NAVY DAY IS OBSERVED BY CLUB

"Navy Day" was observed by Manassas Kiwanians at their weekly supper meeting at the Prince William Hotel, Friday evening, October 28.

Lieutenant Thomas McMahan, Chaplain at the Quantico Marine Base, summarized the part being taken by the Navy in the present global war and called especial attention to the activities of Army, Navy and Marine Chaplains. Lt. McMahan brought to the attention of the organization that Chaplains in military service were ever present on the front lines, were constantly in the most dangerous war zones and were on hand when our boys were most in need of spiritual guidance. The Chaplain staff also assists the men in working out their many problems while still on duty in the States. While credit was not claimed by Lt. McMahan, it is generally recognized that the clean-cut, high moral standards of our soldiers, sailors and marines are due in a large measure to the influence of the military Chaplain staff carefully chosen from representatives of the various churches throughout the country.

The Rev. John M. DeChant, Pastor of the Episcopal Church and Manassas District Chairman of the War Fund Campaign, was a guest at Friday's meeting.

The local Kiwanis Club continues to maintain its attendance lead among the clubs in Division No. 1 of the Capital District with an average weekly attendance of more than 90 per cent of its total membership in the months of 1943.

A TRIBUTE TO OBSERVERS

Mr. William A. Barbee, Chief Observer, A. W. S. Occoquan, Va.

Dear Mr. Barbee: In retrospect, as I realize the many, many long weary hours that you and your Observers have spent voluntarily in the Defense of America, I know you were relieved when you were informed that your post could be put on an alert status.

Because there are so many persons who do not understand the valuable service that has been rendered by the volunteers in the Aircraft Warning Service, it seems proper that I record here a brief outline of that service for the benefit of those who may question the decision of the Army Command to de-activate certain areas at this time.

On that eventful day in December, 1941, when loyal Americans were asked to actively man the Observation Posts twenty-four hours each day, our country did not at that time have an adequate Aerial Defense system, no anti aircraft batteries, no search light installation, no Radar equipment, in fact, our entire defense for aerial attack depended upon the civilians manning Observation Posts, and a few interceptor planes manned by inexperienced pilots, nor were the capabilities of our enemies known. This all being true, the Command of our Air Defense set up a Ground Observation system sufficient in depth to take care of any eventuality.

Today, after twenty-two months of war we know the capabilities of our enemies—we have Radar equipment installed—we have search light batteries and anti aircraft guns installed in strategic areas, we have an adequate number of interceptor planes, manned by experienced pilots who, with the assistance of the Observation posts on an alert status can and will protect this land of ours from enemy air invasion.

You are being given a vacation from active duty with the understanding that you will keep your organization intact, so that in the days that follow, should the fortunes of war turn against us even for a short duration, you will be asked to once again actively man your posts and I know without a doubt that you and your Observers will be willing and ready when called upon by the Command of the Army Air Forces.

The long hours, the disagreeable experiences, and the considerable amount of money that has been spent by you loyal, patriotic Americans who are now on an alert basis has not been in vain. You protected America when America needed you. Yours is the heritage you can pass on to future generations with justifiable pride, and I am sure that historians will record your sacrificial services.

Sincerely,

G. E. HELLER,
State Liaison Officer, A. W. S.
Assistant-Co-ordinator, O. C. D.

Master Serg't. Eugene Curtis

MANASSAS BOY NOW A SERGEANT

GENE CURTIS PROMOTED TO HIGHER RANK IN ARMY

Clarence E. Curtis, 22, of Manassas, Va., has been promoted to the rank of master sergeant in the Army Air Forces, it was announced by Antilles Air Command Headquarters recently.

One of the youngest master sergeants in the Antilles Air Command, Sgt. Curtis has been on duty in the West Indies for three years. He entered the Army October 12, 1940 at Richmond, Va., and joined his first overseas unit October 31, 1940. He was transferred to his present unit June 6, 1942 and now is stationed at one of important West Indies air bases guarding the vital approaches to the Caribbean area, where he performs the duties of sergeant major. Sgt. Curtis was promoted to corporal March 1, 1941; to sergeant August 15, 1941; to staff sergeant July 10, 1942 and to technical sergeant January 5, 1943.

Born February 24, 1921 at Howard, Ga., Sgt. Curtis is the husband of the former Mary Louise Robbins and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Curtis who reside at 324 West Street, Manassas, Va. He was graduated from Manassas High School in May 1940 and was employed by the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company before entering the Army.

