BILLS WILL BE LAW NEXT WEEK

Governor Darden Has Many Appointments Yet To Make

On and after midnight, June 26th citizens of Virginia will have approximately 350 new pieces of legislation to familiarize themselves with, as on that all the bills passed by the last General Assembly which had no emergency clause and no other date designated, will become law.

Of the total number of 485 passed by the General Assembly, 114 were emergency acts, a dozen or more effective July 1, and the balance have specified dates, the majority being scheduled for January 1, 1943.

On or before July 1 Governor Darden will have the responsibility of making forty-odd appointments authorized by the General Assembly under their various acts of re-organization. These will include members of the State Highway Commission, one from each construction district and the chairman to serve at large (under the present law there are five members); a chairman and nine members of the Game and Inland Fisheries Commission; a chairman and four members of the Conservation Commission; four of the five members of the Commission of Fisheries; four of the five members of the Board of Corrections; a commissioner and seven members of the Board for the Department of Mental Hygiene; a superintendent of the Department of State Police and a committee of three circuit judges to set the salary of trial justices. The Governor has already designated C. F. Joyner, Jr. as Director of the Department of Corrections; Rice Youell as Commissioner of the Department of Corrections; General James A. Anderson as Highway Commissioner and C. M. Lankford, Jr. as Commissioner of Fisheries, all to become effective July 1.

Some of the new laws of general interest becoming effective June 27th, are as follows:

LEGION SEEKING TO GET PHONOGRAPH RECORDS

Thirty-five million hundred worn out, broken or obsolete phonograph records has been set as the goal for the American Legion in its plan to furnish new and up to date record music for our fighting men.

The plan has just been announced by the National Executive committee and has been approved by the Executive Committee of the local Legion post and committees appointed to get the scrap music record collection going.

The national plan in which the local group are cooperating involves the trading in to the manufacturers of these 35,000,000 old and broken records for which the Legion will get about three million new and up to date records which will be distributed to every camp in the United States and every foreign country where our soldiers, sailors and marines are stationed. These will be sent out each month so that our fighting men will be assured of new records all the time. The local committee of the American Legion will distribute placards explaining the campaign to stores in every community in the county and asks that everybody help this worthy plan by bringing in all their old and obsolete records and placing them in the boxes which will be provided. The Legionnaires will collect them, ship them to assembly plants and arranged them to tribulation of the new records to the camps and ships as they are needed.

MANASSAS MAKES GOOD SHOWING

Manassas has shipped out approximately 70 tons in the collection drive, according to E. G. Parrish, chairman of the county petroleum industries committee.

"Service station operators all over the country," said Mr. Parrish, "are urging all citizens to bring in all articles of discarded rubber. They are donating their services of collectors of scrap rubber in response to the President's call."

"We can, we must retrieve every scrap of rubber in this county and place in the hands of Uncle Sam."

"BLACK-OUT" BABY

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Czapp are the parents of the only "black-out" baby in the county. Elizabeth Martha, the new arrival, was born during the evening of June 17th. (1:10 A. M.)

The youngster weighed seven and one half pounds.

Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Chairman War Savings Committee The Peoples National Bank Manassas, Virginia

Dear Mr. Ratcliffe:

Congratulations on your fine report of the sale of War Bonds in Prince William County! We only wish that all our counties could exceed their quotas as far as you did. Keep up the good work on your June quota!

VIRGINIA TIRE LAW SOON EFFECTIVE

Dealers And Individuals Restrained By Regulation

Virginia, and not the Federal Government, has taken a hand in the used tire situation. As early as last winter it was perfectly evident to the General Assembly that the tire situation would become very serious, and the legislature passed a law, effective next Friday night at midnight, which makes it a misdemeanor for any person or firm to purchase a used tire from an agency other than a regular dealer, except by certificate.

Dealers are required by the new law to report within 10 days to the law enforcement officers of the community.

"If any dealer" the law reads, "acquire by purchase, gift or otherwise any new or used motor vehicle tire, except upon a certificate from any State or Federal rationing board or agency and fails to file within ten days thereafter with the sheriff, sergeant, chief of police or other law enforcement officer of city, town or county wherein he resides designed by the Commonwealth to receive it, a written report setting forth the make, size, identification number, price paid and name, race and address of the person from whom the tire was acquired, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly."

