W. V. Dennis of Pennsylvania State College.

Standing committees of the Dairymen's Association, which has performed a valuable service for dairymen of the State, are the (1) Legislative, (2) Disease Control, (3) breed relations, (4) dairy markets and standards and (5) dairy products and farm management.

Among these attending the convention from Prince William County were John M. Kline, E. E. Blough, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hale, R. C. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Wheatley Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, E. R. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Russell, Mrs. Janet Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Kincheloe, Mrs. Aylene Guthrie, Capt. and Mrs. Kenneth Uglov, Miss Nancy Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn, R. R. Fishpaw, F. D. Cox, O. R. Hersch, W. O. Estes, J. M. McCloud, Pat Riley, Mr. Becker, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Pickeral, C. F. M. Lewis, William Taylor, C. C. Lynn, Jr., John N. House, Mrs. Frances Saunders, Egbert W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lewis and James House.

UNION SERVICES AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

A fifth Sunday union service will be held on January 30 in the High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. under the auspices of the Manassas Ministerial Association. Two features will mark the service; 1st, a talking picture depicting the national missions work of the United Lutheran Church; and 2nd and illustrated lecture on the Oberamagau Passion Play. Admission tickets may be secured free of charge at Hibbie's Radio Shop. This program is very unusual and should attract many people. A silver offering will be received to cover the small necessary expenses connected with the use of the High School and the Passion Play lecture. It is expected that a large number of the townsfolk will avail themselves of this opportunity to see Christianity in action.

The Manassas Volunteer Fire Department will hold a Valentine Dance at a date to be announced next week and it is hoped that public appreciation of our local fire-fighters will find expression in patronage of this event as the funds secured are greatly needed to maintain the equipment of the Fire Department.

SALES TAX BILL GAINS SUPPORT

Believed Necessary to Finance Education and Old Age Pension

The possibility of a General Sales Tax for Virginia loomed large upon the legislative horizon this week as the needs for education and for old age pensions exhausted the possibilities of all existing sources of revenue. Unless additional taxes are placed upon real estate it is believed by many members of the General Assembly that no other feasible means of revenue can be found and that the adoption of a sales tax is inevitable.

The present proposal would place a 2 per cent tax upon all sales, excepting motor fuel and fertilizer. Something like ten million dollars, it is estimated, would be produced annually by a sales tax of this universal character and out of this about $5,000,000 would become available for schools, $1,000,000 would be necessary to administer the tax and an additional million would go to the old age assistance program. It is stated that around $3,000,000 would be returned to the localities to relieve the burden of real estate tax made necessary by their participation in the old age pension plan.

Recognizing that Virginia has one of the best financial ratings among the states, its position as fortieth among states in public education has spurred the General Assembly to consider tax measures heretofore considered undesirable, and it is believed that the pressure for the general sales tax may become irresistible before the end of the session.

MR. E. R. CONNER AND THE MISSSES CONNER ENTERTAIN

Mr. E. R. Conner entertained at a Buffet Supper preceding the President's Birthday Ball on Tuesday evening. Misses Elvere and Walser Conner acted as hostesses, with Mrs. Charles Lynn serving coffee and Mrs. Aylene Guthrie and Mrs. Pickeral assisting at the punch bowl.

Valuable Books Are Presented To The Manassas Battlefield Library

The first contribution for the library of the Manassas National Battlefield Park was received in Manassas last week. The books came by freight, packed in nine large wooden boxes, shipped from Yankton, South Dakota. The consignment comprises a complete set of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies, numbering over one hundred and thirty volumes.

These records came to the National Park Service as a gift, particularly designated for the Manassas National Battlefield Park, from the Women's Relief Corps auxiliary to Phil Kearny Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Yankton. This post, which was the first one organized by the G. A. R. in what was then Dakota Territory, now South Dakota, was named for General Philip Kearny, who was killed at Chantilly, Va., on Sept. 1, 1862, in the closing action of the second Manassas campaign.

The last veteran of Phil Kearny Post having died about a year ago, the property of the post was left to the disposition of the Women's Relief Corps, which has recently presented the post hall to Roy Anderson Post, American Legion, of Yankton. At the suggestion, however, of Joseph Mills Hanson, a native of Yankton and member of Roy Anderson Post, who is now in charge of the historical development of the Manassas battlefields under the National Park Service, the set of Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies, which had rested for many years in the G. A. R. Hall, was given to the Park Service to start the library for the Manassas park.

As their contribution to this public-spirited gift, the Legionnaires of Roy Anderson Post contributed the materials, and made, packed, and shipped the boxes in which the books reached Manassas, after a journey of nearly two thousand miles.

