CLOVER LEAF FARM LEADS.

Clover Hill Farm, Manassas, led the Prince William County Dairy Herd Improvement Association in production with its purebred Jersey herd during October, Elton C. Kellam, association tester, reported this week.

The herd showed an average production of 663 pounds of milk and 35.9 pounds of butterfat per cow. The Broadview Farm herd, Milford, was second with 696 pounds milk and 31.8 pounds butterfat. The herd of Charles F. M. Lewis on Sudley Road was third with 857 pounds milk and 30.7 pounds butterfat per cow. H. W. Smith, Hickory Grove, was fourth with 663 pounds milk and 29.9 pounds butterfat. W. M. Kline, Buckhall, was fifth with an average production of 750 pounds milk and 29.1 pounds butterfat per cow. The District of Columbia Work House Dairy, Occoquan, was sixth with a production of 727 pounds milk and 29.0 pounds butterfat for each cow in the herd. Carl Kincheloe's herd on Centerville Road was seventh with 699 pounds milk and 28.9 pounds butterfat.

A total of 921 cows belonging to 23 members of the Prince William D. H. I. A. were on test in October, Mr. Kellam reported.

Supervisors Stop Sunday Beer Sales

BULLETIN.

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors unanimously passed the ordinance forbidding beer sales on Sunday.

Similar action by the Town Council is expected tomorrow night.

A PINT OF YOUR BLOOD TO SAVE A SOLDIER'S LIFE

Here is one thing which can be done by all healthy Americans who want to serve and do not know how; give to your country a small portion of your own blood.

The Army and Navy want blood plasma for transfusions at the scene of battle. It is now collected by the Red Cross. Plasma will keep the injured man alive for hours, until the loss can be made up by a whole blood transfusion.

No healthy person need be deterred from this saving gift by fears of harmful after effects. The doctors in the blood donor center know whom to take and whom to reject.

The simple examination and set of questions asked are based on excessive experience, and give the doctor what he needs to safeguard the donor.

Your body will rapidly replenish the temporary loss of blood. In two months or less, most healthy people will be ready to give them blood again.

We must not let our boys down. You can help now by enrolling as a Volunteer Blood Donor, for the Blood Donor Bank, to be held in Manassas, by the Prince William County Chapter, American Red Cross, on Saturday, November 10, 1942, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Call any chapter officer, or Mrs. Mamie Lynch Delaney, chairman of the Blood Donor Committee.

SOUTHERN STATES COOPERATIVE TO HOLD CONFERENCE HERE

A committee of representatives of Southern States Cooperative in the Manassas section will hold a conference at the Prince William Hotel in Manassas Tuesday evening, November 10, at 7:30.

They will review some of agriculture's problems and devise ways in which they may serve the farmers of the area better by helping them plan for more efficient operation of their farms through close cooperation with each other.

Speakers will include Russell Furman, Winchester, and B. H. Werner, Aldie, both of Southern States Cooperative.

The committee who will make the study is composed of persons from Leesburg, Nokesville, Manassas, Vienna, Chantilly, Fredericksburg, Lovettsville, Bluemont, Arcola, Lincoln, Sterling, Purcellville and Upperville.

ARGENTINE VISITOR TO SPEAK BEFORE CLUB

The regular meeting of the Manassas Woman's Club will be held Monday, November 9, in the Parish Hall at 2:30 p. m.

The speaker for the afternoon will be a most interesting one, who is from Argentina, Mrs. Meade L. Zimmer.

The hostesses serving for the afternoon will be Mrs. Vincent Davis, Mrs. T. E. Didlake, Mrs. Mamie Delaney, Miss Sara Donohoe, Mrs. Marshall Douglas and Mrs. John Cox.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

BENJ. F. STEVENS.

Burial services for Benjamin Franklin Stephens, 88, were held Sunday, November 1, at the Manassas Cemetery.

Mr. Stephens, a native of Virginia, died at his farm near Manassas October 12. Services were conducted at the Baker Funeral Home, October 14 by the Rev. Luther Jenkins Holcomb, pastor of Temple Baptist Church of Washington, D. C. The body was placed in a vault awaiting the arrival of a son from the West Coast.

Surviving are his widow, Grace Carrico Stephens; two daughters, Mrs. Sargent C. Elliott and Mrs. William F. Kane of Washington; eight sons, Alvin, Roy, Strother, Robert, Jesse and Hunter, all of Washington, and Gordon, of Manassas, and Walter, of the U. S. Coast Guard; and four grandchildren.