This law was enacted only for the duration of the present war.

AMERICAN LEGION LEAGUE LEADERS

Kiwanis In Second Place In Soft Ball Contest

The American Legion Team continues to set the pace in the Softball League with 3 victories with no losses. In taking their third straight win the Legion defeated the improved Chamber of Commerce Team 13-4. Jacobs, S. Vetter and Saunders hit homers during the contest.

The second place Kiwanians downed the Fire Department 16-8 with Byrd, Papa, and Bolding lead the stickwork for the winners. The pitching of Beeton who replaced Douglas on the mound was the highlight of the game. A. Conner and E. Whetzel starred at bat for the losers.

PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Manassas, Virginia

June 24, 1942

VERY IMPORTANT MESSAGE: TO ALL RETAILERS IN MANASSAS (and elsewhere who see this message):

The United States Treasury Department has asked all Retailers in the United States to suspend regular sales for a short period of 15 minutes beginning July 1, 1942, during which 15 minutes all Retailers are requested to sell nothing except war savings stamps and bonds.

This Chamber has pledged wholehearted support on behalf of Manassas Retailers. It is believed that instead of this being a sacrifice, it is a definite opportunity for service. The Chamber respectfully urges every Retailer, not only in Manassas but wherever located, who sees this letter, to do their bit necessary to make this July 1st 12:00 o'clock noon "RETAILERS FOR VICTORY" campaign a success. Naturally this campaign will need the cooperation of every prospective patron, and it is confidently believed that every single citizen of this country will approve this idea and cooperate to make it successful.

Retailers are, of course, at liberty to make this period longer than 15 minutes if they so desire. The many Retailers who are now and have for sometime sponsored the idea of "make change" with savings stamps are doing commendable service, and this Chamber hereby extends its word of appreciation for this work.

Very sincerely yours,

Stanley A. Owens, Secretary

DARKER BLACKOUT FOR STATE NEXT TIME

Virginia's next state-wide blackout will have even less light than was shown last week, State Defense Co-ordinator J. H. Wyse stated. Factories including defense plants will close down or cover their lights, he said.

Last week, many plants pressed with war production kept their lights on and maintained production. Under a recent order received by state O. C. D. officials, regulations governing such plants will be more stringent. The new order states, "All manufacturing plants and establishments will comply with blackout instructions issued by the commanding general of the defense area in which they are located, even though this means a temporary cessation of production."

GRADUATING CLASS OF QUANTICO, (POST) SCHOOL

(Miss Hazel Van Anden, principal)

TO HEAD U. S. O. CAMPAIGN

Hon. E. R. Conner, Delegate to the Assembly for Prince William and Stafford has been chosen chairman of the Prince William drive for the Virginia State USO War Fund Campaign which will seek $407,000 to provide recreational facilities and other much-needed services for the men in our armed forces.

The campaign will get underway on June 1 and continue through July 4. To be named shortly by Mr. Conner are a publicity chairman, sub-chairman and other workers for the drive in this area.

Funds raised for the USO provide military clubhouses for American forces both in this country and abroad, camp shows, facilities for men in the service traveling and on maneuvers, distribution of books, and other aids to make life for the soldiers and sailors easier and happier.

Governor Colgate W. Darden, Jr. is honorary chairman of the Virginia drive, and John Stewart Bryan of Richmond. Heading the woman's committee is Mrs. Powell Glass of Lynchburg.

RED CROSS DOES EXCELLENT WORK

Local Chapter Reports Encouraging Results Along All Lines

At the Annual meeting, Prince William County Chapter, American Red Cross, held June 19th in Manassas, the encouraging reports of the year's accomplishments gave promise of the Chapter's ability to meet the enormous calls to be made upon it by national Headquarters for the 1942-1943 Arm to our men in active service and their families at home.

The local Chapter has not failed a single demand of the Home Service in Civilian Relief and Production Committees. Kits have been sent our men in action abroad.

Food, clothes and shoes given 44 needy families in our midst; classes taught in Aid Nutrition and Canteen work. The Chapter is desirous of establishing a Motor Corps which is not limited to War needs, but to permanent activities, 3 tables for use in the Recreation Pavilion at Fort Belvoir have been donated also a pretty afghan knit and presented to that unit by the 6th grade pupils of Nokesville School.

