TOWN HONORED BY CONVENTION

State Student Group Holds Delightful Sessions

(Ed. Note: This account is a condensation of an excellent report published by Students of Occoquan High)

Meeting in the home town of its president, the Virginia State Student Government Association met in Manassas on Friday Saturday of last week with its theme for the Fifth Annual Session: Training for Civic Responsibility. It is not often that so small a community is selected for a State convention of such outstanding public interest and the presence here of delegates from all of the leading high schools of the State was an occasion which will long be remembered by those attending.

Registration on Friday evening at the Osborn High School was followed by dinner for the delegates in private homes. At 7:30 the Convention was called to order by Kite Roseberry, President of Student Government in the local high school. The invocation was delivered by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson. A welcome by Mary Louise Robbins, of Osborn, was followed by an address by Prof. R. C. Haydon, Division Superintendent of Schools of Prince William County in which he expressed the sincere belief of the County School Board that the boys and girls of this organization were promoting present-day education. His encouraging remarks in extending to the convention the facilities of the local school system were much appreciated. He was followed by Rev. J. M. DeChant, who stressed the importance of exercising intelligence in practicing self-government, eloquently contrasting the American plan with the feverish condition now existing in Europe. The next speaker, Hon. W. F. Cocks, Town Manager of Manassas, extended a cordial welcome to the Convention and evidenced his deep interest in student government.

The response was made by Harry Parrish, of Manassas, the State President. His poise and assurance in the role of a state president was notable in so young a speaker and won for him much applause. After his address a nominating committee for next year was appointed, and then the convention broke up into discussion groups of various problems of government.

A delightful reception followed in the Domestic Science Building and the convention then adjourned until 8:30 Saturday morning, when it was called to order by State President Harry Parrish, who delivered his formal message to the convention and introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Warren D. Bowman, of Washington City, of the Brethren and an authority on Student Government. He was formerly Dean of Huntingdon, West Virginia, and a member of the faculty of the Farmville State Teachers College. It is stated that he was secured for this convention through the efforts of Mr. Page Etchison, Secretary of the Washington City Y. M. C. A., who is well known in Manassas. Dr. Bowman's address was eloquent and particularly enjoyable for young people.

A piano duet followed by Misses Jocelyn Gillum and Marie Bauserman and their perfectly timed performance was a most enjoyable feature of the morning session. Messages from past presidents were then read, after which separation for group discussion continued until the business session and election of officers, which were as follows:

President: Buddy Levin Newport News; Vice-President, John Knight, Handley High School, Winchester; Betty Ann Behrandt, Lane High School, Charlottesville; Treasurer Bob Clementson, Washington - Lee High School, Arlington.

Members of the Advisory Committee voted into the association were: Edith Moore, Jefferson High School, Roanoke; C. D. Bennett, Handley High School, Winchester; and Pauline Smith, Osborn High School, Manassas.

After lunch transportation was provided for a tour of the Manassas Battlefield, and the banquet in the auditorium, followed by an equally enjoyable dance in the gymnasium completed the notable two day session of the Virginia State Student Government Association, which, to meet in Newport News next year. Our young visitors made a splendid impression while here and they left with much praise of our hospitality.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The University of Virginia Glee Club in its concert on Tuesday evening fulfilled all expectations of a highly entertaining and enjoyable occasion.

Thorough and capable training showed up very clearly as the group of singers sang through a very varied program—a most interesting program including such powerful selections as the Russian Anthem, "Hospodi Pomili" as well as songs of a more delicate structure such as Brahms' "Lullaby."

Gerald Lowrey, talented young pianist, added much to the pleasure of the evening by playing very charmingly several selections from Liszt, Bach and Debussy.

The singers reached their peak in the superb singing of Grieg's "Land Sighting" and brought down the very appreciative audience.

The Glee Club was presented by the Music-Literature Section of the Woman's Club under the direction of Mrs. Dennis Baker, Music chairman.

After the concert was over, the ladies served coffee and sandwiches to the Glee Club and members of the section. The boys seemed to enjoy themselves and were loathe to begin their bus ride back to Charlottesville.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT PLAN EXPLAINED TO KIWANIS CLUB

Repercussions of the Student Government Congress were heard in the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club on Friday evening when Professor Peters brought as guests a delegation of those which had arrived in town by that hour.

