BOOK REVIEWS BY LOCAL TALENT

W. C. Wagener Offers Prize To High School Students

Beginning with the issue of November 23, The Journal will print a series of book reviews under the general heading, "I Like This Book." Excepting the issue of December 28, these reviews will appear weekly up to and including the issue of May 9, 1940.

The book reviews will be written by twenty-four students of the third and fourth year classes of The Manassas High School in competition for the W. C. Wagener Memorial Prize of $10 worth of books and a Certificate of Achievement. Books to be reviewed will be obtainable on loan at the Ruffner-Carnegie Library.

The following students have entered this contest:

Elizabeth Miller, Lillian Hooe, June Williams, Mittie Thomas, Dorothy Wilkerson, Virginia Bradshaw, Marie Bauserman, Marvin Gillum, Shirley Davis, Richard Harris, Joe Johnson, Guy Bowers, Mildred Merchant, Caton Merchant, Lelia Montague Dowell, Louise King, Jean Coverston, Bill Uglow, William Knox, Tommy Athey, Peggy Tipton, Harry Jarmans, Richard Haydon, Jr., and Leonard Lonas.

The idea of writing book reviews also appeals to students of the first and second year classes of the local high school. Eighteen are to compete for a supplementary prize—a copy of the "Wonder Book of History, Science, Nature, Literature, Art, Religion and Philosophy," by Henry Thomas.

Contestants from the first and second year classes, whose reviews must be submitted on or before April 12, 1940 none will be printed, are as follows:

Emmitt Miller, Wallace Bolding, Betty Thomas, Gloria Herndon, Maxine Weber, Eula M. Shortt, Edward Jasper, Mary Ann Goode, John Broadus, Alvin Conner, Frances Keys, Bill Curtis, Gladys Fletcher, Helen Kane, Eleanor Wheaton, Louise Keys, Charles Wilkerson and Gordon Harris.

Clarence Wagener, who is offering these prizes in the hope the contests will stimulate both high school students and the public to make greater use of the local library, expresses pleasure at the enthusiastic reception accorded his plan.

COURSES OFFERED FOR THE ADULTS

Local High School Open To Citizens Over 16 Years Of Age

A tentative outline of the courses to be offered in Adult Education by the high schools of the county has been announced by the Prince William County School Board.

The last issue of the Journal carried a statement of Superintendent Haydon's regarding the plan of the School Board to begin adult education. These courses are open to all adults over sixteen years of age and not regularly enrolled in a school. Instruction will be under the direction of the individual schools and by regular members of the high school faculty. It is hoped by the School Board that sufficient enrollment will be secured to justify the offering of all of the classes anticipated in each of the High Schools listed below.

The Manassas High School is offering the following courses: Home Making, Industrial Arts or General Shop, a General Commercial Course, Typing, and a General Education Course. Occoquan High School is offering a Commercial Course, a General Education Course, and a Home Economics Course. Brentsville District High School is offering a course in General Education, a course in Home Making and a course in Current Agriculture Problems. Haymarket High School is offering two courses, one in Home Economics and one in Agriculture.

Each of the schools is at present present contacting its patrons and attempting to get the organization of these adult classes under-way within the next week. The public is urged to express to the school of their community their interest in the program or their desire to enroll in any of the courses.

A TIMELY REMINDER

CHRISTMAS SEALS BRING HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

Health and happiness has been restored to one South side Virginia home through a small part of the money raised from the sale of Christmas Seals, according to information released by J. Vaughan Gary, president of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association.

The patient was a young woman who had been sent to a sanatorium by a county tuberculosis committee, an act made possible by income produced from Christmas Seals bought by generous Virginians. Diagnosis at the sanatorium indicated that a rare operation, removal of one lung—pneumonectomy—was imperative.

According to Mr. Gary, the young woman was removed to one of the larger hospitals and a lung taken out. This operation was included as a part of the surgical treatment program inaugurated last year by the State Health Department after a $50,000 appropriation for the purpose had been authorized by the General Assembly. This appropriation was sponsored by Mr. William A. Neff, of Abingdon, at the request of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association, Mr. Gary said.

Before the operation and during her convalescence, the patient's needs were cared for by the county committee. Again this year that committee will join similar organizations in all parts of the Old Dominion in the annual appeal for funds from the sale of Christmas Seals. This campaign will start on December 1.

