RED CROSS ASKS FOR RELIEF AID

Nation-wide Appeal for Flood And Hurricane Victims

Chairman Norman H. Davis this week informed the Prince William County Chapter that the Red Cross has given emergency relief to 63,000 people in the New England and Long Island hurricane and flood areas, where more than 600 people lost their lives or are missing. The Red Cross is giving emergency aid and rehabilitation to approximately 15,000 families in this devastated section, Mr. Davis said.

An appeal was issued for a minimum Red Cross relief fund of $500,000 to care for the homeless families of the stricken region, and contributions were being received in a quick and generous response, particularly from the New England states.

Five area headquarters have been set up by the Red Cross, as follows: Providence, R.I.; Hartford, Conn.; New London, Conn.; Brooklyn, N. Y. for Long Island and Springfield, Mass.

Thousands of Red Cross volunteers have been working among the flood victims, with the assistance of 150 Red Cross disaster relief workers, who were rushed into the storm area.

Mr. Davis said that rehabilitation would be given to families who were without means to reinstate themselves. This will require rebuilding and repairing hundreds of houses, refurnishing, clothing and some aid to small businesses, he said. One of the acute problems is the heavy losses suffered by the fishing fleets out of the New England and Long Island ports. The Red Cross yesterday had mobilized temporary fishing boats and equipment, such as nets, lobster pots and traps, for the fishermen so that they could continue at work, pending permanent relief measures.

The Red Cross also had assigned many welfare workers to investigate problem of families who may have lost breadwinners through death, so that women and children have care to tide them over until state or federal relief was granted.

"The Red Cross is the only agency that will take care of the human problems of these distressed families," Mr. Davis said. "I am told that the majority of these 15,000 families will prove to be without resources of cash or credit to meet the repairs and other needed rehabilitation measures."

"These families become the charge of the Red Cross. We have sent 150 Red Cross workers, including building supervisors, family welfare workers, and others prepared to immediately check with the families. Roofs must be repaired, chimneys rebuilt, some whole houses rebuilt, means of livelihood restored for these thousands of people. Families are now being told by the Red Cross relief headquarters in all of the storm torn sections to register their needs."

"The Red Cross is grateful for the co-operation of the many government agencies in the area. The W.P.A. is doing a fine clean up job in the stricken towns, and is co-operating everywhere with the Red Cross. Other agencies, which are prepared to loan money where families have resources of credit, are clearing through the Red Cross relief headquarters."

"I feel confident that every need is being met promptly. Our Chapters met an overwhelming relief task in the early days of the emergency."

A resume of the reports made today to Mr. Davis, showing the extent of the suffering, follows:

Connecticut: 6,100 families. Massachusetts: 4,400 families. Rhode Island: 2,340 families. Long Island, New York: 750 families. New Hampshire: 1,000 families. Vermont: 600 families.

Within a few hours after the hurricane struck, Red Cross Chapters were marshaling their forces, and were housing, feeding and clothing refugees in almost a hundred points.

In Hartford, Connecticut, last Friday and Saturday, the Red Cross had 2,200 persons, including 100 infant babies, in its charge. Through arrangement with Willard B. Rogers, Hartford hotel man, efficient plans for feeding were arranged. Three city schools, a State trade school, the County Building and an armory were used to house the refugees, who were supplied with army cots, mattresses and blankets.

Last Saturday, for example, the Red Cross served the Hartford refugees, for breakfast, oat meal, boiled

PRINCE WILLIAM BOYS VICTORIOUS

To Represent Virginia in National Contest

A very commendable showing was made by Prince William County boys in the State contests at the Virginia State Fair at Richmond this week.

For the fourth consecutive year a 4-H dairy cattle judging team, made up of Frederick Harpine, Harry Fitzwater and Cleveland Flory, won over competing county teams in the Dairy Cattle Judging Contest.

Competing with twenty-six county poultry judging teams, the County Poultry Judging Team, comprised of Paul Kline, Kemp Clemens and Kite Roseberry, placed seventh in the State Poultry Judging Contest.

Lester Harris was alternate on the poultry judging team and Harry Smith was alternate member of the dairy team.