Nothing else could be as valuable as the official records for the foundation of the battlefield park library, as they are basic authority for any thorough study or discussion of campaigns and battles. However extensive the library of the Manassas park may eventually become, it seems particularly appropriate that it should be begun with a set of these records inherited from an old veteran organization in the West which bore the name of a soldier so conspicuously identified as was General Phil Kearny with the second Manassas campaign.

Shelves for the records have been placed in the office of the National Park Service in the Post Office building, at Manassas until such time as a building suitable for housing a library, shall come into existence in the battlefield park area.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENTER- TAIN KIWANISANS

Some of the younger set, directed by Mrs. Dennis Baker gave the Kiwanis club the usual pleasant entertainment afforded by local talent.

The youngsters, all members of the Children of Confederacy, started out to memorialize the birthday of the great general which came on Friday last but unfortunately the young lady having this portion of the program to present was unable to be present.

With Mrs. John Broadus at the piano, Master John Broadus gave two excellent violin solos. His rendition would have done credit to a much more advanced pupil. The balance of the musical portion of the program fell to the Parrish twins, Nancy and Betty, two really accomplished little performers as well as being very pretty young ladies. Their steps and tunes were staged to the accompaniment of Mrs. Eloise Trimmer.

Mrs. Baker's advent at the beginning of the hour was also hailed with pleasure in the absence of the regular pianist, Mrs. Smith.

Tomorrow evening the Club will witness a slightly scientific display which will be followed by a further discussion of the "budget"—Ralph Sharrett is program chairman.

ATTENDING LUTHERAN SYNOD

The Rev. A. W. Ballentine and Mr. Paul J. Cooksey are attending the meeting of the Lutheran Synod of Virginia which is held in Roanoke this week. About 200 ministers and laymen will be in attendance at this meeting. There are 101 ministers in the Synod from over the State, and some from East Tennessee and a few in West Virginia. There are 171 congregations in the Synod, representing a membership of 22,802 confirmed members. The Synod will be in session four days.

WATER LEAK CLOSES SCHOOL FOR A DAY

A water-leak at the Manassas High School on Tuesday night flooded the heating system and boiler room so completely that the services on the Fire Department were required to pump out the large volume of water. Little material harm was done, beyond loss of the school day, but the School Board thought it best to close the school until the following morning to permit complete drying out of the flooded area. "Study as usual" was the order Thursday morning.

CONFEDERATE EXERCISES

On January 13th, 1938 three famous Southern heroes were honored at the Manassas High School, at 11:30 a.m.—Lee, Jackson, and Maury.

The exercises, under the auspices of the Manassas Chapter U. D. C., were held in the Auditorium, and opened with Dixie being sung by the school and the guests.

A most creditable paper on Lee, Jackson, and Maury, written by Miss Elizabeth Merchant, was read by Miss Elaine Harris, followed by "Beautiful Dreamer", sung by Miss Jessie Mae Connor.

Rev. A. W. Ballentine, pastor of the Bethel Lutheran Church, gave a brief, but impressive resume of these three illustrious men.

The ceremonies closed with the singing of General Lee's favorite hymn, "How Firm a Foundation."

MRS. R. A. HUTCHISON,
U. D. C. Sec'y.

MANASSAS HIGH SCORES OVER HERNDON

Manassas High won their third game of the season Tuesday night 41 to 11 when they met Herndon on the latter's court. Vetter, Worley and Wells passed the winners with 16, 12 and 10 points respectively. The Manassas girls were not so fortunate losing 24 to 20 in a closely scored game.

Both the boys and girls will journey to Lee-Jackson Friday night to meet the fast moving Lee-Jackson cagers.

ASSEMBLY TO MEET AT WILLIAMSBURG

The General Assembly voted this week to meet February 12 in the restored Capitol building at Williamsburg, Colonial capital of Virginia.

Both Houses adopted unanimously the point resolution to carry out a custom of meeting one day of each term in the building. The first such meeting was held there in 1934 with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who financed the restoration, as an honor guest.

HELD FOR SHOOTING

James Page, colored, was taken into custody by Sheriff Kerlin following the shooting on Tuesday of Mr. F. A. Cockrell, and held for action of the Grand Jury.

Five shots were fired at Mr. Cockrell as he ordered a hunter off his premises on Tuesday, three of them inflicting painful wounds. The assailant escaped but was later tracked down by the Sheriff who identified his foot prints in the soft ground resulting from the recent rains.

NOTE OF THANKS

I take this opportunity of expressing my kind appreciation to Mrs. E. H. Marsteller and her various committees and other assistants for their splendid co-operation in the matter of the President's Birthday Ball held in Manassas Tuesday night.

The Ball was a definite success and it cleared about $200.00 which will all go to the wonderful cause of the Warm Springs Infantile Paralysis Fund.

My thanks also to the many patrons of the Ball.

