BATTLE PARK WINS PRAISE

LOCAL PARK MENTIONED IN ANNUAL REPORT MADE BY SECRETARY OF INTERIOR

The annual report of the Secretary of the Interior for the Fiscal Year 1943, touching the high spots in the year's activities of the 23 bureaus and divisions, is of some interest to the people of Manassas and Prince William County. One of the important national historical parks to which he makes special reference is the Manassas National Battlefield Park. In referring to the military uses to which many, if not most, of the national parks have been put during the past two years in furtherance of the needs of our armed forces, Mr. Drury said:

"The national historical parks, military parks, and historic sites of the East made their principal contributions to members of the armed forces as laboratories for the study of military activities. In the early stages of the development of the national military parks and battlefields following the War Between the States, the greatest care was taken by Confederate and Union participants to mark carefully the movements of troops and to report accurately, without praise or censure, the events that took place on these battle-grounds."

"A familiar sight during the past year has been the activity of officers from the Quantico Marine Base, Virginia, carrying on field studies of the First and Second Battles of Bull Run in Manassas National Battlefield Park; or troops from the A. P. Hill Reservation tracing the route of Stonewall Jackson on the battlefield of Chancellorsville."

In connection with the Manassas park Mr. Drury might have added that coverage of Engineer troops from Fort Belvoir are also frequent visitors, while individual officers and soldiers of our own Army and Navy, from Washington and elsewhere, as well as many from the allied services of other of the United Nations, quite often come to the park.

The great nature parks of the West, such as Yellowstone, Grand Canyon, Yosemite, Glacier, Death Valley, Mount McKinley in Alaska and Hawaii National Park in Hawaii, where many thousands of acres of forest or desert or rugged mountains present diversified terrain suitable for every type of military training or of recreation for troops in training, naturally drew the greatest numbers of military visitors. Of something over eight million people who went to national parks in 1942-3, more than 1,600,000 were members of our armed forces. This may seem a large number of visitors considering the falling off of general travel in this time of war, but it is less than half the average annual visitation during the preceding five-year period, which was nearly eight million per year between 1939 and 1941.

In the meantime, the personnel of the National Park Service having the duty of safeguarding the parks and caring for these millions of visitors had been reduced from over 4,500 in 1942 to less than 2,000 in 1943. Nearly 1,200 of the employees in 1943 have joined the armed forces or transferred to essential war agencies; among the former being the Superintendent of the Manassas National Battlefield Park, Lieutenant Raleigh C. Taylor, who is now with our army in Italy.

During the travel year 1942-3 slightly more than 12,000 persons visited the Manassas park, of whom more than three-fourths were men in uniform. This is not a large number out of the total for all national parks but it was an increase from less than 5,000 visitors in the year 1941-2, during which the new Administration and Museum Building in the park was completed and opened. In view of wartime conditions and the newness of the park it was a healthy increase and one which promises well for the prospects of attendance in this historic place, only 26 miles from Washington, after peace shall have been restored.

VALENTINE PARTY AT KIWANIS

(Intended for last week)

A Valentine Party was the entertainment of the Kiwanis Club on Friday the 11th. Father Stanton, Chairman of the Housing Committee, had the party in his charge. He introduced Mrs. Vincent Davis and she in her usual inimitable way recited a poem of a young man who in an unusual proposal finally made his lady love understand.

Such an occasion is a comparative failure if O. D. Watson does not have a share in it. He told several stories with a slight edge, one of them being about F. D. R. Wherever O. D. is, there is laughter.

Particular guests were the sons of President Parrish, Harry and Frank. One of them invited all of those present to be guests at his brother's wedding that night, and to his own the following night. President Parrish's party which included his brother, left before the meeting was over. Vice-President Kincheloe then took up the gavel.

