FORMER RECTOR DIES AT RICHMOND

Attended Sunday School Home-coming Here Recently

The Rev. Philip Augustus Arthur, 74, retired Episcopal rector widely known for his missionary work in Richmond in earlier days and for his work throughout the Diocese of Virginia, died early yesterday at his home, 2503 North Avenue.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 p.m. Sunday at St. James Episcopal Church by the Rt. Rev. H. St. George Tucker, D. D., bishop of Virginia of Virginia and presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and the Rt. Rev. Frederick D. Goodwin, D. D., bishop-coadjutor of the Virginia Diocese. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Clergymen of the Episcopal churches in Richmond will be honorary pallbearers.

The Rev. Mr. Arthur was born in Washington October 20, 1864, a son of James Gordon Arthur of Dublin, Ireland.

Before entering the Episcopal ministry, he attended private schools in Richmond and for a while was associated with his grandfather, the late Miles T. Phillips, in the decorating business. Later he was a student at Richmond College.

Mr. Arthur was ordained as a deacon at St. Mark's Church here and, in 1905, was ordained in the priesthood at St. Andrew's Church by the Diocese of Virginia.

Early in his ministry he engaged in missionary work at the Old Tavern, long a landmark, on Brook Avenue in this city. As a deacon he served at St. Luke's Church here, Trinity Church in Manassas; St. Ann's Church at Nokesville, Prince William County, and St. Margaret's in Caroline County.

For four years he was assistant minister at St. Andrew's Church here. Mr. Arthur then was called to the Church of Ascension in Washington, where he was rector for more than 14 years. He resigned in 1931.

He became associated with the Church of the Messiah in Highland Springs after returning here from Washington. In former years he had served a term as dean of the Richmond convocation and was for 11 years treasurer of the Richmond Ministerial Union.

He was prominent in Masonic circles and was a past chaplain of Dove Lodge, this city. He was a past priest of LaFayette Royal Arch Chapter, No. 43, of which he was a chaplain.

Mr. Arthur is survived by his wife, the former Miss Florence Mae Wilson of Richmond.—Times Dispatch Oct 16, 1938.

HUNTER SHOW AT MIDDLEBURG

Attractive Program Planned for October 29

Plans are going forward rapidly for the Middleburg Hunter show, which will be held at Glenwood in the Middleburg Hunt country on Saturday, October 29, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Indication point to a great day of sport with fine horses, a beautiful pageant, and memories revived in the impersonation of famous horses of by-gone days.

The pageant, entitled, "Queen of the Middleburg Hunt Country," is a feature of the show and will be called at 12 noon. The Queen of the Pageant, Anna Lee Trenary, of the Aldie High School, was chosen from the daughters of owners or renters in the Middleburg Hunt Country by votes in the public schools. Six pages have been chosen as follows: Ella May Brown and Alice Sutphin, Middleburg School; Elena Olive, Hill School; Irene Nicol, Foxcroft School; Eleanor Williams and Louis Feaster, Mountville School. The committee wished to have pages from every school in the hunting country, but there are nineteen schools and only room for eight pages in the pageant.

Another big feature is the "Lest We Forget" class, which will consist of favorite horses of by-gone days of their impersonators. The side-saddle class, in which Mrs. Amory Perkins will present the Journey's End Challenge Bowl, will have followers of many hunts competing. This will be called at 3:30 p.m. The half century class promises to be a big attraction. Hon. F. P. Moncreu was introduced by Mr. Cocke. He spoke of the new fund allotted to the cross county road for work below Blandford, and stated that a new bridge would also be constructed.

Mr. Moncreu credited the Kiwanis Club with having sponsored the work, although not detracting from efforts of the County Chamber of Commerce.

In closing, the speaker advocated a celebration at Independent Hill sometime in 1940 when the project is completed.

A number of other prominent guests were also on hand, including a delegation from the Arlington Club headed by Lyman Kelley, whom rumor credits with having aspirations on the Lieutenant-Governorship of the Capital District.

O. D. also introduced Col. Hutchison who gave his interpretation of the situation in Europe. It was a fitful picture but apparently accurate.

