TUBERCULOSIS IN WARTIME

By Iago Gaidston, M. D.
Executive Secretary, Medical Information Bureau, New York Academy of Medicine

In time of war—beware of tuberculosis. Beware of tuberculosis at all times, but particularly so in war-time. For war and tuberculosis go together. And if we are to profit by past experiences, then we must redouble our guard.

In the last World War tuberculosis gained headway among all the peoples involved. The death rate, which up to 1914 had been steadily declining, began to rise shortly after hostilities broke out and continued to do so as the war years added up.

In this war it is not unlikely that tuberculosis will again make headway. Up to the present the tuberculosis record in the United States is in the main reassuring. But in England the early war years showed an increase of 10 per cent in deaths from tuberculosis. The figures for most of the other warring nations are either unavailable or unreliable.

But even in our own country, despite a continued decline in the general death rate from tuberculosis, there are some disturbing figures for the younger age groups. During the past year (1942) there was a noteworthy rise in tuberculosis deaths among young white men 15 to 24 years of age, and among young girls 10 to 14 years of age. These figures are a challenge which we must meet promptly and effectively.

One of the most important weapons in the war against tuberculosis is the X-ray. Every young person going to work for the first time should have his or her lungs X-rayed. Such an X-ray is of greater value when it is part of a complete medical examination. Of equal importance are the day-in, day-out living habits, principally good and adequate food and sufficient rest.

Eating isn't a matter of appeasing hunger. What we need are the right kinds of food in sufficient quantities to supply the energy and to keep us healthy. There is nothing "faddish" or "fussy" in knowing what foods we need and in eating them.

Adequate rest is of equal importance. Recreation and entertainment are also good, but not when purchased at the cost of sleep.

Then to be on "double guard," every one should know the signs and symptoms of tuberculosis: loss of weight, a "cold" that hangs on, a tiredness you can't get rid of, fever, spitting blood. The presence of any one of these does not necessarily mean that the individual has tuberculosis, but each of these symptoms should be investigated.

In these days of intensive war effort, every man, woman and child counts. We need all the health and vitality we can muster. We cannot afford to gamble with or to waste any of our manpower. It is our individual responsibility to see that none of it is wasted. Learn how to best care for your own health and that of your family and how to protect yourself against the menace of tuberculosis.

Your local tuberculosis association is ready and eager to help you. You will find there literature, posters, information and advice. It is yours for the asking. Your support of the annual Christmas Seal Sale has made them your weapons for health and victory.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS PROGRAM HELD BY KIWANIANS

Guests and members of the Manassas Kiwanians Club met at the Prince William Hotel on Thursday evening, December 23, for a festive dinner which was followed by a special Christmas program arranged by Song Leader G. Raymond Ratcliffe.

The singing of carols was participated in by the entire group while several vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. Dennis Baker and Mrs. Joseph Hanson accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Royer at the piano. Attractive Christmas Carol souvenir folders were distributed by Mr. Ratcliffe. A brief, entertaining talk by Kiwanian O. D. Waters and contributions from other members added variety to the program.

Guests of the members included Mrs. R. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Mrs. O. D. Waters, Mrs. R. W. Peters, Mrs. Aylene Guthrie, Mrs. E. G. Parrish, Mrs. Frank Sigman, Miss Betty Parrish, Miss Nancy Parrish, Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. J. C. Kincheloe, Mrs. Joseph Hanson, Mrs. John Beard, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kincheloe and Mr. Howard Luck. ## BLOOD DONOR CLINIC, JAN. 18

150 men and women volunteers are being sought by the Prince William County Chapter of the American Red Cross to give one pint of blood each on January 18, when the Mobile Unit for blood donors again comes to Manassas.

The Mobile Unit will be set up in the Parish Hall of the Episcopal Church in Manassas, from 9:30 A. M. to 2 P. M. Persons between the ages of 21 and 60 are eligible, and those from 18 to 21 may donate if they bring the consent of parents or guardian, written in ink, with signature witnessed.

ROHR - CONNER

A wedding of interest throughout Northern Virginia took place on New Years Day when Trinity Episcopal Church in Manassas was the scene of a candlelight ceremony in which Miss Walsen Conner, daughter of Hon. Edgar Ren Conner, of Manassas, became the bride of Lt. Edgar Erwin Rohr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle S. Rohr, of Front Royal and Manassas, Virginia.

