PUBLIC IS URGED TO COOPERATE

Annual Banquet Proves Enjoyable and Instructive.

Education, both of the fireman and of the general public, seemed to be central theme of the speeches at the annual banquet of the fire department which was held in the Masonic Temple last night.

The evening was off to a head start with a splendid meal served by the Eastern Star girls, Rev. R. M. Graham asking the blessing prior to general consumption of the bountiful food supply.

Dr. George Cocke, president of the local fire department, made his usual address of welcome as soon as the members and guests had eaten their fill. His introduction of the hosts and their guests put everyone in closer touch, and in readiness for the really fine talks that followed.

His Honor, Mayor Harry P. Davis, made a very brief talk in which he stressed the widening field of activities of the fireman, such as first aid and rescue. Mr. Davis predicted the appearance of a rescue launch upon the scene in the not so distant future.

Mayor yielded to the popular fire chief, J. Arthur Vetter, who made one of his characteristically modest addresses.

The next speaker was an old friend who has been to other such meetings, none other than Fire Marshall Calvin Lauber, of the Washington (D. C.) Fire Department.

Calvin split his talk into several sections which included some side lines developed by questioning. At the beginning of his address, he struck the keynote of education, first among the firemen themselves in Washington, citing the necessity of training and the various methods and periods of the same.

With the same thought, he showed how intelligent attack through knowledge of ventilation and "back draft" could be applied to quickly and safely quell blazes of all types. He described some of the most modern methods of "gassing" the fire. He urged that constant and thorough inspection would give information by which the fireman would know where a blaze would likely spread fire banquet.

He closed his talk with a hearty word of praise for the volunteer fireman.

Dr. Cocke then read a letter from our old friend, Mel Hazen, in which he stated that he was in the act of leaving for Florida and thus could not present. A wire from Wade T. Ellis disclosed that gentleman's regret not be able to get out for the evening.

In connection with this last communication, Dr. Cocke called attention to the fact that Mr. Ellis had been a very great factor in the purchase of the inhalator which had already saved a life since its purchase.

Responding to a call from the toastmaster, Rev. Graham gave a bracing talk, in which praise for the fireman was interwoven with humorous tales that Reverend always has on hand for any occasion.

L. P. Strobel, of the First Aid Squad, Alexandria, and also instructor for the local squad, made an earnest (Continued on page 5.)

WOMAN'S CLUB TO SPONSOR PIANO CONCERT

Mrs. Charles Mugler, Jr., State Chairman of Fine Arts, Virginia Federated Women's Clubs, addressed the Music-Literature section of the local Woman's club on Tuesday night, March 8 in the home of Mrs. Eula Merchant. Mrs. Mugler used as her subject "Candle Light". Miss Jesse Mae Connor sang two charming solos with Mrs. Lewis Carper accompanying her.

As its sponsors this section is anticipating the outstanding event of the season. The John Powell Concert to be held in the auditorium of the Osborn High School on April 7. John Powell is a world renowned pianist and it is gratifying to find that interest in this concert is running high not only in Manassas and Prince William County but also in the surrounding counties and towns as well. Tickets will be on sale very soon. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Merchant were Mrs. John Broadbent, Mrs. Dennis Baker and Mrs. Fred Hynson.

LEGION BANQUET

Time and space do not permit us to do justice to the annual meeting here Tuesday night, and the same will be produced next week.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

Farmers desiring these loans should apply on that date.

CRIME IN YOUTH BANQUET THEME

Annual Assembly of Religious Council well Attended

The annual banquet of the members and friends of the county council of Religious Education was held recently at the high school auditorium, some hundred guests being present.

The feature of the evening was an address by Rev. A. W. Ballentine on "Crime", with especial reference to the so-called crime wave among youth.

Mr. Ballentine spoke of the great army of miscreants and of the tender age of the large majority. He quoted an eminent authority as stating that a religious revival was the thing most needed in the world, and that it had actually already gotten well under way.

The speaker gave some alarming figures in crime statistics states and illustrated the lack of religious training among the host of evil doers. The hopeful thread of thought was brought out by showing that religious statistics to be running ahead of vital statistics.