The dairy cattle judging team will represent Virginia in the National Dairy Cattle Judging Contest at the National Dairy Show at Columbus, Ohio, from October 8 to 15. All expenses will be taken care of by the Va. State Fair Association. Previous Prince William 4-H dairy teams represented the State at the National Livestock Show at Chicago in 1936 and at the National Dairy Show at Columbus in 1937.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAYINGS AND DOINGS

There are three interesting attitudes displayed toward Chambers of Commerce. First, there are a few people in nearly every community who look upon it as the essence of Babbity. Second, there are a considerable number who know that the Chamber of Commerce is some sort of business organization, but who pay very little attention to it, and really don't care anything about it. Third, there is the group, always limited, who know what the Chamber of Commerce is, understand its purposes and contribute of their time and means to further the work it is doing.

We used the phrase a moment ago "in nearly every community"—and that in itself is significant of the position occupied by the Chamber of Commerce in this county. Sixty years ago there were not more than 50 Chambers of Commerce in the country and these were entirely in the large cities. Today there is hardly a town in the United States with a population of over 3,000 that does not have a Chamber of Commerce.

These organizations have an underlying membership of over a million. If fifty million Frenchmen can't be wrong, surely a million businessmen of America cannot be seriously misguided in their continued support of an organized business movement that has displayed the virility and utility shown by the Chamber of Commerce movement. The Chamber of Commerce—not always perfect, sometimes mistaken, but ever zealous and alert to deal with problems that affect the whole community—has come to be an essential institution that merits the support of every forward-looking Citizen of Prince William County.

MARKER TO LEES PLACED AT BURKE

Confederate States U.D.C. Dedicates Tablet to Historic Family

The Lees of Ravensworth were honored by the Confederate States Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at Burke last Saturday afternoon at the dedication of a marker and free to their memory.

Ravensworth, which is located near Burke, was the home of General William Henry Fitzhugh Lee, youngest son of General Robert E. Lee, who was affectionately known as "Rooney" Lee, and who served several terms in the General Assembly at Richmond and three terms in Congress. He died in 1891. Another distinguished Lee who resided at Ravensworth was Gen. George Washington Custis Lee, who succeeded Gen. Robert E. Lee as President of Washington and Lee University. He died here in 1913. The oldest son of General "Rooney" Lee was Col. Robert E. Lee 3rd, who represented Fairfax County in the General Assembly. He was active in church and community affairs, was superintendent of the Sunday School of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and a member of the Vestry of Zion Episcopal Church, at Fairfax. Col. Lee died in 1922.

Dr. George Bolling Lee, together with Mrs. Lee, their two children and Mrs. Lee's mother, were present at the dedication. Dr. Lee made an interesting address in which he recalled boyhood experiences and proposed a memorial to the late George C. White, who was greatly beloved in the community and through whose untiring efforts the improved road to Alexandria was finally secured.

Mrs. Neta White, President of the Confederate States Chapter, U.D.C. presided. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Herbert A. Donovan, Rector of Truro Parish, who also read an interesting history of the Lee family by Miss Hazel Davis, a member of the local U.D.C. Chapter.

The Confederate States Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at Burke, was organized eighteen years ago by Mrs. William Harrison Lamb, and during all this time it has had but two presidents, the late Mrs. Samuel Moore, and Mrs. Neta White who presided at this dedication, and who has ably continued the love and devotion to Southern ideals to which Mrs. Moore devoted her life.

This chapter is considered one of the most progressive in the State and annually adds to the Virginia Division accomplishments that rank with the contributions of the large chapters throughout the State.

ADDRESS BY DR. BOLLING LEE
ON OCCASION OF UNIVERSITY
OF TREE MARKER AT BURKE

"Mrs. White, Mr. Chairman, Ladies of the Confederate States Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Burke Station:

Please accept my thanks and appreciation on behalf of myself and family for the honor which you have done my father, mother and brother, in planting this tree to the memory of the Lees of Ravensworth.

It is a great pleasure and privilege for me to be here today to tell you how close and dear the people of Burke Station have always been to Ravensworth and the family. One of my earliest recollections as a boy, over half a century ago, was riding my pony "Ginger" over here daily during the summer months to get the mail. Often my brother, Col. R. E. Lee, and other boys visiting us would accompany me on these trips. In those times, in the country, the one great event of the day was the arrival of the mail and passenger train. If it was late, as it often was, we would still hold on if possible for its arrival. It always gave us a thrill to see the people get off and get the number of the engine and the cars. In fact, we became so familiar with the different trains and their numbers that we recognized the engines by their whistles as they passed Ravensworth Station. I am sure you, who have lived here at Burke Station, appreciate this even today as much as we did years ago.

In those days Burke Station consisted of Mr. John Marshall's store with the post-office, his residence, barns, and the railroad station. The clerk who ran the store also ran the post-office.