CHEST EX-RAY CLINIC

Cooperation with the medical profession of the county, a clinic for the diagnosing tuberculosis will be held during the week of November 9 in Prince William-Stafford Health Office at Manassas, Va., under the direction of a specialist from the State Department of Health. The examination and tuberculin testing is a free service, but there is a charge for the chest x-rays, the maximum cost being two dollars ($2.00) per person.

A written request for these examination must be obtained from your doctor. Also, a written request is necessary from the parents for children whom the family wishes to be tuberculin tested.

Apply to your local county nurse for a clinic appointment well in advance of the clinic. Only a limited number of persons may be examined and x-rayed in these clinics, hence appointments made prior to the clinic date are imperative to obtain this service.

It can not be too strongly emphasized that tuberculosis is a contact disease, and that everyone living in homes where a case of tuberculosis exists should be x-rayed either by the family physician or the State clinician.

YELLOW JACKETS WIN OVER MT. VERNON, 13-6

The Osborn High School gridiron team is having its best football record in history, as the local team continued on their winning rampage by defeating the Mt. Vernon High 13-6.

Manassas lost no tie in chalking up their second straight victory as they took the opening kick-off and marched 75 yards down the field to their initial touchdown with Merchant receiving a pass from Robinson. Robinson passed to W. Vetter for the extra point to put Manassas out in front 7-0.

In the second quarter Robinson pounded the visitors' line to carry the ball into scoring territory until Merchant carried the ball for a touchdown from 11-yd. line. Wine attempted a quarterback sneak for the point after touchdown, but failed as Manassas had 13-0 at the half.

During the second half, Mt. Vernon outplayed the local griders and scored their lone touchdown in the closing minutes of the last quarter.

The fine team-play of the local team again was the highlight of the afternoon, with no one ember doing more than his mates.

On Friday, November 6, Front Royal will be in town with their great ball club to try and put a stop to the winning streak of the Yellow Jackets. Richard Collis, a former Yellow Jacket, will be in the line-up of the visitors.

KIWANIANS ELECT WORTH PETERS PRESIDENT.

Last Friday's meeting of the Manassas Kiwanis Club proved to be a "going-away" party for Kiwanian Father Jim Widmer. It was President Ernest's turn to put on a program, and he called on Colonel Hutchison and the "silver-tongued orator," O. D. Waters to do the honors.

It was quite a competition, each with his own style of attack. O. D. is a survival of the model that always has a large store of quotations and dramatic verse, while the Colonel strikes along more prosaic lines. The job was well done, and everyone present recognized the merit of the many compliments showered upon the recipient.

Without doubt, Father Jim has been one of the most high grade members the club has ever been fortunate in listing among its numbers.

Present as a guest on this occasion was Father John Stanton, who is now in active charge of All Saints, and its associated missions. He was given a very hearty welcome.

The annual election was held during the evening, nominations having been made at a previous meeting. The results showed that Worth Peters will be the next president, with Hon. L. Ledman as vice president and Mr. Robbie Davis as treasurer.

The new directors are Messrs. R. C. Haydon, A. H. Roseberry, Hunton Tiffany, G. Raymond Ratcliffe, A. A. Hooff, D. J. Arrington and A. Hill Brown, Jr.

Attention is again called to the fact that the club is now meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Ruffner-Carnegie Library Hours.

The evening hours for the Ruffner-Carnegie Library will be every Thursday from 4 to 8 p. m., and not as announced earlier, from 7:30 to 8:30. The new schedule, which will go into effect next Thursday, November 12, will give office holders, or anyone interested, a weekly opportunity to exchange library books.

The day schedule remains as usual: Daily except Saturday, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

JUNIOR CHOIR TO SING SUNDAY

The Junior Choir of the Manassas Presbyterian Church will sing at the regular morning worship on Sunday, November 8, at 10:00 a. m. This choir, of a dozen voices, sings once a month in the Presbyterian Church, under the direction of Mrs. Charles H. Stickel.

Operators of trucks, buses and taxis must have their Certificates of War Necessity before applying to the local War Price and Rationing Board for their mileage rations. C. C. Cloe, chairman of the board, declared today.