Later he introduced Miss Devilbiss, of Portsmouth, as speaker. Miss Devilbiss spoke at length on the history of the organization then meeting for the 5th annual conference.

It was very explanatory and showed the intentions of the originators and how the plan is working out.

Some discussion was had of the new roller skating ordinance and the club voted to request the town council to repeal the same.

OLD TOMBSTONE IS DISCOVERED

Inscription Found on Under Side of Printer's Make-Up Stone

Old-time publishers have been quoted as stating that in early days unscrupulous printers used to rob grave-yards to get stone slabs so desirable as a true surface upon which to make up their forms of type. Verification of the existence of such ghastly practices came unexpectedly this week, when an old stone-top table, stored away by the Manassas Journal, was dismantled, and the stone slab which formed its upper surface was turned over, revealing to its horrified discoverers a neatly cut inscription, giving the name of the deceased and the date of death.

During its long period of service the Manassas Journal has acquired printing equipment for many different concerns and from a number of defunct newspapers and there is no record as to where this particular stone came from, or when it was last in use. Apparently it had been stored away for many years, as the narrow, old-fashioned grave-stone is not wide enough to meet modern requirements.

Every effort will be made by the present publishers of the Journal to discover the location from which the stone evidently was stolen, but since it ante-dates the War between the States, this may prove difficult. The full inscription on the stone is printed below and information leading to discovery of its rightful location will be greatly appreciated:

The types of art to be exhibited are: water colors, construction work, friezes, carvings of wood and soap, black printing, spatter prints, posters, nature museums, flower boxes, bird houses, wall panels, pictorial maps, clay modeling and pottery, moving pictures, conservation exhibit, murals, illustrated book reports and outstanding booklets.

TO CONDUCT COOKING SCHOOL

Miss Flora G. Dowler, representing the local Gas Company, will conduct a cooking school at the Telephone Building on Thursday and Friday afternoons of next week.

It is seldom that an audience has the pleasure of watching a demonstrator who is not only a national figure in her art but who is so intensely interested in what she is doing.

She has spent a number of years in home demonstration work in several states. Formerly she did demonstration work for the Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation but more recently hails from Birmingham.

The ladies, who go to her cooking school next week, will have a real treat in store for them, and it is safe to say that the hall will be crowded on both afternoons.

Judge Black, of Washington, will speak at Grace Church Sunday night.

NEW YORK ARTIST ADDRESSES CLUB

Bethlehem Group Also Observes Birthday of Charter Member

The Bethlehem Good Housekeeper's Club met at the hospitable home of Mrs. P. A. Lewis and Mrs. G. C. Round on Wednesday afternoon, April 19th. A large number of members and several guests assembled for this meeting, which was also the occasion of the birthday celebration of Mrs. Round, a charter member of the club.

Following the usual business session and committee reports, there was a further discussion of the proposed history of Old Prince William County.

The program committee conducted a unique contest in an endeavor to select a member to represent the club in the spelling bee to be sponsored by the Commercial Club of the Manassas High School. It was not definitely determined, however, who this representative would be.

Mr. Wilson, a commercial artist of New York City, was introduced by Mrs. Robert Lewis as guest speaker. He discussed very entertainingly the art of commercial advertising and demonstrated with some of his own magazine work.

Delicious refreshments, including a large birthday cake, ice cream and home-made candies, were served in the spacious dining room during the social hour.

It was decided to hold the next meeting on the afternoon of May 16th at the home of Mrs. Charles Compton, with Mrs. Maude Kincheloe as co-hostess. Please note change of date.

GARDEN CLUB PLANNING FLOWER SHOW

Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, who visited the lovely gardens in Charleston, S. C., recently, told of the wonderful beauty and size of the cypress and azaleas and exhibited beautiful pictures of them.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. T. E. Didlake; Vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller; Secretary, Mrs. O. D. Waters; and Treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Staggs.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. O. D. Waters.

A BOOK TO READ

by Clarence Wagener

How tragic life must be as, day by day, it drags itself out for an independent-minded individual, a true lover of freedom, who happens to be a citizen of one of the totalitarian nations.

Try to imagine what it would be like to live under a Hitler or a Mussolini or a Stalin. Constantly being spied upon; likely at any moment to be arrested on suspicion and thrown into a concentration camp without even the semblance of a trial; to be kept there and brutally treated for an indeterminate length of time—maybe for the rest of your life.

