Marshall Will Be Missed

The resignation of Marshall Johnson as editor of the Manassas Journal to work for the Associated Press in Richmond is regretted throughout this area. His resignation has also left a vacancy in the Journal staff that cannot easily be filled for he was more than an editor—he was part of the community.

Mr. Johnson, or Marshall as he is called by most everyone, did a magnificent job as editor of this paper.

He was constantly working, gathering news, advertisements, writing editorials and the thousand other jobs of a weekly newspaper editor. Also, he was always on the alert for new ideas and methods in journalism.

Not only was he constantly working on the Journal but also he was active in the various civic organizations of Manassas. He was forever interested in the community at large.

In Richmond Marshall will be working on a metropolitan daily—a far cry from a weekly newspaper—but regardless he will go "big time" on us; for his friends, sentiments, and the Journal are in Manassas and these he will not readily forget.

Yes, Marshall will be missed by the Journal—missed by the community. He will not be forgotten. And as for his new work in Richmond—the best of luck and success is hoped for him.

Looks Like Window Dressing

Evidently taking cognizance of some criticism of the policy followed in China, the President of the United States recently announced the appointment of a special group to review our Far Eastern policy.

Unless the study is designed to convince the people of the country that the Government is somewhat uncertain as to its policy, we are at a loss to understand the need for a special board to hammer out a set of guides for the day-to-day conduct of the United States affairs in the Far East. This is what Mr. Acheson calls the first objective of the study.

We would presume that the State Department, staffed with competent, intelligent and capable officials, has developed, many months ago, a "set of guides" for our position. If it has not already evolved such an outline, based upon existing facts and logical conclusions, the inescapable conclusion is that our policy in respect to China has been a hit-or-miss affair.

Churchill Urges Unity

"Our dangers are great, but so is our strength," declared Winston Churchill, in addressing the people of Strasbourg, where the Council of Europe was in the process of beginning.

The War Prime Minister of Great Britain called attention to the long religious, dynastic and nationalistic wars that Europe has experienced and asked:

"Are we to sink, after all our victories and sufferings, into final chaos, into ideological wars thrust upon us by barbarous and wicked oligarchies, whose fifth column agents are infiltrating into so many lands?"

This is the question that confronts the free peoples of the world. It stems, not from the agitated emotions of people, but from the machinations of ruling regimes, possessed of the power to regiment their people and to collect their resources for the purpose of aggressive militarism. It is the present epitome of the "might makes right" theory, which finds expression in totalitarian nations, where ambitious men direct the activities of millions in accord with their ambitious, and suspected, programs.

The loyal alumni are about to make up their minds whether the football team justifies the continuance of the institution of learning.

Just about the time you get set for a recession the financial experts come out with positive assurance that business is moving upwards, again.

Remember, when you advertise, that extravagant claims for your product lead buyers to disappointment. This does not mean additional sales.

"A LETTER FROM FLORIDA"
BY IONE RISON COOLIGAN

August 10, 1949

Dear Editor,
Did it ever occur to you that your weekly paper, "The Manassas Journal," comes all the way to Florida; and is enjoyed immensely, by others, as well as myself?

I am a former resident of Dumfries, but am also a subscriber to your paper. I was born there and lived there until 8 years ago when I married. Since then, I have always had access to your wonderful paper. I enjoy it a great deal, as it keeps me in touch with friends, acquaintances, and classmates of former years; as well as the county and state news in general. I do wish to congratulate you on the progress and increasing interest which has befallen your paper in the past 3 years.

Now that I have boasted your nice county paper, I would also like to cast a few laurels in the direction of the state from which this letter comes; in case some of your readers are contemplating a visit to the "Sunshine State" this winter.

I have lived in Florida (West Palm Beach, Tampa and Gainesville) the past 3 years, and I think it is one of the most beautiful states in the country. In the vicinity of Tampa and St. Petersburg there are so very many points of beauty and interests which are far too numerous to mention. Any one of them is within one day's round trip from there.