Mike Burke, whom you all know by reputation, would keep us amused with stories and accounts of the goings on around the neighborhood. To us he was a great hero for he was an indefatigable reader of the newspapers, and when he wasn't reading the newspapers, distributing the mail or selling groceries, he was engrossed in a dime novel.

Outside of these activities he was the first man in this community to realize the importance of good roads, which would give an outlet for the farmers around here at Burke Station to get to Fairfax Court House, and it was through his efforts and influence, as a member of the County Board of Supervisors that the hard surface road was brought from Burke Station to the Church of the Good Shepherd and on to the Braddock Road.

You people must realize its inestimable value to this community and must feel grateful to the originator of this great project. This road has served its purpose well and is today one of the great assets to the county.

The next most interesting place for us was the railroad station which was diagonally opposite the store. The telegraph operator, Will Merchant, was one of our boyhood heroes. He was always ready and willing to translate the Morse Code, which seemed nothing short of magic to us. This was long before the Block System, the telephone or the radio, were known.

Now ladies and gentlemen, in 1930 or thereabouts, Mr. George White, who lived amongst you from 1911 to March 12, 1933, saw and realized that with the growth of this section you needed another road which would connect Burke Station with Alexandria and Washington, and it was through his initiative and untiring efforts it is now practically completed.

This highway will always stand as a permanent monument to him, but I propose that the authorities of the County of Fairfax erect a suitable marker with his name inscribed thereon, which will be forever a guide for future generations.

I shall now take this opportunity of offering a humble tribute and my affectionate regards to his memory as one of my most intimate friends, whose untimely death ended his career here on earth, and 'may his soul forever rest in peace' is the fervent prayer of all of who knew and loved him so well."

MORTIMER PALMER WILLIAMS

Mr. Mortimer Palmer Williams passed to the Beyond Monday night, the 12th at Mount Alto Hospital in Washington, D. C., after a brief illness, in the 68th year of his age.

Mr. Williams had been in bad health for several years. He came to his sister's here the first of the year to be quiet in the country.

Mr. Williams was the eldest son of James E. and Augusta Williams and was born in Washington, D. C., at St. James Hotel, where the first few years of his life were spent.

He is survived by his sisters, Mrs. Mary A. Kengia, of Manassas, Va., and Sister Margaret Mary of St. Mary's Academy, Frederick, Md., and a host of nieces and nephews.

Those who knew "Mort" best, loved him best.

FEW engineering projects ever faced and conquered discouragements such as prolonged the building of Chesapeake and Ohio's famous Blue Ridge tunnels. Col. Crozet, officer under Napoleon, pioneer mountain railroad builder, took charge in 1849. He little guessed that nine years must pass before he could conquer the treacherous mountain terrain and run the first train through his tunnels.

It was not until 1854 that even the temporary track over the Blue Ridge at Rockfish Gap was opened, providing service between Richmond and Staunton, Virginia. And not until April of 1858 did the first train pass through the tunnels, herald of today's dependable Chesapeake and Ohio service.

Meanwhile the railroad pushed westward. In 1850 the increasing importance of The Louisa Railroad was recognized, and its name was changed to The Virginia Central. By the time the Blue Ridge tunnels were finished, the line was completed to Jackson's River (between Millboro and Covington, Virginia). In 1853 construction of a line known as The Covington and Ohio was authorized—"from some point at or near Covington or Clifton Forge to a point on the Ohio not below the mouth of the Big Sandy."

Thus bit by bit, despite the financial panic of '56 and the almost insuperable difficulties of mountain railroad construction, courageous men planned and built... forging new links in the great system you know today as Chesapeake and Ohio.

The President, Mr. R. S. Hall reported excellent progress in donations being received for payment of the equipment. We hope all our friends will give donations in any amount they are able to afford.

The Occoquan Town Council had a called meeting on Wednesday, September 23, 1933, for the purpose of allotting space to the Volunteer Fire Department on which to erect and maintain a Fire House. The Council leased Mill Street, extended, between Washington Street and Cooper Alley to the O.W.L. Volunteer Fire Department for the purpose of building and maintaining thereon a Fire House, the lease was for Ninety-nine years. This part of Mill Street has never been used as a street and no likelihood of it ever having to be used for street purposes; so the Council voted unanimously that it be leased to the Fire Department as above stated.

We are glad to report at this time that our Town Clerk, Mr. E. R. Shanklin, who is a patient at Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C., is getting along fine and hopes to soon be home.