The service was performed by the Rev. Thomas A. Faulkner, Rector of Dettingen Parish, and the Rev. John M. DeChant, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Manassas, before the altar decorated with white gladioli and candelabra.

While guests were assembling Mrs. George Keith Lyons gave an organ recital, playing "Ave Maria" by Schubert, and "Nocturne" by Mendelssohn. Mrs. Dennis Baker played the wedding processional and recessional and soft music throughout the service.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace with long pointed sleeves and a full skirt. Her finger ring fell from a tangle of lace, and she carried her mother's prayer book ornamented with white carnations and trailing bouvardia.

Mr. Lyle S. Rohr acted as best man for his son, and the ushers were Mr. Edgar Ren Conner, Jr., twin brother of the bride; Mr. William Sedrick Saunders; Mr. Joseph Carl Kincheloe and Capt. John Woods Beard.

A reception for the members of the two families and immediate friends followed the ceremony, at Birmingham, the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. Joseph Carl Kincheloe and Mrs. Kincheloe, which was decorated with white flowers and holiday greens for the occasion.

Lt. and Mrs. Rohr left for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to Princeton, New Jersey, where Lt. Rohr is now stationed. The bride wore a travelling suit and hat of powder blue wool with black accessories.

Amendment 10 to Maximum Price Regulation 422, effective January 8, 1944, permits retailers to purchase poultry live or dressed and sell drawn or eviscerated as though it had been purchased drawn or eviscerated, using as the retailers "net cost" the lowest selling price fixed by Revised Maximum Price Regulation 269, which would apply to sales to a merchant from his customary type of supplier.

This amendment, effective on January 8th, permits retailers to buy live or hog dressed and then draw or eviscerate and sell as though the poultry was purchased drawn or eviscerated.

New Year Resolutions for 1944

Being fully cognizant of the fact that in spite of prevalent optimism the war is NOT yet won;
AND

Being fully convinced that the women of the United States must DO THEIR PART if 1944 is to see a successful conclusion;

I HEREBY THOUGHTFULLY AND FIRMLY RESOLVE:

- 1) To buy at least one War Saving Bond each month.
- 2) To buy at least one EXTRA Bond in each forth-coming drive.
- 3) To encourage my children to complete and turn in their half-filled stamp books.
- 4) To regularly and cheerfully assist my local War Finance Committee in every way possible—even to the point of giving up an afternoon of bridge thereof.

- 5) To help prevent inflation by curbing all unnecessary spending, i.e., luxury items. (I don't really need that extra lipstick!)
- 6) To maintain my status as a member of the Blue Star Brigade by buying or selling an additional Bond each month.
- 7) To count my many blessings frequently and give thanks that my country is still a free one, my children healthy and happy, and that I am able to contribute in a small way toward a lasting peace.

(Contributed by Mrs. J. Vincent Davis, chairman, Women's Division Prince William War Loan Committee.)

MRS. KATIE BRADSHAW

The entire community was both shocked and grieved at the passing of our friend and neighbor, Mrs. K. M. Bradshaw on December 17, 1943, at the home of her son B. Nelson Bradshaw in Alexandria, Virginia, after an illness of about five months.

Miss Katie M. Kerlin, daughter of the late David F. and Anna Kerlin was born in Prince William County, September 2, 1883. Thirty-eight years ago she married Mr. K. M. Bradshaw of Brentsville, Virginia. To them were born six children, Philip Bradshaw who preceded her to the grave September 1918, also an infant son in 1921. Those surviving her at the time of her death are B. Nelson Bradshaw of Alexandria, Virginia; Murray W. Bradshaw of Rockville, Maryland; Virginia Bradshaw of Alexandria, Virginia; and Cpl. Kendrick Montague Bradshaw, Jr., 342 Inf. Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Bradshaw was a devoted member of the Hatcher Memorial Baptist Church in Brentsville. In fact, it can truly be said, as is freely said by the entire membership, she was the mainstay of the Church. She has worked hard and faithful since the Church was organized being one of the first members.

The funeral services were conducted in the Manassas Baptist Church on December 20, 1943 by Rev. Frank I. Griffith, pastor of the Hatcher Memorial Church, and the interment was in the Manassas Cemetery.

Besides her devoted husband Mr. K. M. Bradshaw, and four children, she is survived by three grandchildren, Shirley Lee Bradshaw and Nelson Saunders Bradshaw, (children of B. Nelson Bradshaw) and Richard W. Bradshaw, (son of Murray W. Bradshaw) also two sisters, Mrs. Amos Smith of Nokesville and Mrs. Frances Duling of W. Virginia and three brothers John P. Kerlin, William B. Kerlin and Mark Kerlin all for several weeks, due to illness, of Nokesville, Virginia.