Following is the list of guests: Mrs. Hinton Tiffany and Bill Brown III, Mrs. Carl Kincheloe, Mrs. John Rousherry, Lt. Harry Parrish, Lt. Frank Parrish and Mr. John Parrish, Mr. Teddy Peters, Mrs. Carson Woodford, Mrs. Wine, Mrs. T. E. Dillake, Mr. Arthur Boatwright, Mr. Benjamin Jacobson, Mrs. R. C. Hayden, Mrs. Walter Said, Mrs. G. E. Ratcliffe and daughter, Mrs. Beard, Mrs. Vincent Davis, and daughter of Charles Albaugh. There were 27 members present.

KIWANIS PLANS FOR MINSTREL SHOW

Last Friday night, the 18th, the Kiwanis program was in charge of the Finance Committee, of which Town Manager Tiffany is chairman. He called on Herbert Luck to read last year's financial report. It showed that the club had about two thousands to work with. Of this the largest part paid for the weekly dinner, but that in the neighborhood of thirty percent was devoted to special charities, as underprivileged children and the Christmas donation.

It was pointed out that according to this year's set-up it would not be possible to do so much good as formerly unless some way of raising funds was found. Mrs. Vincent Davis proposed a plan to have a minstrel show and showed her willingness to contribute her ability to put it across. A unanimous vote of the club to follow her plan followed. The show will likely be given shortly after Easter. Tickets are not yet on sale, but it might be well to save pennies for admission!

Corporal Kincheloe Promoted

Mayas N. Kincheloe, Route 1, Woodridge, Virginia, has been promoted to his present rank from that of private first class. Corporal Kincheloe enlisted in the Marine Corps on January 22, 1943 and received his basic training at Parris Island, South Carolina.

MOLYNEUX-LYNCH

The marriage of Miss Mary D. Lynch, daughter of Martin Edward Lynch, of New Brunswick, N. J., and Captain Robert Edward Molyneux, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chester Molyneux, of Jamestown, N. Y., took place in Linton Hall, Manassas, February 19 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. John L. Stanton, pastor of All Saints Catholic Church, officiating.

The bride, wearing a gown of ivory satin fashioned with fitted bodice, and full skirt ending in a long train, over which her veil of illusion fell from a wreath of orange blossoms, entered the hall with her uncle, Thomas Bernard Lynch, of Manassas, by whom she was given in marriage. She carried a prayer book showered with orchids.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Jackson Lee Pray, Jr., and Miss Lucy Gibson was her maid of honor. They were gownned alike in bronze velvet frocks with shirred bodices and bouffant skirts, and they carried bouquets of humanizing blossoms.

Captain Jonathan Allison, of Washington, Pa., was Captain Molyneux's best man and his groomsmen were Captain H. B. McCormack, Jr., of Camp Lee, and Francis O'Neil, of New York. Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Thomas Lynch, the bride's grandmother, entertained the wedding guests at a reception at Linton Hall.

Later in the evening Captain and Mrs. Molyneux left for a Northern wedding trip. On their return to Petersburg after March 1, they will be "at home" at 1720 Powhatan Ave. in Walnut Hill.

Among the out of town guests who attended the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Kinsey, Miss Martha Kinsey, Mr. and Mrs. John Hourahan, Mrs. Ted Chapin, Misses Betty and Lucy Landon Wilcox, Dr. Mason Romaine, Ben Hill, Mrs. Philip Glazie, Mrs. Brent of Holyoke, Mass., Mrs. Charles McGuire, Mrs. Norvell Larkin, Fairfax, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Washington, Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson, Falls Church, Mrs. William Cocke of Richmond, Va., Major Harry E. Carter of Camp Lee, Lieutenant Benj. T. Kinsey, Jr., and Private John Heggaman of Camp Lee.

Blood Tests Free

DR. Nelson Podolnic, Health Director of Fairfax-Prince William-Stafford Health District, announces that blood tests are being offered to all residents of Prince William County free of charge at the Health Department office in Manassas every Thursday after noon from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

Dr. Podolnic explains that the blood test is the only way of diagnosing syphilis after the patient has passed through the first stages of the disease. During the latent stage of the there may be no symptoms at all for several years; the person appears perfectly healthy yet a vital organ of the body such as the heart or brain is being attacked producing serious dis-

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Thirty-five members and guests were present at the luncheon meeting of the Prince William County Chamber of Commerce held in the dining room of the Hotel on Tuesday. C. C. Cioe, recently unanimously re-elected president for the duration, presided, and led discussions on current subjects of public interest.