I have been through most all of the towns along both the east and west coasts of Florida. Sarasota is the headquarters of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus. In Miami there is scenery and amusement to suit any type of individual. Then there are the "Marine Studios in Marineland, Fla., where any species of fish or water mammals can be found. St. Augustine is one of the quaintest towns I've ever seen. There you will find the "Oldest House" in America, "The Fountain of Youth" (the water tastes terrible though); "The Alligator and Ostrich Farms" and the "Oldest Schoolhouse" under four flags. Near Jacksonville you will find the "Oriental Gardens" and "Jacksonville Beaches," where autos can be driven right near the surf's edge.

Then inland you will find many other beautiful and interesting places such as "Cypress Gardens" in Winter Haven; "Bok's Singing Tower" in Lake Wales, and "Ross" (Continued on Page Six)

VIEWS AND REVIEWS

What They Say Whether Right or Wrong
Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administrator:

"I have been impressed by a new spirit of confidence and hope that I find all through Europe as compared with one year ago."

Robert L. Doughton, chairman, House Ways and Means Committee:

"There is no one who would like to see a reduction in excise taxes more than I would."

Harry S. Truman:

"In two instances, if we had been ready, there would have been no wars."

Lucius D. Clay, former Military Governor of Germany:

"Today in Europe, Communism has been checked."

Carl Spaatz, General, U. S. Air Force, retired:

"Our potential enemies are just waiting until we are weak enough so they can hit us."

William Bronson White, dining-car steward for 51 years:

"It's not like it was in the old days. Then we used to work seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year."

Charles Schuman, president, Illinois Agricultural Association:

"More and more, agriculture is becoming a minority group in our nation."

Scott W. Lucas, U. S. Senator from Illinois:

"I predict that the Congress eventually will approve a bill for Federal aid to education which will be satisfactory to Americans of all faiths."

Kenneth S. Wherry, U. S. Senator from Nebraska:

"Great Britain, like the United States, is afflicted by extravagant government expenditures."

J. Edward Dirks, preacher:

"We live the way we live because of our belief."

WISE AND OTHERWISE

One Can

One can sit out the hot humid spell in the cellar—being careful to brush the fungus off one's person before resuming one's place in the community.—Washington Star.

Impossible

Sunday School Lesson

JESUS AND THE PSALMS

International Sunday School Lesson for September 11, 1949

MEMORY SELECTION: "The stone which the builders refused is become the head of the corner."—Psalm 118:22.

Lesson Text: Psalm 8: 2; Matthew 21: 15, 16; Psalm 110: 1; Matthew 22: 41-44; Psalm 118: 22; Matthew 21:38, 42; Luke 24: 44.

In studying the lesson for this week, it is well to remember that Jesus grew up in an orthodox Jewish home, devoutly religious. What education he received was given in the synagogue, where the only textbook was the Old Testament and the song book was the Psalter. It reminds us somewhat of the early days of this country, when the Bible was used as a textbook in the public schools and portions of the scriptures were memorized because there were never enough printed copies of the Bible to go around.

There is no wonder then, as occasions demanded in his later life, Jesus was able to answer temptations with quotations from God's Word and as various problems presented themselves, He was able to find comfort in the psalms, which were one of his great resources. As J. E. McFadyen suggests, "He used them to convey his thoughts which had been shaped under their influence, because he discerned in them the word of the Father God. The glorious paradox of Psalm 37: 11—"The meek shall inherit the earth"—flamed up before the mind of Jesus with all the splendor of the words of One whose standards were the true standards of an eternal Reality."

Matthew cites more instances than any other Gospel writer of Jesus' quoting from the scripture. Jesus recalled a number of passages from Isaiah, Deuteronomy, the Psalms and Exodus. This lesson is particularly concerned with his use of the Psalms. Matthew gives six separate instances, three of which are not included in our printed reference. They are: At his temptation (Matt. 4:6) Jesus quoted Psalm 91: 11-12. As he concluded his denunciation of the scribes and Pharisees (Matt. 23: 39), he quoted Psalm 118: 26. Then, in his agony on the cross (Matt. 46), he cried out the words of Psalm 22:1.