The pallbearers were Lester W. Huff, Morris Keys, Eugene Davis, Krauth Brown, Kyle Lynn and Profit.

Mrs. Bradshaw's loving christian character and kind gentle manner have won for her many friends both young and old, who will keenly miss her. The many beautiful floral tributes bore mute evidence of love and esteem in which she was held.

MR. T. S. BRADSHAW

On December 20, 1943, Mr. T. S. Bradshaw died suddenly at his home in Brentsville, Virginia, during the funeral services of his devoted daughter-in-law, Mrs. K. M. Bradshaw.

Mr. T. S. Bradshaw was born in Fredericksburg, Virginia, July 17, 1850. He married Mrs. Virginia Hore, and to this union one son was born, Kendrick Montague Bradshaw, with whom he was living at the time of his death.

Mr. Bradshaw was a railway Postal Clerk for a number of years, until he retired quite a few years ago. He was a member of the Hatcher Memorial Church for years and was very faithful in attendance as long as his health permitted. He contributed freely to the support and needs of the Church. He was also a member of the Masonic Order for many years and was a member in good standing at the time of his death.

Mr. Bradshaw was not only a good neighbor and friend but a most excellent citizen. The entire community regrets his passing.

The pallbearers were Lester W. Huff, Dr. Hook, Krauth Brown, Harcourt Dickens, R. B. Tolson and Profit.

The funeral services were conducted at Bakers Funeral Parlor in Manassas, Virginia by Rev. Frank I. Griffith, on December 22, 1943. Interment in Manassas Cemetery.

MR. PETERS APPOINTED PARALYSIS FUND CHAIRMAN

K. Worth Peters, of Manassas has been chosen to serve as Chairman for Prince William County in the 1944 Campaign for funds to fight infantile paralysis, G. Jeter Jones, State Chairman, announced today.

This winter's drive—the eleventh annual appeal for funds—will begin January 17 and reach its traditional climax on January 31, the sixty-second birthday of President Roosevelt.

In many parts of the nation, balls will be sponsored for the benefit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and everywhere the "mile o' dimes" will be set up. Half of the funds collected are turned over to the locality, while the other half is set apart for the Foundation to cover its work in preventing and treating infantile paralysis.

Approximately $110,000 was contributed to the fund by Virginia's residents last year, and it is hoped this figure will be surpassed this time, Mr. Jones said.

NOKESVILLE MAN IS ADVANCED IN RATE

Everett M. Forrester, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Forrester, of Nokesville, Va., was advanced to the rating of Seaman 1st class, from 2nd class, on December 1, as a result of competitive examinations, which he completed successfully on November 18.

The young seaman is attached to the Naval Air Technical Training Command on the Jacksonville station as a member of that Ship's Company helping in the training of enlisted personnel, which is the activity of that command.

DEPARTURE OF A VALUABLE CITIZEN

(Editorial)

Under captions such as above we are frequently called upon to express regret over the decease of some esteemed resident of the community, but the present remarks are occasioned under far more pleasant circumstances; namely the call of one of our most valuable citizens to serve in his high calling another community.

It is therefore a pleasure to pay a deserved tribute to one who may have the satisfaction of reading what his friends think of him—and we are certain that our expression voices a widespread sentiment in Manassas and adjoining areas toward the Rev. John M. DeChant, Pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church, who has accepted a call to Milford, Delaware, after more than ten years ministry here.

Rev. DeChant has endeared himself to a circle of friends much wider than those of his own congregation. Without in any way lessening his own church work he has been prominently identified with many important community and welfare enterprises, among which are especially mentioned his labor for the Red Cross and the American Legion.

It is, however, as a Minister of Christ, and as a helpful and friendly gentleman under all circumstances that Rev. DeChant will always be remembered by his friends. He has antagonized nobody and is respected by everybody and has evidenced all the qualities of the successful Pastor, being liked by folks in all walks of life.

In wishing Rev. and Mrs. DeChant and family Godspeed, we feel certain that they are not only expressing the sincere sentiment of this newspaper, but of the whole community.

