TOWN AND FARM IN WAR TIME

Maternity Care for Servicemen's Wives

More than three-fourths of the states have received approval by the Children's Bureau, Department of Labor, of programs for medical and hospital maternity care for wives of men in the four lowest pay grades of the armed services. The programs also include medical care for babies. A serviceman's wife may make application for complete medical care during pregnancy and childbirth, and for six weeks after childbirth. She may also apply for medical care for her child to extend throughout the child's first year of life. To get such care, all that the wife needs to do is to fill out simple forms, which, if her own doctor is unable to furnish copies, she can get from the State health department.

No Gas To Go To Gardens

Special rations of gasoline for travel to Victory gardens were discontinued July 12, although rations already issued for this purpose may be used as long as valid. This action was taken by OPA upon advice of the Department of Agriculture that gardens planted after that date would be too late to produce enough food to warrant extra use of tires and gasoline in cultivating them.

Co-Ops Can Replace Stocks

Farmers' cooperatives and any other dealers who sell farm supplies at cost or at a markup of not more than three per cent, are permitted to replenish stocks on farmers' certificates on a dollar-for-dollar basis, under a recent amendment of Priorities Regulation No. 19. Previously, the dealer could use the farmer's certificate to get supplies only up to 75 per cent of his sales. The amendment enables farmers' cooperatives which sell approximately at cost to make full replacement of their stock.

Can't Send Recordings Overseas

Discs of recordings containing personal messages cannot be sent to soldiers stationed outside the continental limits of the U. S., the War Department has announced. There is no objection to sending discs of personal messages within the continental United States.

Grower Prices for Berries

Grower prices for seven types of berries canned or frozen in 1943 have been announced by FWA. Processors will pay growers the following prices (cents per pound): red raspberries, 15; black raspberries, 13; youngberries, boysenberries, loganberries, and blackberries, 12; gooseberries, 8. Ceiling prices for frozen strawberries have been established on the basis of a grower price of 12 cents a pound for stemmed berries. For all other berries each processor will pay 3 cents per pound more than the average price he paid under the OPA price regulations for the 1942 pack. The highest price processors may pay for red sour pitted cherries is 8 1/2 cents per pound.

Vacation Trip for Motorists

Motorists in the Northeastern gasoline restricted area may use their "A" rations, beginning July 15, for one round trip to a summer home or other vacation place, in the absence of adequate alternative transportation. Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown has announced. Before making a trip, motorists must apply to their ration board for written authorization stating the starting point and destination of the trip and dates on which it will be made. Authorization does not give the motorist an extra ration of gasoline.

Agricultural Jobs Filled

During May, the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission filled 1,005,489 jobs in industry and agriculture, an increase of 11.2 per cent over April. Of these jobs, 297,725 were in farm work or food processing, an increase of 38.3 over April and 68.6 over May 1942. For January through May, the total placements were 739,044, an increase of 128.4 over the same months in 1942.

Rations for Sick

Although the need to conserve rationed foods is great, no hospital patient's health need suffer, the OPA has announced. Local rationing boards have been given authority to provide supplementary allotments to meet the dietary requirements of patients in hospitals—whether or not such patients are on special diets.

Mileage for Air Raid Wardens

Air raid wardens, while not eligible for "C" ration books, may con-

ILL

Mr. Jacob J. Harrell, a former resident of Manassas, passed away July 8, 1943, at his home in Flomaton, Alabama, at the age of 91 years.

While residing in Manassas he was in the real estate business. He and Mrs. Harrell have a large circle of friends here and frequently entertained in their hospitable home on West Street.

Surviving Mr. Harrell are his wife and one son, Cornelius, who have the deepest sympathy of the community. Interment was in Flomaton, Ala.

ELIZABETH SMITH SUTTON

Funeral services were held on June 30 for Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Sutton, who died at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, after an illness of a week. She was a victim of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sutton was the sister of Mrs. J. Dennis Baker, of Manassas, and was in the service of the armed forces of the United States. She was the daughter of Rembert P. and Gem B. Smith, a native of Virginia, born on October 16, 1903 and was married in 1926 to Mr. Harry M. Sutton, who survives. She is also survived by a son, Harry M. Sutton, II, and by her sister in Manassas.

Funeral services were conducted in Manassas by the Rev. W. C. Luttrell at 10:30 A. M. and interment was in the Manassas cemetery. Pall bearers were Dr. Stewart McBryde, Dr. Wallace Hook, Pete Hutchison, Marshall Douglas, Keith Lyon, and Cleveland Fisher.

Mrs. Sutton had been a member of the Main Street Methodist Church at Suffolk for thirty years her passing was the occasion of much sorrow there also.

to get "B" books, according to OPA. Volunteers regularly performing work contributing to the war effort or public welfare who need supplemental mileage should have applications certified by some authorized representative of the agency for which the work is being performed.