We are also glad to report that Mr. Bernard Cross and Mrs. Bernard Cross, both of whom were in the hospital, are home and doing fine.

CHESAPEAKE BAY TUNNEL

An underwater vehicular tunnel, extending from Sandy Point to Kent Island on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, across the narrowest section of Chesapeake Bay, is proposed as a solution to some of the traffic problems of this section in a story appearing next Sunday's Star.

The feasibility of this plan and its advantages over a suspension bridge are described in this article, illustrated with a blue print by the author, Maury Boykin, economist and port specialist. adv.

I WONDER WHY By Algia A. Martin

When we is walking with a red light
And they gets hit with a might.
You hear them ask, and then cry
I wonder why, I wonder why.

Or when they spend the summer in play
And live way above their weekly pay.
When the wolf comes, then they cry
I wonder why, I wonder why.

And some will try another car to beat
Then both land up a wreck in the street.
Again then again you will hear them
cry

I wonder why, I wonder why.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE WAR SITUATION

Events in Europe are moving with such swiftness that any editorial comment becomes out of date almost as soon as it can be set in type. However, at noon today the conference at Munich remains deadlocked, with Hitler still insisting that he will plunge the world into war on Saturday, as previously threatened.

While the world continues to hope and to pray for peace, Hitler, Mussolini, Daladier and Chamberlain are closeted in personal conference which holds considerable prospect that a final solution will be reached in time to halt the commencement of hostilities on Saturday.

In the midst of these negotiations the figure of the British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain looms large and should a new World War be avoided, or substantially postponed, he will have contributed more to the welfare of humanity than any man of his generation.

If war should come next week, it will not be because a settlement of the Czechoslovakian difficulty cannot be reached, but it will occur because great democracies of Europe realize that conflict is inevitable and should be undertaken while France and England still possess the balance of power.

MARKERS DEFACED

Several markers placed on the Manassas Battlefield Area by the National Park Service have recently been defaced, apparently in an effort to remove war-time photographs. The law provides severe penalties for such depredations. It is stated that the government will prosecute such offenders and it is sincerely hoped that the guilty parties will be apprehended.

The markers acquaint tourists of the dramatic incidents which occurred over this area during the First and Second Battles of Manassas and are the result of much research by Major Joseph Mills Hanson, Historian of the National Park Service.

A GOOD CAUSE

To the Patrons of Week Day Religious Education, Manassas District, Virginia.

Dear Friends:

For the past two years the Council has carried on a program of Bible study in the Public study in the Public Schools. It has been well supported from the beginning. As the work has become known, it has commanded more liberal financial support. We have balanced our budget for two years.

Well over 800 children in the 4th to 7th grades have been reached. Our records show that over 300 children who never attend Sunday School have been taught in our classes, as well as several hundred who attend only occasionally. The work is not compulsory. Children are enrolled only with the consent of their parents. All of the white schools in the county are served by our teachers.

This splendid work will continue this year. It is done with the approval of the School Board, and we have received fine cooperation from the school principals and teachers. A new teacher has been engaged, Miss Miriam Thomas of Fairfax, S.C. She is available for speaking engagements. Miss Hazel Saunders will assist her as part time teacher.

The Budget for the year 1938-'39 is as follows:

Salary, Miss Thomas . . . @ $75.00 per mo. $875.00
Salary, Miss Saunders @ $30.00 per mo. $270.00
To State Council for services . . . $125.00
Automobile, to purchase and painting . . . $90.00
To Auto expenses (estimated) $110.00
Total $1,270.00

Of this total, the quota assigned to the Manassas District is $500.00. This is based on our needs, and also on receipts from the District over the past two years. Our funds come from Sunday Schools, Churches, Civic and Fraternal organizations, and individuals. Won't you give this matter prayerful attention? It is my hope that you will respond with your personal contribution. In addition, will you make yourself personally responsible to bring it to the attention of the organization to which you may belong? The purchase of an automobile was an unexpected obligation. One month's salary will be due on September 30. The Council, therefore, has an immediate need for funds.

With gratitude for fine support in the past, and with confidence in another successful year, I am,

Most cordially yours,
John M. DeChant, Pres.

"LOYALTY SUNDAY"
Haymarket, Virginia
September 26, 1938

Dear Friends:

The National Committee for Religion and Welfare Recovery has set October 2 as Loyalty Sunday for all Christian congregations in the United States. They are asking that every citizen shall be seen in some house of worship on that day.