OFFICER FRIX SAYS

"Training received in the Navy's new Radio Technician course will not only benefit the man during his enlistment in the Navy, but will better qualify him for a post-war job at the conclusion of the present hostilities," according to a statement from Chief Petty Officer Alton Frix of the Richmond Navy Recruiting Station. This statement was made following the December announcement that the training course, which was recently open only to men with radio experience, is now available to the interested 17 year old who is able to qualify.

When making application for enlistment in the Naval Reserves the prospective candidate is interviewed by the recruiting officer. If the applicant is interested in radio technician work, he is given the Eddy Test. This famed quiz tests his aptitude toward radio and its allied fields. Those qualifying will be enlisted in the Naval Reserves for the duration of the war. The rating of Seaman, First Class will be awarded to the applicant and after his preliminary or "boot" training he will be sent to one of the Navy's famed radio schools. Chief Frix explained the varied needs of radio technicians in Navy work and urged that 17 year olds interested should apply at once to the nearest Navy Recruiting Station.

"Since the outbreak of war, radio has proved an important element in the decisiveness of naval actions against the enemy fleets, and the trained radio technician has a vital job in present day operations of fleet units," said Chief Frix. His next visit to Manassas will be on the morning of Wednesday, January 19.

JOHN T. BEAVERS

John T. Beavers of Hoadley died at his home on January 1, 1944, at the age of 73. He leaves his widow, two sons, Franklin of Washington, D. C., and Paul, overseas; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Gonzales of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Helen Crouch of Manassas; four grandchildren and five grandsons.

Rev. J. Murray Taylor conducted the services, and he was laid to rest in Woodbine Cemetery on Monday, January 3, 1944.

OCCUPATIONAL DEFERMENT REQUESTS MUST BE FILED ON FATHERS

Under Selective Service Regulation all pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, ages 18 through 37 years are now being reclassified by their Local Boards.

It is of utmost importance that employers engaged in agriculture, war production and activities supporting the war effort cooperate in this reclassification by immediately filing with Local Boards of the Selective Service System application for the deferment of those fathers who meet the requirements of "key" or "necessary" men in their operations, and who cannot be immediately replaced.

Such application should be made on Form 42, Occupational Classification (General) and Form 42-A, Occupational Classification (Industrial), whichever is applicable, for each individual registrant for whom the employer desires to request a deferment for a period of six months or less. The forms may be secured from the Local Board under which the employee is registered.

The manpower required by the Armed Forces, War Production and activities supporting the War Effort, and the deferment of registrants found to be regularly engaged and necessary in agriculture, now make it necessary to reclassify all fathers (1) to meet current calls (2) to supply information concerning the number of fathers who will be available to meet future calls and (3) to determine which fathers will be deferred because they are "necessary men" in war production or in activities supporting the war effort.

One of the objects sought to be accomplished by Congress in adopting the recent amendment to the Selective Service Act of 1940, was to delay as long as possible the induction of fathers. In order to do everything within the power of the Selective Service System to give effect to this purpose of Congress, Local Boards will continuously review deferred classification to the end that no non-father shall continue in a deferred status longer than required by the national interest.

Selective Service Regulations have recently been amended to provide that no registrant shall hereafter be placed in Class III-A (on account of his dependency status as a father or otherwise) and that the classification of all registrants now in Class III-A shall be immediately reopened in sequence of order numbers and they shall be classified anew.

In classifying registrants anew under the above provisions, Local Boards will give particular consideration to the following questions:

- (a) Should the registrant be deferred by reason of his agricultural occupation?
- (b) Should the registrant be deferred by reason of his employment in production or in support of the war effort?

It is therefore most important that employers anticipate the reclassification of their employees by furnishing the Local Board of the Selective Service System with full information as called for in Selective Service Forms No. 42 and No. 42-A on each employee considered to be a "necessary man" in order that the Local Board may give consideration to these facts in classifying these registrants anew.

To the People of this Community

YOU ARE IMPORTANT

There is no such thing as a "little" investment in the Fourth War Loan.
You $25 or $50 or $100 Extra War Bond may not have great importance in your mind in making up a 5% billion dollar total for individuals.
But multiply yourself by 130,000,000 and then you see in real perspective how truly great each citizen becomes in massing national strength against the Nazis and the Japs.
Capt. Maurice Witherspoon, Navy chaplain aboard the Carrier Wasp when she sank, tells of a rescued wounded sailor, who, as he regained consciousness, asked: "Did I do my best?"
That's the only question you, too, have to ask yourself when you decide the extent of your personal participation in the Fourth War Loan.
There undoubtedly will be large single purchases of War Bonds in this community, but yours—if it is "your best" will deserve equally the red, white and blue shield you are privileged to display in the window of your home.
So "Let's All Back the Attack."