Fuel for Incubators

Fuel oil for incubators, brooders, and other equipment used in raising poultry, livestock, or other agricultural products can now be obtained regardless of the age of the equipment. OPA has recently removed these items from the list of equipment for which no fuel oil rations were previously allowed.

Coal Production Lags

Coal production for the first half of 1943 was an estimated 1,729,000 tons less than for the same period in 1942. Solid Fuel Administrator Harold L. Ickes has reported. "The gravity of this loss of production is emphasized by the fact that the Nation will need an estimated 25,000,000 tons of coal more this year than last," he said.

Casualties of War

Casualties of the United States Armed Forces from the out-break of the war to July 3 total 91,644. This total, based on War and Navy Department reports, includes: dead, 16,896; wounded, 21,828; missing, 31,579; prisoners of war, 21,541. Of these, Army casualties total 64,621; Navy 27,923.

Traffic Decrease in Rural Areas

Traffic on rural roads in the East decreased from December through May to less than half of pre-war normal, according to the Public Roads Administration of the FWA. A minor exception is March when eastern traffic was 52 per cent of normal. Traffic in the "western" area, rationed since December 1, 1942, has settled down to less than two-thirds of pre-war normal.

Winter Cover Crop Seed

Large supplies of winter cover crop seeds acquired by the Government in stabilizing prices for the 1942 crop, will be released for planting this summer and fall. AAA will release about 20 million pounds of Austrian winter pea seed for sale by the CCC to dealers at $5.65 per hundredweight, F.O.B. Oregon points. Cover crops, which are a soil conservation measure, increase the nitrogen in the soil when plowed under and thereby reduce the amount of fertilizer required and release nitrates needed for munitions.

Bandage Cloth Supply Assured

Adequate supplies of bandage cloth, both for civilian and military use, will be available. Looms making cotton cloth suitable for bandages and other specified uses will continue to do so, by a recent WPB order.

CHAMBER SEEKS UTILIZATION OF N.Y.A. TRAINING CENTER

The Prince William County Chamber of Commerce met in regular weekly session at the Prince William Hotel, at 12 noon on Tuesday, with the President, Mr. C. C. Cloe, presiding.

There were 28 members and visitors present and all enjoyed the tasty luncheon.

Mr. Middleton, of the O. D. T., from the District of Columbia was the guest of the president, and gave a short but interesting talk on the gasoline ration set-up.

Other matters and reports of various committees were discussed and a matter was reported by Maj. Hanson, from the American Legion Post of Manassas, relative to contacting our boys in service from Prince William County, carried over to the next meeting. Also a committee composed of Dr. G. B. Coker, Mr. Alpaugh and Mr. O. O. Holler, to act with Mr. Fred Hynson was requested to report if possible at the next meeting on the proposed recreational set-up for the County and for the towns.

The committee from the Chamber which is working to get the facilities of the late N. Y. A. Center utilized intact by some other agency, reported they are keeping in close touch with the situation and hope to have a favorable report later.

Mr. Cloe, President of the Chamber, says: "This is your county and town organization, and now is the time for all interested citizens to become active in this work and be sure to attend these meetings each Tuesday at 12 noon, and bring your suggestions and problems here for concentrated action for the best interest of your County and Town."

DR. HEMMING GOES TO HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

The many friends of Dr. H. H. Hemming, formerly connected with the N.Y.A. Training Center at Manassas, will be interested to know that he will become connected with the U. E. Employment Service at Newport News, where he will be near his aged parents, who live at Hampton.

As one of the active clergymen of the community Dr. Hemming had contributed substantially to the uplift and moral advancement of Prince William County.

meet the greatly increased demand, WPB has reported. Used in new housing projects and in reconditioning old buildings, smooth surface floor coverings save lumber, nails, and labor, and contribute to sanitation.

Many Ships Launched

The Nation's shipyards delivered 168 cargo vessels totaling 1,676,500 deadweight tons in June, the Maritime Commission has announced. This may be compared with the record total of 175 for May and 157 in April. The June figures brought production for the first half of 1943 to 879 ships totaling 8,818,622 deadweight tons. In the entire year 1942 the yards produced 746 vessels totaling 8,089,732 deadweight tons.

PROGRAM OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Mary Lewis of the Division of Home Economics, Michigan State College, was guest speaker at the Manassas Woman's Club meeting on Monday evening of this week. Miss Lewis, who is in Manassas as a specialist consultant in the experimental nutrition workshop being conducted here this month, is a most interesting and entertaining speaker. Her description of various ways in which the child may be taught to eat and like nutritive foods was most helpful. She also stressed the importance of early training in group cooperative living as a preparation for future citizenship in a democracy.