1529 garments have been knit and made by the Chapter and shipped to National Headquarters for use where ever desired. A supply of garments, layettes, etc is kept for immediate need in event of emergency in this County.

Mrs. Lloyd attended the recently held Chapter Workers Institute at Sweet Briar, where she was instructed along the lines of the required War Relief Program which the National Headquarters must maintain, that the service when needed at home or abroad by our fighting forces will not be found wanting.

The following officers and members of the Executive Board were re-elected: Mrs. William L. Lloyd, Chairman, Miss Loretta McGill, Vice-Chairman, The Rev. A. H. Shumate 2nd. Vice-Chairman, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Secretary and Mr. O. D. Waters, Treasurer.

CEILING PLACED ON MOST SERVICES

O. P. M. Announces Maximum Price Regulations

With the placing of a ceiling upon almost everything under the sun, except the one commodity (wages) which is primarily responsible for inflation, the Washington Office of Price Administration has announced a far reaching program of price regulation designed to prevent inflation.

On May 18 a general maximum price regulation was put into effect for retailers of "cost-of-living commodities." This order required that sellers charge prices no higher than the highest price which they charged during March, and that they post prices of a selected group of "cost-of-living" commodities.

On July 1, two very important additional regulations go into effect. These are (1) the order requiring that every person selling "cost-of-living" commodities at retail shall file with the local rationing board a statement showing his maximum price for each commodity, together with an appropriate description or identification of it; and further that he shall on the first of every month thereafter file the same information on each additional "cost-of-living commodity" sold by him for the first time during the month.

Also on July 1 comes the second order the new ceiling on Service Charges, limiting these to the highest charge for the same service last March. Professional services are exempted, such as those performed by doctors, lawyers, dentists and even barbers. And just as sellers of commodity prices are now required to file a statement with the local board, so all the servicing establishments must do the same by September 1, setting forth their highest prices as of last March.

And, presto! Automatically and without formality of any kind, all these establishments become automatically licensed to operate without the necessity of issuing any certificate. And then, as an enforcement weapon, any business establishment violating these regulations may be suspended for as long as 12 months, thus practically putting them out of business, or at least making it illegal for them to sell any of the services under O. P. A. regulation.

"It is recognized," Leon Henderson says in his general instructions No. 1, "that most of the local boards are not at this time prepared to perform all of these manifold duties in connection with the various rationing programs. Consequently during the interim period, until a adequate permanent staff and equipment can be provided, the local boards are being asked to perform only the most urgent tasks arising in the administration of the general maximum regulation."

In the meantime Congress apparently does not entirely approve of the gigantic O. P. A. program to put an army of price regulators on the federal payroll. For this week the House has cut the $200,000,000 requested by Mr. Henderson to $95,000,000, which still looks like a lot of money to the man in the street.

NEW CAFE OPENS IN GEORGETOWN, D. C.

One of Washington's newest and best restaurants had its formal opening last week. It is called the "Louisiana" and represents everything that its clientele could fall for.

J. T. Richards, the proprietor, is a native son of Louisiana, and has been in business in the Capitol area for the past ten years or more.

For a long time, he resided in Fairfax County, having purchased the old Lee farm at Bull Run. More recently he embarked in the cafe business and has acquired a name for being a master host.

For the convience of the public, Mr. Richards is running advertising which reminds the public of the exact location. Those entering Georgetown may go to the place by turning south at Wisconsin Avenue off "M" street.

Last but not least is the famous orchestra which Mr. Richards has contracted to play for his restaurant. It is a splendid drawing card.

PRINCE WILLIAM and COCKE'S PHARMACIES

THOMAS B. CLARKSON

Thomas B. Clarkson, 63, retired treasurer of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., died Monday afternoon at his home, at Brooklandville, Md. Death was due to a heart ailment, from which he had been suffering for sometime.

Entering the employ of the telephone company as a bookkeeper in 1898, Mr. Clarkson became paymaster in 1910, assistant treasurer in 1913 and treasurer in 1923. He retired in September of last year. While in the service of the company he saw the number of telephones in the District grow from 2,500 to more than 292,000.