THE EDITOR.

FAN MAIL

This is a new kind of fan mail. It's addressed to America's Man of the Hour... to the man in uniform.

Brave letters from Mom and Dad... scrawled notes from Sis... envious banter from the kid brother... soft, sweet whispers from the girl who waits.

Fan mail... weighted with inspiration and encouragement and love... sealed with silent, fervent prayers... voicing sturdy confidence in Victory and echoing a nation's swelling hymn of hope for a happier world.

The men and women of the Southern Railway System know what this mail from home means to a fighting man. That's why we are so proud to handle it. That's why we keep it moving, day and night... regardless of its ever-increasing volume... regardless of the thousand and one difficulties a railroad faces in time of war.

We know, too, that the same faith and hope and courage which today enrich the fan mail of America's fighting men, will tomorrow inspire a new and a greater Southland.

That's why we're preparing today for the job we'll have to do when Victory has been won; the job of handling the travel and the commerce of the New South with the same impressive efficiency that is today speeding troops and war freight—and the fan mail of the nation's fighting forces.

Ernest C. Norris
President

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

LIGHTNING REPAIRS OF BOMB DAMAGE—Sometimes it is merely a matter of minutes after enemy aircraft bomb an airfield until U. S. Army Aviation Engineers are on the job repairing the damage. The portable steel landing mat is replaced and the runways are available for American planes in the shortest possible time. This scene at Guadalcanal is typical of the efficient work in restoring a shattered airfield. The Seabees, naval counterpart of the Aviation Engineers, have made splendid records in this theater of operations.

Navigation interests and others are advised that there will be test firing in the waters of OCCOQUAN BAY and POTOMAC RIVER from the vicinity of Sandy Point, Virginia, until further notice.

Firing will occur two or three times per week and will last for intermittent periods during all hours of the day and night. The direction of fire will be approximately 195 degrees (true) from Sandy Point, Virginia.

The danger zone covered by the firing activities will include a triangular area, the west side of which extends from Sandy Point, Virginia, to a point 100 yards east of Free-stone Point, Virginia, and the east side from Sandy Point to a point 350 yards west of can buoy C-37A on Mattawoman Bar. During firing played by day and a red light by night from a flag pole on Sandy Point. The general area is shown on U. S. C. and G. S. Chart 560, and on the map on the reverse side of this sheet.

Generally no restrictions will be imposed on through traffic in the Potomac River or Occoquan Bay, but vessels are requested not to remain in the danger zone during the display of firing signals. Vessels traffic will be instructed on navigation procedure by patrol boats during special tests which might endanger navigation.

Salvage and conservation of fats is a fighting job for Lt. Col. Leon R. Hyman and his staff at the First A.A.F.

How to bake simple old-fashioned
"Goodies"

NOW that we're starting out on a new year, it's not a bad idea to look back at some of the simple things our "foremothers" used to bake. Meat pie — apple pandowdies — hearty dishes of that good old-fashioned stripe. (And there are ways to get along with much less shortening than in many a "modern" recipe!)

How long since you've tried making a meat pie with biscuits instead of crust, for example?

Curry Biscuit for Meat Pie
1 cup enriched flour 2 tbsps. chilled shortening
1 1/2 tbsps. baking powder 1/4 to 1/2 cup milk
3/4 tsp. curry powder 1/4 tsp. salt

Sift flour, measure, add baking powder, salt and curry powder, and sift again. Add shortening, in small pieces, to flour and cut in until mixture is fine. Add milk, stir until flour is dampened. Knead 15 times on lightly floured board, roll 1/4 in. thickness. Cut with 1 1/2 in. biscuit cutter and place on hot stew. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 25 mins. or until done.

An interesting variation is to cut the biscuit dough in the shape of doughnuts, which lets the stew bubble up through the inner circles. Sound good? It tastes good!

And for dessert, how my family enjoys old-fashioned apple pandowdy! (I wasn't at all sorry to see that, because it uses just about one-quarter as much shortening as pie!)