The resignation from the club of Mrs. H. H. Hemming, due to their moving away, was accepted with regret.

The club agreed to provide chaplains to serve at the local Service Men's Club at least one week out of each month.

Continued support of stamp and bond sales was urged, also a wide-awake interest in the politics of our state, especially an intelligent vote.

The program was nicely rounded out with several musical numbers, including the singing of two spirituals by Mrs. M. S. Burckard and her daughter, Miss Dolly Burckard, with Mrs. J. P. Royer as accompanist.

The new committees now functioning are as follows:

Program: Mrs. R. Worth Peters, Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. C. H. Stickel. Legislative: Mrs. F. H. Marsteller, Mrs. C. C. Lynn, Mrs. Thos. Howard. Membership: Mrs. E. D. Wissler, Mrs. C. Lacey Compton, Mrs. R. B. Bisson.

Civics: Mrs. Paul Cooksey, Mrs. F. R. Hynson, Mrs. R. B. Larkin.

Publicity: Mrs. Dudley Martin, Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Mrs. M. S. Burckard.

Public Welfare: Mrs. H. N. Hewlings, Miss Sabina Neel, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Mamie Delaney, Mrs. R. S. Hynson, Mrs. Marshall Haydon, Mrs. Aylene Guthrie.

Visiting: Mrs. R. C. Haydon, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mrs. V. V. Gillum. Education: Mrs. Marshall Douglas, Miss Eugenia Osbourn, Mrs. J. P. Royer.

War Service: Chairman, Mrs. T. E. Diddlake. Civilian Defense: Mrs. Vincent Davis.

War Bonds and Stamps: Mrs. E. D. Gothwaite. Conservation and Salvage: Mrs. J. Mills Hanson.

Nutrition and Consumer Problems: Mrs. Paul Cooksey. Service Club Assistance: Mrs. P. L. Proffitt.

Agriculture: Mrs. J. E. Barrett.

WATER BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Water Baptismal Service Sunday afternoon, July 18 at 3:15 at the Bristow pump house, three miles out of Manassas going toward Nokesville. Look for arrows 3 miles out of Manassas. Rev. George James Alexander will bring message at the pool; Rev. Harry Rupp, Pastor of Full Gospel Church, of Manassas will do the baptizing. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE

A list of delinquent taxes due the Town of Manassas is now being prepared for publication. Parties desiring to avoid having their property advertised will please call at the office of the Town Treasurer and pay their taxes before the said list is turned over to the printer.

R. L. BYRD, Treasurer.

OPEN HOUSE AT SERVICE CLUB

ALL INTERESTED ARE INVITED TO ATTEND OPENING

Friday night, July 16, from 8 to 12, the Manassas Service Club will hold "open house" for the interested people of the community. The club, which is located on Center Street, has now been operating for over a month and has proved very successful in its purpose of providing a place of entertainment, recreation and rest for visiting service men from nearby camps.

The club is open every night from 7 until 11, and all day Saturdays and Sundays. It has a large tastefully-decorated lobby, with numerous comfortable chairs and settees, a juke-box, piano and radio-victrola, and many magazines and books.

There is a powder-room downstairs for the ladies. Upstairs, which is "off-limits for girls" there is a bathroom and four furnished rooms where the servicemen may read, write and play games. Chinese checkers, jiz-saw puzzles and other games are provided. The club is chaperoned each night by a member of one of the various women's organizations, and the hostesses are members of the Girls Service Organization. The G. S. O. is composed of over thirty girls who organized a year ago for the purpose of holding weekly entertainments for servicemen. These parties are still being held each Tuesday night at the Parish Hall and are financed entirely by the girls. G. S. O. members are the only girls regularly allowed in the Service Club and any girl wishing to become a member must be sponsored by one of the original members, and must fill out an application requiring three references, which application is investigated and passed on by a secret committee of three members of the Manassas Women's Club, and is then approved by state officials of the G. S. O. The girls are not allowed in the club unless a chaperone is present, are not allowed upstairs, are not allowed to dance on Sundays at the club, and are disciplined by the chaperone present.

The club is financed entirely by funds from local business enterprises, individuals and organizations, the building is rented from Mr. Roger Cross, and the furniture was contributed by interested people who also helped paint, sew, and do the many things necessary to make an attractive place. Sponsoring organizations are the Ministerial Association, American Legion, Girls Service Organization, Chamber of Commerce, Town of Manassas, Women's Club, Junior Women's Club and Kiwanis Club, and the Governing Board, by which the club is operated, is composed of one member from each organization. Mrs. E. D. Gothwaite, secretary-treasurer of the Board, is directly in charge of the club.