Edgar G. Parrish introduced his guest, Sgt. Murphy of the Aircraft Warning Service who made an interesting informative talk on the need for continuing the Civilian Aircraft Warning Service as a permanent organization so that it will be in working commission in case of emergency.

Mrs. J. Vincent Davis, co-chairman of the County War Finance Committee, gave a report on the local War Fund Drive, and requested the organization to join in every way possible in boosting bond sales to put the $250,000 quota over the top. Mrs. Davis paid tribute to the late William Harrison Lamb whose untiring efforts gave impetus to the three previous War Loan Drives and helped to make them successful throughout the county. The Manassas Journal was cited at the Regional Meeting of War Loan Committees for the outstanding cooperation in giving publicity to the War Fund Campaign.

PARTY FOR MRS. KERLIN

After the regular meeting of Winodausis Chapter O. E. S. on last Tuesday evening, the members assembled in the recreation room where a surprise party was held in honor of our member and newest bride, Mrs. Stella Kerlin. The table was arranged in a most attractive manner. The centerpiece was a large heart with a crystal bowl in which was arranged sprays of miniature hearts and candles. Smaller hearts and candles also decorated the table. The bride's cake was cut by the bride, and the Worthy Matron presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Kerlin was presented a gift from the chapter, and the evening was a most enjoyable one.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be Tuesday, March 21, 8:00 P. M., when the annual election of officers will be held.

WILL ENTERTAIN THE U. D. C.

Mrs. Walter Newman will entertain the United Daughters of the Confederacy on Wednesday, March 1, at 2:30 P. M. with Miss Lucy Larkin as Assistant Hostess.

ility and death years later, only a blood test can detect the disease in the latent stage. Everyone is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

The result of the blood test will be kept strictly confidential and will be given only to the individual concerned.

BOND SALE

On Tuesday, Feb. 29th, the residents of this section are asked to donate stock, poultry, and other salable articles to be auctioned off. The highest bidder will receive bonds for the amount of the purchase price. The auction will be in charge of Messrs. J. R. Eagle and Carl Kincheloe.

Mr. G. R. Ratcliffe reports that on Feb. 21, 1944, $291,750.00 had been raised, leaving over $58,000 to be raised. Come and do your bit!

DANIELS-SINCLAIR

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sinclair of Gainesville, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Easter, to Aviation Student George Lacy Daniels, son of Mrs. Mary M. Daniels and the late George L. Daniels, of Norfolk, Va.

The wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, February 12th, at 3:00 p. m. in First Methodist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, with the pastor, Rev. J. W. Flynn, performing the double ring ceremony against a background of palms and white cut flowers. The church organist played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a Navy blue suit, with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The maid of honor and only attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Bessie Sinclair, of Norfolk. She wore a light blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Aviation Student Edwin T. Westman, of Norfolk, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels will make their home at the Stockbridge Hotel, Cleveland.

LT. BOWMAN WEDS MISS CLARK

The marriage of Miss Lucy Behrends Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Clark to Lt. Gerald Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bowman of Buffalo, N. Y., took place in the Presbyterian Church here at 2:00 P. M. Saturday afternoon, Feb. 19, 1944.

The church was tastefully decorated with an arrangement of fern and gladioluses and the soft glow of the lighted tapers made a very pretty setting for the ceremony. The impressive ring ceremony of the Presbyterian Church was used. The Reverend M. F. Draper officiated.

Mrs. John T. Broadus presided at the organ and rendered beautiful selections preceding the ceremony. As the couple entered the church Mrs. Broadus played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride was charmingly attired in a travelling suit of gray with black accessories and her flower was an orchid of contrast.