GARDEN SECTION MEETS AT STONE HOUSE

The members of the Garden Section of Woman's club had a most enjoyable meeting at Stone House with Mrs. J. P. Lyon, on Monday afternoon. Eleven members and four visitors were present.

During the business session the members voted to continue their practice of giving a prize for the most tastefully decorated exterior of any home in town for the Christmas season and committees were appointed to attend to this.

Miss Alice Webb was the speaker and her talk on planting to attract the birds was most interesting and instructive.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and assistant hostess, Mrs. R. S. Hynson.

"EDIE" BY ELVERE & WALSER CONNER

Edith A. Harris died at 7:15 Sunday night in Freedman's Hospital, Washington, after an illness of several weeks. She was the daughter of Eli and Channie Harris and was born in Manassas forty-nine years ago, September 24, 1891. In early life she became a member of the First Baptist Church of Manassas, having been baptized by the late Rev. M. D. Williams. She was strictly religious and very charitable. From girlhood Edie was a faithful employee in old Manassas families, first with Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Taylor, then with the R. M. Weir family and later with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sinclair, Sr. For the past twenty-eight years Edie has made her home with the G. Raymond Ratcliffes and became indispensable in the household. The fact that she gave willingly of her time and energy is manifested in the inestimable good she has done for others. In her walk of life she instilled into little children a love of the beautiful, interwoven with a simple philosophy of life. Her singing of Mother Goose rhymes brought out only the good morals and finer sides of the stories. She taught Biblical stories in a language which children could understand and endeared them so to little ones so that they will always be remembered. This alone is evidence that her Bible was religiously well read. Edie's natural instinct as a nurse and her fondness for children won for her the love and praise of both old and young. She was a second mother to "Miss Rose" and "Mister Jack" Ratcliffe, and in recent years has been the careful nurse and guardian of little Anne Walser Ratcliffe and her infant brother.

In all the years of her life of service and benevolence in Manassas, Edie had made many friends among white and colored people, and the large number of those who attended her funeral Wednesday afternoon at the Baker Chapel, and the beautiful floral tributes, were a symbol of the high esteem which she rightfully merited. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Nettie L. Cherry, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Maria C. Willis of Manassas, and by five nephews, three nieces and a large number of other relatives. No tribute could rightfully do justice to the goodness of Edie, but it may be fittingly said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

ARMISTICE DAY HOURS AT LOCAL POST OFFICE

Saturday, November 11 being a National holiday, the windows at the Post Office will be opened during the following hours: 9 a. m. to 11 a. m.

PRIZE OFFERED FOR ROADSIDE BEAUTY

Mrs. Bocock Announces Offer of Silver Trophy

Mrs. E. A. Bocock, Prince William County representative of the Associated Clubs of Virginia for Roadside Development, this week announced that a silver trophy is being offered by this Association as a token of merit to the business concern making the outstanding contribution to roadside beauty before May, 1940.

Several types of beautification will be considered, such as well painted and neatly maintained filling stations, with a minimum of commercial signs, an automobile graveyard attractively concealed; removal of unsightly billboards and roadside landscaping.

Photographs before and after should be submitted, together with a full description of the accomplishment.

Detailed information may be secured from Mrs. E. A. Bocock, Bristow, Va., or from the District chairman, Mrs. Grey Dunnington, of Orange, Va.

Virginia has made notable progress in highway beautification and it is believed that the present announcement will stimulate further accomplishment along this line.

EIGHTH DISTRICT CHAIRMAN HERE

John Donovan Spoke On Communist Activities

The November meeting of the Young Democratic Club was held in the gymnasium at Manassas with its president, P. A. Lewis, presiding.

The business meeting was short, due to the plans for the evening, but motion was made and passed that a membership be given the Red Cross as was done last year. Plan for a banquet to be held later on in the winter was discussed, but definite plans will be not be made until the December meeting.

Mr. William Sweeney, former club president, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. John A. K. Donovan, 8th District Chairman of the Young Democratic Clubs, of Virginia.

His address, while tinged with the near upset in the assembly contest in Fairfax County on that day, was mainly devoted to "Un-American activities." He dwelt at length on some of those groups who use our democratic privileges to try to undermine the institution itself.

