MANASSAS, VIRGINIA THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1941.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR

PURCHASE DEAL IS COMPLETED

Electric Co-operative Takes Over Bull Run Power Company.

On Tuesday of this week, the Bull Run Power Company legally ceased operations and all assets of the Bull Run Power Company were purchased by the Prince William Electric Co-operative. The Co-operative proposes to complete construction of the new generating plant already well under way and to expand its system as rapidly as possible to include construction of 200 additional miles of line in Prince William, Stafford, and Fauquier counties. A loan of $325,000 from the United States Government acting through the Rural Electrification Association makes this possible. Up until the time of this legal transfer of properties the Co-operative has been able to take no positive action on this plan which has been widely publicized, because approval of the transaction by the State Corporation Commission of Virginia had not been given until last week.

The agreement covering the sale of the Company's assets provided for the purchase of all assets of the Bull Run Power Company which had not been financed already by the Rural Electrification Administration. The value of this property which was acquired by the Co-operative was appraised at $80,307.19. Of this total which the new co-operative is paying for the system, $42,994.27 will go to pay off current notes payable of the company with an additional $918.54 for interest due on these notes as of the closing date. An additional item $2,671.63 covering back taxes payable will be paid by the Co-operative and $22,420.40 will pay off current accounts payable. In addition $2,419.05 will be placed in escrow by the Co-operative pending settlement of a dispute between the Bull Run Power Company and one of the note holders.

The additional $2,419.05 will be paid directly to the Bull Run Power Company and will be divided among the stockholders of the Company in accordance with the proportionate holding of stock. The Bull Run Power Company is also retaining $11,692.87 in Accounts Receivable which is collected in full or in part will go to the credit of the stockholders. It is estimated that of this total of $80,307.19 over sixty-five per cent will go to local note holders and debtors of the company. The Prince William Electrical Co-operative in addition to paying the above expenses is assuming indebtedness to the United States Rural Electrification Administration of $303,000 in loans made previously to the Bull Run Power Company.

The new co-operative is organized and will be operated along the principles which the Rural Electrification Administration has found very successful in the operation of its 750 co-operative projects throughout the country. The consumers of the company are its members and stockholders. Once each year they elect in their annual meeting the directors and officers of the co-operative whose term of office runs for a period of one year. These officers and directors will within the limitations of the loan contracts with the government exercises control over the management of the company to see that the best operating results possible are obtained in the interest of efficient and economical service to the members of the Co-operative.

The Co-operative has established a membership fee of $3.00 which is required of all consumers, and at the same time discontinued the collection of the $3.00 meter deposit. Consumers now receiving service will be requested within the next few days to authorize transfer of their meter deposit to the membership fee and will then be sent their membership certificates, so no additional collection of fees will be required of these consumers. Each new consumer will be required to pay the $3.00 membership fee in place of the meter deposit which has been required by the company.

The present officers and directors of the Co-operative are representatives of the various sections of the project. James B. Cross of Chifton, president; Francis Van Doren, of Manassas-R. F. D., vice-president; John M. Piercy, Haymarket as secretary-treasurer with Mrs. Audrey Kern, of Broad Run and Mr. Charles Cornwall, of Buckhall, comprising the balance of the directors of the Co-operative. These directors serve without com-

RED CROSS WANTS VOLUNTEER HELP

The Production Committee of the Prince William County Chapter of the American Red Cross will have a sewing room open each Thursday afternoon at the Home Economics Cottage of the Osbourn High School to cut and sew on war relief garments for Great Britain.

Anyone interested in volunteering their services for this needed work will find something to do that will be of great help.

DR. COCKE HEADS ALUMINUM DRIVE

Citizens Urged to Turn in Unused metal.

Dr. George B. Cocke, prominent business man, of Manassas, has been designated chairman of Prince William County for the drive beginning July 21, to secure unused aluminum for national defense.

In Virginia Governor Price has asked the Eight Regional Defense Councils of the state to supervise this campaign, but it is the people in the cities, towns and rural areas who must make this campaign a success, which will undoubtedly be done through the direction work of their local committees headed by local chairmen and supported by their patriotic citizenry.