Mrs. Bowman is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Clark of Wilmington, N. C.

The out of town guests included: Mrs. Charles H. Clark, Miss Alice Behrends of Wilmington, N. C., Capt. and Mrs. J. L. Murphy of Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bowman of Buffalo, N. Y.

Lt. and Mrs. Bowman left for a brief wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Quantico, Va.

"BURN, CANDLES, BURN"

A group of fourth grade children under the direction of Mrs. Wallace Lynn, presented a playlet entitled "Burn, Candles, Burn," in commemoration of Parent-Teacher Founders' Day at the monthly meeting of the local association in Bennett School on Thursday afternoon.

The following characteristics, so vital to successful P-T. A. work, were portrayed by this group: Comradeship, diligence, hope, wisdom, cooperation, courage.

REV. CLARK DIES AT HOME HERE

THOMAS DUNLAP DOUGLAS CLARK

Funeral services for the Rev. Thomas Dunlap Douglas Clark, resident of Manassas for forty years, who died at his home here Sunday, February 13th, were held at 11 a. m. Tuesday following in the local Baptist Church where he served as pastor for many years. Interment was in the Mount Hebron Cemetery at Winchester.

The Rev. Mr. Clark, who was eighty-nine, was born November 23, 1855, in Kirkland Park, Strathaven, County of Lanark, Scotland, the son of the late John and Marion Clark. Coming to America at the age of nineteen, he was educated at the University of Richmond and Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa. In 1884 he married Miss Bessie Miller Holtzman of East View, Va. Before establishing residence in Manassas in 1904, the Rev. Mr. Clark held pastorates in South Carolina, Maryland, and Pennsylvania. In the latter State he was pastor at Bryn Mawr and Lebanon prior to accepting the call to the Manassas Baptist Church where he preached for a period of eight years, and again for four years until his health failed.

Later Mr. Clark filled the pulpit on many occasions when he was called upon by his beloved congregation and his sermons and extemporaneous songs were inspirations to all.

Besides his widow, he is survived by four sons and four daughters, Mrs. H. K. Laws, Aylette D. Clark, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. N. L. Gibson, San Metro, Calif.; Thomas H. Clark, Norfolk; and Douglas Clark, Walter Clark, Mrs. Sara Horton, and Mrs. Charles Doing, all of Washington; and fifteen grandchildren.

One of Mr. Clark's poems included in a group published in booklet form in 1905, is a meditation on Mount Hebron Cemetery where he was buried, and is a fitting expression of his philosophy. The words follow: Sweet sylvan refuge from the stir and strife,

That wears and tears the spirit of a man,

Thou silent prophet of immortal life, How soul refreshing is thy brooding calm.

Oh, surely if on this sad earth there be,

A spot we truly may call holy ground,

Tis found where dear but frail mortality

In hushed refinement, rests in sleep profound.

High over the midew and decay, That plows relentless through the sacred dust,

Hope's banner waves a welcome to the day

That waits to wake the slumber of the just.

Oh wondrous grace that swings the portals wide,

Where sense would teach us life is lost in death.

Oh! faith that brings a Saviour to our side,

Who makes it plain that life is more than breath.

Sweet sylvan refuge, as I turn to go, Where present duty claims its share of time,

Thy sheltering confines to the dead we owe,

For Christian hope makes death itself sublime.

COOKE-HANBACK

On Monday, Feb. 14th, in a quiet ceremony, at Forestville, Md., Miss Frances Marie Hanback, daughter of Mrs. Albert Hanback and the late Wm. Hanback of Warrenton, Va., became the bride of Lieut. Robert N. Cooke, U. S. Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cooke of Greenwich, Va. The bride, a graduate of Warrenton High School, is an employee of the Telephone Exchange, while the groom, a graduate of Nokesville High School, is in the service of his country and just recently graduated and received his commission and wings at Foster Field in Texas.

IN MEMORIAM

CHURCH—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Jeanette Marie, who passed away one year ago, March 4, 1943.