Mr. Donovan cited in particular the League for Peace and Democracy, and ridiculed its pretenses. Several prominent Young Democrats from other club were in attendance. Mr. C. B. Fitzwater, who had just won a complete victory in the supervisor contest in Brentsville District, was warmly greeted.

Judge Brown, a Democratic victor, was also present. Old fashioned square dancing and seasonal refreshments completed the very pleasant occasion.

ATTEND 4th DISTRICT MEETING AT HAYMARKET

The Manassas Woman's Club had five representatives at the meeting of the Fourth District of the Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs in Haymarket on Wednesday. They reported a very delightful and interesting meeting. The ladies attending from here were Mrs. C. Wade-Dalton, president of the local Club, Mrs. T. J. Broadus, Mrs. P. J. Cooksey, Mrs. W. F. Coke, Mrs. Harold McCall and Mrs. O. C. Hutchison.

Mrs. Hawes Davies, Jr., president of the local club, Mrs. George Tuberville, Jr., Mrs. Jack Ratcliffe, Miss Mary D. Lynch, Mrs. John Roseberry and Mrs. Connie Kincheloe represented the Junior Woman's Club here.

BIBLE EXHIBIT IN BOOK WEEK

Library and Manassas Ministerial Association Cooperate

The Ruffner-Carnegie Library will celebrate "Book Week" for the school and for the "Friends of the Library" next week, November 13-17. The most outstanding feature of the celebration will be a Bible Exhibit given under the joint auspices of the Library and of the Manassas Ministerial Association. The exhibit together with a moving picture showing the various stages of the making of a Bible from the printing to the completed cover, will be given in the high school at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association and the "Friends of the Library" on Thursday night, November 16.

The exhibit will include copies of the Bible in several languages and also a number of fine facsimiles of pages of all the eight different early editions of the English Bible, from the first translation of the Bible in English (Wicliffe, 1470?) through the first edition printed in English (Coverdale, 1535) down to the great King James version of 1611 (authorized version). There will also be facsimiles of pages of the famous Gutenberg Bible of 1466. This was the first printed Bible, and the original copies are extremely rare. The Library of Congress now has one on exhibition which is valued at about $300,000. The exhibit will also contain some facsimiles of early illuminated Latin Bibles and Psalters which were hand written and painted on vellum. Coming down to recent time there will be a number of facsimiles of the Bible in different languages in modern use, as Turkish, Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Modern Greek, Zulu (African) Hopi (Indian), etc.; also, in the Braille, or writing for the blind.

Most of this material has been loaned by the American Bible Society, and some of it is from published facsimiles of rare books in the famous J. Pierpont Morgan Library in New York. The moving picture film to be displayed with this exhibit is loaned by Mr. Channing P. Hayes, of Richmond, Va.

In addition to the members of the Parent-Teacher Association all members of the "Friends of the Library" and all others interested are cordially invited to see this exhibit next Thursday night, November 16. The exhibit will begin at 7:30 o'clock Thursday and will be continued for some days.

KIWANIS DISTRICT GOVERNORS SOON TO CONVENE

Lieutenant-governors for 1940 in the Capital Kiwanis district were announced today by David Nelson Sutton, of West Point, governor-elect of the Capital district, who is attending the annual council meeting of the Kiwanis International being held in Chicago this week.

The following seven lieutenant-governors will take office in January: Virginia—Arthur C. Stickley, II, Arlington; Ernest A. Sale, Martinsville; Charles R. Adair, Narrows; George E. Kidd, Newport News, and Franklin Williamson, Staunton. Maryland—Dr. Waitman F. Zinn, Baltimore.

Delaware—Charles Russell Snyder, Seaford.

The Kiwanis governor will bring together all his lieutenants for an intensive training within the next thirty days. These men will then conduct training schools for the 1940 presidents, secretaries, etc., for all the clubs in the Capital district.

Rev. R. M. Graham was the speaker at the regular meeting of the club on Friday evening. His address was also on the school system and some of the attending dangers now becoming more apparent.

The speaker was a bit pessimistic concerning some conditions and urged thought and attention to the matters which he brought forward.

Attention was again directed to the fact that ladies' night would be on Friday evening of next week.

LADIES AID MEETING

The Ladies Aid Society of the Bethel Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. P. J. Cooksey on Tuesday afternoon, November 14, at 2:00.