"The Certificates of War Necessity, issued by the Office of Defense Transportation, form the basis for our issuance of transportation rations to these commercial vehicles," said Mr. Cloe. "When applicants come to the board they must bring with them these certificates, together with properly executed application for a mileage ration."

Each war necessity certificate states the number of miles the vehicle for which the certificate is issued will be allowed to travel during a three-month period. The certificate also states the number of gallons of gasoline needed to cover this mileage.

The OPA rationing board will determine the amount of transport rations to be issued for the vehicle on the basis of the mileage allowed on the certificate. In no case is the board permitted to allow more gasoline than is stipulated on the certificate.

In the Eastern gasoline rationed area the transport (T) rations take the place of the service (S) rations. All outstanding S coupons will become invalid at 12:01 a. m. November 21. The T book will be tailored to the allowable mileage by tearing out coupons.

In order to retain their right to use mileage ration books already issued them, passenger cars and motorcycle owners in Prince William County must file with their local War Price and Rationing Board the new application form and tire inspection record, the chairman of the board declared today.

The forms, which are being used in other sections of the country as an application for a basic A ration, are now available at nearby service stations, garages and other conveniently located places. Mr. Cloe urged autoists and motorcycleists to pick up copies at once and mail them to the War Price and Rationing Board as soon as they are filled out.

"Local car and motorcycle owners will continue to use the coupon books already in their possession," the rationing chairman said, "but they need to turn in the new forms anyhow, in order to give us a record of the tire serial numbers and to get for themselves a tire inspection record to be used for the periodic tire inspections."

"Those who fail to turn in one of the new forms will be subject to a call from the board after Nov. 22 to explain why he hasn't done so, and he may have his ration book revoked."

"The form is simple. Most of the information can be obtained from the vehicle registration card. The most important information needed to fill out the application, however, is the list of serial numbers on every tire which you or any relative living in your house, own for that vehicle."

The serial numbers, Mr. Cloe warned, are the indented numbers on the tire walls. They are not to be confused with any raised numbers appearing on the tires. In case the serial numbers have been obliterated, only the brand name of the tire need be listed.

The rationing board chairman urged car owners with more than five tires for each vehicle to dispose of these excess tires at once, since the rationing board will demand an explanation from any car owner who lists more than five tires. Excess tires can be sold to the Government through the local office of the Railway Express Agency.

Prince William County autoists must dispose of any tires they own in excess of the permissible five tires per car before December 12 in order to obtain their right to hold mileage rations, chairman of the Board, local War Price and Rationing Board, declared today.

"We urgently request that these excess tires be turned over to the Government at once," said Mr. Cloe. "But in any event owners must get rid of them by December 12. Any vehicle operator without a tire inspection record on that date will be in violation of the mileage regulations."

Tire inspection records will not be granted car owners who have listed more than five tires on the application form to which the record is attached. In the Eastern Area, where rationing has been in effect since last July, these forms are to be picked up by autoists, filled out and mailed to local War Price and Rationing Boards.

Car owners who listed more than five tires per car on their application form will be required to show proof that these tires have been disposed of under the Government's Idle Tire Plan. The tire inspection record will be returned to the applicant.

A receipt showing that he has turned them over to the Railway Express Agency will be accepted as such proof. Or the applicant may show that he has turned in unserviceable tires for scrap.

All excess tires, even scrap tires, must be disposed of. Under the Government's Idle Tire Purchase Plan, the local office of the Railway Express Agency will collect all serviceable tires and leave a receipt. The Government will send a check later covering the price of the tire, or tires. Tires beyond repair should be disposed of through a local scrap dealer or salvage committee.

Autoists who expect to apply for supplemental rations to enable them to drive to and from work should make plans now to share rides with others needing transportation to their jobs, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Boards, declared today.

"Car sharing has been made an integral part of the mileage rationing program because it is the most effective means of providing essential transportation on a minimum amount of rubber," said Mr. Cloe. "To get more than the basic A ration a car owner must form a car-sharing club to carry at least three other persons to and from work, or prove that he cannot do so."

The rationing board chairman suggests that car owners get together with their neighbors on some car sharing plan, or with fellow employees at the plant or office. If two or more cars are to be used in the club, members may divide up the use of those cars to suit their convenience. Supplemental rations will then be issued each vehicle for mileage to meet its obligations.