Planes of the Antilles Air Command, of which Sgt. Curtis is a member, fly daily patrol over an area extending from the western tip of Cuba to the equatorial belt of South America, an area 50 times that of Virginia.

Palm-fringed AAC air bases are strategically located on small volcanic islands and in the midst of lush tropical jungles, forming a protective barrier for the gateways to the three Americas.

COLD STORAGE LOCKER DISCUSSED AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

Frank R. Wilson, assistant to the Secretary of the United States Department of Commerce was principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

Mr. Wilson who was introduced by County Agent Frank Cox, gave an interesting talk on cold storage plants in the Middle West where they have been put into operation successfully during the past seven years. Having made a study of the locker industry for the Department of Commerce, the speaker gave informative data on the subject which brought out the economic advantages of food storage. Following the talk, members of the Chamber discussed the possibilities of establishing a locker plant in this vicinity, and a committee composed of Mr. Cox, Miss Nell Grim, home agent, and Edgar G. Parrish, was appointed to cooperate with Mr. Wilson in making a survey of county residents in order to ascertain the demand for such an establishment in the community. The matter was brought before the Chamber some time ago, but was not followed through because of existing conditions which did not appear favorable at the time for the development of a locker project. It has been learned, however, that equipment for a locker plant is available, and because of the necessity for increased production and conservation of food, the idea again has been brought to the attention of the public. The committee will appreciate the cooperation of local residents in obtaining a survey which will show the rural and community needs of a cold storage plant in this area.

WAVES VISIT MANASSAS

Chief Alton Frix, CSp. (R) USN, travelling recruiter for this district made his weekly visit to Manassas Thursday, bringing with him two WAVES, Ensign N. Hankins and Yeoman Mary McBryde, of the Naval Procurement Office, Richmond.

The WAVE Recruiters were very pleased with the interest and cooperation shown by the people of Manassas and expressed their wish that they might be able to return at a future date and talk with the young ladies of this city about the vital need of women in the Navy and the opportunities offered to girls who serve with the men of the United States Navy.

MANASSAS BOY ENLISTS IN NAVY

Marvin T. Evans of Manassas enlisted in the Navy at Richmond, Virginia, on October 29, 1943, and was transferred to the Naval Training Station, Bainbridge, Maryland, for his routine training. On completion of the routine training he will be given a furlough to visit his home before being assigned to trade training.

A CORRECTION

In last week's issue we printed the name of D. Saylor Diehl, of Nokesville, as Daniel S. Diehl. We wish to make the correction. The army rather uniform uses the first name and initial of the second name and we followed their procedure in publishing the picture of our young friend.

WINS CONTEST FOR CLERK

Worth H. Storke

Assistant Cashier of The Peoples National Bank of Manassas, who has been elected Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince William for a term of eight years.

Mr. Storke has given this Journal the following statement expressing To the Citizens of Prince William County:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the citizens of Prince William County for the high honor conferred on me in electing me to the office of Clerk of the Court of this County in the General Election on November 2, 1943.

I realize the responsibility of the office and the opportunity it offers for serving all the people of the County. I shall make every effort to prove myself worthy of the confidence imposed in me.

Gratefully,

WORTH H. STORKE.

T. B. ASSOCIATION MEETS

Officers of the Prince William County Tuberculosis Association met on Tuesday evening at the residence of the chairman, the Rev. John M. DeChant, to complete the semi-annual report and to make final plans for the launching of the 37th annual Christmas Seal Sale Campaign which will begin on November 22nd. The quota set for the county this year is $1375, or only $100 more than the 1942 goal. Mrs. Frank Cox will direct the county campaign again this year with the assistance of the following District chairmen who carried on the drive so successfully last year:

Dumfries: Mrs. J. F. McInerter; Gainesville: Mrs. Holmes Robertson; Manassas: Mrs. Maurice Smith; Coles: W. Y. Ellicott; Brentsville: Mrs. Benjamin Brown; Occoquan: Mrs. Eva K. Garner. Negro Auxiliary, Margaret O. Townes. Assistant chairmen in the various districts will be named at a later date.

Mrs. Marshall Haydon, secretary, announced that an extensive Educational Program had been conducted throughout the county by means of distribution of literature, posters, and teaching materials for schools. Approximately 115 children and adults were x-rayed at the Tuberculosis diagnosis clinic held at the local Health Office last April and another clinic is scheduled to be conducted on November 8th, 9th, and 10th when a maximum of 125 patients will be provided x-rays. The clinics are sponsored by the State Health Department, the Prince William Health Department and the local Tuberculosis Association.