The angels are rocking our baby
At the top of the golden stair;
No harm can ever befall her
Away in that city so fair.

We knew she'd fare better in Heaven,
But when angels took her away
Our hearts were heavy at parting.
At thought of her going to stay.

Sometimes, in seasons of fancy,
We look through the blue curtained sky,
And picture our darling in Heaven,
With never a tear in her eye.

In patience we'll wait till the dawning;
Our babe has the tenderest care,
For the angels are rocking our fair one

At the top of the golden stair.
By her loving parents,
ELSIE and FRANKLIN CROUCH

MILLIONS OF HOMES TO DISPLAY RED CROSS FLAG NEXT MONTH

The American Red Cross service flag will be displayed in millions of American homes throughout the United States in March when the 1944 Red Cross War Fund is scheduled.

Early indications are that some three million men and women volunteers will participate in the annual house-to-house canvass for the $200,000,000 fund needed to carry forward the gigantic task of the Red Cross throughout the world. These workers, representing 3,756 chapters and 6,084 branches of the Red Cross, have spent weeks preparing for this, the most important war-time campaign in the organization's history.

Each volunteer will carry with him credentials indicating his official connection with the drive.

Prince William's part in this huge task is to collect $4,000 from her citizens, and volunteers will be busy throughout the county, under the direction of O. D. Waters, chairman.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFT

The Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded Staff Sgt. Doyle Kimbrey of Huntington, Texas, for manning a sub-machine gun and returning the fire of low-flying enemy planes during the Jay attack on Hickam Field. When his ammunition was gone he ran from the cover of his truck to get more, and kept firing until the truck was bombed. He showed bravery beyond the call of duty. Figure out for yourself how much you can invest in War Savings beyond what you are doing now.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my sister, Kate Watson who passed away seven years ago, February 23, 1937.

She gently smiled a fond good night,
The light of light grew dim
Her loved ones heard a low voice say
Please God watch over them.

Always from my heart comes a cry
Why oh why did my Sister die
Then comes an answer low and sweet
I am not dead—only asleep.

If ever a loved one existed
If ever a sweet flower grew
If ever a soul bore its cross with a smile
Then Sister it certainly was you.

The care you gave me many years
Will never from me depart
Though you have gone from me
You are always in my heart.

The promise I made you Dear Sister
When you were in agony and pain
Please God give me strength to keep
Until we are together again.

A Loving Sister,

ALKA-SELTZER BRIGHTENS MY DAY

OCCASIONALLY, I wake up in the morning with a headache. It sometimes wears off along the middle of the forenoon, but I don't want to wait that long, so I drink a glass of sparkling ALKA-SELTZER. In just a little while I am feeling a lot better.

Sometimes the week's ironing tires me and makes me sore and stiff. Then it's ALKA-SELTZER to the rescue—a tablet or two and a little rest makes me feel more like finishing the job.

And when I eat "not wisely but too well" ALKA-SELTZER relieves the Acid Indigestion that so often follows.

Yes, Alka-Seltzer brightens my day. It brings relief from so many of my discomforts, that I always keep it handy.

Julia tells how to add taste appeal to cabbage, carrots, parsnips.

It's NOT always easy to find excitingly different fresh vegetables this time of year—but it is easy to prepare the familiar old favorites in such a way that they take on an entirely new meaning.

All that's required, really, is a dash of daring and a sprinkling of ingenuity!

Here are a few of my own favorites. Perhaps they'll suggest some of the endless variations that can be played on the theme of winter vegetables.

Meek Crab Salad—Combine equal amounts of raw peeled shredded parsnip, carrot, apple and celery. Moisten with lemon juice and mayonnaise. It's really good!

Cabbage Chop Suey—Combine 3 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup each of sliced celery and onion. Season to taste. Fry covered in 2 tbsp. shortening for 8 minutes.

Parsnip Turnip or Rutabaga Potatoes—Peel and slice. Boil slices 5 minutes. Dip in flour and fry in shortening, same as potatoes.