O D WATERS HEADS 1938 ROLL CALL

New Officer Well Versed in Red Cross Workings

The Prince William County Chapter of the American Red Cross has chosen O. D. Waters to be its Roll Call Chairman for this year. Mr. Waters needs no introduction to citizens of the County. He is a well-known salesman, and a prominent Kiwanian. He has taken a large interest in the Public Schools and has been active in civic affairs for many years. He is perfectly familiar with the needs and program of the Red Cross, having served as treasurer of the local Chapter for some years. It is a great satisfaction to announce the selection of Mr. Waters as chairman of Roll Call.

The American Red Cross was organized in 1881 under the Treaty of Geneva. Its president is the President of the United States. The President appoints the National Chairman. The accounts of the Red Cross are audited annually by the War Department and are submitted to Congress every year by the Secretary of War. The United States Government appropriates no funds for the use of the Red Cross. The organization is supported entirely through memberships and contributions from the public.

In Virginia the Red Cross had 140,569 members last year, with 174,785 enrolled in the Junior Red Cross. Its work is far-reaching in the State. Nearly 4,000 ex-service men and their families were aided during the year. Red Cross public health nurses made 27,000 visits. Life Saving Certificates were issued to 1546 persons. In five disasters occurring in Virginia last year, 604 sufferers were cared for. Forty-seven Highway Emergency First Aid Stations are in operation over the State, a type of aid to accident victims on the highways that has proved its worth. These Stations are manned by Red Cross Trained operatives. Over 5,000 First Aid Certificates having been issued last year.

This is the organization that will seek public support in its annual Roll Call Campaign next month.

Miss Marie Wilkins, of Haymarket, spent last week-end in Richmond, Va.

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD DEDICATION

New Furniture Placed in Manassas Church

Sunday morning, October 16, dedication exercises were held in the Manassas Presbyterian Church. The beautiful new interior was the scene of an impressive service, with appropriate music and greetings from local pastors. Many visitors attended and the congregation filled the auditorium to capacity.

Two infants were baptised: Ernest Milburn Colvin 3rd, son of E. M. and Mildred Creel Colvin, 2nd, and Robert Amos Saunders, Jr., son of Robert A. and Pattie Hatcher Saunders.

The words of dedication were as follows:

God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ:
Our Father Who art in Heaven:
To Thee we dedicate this room.

Lord Jesus, Son of God; Savior of the World;
Head of the Body, which is the Church:
To Thee we dedicate this room.

Spirit of God, given to our abiding Teacher,
Sanctifier and Comforter; Lord and Giver of Life:
To Thee we dedicate this room.

In his sermon Rev. John M. DeChant explained the symbolism of the church windows and gave a history of church bells. He spoke of the placing of the pulpit, lectern and communion table and showed why they occupy certain positions in the chancel, explaining also that all of the furniture in the church has a real reason for being there as an aid to worship.

In the evening the sermon was delivered by Dr. Henry B. Wooding, pastor of the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., and Moderator of the Washington City Presbytery. Local pastors of other churches who extended greetings included Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, Rev. Harry Paul Baker, Rev. R. M. Graham and Rev. A. W. Ballentine.

It is stated that the total cost of the refurbishing of the Church was approximately $2,500.00. Mr. Lewis Carper headed the finance committee which included Messrs. F. G. Sigman, J. L. Bushong, Edgar W. Arey and C. J. Meetze.

The committee on refurbishing was headed by Mrs. J. L. Bushong and included Miss Hazel Saunders and Messrs. J. H. Stauff, J. L. Herrell, J. D. Baker and Ferris Gue.

Among the new pieces of furniture placed in the church as memorials are pews to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boorman, Mrs. Elibeth A. Bennett, J. J. Murphy; the pulpit to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hornbaker; vases to Henry Christopher Meetze and to Miss Sidney Ann Runaldue; the communion table to J. J. Murphy, a pulpit chair to Mrs. Mariotta Slavon Arey. Two pews were also placed by Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sigman and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stauff. Pews were also dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Eleanor Adams and to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hornbaker.

There were many expressions of admiration and appreciation of the simple, but lovely interior which has been secured for the oldest church edifice in Manassas, and the pastor, Rev. DeChant was warmly congratulated upon the improvement which has occurred during the forceful ministry here.