High standards of living are breaking down everywhere and foretell times of danger for the individual and for the nation. Free democracy is threatened everywhere either by external or internal enemies. The Christian Church surpasses all other forces in its loyalty to democratic liberty and to personal integrity. Some say this country is "going to the dogs". They support their claim by the fact that 750 millions are spent annually on fancy dogs. Mr. Roger Babson claims that the main cause of poverty is wrong desires and that the Church is the greatest known source of right desires.

Therefore, if you wish to be more truly loyal or if you wish to help in the fight against poverty, I advise you to go to some Service for the worship of God on Sunday, October 2 unless prevented by sickness.

Faithfully yours,
W. F. Carpenter.

GROWTH OF PARK SYSTEM PRAISED

Virginia has gone far in developing a park system during the 10 years of the existence of the State conservation commission, Wilbur C. Hall, chairman, said last week in dedicating a tablet in Fairy Stone State Park near Bassett in honor of Junius Blair Fishburn of Roanoke, who gave 5,000 acres of land for the park site. Hall paid tribute, too, to William E. Carson of Riverton, former chairman of the commission, saying it was the "Foresight of my predecessor in office, and other member of his commission, and their earnest labors, that brought into being Virginia's fine system of parks. These parks, as well as the Shenandoah National Park and the Colonial National Historical Park, will ever stand as a tribute to their remarkable accomplishments." Hall pointed to the rapid popularity of Fairy Stone Park, showing that it is now second in attendance among the six parks and predicted that in five or six years it should be drawing a seasonal attendance of half million persons.

The Music-Literature Section of the Manassas Woman's Club had a very delightful meeting on Tuesday evening, September 27, in the home of Mrs. Dennis Baker, with Miss Sue Ayres and Mrs. R. M. Graham as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. W. L. Lloyd gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on "Women of Modern Times". While she mentioned numbers of famous women of this period, she particularly stressed the lives of Marie Curie, discover of radium, Mary Roberts Rhinehart, author, and Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the president, as being unusually interesting her.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Lloyd's talk Miss Sue Ayres, the Literature Chairman, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Dennis Baker, the Music Frances, who presented Miss Frances Stuart Tucker, mezzo soprano and Mrs. Carrie V. Byram, her accompanist in a very lovely recital.

DIM YOUR LIGHTS

Drivers failing to dim their headlights were scored today by the Division of Motor Vehicles. Calling them "discourteous and dangerous", officials of the Division pointed out that the new state law requires a driver to dim his headlights when meeting another car or when driving on lighted city streets.

Some few exceptional persons are not affected by glare, but most people are rendered nearly blind by glare from approaching headlights, even though the lights are properly adjusted. When this condition, called "glare-blindness", exists it is impossible to drive safely. "Imagine," said one Division official, "driving with a blindfold over your eyes, and yet that is just what you make the other man do when you fail to dim your headlights."

Do your part, the Division urges, by dimming your headlights when you meet another car on the highway, and when you drive on city streets. It will help to save lives.

ANNUAL DAHLIA SHOW

The Virginia Dahlia Society was organized in 1923 and each year since that date it has held a show.

Since 1932 the show has been held in connection with the State Fair; the Fair Association having turned over to the Dahlia Society the large building formerly occupied by the V. P. I. exhibit and contributing funds with which to pay the prizes and this year the show will be staged there as usual, beginning Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 27 and extending through Friday, Sept. 30.

Four nationally known growers will be on hand to judge the flowers and everything indicates that the largest and best exhibit of dahlias ever seen south of the National Show in New York will be ready to delight the eyes of those who love beautiful flowers.

Scores of dahlia growers scattered throughout the State are members of the Virginia Society, some seventy-five of them living in Richmond and its suburban area and we cordially invite all who love the beautiful and stately dahlia to view our exhibit.

A number of the members will be on hand at all times and any of them will be delighted to talk to visitors who wish information.

HERE'S "ACOLUS" OF HOLLYWOOD

Nat Pendleton can now be considered the "Acolus" of Hollywood.

During a scene for "The Chaser," playing next Wednesday, October 5 at the Pitts' Theatre, Pendleton was supposed to be taking a physical examination with Lewis Stone as the doctor.

Equipment was borrowed from the studio hospital and the scene started. Everything went along fine until the comedian tested his lungs on a special machine.

He gave one mighty heave, shot a billow of wind into the mouth-piece and put the machine out of commission. The pressure indicator went around so fast that it broke when it hit the high mark.