The semi-annual report made by Mrs. J. Carl Kincheleoe, treasurer, showed expenditures from April 1st to September, 1943, amounted to $335.65 which included the following items: x-rays, $158; clothing and sanatorium care, $35.50; cod liver oil, $65.84; milk, $42.88; supplies, $22.43 and $11 for miscellaneous expenses.

The Association's only means of raising funds for the year-round work undertaken in the county, is the annual Christmas Seal Campaign which through the sale of appealing stamps, provides dollars to fight tuberculosis.

BIG CAULIFLOWER

Mr. A. W. Nalls brought in a large cauliflower, weighing 7½ pounds. It was a beauty and made us very hungry. It measured 45 inches in circumference. It was grown on the Robnell Farm near Manassas.

ENLISTS IN THE NAVY

Louis Aldine May, of Manassas enlisted in the Navy at Richmond, on Nov. 3, 1943, and was transferred to the Naval Training Station, Sampson, New York, for his routine training. On completion of his routine training he will be given a furlough to visit his home before being assigned to trade training.

CHRISTMAS SEALS READY TO MAIL

CHAIRMAN NAMED FOR EACH DISTRICT

Christmas Seals, which residents of Prince William will receive from the County Tuberculosis Association through the mails on Monday, November 22, have just arrived at the offices of the association. Volunteer committees were appointed last week, and work is already under way to prepare for the mailing of the Seals, according to Mrs. Frank Cox, county chairman of the campaign.

The following civic leaders have accepted the chairmanship in the county's six districts: Mrs. Maurice Smith, Manassas; Mrs. J. F. McInerter, Dumfries; Mrs. Holmes Robertson, Gainesville; Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Brentsville; Mrs. Eva K. Garner, Occoquan and W. Y. Ellicott, Coles. Mrs. Dorothy Hall is chairman for the Negro Auxiliary.

The Christmas Seal Sale, held by the association in conjunction with the nationwide campaign, is the only appeal made throughout the year for funds to support the work of tuberculosis control. Ninety-five per cent of the money raised through the sale remains in the state. Five per cent goes to the National Tuberculosis Association which, in addition to many activities in tuberculosis work on a national level, supports extensive medical research in the field of tuberculosis.

The Rev. John M. DeChant, president of the local Tuberculosis Association, states that the budget committee has set the goal of the 1943 sale at $1,375. The funds from the sale finance the year-round work of the Association.

This necessary amount can be raised if contributors of past years make their usual contributions and the mailing lists are increased by a small per cent with new names.

The chairman advises stamp collectors to get in touch with the association immediately in order to get the new Seals. Prior to the mailing date, Seals may be obtained at the Health Office, Prince William Pharmacy, Coker's Pharmacy, Manassas, or from the chairmen.

BUILDING A BETTER WORLD

A new supplementary health teaching unit, "Building A Better World," has just been supplied to the teachers of Prince William County by the local Tuberculosis Association.

The unit was prepared by students taking the course in "Guidance" at Teachers College, Columbia University, under the direction of Dr. Ruth Strang, and was sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association.

Dr. Strang is the author of a number of well-known teaching guides, including the "Health and Growth" series of textbooks used throughout the country. She is also author of the teaching unit, "Healthful Living in the Home," published by the National Tuberculosis Association in 1938.

Commenting on the teaching unit, Miss Sue Ayres, elementary supervisor, stresses the fact that wartime teaching of health in the schools is an important phase of home front defense.

All graded and high schools in the County have received the teaching units and plan to use them in connection with their regular classroom projects.

EXHIBIT OF CHINESE ART

The Womens Club of Manassas, will meet in the Parish Hall on Monday, November 8 at 2:30 P. M.

Following the business session, Mrs. Everett Rice will speak on her "Experiences in China". An exhibit of Chinese Art and articles will be on exhibit, and present indications are that this will be a fine exhibit and well worth while for members of the club as well as the general public.

The exhibit will be arranged between the hours of 11 a. m. and 12 noon on Monday. Anyone having articles from China is asked to exhibit, and to bring them at this time. Exhibit will be open to general public from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. when tea will be served, and in the evening from 7:30 p. m. to 10 p. m.

A silver offering will be taken for China Relief. Public cordially invited for lecture and to visit exhibit.

Curtailed spending.
Put your savings
into war bonds every payday.

"Naturally, I don't know when the war will end..."

"The sooner the better, is all I can say. But I know that until it ends, you and I have a duty to your car that gets more important every day..."