Washington visitors at the Dedication Services were: Commissioner and Mrs. Melvin Hazen, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Colvin, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Colvin, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Colvin and son, Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. William Earnshaw, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. L. A. Dollison, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boorman, Miss Lois Boorman, Mrs. E. D. Williamson and Miss Kathryn Boorman.

CATHARPIN

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Roe, of Maryland, passed through the community on Sunday last on their way to Skyline Drive and incidentally calling upon a few old-time friends and acquaintances. As usual with all of the Metcalf family, took a stroll around Oakwood to recall happy experiences of childhood days which they never seem to forget. Mr. Roe is very prominent in the political field of his state having served a number of terms in the State Legislature of Maryland.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn, of this city, is now recovering from a billious attack which confined her to her room several days during the past week.

Mrs. L. J. Pattie, of Belle Farm, was a week-end guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Briggs, of the Capital City last week.

Mr. J. D. Wheeler, whose illness was mentioned in this column last week, is now a patient in Sibley hospital, Washington, where his physicians are keeping him under close observation to determine the cause of trouble which seems as yet undetermined. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Corn shucking is now in order and a bountiful harvest is waiting to be gathered into the "fold" or into the "crib", if you must have it that way. We believe the first prize for quick action should go to Mr. Herndon on the Old Sudley Mill farm where he has gone of his fields entirely cleared away, corn in crib and fodder stacked. This, to a greater or less extent was influenced no doubt by the fact that the usual, annual floods have not yet visited this section, and heeding that old adage that "A stitch in time saves nine", concluded to "Make hay while the sun shines" and got it all away before troubles might overtake it.

The new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Schwartz, is expected to arrive this week and fill the regular appointment at Sudley on Sunday morning next at the 11 o'clock hour when both pastor and people will again experience the interest which usually accompanies such occasions; the interest, of course, being equal upon both sides of the equation. Methodist preachers are usually moved after a term of four years in any one appointment, but this rule is now observed only as a force of habit rather than by mandate of church law; he may therefore stay on indefinitely or he may be at any Annual Conference regardless of the time served, for "cause of effect." The out-going pastor, the Rev. Mr. Sapp, served the Sudley charge for the past five years which is the longest pastorate Sudley has known for the past five years which is the longest pastorate Sudley has known during her existence. The incoming pastor comes from Trappe, Maryland, over into Virginia, which move necessitates a truck licensed to cross State lines. This is not only expensive but very inconvenient since but few trucks are so licensed. Since transportation charges are chargeable to the congregations, the long term idea might be more economical than the short ones.

When this great, literary composition is being read and digested, it will be about time to begin thinking of just what you want to order for your dinner or supper on Friday of next week when the Missionary ladies at Sudley will be all "set" to serve you. You know the radio is always keeping us posted on the "necessities" for things for the comfort of both mind and body. Amos and Andy give you soup; The Woman in White gives you Flour; Walter Winchell gives you Lotions, but none of them serves the "Inner Man" like a good, old-fashioned "Mess" of turkey, chicken, oysters, or just what have you? So remember Friday, October 28th, 1938, which has almost become a "national" holiday for old Sudley.

LIEUT. AND MRS. FULTON VISIT IN MANASSAS

Lt. and Mrs. Lee Wm. Fulton, of Iron River, Mich., called on his cousin, Miss May Lynn for a hour or on last Sunday, while touring the country through to Illinois and back home to Michigan.

GAME WARDENS SOON TO WEAR "SNAPPY" GARB

Virginia's game wardens are to be put into "snappy" uniforms.

The commission of Game and Inland Fisheries yesterday received from Governor Price permission for some rearrangement of its budget in order to provide necessary funds for the uniforming of all regular wardens. These men always have worn ordinary "civilian" clothes.

Asked for some description of the uniforms, Commissioner, Carl Nolting, who has no pretensions of being a clothier, said they would be "bright and snappy—something like those worn by State police."

He said the commission did not have the money to purchase the uniforms without transferring funds from another budget item. Governor Price agreed to the move.

HAYMARKET HIGH

Miss Elizabeth Hicks, a very popular high school teacher suddenly quit teaching school here to take a government job at Langley Field, Hampton, Virginia. The whole school was very sorry to see her go. Mr. Eutsler, a violinist from Edinburg, Virginia, is taking her place.