The new film concerns the activities of a shyster lawyer who deals in the ambulance-chasing business. Dennis O'Keefe is the lawyer, and included in his gang are Lewis Stone, the drunken doctor, who fakes the medical reports and Pendleton, the professional victim.

Ann Morris is a 'plant' for O'Keefe's enemies, and as such traps O'Keefe and causes his arrest. But in the meantime she also falls in love with him, which complicates matters.

"COWBOY FROM BROOKLYN" MIXES MELODY WITH MIRTH

"Cowboy from Brooklyn," with Dick Powell, Pat O'Brien and Priscilla Lane in the leading roles has been booked for the next feature attraction starting Monday and Tuesday, October 3-4, announces the management of the Pitts' Theatre.

It's the story of hilarious adventures—and misadventures—of a Brooklyn crooner who goes West in order to make good in the East. Blended with the amusing story are charming melodic interludes in which Powell, Miss Lane and several other members of the large and talented cast sing the five new songs written for this production as well as some famous old-time cowboy ballads.

Despite the fact that "Cowboy from Brooklyn" opens in a western locale, it is, in fact, the direct anti-thesis of all western, for it takes nothing seriously.

At the outset, Powell is seen as an indigent musician from Brooklyn beating his way to the west coast with two pals. They all get stranded at a Wyoming dude ranch. Daughter and son of the owners of the ranch are Miss Lane and Johnnie "Scat" Davis. There the three musicians get jobs entertaining the guests.

A Broadway theatrical producer, played by Pat O'Brien, comes to the ranch, thinks he has discovered in Powell a "natural" cowboy crooner and rushes him back East, where he wins huge success as a he-man from

VA. STATE FAIR TO FEATURE EXPOSITION OF FARM PRODUCTS LIVESTOCK, POULTRY, AND MACHINERY, SEPT. 26 to OCT. 1

The Virginia State Fair for 1933 is out to surpass all past records for helpfulness to the farmers and farmers' wives of the state. This is to be accomplished by a most complete exposition of agricultural products resulting from one of the most favorable crop years in history, together with the most comprehensive exhibition and demonstration of modern farm machinery ever witnessed at the State Fair.

Visiting farmers, who are out to make the most of the improved outlook for agriculture, will see evidence that farming methods are now keeping pace with other branches of industry, both from the fine exhibits of the 1933 crops and the new, improved tools for mechanized operation.

All visitors are due for a startling surprise in the variety of farm products of high quality standard as displayed in the fine single farm displays and the diversity of crops that can be successfully grown on a single farm, where scientific crop rotation and tillage are employed.

Virginia's prize cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry are to turn out in force and blue ribbon stock from many distant states will be after the substantial cash awards.

The Department of Women's Work, always a special feature, is filled to capacity with more entries than ever before and fascinating U. S. Government exhibits are booked on an even more elaborate scale than formerly.

Gigantic Manufacturing and Industrial Hall is to be filled to overflowing with displays by the state's outstanding manufacturers and merchants. A great opportunity to compare the state's fine practical products.

A stupendous amusement program is booked with automobile races, fireworks and fourteen head-line vaudeville and circus acts, including Roxyettes' Revue, Lucky Teters and his Auto Hall Drivers before the grandstand. The Midway will be occupied by the elaborate "World of Mirth" Consolidated Shows. Without a doubt the 1933 Virginia State Fair is due to be long remembered for the number and splendor of its entertainment features, both instructive and amusing.

the wide-open spaces. His deep, dark secret, however, is that he's scared to death of a horse.

When Powell has become famous on the radio as "Wyoming Steve Gibson," Dick Foran, playing an authentic cowboy with aspirations as a singer, proclaims that "Gibson" is a fake. Foran is motivated by jealousy over Powell's success and over Priscilla's obvious preference for the easterner.

To convince the public that Powell is a genuine cowboy, O'Brien arranges for him to ride a bronco and bulldog a steer at a rodeo at Madison Square Garden. That begins a series of delirious complications which are climaxed—and it would be cheating to tell here how it was managed—with Powell doing precisely what he was advertised to do, O'Brien becoming a candidate for another rest cure, and Priscilla getting her man.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Unreality will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 2, 1938.

The Golden Text will be "Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense" (Job 15:31).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity." (Hab. 1:12 to ?), 13 (to:).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scripture," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Evil is a negation, because it is the absence of something. It is unreal, because it presupposes the absence of God, the omnipotent and omnipresent. Every mortal must learn that there is neither power nor reality in evil. Evil is self-assertive. It says: 'I am a real entity, overmastering good'. This falsehood should strip evil of all pretensions" (p. 186).