Another forceful speaker of the occasion was Miss Martha Bennett, director of religious education in Arlington County for the past three years. Miss Bennett declared that week day training is now being given to 14000 children in two cities and twenty counties by twenty-eight religious instructors, all operating under the State Council of Religious Education.

According to Miss Bennett some thirty additional sections are about ready for development, a very interesting disclosure.

The county director, Miss Emma Perkins, and assistant, Miss Hazel Saunders, gave brief but encouraging reports. Mr. J. J. Conner, county treasurer, made a report on finances. Other county workers were present. The president, Rev. J. M. DeChant, presided.

The banquet, which was served by the P. T. A., with the home economics girls assisting, was much enjoyed.

BINGO PARTY AT WOODBINE

The Woodbine Community League will sponsor a "Bingo Party" at the schoolhouse Thursday night, March 17. Prizes for all winners; "Grand Prizes" for the one who wins the most games.

A short program will be given under the direction of Mrs. Eloise Trimmer. Refreshments for sale. Proceeds for benefit of school. adv.

BASEBALL BEGINS AT M. H. S.

The first meeting of the M. H. S. baseball squad was held Monday evening, with 41 candidates reporting for practice. This is the largest squad Manassas High has had for years and among this group there are eleven lettermen from last years team.

Coach Litwin is very pleased with the material and has bright prospects for a successful season.

HATCHERY ADDED TO HONOR ROLL

County Agent Cox was recently notified that the hatchery of Mr. Lester Huff has been placed on the certified list as being free of the much dreaded disease generally called white diarrhea.

This represents much time and effort to absolutely remove all reactors from a flock of hens that contain "reactors". The approval of the State Division of Markets is a worth while honor.

FOOD SALE

The Junior Woman's Club will hold a food sale at Cocke's Drug Store this Saturday, March 12th, from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. Cakes, pies, candy, and cookies will be sold.

ANCHORS OR WINGS?

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS CLEVER ARTIST AS GUEST SPEAKER

The Woman's Club of Manassas held their meeting March 9th at the Prince William Hotel. The president, Mrs. William Lloyd, opened the meeting by having a unison reading of the collect.

The old business was attended to in short order and the committees for the Easter Ball, which is to be given April 18, were announced.

Mrs. William Cocke, chairman for the John Powell Concert, which will be April 7th, stated that the plans were progressing smoothly. A large crowd is anticipated as the Music-Literature Section of the Woman's Club feel that this is undoubtedly the most uplifting and inspiring event they have ever offered to the public.

Mrs. Fred Hynson, chairman of the Music-Literature Section, introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Charles Mugler, Jr., of Hilton Village, Va.

Mrs. Mugler, before giving her splendid review of Dr. Cronin's new book "The Citadel", said that she wanted the listeners to bear in mind that the book is a criticism of the English medical profession and not the American.

Mrs. Mugler dramatized several parts of the novel during her review, which were much enjoyed by the audience.

Delightful refreshments were then served by the hostesses.

LOCAL RED CROSS TO URGE FIRST AID STATIONS

National Headquarters, American Red Cross, was represented by Miss Sadie James, Field worker for this district at the annual meeting of Prince William Chapter, held March 8, in the Presbyterian S S room Manassas.

Reports of the Chapter's secretary, and treasurers and Junior Red Cross, Roll Call, Civilian Relief and Nursing Committees were read, and disclosed a year of constructive work accomplished under the able leadership of Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the Chapter.

Since the nursing unit has become affiliated with the State and County, the Chapter during 1938 will concentrate upon the establishment of First Aid Emergency Stations on the Lee and Richmond-Washington Highways through the county. Instruction classes for First Aid in swimming, Home Hygiene Adult Classes to be taught by resident graduate nurses of the county.

Robert Wattzel accompanied by the Junior Red Cross sponsor of Manassas High School, and members of that group, read a comprehensive report of outstanding activities of the Juniors during the past year.

The Civilian Relief has spent $58 in supplying shoes, clothing, hot lunches, food orders, etc., during 1937.