The Governing Board will act as the reception committee at the "open house" next Friday night, and members of the G. S. O. will serve refreshments. Townspeople are urged to come and inspect the community's latest project, to offer suggestions for improvement, and to enjoy a pleasant social hour.

PAYNE-KORSENDORFER

At a quiet ceremony in the United Brethren Church in Manassas, Virginia, on July 6, 1943, Miss Korseendorfer became the bride of Pvt. Melvin Glen Payne of Manassas, Virginia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Krupp, pastor of the church.

Miss Korseendorfer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey. Pvt. Payne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Payne of Manassas, and is now stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn. Pvt. Payne is well known in Manassas and his friends wish him and his bride much happiness in the future.

ANNIVERSARY OF ELECTRIC CO-OP.

PRINCE WILLIAM FIRM COMPLETES ITS SECOND YEAR

July 16, 1943, the Prince William Electric Cooperative celebrates its second anniversary. The Board of Directors consists of James B. Cross, president; Charles F. Cornwell, vice-president; Howard Luck, secretary-treasurer, with Audrey Kerr, Francis VanDoren as directors, William Hill Brown, Jr., attorney and John Y. Roseberry, superintendent.

The Cooperative is serving power to consumers in five Virginia counties, and supplies all power requirement for the Tri-County Electric Cooperative and the Town of Manassas.

The Cooperative is also serving power to several Army camps located at various points within its system.

Since the completion of the Cooperative's new power plant they have purchased two 560HP Fairbanks Morse direct connected diesel generating units and are in the process of the installation of these units. This additional capacity will almost double the output of this plant.

The Cooperative is completing seventy-two (72) miles of distribution lines located in Prince William, Stafford and Fauquier Counties that was stopped last year by order of the War Production Board. The completion of this line will bring electricity to approximately two hundred (200) families in these three counties.

The Cooperative has lost fourteen (14) of its employees to the armed forces since October 1942 which has made the accomplishment of the above very difficult.

LIST OF PRINCE WILLIAM MEN TO BE INDUCTED ON JULY 22

The following men have been ordered to report for induction into the Armed Forces at Richmond, on July 22, 1943:

SCOUT EXECUTIVE SPEAKS AT LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB

Deon J. Longfellow, Scout Executive of the National Capital Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, was the guest speaker at the Friday, July 9, meeting of the Manassas Kiwanis Club at the Prince William Hotel.

Mr. Herbert Saunders, local Scout master and chairman of the Boys Girls Committee of the Kiwanis Club was in charge of the program. Mr. Saunders, upon reporting to the Navy for active duty as Ensign on August 5, will be succeeded as Scoutmaster by the Rev. Stanley Knupp, Pastor of the United Brethren in Christ Churches of Manassas, Aden and Buckhall.

Arrangements for the July 16th program of the Club are being made by Carson Woodford. The weekly Kiwanis meetings are now being held regularly at the Prince William Hotel.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. A. Armstrong, of Nokesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna Lee to Mr. Albert Husni, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Husni, of Union City, New Jersey. No date has been set for the wedding.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our husband and daddy Kloman Jackson Garrison, who departed this life two years ago, July 2, 1941, Dumfries, Va.

Two years which seems like ages Have passed since you slipped away. Though we've tried to smile all the while, Our hearts are heavy today.

Just when life was the sweetest And we could have lived the best, The gate of Heaven opened And he entered the land of rest.

OPENING!

The Prince William Bakery will open on Monday, July 19, 1943.

PORTRAIT OF A PATRIOT

HE wears overalls... a business suit... sport clothes. He lives in a cottage on Main Street... a mansion on top of the hill... a farmhouse.

His eyes are blue... gray... brown. His age is 30... 40... 70... or somewhere in between.

He and his family are buying War Bonds... cultivating a Victory Garden... giving time to Civilian Defense... blood to the Red Cross. They're conserving the rubber in their automobile tires... stretching their gasoline ration to the limit.

And this wartime summer, neither he nor any member of his family will make a single unnecessary trip by train.

They all know that the railroads have their hands full taking care of vital military traffic, members of the armed forces on furlough, civilians traveling on essential war business, and those who have to travel for some necessary reason.

So, they figure—correctly and patriotically—that, by not traveling on a train this summer unless it is absolutely necessary, they can make another real contribution to the war effort; help speed Victory and the return of Peace; strike another blow for freedom.

RICHARD M. SMITH
THE STATES' RIGHTS CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

(Democratic Primary, August 3)

From Mr. Smith's Platform: "If sent to the Virginia Senate, I shall favor the return to the counties of all regulatory functions which have been unnecessarily vested in the State government. I shall fight against the relinquishment of any more authority over the people of Virginia to the National Government."