"EVERY CAR that still runs is an essential cog in the country's whole transportation scheme. As the older cars quit, the ones still left get more and more essential.

"I'm not making scare-talk when I say that even standing in a garage most of the time, your car gets run down. Metals corrode. Oil gets dirty and sludgy. Grease dries out. The battery runs down. Spark plugs get fouled up. Radiator hose connections go bad. Tires get soft, so the sidewalls bend and crack.

"In these times, it's a crime to let this happen. Because you don't have to! Almost anyone's car can see him through, if he'll give it a chance.

"We're still here with everything it takes to help protect your car, whatever make it is. You find us short-handed sometimes, but we're long on experience and good equipment and reliable Esso products.

"However little you drive, you need winter oil and a winter grease job. Your battery fit and strong.

Your radiator tight and ready with anti-freeze. Your tires checked over, maybe switched around to get the most out of them. This is mighty important right now—to keep your car in service for the duration. Come on in. Right this week. Winter's getting close!"

Cradle of Religious Liberty Will Honor Virginia Patriot

Rising Sun Tavern at Fredericksburg and General Weedon, its Colonial host. The 150th anniversary of his death will be commemorated on Armistice Day, November 11th.

Virginians will commemorate, on Armistice Day, November 11, the 150th anniversary of the death of General George Weedon, soldier, patriot, postmaster and famous innkeeper of Colonial times.

His Rising Sun Tavern at Fredericksburg was built by George Washington's brother Charles about 1760. It is maintained as an historic shrine by the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

In the taproom of the Tavern on January 13, 1777, Thomas Jefferson, and four other prominent Virginians met by order of the Assembly and framed the first draft of the bill that was later passed as the Statute of Virginia for Religious Liberty. This statute was later the basis of the first article of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution.

Long before the Revolution broke, the tavern had established itself as a "hotbed of insurrection," with Mine Host George Weedon, who was also postmaster, fanning the flames. Gathered about him were such patriots as Patrick Henry, George Washington, Peyton Randolph, John Paul Jones, young James Monroe and others.

When the war came, Innkeeper Weedon became a lieutenant colonel in the Third Virginia Regiment, later winning promotion to colonel and then brigadier general, and for a time acting as adjutant to Gen. Washington. He commanded brilliantly at Brandywine and Germantown. "Wherever he fought, his great figure and stentorian voice were prominent in the conflict," one historian wrote of him. He also played a prominent part in the siege of Yorktown.

After the war, Gen. Weedon became first president of the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati, founded in his tavern. A few years ago a tablet commemorating this event was unveiled at the tavern, with Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff of the U. S. Army, a guest of honor.

One of the tavern's memorable events was the Peace Ball held there in 1781 to celebrate Yorktown's fall. Gen. Washington, with his mother, Mary, leaning on his arm, attended, as did Lafayette, Rochambeau and "Mad" Anthony Wayne.

Yayland who has been in the mercantile business in Occoquan for twenty-one years, also owning and operating the Woodbridge Grocery, Woodbridge, Va., since 1938, has sold both the Woodbridge Grocery and property to Messrs. D. C. West and Fred Switzer, who are successfully operating the same business. The stock in the Occoquan store has been purchased by Mr. J. M. Wynkoop of Leesburg, who has been employed by Mr. Yayland for the past five years, and who will continue to operate the business in the same building. Much success is wished for the new proprietors.

CEILING PRICES

SWEET POTATOES: Many inquiries are coming to this office relative to the ceiling price on sweet potatoes. This is one of the few items which is still exempt from price control at all levels. Canned sweet potatoes, of course, are priced as "canned vegetables" under Maximum Price Regulation 421 at the wholesale level and Maximum Price Regulation 422 and 423 at retail.

FRESH OYSTERS: Here is another item that is still exempt from price control except when sold by an eating establishment. Under Restaurant MPR 4-1, the ceiling price which an eating establishment may charge for oysters is set at the highest price at which the same item was offered during the period April 4-10, 1943. Of course, a restaurant does not have to serve oysters if it feels the cost is prohibitive. Restaurants which did not serve oyster dishes during the base period (April 4-10, 1943) may calculate their ceiling prices by following the method provided in Section 3 of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 4-1.

GIRL SCOUTS NEAR MILLION MARK

SOMEWHERE in America today is a girl whose community is going to make it possible for her to be the millionth Girl Scout.