Onion Dumplings—Add 1 cup grated onion to regular 2-cup dumpling dough. Cook on top of stew.

Raw-Tried Carrots—Fry peeled carrot circles just as you do raw-fried potatoes.

Cream of Cabbage and Potato Soup—Take equal parts of shredded cabbage and sliced or diced potatoes. Simmer until tender in water to cover. Add 3 cups milk, and season to taste. Serve piping hot!

Parsnip Patties—To each cup of mashed cooked parsnip, add one well-beaten egg. Season and drop by tablespoonfuls into hot shortening. Fry until golden brown.

Turnip Patties—To 3 cups of hot, well-seasoned, mashed turnips or rutabagas, add 2 well-beaten egg yolks. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in well-greased baking dish, in moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes.

Glazed Parsnips—Cut cooked parsnips lengthwise. Brown in well-buttered frying pan. Sprinkle with brown sugar and turn frequently.

Baked Onion—Bake whole large onions, dry outer skins and all, on oven rack exactly like potatoes, about 45 min. in moderate oven (350° F.). Serve by breaking open and seasoning with salt, pepper and butter or margarine.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If you are a Christian, you will find this a most helpful and inspiring guide to the Bible. It will give you a new insight into the Bible and its meaning.

JAPAN'S RISE AND FALL

It was just 40 years ago to-morrow that Japan entered the ranks of major world powers. On February 6, 1904, Japanese torpedo boats in a surprise attack struck and largely destroyed the Russian Asiatic fleet in the Manchurian harbor of Port Arthur, thus opening the Russo-Japanese war. It was a "Pearl Harbor" blow which caught the Russians entirely off guard and so crippled their power in the Far East that tiny Japan, hitherto regarded as a negligible factor militarily, was able to press her advantage to ultimate victory.

Supposedly impregnable, Port Arthur, "Gibraltar of the East," fell to the Japanese after a seven months siege, the Japs sent an Army into Manchuria which won a decisive victory at Mukden, and the proud Russian Baltic fleet, sent half way around the world to avenge earlier defeats, met disaster at the hands of Admiral Togo's "mosquito" flotilla in the Sea of Japan. Japan's resources then as now were limited and perhaps the Russians might ultimately have mustered sufficient strength to reverse the verdict of the first year of the war, but the Czar was beset by troubles on his home front and was glad enough to accept President Theodore Roosevelt's invitation to negotiate a peace. Russia abandoned her claim to Manchuria, surrendered her lease of strategic Port Arthur, ceded half of the island of Sakhalin to the Japanese, and recognized Korea as within Japan's "sphere of influence." Little Nippon was definitely in the big league.

It is interesting to recall that American sympathies of 40 years ago were largely with Japan. We had no quarrel with Russia but Czarist imperialism in Eastern Asia was disapproved in this country. And to the popular imagination Japan was David to Russia's Goliath.

Well, we have learned a few things since, and perhaps the Japanese are learning, too. Pearl Harbor was another Port Arthur, the difference being that this time the Japanese haven't been able to hold the advantage gained by surprise attack. And just as Japan's history as a great power may be dated from her victory at Port Arthur, so Pearl Harbor will be recorded as the event which marked the beginning of the end of that period in her history. — Charlottesville Daily Progress.

Backing the Attack!
WITH WAR BONDS

It's IN THE AIR. You can feel it, every time the Axis is struck. This is the climax year, the year of decision.

In history, 1944 will be the big year of the war—every stroke for victory counts more now. That's why it's vitally important for every American to be at his post, doing his part right now.

You, personally, have an important job in winning the war—buying War Bonds. It's not dangerous—no, not even a sacrifice—because you are only putting your money, to be returned with interest. But it is essential to complete victory.

Your part in this year of decision is at least one extra $100 Bond, above your regular Bond buying. That is your minimum individual quota. But don't stop there. Remember wars are won only by all-out effort. So buy $200, $300, $500 worth—buy more than you can afford. And buy your Bonds where you work—at the plant or at the office.