The club must be formed before the application for a supplemental ration is submitted to the board. In fact, signatures of all members must appear on the application, and applicants must certify that they will carry through their part in the car club agreement.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Actual experience on the world's war fronts has proved the collapsible boat an essential safety feature for both Naval and land based planes. They are made of rubberized material, easily inflated.

At the Battle of Midway an Army Lieutenant, after bombing a carrier, was forced to bail out of his bomber. He was able to get a "fish eye" view of the entire battle from his collapsible boat and was later picked up by an American plane. Your purchase of War Bonds with at least ten percent of your income every payday will help protect the lives of men who are flying for you. Get behind them today.

Rev. Mr. Thompson will return on November 22 at 10:30 as usual. After that the hour of service will have to be announced from Sunday to Sunday, because the date of the Bishop's visit is uncertain.

Unless announced later there will be no service on November 29th.

The Christmas service will be held on December 20th, at an afternoon hour. Mr. Faulkner will also give this service. The hour will be announced later, but will probably be 3 P. M.

PASTURE—A LABOR-SAVING CROP.

Farmers who have given attention to pasture improvement over the past few years are the least concerned over the present labor situation. On farms so prepared, much of the labor of harvesting crops is being taken care of by livestock. Smaller acreages of man-harvested crops and fewer men required.

Pastures have been taken too much for granted and deprived of the attention that they deserve. With the growing need to produce milk and meat at the lowest possible cost, more and more farmers are realizing that pasture is one of the most valuable crops that can be grown and that it responds in a remarkable manner to lime and fertilizer applications. Fertilizing and liming pasture is profitable because of the results obtained. These two practices save buying grain, increase the palatability of pasturage, boost its mineral content, reduce the need for supplementary feed, reduce the labor needed on the farm; in short they make farming easier and keep more money at home.

The problem on most farms is to bring about an increased growth of better grasses and to increase the length of the grazing season. Fortunately, both of these goals may be attained by liming and fertilizing. When pastures are liberally limed and fertilized, three things may be expected to follow.

1. The quantity of feed on each acre is usually doubled and often trebled. This permits more animals to graze on the land or the same number of animals to get more feed.
2. Pasture growth starts earlier in the spring, holds up better through the hot, dry, summer months, and continues later in the fall. The grazing season is lengthened at both ends and in the middle.
3. The more desirable grasses and clovers come in and produce a thicker stand. Weeds, broomsedge and undesirable grasses are gradually crowded out. Higher quality feed, quicker gains and more milk and meat result.

Pastures may be topdressed with lime and fertilizer at any time of the year. Most authorities prefer using lime in the fall and following this up with a fertilizer application at least six weeks before growth starts up in the spring. This permits the lime to condition the soil so that the fertilizer may be most efficient when applied. In the case of superphosphate, there is little winter plant food loss when it is applied in the fall.

Full use of Agricultural Conservation Program Superphosphates is preferable to taking chances of having its harden in the bags by holding it over to spring.

There is no cut and dried plan of pasture improvement. Each farm is a problem in itself and must be treated as such. Tests for lime requirements and phosphorus and potassium deficiencies may be easily obtained. Superphosphate may be the only fertilizer needed on some farms. Potash, in addition to Superphosphate, may be needed on others. The use of nitrogenous fertilizers is generally not considered practical from the standpoint of getting maximum returns for each dollar expended.

Attention is called to the fact that farm program Superphosphate fertilizer will not be available next spring. For this reason, all farmers who have not already placed applications for their full farm allowances of ground limestone or Superphosphate are advised to apply for Superphosphate for all and early winter delivery at once.

STATE SENATE OUTLOOK

With the election yet on our horizons, talk of next summer's primary is beginning to bud. Some weeks ago there was a letter put out by a member of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors regarding his intentions regarding the State Senate.

Now comes a definite statement from another gentleman, who lives in the section below Alexandria, votes in Prince William, but has most of his business in the metropolitan area of Alexandria.

This new senatorial prospect is George W. Herring, who formerly represented Prince William in the House of Delegates for two terms. His official announcement has not yet been made but he has stated orally that his intentions are.

Thus the next campaign begins before the thunder of the recent dies down. This presages much more to come for usually announcements of this nature do not begin to break until after the turn of the new year.

CIVILIAN MOBILIZATION.

The work of the Protective Groups in Civilian Defense is all-important and never to be minimized. But civilian defense does not stop with the Air Raid Wardens, Auxiliary Firemen, and various other groups of protective forces upon whom must fall the heavy burden of responsibility in case of air attack or other disaster. All-out war, such as now engages the united efforts and combined resources of our country and its allies, calls for the enlistment in service of all the people, and the purpose of Civilian Mobilization is to insure that the services of all the people shall be available.