A people which gives up its privileges and responsibilities to a central government far removed from the individual, has no sure protection against that governing body if it becomes corrupted by its own power and authority."

Party Crasher

By K. O. KAHILLE
Associated Newspapers, WNU Service.

WALT knew he'd entered the wrong driveway the moment he swung in between the two huge stone pillars. But there wasn't any place to turn around, so he kept on going. Abruptly he rounded a clump of shrubbery and burst on to a crowd of people scattered over a velvet green lawn. There were gay umbrellas around and metal tables and chairs painted a bright orange. Somewhere an orchestra was playing and there was much laughter and shrill voices.

Walt had to drag his tires in the gravel to avoid running down a girl who burst away from a group of people and came flying toward him. "You're Bill Thayer, the boy Ed Carter said was coming down from Santa Barbara! Oh, I'm so happy to see you!"

Walt swallowed and started to say he had never heard of Bill Thayer, but the girl, a rather dumb-looking creature, rattled on without giving him a chance.

"Just leave your car here. Poole will take it to the garage and Roberts will show you to your room. Then you must hurry down and join us all."

A liveried driver, obviously Poole, suddenly materialized beside the roadster, saying quietly: "Beg pardon, sir."

Walt hesitated. This was Hollywood, he reminded himself. People did crazy things, like crashing parties where they weren't even known, and having a swell time. He'd often wondered what a party like that was like. Here, he decided suddenly, was a chance to find out.

"O. K., Poole. And while you're at it, once over lightly. I picked up a spot of dust coming down." He slid out from behind the wheel. Poole slid in. The girl had vanished. A stiff looking individual came from the house and removed his bags from the rumble seat. "This way, sir."

Fifteen minutes later, Walt, garbed now in flannels and sport jacket, emerged again on to the lawn. No one paid him much attention. For an instant he had a moment of panic. Suppose they found out he was an imposter? Then the girl whom he'd almost run down, fluttered up. "Hello! Aren't you Tom Potter? But, no. Tom's a blond. Oh, well, I'll stop guessing. You tell me. I'll introduce you."

She didn't, however, get a chance. A young man with an old face came up and said something about the punch bowl being empty and she rushed off. Walt wandered around. People were everywhere. One or two spoke to him and suddenly out of the sea of faces he saw one that gripped his heart.

It was as if he had seen the face before, though he knew he hadn't. It was as if he had been looking for such a face all his life. It didn't seem queer that she was staring at him. It didn't seem strange that he should go directly up to her and say, with no restraint or hesitation: "I'm sorry. I don't believe we've met. I'm Walt Whiting."

She smiled. "I'm Nancy Lovell." "I like that name. Shall we dance?"

They moved toward the tiled flooring that was used for dancing. When he took her into his arms it was as though all his life he had waited for this moment. Neither of them spoke. A contentment dwelt in their hearts, a curious sense of oblivion and peace as if strife and struggle and pretense had ceased to be and each had reached a goal which they had been seeking for untold ages.

After the dance they walked away from the others. They found a brook and followed it, sat beneath a pepper tree and Walt at last looked up into her face.

"You won't think me crazy, I—it seems as though this is what I've always wanted. You, I mean."

"I understand," she said. "I know. I feel it too." She laid her hand on his and the blood pounded warm in his veins.

It wasn't until he awoke the next morning in the blue and white room that had been assigned to him that Walt realized with a shock the mistake he had made, the futility of continuing this game of pretense. The lovely, serene face of Nancy Lovell rose in his mind, and a pang stabbed at his heart.

Yet he could not resist the temptation to see her once more, to talk to her, to—selfish though it seemed—watch the changing lights of her eyes when he confessed his deceit. Fate mocked him again when he found her beneath the selfsame pepper tree. She looked up at him and smiled, wistfully, he thought. He hesitated, deliberating; knowing it would be folly to torture himself longer.

"I don't belong here," he said. "They think I'm Bill Thayer. I'm not. I drove in here by mistake—"

Her eyes grew wide. A gasp escaped her lips, followed by tumbling laughter.

"Oh, how wonderful! I was so afraid. You see, I don't belong here either. There are so few of us that do. Fifteen of us heard about this party and we decided to try crashing it just for fun—the way you read about. It worked. Then I met—and that spoiled it. Fifteen of us girls—are ex-teachers on vacation!"

Warm weather thirst quenchers

When that old, red mercury starts climbing toward the top of the thermometer, be ready with thirst quenchers that will buoy up your spirits! Simple to plan, simpler to make. Casual coolers... special occasion beverages... nourishing milk drinks that serve as part of a meal—any one of them will prove to be a welcome pickup when energy seems to be at low ebb. Don't let Mr. Mercury catch you unprepared!