ELECTION RESULTS

The official ballot for Prince William County will not be printed until next week.

New Demands For Red Cross Services Prompt Greatest Roll Call in 20 Years

Half Million Workers Ready for Membership Drive

THE American Red Cross embarks on its greatest membership Roll Call in two decades November 11 when a half million volunteers working in virtually every community in the nation, will seek increased membership strength to meet growing demands for Red Cross services, Chairman Norman H. Davis has announced.

Increased membership support has been prompted by an urgent need for extending Red Cross services not only in this country, but as a result of appeals from Red Cross societies in war-stricken European nations, Mr. Davis said. The Roll Call will extend through November 30, and everyone is urged to join his local Red Cross Chapter.

"Although the Red Cross must be ready to meet the tragic potentialities that may arise among the war-stricken men, women and children in Europe, we of America must not slacken our effort to reduce the peace-time forms of human suffering found in this country," Mr. Davis declared.

The 5,700,000 American men and women who enrolled as members of the Red Cross last year enabled the organization to meet the needs of sufferers in 187 disasters during the year, as well as to train hundreds of thousands in First Aid, Life Saving and health education.

THANKSGIVING DAY NOVEMBER 23

Falling in line with action of President Roosevelt in proclaiming November 23 as the national Thanksgiving holiday, Governor Price has proclaimed formally the same day as Thanksgiving day in the Old Dominion. The governor's action was not unanticipated, however, since he had stated that if the President selected the fourth Thursday in the month, instead of the traditional last Thursday, for the holiday, he would follow suit. Bristol, the center of whose main street is the State line between Virginia and Tennessee, has solved its Thanksgiving Day problem. Through a joint proclamation issued by the two mayors the city will observe November 23 as its Thanksgiving holiday. Confusion had been rife because, while Governor Price followed the President's proclamation and set the holiday for November 23, Governor Cooper of Tennessee said he State would have its Thanksgiving holiday a week later.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear little baby, Dennis Leroy Lowe, who left me one year ago, November 7, 1938.

One year has passed,
My dear little baby, since you were called away.

How well do I remember that sad and dreary day.

Days of sadness still come over me.
Tears of sorrow silent flow memory keeps you ever near me.

Though death claimed you one year ago.

Some may think I am not lonely.
When at times, they see me smile.
Little do they know the heartaches
That I suffer all the while.

Never shall I cease to love you.
Never shall that memory fade.
Sweetest thoughts forever linger.

Around the spot where you are laid.
Sleep on my darling little baby.
God called you home for he loved you best.

He saw your suffering here was great
And he opened up the golden gate and took you with him.

By his loving,
Mother.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 12. The Golden Text will be "Henceforth know we no man after the flesh" II Cor. 5:16.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "As is the earthy, such are they also that are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly" I Cor. 15:48, 49).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science takes naught from the perfection of God, but it ascribes to Him the entire glory. By putting off the old man with his deeds, mortals 'put on immortality'" (p. 262.)

JAMES EDWARD ELLISON

The friends and relatives of James Edward Ellison were shocked to hear Sunday morning November 5, 1939 of his sudden death which had occurred during the night at the home of his niece, Mrs. Rumsey Light, who resides in Loudoun on Route 234 near Catharpin.

The cause of his death was heart trouble from which he had at times suffered greatly and which was probably aggravated by an attack of indigestion of which he had complained before retiring.

Mr. Ellison was 42 years old, the youngest son of the late Mr. Charles Ellison, a native of England, and his wife, who was Miss Margaret Ella Gregg of Half-Way, Fauquier County, Va.

"Eddie was a World War Veteran and joined the church at Old Sudley, with a large number of his comrades, shortly before leaving to join the colors. His name is engraved on the plaque in the memorial window which was installed in the new Sudley Church in honor of the boys of this community who defended our country in the War which we hoped was to make the world safe for democracy. As far as the writer knows, "Eddie" was the first of this group to answer the last call of the Great Captain of mankind.

His funeral was held from the Baker Funeral Home in Manassas, Tuesday afternoon.

In the absence of our pastor, the services were beautifully conducted by the Rev. Mr. Luttrell, pastor of Manassas charge, at our church at Sudley. He spoke of the deceased's lovable qualities, and the large crowd who attended the funeral were evidence of the number who had called him their friend.

His remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Sudley cemetery amid a profusion of beautiful flowers.

The pall bearers were Messrs. David Herndon, William Brower, Lee Pattie, Layton Laws, John H. Burke, Jr., and Edgar Sowers.

Mr. Ellison is survived by four sisters. Mrs. Bennie Brown, of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Edgar Sowers of Concord, North Carolina; Mrs. Burgess of Washington, and Mrs. Carter Byrne of Loudoun; and five brothers: John, Grover, Frederick, Will and Albert and a number of nieces and nephews.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our friends for their many acts of kindness and the lovely flowers sent at the death of our father, Robert Hilman Keys. The children.

"THE RAINS CAME"

ACE BEST-SELLER

Zanuck's production of "The Rains Came," by Louis Bromfield, which opens Thursday and Friday, November 16 and 17 at the Pitt's Theatre, with Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power and George Brent sharing stellar honors.

As a novel this powerful story of human emotions at the breaking point and human lives at the climax while the angry forces of nature ravaged the earth, proved one of the outstanding best-sellers of the last decade, not only in the United States, but in the British Empire, France and the Scandinavian countries as well.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.—Psalm 37:3, 4.

A RISKY SUBTERFUGE

According to late press reports owners of some of the largest United States liners are testing transfer to registry under the flag of the Republic of Panama in order that they may continue to sail in belligerent waters from which they are now forbidden to enter under the Stars and Stripes.

It is probable that international law permits such transfers and that this may be done, but it is also extremely likely that under such circumstances Panama ships would be sunk without warning by German submarines.

When this predictable circumstance arises, it should be borne in mind by those now seeking transfer of registry, that this country will give them no protection whatever and that even our Monroe Doctrine will afford them no comfort.

The United States is making a serious minded and patriotic effort to avoid entering this war. The Congress has done its full part, and it rests upon all patriotic citizens to uphold our government in its determination, even if such cooperation entails financial difficulty.

Certain of these big ships can scarcely be operated at a profit in coastwise or Pacific trade. They should, therefore, be sold outright to the belligerent powers or laid up until the end of the war. Our country has already seriously compromised its good name with respect to Panama in the way that we acquired the Panama canal, and a subterfuge like the present proposed transfer of our ships to Panama registry is not calculated to increase our moral stature in the eyes of the world.

MEMBER REVIEWS
U. D. C. HISTORY

Historical Sketch Recently Presented By Miss Ewell

Historical sketch of the 8th Va., Reg't Chap. U. D. C., as prepared and read by the secretary Miss Mary Ewell at the November meeting of the chapter at the Memorial Hall at Hickory Grove on Thursday, November 3rd, 1939.

Forty years ago, on November 7th, 1899; Eighth Va., Reg't Chap., was organized at "Oakland," the home of Misses Martha and Mary Wise, near Woolsey, Va. Miss Lucy Berkeley was elected president of the chapter. The charter members were as follows:

Mrs. Wilbur Latham, Mrs. Richard Belches, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mrs. Ludwell Hutchinson, Mrs. John Hutchinson, Mrs. Oscar Hutchinson, Mrs. Milton Hutchinson, Miss Lucy F. Berkeley, Miss Leonore C. Hutchinson, Miss Martha Wise, Miss Mary Wise, Lucy Belches, Miss Mary B. Hutchinson, Miss Jane Hamilton.

The meetings were held from April until November in homes of the different members in this and the Little River neighborhood.

The chapter increased rapidly in members and interest. In those days the veterans of the 8th Va., attended the meetings and a jolly time was spent in reminiscing. In 1914, an attractive building was erected at Hickory Grove, as a memorial to the 8th Va., Reg't Chap. The building cost $1,400. The amount was raised by increasing efforts of the Daughters and contributions from friends.

In 1916, the winter this sketcher, became a member and can testify to the work done by the chapter since then.

During the World War contributed in various ways. We purchased a Liberty Bond, which several years later was the means of adding a comfortable and attractive porch to the building. The Hall has been repainted twice, yard enclosed with a wire fence, and shabby planted.

We have also placed memorials in the building. We have annually, met our obligations to the Va., Div., and General U. D. C.