The Roll Call and Nursing Committee reports were most encouraging. Informal talks upon the early work of the Red Cross in Prince William county were made by the Rev. A. S. Gibson and the Rev. J. R. Cooke this year being the 21st anniversary of the Red Cross which makes this County one of the oldest Red Cross Chapters in the U. S.

Officers of the Chapter and members of the Executive Board who were reelected are as follows: Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, Vice Chairman, Miss Loretta McGill, Second Vice Chairman, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, secretary; Mr. O. D. Waters, Treasurer; from Manassas, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Mr. G. R. Ratcliffe; Brentsville, Rev. J. R. Cooke; Mrs. E. C. Spittler; Gainesville, Mrs. K.

KIWANIS CLUB INITIATES MR. HARRIS

The Kiwanis Club formally inducted into its midst on Friday evening C. M. (Bucky) Harris, with former president O. D. Waters acting as conductor.

O. D. Made one of his usual vivacious and equally serious talks on the theory and application of the Kiwanis idea (even if he did go off on the history side of the question). "Bucky" got a big hand and was royally welcomed.

After a declaration by Ray Ratcliffe that he wanted to start at 6 p.m. next Friday (later agreed to 7 p.m.), the program committee relieved itself of the weekly burden.

President Bill called a meeting of all committee chairmen for Friday evening, March 19th, at the Peoples Bank, at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Kincheloe and Miss Jo Miller gave a charming repertoire of songs, many of which the members joined in singing.

Mr. James R. Simpson, the new county sanitary engineer, was present as a guest.

MARCH U. D. C. REPORT

Mrs. W. A. Newman and Mrs. Norvell Larkin were hostesses to the Manassas Chapter U. D. C. last Wednesday, at the home Mrs. Newman.

In the Historical period the important Southern crops were in order. Miss Florence Lion gave an interesting history of the old townships—Fairfax, Prince William, and Alexandria, and told of the important part tobacco played in their early days. She reviewed the wonderful growth of Dumfries at one time the most thriving seaport town in the U. S. Dumfries was made a township in 1749, and flourished for thirty years. Mr. John Graham, of Scotch descent, played an important part in the success of Dumfries. Cotton was also a subject for discussion Miss Lion informed the chapter of the book "Landmarks of Old Prince William" which could be read at the C. H., but could not be removed.

Mrs. Newman read a thrilling story about "Laughing Loss", a blockade runner, operated by Capt. Harry Rockhill, an English sportsman, who aided the South during the sixties. The President, Mrs. Byrd, stated she had purchased two copies of the book, "Things to Know About Lanier", to present to the High School Library; and recommended to the Chapter "Confederate Leaders", by Miss Sallie Dickinson. Mrs. E. H. Nash, and Mrs. A. O. Weedon were appointed a committee to meet with the Community Hall committee. Mrs. Bryde announced the appointment of Mrs. Lewis J. Carper as Chairman of the Publicity committee of the Virginia Division, and Mrs. Carper was warmly applauded.

After the social hour, dining which the hostesses served delicious refreshments, the members departed, to meet in April at Nokesville, Mrs. E. C. Spittler, Mrs. Compton, and Mrs. Harley, hostesses.

BETHLEHEM MEETING POSTPONED

ANTIQUE IS IDENTIFIED

The brass antique, owned by Mr. Worth Storke, of Manassas, which was illustrated in last week's issue of the Journal, has been definitely identified by Miss Lily Edmonds, of Catlett, as a coffee percolator.

Miss Edmonds brought in a similar vessel, smaller, but complete, which belonged to her father, Dr. William Sydnor Edmonds, of Catlett, who died in 1892 at the age of 71 years.

Miss Edmonds' percolator was placed on exhibition at the Peoples Bank, in Manassas, and an interesting story associated with these old coffee-pots will appear in an early issue of the Journal.

FORMAL OPENING OF LIBRARY

Ruffner Library Benefit by Action of Council

The Manassas Town Council voted in January an appropriation of $100 to the Ruffner-Carnegie Library for the purpose of purchasing books and magazines of interest to the general public, and at the February meeting last week, put a similar appropriation into the budget for the next year. The Library can now be opened for the use of the public two nights in the week as well as during the day. Also the W. P. A. which has been giving assistance through the school year, will continue it during the summer, so that the Library can now be opened daily through the summer months.