At the time of Pearl Harbor, the Girl Scouts, then 650,000 strong, offered their services to the nation and all over the country men and women gave more thought to the problems of girls, gave their services to the organization of Girl Scout troops, and spent hours of time fitting girls into a wartime picture. The Girl Scout organization began to absorb more girls than in any period of the organization's history. Since Pearl Harbor the total membership has grown twenty-five per cent. A goal has been set for a million or more in 1944. The services the Girl Scouts have given range from collecting tons of fats, scrap metal, silk hose, and rubber to crop rescue squads. Many farmers were skeptical when offered the help of 'teen age Girl Scouts to pick their crops. At the end of the summer one group of farmers, at Walkill, New York, asked for Girl Scouts again next year, in double the number. Farmers in neighboring counties say they want Girl Scouts, too. The Treasury Department has cited the Girl Scouts for their service in the War Bond drives. Girl Scouts have assisted the Civilian Defense offices, Red Cross, nursery schools, and other organizations including hospitals. In one rural community, the chief of a hospital staff wrote, "without the Girl Scouts we'd have a hard time." More and more communities are finding Girl Scouts an asset, so that the number of Scouts increases daily. With every town in America offered the advantages of Girl Scouting, the total soon will reach a million.

For information on how to start a Girl Scout troop, write to Girl Scouts, 155 East 44th Street, New York 17, N. Y.

Julia says—
Don't you believe it!

EVERY WEEK I'm amazed at the number of letters we receive, starting off with "Is it true that..." and going on to ask about something which is almost in the realm of superstition. For instance, a surprising number of people still think it's dangerous to eat cucumbers and milk together, yet they will use a sour cream dressing on cucumbers. And so many have been asking questions about canned foods. I thought perhaps you too might like to know some of the answers.

HOME CANNED

"Is it true that I should cook home-canned vegetables before using?" Definitely yes! Each home-canned vegetable should be cooked for 15 minutes immediately after opening the container, even before tasting, to insure complete safety. And if you put some away for later use, that should be cooked again before eating.

COMMERCIAL CANNED

"Is it true that the liquid of commercially-canned peas should be thrown away?" No! If the peas are good to eat, the liquid they're packed in certainly is too! Liquid in all canned foods is simply the water in which the food is cooked, it contains valuable food elements, and should either be cooked back into the food or used in sauce or soup.

FOOD IN OPEN CANS

"Is it true that it's dangerous to leave food in an open can?" No! The Department of Agriculture says of commercially-canned foods: "Whether in the original can or in another container, the principal precautions for keeping food are—Keep it cool and keep it covered." But the opened can must be immediately put under refrigeration.

AND FINALLY:

"Is it true that you like to answer all kinds of questions on food, Mrs. Wright?" YES! But, please, oh please! Make those questions definite and detailed when you write, and address your letters to Julia Lee Wright, P. O. Box 660-SS, Oakland 4, California.

THE CONTEST FOR CLERK

In one of the cleanest campaigns ever waged for public office in this county Mr. Worth Storker has won the most highly prized public office at the Courthouse.

Mr. Storker in victory, and Mr. O. D. Waters, in defeat, have both been raised to a very high place in the estimation of their admiring friends. One had to win, and one to lose, but in that loss and gain every citizen may point with pride as an example of how gentlemen may contend for public favor in mutual friendliness and cordial esteem.

In congratulating our friend who has won election to the Office of County Clerk, we cannot forget the great service which has been rendered to Prince William County by Mr. Waters during his occupancy of the office. It has been important that the Court Records and other work of the Clerk be kept going forward, and Mr. Waters has performed this public service, sacrificing opportunity for personal campaigning in order that the work of the office might not be impaired.

Prince William County needs such men as these and we wish it were possible, when we go up to the Courthouse, to find them both there.

THE RUSSIAN CONFERENCE

It is impossible for an uninformed observer to make any adequate appraisal of the results of the conference which has just been concluded in Moscow between Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States; British Foreign Secretary, Sir Anthony Eden; and Soviet Foreign Commissar, Vyacheslav Molotov; and their respective staffs.

We express the doubt of the plain-folks that any great military commitments are involved. The representation was obviously diplomatic and

HAS GROWN TOO...

WHEN war came, we and other banks started making war production loans. Then we began selling War Bonds. Then came ration banking... and Food for Freedom program... and the withholding taxes—all of which required tremendous work by banks. The tempo of regular bank services shot skyward. We're not complaining—we are proud to be playing such a large part in the home-front conduct of the war.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Cox are visiting relatives in Kentucky this week.

Mrs. L. S. Rohr is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. B. Emerson, in Watertown, N. Y.