OCTOBER

By Algia A. Martin

You are a pretty sight to behold
The glory of the leaves you turn to gold.

October, you give a bountiful yield
When we harvest the food from the field.

October, how do you know best?
When good old nature needs a rest.
You send your frost to cover all
Birds turn south, they heed your call.

The forest you have dressed so gay
And make the children lively play.
Your frost has hit the pumpkin vine
So we know fall is near on time.

We wish to thank our various correspondents for sending their notes early this week.

The O-W-L Fire Department takes this opportunity to thank our many dear friends who have helped us by their donations and good wishes. At the rate the President, Mr. R. S. Hall is receiving donations we will soon have enough money to pay for the Fire Engine and Equipment. This is a community Fire Department which will always be held available to go to fires where no other Fire Equipment is available; especially in the area from Triangle to Pohick Church, and inland in the farming areas. THOSE WHO HAVE NOT AS YET DONE SO, PLEASE SEND YOUR DONATIONS TO Mr. Robert S. Hall, Occoquan, Va., President of the Department.

We are expecting the Fire Engine to arrive within a week. The hose 1,200 feet new hose has arrived. When we say Engine we mean a regular American LaFrance Fire Truck, with 700 gallons per minute pumping capacity, and it has a Booster Tank for use where water is not very convenient. We believe this will be the greatest convenience the community could have.

Again, Please send your donations to Mr. R. S. Hall. Any amount no matter how small will be of great help.

We thank all who attended the Bingo Party at Occoquan High School Friday evening, October 14.

It showed an excellent community spirit in the large number who came to help boost the Fire Department Fund. Thank you all.

The Building to house the Fire Truck is rapidly nearing completion. We also thank the many good friends who are giving their time FREE in the construction of this building. Another showing of Community Spirit.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Langston, of Pohick Rectory, are spending a couple of weeks vacation in New Jersey, with their daughter and son-in-law.

Rev. Percy F. Hall of Alexandria, Virginia, conducted the services at Pohick Church last Sunday in the absence of Mr. Langston. Dr. Hall will probably conduct the services at Pohick again next Sunday. Let us all go there next Sunday. We will enjoy Dr. Hall's sermon.

OCOQUAN HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

At Occoquan High this term, the gender of the "seekers of knowledge," or what have you, seems to be unusually equally divided. The latest census shows that in the grades there are 101 girls and 101 boys, while the participants in the battle of wits in high school number 87 girls versus 87 boys.

The Seniors chose as their ring for the '38-'39 class a very conservative one of considerable attractiveness. These are expected to arrive soon.

In a recent circular to Miss Vaughan, M. S. Battle, Director, Division Motor Vehicles, urged all students to refrain from showing their school spirit by plastering auto windshields with football stickers. He contended, rightly enough, that it restricted the driver's already limited view of the road.

A season ticket, that entitles the purchaser to every advantage the school affords, is being introduced at Occoquan. Memberships to all clubs, admission to plays, operettas and other entertainments and a subscription to the HI-DI-HO are granted to the bearer of this two dollar ticket. Proceeds are distributed proportionally to the various organizations.

Several of the most important objectives voiced by that committee during the first S.C.A. meeting of the year on October 5, are: Purchase of a radio and new stage curtains; publishing of a Year Book; improvement of the library, and the placing of a bell in the gymnasium, a worthwhile project in itself.

Occoquan High is proud of its Mr. Sigman, who, as master of ceremonies at Nokesville on October 6, elicited much praise by that inimitable style of his.

On Friday, October 7, a sizable crowd enjoyed the first S. C. A. dance of the term, music being furnished by the Rhythm Kings from Quantico. Don't miss an equally enjoyable one on the 28th.

NOKESVILLE

The many friends of Miss Bertha Herring are glad to welcome her return from a Washington Hospital where she underwent a serious operation. She is rapidly gaining strength and health generally. Another operation took place in the family this week, when Mrs. Clara Hale was taken to Washington on Tuesday. She is reported as being in good condition.

A TRIBUTE FROM AN OLD FRIEND

Mr. C. C. Carlin, Jr., Editor.

Dear Sir:

I have often read in print these lines:

"Lives of great men remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Foot prints in the sands of time."