By thus helping the High School Library to increase its service to the general public, Manassas is falling in line with the constantly growing library movement throughout the country. For one of the most outstanding developments in recent years has been the phenomenal growth of libraries, not only in the large cities but in all high schools and in an increasing number of small towns. In some of the states every small town has now a library, either independently, or in connection with the town high school.

The opening night to which the public is especially invited will be on Thursday, March 24, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The Library has been fortunate enough to secure as speaker for the occasion, Dr. James McManaway, the Director of the Folger Shakespearean Library of Washington, D. C., who will give some account of this famous institution in his address. A brief musical program will follow under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Carper.

After March 24, the Library will be open every Monday and Thursday night from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. Summer hours will be announced later.

STUDENTS GIVEN AID

Exactly 4040 students in Virginia high schools held jobs under the National Youth Administration during the session of 1936-37, George J. Oliver, newly appointed State Supervisor of the NYA School aid program, announced at Richmond. The total expenditure was $138,198. Students earned as much as $6.00 a month.

This year, on account of a smaller budget, about $124,170 is being spent to give jobs to approximately 2795 students. The number may be increased, however, as some high school principals pay less than the $6.00 a month maximum and in that way provide jobs for a larger group of students.

In Prince William high schools $918 is being spent this year to give aid to 17 students.

Among surrounding counties Loudoun will spend $450 for 9 students, Louisa $700 for 14 students, Orange $324 for 6 students, Stafford $350 for 7 students, Arlington $500 for 11 students.

RECREATION ASSOCIATION

After little more than a year of organized operation the Interior Department Recreational Association boasts facilities for nearly every form of recreation in which the average young man and woman is interested.

A story appearing in The Star next Sunday describes this organization, designed to make Interior employees happy in Washington, and all of its activities, which include camera, dramatic, pistol, hitting, bridge, arts and badminton clubs; baseball, girls' basket ball, track and table tennis teams, dancing classes, a monthly magazine and choral groups, adv.

ASSEMBLY NEARS ADJOURNMENT

Road Fund Amendment Unexpectedly Defeated

With adjournment of the Virginia General Assembly, scheduled for March 12, it has become increasingly apparent that many of the 850 bills introduced as this session will be caught in the jam of the closing hours and will never come up for consideration.

Public interest has centered during the past week on the contention which has risen between the "organization" forces of the legislature, which are representative of the Byrd regime, and the Governor, over the question of appointment of a Chairman of the State Compensation Board. The so called Byrd group insists that the law should remain just as it has been through the administration of Governor Peery. Governor Price seeks appointment of a Chairman at a salary of $4,500. Heretofore the chairmanship has been vested in the Attorney General without additional compensation. Governor Price is said to be standing pat on his insistence that appointment of Chairman rests with the Governor; that if Governor Peery wished to make the Attorney General Chairman, he had that right, just as the present Governor is given authority to appoint a new man. A compromise has been offered in the form of an amendment making the Comptroller chairman, the idea being that this should be acceptable to the Governor since the Comptroller is one of his appointees. Public interest in the matter centers around the pivot of which group shall win, rather than details of the arrangement.

An unexpected turnover occurred this week on the proposed Constitutional Amendment to prevent diversion of road funds for other purposes. The measure had the backing of such influential groups as the Citizens Road League and the Association of ever-so-much opposition developed. Rural Carriers and had been reported favorably by joint resolution. How against using the amendment plan, that the measure was defeated.

The Billboard Measure has been passed by the Senate, 31 to 5. The bill has the endorsement of Women's Clubs throughout the State, and now goes to the Governor. The idea of the bill is to regulate bill boards by a system of license.

A bill has passed the House forbidding the hiring of teachers in the schools who are related to school board members or school superintendents.

A joint resolution has been passed appointing a commission to study the question of restricting the state, to report at the 1940 session of the General Assembly.