Mrs. Annie Adamson, of Dumfries, was a pleasant caller this week. She was looking very well and was visiting with Mrs. O. D. Waters.

Plans are being made for the observance of Book Week at the Ruffner-Carnegie Library. One day of this week will be set aside as Public Library Day and all patrons are urged to visit the Library at that time. Further plans will be announced next week.

The many friends of Ann Burchard will be happy to learn that she earned her corporacy in the Motor Transport School at Camp Lejeune, and she is now stationed at the Marine Air Base at Cherry Point, N. C.

Miss Dolly Burchard spent last week end at Callands, Va., visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Swanson. She assisted Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. S. A. Swanson in entertaining for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swanson who were recently married.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Muddiman and son Roy Jr., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Walters and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harrington, Alexandria, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bowen were in Manassas on Thursday last. Mrs. Bowen visited with Mrs. R. A. Muddiman.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Ethel Leffler on Tuesday, November 9 at 2 o'clock.

Technical Sgt. Raymond H. Bryant has returned to Camp Edwards, Mass., after spending his 7-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryant.

A RESOLUTION

In the light of time death has removed from our chapter a loyal and faithful member.

Mrs. Maud Larkin Ashford Therefore the Manassas Chapter United Daughters of Confederacy herein express sorrow because of the irreparable loss suffered and feel that in her passing to the far away Home of Eternal rest that we are deprived of a valiant leader, a wise counselor and an able defender of the Southern Cause.

In patience she bore her afflictions and her beautiful faith in her Heavenly Father's love gave comfort to those who administered unto her. "She is not dead—Life has but set her free."

To her family and friends we extend sympathy and desire a copy of these resolutions to be sent to her bereaved husband and a copy spread upon the minute book of our Chapter.

KRAUT EASY TO MAKE BUT NOT TO BUY—YET—
Homemade sauerkraut will be a special treat this fall, because grocery stores will have no kraut for sale to civilians for some months. The War Food Administration has frozen all kraut in the hands of the packers until they have supplied the three and a half million cases needed for military use. All kraut in cans will go to the boys in uniform. When the civilian supply comes on the market, it will be in kegs as it was last year.

The late cabbage crop which is used for kraut is smaller this year than last but demands on it are heavier. Cabbage is not only being used fresh and in kraut this year, but it is also being dried for the dried soup being shipped abroad to our armed forces and allies.

Either cabbage or rutabagas from the Victory garden may be "kraut-ed". Rutabagas prepared this way are called sauer ruben but taste like sauerkraut. For kraut using only fresh sound vegetables, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

NOTICE SALE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY

The County School Board of Prince William County will offer for sale at PUBLIC AUCTION to the highest bidder the Buckhall School AUCTIONEER—I offer my services to the public as licensed auctioneer. Satisfaction guaranteed. Reasonable charges. John M. Kline, phone 8-P-12, Manassas, Va. House and Lot, Containing approximately one acre, on MONDAY NOV. 15, 1943 at 11 A.M. in front of the school building at Buckhall.

R. C. HAYDON, Clerk.

Remove outside leaves of cabbage, cut in quarters and remove cores. Wash Rutabagas and trim off tops. Shred vegetables with a sharp knife or cutter, then weigh them. Allow one-fourth pound of pure granulated salt (a scant half cup) to each 10 pounds of vegetable. Mix salt and vegetable evenly and pack in sound, clean crocks. Cover with several layers of clean white cheese cloth tucked down over the vegetable inside the crock, then with a plate a little smaller than the inside of the crock, and finally a stone about the size of a brick to weigh down plate and vegetables. Store at a temperature of 70 to 75 degrees F.

The salt soon draws the juice from the vegetable to form enough brine to come up over the plate. As a white scum forms on top of the brine, remove it by lifting off weight, plate and cheesecloth carefully, then washing and replacing them. In two or three weeks when bubbling stops, the fermentation is finished and the kraut ready to cook and eat at once, or to pack in glass jars and can by processing in a hot-water bath 25 to 30 minutes.

Save Screens This Fall
Keep window screens fit for the duration by cleaning and painting this fall, then storing carefully for the winter, advises the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Because neither bronze (often called "copper") nor aluminum-coated screening is being manufactured now, it is scarce and precious. Enameled and galvanized steel screening still on the market needs special protection against rust.

Scrub the screens with soap and water to remove dirt, grease and soot that doesn't brush off, then dry thoroughly. Any rust on the screen may be removed by rubbing with a stiff brush dipped in turpentine. After drying, paint the wire mesh on both sides with screen enamel. To prevent the wooden frames from warping or rotting paint with exterior house paint.