Mr. Clarkson was born in Morrisville, Va., April 21, 1878, the son of Dr. Henry M. and Jennie S. Clarkson, and spent his boyhood in Haymarket, Va., where he received his early schooling. He died on the anniversary of his marriage to Miss Marie Thelin of Mount Washington, Md., on June 21, 1905.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two children, Mrs. W. Coles Hudgins, Annapolis, Md., and Henry M. Clarkson, Baltimore; three brothers, W. B. Clarkson, a retired vice president of the telephone company, and Karl Clarkson, both of Washington, and Lee M. Clarkson, Atlanta, Ga., and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Reading, Arlington, Va. and Mrs. T. Rose Robertson, Raleigh, N. C.

Funeral services were held at 2 P. M. Wednesday at the home in Brooklandville, followed by burial in Druid Hill Cemetery, Baltimore.

CHURCH WOMEN GATHERING CLOTHING FOR WAR SUFFERERS

The Women's Groups of the Church of the Brethren of this county are sponsoring a project which should interest not only Brethren women but also women of all denominations. The Brethren Service Committee together with the American Friends Service Committee has received a call for twelve tons of clothing for the needy in France and England. Already many tons of clothing including shoes and soap have been sent to England, but there is a great need for more clothing for the coming fall and winter. Woolen clothing shipped now to England and France will then be on hand when the cooler weather comes.

There are many places in the world where there is intense suffering, but because doors are closed, clothing cannot be sent. However, the children of Belgium and Greece, and elsewhere, are remembered. It is the purpose of the joint Committees to serve wherever there is cold and hunger and stressing need; to preserve life rather than to destroy it; and to build goodwill and brotherhood throughout the world.

Good used clean clothing is needed for men, women, and children. If you have clothing which you would like to share with those in need, please send it to one of the following. These persons have been designated to receive the clothing:

Mrs. E. E. Blough, Manassas, Va., Cannon Branch Church.
Mrs. Walter Flory, Nokesville, Va., Valley Church of Brethren.
Mrs. Will Wright, Nokesville, Va., Nokesville Church of Brethren.

FARMERS URGED TO SAVE NESTING GAME BIRDS

With the coming of the peak of the bobwhite quail nesting season farmers should be extraordinarily careful not to destroy the eggs of these ground nesting game birds, according to officials of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries. Nests and nesting birds can be protected by preventing dogs and cats from running at large and by using "flushing bars" or other devices to locate the quail before they are run over a mower, game officials point out.

The simplest type of flushing bar consists of a horizontal pole from which knotted ropes or pieces of chain are suspended. The pole is attached to the mower or to the team's harness in such a way that the ropes or chains are dragged well ahead of the mowing knives. With this device birds are flushed soon enough to allow the blades to be raised before passing over the nest. Quail frequently return and continue to incubate the eggs in a nest around which a small "island" of uncut vegetation is left.

Legumes Improve Soil, Attract Wildlife, Game Men Say

Keeping the soil covered with vegetation, especially legumes, improves the soil and provides food and cover for wildlife after principal crops have been harvested, according to biologists of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Harrowing cowpeas into wheat stubble and planting soybeans immediately after the wheat harvest, when a stand of clover or other legume is not already present, is recommended for both soil and wildlife conservation, received from a colored assailant. The experts agree. Wildlife technicians negro has not yet been apprehended.

have found that both cowpeas and soybeans are eaten by quail, turkeys, and other game, and when these crops are available many of the natural wildlife foods are saved until the critical late winter months.

Even when the cowpeas are cut for hay, wildlife men point out, enough of the plants will seed themselves to provide a valuable supplementary food supply for game birds.

If you're planning a TRAIN TRIP

...here are some hints that will help you—
and also help your country's war effort

Rail travel in wartime is definitely not "as usual." Like all railroads, Chesapeake and Ohio Lines are engaged in the biggest double-barrelled job in their history... handling increased civilian travel at the same time they carry the military traffic of total war.

People in war industries are traveling more... on necessary business. More folks are riding trains since war denied them new cars and tires. Troops are moving in greater and greater numbers. Increased war tempo demands increased essential travel. So, sometimes you won't find a railroad journey as simple and comfortable as it used to be... or as we should like it to be, as war needs come first. By following these suggestions, you'll be making travel easier for yourself... and, at the same time, you'll be serving your Uncle Sam.