We have contributed generously to Education Relief work and other objects. Perhaps, an outstanding work of the chapter was the placing of a bronze tablet, suitably inscribed, in St. Paul's Church, at Haymarket, in 1930; as a memorial to the 80 or more Confederate soldiers, who died there in the 60's, when the edifice was used as a hospital.

Though our list of members is smaller than formerly, we still have same loyal spirit that has been handed down to us by our charter members and will continue our good works as time goes on, far:

"Nor shall your glory be forgot
While fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hollowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead."

EARLY SNOWFALL IN VIRGINIA

Weather bureau records tumbled when heavy snowfalls were reported in Western Virginia over the past weekend. The snow was particularly heavy in the Shenandoah Valley section. The snowfall measured 20 inches in some sections. The Dale Enterprise weather station reported its 59-year-old records showed no early snow of such depth for November. Saturday's snowfall amounted to about five inches, around Roanoke, the earliest snowfall there in 26 years. Thirty-three hours of snow in the Waynesboro section left a covering of 15 to 18 inches in depth, while at the Shannanodah gate of Afton mountain the snow measured 20 inches.

The heavy snowfall put telegraph and telephone wires out of commission in the Shenandoah valley, blocking highways and delaying train movements. Electric current was cut off in many rural sections. Trees were reported broken down across some roads and communication lines. The Spotswood trail (Route 33) was blocked for several hours on the side of the Blue Ridge mountains six miles east of Elkton. Motorists were stranded on both sides of the blockade, as highway forces found the 15 inches of snow too heavy for their snow-clearing machinery.

HARRY SAUNDERS' F. F. A.
CHAPTER HAS INITIATION

Years before the Revolution sea soldiers of Virginia engaged in enterprises incidental to the development of America. As long ago as 1741, a regiment of marines from several of the colonies, organized by Colonel Spotswood, and commanded by Governor Gooch of Virginia, took part in a West Indian Campaign

Prominent among the Corps' leaders was Brigadier General Archibald Henderson, a native of Fairfax County, who was commandant from 1920 until 1859. A veteran of sea fights fought aboard Old Ironsides in the War of 1812, he held office longer than any other commandant. He Approximately 1,000 Virginians served in the Marine Corps during the World War, and most of the marines who saw service overseas were trained at Quantico, the large eastern base of the Corps. For years marines have been familiar figures at Portsmouth or Norfolk.

Since the opening of school the chapter spent a day at the State Fair at Richmond, Virginia, and the boys with their instructor, Mr. Fish paw, have visited every boy's project at his home. Giving helpful suggestions where possible.

Robert Taylor, cast as Bill Carey, a young American who falls madly in love with the gorgeous Manon, adds even more stature to his high standing as an actor. He achieves a delicate balance of humor, plausibility and drama in his characterization.

"Hardship make us prove our worth
And make us love, "good-old-earth."
Yes, we'd be lost, and weary too,
If there were no task for us to do

DOWELL'S PHARMACY

A NEW WINTER SPORT

The Soaring Society of America, with national headquarters in Washington, has worked out plans to use the skyways around the National Capital as a sort of aerial proving ground. The purpose is to extend the saring season throughout the year, regardless of climatic conditions. Accordingly, an experimental program has been worked out—a program which, according to an article scheduled for publication in The Washington Star of Sunday, November 12, will constitute "one of the most picturesque of the day's aeronautical pioneering efforts."

Steamed Rice

Wash rice. Place rice in 2 quart pan, add water and salt and place on large unit. Turn switch to "high" heat until water reaches boiling point then turn switch "off" for 20 minutes. Do not remove cover. Rice will be tender and fluffy.

ROBERT HILMAN KEYS

Robert Hilman Keys died at his home at Brentsville, Thursday, November 2, after a long illness.

He was laid to rest on Saturday afternoon at the side of his beloved wife, who had preceded him one week before.

He was born at Brentsville June 23, 1870.

He had been engaged in the mercantile business for many years and was highly respected by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his loss, eight children, four grand children, 1 great grandson, three brothers and one sister.

OCCOQUAN
AND VICINITY

Mrs. Hobart Wicker of Occoquan, is spending some time visiting her former home, Sanford, N. C.