BANKERS BANQUET AT MANASSAS

Clearing House Association Met, January 25

The regular monthly meeting of the Clearing House Association of Fauquier, Loudoun and Prince William Counties was held in Manassas on Wednesday evening at the Parish Hall. Forty-eight members were present, representing fourteen banks of the three counties.

Mr. H. H. Cooley, Cashier of the Round Hill Bank presided and introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Henry W. Riley, Auditor of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation who discussed the view point of the F. D. I. C. and other aspects of banking, such as adequate service charges.

Music was rendered by Mrs. William Leachman, assisted by Misses Miller and Perkins, and a bounteous luncheon was served by the ladies of the Trinity Episcopal Guild.

The session adjourned, to meet again in Manassas on Feb. 21.

TO CELEBRATE SILVER ANNIVERSARY

The past year proved an outstanding year in the activities of the Bethlehem Club. Under the leadership of Mrs. T. J. Broadus, as president the interests were numerous and varied. The most outstanding interest was shown in the library to which $15 was contributed. Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, as chairman of the Education Committee purchased the following books for the library: Bishop Mead's "Old Homes and Churches", General Jackson's "Lady", "Bugles Blow No More", "Northwest Passage."

The books "In the Footsteps of St. Paul" and Rudyard Kipling's autobiography "Something About Myself" were bought with the prize money won in the Spelling Bee by Mrs. J. F. Burke, who represented the Bethlehem Club.

A contribution of $16.50 was made to the shoe fund; $10.00 to hot lunches for undernourished children; $5.00 to the summer playground; $11.50 to Miss Neel's fund for glasses for the needy.

The club, as is the usual custom, took a $5.00 membership to the Red Cross.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Gue and the visiting committee composed of Mrs. Robert Hutchison, Mrs. B. F. Knox and Mrs. Viola Proffitt spent a busy year. Cards or baskets of fruit or flowers were sent to all sick members. Letters of sympathy and flowers sent in times of distress. Congratulations or gifts sent on special occasions.

At Christmas, a committee selected several needy families to which they carried baskets of food. Christmas cards were sent to many former members.

Twelve meetings were held with a definite outline for programs. These included the observance of Music week and Education week. One of the bright spots in the programs were talked by Miss Eugenia. At each of these meetings numerous visitors were present.

The club felt the loss of the passing of one of the charter members of the club, Mrs. E. R. Conner and of an active member Miss Florence Kincheloe.

The Bethlehem Good Housekeepers club was organized February 1913. The year 1938 marks the 25th anniversary. A celebration will be held at the February meeting.

LADIES AID SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid Society of the Manassas Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. W. E. Trusler on Tuesday, February 1st, at 2:30 p.m.

PRESIDENT'S BALL WELL ATTENDED

Distinguished Guests Present in Large Number

The President's Birthday Ball was decidedly the most brilliant social event in Manassas for many years.

The High School Gymnasium, in which the dance was held, was tastefully decorated with greens and flags.

Mrs. Marsteller, assisted by Mrs. Howard Smith and other ladies, received the guests. Dr. Marsteller, Col. Jacobson, and Messrs. E. R. Conner, O. D. Waters, Hawes Davies, Sr., Hawes Davies, Jr., Jenkins Davies, Carl, Paul and Connie Kincheloe, serving as floor committee, looked after the hospitality of the floor.

Judge Smith, Mr. Ben Pitts, Hon. Melvin Hazen and Mr. Calvin Haley, all of whom are one hundred per cent welcome in Manassas, mingled sociably with the throng of dancers.

Feature guests were Mr. Arthur Godfrey, Henry Nestor, the "Singing Cop", and Mrs. M. E. Colvin, who sang with sweetness and expression.

The singing was contagious among the dancers who echoed the songs to the rafters as they whirled to popular music. Even the "Big Apple" was successfully demonstrated and it was worth double the price of admission to see Senator Ed, Billy Cole and John Brookfield in this celebrated feature.

The dancing continued till 2:00 A.M. and everybody was loath to quit.

The majority of the guests were from adjoining counties.

LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER APPEALS FOR CHINESE RELIEF FUNDS

An appeal for funds to be used for the relief of millions of suffering men, women, and children in China was made today by Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the Prince William County Red Cross Chapter, who announced that at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, chapters throughout the country were joining in the appeal.

"In asking our community to assist in raising this fund," Mrs. Lloyd said, "there is little need to emphasize appalling conditions existing around Shanghai and other cities, inasmuch as newspapers, newsreels, and radio have vividly pictured conditions that exist."

She said that this money would be allocated to relief agencies and hospitals already existing, and that a committee of American business men in China, appointed by the American Ambassador, Nelson T. Johnson, would be formed to distribute the fund. No personnel will be sent from the United States.