SUGAR SYRUPS—One of the first requisites of cool beverages is the sweetening that can be added instantly. It stretches the sugar supply, too, because it blends with the drink completely. Have some on hand. Combine 1 cup sugar with 2 cups water, stir until dissolved, then boil rapidly for 10 minutes. Cool and store covered in the refrigerator until needed.

FRUIT ADRES—Oranges, lemons and grapefruit are tops among thirst quenchers ingredients. But don't forget other fresh fruit, too. Press the juice from ripe plums, peaches, apricots, nectarines or berries by forcing the fruits through a food press or coarse sieve. Mix the juice with water... or for that added sparkle, mix it with plain carbonated water. Add sugar syrup to taste, and serve frosty cold.

MILK SHAKES—HOME STYLE—When a light snack is in order, serve it in the form of a nourishing milk drink. Mix chilled milk with sugar syrup and flavoring, or with molasses, honey or corn syrup. A dash of plain carbonated water will give it that "ice cream soda fizz," and a bit of nutmeg dashed on top will add just enough spice.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life; but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction. -- Proverbs: 13, 3

INVASION OF SICILY

No great army can go into large scale action with much hope of success against a formidable foe without having had adequate battle experience. The utility of such procedure was made a permanent lesson for all time at the First Battle of Manassas when the untrained Federal army was so ignominiously routed.

The invasion of Sicily may be viewed, from this viewpoint, not as the actual beginning of a second front, but as an enlargement of our army training program under actual battle conditions.

The seizure of this extremely important island will open the way for still larger operations, progressively undertaken until finally we will find ourselves engaged in large scale action against the greatest war machine the world has ever seen—a military organization which received its initial combat experience in running roughshod over the disorganized and almost non-resisting people of the invaded countries.

We will be learning the hard way, and our losses will be severe. But as we expand our military effort, the enemy will face a foe toughened by fighting, not by massacre of civilian population, and they will find in us something their "super-men" have not yet encountered in Europe. Fighting with the desperation of gangsters who see their fate, they may be counted upon to put up a long and determined resistance, but down they will go, unless we let racketeers at home defeat us behind our own lines.

TESTING THE ANTI-STRIKE LAW

At Brownsville, Pennsylvania, a strike is now in progress which probably will furnish the first test of the Smith Anti-Strike Law.

If we had an administration in Washington which was determined to uphold the law, this test should settle for the duration the fact that the people of the United States are becoming weary of temporizing with strikers in war industries while our boys at the front die for want of the materials these strikers could have produced.

Unfortunately, however, there is possibility of a flabby, insincere effort on the part of the government to put this strike down, possibly hoping thereby to demonstrate the un-wisdom of using force against labor-racketeering.

It is to be hoped that this will not be the case. Otherwise we will be entering a period of manufacturing disorganization just at the time when our increasing military effort in Europe demands our maximum output of supplies.

We should have had such a test as this long ago, and the sooner we have it, the more of our beloved fighting men will live to see the home shores again. Stern action is the only way to deal with strikers in vital industries, and let us all hope that this will immediately occur at Brownsville.

July 4, 1943 Camp Carson, Colorado

Dear Mother:

I just got back from Pike's Peak. We had a grand time. The scenery is beautiful. At the top of the peak it is 14,110 feet. On the way up they have many kinds of rock formations, one rock like an elephant, turtle and many others. The timberline goes to 11,000 feet. One mountain doesn't have any timber and is called bald. There are seven lakes between the mountains. These lakes supply all the power for Manitou, Colorado Springs and Camp Carson. One lake is one mile and a half from the track, looks like you are right on it, but it is almost straight down. Doesn't look as large as Lake Jackson, but covers 90 acres and the water is 50 feet deep. As far as the timberline goes is covered with spruce, fir and pine. Snow is in pockets along the peak. The temperature was about 30 in the shade and 60 in the sun. At about 10,000 feet the trees start to get smaller and scrubby and at 11,000 feet they stop. The trees slant with the hills, makes them look crooked but they are straight. The crooked but they are straight. The cent. The front of the car is ten feet higher than the back. They have experiment stations for plants on the way up to see how they grow at high altitudes. We could see a mountain that looked like a haystack 125 miles away in New Mexico. We could see snow all along the Continental Divide 85 miles away.

After we came off the cog wheel route we went up the Manitou incline. The cog wheel was nine miles up and the incline 1 1/2. The incline at Manitou is 68 per cent. The streets at Colorado Springs look like lines from the incline. Cars run every 15 minutes on the incline. You can stay there all day if you want to; the last one is at seven.

It takes an hour and 15 minutes to go an hour and half to go up the cog route. The altitude makes your ears crack and feel funny.