Good winter quarters for screens are clean, dry and safely out of the way of objects that might bend or break the wire. Screens must be stored level as frames will not warp during the winter.

DO WHAT YOU CAN FOR GREEK WAR RELIEF

While we are helping the various war relief projects, this newspaper especially invites attention to the needs of Greek sufferers.

All civilized people know of the tragic fate of Greece and of the desperate plight of the heroic people of that unfortunate country.

Their countrymen here are only modestly asking for donations of clothing, and we urge our friends to help.

The local Greek War Relief Committee is making the following appeal:

"The Greek War Relief Association is asking for donations of clothing of all kinds, particularly coats, shoes, and underwear, for suffering Greek population.

"The storeroom at No. 515 C. St., in the rear of the Quantico Railroad Station will be open from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. Please leave donations there, as the local Committee has no means of calling for your gifts.

"Ask Pete Pandazides or Harry Conkinides.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Notice is hereby given that Aubrey Kincheloe, of Dumfries, Va., trading as Dumfries Inn, 2 miles North of Dumfries on Route 1, intends to apply to the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Board at its offices in the Central National Bank Building, Richmond, Va., on October 18, 1943, for Retail License to sell Beer, on and off Premises, in the building owned by V. F. Kincheloe, and located 2 miles North of Dumfries, Prince William County, Va.

DUMFRIES INN,
By AUBREY KINCHELOE

TO: John Ogden
110 Ruggles Street
Roxbury, Mass.

Harold Leventhal
73 Tremont Street
Boston, Mass.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 6th day of December, 1943, I will move the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M., at the Circuit Court Room, Court House, Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, to condemn and sell that certain G. M. C. (Diesel) Tractor, Engine No. 6713876, Makers No. 032, bearing Mass. license for the year 1943, A28-404, Tab. No. 597378, and one Universal Trailer, Makers No. 1213, bearing Mass. license for the year 1943, T18-476, Tab. No. 597379, which belong to John Ogden, 110 Ruggles Street, Roxbury, Mass., and upon which Harold Leventhal, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., has a lien, which said Tractor and Trailer were seized by Virginia State Trooper, namely, Lt. Wayne Carr, on October 14th, 1943, and were immediately placed in the custody of J. P. Kerlin, Sheriff, Prince William County, Virginia, in the Town of Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, by Virginia State Trooper Lt. Wayne Carr, where said Tractor and Trailer is stored at the present time. When said Tractor and Trailer were seized they were in the possession of John Ogden, 110 Ruggles Street, Roxbury, Mass., loaded with alcoholic beverages, namely, about 1830 gallons, which was being transported within, into and through the Commonwealth of Virginia in violation of the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Given under my hand this 15th day of October, 1943.

STOCK NOT TAXABLE

Payment of the Preference Stock dividend declared October 6 to holders of Chesapeake & Ohio Common will not constitute taxable income to stockholders, according to a ruling by Robert E. Hannegan, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, received today by C. & O. counsel.

The ruling was announced by the railroad. It is contained in a letter addressed to Walter S. Orr, tax counsel, and is in reply to a request made by Mr. Orr on behalf of the railroad. In making his application for the ruling, Mr. Orr points out that when the dividend was declared by the board on October 6, there was outstanding no class of stock other than the Common stock, inasmuch as the Preference Stock, Series A, previously outstanding, had been redeemed on October 1.

The proposed dividend of Preference Stock, Series of 1943, of the railroad is payable pro rata to all holders of C. & O. Common, subject to approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Application for such approval is now pending before the Commission.

"Based on the facts submitted for consideration," Mr. Hannegan's letter reads, "it is the opinion of the Bureau that the dividend shares will not constitute taxable income to the stockholders at the time of their issuance as a dividend."

The Commissioner's ruling points out that the cost, or other bases, of the common stock will be apportioned between the Common Stock held and the Preference Stock received, in proportion to their respective values at the time of issuance of the Preference Stock.

What Uncle Sam Bought

SHREWD old Uncle Sam seems to be as spry as ever—when his interests are at stake. Somewhere in the general mad-house that is Washington rumors began to fly that all was not well along the Potomac.

Two years ago the rumblers were confined to obscure army and navy of scars. But more important people came to see that these quiet experts knew what they were talking about, and Washington woke up one morning to the fact that the U. S. was woefully deficient in some pretty important commodities.