Admiral Cary T. Grayson, national Red Cross chairman, said American officials in China had informed him that 650,000 sick and homeless persons were crowding the International Settlement and Greater Shanghai at the present time with many times that number scattered throughout coastal and interior cities, towns, and villages that have been devastated.

Contributions may be sent direct to Mr. O. D. Waters, Treasurer of the Prince William County Chapter, Manassas, Va., or to any of the following members of the Board of Directors: Mr. G. R. Ratcliffe, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Manassas; Mrs. Janie Abel, Mr. H. O. Russell, Dumfries; Mr. W. Y. Ellicott, Cooke District; Woodbine; Rev. J. R. Cooke, Mrs. E. C. Spitzer, Nokesville; Mrs. Charles R. McDonald, Catharpin; Mrs. O. M. Douglas, Thoroughfare.

RETURN GAME WITH WARRENTON

Haymarket basket ball team played Warrenton team on the home court Friday night. Since this was a return game, there was much excitement and keen rivalry.

The girls' team kept the Warrenton score very low with a final score of 15-6. Mildred Clarke was high scorer.

The boys were not so successful. The Warrenton team rolled up a sizable score in the first half and it was not until near the end of the game that Haymarket began to creep up. When the bugle blew, Haymarket was only three points behind. The final score was 17-20. Ellison and wood were high scorers on the Haymarket team.

Haymarket will play Quantico at Haymarket Tuesday night, February 1.

CONFUSION OF THE PEACEMAKERS

By W. F. Carpenter, Haymarket, Va.

One of the most outstanding characteristics of these modern days is the wide-spread and intensive effort to obtain universal peace or a world free from the scourge of war.

In spite of all such effort we must admit that war as a national policy seems to be gaining headway. This failure of the peace-makers troubles the faith of many sincere Christians. Such may be helped by the following considerations. There are only two possible ways of securing world peace or world from which war is outlawed.

The first method would be a process by which each human being would experience the peace of God in his heart thereby being set free from the power of lust that cause war. This really means the conversion of the whole world to Christ. Such a result would require sweeping people into the kingdom of God in great masses which does not appear to be His plan. Our peace organizations all assume that something of this nature will happen; and it does not.

Hence, we conclude that the peace of God comes by this individual experiences, but not the peace of the world.

The other method by which it is possible to secure world peace is a process by which the lust controlled human or nation becomes convinced that it is wise to suppress his lust in view of the punishment awaiting him if he gives free rein to his passion. In other words by the establishment of an international police force. Until such a plan is put into effect we shall not see world peace.

In the meantime the peace of God will continue its victories in the individual soul and the peace-makers who rely upon talk to secure a warless world shall continue to be disappointed.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Love" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 30.

The Golden Text will be "We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (I John 4:16).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give" (Matt. 10:1, 5-8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The supremacy of Spirit was the foundation on which Jesus built. Jesus established in the Christian era the precedent for all Christianity, theology, and healing. Christians are under as direct orders now, as they were then, to be Christlike, to possess the Christspirit, to follow the Christ-example, and to heal the sick as well as the sinning" (p. 138).

THE WORLD AROUND US

By
O. J. Schuster

HUMAN NATURE DEMANDS BEAUTY, as well as material comforts. The enlightened mind feels irritation when a naturally beautiful landscape is marred by screeching signs of man's sordid greed. The millionaire who is not thrilled as he views the gorgeous scenes that stretch far and wide to right and left as he tours along Skyline Drive is poorer than the humble laborer who spends his last dollar for a seat in the "peanut gallery" of a great opera house where he may nourish his soul with the music of Wagner and Verdi. I have seen a dilapidated T-Model Ford at the highest point of Blue Ridge highway, observed its four passengers who were dressed in denim and calico emerge and for hours express ecstatic joy as they feasted on the inspiring beauty spread out before them.

IN CREATING SHENANDOAH NATIONAL PARK and conducting the Skyline Drive through it, the Federal Government has given Virginia a striking illustration of the value of highway beautification and the conservation of spiritual wealth. Not a billboard or ugly sign of any kind meets the eye as one rides the ridge for nearly 100 miles. But once we leave the park and enter state highways hideous billboards begin to disfigure the landscape, as ulcers would the face of a beautiful woman. Other states have done much to eliminate this ugliness from their roadsides. Signboards cannot be erected without the approval of a responsible state council, and some states make a charge for every sign accepted. The General Assembly, now in session in Richmond, is expected to align itself with those states that are placing less value on the beauty of nature than they do on the material wealth of nature. Vast numbers of tourists are attracted by Virginia's scenic beauty and famed historic associations. Is it any wonder that, finding the roadsides dotted with hideous signs, they often express disgust with the ugly advertisements of man's greed for profits?