THE MARCH OF TIME

Since the dawn of creation a dairy has been kept.

Wherein The March of Time writes with the finger of nature, Recording the periods in the bowels of the earth;

A mighty tome for science to pore over

Truly, a mystery beyond the haze... The science of Structural Geology, writes

And record is piled upon record, From the lifeless, or Azoic Age, To the Cenozoic, or recent time...

Stratigraphical Geology Marks The March of Time,

And gives to man an idea of the general structure of the earth...

You say, A theory! No, a history written by The March of Time...

Creation! "In the beginning God created..." And beyond that

The dark clouds of antiquity Turns man's science in to a theory... Laplace had a theory of a gaseous nebula,

And formed the whole solar system from hot gas...

(Quite a job for science) There is another school of theory, Favor in the eyes of some have been found;

The theory of meteorites! Great swarms of meteorites traveling thru space

Shooting stars! Coming together they are heated by collision,

Fused into a compact body, Presto!

Simple, isn't it? A whole solar system—Kinder made to order!

Nevertheless, we have the record; The sequence of the March of Time... Rocks supply the material for the history of the earth,

And science notes the first rock as primary, Made by solidification of molten material,

And termed igneous... Then, shale, slate, marble, etc.; To be followed by limestone, jasper, oilstone, etc.;

Piling up record upon record thru the ages,

Until we come to our present period, An earth all made to order

And yet we long to know, Whence we came! And destiny (!)

SUPPLY OF TRIPLE SUPERPHOSPHATE EXHAUSTED

The supply of Triple Superphosphate has given out and no more requests can be filled this fall. It is expected that more will be available next spring.

1938 FALL WHEAT SEEDING ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

The 1938 fall wheat seeding acreage allotments are a sharp cut from the usual wheat acreages on commercial wheat farms. However, when rye or barley can be seeded on the remaining corn stubble acreage and the total acreage of all depleting crops for 1939 harvest can be kept within the farm depleting acreage allotment, most farmers should benefit through voluntarily accepting the wheat allotment assigned to the farm. It has not been officially announced but the wheat payments per bushel on the allotted acreage or expected to be considerable larger than for 1938.

MORE THAN TEN THOUSAND PAID IN SOCIAL BENEFITS

Social Security Board records show that during August 230 claims amounting to $10,707.52 for old age insurance benefits have been paid to citizens of Virginia, including the counties of Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, Prince William, Fauquier, Culpeper and Rappahannock, and the City of Alexandria, comprising the service area of the Washington, D. C., Field Office of the Social Security Board, who said also that there are other people in this area who may be entitled to old-age insurance payments, but as yet they have not filed claims for benefits. As these lump-sum payments are equal to 3 1-2 percent of the total wages that a worker has received after 1936 and before age 65 or death, the amounts now payable are increasing in size and in most cases will be well worth collecting.

Mr. Donlin said that 3,328 claims, amounting to $100,620.84, have been certified for payment to claimants in Virginia since the first of January, 1937. He points out that in every instance the payment received amounted to more than the sum of money paid in wage taxes by the insured worker. As an example, he cited the case of a man who held a job in a factory for 18 months after 1936. His wages during that time totaled $1,800. Following his death, his wife filed claim for payment of old-age insurance and later received a government check for $63, which is 3 1-2 percent of the wage earnings credited to his social security account. While participating in the old-age insurance system, the deceased had paid one percent of his wages in taxes, or $18 in all. This means that the benefits received by the widow amounted to 3 1-2 times the sum of the wage tax previously paid by the worker.

A government report concerning claims certified for payment in the United States between January 1, 1937, and the last day of August, 1938, reveals the fact that 199,435 claims, amounting to $7,528,081.48, had been certified for payment. Since that approved by the Social Security Board and sent to the Treasury Department where checks are mailed out to the proper claimants. The amount of the benefit payment depends upon the amount of wages paid to the worker during the time that he held job under the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act. In Virginia the average payment in August was $46.55.

Single cash payments are the only benefits now being paid. Monthly retirement benefits to wage earners will not begin until 1942. Those receiving lump-sum payment of old age insurance benefits belong to one of two classes—(1) men or women who have held jobs in industrial plants or commercial firms at some time since the law went into effect and who have reached the age of 65 since January 1, 1937; (2) relatives (or estates) of workers who had been employed by industrial plants or commercial firms at some time since 1936 and who died before receiving old-age insurance benefits.