There will be a dance sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association at Occoquan High School on Friday, November 17th. This promises to be an outstanding occasion, so be sure to keep the date open, and do not miss this dance.

They O-W-L-Volunteer Fire Department will give a supper on Saturday, November 18th, at the Fire House. This will be a supper you should not miss, for it's promises to be the best ever. We hope all the friends of the Fire Department will come and SUP with us. We need your help; and you may need our help, in case of fire. You are our only Financial backing, so do not let us down. Supper will be served from FIVE o'clock until all are served.

At the annual election of officers for the O. W. L. Volunteer Fire Department, held at the Fire House in Occoquan, Va., on Friday evening, November 3rd, the following officers were elected for the year 1940.

For president Mr. Robert S. Hall, re-elected; for secretary Capt. Thos. F. Joyce, re-elected; for treasurer Mr. Henry S. Davis, re-elected; for Fire Chief Mr. John A. Musselman; for asst. Fire Chief Mr. Wm. R. (Bill) Selesman. There were twenty-seven members voting. The officers will take office on January 1, 1940.

The names of Fire Captin, Lieutenants, Engineers, and other allottive officers will appear in the Journal next week.

Be sure to get the Journal next week. It will give the organization of the Occoquan Boy Scout Troop just being organized. It is hoped that this will be the best Troop in the State after sufficient time for training. A grand start is being made. If your boy does not now belong, come and join. It is a grand place for your boy to be. The troop meets weekly on Thursdays at the High School Gymnasium in Occoquan. If you live in Dumfries, Minnerville, Hoadly, Lorton, or Colchester areas, you should take advantage of the wonderful training for your boy. It is an unassailable truth that Boy Scouts do not become delinquents.

WEEVILS IN STORED GRAIN

Every fall the Virginia Agricultural Extension Division gets many requests for information on the control of weevils and moths in corn, beans, peas and other crops usually stored for the winter. Plant pathologists of the Extension Service say in reply:

The most satisfactory method of killing insects in storage is fumigation with carbon disulphide, a liquid which on exposure to air turns quickly to a heavy gas. The bin or container must be made air-tight in order to confine the gas.

The liquid is used at the rate of one pound to 100 cubic feet of air space to be fumigated; for small quantities, one teaspoonful to a cubic foot.

The carbon disulphide should be poured onto burlap bags placed on the grain and the whole top of the bin or container covered tightly. If fumigation is to be done in a large bin or crib with tight sides and bottoms, fairly good results may be obtained by covering the grain, after the liquid is poured on, with canvas, blankets or similar covering. Since this will not give an air-tight job, it is well to increase the amount of liquid used.

Unless the bin or crib can be tightly closed up after fumigation, the grain will become reinfested with insects, and it will be necessary to fumigate a second time.

Treatment with carbon disulphide is most effective at a temperature of about 75 degrees Fahrenheit. It is not effective below 60 degrees.

Carbon disulphide is highly inflammable and care must be exercised in using it.

For further information on fumigation problems, see your county agent.

EDWARD ROBINSON IN GREAT CRIME ROLE

Stark drama at a fast pace through Edward G. Robinson's first great sympathetic role, as vivid and as tense as anything he has ever done, makes a noteworthy contribution to film entertainment at the Pitt's Theatre, where "Blackmail" opens next Saturday, November 11.

It is an entirely different Robinson that comes to the screen in this picture. There is a distinctive new quality to his performance as he plays the sympathetic role of an honest citizen who is uprooted from his family, thrown into a prison camp for a crime he did not commit, and who gradually changes from a man whose strongest emotion is love for his wife to one whose bloodlust and only motivating desire is to wreak some terrible vengeance on the betrayer whose duplicity placed him behind prison bars.

The background is entirely new, too, for this is not a prison picture. The few months spent in a prison camp are those in which Robinson changes to a man intent only on revenge, but they form merely a chapter in the unfolding of a tensely dramatic theme whose backgrounds are found in the love of a man for his wife, the opencountenanced villainy of as slimy a heavy as the screen has known, and the roaring inferno of oil well shooter who is recognized by a former shipmate, Gene Lockhart, who turns in an admirable performance as the betrayer. Once Robinson has shaken off the pursuit of prison authorities, he goes about the grim and, in a final dramatic climax, terrifying business of meting out a fiery and a just vengeance upon his betrayer.