NEW POWELL-LOY LAUGH HIT COMES TO PITTS' SCREEN

A side-splitting laugh treat is in store for moviegoers who attend the opening at the Pitts' Theatre next week for the attraction there starting... will be "Double Wedding," co-starring those perennial favorites, William Powell and Myrna Loy, in what is described as a picture even funnier than their famous "Thin Man" series.

Based on the continental stage success, "Great Love" by Ferenc Molnar, the new romantic comedy tells the story of four people—Charlie, a penniless but happy-go-lucky artist who makes his home in a trailer; Margit, owner of fashionable New York gown shop; Irene, her sister with yearnings to be a movie star; and Waldo, Irene's half-hearted suitor.

It is Margit's determination that her sister should marry the somewhat unromantic Waldo, but instead Irene meets the devil-may-care artist and falls completely under his spell. The dignified Margit exerts all the persuasion she can command to break up the affair between Irene and the artist, only in the end to fall a victim to his indisputable charms herself.

It is Powell, of course, who plays the itinerant artist. Usually seen in a beret and smock, although once making his appearance in nothing more than a pair of pajamas and a coonskin coat, he has a role which gives him ample opportunity for the sly comedy and dry wit which has made him celebrated as one of the funniest actors in pictures.

Miss Loy is equally at ease in the part of the gown shop proprietor whose dignity and poise gradually crumble before the barrage of mirth fired by Powell. Her new role gives her a chance to wear a stunning assortment of gowns, designed by Adrian and heralding the latest in fashion innovations.

A TRIBUTE

At the first meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Church since the passing of our esteemed President, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkin, a committee was appointed to convey to her family our sincere appreciation of her valuable service in this organization for a number of years.

We earnestly hope some one may be raised up to take her place in the work that grew to be so dear to her heart.

We desire that this expression of our esteem be recorded in our minutes, and a copy sent to The Manassas Journal.

PENNY-ANTE SMUGGLING

From big business to a penny-ante racket is the status of smuggling today along the Great Lakes from Canada and across the Texas border into the United States.

A story appearing in The Star next Sunday tells how the repeal of the prohibition law and the work of Uncle Sam's enforcement agents have reduced the old-time alky chiefs to smuggling butter, onions and chickens at a very small profit.

DANGEROUS

It is dangerous to sell a SUBSTITUTE for 666 just to make three or four cents more. Customers are your best assets; lose them and you lose your business. 666 is worth three or four times as much as a SUBSTITUTE.

EDWARD LeGALLAIS

Mr. Edward LeGallais, age 70, died at his home near Centreville, early Tuesday morning. He had been in ill health for several months, but was believed to be improving, when the end came suddenly.

Mr. LeGallais was a native of Canada. He was born in Quebec Province at Shigawake and moved to North Carolina in 1909 to engage in the lumber business. In 1905 he married Miss Lucy Yates, of Whiteville, North Carolina, who survives him. An infant son died there at the age of two years, and there are two surviving children, Edward Yates LeGallais, and Lucy Elizabeth LeGallais. He also leaves two grand-children, Edward Randolph LeGallais, and Lawrence Donald LeGallais. Two brothers, John A. LeGallais and Edmond LeGallais, and a sister, Mrs. Phillip Atcheson, all reside in Canada.

During the past five years Mr. and Mrs. LeGallais and their daughter, Miss Lucy, have made their home near Centreville, where the death of a very highly esteemed neighbor and friend was the occasion of much sorrow.

Mr. LeGallais was an active member of the Episcopal Church, and a prominent Mason, having occupied the position of Master of the Masonic Lodge in the community of North Carolina where he had lived so long. He was a gentleman of the old school, quiet and courtly in manner, charming in conversation and staunch in his allegiance to Southern ideals.

The remains were taken Tuesday night to Chadbourn, North Carolina, where he was laid to rest with full Masonic honors.

IF YOU HAVE A FRIEND

If you have a friend worth loving. Love him, Yes and let him know. That you love him, ere life's evening Tinge his brow with sunset glow. Why should good words ne'er be said Of a friend till he is dead?

If you hear a song that thrills you, Sung by any child of song, Praise it! Do not let the singer wait deserved praises long.

Why should one who thrills your soul Lack the joy you may impart?

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

THE average of food prices continues to drop with MEATS, EGGS, FRUITS and VEGETABLES generally lower. BUTTER and EGGS are reasonable for the season and CHEESE is an excellent value.

Vegetables Cheap for Season
Many vegetables are cheap considering the season. Among them BEETS, BROCCOLI, BRUSSELS SPROUTS, CARROTS, PARSNIPS, POTATOES and TURNIPS. With the exception of ASPARAGUS and the few imported vegetables such as LIMA BEANS, CUCUMBERS and EGGPLANT, other vegetables are reasonable or moderate in price.