This used aluminum is urgently needed because, for example, you can't make bombers without aluminum and $350,000,000 has been allocated for new plants to make big bombers. 90 per cent of the weight of an airplane today is aluminum. In addition, it is essential in the production of very many other weapons without which our own defense, not to mention help to Britain will be wholly inadequate. Production of raw aluminum in this country pumped 70 per cent in 1940 over 1939, and 1941 will show a great increase; but the demands have increased in far greater proportion.

Housewives who are ignorant of which of their utensils are wholly or in part made of aluminum are asked to consult their local department stores or hardware dealers for accurate information.

In addition to pots and pans, aluminum also is found in washing machine parts, vacuum cleaners, electric appliances, refrigerator plates, measuring cups, bottle and jar caps, toys and many other articles. In used cars aluminum is a large part of crank cases, differential housings, brakes, footplates, etc. Householders and others are urged to begin now to assemble their cast-off and used aluminum articles so that they will be ready when the Boy Scouts and other collectors call sometime between July 21 and July 29.

MAYOR DAVIS ADDRESSES LAKE JACKSON CABIN OWNERS

At a dinner in the Pavillion at Lake Jackson last Saturday night, Mayor Harry Davis, of Manassas, was the principal speaker. His subject was on the relation of Lake Jackson residents and property owners with Manassas and Prince William County generally. He stressed the substantial taxes these folks pay to the County each year and the small benefits they derive from such taxes.

He suggested they organize in an effort to get some of the roads at the Lake into the Secondary System of the State Highway. Also to develop some plan of police protection. Mayor Davis' remarks were impressive and cordial and received with appreciation by all the property owners present. The Mayor was received as a member of the Association, of which there are about a hundred members.

compensation in the interest of the betterment of their general community and the interest of bringing eventually to all the community the benefits of cheaper electricity.

The annual meeting for the new co-operative will be held in late November each year at which all members of the Co-operative will have the opportunity to express their approval of the operation in open meeting and in the election of directors and officers for the coming year.

Headquarters of the new Co-operative will be at Manassas, at the same location as the Bull Run Power Company and consumers will continue to pay their bills and conduct any other matters of business at this same location.

WILLIAM H. HAYDON

Mr. William Henry Haydon, one of the most highly esteemed and beloved citizens of Prince William County, died at his home here on Friday, July 11, after an illness of only a few days following a fall in which he had sustained severe injuries.

Mr. Haydon would have been 90 years of age on August 16, having been born at Thorborton, in the County of Devonshire, England, in 1851. He was educated at Cambridge University and came to Canada at the age of twenty. Later he moved to The Springs, near Warrenton, where he met and married Miss Edith P. Hayes. About twelve years ago Mr. and Mrs. Haydon celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary and two years ago the observance of their sixtieth anniversary was a notable social event in the County.

Mr. and Mrs. Haydon moved from Fauquier County, Virginia, to Montgomery County, Md., where Mr. Haydon operated a large dairy farm for several years, and forty-seven years ago they came to Prince William County to their present home.

Mr. Haydon was a man of fine physical and mental power and a dynamic force throughout his long life, being active until the last few days. He possessed to a remarkable degree the outstanding characteristics of a true English gentleman, loving fair play, ready at a moment to fight for what he knew to be right, bluntly outspoken in his honest convictions and so remarkable in personality that he enjoyed an especially wide friendship which not only included those he met in his daily activities, but also many who were very prominent in State and National affairs. Among these were former Governor Fitzhugh Lee, Congressman Rixey and President Theodore Roosevelt, whom he entertained and took turkey shooting.

One of Mr. Haydon's outstanding characteristics was his helpfulness to his friends and neighbors, many of whom recall his frequent acts of kindness, not only under circumstances where his great physical strength was involved, but because of his fine mechanical ability in improvising immediate cures for the ailments to which farm machinery is afflicted. And it is recorded, in memory of his physical prowess, that he had the temerity under a challenge to all bystanders, to enter the ring with the great pugilist John L. Sullivan, knocking him down in a friendly bout before he himself was fully worsted.

It was characteristic of Mr. Haydon's loyalty to friends, ideals and country, that he never relinquished his English citizenship. He was presented to two of Queen Victoria's children, the late King Edward VII. and Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, and was a guest at the British Embassy on the occasion of the visit of the King and Queen of England. He died a British subject, a circumstance which further endeared him to his Virginia friends and neighbors, who, after all are fundamentally English.