THE VIRGINIA RESERVE MILITIA

There will shortly be organized in this County a unit of the Virginia Reserve Militia. These "Minute Men" are not to be confused with the present Virginia Protective Force, and they have a very important place in the present defense program. They are no part of "Civilian Defense," but will be provided with insignia and identification cards as a combat organization.

Adjutant General Waller is quoted as stating that the ranks of this Reserve Militia are open to men active enough to do half a day's hunting; the first prerequisite being that they know how to handle a gun and have a knowledge of the local terrain or geography. No physical examination will be necessary and the men will not be required to attend regular drills, but will be instructed in the kind of warfare they might be called to engage in. Emphasis is being placed on older men, on the theory that cool heads are especially needed in local protection from saboteurs, raiding parties or parachute invaders. Their job is armed combat until stronger forces can arrive.

The plan contemplates at least one Company in each County or City, consisting of a captain, a first-lieutenant, a second lieutenant and fifty enlisted men. Officers will be appointed by the Adjutant General of Virginia, upon recommendation of the local organizers, and each man will provide his own rifle or shot-gun, and ammunition, and must have a car capable of carrying five passengers at 40 miles per hour.

We urge our local sportsmen to watch the columns of this newspaper for additional information, particularly on when and where the initial effort to perfect this important organization will take place.

have been possible to have retained the African town, but we believe that it would have been bad military strategy to have diverted Russian aid in sufficient quantity to have saved Tobruk. The loss or gain of Tobruk is a mere incident, even if it does seem to expose Egypt to attack, but the loss of Russia as a military ally would be a disaster of the first magnitude.

When one realizes that there is likelihood of Japan making an attack upon the Russians in Siberia; of Japan overcoming the vital resistance of the Chinese; and finally when we consider that Japan may be allowed to cross India, without local resistance, in an effort to join hands with Hitler across the vast expanse of Asia; and when we see a systematic and apparently successful invasion of North America beginning through the Aleutian Island via Alaska. When we view the whole war picture we must recognize the fall of Tobruk as a regrettable, but a minor circumstance.

So far we are really only about ankle-deep in this war. In due time we will be up to our necks, and until the mighty power of the United States is fully enlisted in the war effort we may expect all sorts of temporary disasters like Tobruk. Indeed, like sturdy England, we also may lose many battles and keep on losing until finally we shall win the war.

THE OBSERVER SAYS

A few days ago the national Civilian Defense Office issued a statement which gives conclusive proof of the wisdom of the Virginia Blackout Law (Executive Order No. 69).

The Washington Headquarters issued a warning prohibiting State and local Civilian Defense officials from "instituting or threatening legal action against alleged violators of O. C. D. regulations." All proceedings of this nature, the order said, "must be handled through the Washington Office and must be specifically authorized by Washington."

However, our State Defense Coordinator, Mr. Wyse, has explained that this order in no way affects the enforcement of most of the regulations under which Virginia's defense program is carried out. With a very few exceptions, Mr. Wyse says, all necessary rules have been embodied in the Virginia law, and CAN THEREFORE BE ENFORCED BY STATE AND LOCAL OFFICERS.

States that have no local blackout law, and possibly the Virginia Counties adjacent to the national capital (Fairfax and Arlington, and Alexandria City) are probably badly muddled in their local Civilian Defense work, but Virginia, as a whole, is operating under an effective blackout law, and no matter what foolish or unwise pronouncements come out of Washington, the Old Dominion can, and will, effectively enforce the blackout precautions demanded by the United States Army.

The State-wide blackout which was so effectively carried out by Virginia on June 17 gave ample evidence that Virginians everywhere are giving serious and wholehearted cooperation. Arrests for violation will probably be necessary on specific cases but they will be few and far between because our state is 99 and 99 1/100 percent patriotic.

"MAC'S ERRORS GIVE REMINGTON VICTORY"

On June 21, 1942, the Manassas Baseball team went on the road to Remington and lost a tight 8 to 7 game. Henry Breen was given his first starting assignment and allowed only 8 hits but errors and poor fielding on fly balls gave the one run advantage to Remington.