We got up at six, went in town, had breakfast and went to Manitou to catch the train. This was a well worth-while trip. We had turkey dinner at Colorado Springs, then came back to camp. We are going back again if we stay here very long. I had a very nice week end.

Didn't seem like the Fourth of July because it was cool where we were. I will write again when I have time and more news.

With love, OEDIE

Candidates Cards

WILLIAM AND STAFFORD COUNTIES:

I announce my candidacy for re-election to the House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Virginia for the Counties of Prince William and Stafford, subject to the Democratic Primary Election, August 3, 1943.

Having served the good people of these two counties for the past two terms, and having been placed on two major committees—Roads and Finance—I feel that I can be of even greater service in the future. There is no knowledge of the agreement, referred to by my opponent, by which a representative from each county should serve only two terms. I feel certain that the gentleman from Stafford never stood aside for me when first I became a candidate, and I see no reason why I am not entitled to run again.

I appreciate the support which I have had from the people of Stafford and Prince William Counties and if elected, I will endeavor to serve to the best interest of both counties.

Sincerely,
E. R. CONNER,
Manassas, Virginia

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Attorney for the Commonwealth, Prince William County, Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1943.

I wish to express my thanks to the people of Prince William County for their support and cooperation during my present term of office. You know my record, and I feel, that with my past experience, I can successfully render a service to the people of my county. Due to the gasoline shortage it will be impossible for me to see each and every person in the county and so I take this opportunity of soliciting your continued support. You know what I have done in the past, both in private life (as I was born in your midst), and in public life.

If my efforts have met with your help in the coming election.

Sincerely,
W. Hill Brown, Jr.

VIRGINIA: IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA, JULY 8, 1943.

Ben W. Shoemaker, Complainant, v. Elizabeth (Betty) Shoemaker, Defendant.

The general object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant on the grounds of wilful desertion a divorce a mensa et thoro, the same to be made a vinculo matrimonii at the proper time, to obtain custody of their infant son: to compel the defendant to return said son to Prince William County, and for general relief.

And an affidavit and application having been duly filed as provided by statute that the defendant, Elizabeth (Betty) Shoemaker, is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is therefore ordered that the said defendant do appear within ten days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interest: and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published for four successive weeks in the Manassas Journal, a newspaper published and circulating in Prince William County, that a like copy be mailed, by registered letter, to the said defendant at her last known address as set out in said application, and a like copy hereof be posted at the front door of the Court House of said County on or before the next succeeding rule day.

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the County of Prince William, July 7, 1943.

Mazorme Elmore, Complainant vs. Louise Elmore, Defendant

In Chancery

The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant by the complainant on the ground of wilful abandonment for a period of more than two years prior to the filing of this suit, and for general relief.

And, it appearing by affidavit filed according to law that Louise Elmore, the above-named defendant, is not a resident of this state, it is therefore ordered that the said Louise Elmore do appear within ten days after due publication of this order, in the clerk's office of our said Circuit Court, and do what is necessary to protect her interests. And it is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in The Manassas Journal, a newspaper printed in the County of Prince William, Virginia. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be posted at the front door of the courthouse of said county on or before the next succeeding rule day, and that another copy of this order be mailed to the defendant to the post office address given in the affidavit.

Keep Vitamins In Home-Canned Tomatoes

The tomato rates respect because it is chockful of vitamins (A and C), those invisible spark plugs that keep one feeling fit. Because tomatoes are an important food, it is imperative that every one not needed for immediate use be saved by canning, but they must be canned right, else there will be little or no vitamin C left in them. Undue exposure to air after the skins are removed and over-cooking in an uncovered container destroy vitamin C. This is one reason that tomatoes should be prepared and canned as quickly as possible. Usually whole tomatoes have more food value than tomato juice, partly because a considerable amount of vitamin A is lost in the pulp that fails to go through the strainer when the juice is made, but mainly because greater exposure to air destroys vitamin C. If you want first-class canned tomatoes, use freshly gathered, firm-ripe, sound fruit—one small bad spot can ruin a whole batch. Wash the tomatoes before scalding; scald a few at a time. Remove all core, slip off the skins, and cut away green spots. Pack the tomatoes tight into clean hot jars—this is best done by pressing each tomato down with a wooden spoon. Add salt to season to suit your taste—the usual amount is one teaspoon to the quart. Seal jars according to manufacturer's instructions and process 35 minutes in hot water bath. If tomatoes are not fresh from the garden, process 45 minutes.