Mr. Haydon is survived by Mrs. Haydon, and by nine children, a daughter, Lucy Rebecca, having died on Christmas day, 1925. The nine surviving children are William Henry, Jr., Washington, D. C.; Francis Edward, Arlington; Edith M., Washington; Nina Helen (Mrs. C. Wade-Dalton), Walter Marshall, Professor Richard Challice, of Manassas; Lt. Col. Percy Stuart, U. S. A., Fort Riley, Kansas; Dorothy Charlotte (Mrs. Wheatley Johnson).

Funeral services were held in Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas, on Sunday, June 13, and interment was in the family lot at the Manassas Cemetery. Rev. A. Stuart Gibson officiated.

Five sons, and a son-in-law (Mr. C. Wade-Dalton) served as pallbearers, the sixth son, Col. Percy Haydon being prevented by illness. Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. C. C. Lynn, Percival Lewis, Frances Lewis, E. R. Conner, J. Carl Kincheloe, Richard Hynson, David Arrington, Hawes Davies, sr., and C. H. Seeley.

Three brothers and three sisters also survive, Challice and John Traies, of Manassas; the Misses Ada and Jane, of Washington; and Mrs. Anders Bull, of Townsberg, Norway.

Thirteen grandchildren and a great-grand child also survive.

Relatives from a distance who were present at the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roe, Mr. and Mrs. John Stokes, Sudlersville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, Chestertown, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baden, and son Roy, of Baden, Md.; Mr. P. G. Hayes, Mr. E. O. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Hayes, of Warrenton, Va.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alpaugh, of Arlington.

MR. HAZEN'S FUNERAL

According to latest official advice from Washington, the funeral cortege bearing the body of the late Commissioner Melvin C. Hazen is due to arrive at the cemetery here at slightly before 3 p.m.

EXPIRES AT DESK WHILE AT WORK

Commissioner M. C. Hazen Had Expressed Desire to Retire Shortly.

To say that Prince William is in mourning is but a poor expression of the genuine grief felt at the passing of one its truly great men, Melvin Colvin Hazen, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, a native son "who went to the big city and made good".

It was just two years ago that hundreds of his friends, both in the metropolitan center and in this county, journeyed to the observance of his golden anniversary in office. Mrs. Hazen was yet alive to share his joy and the occasion was probably the high point in Mr. Hazen's long life of service to his adopted city.

He never lost his longing for the great outdoors, maintaining a fine home where he came for week ends and on special occasions. He always started off the hunting season with a fine day in fields with Sheriff Kerlin, his life long friend and admirer.

He was born on October 27, 1869, the son of Charles Wesley and Mary Colvin Hazen. After getting his primary schooling here, he matriculated at Maryland U. from whence he graduated in 1888, coming back to the county to teach one year in the lower section. He secured a position in the Surface Division of the Municipal Engineering Corps where he served until 1933, having been advanced to assistant District Surveyor in 1905 and then to Surveyor in 1907, upon the death of his chief. During the period that he served as District Surveyor practically all of the lines of the city were either re-run or newly established, and all of the more important city changes made on lines furnished by his office.

On October 22, 1896, he married Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Curtis and Lydia Faunce Smith. The couple had no children and this was the great tragedy of Mel Hazen's life. He loved young people and possessed a truly paternal spirit. Sportsmen of this area will also regret his passing for he was a foremost organizer in hunt clubs and loved to have friends come to his country estate and ride his fine horses. He indulged in many other civic activities and rendered various patriotic duties during his useful life. He had a wonderful mind for organizing and too often were the citizens of Washington prone to impose on this fact.

After his wife's death in the late fall of 1939, Mr. Hazen seemed to lose his grip. His old smile was but a shadow of his former self; ill health set in and weeks at a time were spent in a hospital. Finally his friends prevailed on him to retire and his desire not to serve a third term had already indicated itself in a memorandum to President Roosevelt.