Pork Loins, Beef and Forequarter
Lamb Reasonable

PORK LOINS or CHOPS are a good value. BEEF, including the luxury cuts such as RIBS and STEAKS, is now in the reasonable price field. LAMB, with the exception of LEGS, is also reasonable, though even legs at special prices may be found attractive. VEAL is high. SMOKED MEATS may be a trifle higher.

POULTRY prices are not so attractive though DUCKS and, at special sales, TURKEYS are a good value.

Small Oranges Cheap

An unusual situation prevails when SMALL NAVAL ORANGES are very cheap, and all oranges cheap. The same can be said of GRAPEFRUIT and of APPLES, so that fruit can be used freely when the food budget is low. Even STRAWBERRIES should be within the reach of the moderate food allowance this week.

LEMONS are unusually reasonable and if they are not wanted for beverages at this season, they still have many varied uses in sauces and desserts that are always reasonable. What about that favorite lemon pie—eggs, too, are cheap!

This week's menu calls for foods which are reasonable and inexpensive.

Appetizer Salad

Pot Roast of Beef with Vegetables (Potatoes, Carrots, Turnips, Onions)

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in their mature years.

BUT DO NOT WAIT FOR TROUBLE: In the day of my trouble, I sought the Lord.—Psalms 77:2.

THE FILIBUSTER CONTINUES

The Solid South is standing behind the determined group in the Senate which is successfully resisting legislation calculated to humiliate the South to gratify a hostile majority of the Democratic Party in the North.

The measure has no merit as a piece of constructive legislation designed to correct any existing evil, but is surcharged with the old bitterness of Reconstruction Days, and any honorable means by which a minority may withstand a malicious majority should be resorted to in the present emergency.

The hostility of the Northern Democracy to the Solid South is too frequently manifested. In gratitude, if by no other considerations, the North is bound to the South by political ties which should be cherished and maintained against the days when Democracy can only hold the National Administration by virtue of the backing of the Solid South. It is time that the North should realize that the filibuster is only a mild form of the resistance to federal aggression which can develop in the South and they should appreciate that they cannot continue to insult the South with impunity.

THE SOUTH NOT RESPONSIBLE

The Southern Democrats in the Senate of the United States are being criticized for delaying the administration's program by filibustering against the anti-lynching bill.

But any responsibility for this state of affairs rests squarely with President Roosevelt's senatorial leader. The Southerners are ready to take up any of the proposed legislation at any time. The Administration through its leader is preventing any other bill from coming to the floor.

The situation can be easily remedied — by Senator Barkley consenting to shelve a bill that is not only an insult to the South, a gross invasion of state's rights, but also a sham measure, the practical objective of which is to capture the negro votes of the North at the expense of the Democrats of the South.—Winchester Star.

ELIZABETH JACKSON LARKIN
(A tribute by a friend)

On the 22nd day of November, 1937, death came to a very gentle lady and a true Daughter of the Confederacy. Born in Orange, Va., 1863, Elizabeth Jackson Larkin lived and died an unreconstructed Rebel. Just two years before her birth the fame of Stonewall Jackson was being sung throughout the land and it seemed to Mrs. Larkin's mother, fitting and proper that her little daughter should be named for the hero.

Mrs. Larkin was the daughter of Lucian Alexander and Sally Norvel Larkin and could boast that two of her ancestors were members of the House of Burgesses and later took part in Bacon's Rebellion. Her family on both sides of the house came from old Revolutionary stock.

Her father enlisted in the Southern Army when Virginia seceded and served until his health was impaired when he accepted an appointment from Jefferson Davis as Superintendent of the new powder factory at Lynchburg. Several years after the war they came back to their lovely home near Wellington, Va., Larkinton.

Miss Lizzie, as she was affectionately called by her friends took a leading part in her church work and was for years the principal of Ruffner Public School. It will all ways seem to me that her greatest pleasure in life, next to her work for Trinity Episcopal Church, was her association with the Daughters of the Confederacy. For several terms she was their president. In this Chapter, whose members live for and cherish an ideal, the glorious principles of the Lost Cause, let her name be forever enshrined with the eleven stars on the battle flag of the Confederacy. As she loved it could we do more? For that flag is the symbol of the undying memories of a cause that will live with our people as long as they live and as long as their children's children live.