Remington scored first with a walk and a home run. They scored a run in the third when a single and two errors cost the run. Manassas went ahead in the fourth when Vetter singled, Miller singled sending him to second and Houndswell singled for one run. A wild pitch sent a run in and Buddy Merchant singled to center to tie the game. Breen and Smith then singled for another run to go ahead. Posey walked and Wilt and Smith singled for a run in the sixth. Remington then scored four runs in the sixth and one in the seventh to win the game.

FOSTERS SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Thirty-one of the 35 projects of the National Youth Administration projects, participating in an eight-week safety campaign to eliminate accidents in all shops, now are tied for first place. Next week the winners will be announced.

Alfred Crew, Jr., an employee of the Silk Screen Project of the NYA in Richmond, has been declared the winner of the award offered for the best design for a safety poster to be distributed to all projects. Young Crew's poster was announced the best among nearly a hundred designs submitted by various projects.

Rallies were held at all work centers during the campaign which were addressed by leading safety authorities of the State; among them were T. A. Allen, an official of the Craddock-Terry Shoe Company, William M. Mullins, Chief of the Roanoke Fire Department; H. E. Fauntleroy, Professor of Industrial Safety at Virginia State College, and others equally prominent.

This accident elimination campaign was held by NYA simultaneously in all states, the avowed objective being the preservation of man-power for war production. The Virginia project with the best safety record during the drive, and also the winner of the best safety poster, will compete with similar winners in all other states for the national titles in both classes.

"FATHER" HAS HIS INNINGS AT THE KIWANIS CLUB

The Manassas Kiwanis club added another member to the fold last Friday evening when D. L. Mitchell got a two-edged welcome from Kiwanians Royer and Graham. Usually a neophyte only has to stand for one "coming over". It was done so cleverly, however, that the new Kiwanian came through as if nothing at all had happened out of the way.

The Club incidentally had its first "100%" attendance for some months.

Fred Hynson unveiled some good and bad predictions in laying out the program for the second half of the year.

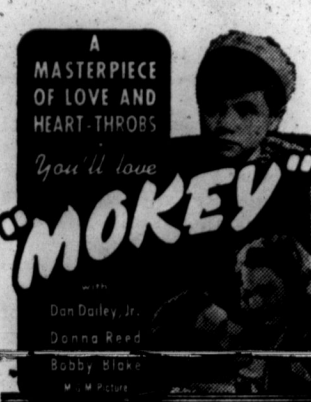

At this point, P. A. Lewis took over the program and introduced Kiwanian Graham who paid a tribute to "Father," and the coming observance of the day.

Parson never falls even on the most exacting impromptu demands and he came through this time in his usual debonaire style, intermingling humor and oratory in a most effective way in his defense of the "forgotten man." Fathers in the club were much impressed by his peroration especially concerning one of the young fathers who had just seen his son attain unusual scholastic glory.

Tomorrow evening, Father Jim has the program.

GOVERNMENT TAKES LAND IN PRINCE WILLIAM

The Federal government, under provisions of an order entered last week in the Federal District Court by Judge Luther B. Way, took immediate possession of 830 acres of land in Prince William County to be used for an undesignated war purpose.

In another condemnation proceeding an order vesting with the federal government the title of 72 acres of land in Arlington County, including the Arlington Hall Junior College, was entered by the court and a check for $650,000 deposited as payment for the property. The land and appurtenances likewise will be used for an undesignated war purpose.

Both proceedings, which were negotiated by Sterling Hutcheson, H. H. Holt, Jr., and L. S. Richardson, Federal attorneys, were undertaken under provisions of the second War Powers Act.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The giant four-motored Navy Patrol Bombers are the world's most powerful planes. They cost approximately $700,000 each. The Navy also has a lighter Bomber called the Scout Bomber which costs about $143,000 apiece.