Tomorrow Washington, from the highest officials to the humblest citizen, will mark time and assemble to pay homage to a man who has meant so much to its citizens of all ranks and color. Then the cortege will come here in the late afternoon to place him beside the wife he loved so well and with whom he lived almost a half century. It will be a state funeral for a citizen of the most retiring nature, one who would never have countenanced such pomp for himself while yet living and yet who can say that it is not proper to so honor a man who has meant so much to his county, state and nation.

The Journal with bowed head, unites with Prince William County, in saying "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into thine eternal reward".

LOSE SOFTBALL CONTEST

The Manassas Softball Team, headed by Messrs. C. W. Staggs and E. G. Parrish, journeyed to Culpeper last night. They came back a few hours later, badly trimmed by a score of 13-2. Someone suggested that the pitching staff of Culpeper was good enough to stage a semi-pro game.

LAKE JACKSON POOL IS OPEN

We are advised by the owners of Lake Jackson swimming pool that the pool was closed a part of last week for the purpose of cleaning and refilling and is now open to the public, whose patronage is appreciated. All samples of water from the pool sent to the State Board of Health have been approved.

KIWANIS TEAM IN FIRST PLACE

Goes into Lead by Virtue of Close Win over Fire Dept.

The Kiwanis softball team took over the first place position in the Community League in landing the Fire Department. A 8-7 licking. The winners were held to five hits, but were given five bases on balls to cause the downfall of the Fire Department.

The American Legion team banged out 20 hits to hand the Chamber of Commerce its sixth loss in seven games by the score of 13-5. Each player of the winners collected at least two bits apiece with the exception of J. Bolding, who got one hit. Fair and Worley led the stick-work for the losers.

LEGION TO SPONSOR FLAG DISPLAY PLAN

The Prince William Post of the American Legion is planning to sponsor a uniform flag display for the business and residential sections of the town of Manassas. To initiate this plan Legionnaire M. S. Burchard appeared before the town council at its last meeting and explained the program and asked endorsement and co-operation. The proposal was quickly adopted and the town manager was authorized to assist in the arrangement of the flags and the installation of the street sockets. The plan involves placing a standardized flag on twelve-foot poles at equal distances along the main business streets and at least one similar flag in front of each residence in the town. Iron sockets are to be placed in the sidewalks and lawns so that the flags can be quickly set up and removed when needed, and still be securely supported when in place. Already several business men have expressed approval and willingness to assist in this inexpensive and uniform method of patriotic decoration which has already been adopted in so many cities throughout the country. By getting quantity prices and the co-operation of every citizen is expected. While the Legion committee will endeavor to call on everyone in town as soon as possible to present the matter, those wishing to help may call any of the members. More details of the plan, names of the committees in charge will be announced later.

HENRIETTA TRAVERS

Henrietta Travers, colored, who lived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hall, formerly of Manassas, passed away July 5, at the residence of Mrs. Maude Hall Arrington of 307 Masonic View ave., Alex. Henrietta, well known by both colored and white in the vicinity of Manassas, when a little girl of six years old, roaming the streets of Brentsville, homeless and without friends was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall while living on a farm near Bristow.

The family later moving into Manassas where they resided until the death of Mrs. Hall in 1929 after which time she made her home with Mrs. Maude Hall Arrington. Henrietta was always known to be a faithful Christian girl, glad at all times to do something for others. Her devotion to the family was touching beyond words. Stricken Thursday with an attack of acute indigestion medical aid and a train nurse were constantly in attendance but of no avail and she passed away Saturday at 2 p. m. Mrs. Arrington, Mr. Hall and other members of the family were all at the bedside of Henrietta during her illness to the last. Services were conducted from Wheatley's funeral parlor Monday afternoon by Rev. Adkins, colored pastor of the Alfred St. Baptist Church, Alex. Remains were laid to rest in a vault in the Warrenton Cemetery near the ones she loved who had passed on before. The many floral pieces were an expression of the deep appreciation in which Henrietta was held.

DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP, WAIT FOR HELP

With amphibious America at the midsummer peak of the greatest year in the history of water sports, the American Red Cross points out that scores of lives can be saved if boating enthusiasts will "stick to the capsized boat—don't try to swim ashore".

The average submerged rowboat or canoe will support as many as four persons until help arrives, according to the Red Cross. In the confusion of capsizing, lives are lost every year when victims attempt to swim ashore.