Your country is counting on you—let's make the year of decision OUR year!

FAIRFAX SCHOOL BOYS JOIN FOREST FIRE FIGHTERS SERVICE

Ivan J. Money, Chief Patrolman for the territory surrounding the Fort Belvoir Military Reservation, announces that 85 boys of the Mt. Vernon, Fairfax and Herndon High Schools, Fairfax County, have completed the training course in forest fire prevention and control methods and that each boy has been awarded a certificate enrolling him as a member of the Forest Fire Fighters Service.

The boys, all over 15 years old, joined the service with their parents' consent. They are organized in the fighting corps, with leaders and assistant leaders. The crew at each school will respond to the calls of state forest wardens to fight fires when other manpower is not readily available. Tools and transportation will be provided by the Virginia Forest Service. The boys will be paid the same wages as other fire fighters.

The name of each FFFS crew with its crew leader and assistant crew leader, and the principals who co-operated in their training are:

The FFFS crews were organized and trained by Chief Patrolman Ivan J. Money, Chief Forest Warden for Fairfax County, J. L. Money, and District Forester Berlin Rye of Charlottesville, Virginia, with the assistance of the high school principals and in cooperation with the County Superintendent of Public Schools, W. T. Woodson, who states, "The FFFS training and fire fighting program has my hearty endorsement, for it will help our boys to understand why forest fires make idle lands, idle industries, idle hands. The boys will contribute to their own well being when they protect the forests." The boys learned how to use the various fire fighting tools and how to combat fires. Patrolman Money expresses his appreciation for the wholehearted cooperation extended by Principals C. C. Cox, Robert Walker and J. H. Rice, and stated further, "There is an acute shortage of manpower in my district and I am confident that the boys will do their part to relieve the situation by responding to calls of wardens to fight fires in emergencies."

JUDY AND MICKEY IN GAY AND LAUGHING MUSICAL, "GIRL CRAZY"

George Gershwin's gay and sparkling musical comedy, "Girl Crazy," comes to the screen at last and co-stars Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, the irrepressible exponents of fun and laughter. The full Gershwin score plus the music of Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra make the film a delight to the ears as well as the eyes. The movie will be shown at Pitts' Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 27-28-29.

Mickey and Judy, working together for the eighth time on the M-G-M lot, dance, sing and clown their way through the tuneful film, surpassing all previous performances they have ever given. Mickey is a young playboy whose thoughts lie only in the direction of having fun in night clubs. His father sends him to Cody College in Arizona, hoping the boy will mend his ways away from the influence of girls. Mickey obeys and meets Judy, the dean's granddaughter and the only girl in town. Judy doesn't think so much of Mickey, but he manages to win her over and also save the school, which is threatened with closing because of lack of students.

Judy sings the Gershwin favorites, "Embraceable You," "Bidin' My Time," "I Got Rhythm," "But Not for Me," and many others, and displays a dancing flair to make everybody sit up and take notice. Mickey does two of his famous impersonations as well as several novelty song and dance numbers.

A chorus of one hundred boys and girls is featured in the finale production number, "I Got Rhythm," which was actually filmed in the Arizona desert to preserve the authentic roles atmosphere. Henry Walker, Gil Stratton, Robert E. Strickland, June Allyson and Frances Rafferty are among the newcomers spotlighted in numbers, and old-timers Guy Kibbee and "Rags" Ragland lend added zest to the sparkling film. Norman Taurog has directed skillfully, giving ample emphasis to the Gershwin melodies. Arthur Freed produced and has managed to retain all the gaiety and song of the original Broadway production.

TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL:

There has appeared two articles in the Manassas Journal in the last four or five weeks. One of them I wrote myself. They were complaints to the Public as to the way the School Officials were routing some of the School buses in the County. The complaint I made was not a personal affair. I only thought some of the little children were getting the dirty end of the stick, for reasons that were not practical.