Undoubtedly, there is much still to be righted in the United States before we can honestly proclaim that we live under a government that is "of the people, by the people and for the people." But with all its imperfections, with all the inequalities which seem to be an ineradicable part of it, a democracy such as we Americans know at first hand is something to be cherished above rubies and fine gold. It is something that, at any and all costs, we must unwaveringly maintain and defend so that it does not, in Lincoln's words, "perish from the earth."

Far from pleasant it is to have our attention called to the sufferings of fellow mortals in various other countries for wanting to be free men. Yet, just as we must give heed to business or family situations of a troublesome nature, so should we give some time to books that reveal the methods by which the dictators arrogantly retain their strangle-hold on millions. A book of this sort that can be highly recommended is "Rubber Truncheon," by Wolfgang Langhoff; translated by Lilo Linke; with a foreword by Lion Feuchtwanger (Dutton & Co., N. Y., 1935; 280 pages).

Americans who would like to do their bit to make sure "it can't happen here" should read this factual account of a young actor who, because of the sympathy he showed the middle and working classes, was pounced upon, thrown into a concentration camp and there subjected to brutal treatment and hard labor for thirteen months. It's not an exceptional book, in any way, but it's an important book for every true-blue American.

OCCOQUAN AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petellet and Mrs. Ford and family, all of Baltimore, Md., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Petellet in Occoquan.

Mrs. Elmer E. Payne of Occoquan and Mrs. T. Powell Davis of Woodbridge, motored to Norfolk on Thursday to bid farewell to the Battle Fleet prior to their sailing the West Coast.

Mrs. Wilcher of Cumberland, Md., was a week end guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilcher in Occoquan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garrison of Alexandria, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McMahon in Occoquan.

Mrs. Mildred Wilcher entertained at a shower at her home in Occoquan on Saturday, April 22nd, for Miss Ann Bradford of Manassas, who will be married in the near future. There was a large attendance, and several very nice presents were on display. All who attended had a very entertaining afternoon.

The supper given by the O-W-L-Volunteer Fire Department at the Fire House in Occoquan on Saturday was a HOWLING success. We believe we had the largest attendance at any supper ever held in this section of the state. We take this opportunity in expressing our sincere thanks to all who came and helped to make the supper such a grand success. Also, to the several ladies of the community who worked so hard to get things ready, we extend our sincere thanks. Also to those who could not attend but graciously sent contributions, we extend our sincere thanks. We hope you will all feel that this is your Fire Department. We are not getting any assistance from State or County, so you good people are responsible for this Fire Department being in existence. We hope you will always feel it is yours, especially if you have contributed to its support.

There passed from our midst to his eternal rest one who was loved and respected by all of us, Mr. Alexander F. Malcolm of Lorton, Va., in his fifty-sixth year. Mr. Malcolm was for over twenty years Veterinary Surgeon at the District of Columbia Workhouse and Reformatory in Fairfax County. In addition to his official duties at those institutions, he was always willing to go and assist all who had animals needing medical care in any part of Pr. Wm., and Fairfax Counties. Dr. Malcolm leaves his wife, Mrs. Ada V. Malcolm and two sons, Lester and Francis and one daughter, Virginia, all of Lorton, Va. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to those left to mourn Dr. Malcolm, and we trust God will be kind to them in this time of bereavement.

There will be a dance at Occoquan District High School on Friday, May 5th, to which all are cordially invited. We promise to have an orchestra you will like, so be sure to come and swell the crowd of good fellowship.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Langston of Pohick, spent last week visiting historic places of interest in Virginia. Mr. Langston is well versed in the colonial history of our country, and adds to his knowledge of history by inspection whenever possible.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

It will be a help to any soul, and a light to any path.—Psalm 119: 105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.—Matt. 12:36-37.

GOVERNMENTAL RE-ORGANIZATION

With the prospect of a new World War undiminished by any recent attempts to preserve peace, our nation, by the message sent to Congress this week, focuses attention upon the inefficient and demoralized structure of its national government.

So far there has been no sincere effort made on the part of our Democratic Party to redeem the pledges made in its platform in the matter efficiency and economy in departmental expenditures. Instead, vast new agencies of relief have been established which have greatly increased the confusion and duplication of effort then existing. And there has grown up a revised idea of reorganization in which the leading theme of economy, is replaced with an obvious effort to make all these emergency establishments a permanent part of the governmental structure.

