DEMOCRATS URGE AID FOR ALLIES

Harmony Prevails At State Party Convention

Meeting in Roanoke, Virginia's Democratic Convention adopted on June 14, a foreign policy platform rewritten to demand "speedy aid to the Allies to the fullest extent of our resources." This uncompromising, unqualified statement was adopted amid cheers after a proposal that "all aid short of war be extended" was rejected.

Virginia's delegation, mustering 22 votes in the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago, will go aninstructed, The firected in vote as a unit on issues that win a ma-jority of its votes. The unit rule may also be discarded if a majority of the delegation so votes.

Highlights of the Convention were: The keynote speech by State Sen-ator John W. Carter, of Danville, avoiding the third-term issue, and advocating "arming to the teeth" against foreign agression. "Let me warn you that if England and France fall victims to the hordes, planning the destruction of London, we are next on the list", Senator Carter thundered.

A ringing address by Senator Harry and Pacific, mechanized equipment second to none, a powerful air force, and a trained army. Virginia's junior U. S. Senator said that the State and nation must have "total prepare-dness", and must realize that "we now are not prepared for war". Senator Byrd, an advocate, has never voted against a defense appropriation, it should be noted. He warned the convention that America might have to send "not one million, not two million, but many millions of men", to regain econquered portions of Eu-