The article signed by a Mr. Sullivan, his complaint according to his statement was a personal affair. And very justifiable. There should be an investigation of the way our County School system of transportation is being conducted. According to a letter addressed to a school patron and signed by a high official of the school, the letter and actions do not correspond.

The letter states the official took the patrons problem up with the Office of Defense Transportation and they objected to any mileage being added to his route. By going to the Office of Defense Transportation showed the sign of being very Democratic. But some mileage they added in other sections does show very little patriotism and no cooperation with our Government to economize on the things essential to the War effort.

I regret very much that things exist in our midst that will justify these articles to be written, when the school building was dedicated the statement was made that we wanted a clean residential section free from scandal and desirable for the highest type of citizen to be proud to live in. According to some things that have gone on and not made Public yet. The wishes of the speaker have not been fulfilled.

FARM HAND

IS THE FEED SHORTAGE OVER?

The answer, in all probability, is "No."

Corn is the key to the whole feed situation. Midwestern hogs can still pay more for corn than the ceiling price set by Government order. And there are still enough hogs in the Corn Belt to eat up the rest of the 1943 corn crop. Nearly half of the crop is already gone.

Southern States grain buyers, along with other grain handlers, predict that the flow of corn to the market will freeze up again within 60 to 90 days. Even if the market becomes favorable, corn growers do not generally move their corn during the busy planting season. That season is just around the corner and reserves of corn are practically gone.

Last May, when corn went off the market, mixers turned to barley, oats and wheat. There is no such "out" this year. We simply do not have the barley or the oats or the wheat.

Members of Southern States Cooperative must protect themselves in the event of another disruption in feed service.

What Farmers can do

Starting immediately, farmers can build up and keep a 30 to 60 day supply of feed right on the farm. This will prove to be a valuable cushion when and if feed service is interrupted by shortages of corn or other ingredients. Southern States Cooperative Service Agencies are now geared to help you build up the farm feed inventory. They may not be able to help you do it later.

As poultry mashers are fed, they should be drawn from the oldest pile to insure the proper vitamin content for the poultry.

Attention should be given seriously to growing more grain and grass forage on the farm. Pullets, as well as cows, can benefit from a leafy succulent range which saves feed costs. Every measure must be taken: First, to build up a feed backlog and Second, to produce more home grown feed to stretch purchased feed further.

FLIRTING WITH BOUNCING BETTY—U. S. Paratroopers on an Italian hillside engage in the dangerous task of removing hidden mines planted by retreating Germans. A member of a detonator squad (second from left) has located a mine which another soldier digs up and makes inoperative while their comrades lie flat on the ground in order to be "under" an explosion in case the trap be accidentally detonated. The type S mine is known as "Bouncing Betty" because of its ability to "jump" some distance above the ground before exploding. The mine detector is a wooden disc fitted to a long handle carrying a rheostat connected with head phones worn by the man in the detonator squad. When the sweeper passes over a mine it disturbs the magnetic field surrounding it, with the resultant change of tone in the "hum" of the operator's phone.

Will you be showing this Badge of Honor in your window?

It's the sign of a well-financed farm or ranch, too!

The Fourth War Loan is on! Every farmer, every rancher in America is called to the greatest offensive yet... the buying of more War Bonds than he has ever bought before.

There are lots of other places we could be putting our money, sure! And there are lots of other places our boys could be than in foxholes and slit trenches. But none of those other things we'd rather be buying or doing amount to anything right now. The boys are doing their job. We've got ours to do to take every cent we can scrape together and buy War Bonds with it!

And what a lot of sense it makes, after all. War Bonds are the safest and best financial reserve ever offered us. We will have buildings to repair, machinery to replace, and improvements to buy later on. Where's the money coming from if not from today's earnings? And where's the money coming from for that long vacation, for the children's education, for the new car?

Take a look at the types of War Bond investments that are offered. Pick the type that fits your particular needs. And then write out the biggest check you can and order Bonds today from your postmaster, your bank or your Production Credit Association. You will look back on this day as the wisest day you ever lived!