The Moncre bill requiring health certificates before receiving license to marry was overwhelmingly defeated, it being pointed out convincingly that the various provisions of the bill would not accomplish the stated objects of the proposed legislation.

The House passed the Apperson-Harkrader Senate bill authorizing railroads and steamship companies to operate truck and bus lines. The vote was 67 to 25.

CENTREVILLE

Mrs. Fannie Harrison, almost recovered from her recent indisposition, was a Manassas visitor on Wednesday. Her friends were very glad to see her.

WILL HOLD CLASS INITIATION

The Daughters of America (Prince William Council No. 45) will initiate the largest class in months. It has been gotten up in memory of J. N. Muddiman a former officer of the Council and one of its most beloved members.

OCCOQUAN (AND VICINITY)

Mrs. John Powell who has been in New York because of the death of her mother, has returned to her home in Occoquan. Mrs. Powell's father accompanied her and remain for a short visit.

Mr. Wilson Welch of Lorton is spending a vacation in Florida. We wish him a pleasant time.

Miss Elizabeth Vaughan, Principal of Occoquan High School, spent the week-end at her home in Amelia, Va. Miss Ellen Haislip of near Occoquan entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party on Thursday evening. It was her ??? birthday. Congratulations. Various games were played and refreshments were served. All enjoyed the evening.

Miss Virginia Shanklin of Occoquan entertained a number of the young folks at her home on Friday evening. Refreshments were served, and games played. All had a very pleasant evening.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammill and family to our town. The Hammills have moved into the house known as the Conner House, across the road from the Methodist Parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Hammill are no strangers here, and we hope they will stay a long time this time and will be happy among us.

All our friends who were reported on the sick list last week are up and about now, for which we are thankful.

Keep the date of Friday evening, March 18, open. That will be the evening of the BARN DANCE at Occoquan High School. You sure want to see a good old Barn Dance with a Real HILL BILLIES ORCHESTRA.

It is with much regret we have been informed that the bill to reduce the cost of milk to the consumers did not pass the State Legislature. The only reason it did not pass was that the Consumers did not back it as they should, whereas the Producers were there strong to make sure it did not pass. It is hoped you consumers will get together before the next term of the Legislature and FIGHT for this necessary reduction in the cost of milk to you.

Mr. C. B. Roland is to be congratulated on his article in the March 3, issue of the Journal, with regard to the operation of P. W. A., in this county. The P. W. A. has always been a messed up affair. Too much politics and favoritism. There is a section need of repair, on which unemployed from Occoquan and vicinity could be employed at no cost for transportation. No doubt other sections have roads too needing repair on which all their local unemployed could be put to work. Keep up the good FIGHT Mr. Roland.

ROAD FUND DIVERSION

Interpreting what is widely believed to be a majority sentiment throughout the State, the joint resolution of the General Assembly calling for a Constitutional Amendment to prevent diversion of road funds had been favorably reported and was believed to be headed for enactment, when one of those reversals of action suddenly occurred this week which probably has killed the proposition for this Session.

Backed by such influential organizations as the Citizens Road League, the Rural Carriers Association, the Virginia Dairy-men's Association and other important groups, the measure was designed to end for good the biennial fight which is made to secure some of these funds for other worthy projects. It has been widely felt that sooner or later, under some emotional urge, diversion of these funds would occur, and that when once accomplished, the entire road building program would be undermined, with probability of many resulting increases in general taxation to compensate for these invasions of the present inviolability of gas tax money.

Unfortunately for the success of the proposed amendment, there has been a growing disfavor of legislation by State or Nation Constitutional Amendment. To those who incline to this belief were added those who are unalterably opposed to tampering with the Virginia Constitution. They believe that one amendment leads to another with lasting damage to our great guarantee of personal freedom. They feel that the Virginia Constitution is more sacred than the Federal Constitution and more precious. They recall the great struggle which followed the Reconstruction and do not wish to risk the stability of the great Charter of 1902 for

MORRISON—SELECMAN

A very lovely wedding was solemnized on the evening of February 28th at 7 o'clock at the Occoquan Methodist Church when Miss Jane Elizabeth Selemman, daughter of Captain James Thomas Selemman, because the bride of the Rev. John Westfall Morrison, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Floyd L. Morrison. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Morrison, father of the groom, and pastor of the Occoquan Methodist Church.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Windsor W. Demaine, Jr., of Alexandria, sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning". She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. French Fleming who played the wedding marches and presided at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Aubrey Shepherd as Matron of Honor, and Mrs. Bernard Cross as bridesmaid. The little flower girl was Joan Carol Shepherd, niece of the bride.