No juice can be better than the fruit from which it is made, so be sure to use strictly fresh, firm-ripe, red tomatoes, which are free from all decay. Wash well and cut away any green spots or weather cracks. Weather cracks are those splits that form around the stem ends when hot sunshine follows a hard rain. Such tomatoes are unfit for canning or juice unless used immediately after picking. Leave the tomatoes whole and steam or bake them until they are soft; then press through a fine sieve, preferably a cone-shaped one; reheat the juice to simmering; pour into sterilized jars and process 30 minutes at simmering. The pulp will separate from the juice unless a very fine sieve is used or if too much heat is applied at any time. Oh, so you boil the juice in an open kettle until it is thick? Well, that's a fine way to get rid of most of those precious vitamins.

The best tasting juice is that made by pressing whole home-canned tomatoes through a sieve just before serving. Any seasonings liked may be added before canning but the juice will be better if seasonings, except salt, are added when the juice is opened for serving, and even the salt may be left out.

To the voters of Fairfax County:

I respectfully solicit your support in the Democratic Primary, Aug. 3, for nomination as your State Senator.

My record as a Delegate in The General Assembly of Virginia is your assurance of my ability to represent Prince William County in the Senate, for our County is still receiving financial benefits from my legislation in 1934, such as for example, something like $30,000.00 of State aid during the past year.

I am asking your support on the basis of the fitness of your own county man to represent you, but I do wish to call your attention to the fact that Prince William has not had a State Senator for 52 years. During this time Fairfax County has been represented more than half of the time.

Very respectfully,

GEORGE W. HERRING

The biggest field gun in the Army. That's the 240-mm. howitzer. It's twenty-feet of barrel and must be pulled into position by tractors. After it is rolled into place, its own wheels are removed and the Big Bertha is set upon its emplacement ready to fire at its target some twenty miles away.

The cost of these huge guns runs into thousands of dollars but we can assure the Army of obtaining them by our purchases of War Bonds. Ten percent or more of your income is necessary. The easiest way is to join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. Let's "Top that ten percent."

DAIRY FOODS HAVE GONE TO WAR

To provide for the nutritional needs of the nation's fighting forces and for lend lease, civilians must get along with less dairy products in 1943 amounting to the equivalent of 39 quarts of milk. Last year the average person consumed 397 quarts of milk as milk or milk products. This was more than in any previous year. For 1943 there are only 353 quarts of milk available per person.

There have also been important shifts in the way in which milk is consumed. Last year the average person consumed the equivalent of 177 quarts of milk as milk and cream. This year there will be 190 quarts per person available in that form.

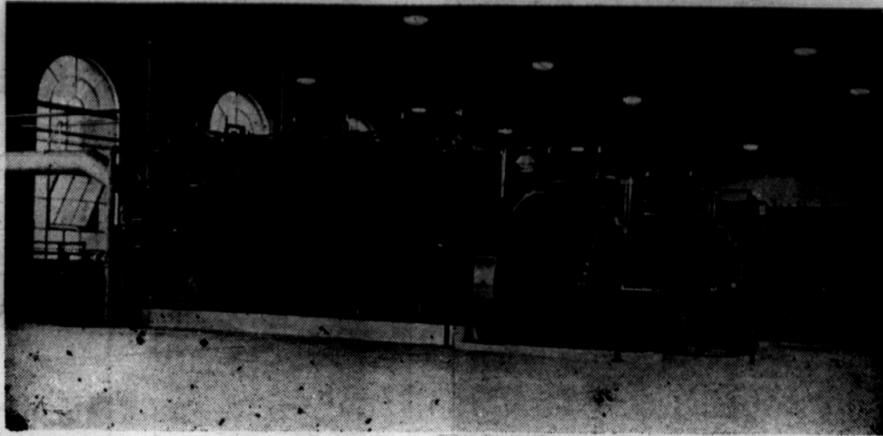

But in every other case the amount of dairy products available has declined. Last year 150 quarts of milk went into the making of the 18 pounds of butter the average American ate. This year we can only have 12.8 pounds of butter coming from 121 quarts of milk. Last year the average person consumed the cheese from 30 quarts of milk, the ice cream from 21 quarts of milk and condensed and dry milk from 19 quarts. This year there are only 22 quarts available for cheese for the average person; 13 quarts for ice cream and 13 quarts for milk in other forms.

Even though production is higher than last year all of the balance of the product is being used for the armed forces and for lend lease. Because of the exceptional nutritional and protective qualities of dairy products soldiers are given approximately twice as much of them as are available for the average civilian, points out the National Dairy Council.

GLIDER SKIMMERS — Flying "freight cars" that drop out of the clouds and can land practically anywhere, are now being built in large numbers for U. S. Army Air Forces. Gliders are towed by bombers as shown on the right. They carry a Jeep, field artillery or 25 lbs. of troops, moving men and material to otherwise inaccessible areas, under fighter protection, and go into action almost instantly. Gliders are far cheaper to build and easier to maintain than the cheapest plane.