Apple Pandowdy
5 cups thinly sliced apples 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 cup sugar 1 1/2 tbsps. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. salt 2 tbsps. water
1/4 tsp. cinnamon 1/4 tsp. grated lemon rind

Combine apples, sugar, salt, spices, lemon juice, water and rind. Turn into pan (8 x 8 x 2); cover and bake in hot oven (450° F.) 20 mins. Mix 2 cups standard biscuit dough, adding 1 tbsp. sugar to flour mixture. Knead gently 8 times, shape and roll into square (8 x 8). Fit dough over apples in pan, cut slits to let steam escape, and return to hot oven (450° F.). Bake 25 mins. or until crust is browned. Serve warm with cream or plain. Makes 8 servings.

I wish there were room to tell you about some of the other recipes of this kind I've been trying recently. If you're interested, why don't you look at my article on "Pioneer Recipes" in this week's issue of The Family Circle? Get a copy at your Safeway Store.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children read the daily Bible selections, it will prove a blessing to them in after years.

And he came by the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus -- he took him up in his arms and blessed God.

Luke 2: 27-28

NEWSPRINT SCARCITY

The newsprint situation appears to be getting more serious each month, with a further reduction in allotments foreseen at an early date. Thus far the papers hardest hit have been the large metropolitan dailies, which publish several editions daily and carry from forty to sixty pages in each issue. It is no more than fair that these papers should bear the major burden inasmuch as only a small percentage of their space is devoted to news, the rest being features and advertising. But even the smaller papers have felt the pinch, and may feel it more acutely from this point on as monthly quotas are reduced.

Many city papers have dropped to twelve, fourteen or sixteen pages. They have been forced to cut down the size of advertisements and squeeze out news, whether foreign, national or local, to an extent never before necessary. This will be more or less true of all newspapers from now on. Those who seek publicity for worthy causes are requested to bear this in mind and make their offerings as brief as is consistent with clearness. This newspaper will continue to print all the news that is worth printing. Never before were the activities of the town and country people to whom it goes more important. We want all the local news, and will manage somehow to publish it all. But lengthy articles may have to be cut in order to meet space requirements. — Northern Virginia Daily.

THRILLING FILM OF ESPIONAGE

Keyed to present-day headlines, "The Adventures of Tartu" which is shown Sunday, January 9 at Pitts Theatre, is a stirring drama of intrigue, coupled with a romance that almost defeats its purpose. Robert Donat is the star in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's exciting adventure film, and Valerie Hobson enacts the leading feminine role. Others who stand out include Glynis Johns and Walter Rilla.

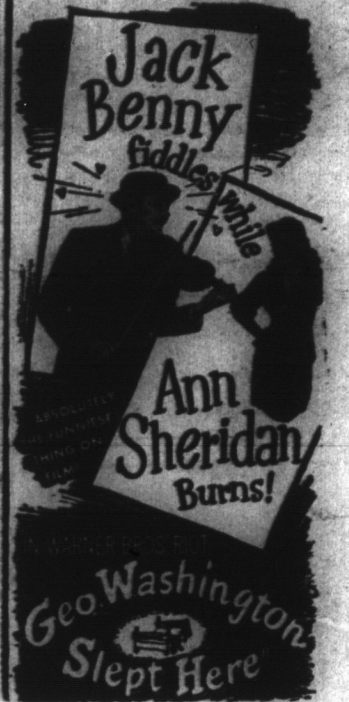

Although little of the action takes place in London, M-G-M sent Director Harold S. Bucquet to the British capital so that he could inject "all the realism which the script provided. To that end, original scenes of the Nazi blitz of 1940 and the ruined remains of Florence Nightingale's Nurses' Home have been incorporated.

In the star role, Robert Donat impersonates four different foreign characters. As a British agent, he is ordered to blow up the Skoda works in Czechoslovakia, where the Nazis are turning out barrels of poison gas to be used against the Allies. He also is given the responsibility of bringing back the formula, and needless to say he accomplishes both tasks brilliantly.

One of his most difficult problems is to work his way into the good graces of the Czech underground. He is given the acid test, a sound beating, before he convinces the loyal natives his purpose is to aid them and not to turn them over to the invader.

"The Adventure of Tartu" is stark drama. It has romance and thrills and marks the first appearance on the screen of Robert Donat in more than a year. Glynis Johns was last seen in "The Invaders," and Valerie Hobson is not a newcomer, having appeared in "U-boat 29," "Atlantic Ferry" and several other British-

Lt. William F. Hale and Mrs. Hale of Fort Meade, Md., spent a week with their parents recently. Miss Francis Hale returned with them and spent several days.

Mrs. E. C. Owens and Mrs. W. R. Nelson both had the misfortune of breaking their wrists recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whetzel and Faye and Mrs. Eugene Worley spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Collins near Woodbridge.