The message which the President has sent to Congress this week, in recommending merger of the Welfare, Works and Lending Agencies, evidences the Administration's determination to permanently anchor these activities upon the Nation, although they were brought into being as temporary measures.

We have been entertaining an apparent delusion all of this time that the gigantic federal machine which has been authorized under the New Deal to overcome the "depression," was a sort of Emergency Hospital for the Nation, to be dispensed with as soon as the patient could be discharged as cured.

However, if these emergency establishments are to become permanent, then we have not been building an Emergency hospital at all. The institution upon which we have been lavishing such vast expenditures would have to be regarded, in the light of the President's recommendations, as a mighty Home for the Incurable.

MORE ON THE POWER SITUATION (Contributed)

At an adjourned meeting of the Town Council Wednesday night to consider bids for furnishing electric current to the town the report of the committee previously appointed to consider the bids was received and adopted.

This report recommended that both bids be rejected. No action was taken regarding further proposals. It is rumored that three members of the council have agreed among themselves that the local power company should be given a five-year contract at the rate of One and One-half (1½) cents per K.W.H. for all current furnished up to 50,000 K.W.H. per month, and One and One-quarter (1¼) cents per K.W.H. for all over 50,000 K.W.H. per month. (The Town has not used as much 50,000 K.W.H. in any one month during the last ten years.)

Why is it that these three Councilmen seem to have no interest whatever in considering the advisability of the Town purchasing a Diesel plant and producing its current instead of purchasing same?

CATHARPIN

Our community was greatly saddened last week by the death of Mrs. Peter Polend which occurred at her home, "Ellen's Vale," near Hickory Grove, Va., at 9:00 o'clock, Wednesday evening, April 19, 1939.

Mrs. Polend was born March 18, 1865. Before her marriage, she was Miss Cecilia Duncan, and was considered to be the prettiest girl who attended school at Hickory Grove. In early womanhood, she became the bride of Mr. Peter Polend, and to them were born two sons and five daughters. Her husband died in 1914, and only four children survive her. These are Mrs. Ella Harvey, Mrs. Audrey P. Polend. There are also four grandchildren: Mason Pickett, Paul S. Harvey, Jr., Barbara and Samuel P. Polend, Jr., all of whom reside at the parental home.

For several years, Mrs. Polend had not been in good health, but everything that a skillful physician and loving children could do, was done to alleviate any suffering caused by her condition. During all these years, she remained cheerful and uncomplaining.

It was always a joy to be in her home. Some of the writer's happiest childhood hours were spent there, and in her declining years Mrs. Polend was assisted by her lovely daughters and daughter-in-law in extending true Southern hospitality to all her guests.

The immediate cause of her death was due to a paralytic stroke which she suffered Saturday, April 15, and from which she never regained consciousness.

The funeral was conducted from the George D. Baker and Sons' funeral home in Manassas, Friday afternoon, April 21. At 2:00 o'clock the procession stopped at her church at Sudley where a brief, sacred service was held by her pastor, the Rev. John S. Swartz. The flowers were borne by Mrs. John T. Patton, Mrs. May Galleher, Mrs. Clifton O. Polen and Mrs. L. Jett Pattie.

The pallbearers were Mr. Walter Pickett, of Arlington, Mr. Carroll, of Hickory Grove, Messrs. J. Worthington Alvey, Clifton O. Polen, Luther L. Lynn and L. Jett Pattie, of Catharpin.

The procession then proceeded to her late residence and the body was laid to rest in the family plot on a beautiful hill overlooking the home.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the obsequies, and perhaps one of the most touching evidences of her worth, as a friend, was the genuine grief of the colored folk some of whom have served faithfully in her home for three generations.

The community extends sympathy to be sorrowing family.

Mrs. Claude Ellis, of Gainesville, is spending a while with her aunt, Mrs. Bertie Caton, and we are happy to report that Mrs. Caton seems to be improving nicely.

Mrs. I. I. Anderson is again able to walk after her recent injury. She was visited Sunday by her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Matthew and Miss Ruth Matthew of Sudley neighborhood and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Matthew, Jr., of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Swart, Jr., of Sudley, are being congratulated on the birth of a fine baby boy, which was named Hamilton III.