We cannot all be Air Raid Wardens, Fire Watchers, or members of Rescue Squads, but we all can have our own important part in Civilian War service. The Citizens Service Corps is no less important than the Defense Corps, for while 50,510 Americans gave their lives in the first World War, to "make the world safe for democracy."

On this 24th anniversary of the Armistice, let us vow that they shall not have died in vain.

NATIONAL BANK OF MANASSAS

the protective forces that make up the Defense Corps may be subjected to dangerous and heroic work in case of enemy attack, the Citizens Service Corps has the equally vital duty of conditioning the population for service and sacrifice in the event of disaster.

There is a place in the Citizens Service Corps for every man, woman, boy and girl; a place where his or her special talents or qualifications can be used for the protection of loved ones and community, and for the successful prosecution of the war. Merely to name some of the branches of service embodied in the work of the Citizens Service Corps will be sufficient to indicate how wide the door of opportunity opens.

One may volunteer for service in Welfare and Child Care, Consumer Interests, Family Security, Health and Hospitals, Housing, Information, Library Work, Neighborhood or Block Leadership, Nutrition, Recreation, Salvage, Services for Service Men, Schools and Education, Transportation Conservation, War Bond and Stamp Sales, or for other services the need of which may arise at any moment.

The war will not be won by "letting George do it." But the Axis can be smashed—forever—if we all get into the war. We of the Home Front must realize that our responsibilities are, in their own way, no less compelling than those of our fighting men, and there must be no slackers. Each of us must find the place where we can be most useful. This is Civilian Mobilization.—Civilian Defense News.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS

Miss Daisy E. Davis, of Woodbridge, Va., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Athy early this week.

Mrs. Nollie Nelson was a visitor of relatives in Washington over the week end.

Miss Nollie Nelson has gone to McAllen, Texas, to visit her niece, Mrs. H. D. Westfall.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Hemming of Hampton have just concluded a visit of several weeks to their son, Rev. Harry Hemming. The younger Mrs. Hemming has been on a visit to the newest addition to the Hemming family.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Halloween party for the town turned out to be a splendid success, both socially and economically. Young folks need an outlet for the energy, even in wartime. Both young and old turned out en masse, and the streets were crowded with a myriad of old costumes and masks.

There was not a hint of rowdiness, police report, and virtually no depredations of any sort. The same was not so true in western sections of the county, where some vandalism occurred, especially in the matter of wrecking road signs.

The credit for the continuation of last year's plan is due in no small measure to Professor Worth Peters, who as superintendent of Manassas schools and as vice president of the Kiwanis Club secured the cooperation of both groups, plus other endorsements so that the affair became truly a town party, and which was so completely pleasing that it promises to become an institution.

DUAL PERSONALITY THEME OF NEW DR. GILLESPIE DRAMA

A romance, a strange case of dual personality, and thrills and mystery in a great hospital go into M-G-M's "Calling Dr. Gillespie," a gripping dual personality mystery showing at the Pitts Theatre. Its thrills and mystery are blended with many moments of hilarity as well as a tender love story.

The story deals with the discovery by Dr. Gillespie, played by Lionel Barrymore, and Dr. Gerneide, portrayed by Philip Dorn, of symptoms of a strange dementia in Roy Todwell, young socialite, depicted by Philip Brown. His wealthy parents and "society doctor" scorn their warnings, until the youth develops "spells" during which he becomes a homicidal maniac. He finally invades the hospital intent of killing the older doctor, who is saved in a surprise climax.

Donna Reed, who plays the maniac's socialite fiancée, turns in an emotional and deeply appealing performance. Philip Dorn, remembered for his doctor's role in "Escape," plays a young doctor from Holland, come to this country to study with the veteran diagnostician Gillespie, whimsically portrayed by Barrymore. Brown, as the demented youth, turns in a compelling performance. Other principals in the cast include Alma Kruger, Walter Kingsford, Nell Craig, Marie Blake, George Reed, Frank Orth and Nat Pendleton.

Dramatic highlights are the heroine's discovery of her lover's mad phases; his attack on two automobile salesmen, and the masquerade by which he entered the hospital intent on slaying the doctor, who was trying to save his life. Harold S. Bucquet directed.