Mrs. Olive Hooker had the great misfortune of losing most of her valuable farm machinery and a lot of hay, straw and feed, when two large machine sheds burned when a tractor backfired and exploded. With the help of the efficient Manassas and Warrenton Fire Departments the big barns were saved.

A United States Marine

FALLS ON GRENADE
TO SAVE HIS SQUAD

WITH U. S. MARINES ON BOUGAINVILLE, Solomon Islands, Nov. 15 (Delayed AP)—Sergeant Herbert J. Thomas, of Charleston, W. Va., was one of the heroes of the early fighting on Bougainville. Thomas, leading a detail of nine men against a Japanese pillbox, threw a grenade which hit a tree and bounced back among his own men.

There was no time to pick it up and throw it again. Thomas hurried himself bodily on the grenade, but none of his men were hurt.

How American Farmers Are Meeting
the Pulpwood Challenge

EARLY in 1943 when the country was faced with a disastrous pulpwood shortage, the Secretary of Agriculture said, "The only place we can look for additional supplies is from the farm woodlot".

And the farmers of America did not let him down. Their patriotic response helped a lot to supply much needed pulpwood for war industries.

Now, as we enter 1944

It is clear that a serious pulpwood shortage will continue. But farmers have learned that pulpwood cutting is good business as well as sound patriotism. Now is the best time to thin woodlots when pulpwood prices are at their peak. And recent rulings of the War Manpower Commission encourage farmers to cut pulpwood in off seasons by counting it as war unit credits toward deferment.

And so the farmers of America are asked to make pulpwood cutting an important part of their 1944 work program. It is off-season work; profitable work; patriotic work. Do all you can. Your country needs every cord you can cut. Keep in touch with your local pulpwood committee.

To the People of this Community

KILL OR BE KILLED

United States Marines paid the stiffest price in human life per square yard for the capture of Tarawa, vital Pacific outpost.

It was kill or be killed. Your boys did not flinch when they ran into the deadliest fire-power along the beaches of this important Gilbert Island stronghold. This assault, bloody and costly, is one of the many which must be made before Tokyo and Berlin are pounded into dust and ashes.

What are you doing to back up the boys? Remember these are boys from this very community, perhaps from your very home. Any home in your neighborhood which today does not display the treasury's red, white and blue 4th War Loan Shield proclaiming "We bought Extra War Bonds" is not backing the attack. Every Extra War Bond you buy becomes a direct fighter against Japan and Germany. If you could but see one man die on the battlefield, you would not count the cost of your slight sacrifice to buy Extra War Bonds to make each succeeding assault less costly in the lives of our boys.

You can't afford NOT to buy Extra Bonds in the 4th War Loan if you would help these boys.

FOOD AND HOME NOTES

By NELL GRIM

Spice Situation

Cinnamon: More true cinnamon is on the market today than before the war, and this is an indirect result of hostilities in the Pacific which cut off the usual peacetime spice imports to the United States from China and the Dutch Indies, according to the War Food Administration. Before the war most of the powdered cinnamon selling in grocery stores was actually powdered cassia bark from China and Java. Today only cinnamon from Ceylon is getting through to this country, and this happens to be the botanically true cinnamon which is lighter in color and milder in flavor than cassia. Cassia and cinnamon trees are both tropical evergreens of the laurel family. They both have a highly aromatic inner bark which contains a volatile oil with the familiar cinnamon flavor and fragrance. Cassia is darker in color and more pungent in flavor than true cinnamon.

Total stocks of cinnamon in this country now are about a third of the prewar supply. To help make up for the shortage, an "imitation cinnamon" is on the market which is a powder synthetically flavored.

Cloves, Ginger, Allspice: The three spices, cloves, ginger and allspice, which earlier in the war promised to be scarce, are now close to normal in supply. The present stock of cloves is up near 90 percent of the usual supply, although no cloves were imported during the past year until September when they began coming in from Zanzibar and Madagascar. Cloves are the dried flower buds of a tropical tree. Ginger, the ground dried root of a tropical shrub, will be about as plentiful in '44 as in '43. Last year ginger came in only from Jamaica, but supplies may soon be also from India and Africa, as they did before the war. As for allspice, the supply this year will be about as large as the last two years which is close to normal. Allspice gets its name from its flavor which is a blend of different spices. It is the dried berry of a tree growing in Jamaica. Allspice of a different flavor and character is also being imported from Mexico.