Mrs. John T. Patton, of Silver Springs, Md., and her daughter, of Washington, Miss Ida V. Pollen and Mr. Walter T. Pollen, of Washington, Mrs. Joseph H. Swift, of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pickett and Mr. William Pickett, of Arlington, were among the relatives and friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Peter Polend.

Mr. J. W. Alvey, Jr., has been confined to his home with a very sore throat, but is much better at this writing.

Owing to illness, Mrs. C. F. Brower could not attend the Missionary meeting in Alexandria, but Sudley was represented by Mrs. John S. Schwartz, as alternate, and also by Mrs. Margaret Hundley who had the honor of being introduced to the congregation as the only person present who had served as a member for 50 years. We are exceedingly sorry that our other three charter members, Mrs. May Dogan, Mrs. J. D. Wheeler and Mrs. C. F. Brower, could not be present.

We were pleased, indeed, to have Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wheeler with us at Sudley Sunday. This is the second time, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler have been able to attend church since his very severe illness last winter.

Mrs. Sue C. Swart has returned to her home at Sudley after spending several weeks at the home of Mrs. John Reid at Greenwich.

Miss Mattie Matthew is visiting relatives in Washington.

Mrs. Sara Caton left Saturday morning for Front Royal where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Senseney for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, visited Mrs. Meetz, in Manassas, Sunday.

(Omitted from last week)

The supper held at Sudley Friday evening April 14th, was a success, both socially and financially. Many from upper Prince William attended and enjoyed the supper, the social contact, and the delightful program given by the Kiwanis Club of Manassas and their guests. President Edgar Connor presided with dignity, and the whole program, from the opening hymn, "America" to the benediction, was indeed enjoyable.

The address was given by the guest speaker, Dr. Sampson, was most instructive. The songs, accompanied by Mrs. Dennis Baker at the piano, and with Miss Sara Margaret Senseney as song leader, were so full of enthusiasm and pep that even the cooks in the kitchen laid aside the spoons and ladles and joined in the chorus. Dr. C. F. Bower, the veteran and much loved physician of our neighborhood was present, and as the day happened to be his 81 birthday, he was presented with a very beautiful birthday cake in token of the love and esteem of the people of Sudley church and community, whom he has so faithfully served for some sixty years. Altogether, the evening was so delightful that we are hoping that a visit from the Kiwanis club may become an annual event at Sudley, and that hereafter, we hope to make arrangements so that all who attend may be seated so that they may hear and enjoy the program.

We thank every one for their delightful cooperation.

MANASSAS WINS SECOND GAME OF SEASON

Sun., April, 23, the Panthers beat Fairfax Courthouse, A. C., 15-3 with M. Fields, W. Fields and D. Tucker twirling very good ball for the winners behind flawless play by their team mates; they really did not have a chance to bear down as is customary in a hard fought game. The visitors defense folded on their pitcher in the second inning thus causing thus causing the game to be a one sided affair from thereon.

With N. Robinson, Braxton and Tucker leading the hitting attack for the home team while J. Wells and his brother, P. Wells were turning in very good defensive work on the field. The Panthers will play Quantico on April 30th on our ground. Come out and see a game that promises to be a thriller from start to finish. Neal Johnson and Rhodie Chloe will be umpires.

SPRING IN THE AIR

The heavy motor traffic on Lee Highway past National Memorial Park is conscious of much activity there. A considerable addition is being made to the studio and office building. This addition will be completed and ready for use next week. The very handsome model of National Memorial Park as it is to be, is on display and the additions to the studio are made with special reference to favorable exhibition of this unusual model.

The rapidly opening leaves and developing beauty of spring, are making a special attraction for the bus loads of visitors who come rather frequently now that weather is settled, to inspect the progress of National Memorial Park's development.

NOKESVILLE

The Seniors will present their play entitled "Plain Jane" on Thursday May 11 at eight o'clock.