The groom was attended by Mr. Jack Mahood of Roanoke and the ushers were Mr. Thomas Selemman, brother of the bride; Rev. Harvey Ashby, of Rectortown, Mr. Otis Kidd of Richmond, Mr. Oscar Woolridge of Ashland.

The bride was beautiful in a white satin gown of princess line with insert and train of petit print lace. Her veil was held in place by a bandeau of rope seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses.

The little flower girl wore a quaint little yellow dress of net with a dainty flower head dress, and carried of rose petals.

The church was decorated with a profusion of white carnations, palms and ferns, and lighted by tall white tapers which lined the sides and formed a tall arch at the altar.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Captain Selemman where the wedding party received the guests and the bride later presided over a beautifully decorated table which had a three tier wedding cake as its centerpiece, with delicious refreshments in pink and white color scheme with spring flowers as house decorations.

R.F.D. NEWS

Friends are glad to welcome Mr. Pat Ennis back to his old home town after being in the Navy for some time on the U. S. S. New Mexico at San Pedro, Calif. It is quite interesting to hear old Pat tell of his experiences and the many beautiful countries he traveled through.

Mr. and Mrs. George May and little son, George, Jr., of Clarendon, Va., and Miss Lillian Jasper, of Buckhall, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. G. W. Cornwell.

We are glad to report that Mrs. C. P. Ennis is much better after being ill for sometime.

Mr. W. Y. Ellicott is on the sick list. We hope he will soon be out again.

N. F. A. ACTIVITIES

The N. F. A.'s of the agriculture department of the Manassas Industry School are well on their way with the year's program. We have accomplished several of our objectives. Others we hope to complete in the nearest future.

The chapter has responded to several Community Calls in pruning trees, culling poultry, beautifying grounds and rendering first aid to sick animals. We hope to be able to render more services.

Our hot bed has been started so as to have plants for sale and supply our minor garden projects in the adjoining counties. Several swine and poultry enterprises also have been started.

In Shop Work we have several farm construction and repairing jobs in the working. We are now converting a discarded manure Spreader into a wagon and making a wagon bed for it along with several other articles.

Have paid our State dues we are making ample preparation for our annual State Rally to be held at Virginia State College in June. Last year Joseph Stewart was awarded two gold medals for being 1st in the Livestock and Crop Judging Contest. This year we hope to represent in the National Judging Contest to be held in Savannah, Georgia.

Keep Your Clothes Smart and New

This Easy Way

Just send us your clothes to be cleaned along with the laundry. Phone us today!

WHY do some people look so well dressed—even in clothes they've had for years? The secret lies in having them regularly cleaned. And now you can have your clothes cleaned regularly without any trouble at all. No more bother taking clothes to the cleaner. No more uncertainty about the results. For ours is not an ordinary dry cleaning service. It is a system of careful cleaning for people who want to be sure their clothes get the best of care.

Every garment, for example, is carefully vacuumed to remove lint and dust from pockets and seams. A costly cleansing fluid is used to protect delicate fabrics from harm and to prevent objectionable odors. Every piece of clothing is expertly pressed with particular attention to such details as pleats, lapels and collars.

No wonder such thorough cleaning restores old clothes to new beauty. Remember, too, that you can send practically anything. Dresses, suits, evening clothes, gloves, felt hats, ties, draperies, and many other fabrics.

Check over your things now. And don't overlook the ones you have laid aside because of stubborn stains. Get them together and phone us—or just hand them to our routeman when he calls for your family wash. Send them this very week—before moths and stains go too far!