With the maddening inefficiency of all democracies, Congress finally drew up a bill to allow the U. S. to purchase the things of foreign origin that cannot be produced in America. After the usual amount of talk and delay the bill was finally passed and got itself on the front page of the newspapers. There was general amazement that the U. S. needed seventeen commodities so badly that the government was purchasing huge quantities.

And, to the busy newspaper reader, one of the strangest of the seventeen was an item of quinine—tons of it. It sounded like a huge supply of just one drug, and people wondered whether the government had blundered.

But it hadn't, and the doctors who wrote that section of the bill pointed out that Greece often bought 32 tons per year—so that the U. S. purchase was really very moderate. What they didn't say but every doctor knows is that quinine is the world remedy for malaria and that this disease, in any war, will incapacitate more men than fighting, if it is not controlled.

The shrewd old gentleman with the speckled coat has not forgotten Panama when General Gorgas demanded and got over a ton of quinine a year and so made the canal possible. And Uncle Sam knows, too, the avoidable loss of life from malaria in the World War. He is determined that if war comes, U. S. soldiers and sailors will be protected by quinine against malaria, well knowing that his army and navy doctors will need at least 20 grains per day for 5-7 days for every malaria case. That means a lot of quinine, and at Washington the government vaults now contain eight and a half million ounces.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Book Week is Coming!

BOOK WEEK, November 14-20. It will be celebrated in our community under the leadership of librarians and teachers and throughout the nation, boys, girls and their parents will rally to the slogan, "Build the Future with Books." In this war year, the aims of the observance—to bring young people and good books together—is even more vital than in peacetime. As the editor of The Horn Book states: "The children of today will tomorrow face great opportunities and tremendous responsibilities. The manner in which they face both will depend upon the imaginative spur received in these years of childhood."

The exhibits and programs planned in our community contribute to that "imaginative spur" and visitors to local libraries, schools and bookstores will find much to interest them, and activities to share during Children's Book Week.

Navigation interests and others are advised that there will be test firing in the waters of OCCOQUAN BAY and POTOMAC RIVER from the vicinity of Sandy Point, Virginia, until further notice.

Firing will occur two or three times per week and will last for intermittent periods during all hours of the day and night. The direction of fire will be approximately 195 degrees (true) from Sandy Point, Virginia.

The danger zone covered by the firing activities will include a triangular area, the west side of which extends from Sandy Point, Virginia, to a point 100 yards east of Freestone Point, Virginia, and the east side from Sandy Point to a point 350 yards west of can buoy C-37A on Mattawoman Bar. During firing periods, a large red flag will be displayed by day and a red light by night from a flag pole on Sandy Point. The general area is shown on U. S. C. and G. S. Chart 560, and on the map on the reverse side of this sheet.

Generally no restrictions will be imposed on through traffic in the Potomac River or Occoquan Bay, but vessels are requested not to remain in the danger zone during the display of firing signals. Vessels traffic will be instructed on navigation procedure by patrol boats during special tests which might endanger navigation.

How much does it cost to bomb Berlin?

SUPPOSE, in the dusk of an English evening, 1,000 huge bombers soar over the Channel and head for Berlin.

By the time those planes return to England, their motors will have consumed 2,400,000 gallons of gasoline!

The cost . . . of the gasoline ALONE . . . will be more than $380,000.

To pay for the gasoline used on ONE such raid, 96,000 Americans would have to invest at least 10 percent of their next pay check in War Bonds!

You get a big kick out of reading about those 1,000-plane raids. You know that such raids, if repeated often enough, will soften up the Axis. But . . .

What are YOU doing to help pay the cost of those raids? (In addition to the gasoline they use, it costs Uncle Sam TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS to build 1,000 4-motored bombers . . . plus the cost of training the 10,000 men who make up their crews!)

Modern war is expensive business . . . its cost runs into fantastic figures. 30,000,000 American wage earners are now putting an average of 10 percent of each pay check into War Bonds every pay day . . . but still it isn't enough!

Our air raids on the Axis are increasing in frequency and intensity. When land operations really get going, the cost will be staggering.

More and more Americans must join the Pay-Roll Savings Plan . . . more than those already in the Pay-Roll Savings Plan must begin to jack up their War Bond purchases . . . must start to invest more than 10 percent!

Remember . . . War Bonds are the finest investment in the world today. You get back $4 for every $3 you invest. And . . . the more War Bonds you buy now, the quicker the Axis will be licked . . . and the less the war will cost in the long run.

Think it over. And every time you're tempted to put a nickel in something you don't absolutely need—put it in War Bonds instead!

KEEP ON BACKING THE ATTACK!