Peppers: Pepper supplies might be of more concern to the wartime cook if red pepper and red pepper sauces were not produced in this country and suitable for stretching supplies of black and white pepper which are imported. Before the war black and white pepper was imported from the Dutch East Indies, but these imports have been cut off for almost two years. Fortunately, the country had substantial reserves of pepper on hand. Distribution of these reserve stocks is now being regulated by the Government to assure a supply for the duration. This is why less than half as much pepper is on the market now as before the war. The armed forces use more pepper than any other spice, so part of the stock on hand is reserved for them. Pepper is the fruit or berry of a vine grown in Java. Black pepper is made by picking the fruit before it is mature, then drying and grinding. White pepper is made by removing the hull of the berry after it is mature, then grinding the inside which is lighter in color and milder in flavor. Red pepper is the ground dried pod of a pepper plant and is produced in this country mostly in Louisiana, South Carolina and Mississippi.

Spice Keeping

Since the flavor of spice depends on the oil it contains—much of it volatile oil—any kind of spice keeps best in a tight container, away from light and heat. The spices that are selling today in wartime cardboard boxes may be transferred to tight tins or small glass screw-top jars. Buying spice in large quantities for long keeping is a waste of both money and spice for the flavor is gradually lost. A six month's supply for household use is suggested by spice experts.

While we are helping the various war relief projects, this newspaper especially invites attention to the needs of Greek war relief.

All civilized people know of the tragic fate of Greece and of the desperate plight of the helpless people of that unfortunate country.

Their countrymen here are only modestly asking for donations of clothing, and we urge our friends to help.

The local Greek War Relief Committee is making the following appeal:

CLOTHING ESPECIALLY IS WANTED FOR LITTLE CHILDREN WHO ARE FREEZING TO DEATH

"The Greek War Relief Association is asking for donations of clothing of all kinds, particularly coats, shoes, and underwear, for suffering Greek population."

The storeroom at No. 515 C. St., in the rear of the Quantico Railroad Station will be open from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. Please leave donations there, as the local Committee has no means of calling for your gifts.

And History Is In The Making!

IT MAY BE TRUE that Junior's somewhat abrupt opinion of his spinach may not make the headlines but he started making news from the moment he was born, and he will continue to make news for the rest of his life.

His birth announcement was his first press notice. He may win the prize in the baby contest at the county fair. . . . Soon he'll be going to school to win other honors, and that'll make news, too!

His graduation from school, his marriage and the announcement of his first baby will add another to the ranks of those who make the news.

It is our pleasure to record the individual histories of the people of this community as well as that of the town and county as an American social and political group.

"Ships are essential to Victory, and we shall continue our job of building them at record pace in 1944." — E. G. GRACE, president, Bethlehem Steel Company

Bethlehem in '43 built 380 fighting and cargo ships.

Value of the year's program equivalent to 1,000 Liberty ships.

"A SHIP A DAY," with a number to spare, was the record production delivered by Bethlehem in 1943 to the United States Navy, the British Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission. This program was the greatest in magnitude and diversity ever accomplished by a private builder in the world's history. It marked the fulfillment of a promise made by Bethlehem a year ago to build in 1943 an average of "a ship a day" of major fighting and cargo craft.

The list of ships includes aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers, virtually every type of fighting craft, as well as a large number of Liberty ships and other cargo vessels. In addition, Bethlehem ship repair yards converted, repaired, and serviced over 7,000 vessels, a vital contribution toward keeping the Allied fleets in fighting trim.

Measuring the program by Liberty ships, a battleship is equal to forty Liberty ships; and the value of the year's work in Bethlehem's shipbuilding division was the equivalent of over 1,000 Liberty ships.

Part of National Program — Bethlehem is permitted to publish these facts as part of our country's total program. Led by the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission, America's shipbuilding in 1943 has been a national triumph of production.

We salute our fellow shipbuilders and their distinguished records.

We thank our thousands of suppliers whose efforts have been essential to our contribution.

We congratulate the men and women in the Bethlehem organization, in shipyards, steel plants, factories, mines, and in every division, all of whom have had a part in this effort.

Harder Task Ahead — The year's work in Bethlehem's shipyards, steel mills and other departments has been done by 300,000 men and women. More will be needed. Already a larger shipbuilding task has been assigned to us for 1944. We shall undertake that job with the knowledge that it must be done, at maximum pace, to hasten the day of Victory.