- To those participating in water sports—whether it be boating, swimming or fishing—the Red Cross urges enthusiasts to observe the following "A, B, C's" of water safety:
1. Swim near the shore where a few strokes will bring you to safety.
 2. Wait two hours after eating before entering the water.
 3. Dive only into water of known depth and condition.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

The Christian Science Board of Directors, in Boston, Mass., announce that a Christian Science radio program will be given over the Columbia Church of the Air on Sunday, July 20, 12 to 12:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

This program will be conducted by Dr. Frank F. Bunker, committee on Publication for the District of Columbia, and may be heard locally over Station WJWS, Washington.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Life" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 20.

The Golden Text will be "The Lord will command his loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life" (P. 42:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved" (Ps. 66: 8, 9).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in or of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other consciousness" (p. 264).

FARM AGENCIES TO CO-ORDINATE UNDER DEFENSE PROGRAM

In view of the important role of agriculture in national defense and the necessity of co-ordinating the efforts of all U. S. Department of the Agriculture agencies with other defense agencies, Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard has called for the establishment in each county of a U. S. Department of Agriculture Defense Board which, through its chairman, will be responsible to a state agricultural defense board. The state board will be responsible to the Secretary.

The members of the board in each county will be the head officers of representatives located in the county of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Farm Security Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Rural Electrification Administration, Extension Service, and constituent agencies of the Farm Credit Administration.

The state board will be composed of a principal field officer of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Surplus Marketing Administration, Agricultural Marketing Service, and the state director of Extension, in addition to the agencies from which membership of county boards is drawn.

The defense program has added enormously to the duties of the USDA, and it has caused and will cause in the future many changes and developments in the programs administered by the department, says Secretary Wickard. To co-ordinate our tasks in the field as these efforts relate to national defense is urgently essential.

The secretary has authorized state boards to confer with, advise, and arrange co-operation with other defense agencies having state or local offices, and to arrange for maximum co-operation of all USDA field personnel in defense undertakings. Other specific functions will be assigned from time to time. Specific defense assignments will be given individual USDA agencies, but information about these assignments will be given the state board and the board will be responsible for seeing that all USDA field personnel in fully informed and enabled to co-operate. The state and county boards are expected to report to the Secretary field problems and developments that affect the progress of defense efforts.

Creation of the boards does not alter the normal functioning of the agencies involved in carrying out their non-defense responsibilities. All agencies and employees are asked to incorporate with their regular work the emergency responsibilities of defense. The action creates machinery through which defense responsibilities can be met quickly and efficiently.

Words: Their Power and Beauty

He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.—Psalms 107:20.

Among the sources of those innumerable calamities which from age to age have overwhelmed mankind, may be reckoned as one of the principal, the abuse of words.—George Horne.

Without knowing the force of words, it is impossible to know men.—Confucius.

Whatever weighs in the eternal scale of equity and mercy tips the beam on the right side, where the immortal words and deeds of men alone can settle all questions amicably and satisfactorily.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Words, like fine flowers, have their colours too.—Ernest Rhys.

I love smooth words, like gold-enamel ed fish

Which circle slowly with a silken swish,

And tender ones, like downy-feathered birds!

Words shy and dappled, deep-eyed deer in herds.—Elinor Wylie.

TEN THOUSAND NURSES TO ENROLL WITH SERVICE

More than 10,000 of America's nurses will be serving with the Army or Navy within the next year. Miss Mary Beard, national director, American Red Cross Nursing Service, predicts. The authorized total of the Army Nurse Corps alone for the 1942 fiscal year is 8,237, she pointed out. Miss Beard requested all qualified registered nurses to enroll immediately in the Red Cross First Reserve of Nurses. This reserve, which furnishes the Army and Navy Nurse Corps with competent personnel and is the source for nurses needed in Red Cross disaster relief work, now totals 24,000 nurses.

"As a result of the national defense program", Miss Beard added, "there is an acute need for more women and girls to take up nursing as a career. To help meet this need the American Red Cross this summer is sponsoring the Red Cross Nurses Training Camp at Bryn Mawr College, where 200 women college graduates will be trained as professional nurses in a shorter time than the usual 36 months.

"I cannot urge too strongly that all young women give immediate and careful thought to the possibility of entering nursing schools this year. Various steps are being taken to increase the student body capacity of these schools".