BULL RUN

By Chas. J. Gilliss.

The writer has no doubt that a large proportion of the people of Prince William County, like himself, have for years gone on the assumption that Bull Run was named for a certain belligerent bovine animal. The Bull Run Mountains are, of course, named for the stream, which flows through them, though these mountains are frequently called the "Leather Coat Mountains" in old deeds. This latter name traditionally comes from the fact that a certain old woman, who always wore a leather coat, kept a tavern on questionable report in said mountains, at a time when Indians and run-away slaves were the chief inhabitants.

It has recently come to the knowledge of the writer, that a family named Bull long ago resided in Prince William County, in a locality bordering on Bull Run. Here William Bull was born in 1740, dying in Ohio in October, 1811. His sons were Asaph, James, Richard, John, Thomas and William, and his daughters Ann and Mary.

William Bull, Sr., was a soldier in the American Revolutionary War, and it is assumed that, at its close, he received lands in Ohio as a bonus (as did many others), to which he immediately removed. His name does not appear in the tax records of Prince William County for 1783. Nothing further is known of this family and it would be interesting if some one with a more complete knowledge, could shed further light on the subject.

To return to Bull Run. Can it be possible that the stream and mountains in question derive their name from this long-forgotten Prince William family? This seems entirely logical and much more likely than the fact that the stream and mountains were named for an animal.

MANASSAS YELLOW JACKETS
ROUTE MARSHALL 33-0.

After losing one game, tying one game, the Yellow Jackets of Osbourne High hit the win column by routing Marshall High 33-0 on Oct. 23rd.

Captain Balding won the toss and elected to receive the kick-off. Manassas took the ball on their own 35-yard line and on the first down Robinson passed to Bolding, which was incomplete. Robinson then hit off tackle for 8 yards and on 4th down Robinson again ran off tackle for a first down. Manassas continued to gain by passing and running, with Robinson making the first touchdown on an off-tackle slant. Breen placed kicked the extra point to put Manassas ahead 7-0.

Conner kicked off to Marshall on Marshall's 30-yard line and, after failing to gain, Manassas took over the ball on Marshall's 35-yard line. On the second play Merchant carried the ball over for another touchdown on a wide end run. As soon as Manassas got possession of the ball again, Jasper added 6 more points by skirting around his own left end, made possible by fine blocking on the part of Balding, Conner, Wine and Broadus. Robinson passed to Merchant for the extra points, making the score 20-0.

Later on, in the second quarter, Merchant ran 20 yards on a reverse to score, making the score 26-0. On the first play after the kick-off Conner intercepted a Marshall pass at the wide stripe. From the 50-yard line, Merchant scampered the yardage on an end run for another touchdown and adding the extra point on a pass from Robinson, making the score 33-0.

The second team was inserted at this point, and played most of the second half. Marshall began to march down the field for a touchdown, but the "scrubs" came through with fine playing and stopped the march on Manassas' 15-yard line as the game ended.

Coach Saunders had high praise for his fellows on the squad for their splendid play. He would not select a star of the game, as he thought the players as a unit blocked and tackled with equal vigor and determination.

ARMISTICE CHOSEN FOR THE OCCASION

The American Legion is arranging a community meeting for Armistice day that should be of vital interest to every person in Prince William interested in the local and national war work effort. Realizing that the ordinary plan of Armistice Day celebration would not be appropriate under the conditions facing our country at this tie, it was decided to sponsor a community patriotic rally. The committee from the Legion consists of M. S. Budchard, W. M. Johnson, H. P. Tillar, Major Hanson and John M. Dechant.

The keynotes of the rally could well be called "Rededication for Victory" and the program will have three main divisions contributing to that theme, though on the program the parts will intermingled and interspersed with instrumental and vocal music. One part will consist of a very brief round-up covering the various defence activities being carried on in Manassas and the county. This part should be highly informative as there has been no comprehensive report of these activities since the war effort started and many of us are not aware of what is going on in our midst. Another part of the program will be devoted to a group of appropriate prayers by the ministers of the community. These will ask for rededication of civilian effort, realization of the task ahead and remembrance of the men who have gone out to represent us on the fighting lines throughout the world. The third part of the program will be a patriotic address by an outstanding speaker who in developing the main theme "rededication" will bring together and vivify the prayers, reports, music and songs from the rest of the program.