When mother earth took to her bosom Friday all that was mortal of the late Charles C. Carlin, we saw an exemplification to the above quotation.

To say of any man, "I believe in his sincerity" is one of the greatest tributes that can be paid him. In these days of vacillating ideas and ideals it is hard to find a man who stands four-square on a platform of definite principles. Such a one was the subject of this sketch. In this swift living age the trend is toward change; change in religious thought; change in political affiliation; change in business practice—in fact, a fluttering about over the changing fields of flowered thought like a butterfly, dodging hither and thither, with no apparent destination. Not so with Hon. C. C. Carlin. He was never a victim of illogical inconsistencies. He stood on a platform of principles, as immovable as the mountains, sincerely and intelligently endeavoring to achieve an end; he was a refreshing example of steadfastness. He may have, at times, been stubborn and unreasonable in his views because he was human, but the world will pause long enough to say "he was sincere."

And to believe in a man's sincerity covers the whole gamut of his virtues—his honesty of purpose, his motives, his integrity, and eventually the very principles for which he stands.

He gave to this city, district and State his best in sincere thought and act, void of all hypocrisy or infidelity, and his many friends attest that his life was not lived in vain.

As they viewed, with sadness, the death dew which lay cold on his face, they couldn't help but exclaim: "Virginia have lost one of her ablest statesmen, whose place will not soon be filled." He lived, sacrificed and died for others. He was the soul of liberality. His friendship everyone sought. Even in the face of death, which he knew was inevitable, he would smile as only an honest man could, and forget his pain. He was honored by his district and city, and in every position of trust he was found faithful and honest. As our Congressman he was always alert to the welfare of his constituents, working in season and out to help his people. As our Postmaster he was congenial and self-sacrificing. In other words, Mr. Carlin was a power in everything he undertook. But he is no more. The places that knew him once, will know him no more forever. He started as a poor boy, but he visioned a future and worked hard to obtain the goal he wished for early in life and he conquered every obstacle. Let me say in conclusion—

They have not died who have left us

For the better land of day,
They would not so bereave us
For they are only just away.

And right behind life's curtain
Beyond all grief and pain,
There will be a happier dawning
When we shall meet again.

Yours respectfully,
GEORGE H. HAYDEN.

HAYMARKET DEFEATS

HERNDON 1-0

Haymarket defeats Herndon in an overtime period after a scoreless tie.

Neither team could score during the regulation playing time although Haymarket was playing an offensive game.

The Herndon eleven surprised an over-confident Haymarket team with a much improved defense.

With this victory tucked away Haymarket is now waiting to revenge the loss suffered at Manassas last week.

The Manassas vs Haymarket game will be played at Haymarket Nov. 11.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation After Death" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 23.

The Golden Text will be "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil" (Ecc. 12:14).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (Gal. 6:7,8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Error brings its own self-destruction both here and hereafter, for mortal mind creates its own physical conditions. Death will occur on the next plane of existence as on this, until the spiritual understanding of Life is reached. Then, and not until then, will it be demonstrated that 'the second death hath no power'" (p. 77).

THE MARCH OF TIME

We continue to call the roll of the heavenly bodies:

"Boy, page Saturn!"

And a call for Saturnus goes out

Nine hundred million miles from the Sun . . .

In mythology, Saturn is one of the oldest, and principal Deities . . .

The name in Greek is equivalent to

"Time."

Nearly as large as Jupiter,

About Saturnus is slow to answer;

About 79,000 miles thick . . .

Old Saturnus is slow to answer;

Moving in a mysterious way,

Plods along for twenty-nine and one half earth years

To follow a beaten path around the

Sun

And answers, "Here!"

"Uranus!"

"Uranus!"

Does it recognize its name!

The ancient used to call it

"Hercell."

And some called it,

"Georgium Sidus."

This planet is way out in the Sun's back yard

A real New Deal distance in figures...

Over a billion and three quarters of a billion miles from Old Sol . . .

The answer is hardly audible,

The voice is shaky

Yet, Uranus is 35,000 miles in diameter;

But it takes 84 years to move in its great orbit around the Sun . . .

Only a few people live to see this planet make a trip from point to point . . .

Now we put in a call for Neptune

In mythology, the god of the ocean ...

LeVerrier will have to handle the call,

And The March of Time will have to jot down the answer . . .