"Ye old, old dead, and ye of yester year,
Chieftains and bards and keepers of the sheep,
By every cup of sorrow that ye bore,
Loose me from tears
And teach me to see aright, how each hath now what once he

ATTENTION ALL PARENTS, AND PATRIOTIC ORGANIZATIONS:
(Contributed)

Are you going to stand by peacefully and allow patriotism to be banned from your schools, and supplanted by communism? In our school days the birthdays of General Robert E. Lee and George Washington were strictly observed as holidays, (School Holidays) in our great state of Virginia. At present when patriotic teachings are more necessary than ever before, some of the schools do not seem to know there ever was a Robert E. Lee or George Washington or if they do know they fail to install the necessary patriotism connected with them into our children. Thank God most of the schools in our state observe the birthdays of those great men as holidays, indicating that we still have some Good Old Virginia Patriots left in the public service.

The parents, and all patriotic organizations in our state should demand that those days be observed in the manner due the two great patriots above mentioned.

Editors of the Journal:

In reference to the notice appearing in last week's issue of The Journal on the Library exhibit recently shown in Manassas of books on General Lee and the Confederacy, it gives me pleasure to state that the credit for the really excellent collection of Confederate material that the Library now owns belongs altogether to the Women's Clubs of Manassas, and to Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, former Librarian at the High School. The books were bought entirely from the yearly contributions made to the Library by the various clubs, and their selection was due largely to Mrs. Johnson who took great interest in getting the collection together.

MUSIC PROGRAM DELIGHTS CLUB

Washington Guest is Gifted Performer

The Music-Literature Section of the Manassas Woman's Club met Tuesday evening, January 25th, at the home of Mrs. Lewis Carper, with Mrs. W. F. Cocke as co-hostess. Mrs. E. Milburn Colvin, Jr., of Washington was honor guest and soloist for the evening.

Following a short business session with the chairman, Mrs. F. R. Hynson presiding, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Carper, chairman of music program. The theme for the evening being Shakespeare, the musical numbers were based on songs taken from his works and incidental music written to accompany his drama. Mrs. Colvin rendered most delightfully two famous songs by Franz Schubert "Who is Sylvia" from "The Two Gentlemen of Verona" and "Hark, Hark, the Lark" from "Cymbeline". Mrs. Carper and Mrs. Dennis Baker played a beautiful piano duet based on Mendelssohn's incidental music to "A Midsummer Night's Dream". Mrs. Colvin concluded the musical program with a group of miscellaneous songs, artistically rendered, and well received. Mrs. Colvin possesses a soprano voice of rare beauty and a charming personality which won for her an enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

The speaker for the evening was Miss Eugenia H. Osbourn, always a favorite with the club. She recounted most vividly her travels and experiences in the Shakespeare Country, Stratford-on-Avon in Warwickshire, England. She described in a most interesting way Shakespeare's home family, and the surrounding community and county-side.

During the business session the club made further plans for the John Powell concert which will take place on April 7. The club is anxious for some of the High School pupils to attend the Student Concerts of the National Symphony Orchestra this year, and with the cooperation of the principal, Mr. Peters, it is hoped that arrangements for transportation can be made.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Mrs. J. L. Bushong, Mrs. A. O. Weedon, and Miss Nolie Nelson were guests.

NOTICE

GREETINGS FROM

LAKES KILLARNEY

Dear Mr. Editor:

The boys from Prince William instruct me to invite you to come and go fishing with them. The very first afternoon they were here, three boys caught forty pounds of bass. The biggest one weighed seven pounds.

Our good friend, Mr. Sutherland went out the next morning and fifteen fine ones for us.

Today Mr. Kilpatrick, prince of a fellow from Alabama, brought us ten as fine denizens of the lake as you ever saw.

Tonight, our dining room table is loaded down with the good things of the groves, the fields and the gardens. This is the night of our formal introduction to the young people of Oakland, Winter Garden, Tildenville and Killarney. The parlor, the lobby and the dining-room, are filled with beautiful girls and fine young Adonises. The boys from Prince William are all right at home among them.

Clyde Miller is doing the honors for Manassas, "A la Prince Charming." All the other Prince William boys have been captured; but they have the good fortune of Juan Ortega. They have won the Princess, and she will save their lives. Prince William Academy has certain come into its own.

The hotel is a blaze of light from top to bottom; and our second week here is ending in a blaze of glory. The music and dancing are divine.

All the Prince William boys went to church last Sunday. Most of them went to Sunday School and then they went to young peoples meeting that night. Now, then let the reader be the judge.

The Presbyterian Minister and his lovely young wife, had all of our boys up to their home at the Manse Thursday night; and it is rumored that the same good fortune is in store for the boys at the Baptist Parsonage in a few days.

Colonel Hulvey addressed the Sunday School morning, and we give an echo from the event. A lovely little lass of seven summers was heard to say to her mother: "Mother, I love that man." The Colonel was highly pleased when told of the compliment.

The Prince William boys are all happy, and they constantly commend the Colonel's good judgement in selecting the place for our Winter Home.

We have heard several boys remark that they are going to The Prince William Summer Camp, at Manassas, next summer.