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

Who knoweth thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this.—Esther 4:14.

WILLIAM HENRY HAYDON

Nearly half a century ago there came to Prince William County with his lovely family an Englishman of unusual personality and charm. Powerful in physical strength, strong in mental equipment, delightfully outspoken and frank in conversation, loyal in friendship, he typified all those endearing characteristics which today make the land of his birth the hope of the world in the fight which is now being waged throughout the world to preserve human freedom.

Last week this fine old Englishman, at the age of ninety years, passed to his final rest, leaving a very wide circle of sorrowing relatives and friends. In his death our County loses one of its most beloved citizens, and we, among a host of others, mourn the decease of a dear friend who for many years had been a constant source of inspiration.

Were we to select from treasures of poetry an appropriate epitaph for William Henry Haydon, we would quote these lines:

"Let me live, O Mighty Master
Such a life as mine should know;
Tasting triumph and disaster,
Joy, and not too much of woe.
Let me run the gamut over;
Let me fight and love and laugh;
And when I'm beneath the clover,
Let this be my epitaph:
Here lies one who took his chances
In the busy world of men,
Battled luck and circumstances,
Fought and fell and fought again.
Won sometimes, but did no crowing,
Lost sometimes but did not wail,
Took his beatings but kept going,
Never let his courage fail.
Kept his spirit undiminished,
Never lay down on a friend,
Played the game till it was finished,
Lived a sportsman to the end".

These are small words but they are large in their application to happiness and security.

"So I decided to have a checking account of my own"

"My husband always had the 'family account' and drew checks for all the bills. It was inconvenient for both of us and it complicated our record-keeping. We talked it over and I decided to have an account of my own. It's working out wonderfully well!"

VIRGINIA LOSES A GREAT ENGINEER

The State of Virginia has suffered a very distinct loss in the sudden passing of Hon. Harry Shirley, state highway expert, who has had charge of the development of the present highway system from a mere paper proposition to its present excellent and comprehensive status.

Back in the early days of highway work when engineers were building cement roads with a five inch crown and using hairpin curves that still exist in some of our Southern states and set the average motorist's hair on end, Harry Shirley came through with the "tangent" method, eschewing steep grades and going to the front by setting a maximum for any concrete grade.

It was under his charge that laboratories were set up and engineers directed to make scientific studies to secure the best results in use of engineering materials and set up standards for selection of the best materials. He planned and urged legislation to preserve our roads under ever increasing strains of traffic and to construct such cross section as would best meet the new conditions.

It was a pleasure to know Harry Shirley and visits to his offices were always cheerful, interesting and instructive. He was a Virginia gentleman of the old school that will be keenly missed in official circles. The work he has done will live on as a monument to a great mind.

KIWANIS NOTES

In spite of a rather meager attendance on Friday evening the Kiwanis Club had a very enjoyable meeting. "Charlie" Alpaugh made an impassioned plea for the club to get behind the building of a safe bridge over Bland's Ford. The Club promised to put its shoulder to the wheel of this matter.

Fred Hynson presented a program on "Stimulation of Rural Trade". One remark is worthy of public notice. He said that just as there is a bounty on predatory animals, there should be a bounty offered to all children who would bring in their parents mail-order catalogs. The local merchant is expected to furnish the service while the articles are brought from the mail-order house. Fred's whole program was worthy of being published for wider enjoyment than the small group in the Club.

OLD COIN FOUND AT CENTREVILLE

Mr. Shreve Woltz this week found an interesting old coin, apparently British, dated 1813, which carried on one side the head of George III, and the inscription, "Georgius III, D G. Rex."

On the reverse side the inscription reads: "Colonies OF ESSEQUEBO & DEMARARY TOKEN—1813—HALF STIVER".

HAVE PLEASANT OUTING

Some seventy members of Prince William Council, Daughters of American and their friends, journeyed to Marshall Hall, via the Wilson line last Friday evening.

The clouds hid the moon most of the evening but the bright lights of the shore were so attractive that several just slipped over the gang plank as it was being hauled in. Also, they had an operatic star along, who made the trip on the bus quite pleasant.