This program will be held in the Methodist Church on Armistice day Nov. 11 at eight o'clock. Because of the interest usually shown in such a program, a capacity attendance is to be expected and extra chairs will be provided to augment the regular seating capacity. Member of the Legion will act as ushers and take charge of the program.

Careless matches aid the Axis

Tragically enough, it's people like you, hard-working, patriotic Americans who start the most forest fires..!

You say that we're not talking to you? That you are always careful in the woods?

Maybe so, but . . .

Last year 170,000 forest fires were started . . . not by saboteurs, not by vagrants, not by incendiaries, but by patriotic, law-abiding Americans like you.

170,000 forest fires. Think of it.

Millions of board feet of lumber that could have gone into war homes, Army barracks, shipyards.

Denuded watersheds that poured great floods of wasted water into the ocean . . . water we so badly needed to drive our electric power plants.

Millions of man-hours lost fighting fire . . . precious hours that could have built bombers and guns and tanks.

But that was last year. That was kid stuff compared to the danger we face this year.

Yes, in spite of all our precautions. In spite of modern methods of forest fire fighting.

We're in this war now. We've got both carelessness and sabotage to watch. We've sent one or two million able-bodied men to the fighting fronts—men who last year volunteered to help us fight fire.

And, brother, YOU are the only one who's got a solution. You've got to understand—here and now—that YOU CAN and MIGHT start a fire this year. You've got to be even more careful than you've ever been in your life.

We know you WANT to help. We know you'd rather lose an arm than give aid and comfort to the enemy. Well, here are 2 things you can do to start the ball rolling.

1. Read the Forest Fire Prevention Creed shown here. Read it carefully.
2. Mention this advertisement to at least three of your friends.

THE FOREST FIRE PREVENTION CREED

1. I Will smoke in the woods ONLY while halted in a safe place, completely cleared of dry or inflammable material.
2. I Will break all burned matches in two before I throw them away, and WILL NEVER throw pipe tobacco, cigar butts, or cigarette stubs into brush, leaves, or pine needles.
3. I Will scrape away all inflammable material before building a campfire, then build it in a hole dug in the center of this cleared space.
4. I Will put out campfires before I leave—stir the coals while soaking them with water; wet the ground around the fire; make certain the last spark is dead.
5. I Will Never burn brush in windy weather, or without plenty of help.
6. I Will put out any small fires I find, or report them AT ONCE by phoning the Ranger or Fire Warden.
7. I Will remember that a burning match, a glowing cigarette, or a smoldering campfire can be just as dangerous as an incendiary bomb . . . that careless matches aid the Axis.

J. M. RUSSELL, COUNTY FOREST FIRE WARDEN

Fair Enough!

IT'S LIKE PUTTING MONEY IN THE BANK!

5 REASONS WHY

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.
2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.
3. You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.
4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.
5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

"Listen, mister... I'm making pretty good wages these days, and so are about fifty million others. And we all think pretty much the same about the way we can help America win the war.

"Save 10% in War Bonds every payday? That's no sacrifice—it's a cinch! Like putting money in the bank.

"Take my wife, for instance. She says it's money we just wouldn't save, otherwise—dough that we just chuck away—with nothing to show for it later.

"But this is the real payoff—

"The money we save in War Bonds is going to produce the planes, the tanks, the ships and the guns to make the Japs wish they'd never even seen Pearl Harbor! It's going to produce the bombs and the bullets to make their honorable 'harakiri' seem like a picnic.

"Do you think we people on the home front want to be left out? Don't you know that the workers, the stenos, the farmers, dentists—every last man and woman of us wants to come through with his share?

"So when they came around in our plant and actually offered to help us save for the War Bonds, you can bet we all said 'yes!'

"Every week they save 10% out of our pay—a dime in every dollar—and when it adds up to $18.75, we get a War Bond—worth $25 in ten years. Yessir! A War Bond in our own name, or the Missus, or both!

"Honest, now, do you think we're patting ourselves on the back? Do you think we're asking for praise just because we do our part to hamstring Hirohito and Hider—and lay away a pile of dough in the bargain?

"How about you? Are you in on this plan? If not, better get in. Better save your 10% every payday. Better do your share to wallop the tar out of the Japs and Huns.

"Say 'ware!' when they come to you...

"It's like money in the bank!"

EVERYBODY—EVERY PAYDAY 10% IN WAR BONDS