"The Killarney Scribe" from Prince William.

"EMILE ZOLA," MONUMENTAL PICTURE, IS GREATEST OF MUNI ROLES

Once again Warner Brothers and Paul Muni have enriched the screen with a literate and distinguished drama. Their "Life of Emile Zola," easily takes its place as one of the most impressive productions of the year.

It is superbly acted by Mr. Muni, whose characterization of Zola is the finest of his career, a sensitive and penetrating study of the famous French novelist whose cause was just.

Land Bank Loans have many uses!

"I bought my farm with a 3 1/2 year land bank loan, and paid out in 20 years."

"I needed money to make permanent improvements on my farm, and used a land bank loan to good advantage."

"I refinanced an old indebtedness at high interest rates, with a land bank loan at 4%. I'm saving money."

"Once I was a tenant, but 10 years ago the land bank loaned me the money to buy a farm. Now I'm a happier man."

"A land bank loan was just what I needed when my barn burned and another had to be built."

Let's Talk It Over

YOU too can probably use a land bank loan to advantage. If you're a farmer and need money, it costs nothing to investigate. Drop in and talk it over. Our transactions are confidential. Get your free copy of "Planned Financing."

and whose passion truth.

From the standpoint of dramatic action, it is infinitely superior to most biographical films in that there was no need to resort to manufactured melodramatics. For the dramatic highlight of the picture is that most incredible legal tangle of modern times—the Dreyfus case.

Skillfully utilizing this wealth of material, the scenarists tell their story against a vivid background of French politics during the latter part of the Nineteenth Century. And, told with a compelling sincerity, the picture traces Zola's career from his days as a straining idealist in a Paris garret to the days of his courageous fight in Dreyfus' behalf.

BURKE

Mr. Peter Roy died at his home early Saturday morning after an illness of several months.

Funeral services were conducted in the Community Chapel Monday with the Rev. Herbert Donovan officiating. Interment was in the Lee Chapel cemetery.

Mr. Roy is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Caroline Jerman and three grandchildren.

Mr. J. E. Staub is in the Alexandria hospital suffering from several major operations.

Mrs. Neta R. White left last week to visit friend in Florida, she will be gone several weeks.

Miss Ann Fairfax Kirby, Clarendon, spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm B. Merchant.

Father Thomas Healy of Harpers Ferry, Va., was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Harlow, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoenes of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hollenbeck of Chevy Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Elyin F. Dyer of Wesley Heights, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Erle R. Kirby of Clarendon, Va., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm B. Merchant Sunday evening.

The neighborhood was in a dilemma Monday morning, when Mrs. N. C. Stewart, Mr. Lucien Harlow's and James Ross' homes had been burglarized.

The method use by this man was entrance gained through unlatched windows, and then open doors to make a hasty exit, leaving a fire in the middle of floor, or out buildings.

The man apparently was seeking cash and food. In a few hours the Fairfax police captured the fugitive, and now it is urged that windows and doors be locked and notify the police suspects.

"HOPALONG RIDES AGAIN" SMASHING WESTERN FILM

"Hopalong Rides Again"—to give you the fastest-moving, most thrilling adventure of the Old West—in "Hopalong Rides Again," latest of the Clarence E. Mulford thrillers, which opens on Wednesday, February 2, at the Pitts' Theatre.

The cast of "Hopalong Rides Again" is headed by that favorite of all Western fans, William Boyd, playing the role of "Hopalong Cassidy" for the thirteenth consecutive time. Importantly featured in support of Boyd are George Hayes, again cast as "Windy," the lovable old bragger; Russell Hayden, portraying the part of "Lucky Jenkins," Hopalong's saddle mate; Lois Wilde; Nora Lane; William Duncan; Harry Worth; and little twelve-year-old Billy King, a new child player, making his debut in this film, who seems destined to go places in a big way.

The film opens with Hopalong receiving orders to drive a herd of cattle through dangerous Black Buttes gulch, in order to save time in getting them to the shipping town. Black Buttes gulch is the hideout of a notorious gang of cattle-thieves, and Hopalong is doubtful of the wisdom of going this way. However, the following orders.

Unknown to Cassidy, the leader of the rustlers knows of the plan, and, assembling his gang at the gulch, sets off an explosion which starts a rockslide. Many head of cattle are killed, and the balance run off.

Hopalong suspects the brother of the woman he loves of being the leader of the rustlers, and sets the stage for him to learn about a shipment of money which Lucky Jenkins is carrying.

The rustler chief falls for the plan. He arranges to have Lucky captured, not realizing that Hopalong has planted his forces around the spot, to clean up the gang.

The plan works. The rustlers are rounded up, and the rustler chief killed in a scene which, for sheer excitement and breath-taking action, equals anything brought to the screen in a long, long time.