Sheriff Kerlin returned this morning from Winchester where he has been in attendance at the annual meeting of all Virginia sheriffs.

He reports about 75 counties represented. A very instructive meeting was held. Resolutions were passed endorsing the administration of President Roosevelt; also resolutions recommending abolition of the fee system; another requesting the Governor to appoint a committee to appoint a commission to study the code, to revise and eliminate laws that cause conflict in their duties.

Several eminent jurists spoke last night, including Judge McCarthy. Senator Byrd spoke also. State Senator Harris was toastmaster. Others from here were Hon. Hill Brown and Hon. E. R. Conner, who went as the guests of Sheriff Kerlin.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

E. W. Sheets, formerly with the Bureau of Animal Industry, makes the following recommendations for obtaining foundation animals for a purebred beef animal breeding herd: "Choose a breed that you admire most and believe best suited to your conditions, provided that the section in which you live has not already adopted some other breed. Co-operate with your neighbors in developing one breed for your community. Select good registered purebred foundation animals with good breeding back of them. If possible, see the foundation animals dams and sires. Read a history of your chosen breed. Become familiar with the individuals and blood lines which have been instrumental in building up the breed. Much valuable information may be obtained from the secretary of the national association of the breed you select. Subscribe to the official journal of the association of the breed chosen. A score card of the breed you are interested in will be useful. Select a bull that will improve the offspring of the females. Attend breed shows and sales. Benefit from the experiences of successful breeders."

We were not sent here
Just to play, to dream, to drift,
We all have our work to do
And many burdens to help lift.

Do not grumble, fret, or moan,
Or hang your head in shame,
Be strong enough to admit
That you were partly to blame.

Be strong, be kind, and brave
God is good, and kind, and true,
Let's not give up the struggle
As God will see us through.

Luttrell on Thursday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock with about 35 members and several visitors present. The worship program was conducted by Mrs. L. M. We were pleased to see the parsonage looking so attractive after the improvements that have been recently made.

LOCAL BOYS IN SOAP BOX DERBY

Manassas and Prince William were on the map Saturday when seven boys from here raced their cars in the annual Soap Box Derby on the Pennsylvania ave. course in S. E. Washington. Competition was keen as over two hundred boys from the District and vicinity tested their skill. From Manassas went Gary Allen driving "Scram"; Robert DeChant in "The Ghost"; Fred Dowell in his Blue Ridge Bullet; and Bo LaMarr in "Scat Cat". Guy Garman, Alan Spittler and Johnny Owens also had cars in the Derby and each came in second in his race. All of the boys were given white jerseys and turret top steel helmets. Every Manassas boy won his first race and received a medal award. Fred Dowell won his race in the quarter finals but was eliminated in the semi-finals. Bo LaMarr made the best showing of all the local boys, winning three races and being eliminated in the Class A Pre-finals. In addition to his medal, Bo won a cup and a deep sea fishing outfit, and also a wrist watch for taking second place in car design.

The boys built their own cars, working on them in spare time for the past several months. The cars were on exhibition at Hynson and Bradford Chevrolet dealers last week. The local Chevrolet dealer, the Chevrolet Motor Company, and Chevrolet dealers all over the country are sponsors for the Soap Box Derby, which is a nation-wide event. Hynson and Bradford took the racers to Washington in a truck and brought them home after the races.

Mr. Lamb of the Journal has taken a photo of the boys in their cars at the Chevrolet garage. This photo will appear in the Journal next week; watch for it. The boys have every reason to be proud of their showing. They are already making plans for next year's races. It is the ambition of every boy to go to Akron, O.; some day, where the national championships are run. Gene Beane, of Washington, Saturday's winner, is the lucky boy will represent this section at Akron in August.

During the business session the chairman of the History Committee, reported satisfactory progress being made in the sale of the recently published "History of Prince William", more than half of the total number published having been sold.

The program consisted of a delightful exhibit and descriptive talk of his hobby, the collection of army insignia, by Roswell Round, jr., who, having been reared in army circle, proved quite an authority on the subject.

After delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, the meeting adjourned to meet in August with Mrs. Wheatley Johnson and Mrs. William Pierson. Mrs. R. B. Larkin

Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. Bettie Carter and Mrs. A. C. Hart will have charge of the program at this time.