Mr. Donlin explained that in many instances where a young person has died; it was found wage-earnings had been credited to his social security account. In such cases, a check amounting to 3 1-2 percent to all the wages shown on that particular social security account was paid to the proper survivor. Application for such lump-sum payment was made to the local office of the Social Security Board; the papers were sent on to Washington for adjudication; the claim was approved by the Social Security Board and then certified to the United States Treasury for payment, where a check was mailed to the claimant.

DOUBLE YOUR YIELD

Plant Wood's Treated

Lee Cold Proof Oats

N. C. Tests: "Highest yield of grain or hay for 15 years—yielded 78.4 bu. per acre. More winter resistant and taller than Fulghums."

The U. S. Arlington, Va., Experiment Station reports: "Lee Oats are as cold resistant as Winter Turt, ripen several weeks earlier, have much better straw and produce more grain of better quality (weighs 40 lbs. per struck bushel). In a 4-year test Lee averaged 71 bu. per acre, Winter Turt 59, and Fulghums 62."

Southern Experiment Stations Prove WOOD'S TREATED SEED OATS are Best.

One report says: "Seed Oats treated by T. W. Wood & Sons were entirely free of smut, which destroyed 25 to 40% of untreated seed."

Smut and other diseases rob you of a large share of your profits on Oats. You can prevent this loss—insure good stands, vigorous growth—and have taller, stronger stalks with larger heads and plumper grains—with our seeds treated with OREBAN Free.

MANASSAS MACS WIN
DOUBLEHEADER

Sunday the Manassas Macs came through in grand style winning both games of their doubleheader, defeating the Moses A.C. 9-2 and then trimming the Clifton Aces 12-0.

Crabill, who opposed Denis on the Mound, pitched brilliant ball, walking only two men and striking out 7. Hawes the Macs' catcher, was the hero of the day, collecting 5 hits out of 5 times at bat against the Moses and then came back in the second game and got 4 out of 5.

The Ballston A.C. and the Manassas Macs tangle Sunday at Swavely field to play the last of the Northern Virginia League.

Much credit should be given "Ham-burger" Conner who pitched the second game of the doubleheader, allowing only six hits, walking only one man and striking six with his dazzling fast ball, also showing good form with his knuckler. As he walked off the mound at the end of the game he drew a great ovation from the crowd.

RECENT WEDDINGS

BOTTS-MEETZE

A wedding, charming in its simplicity, took place on Sunday afternoon, September 25, at 4:00 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Johnson Meetze, when their daughter, Miss Christine Elizabeth Meetze, became the bride of Mr. George Oliver Botts, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Oliver Botts of Detroit, Michigan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John M. DeChant, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church. Ferns, white gladioli, and white chrysanthemums, with a background of white cathedral candles decorated the improvised altar before which the ceremony was performed.

The bride, who was given in marriage her father, wore a white satin dress fashioned on princess lines. The dress was made with a round neckline banded with flowers of white satin. The long-fitted sleeves were pointed over the hand and fastened with small buttons at the wrist. The wedding veil, which extended over the train of the gown, was fastened to a cap with a braided diadem, trimmed with small orange blossoms. The bride carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Eva Lunsford of Washington, D. C., was Miss Meetze's maid of honor, and was attired in a floor-length dusty rose lace dress. She wore a headress of a tiara of small fall daisies of a copper shade, and carried an arm bouquet of the same flowers.

H. S. H. Prasobsukh Sukhsavati of Bangkok, Siam, was Mr. Bott's best man.

Mrs. Christopher J. Meetze, mother of the bride, was attired in a blue crepe dress with lace yoke, and wore a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Botts departed for a brief wedding trip. Mrs. Botts' traveling costume was a sheer black wool suit with astrakhan collar and pockets on the fitted coat. She wore black suede accessories and a corsage of white roses and lilies of the valley.

KEYSER-VARNER

On Saturday evening, September 24th, Mary Ann Varner and Mr. Roy Keyser, of Hyattsville, Md., were married at the home of Rev. E. E. Blough, who officiated. The bride was becomingly dressed in a frock of pale blue georgette and lace, with navy accessories.

The young couple went to Richmond, Virginia, on their honeymoon and will make their home in Washington, where Mr. Keyser is employed, after October 1st.

Last Thursday night Misses Anna Blough and Agnes Thomasson gave a shower for Miss Mary Varner at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lester Mauck. About fifty guests were present and Miss Varner received many lovely and useful gifts.