Cowgirl from sombrero to spurs, with a six gun, lariat and quirt, a pet rattlesnake and a bronco called "Dynamite—a name much too mild—such is the em-bryonic rodeo represented by Jane Judkins, who descends out of the West upon eccentric Aunt Emma and the eastern tribe of Marsdens. Bronco and rattlesnake are indicated by effects and are never present in person. Freckle-faced, redhair Jane a riding fury and a roping fool, has been selected by Aunt Emma to be the bride of one of the Marsden boys—the one who can win her, Jane, warm-hearted and romantically inclined finds herself in an atmosphere of frigidity, selfishness, and intrigue. Pathetic as her situation becomes, her boundless energy is a match for it. Ensuing complications make a rare combination of comedy, pathos character, heart interest, and hilarity. How Dynamite settles the marriage question and Mamie, the pet snake figures in a near tragedy are new and surprising elements of the plot. One of the Marsden boys is enough of a hero to appeal to the girl's romantic streak, but too obviously her regards her as just plain Jane. Then, Ellen, the Irish cook, plays good fairy and inducts Jane into the magic of tan-and-freckle eradication, the training of carryot hair into silken waves and ringlets, and the necromancy of good apparel. Plain Jane, the bronco buster, is transformed into a radiant princess. The Marsden boys all sit up and take notice, and the right one wins her. When the audience is not softened at the pathos, it will be laughing to the point of tears at the humor.

The characters are: Jenny the maid, Dottie Fritter; Parsons, the butler, Lawrence Coverstone; Ellen, the cook, Ruth House; Valerie Van Duyke, secretary, Genevieve Garman; Aunt Emma Marsden, June Foster; Brant Coleman, heir number one, Flory Diehl; Clayton Coleman, Brants, Elwood Long; Howard Marsden, heir number two, Marion Miller; Mrs. Beatrice Marsden, Howard's mother, Dorothy Berryman; Rolfe Marsden, heir number three, Billy Harpine; Jane Judkins, Aunt Emma's niece, Sadie Smith.

There were two games played here Tuesday, April 25. The girls and boys of Nokesville played the girls and boys of Occoquan.

On Arbor Day, the Student Co-operative Association of the elementary school presented an appropriate program. At which time a pink dogwood tree was planted as a memorial to Miss Elizabeth Weatherman, former seventh grade teacher to the school. The tree was presented by Mr. J. A. Hooker.

The Music Festival will be given on May 4, in the Brentsville District High School Auditorium. The following schools are participating: Aden, Greenwich, Brentsville District High School.

BOXWOODS

Our most cherished shrub, the Boxwood, is being threatened for life by a most destructive insect called Boxwood Leaf Miner which is a tiny pink worm.

When boxwoods are infested with Boxwood Leaf Miner the foliage is discolored and drops from the stem; the plant has a sickly appearance; and there are blisters on the underneath side of the leaves. During the next two or three weeks they will develop wings and start on an egg-laying tour that may ruin thousands of dollars worth of Virginia's boxwoods.

To conquer this insect spray the underside of all leaves with a mixture of 1 gallon cheap stock food molasses, 10 easpoons of "Black Leaf 40" and 5 gallons water. The spray must be applied under considerable pressure. Keep all leaves covered for 3-4 weeks by spraying at least once per week. In case of rain, repeat the application at once.

If your Boxwoods are not infested now, but are located near infested plants this spray will prevent them from becoming infested.

Watch your Boxwood carefully and conquer this fellow before he attacks other plants.

MRS. C. E. CLARKE

It has not been so many months since the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clarke, of Minnieville, were delighted to join with them in the celebration of their Golden Wedding anniversary. Since that time Mrs. Clarke has been ailing and some two weeks ago she was taken desperately ill, passing away on April 22nd.

Katherine Fale Alexander was born at Pilgrim's Rest, January 15, 1864, just a very short distance from the home in which she spent her married life. Her parents were Thomas R. and Sarah A. Fale Alexander. On September 29, 1887, she was married to Charles Edward Clarke, of the same neighborhood. Of this union there are three children, Mrs. Lucille Kidwell, now residing in Arlington, and Messrs John T. and Paul E., of Washington City. There are five grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Hers was a valuable and useful life. As a member of the Greenwood Baptist Church, near her home, she was a faithful worker. Any civic duties that came to her lot were handled faithfully and with enthusiasm.

Funeral services were conducted at the Greenwood Baptist Church on Tuesday afternoon, Elders A. J. Garland and Miller, of Arlington, and W. W. Alderton, of Fredericksburg, officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were five nephews, John Alexander, Dan Alexander, Walter Alexander, Albert Alexander and Lee Clarke, and Charles Levi.

Mrs. Clarke was the last surviving member of her immediate family, which had been known in the annals of Prince William County for several generations. The passing of such a splendid old citizen is a cause for sadness, not only in her immediate community but generally in this section of the county. To her husband and children go the sympathy of everyone.