Nearly 3,000,000,000 miles from the

Sun;

Traveling in his orbit nearly three and two fifth miles per second ...

We wait five generations, 163 years

For King Neptune to make his trip around the Sun;

And while we wait

The March of Time goes on

And man continues to point his telescope

Pointing into the almost limitless

beyond . . .

The cold, lifeless space!

For beyond this cold, empty, lifeless void

Man can only surmise . . .

The March of Time brings in a lumi-

ous vapor

And science recognizes a comet . . .

Hally's is historical

And an old friend of our solar system,

A record dating back 240 B.C. . . .

It has a cycle of 78.8 years;

And made a personal call on us April,

1910;

Passing out of view with The March of Time . . .

Man repeats: "God moves in a mysterious way . . ."

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling dad, Frederick Early Rollins, who departed his life two years ago November 4, 1936.

Rest in peace dear dad,
For our souls you have gone to save.
God had a vacant place in his angel band.

So he came and took our darling by his hand.

But we know that God knew best
When He called our loving one home to rest.

We shall never see our darling any more,
Unless we prepare to meet him on that bright and golden shore.

It was the saddest thing that ever touched our hearts
When on the 4th day of November we had to depart.

When you breathed your last farewell

It was more than tongue could tell.

Gertrude Rollins and family.

IN MEMORIAM

A tribute of love to the memory of my beloved daughter, Rosie Belle McCuen, who passed away twenty years ago today, October 22, 1938.

It's sweet to remember you.
Though absent to us you are just as dear

The midnight stars shine on the grave
Of the one we loved but could not save

We miss you tonight as the lights burn low

Yes, Belle, we miss you for we love you so

We loved you truly and that you know

It's why tonight we miss you so

Sleep on, dear Belle, in peaceful rest

We loved you well

But God loved you best.

By Her Loving Mother

Miss Josephine Bradfield, who was born November 19, 1845, passed away October 16, 1938, at the District home at 8:45 a.m. If she had lived one month and three days longer she would have been ninety-three years old.

We know we will all miss you but God above knew what best, so he called you home to his flock to rest in sweet Peace forever, Amen.

MARRIAGE MILL MAY GO

The town of Elkton, Md., mecca for eloping couples, may soon be forced to close down its famous marriage mill. In November when Marylanders go to the polls for their general elections they will vote on a bill providing a 48-hour waiting period between the issuance of a marriage license and performance of the ceremony.

A story appearing in The Star next Sunday tells the history of Elkton as a marriage center and conjectures on what will happen to the new bill in the coming elections.

HESCO RURAL GAS SERVICE

Means clean, workless, instant gas—right there in your kitchen... ready at the turn of your hand regardless where you may live.

Don't envy your city friends the convenience and care free comfort of gas for cooking, water heating, and refrigeration. Have it right in your own kitchen—no matter how many miles you are from the gas mains.

Forget that there was such a thing as coal to carry wood to chop ashes, to empty and smelly liquid fuels, to slosh around. No soot, dust or dirt. With HESCO RURAL GAS Service and an up to the minute Gas range, you can make your kitchen and cooking all pleasure and no drudgery.

There is nothing "TRICKY" about HESCO RURAL GAS installation either. A simple placing of two bottles or tanks outside the house and piped in to your range or water heater, exactly as if you lived on the Main St. in a city. The only difference is, that HESCO RURAL GAS is brought to your home in tanks or bottles and the city folks have their gas piped in from the main. HESCO GAS is not a mysterious substitute for natural gas. It is a natural gas, in compressed form, which makes it easy to transport and handle. It is not gasoline or kerosene or carbide. It is not merely "just as good" as city gas, but actually better.

NATURE'S PERFECT FUEL—NATURAL GAS. From wells natural gas is taken and processed to secure only the hottest elements. After all impurities have been removed, the remaining gas is compressed into steel cylinders, ready for use.

The hot blue flame is odorless, sootless and clean. No sooty pots or pans to clean. HESCO lights instantly and gives full abundant heat without delay.

HESCO RURAL GAS is economical, efficient and the most practical way to cook. It costs very little more than kerosene, and it is worth the difference.

We will be pleased to tell about it without obligation on your part to buy.