The battle for Britain was almost lost because England had none of these giant four-motored planes with which to fight back. We need thousands of them and they are coming off the assembly lines in our production plants at a high rate of speed today. You can help buy these for your Navy by purchasing War Bonds and Stamps every pay day. Put at least ten percent into Bonds or Stamps and help your country go over its quota.

discharging school children is constructed as reckless driving and is punishable as such. 2. A bill provides for refund of portions of registration and license fees for motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers when such vehicles cannot be operated because of lack of tires and tubes. 3. The issuance of only one license plate for trailers and semi-trailers is now authorized instead of two, as in the past. It also provides that a permanent type license plate be provided, to be returned to the Division when the vehicle is disposed of or operation discontinued. 4. An amendment to section 18 of the Motor Vehicle Code permits release of lien without securing lien-holders release, if three years have expired, the lienholder cannot be located and there is adequate proof of indebtedness has been paid. 5. Prohibits any police officer from receiving any fee in connection with any arrest or conviction in matters involving violation of the motor vehicles laws. 6. Persons damaging any unattended auto are required to notify the owner of their name and address, and persons having any information as to an accident are required to notify the proper authorities. 7. Garage keepers are now required to notify police if unclaimed car is left in garage for longer than two weeks, or if any car is equipped with short wave radio receiver or transmitter or with bullet-proof glass or smoke device. 8. ROCKY MOUNTAIN

SPOTTED FEVER

"The total number of Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever cases reported in Virginia in 1941 was 33 compared with 46 in 1940. Thus on a numerical basis, there is no reason for apprehension concerning this disease in Virginia, the fact that it exists in the jurisdiction indicates the advantage of information as to its cause and prevention. This is particularly true since prevention is based largely upon the personal conduct control factor," states Dr. I. C. Riggins, State Health Commissioner.

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever was first described as a distinct disease in 1889, though it is now known that a number of persons living on the eastern slope of the Bitter Root Mountains in Montana had died of this infection several years prior to that time. Its presence has been observed in a number of the central, eastern and southern states during the past 14 years.

"In this section of the country the disease usually is conveyed to man by the dog-tick. It has roughly estimated that about one out of 300 ticks are infected. Therefore, it is well to assume that any dog-tick may be a carrier of this infection.

"The tick has an interesting life-cycle. The adult females deposit approximately 4000 eggs at a time in a sheltered spot on the ground. Within 30 to 35 days, these eggs hatch into larvae, otherwise known as seed ticks, which attach themselves to small animals. When filled with the blood of their host, the ticks drop off, shed their skins and change into nymphs. In this form, they seek small animals again, and after becoming engorged with blood, drop off, molt, and thus reach the adult stage. Climbing on plants and other vegetation, they then locate on the bodies of large wild and domestic animals and if circumstances are favorable, will attach themselves to man also. As an adult it spreads the germ while it sucks the host's blood.

"Again, it is emphasized that the proportion of infected ticks, compared to the total number, is very small. Nevertheless, campers, picnickers, woodsmen and others traveling over uncleared land should examine themselves carefully everyday. The body, especially the parts covered with hair, should be scrutinized, and any ticks discovered promptly removed. Owners of dogs should be on the lookout for ticks.

"Care should be exercised in the removal of these insects; a small piece of cotton or paper or pinners should be employed for this purpose. Ticks never should be crushed by the bare hand.

"While a vaccine has been prepared by the U. S. Public Health Service which is available to physicians upon request, general vaccination is considered to be unnecessary in this section of the nation because of the limited number of cases. However, if ones occupation or intended vacation will expose one to normal tick infested localities such as forests and underbrush, it is suggested that the wisdom of being vaccinated against this infection be discussed with the family physician. It is emphasized that to be effective the vaccination should be completed two weeks prior to the anticipated exposure.

"In short, Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever is not a serious public health problem in Virginia. Fear of the disease is unjustified. On the other hand, reasonable precautions against possible infection are indicated."

ANNUAL MEETING OF CHURCH GROUP

Christian Scientists Plead For Universal Freedom

The Director's statement was the high light of the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, which annually draws thousands of visitors to the Hub City from all parts of the world. This year, however, the audience was more localized due to unprecedented world conditions that keynoted most of the reports to the meeting. The Directors emphasized the world-wide emergency as presaging a more universal turning to spiritual enlightenment as the pathway to future world peace.

Meeting in their Mother Church under the world-enveloping shadow of what is probably the gravest threat to political and religious freedom since the advent of Christianity, the visitors were reminded in a report by The Christian Science Board of Lectureship that the union of Britain and America was foreseen forty-four years ago by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, as the instrument through which the rights of free peoples everywhere might be permanently established and protected.

This welding together of the two great democracies, under the impact of an international crisis, said the Lecture Board, is the consummation of the fond hopes of all Christian Scientists. The Board alluded specially to a poem written in 1898 by the Leader of this world-wide religious movement, Mrs. Eddy, which reads in part as follows:

"Brave Britain, blest America!
Unite your battle-plan;
Victorious, all who live it,—
The love for God and man."

Other prophetic statements of Mrs. Eddy foretelling the troublous times of today and giving assurance that the forces of right would inevitably win the day were cited by the Board of Directors.

"God has built a higher platform of human rights, and He has built it on diviner claims. These claims are not made through code or creed, but in demonstration of 'on earth peace, good-will toward men' " (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 226).

The Directors also announced the election of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Norwood of Brookline, Mass., as President of The Mother Church for the ensuing year. The chief duty of the President is to preside at the Annual Meeting.

The new President is the daughter of Isaac Paul Gragg, who served throughout the Civil War and was given the rank of Captain by Brevet for gallant and meritorious services. Her mother, Mrs. Eldora O. Gragg, C. S. D. was one of twelve students of Mrs. Eddy's chosen by her to form The Mother Church. She was also the first woman Reader in the Church.

Mrs. Norwood was born in Roxbury, Mass., and received her early education in the Girls Latin School of Boston and in private schools. She was a member of the Normal Class of the Board of Education of the Massachusetts Metaphysical College in 1922, thus becoming a teacher of Christian Science. She also served as Second Reader in The Mother Church from June, 1929, to June, 1932.

To the incoming President the times appeared to constitute a challenge to Christian Scientists to face unflinchingly 'a duty beyond anything they have ever before been called upon to face' Yet in the face of this duty, she said, there is the authority of the Bible that "the Lord's hand is not shortened that it cannot save" and that "Christ's Christianity will free mankind from the bondage in which it is being held."

With this comforting assurance, the incoming President appraised world conditions in the light of another Red Sea of human doubts and fears through which mankind must be guided to higher spiritual ground by the power of divine intelligence. It is true, she said, that it seems necessary in the present-day conflict to resort to human means and methods against evil aggressors, yet the march forward can be taken safely and with confidence by putting on the breast-plate of righteousness, the armor of God.

John Randall Dunn, retiring President, also referred to the times as an opportunity to prove that "the healing Christ is here, and that the light of Truth not only banishes the darkness of disease and sin, but can nullify all the hypnotic suggestions of the carnal mind, which seem to be working such mischief among the sons of men."

From the pages of the Scriptures and from the Christian Science textbook, Mr. Dunn cited many passages promising the victory of right over evil in no uncertain terms.

The report of the Board of Lectureship, read by Gavin W. Allan, referred to the recent statement of Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of Great Britain, "Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few," as a perfect phrasing But lifting this phrasing out of the setting of war, the Board felt that it could aptly apply to Mrs. Eddy and her small group of followers who, a half-century or more ago, worked for the establishment of a vision that sought to bless all mankind.

Today the Board found that the establishment of Christian Science in some countries was being limited by the dictators, that some churches and institutions were being closed and confiscated "But wherever multitudes of plain people in ordinary, everyday living cherish and practice the truths of their religion," the Board said, "its resurrection is assured."

Arthur W. Eckman, Manager of Committees on Publication, reported that service in the armed forces is bringing many young men closer to Christian Science because of its adaptability to their immediate problems. The radio continues to minister the healing truth to an ever-widening audience, said Mr. Eckman, and is bearing in growing measure the fruitage of physical healings.

The frequent reports of increasing wartime interest in religion as the streams of dependence upon material systems run low were accentuated by the announcement of the Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society that the sales of Bibles this year "are the largest in the history of the Publishing Society." Increased circulation of The Christian Science Journal, the Christian Science Sentinel and The Christian Science Monitor was also reported for the last 12 months. Literature of the Society was said still to be going to many parts of the world, arriving sometimes on delayed schedules, but nevertheless reaching Switzerland, Unoccupied France, Spain, Portugal, all parts of Africa, Australia, the British Isles, South America, New Zealand, India and Ceylon.

The report of the Treasurer for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1942, showed that the finances of The Mother Church were in sound condition, that aside from current bills and accrued taxes there was no indebtedness.

Other reports made to the meeting stressed the theme of greater opportunity in the emergency to base the future peace of the world upon a higher platform of human rights, one dictated by recourse to divine rather than to human intelligence.