So we can see that the Psalms must have meant a great deal to Jesus. In them, he found some apt answers for his critics' questions. Following the triumphal entry into Jerusalem and the multitude's tumultuous acceptance of an honor paid to him, the religious leaders were greatly disturbed. Particularly were they angered by the action of Jesus in forcing the merchants and money-changers out of the Temple, and also by the healing of the blind and lame while the children were praising him.

All of these things were too much for the priests and scribes and they broadly hinted that Jesus should rebuke the children. Jesus, for his answer, quoted Psalm 8:2, and the officials were at a loss for a good answer. When he refused to rebuke the children, they planned another attack. Two days later, on Tuesday, Jesus returned to the Temple and, went through what is often referred to as the Day of Controversy. After his authority had been challenged by the priests, the Pharisees, the Herodians and Sadducees, Jesus, using a statement from Psalm 110, asked a question of the Pharisees. They were silenced by the question because they could not supply an answer.

Our last printed passage underscores Jesus's use of the psalms. On the evening of the resurrection and after his walk to Emmaus, Jesus appeared to his disciples in the upper room. In a long conversation with them, he tried to help them see his place in God's plan as it was revealed in the Law, the Prophets and in the Psalms.

If this book meant so much to Jesus, the Son of God, then it should mean much to his followers. The truths revealed in this great Book come "only to those who steadfastly and humbly submit their ways to God and seek first of all to do his will. The truth and beauty of the words caught the great soul of Jesus with all the power of a divine revelation, and he made of it one of the foundations of the greatest life ever lived, and of the greatest teaching ever taught to mankind. It took the greatness of Jesus to see the greatness of the Psalms."—J. E. McFadyen.

So you see Florida has a lot to be proud of as well as my own little state of Virginia; of which I am happy to be a native.

I am in hopes that you will consider this for printing in your paper, so as to give your readers a personal idea of the things I have actually seen and experienced, which I am sure would appeal to the most fastidious individual.

As for your paper—keep up the good work and I'm sure you will find more and more success as you have in the past.

With Best Wishes to you, your staff, and all my other friends, I remain—

Sincerely yours,

Did you say "E"? Well, you're right. E is easily the most used letter in the English language. And E also stands for Electricity—the service you use most often. Light, power, heat, cold, time, music... no other service does so many jobs for you so cheaply and so dependably as Electricity. America enjoys the best and the most Electric service in the world—largely because business-managed Electric companies have worked to keep the quality of service up and the cost of service down.

Vote Against Proposed Change

Will the people of Prince William County trade their right to elect their county treasurer and commissioner of revenue for a county finance officer to be appointed by the Board of Supervisors, especially when such finance officer will assess their property and collect their taxes and may not be a resident of Prince William County or the State of Virginia at the time of his appointment?

Vote Against Proposed Change

Remember also, that with all the additional power given the Board of Supervisors, you still can vote for only one supervisor. There are five others over whom you have no control.

Vote Against Proposed Change

Give this consideration and vote your decision Tuesday, September 20.

The proposed change in government will undoubtedly result in an increase in county taxes.

NEWS★ HOLLYWOOD

Three of the six Marines who played Old Glory on Iwo Jima are in Hollywood to reenact the historic battle for the movie. The other three died in later combat on the bloody island. Those who play themselves in the film are Gagnon, of Manchester, N. H.; H. Hayes, full-blooded Indian, who has a farm on the Indian reservation of Bapchule, Ariz.; and Bradley of Antigo, Wisconsin.

Dr. Kildaire will come back to the screen, but on radio, MGM has made a deal with Lew Ayres to repeat his famous medical character for radio.

Marino Lanza's next film at Metro will be "Serenade to Suzette." He also slated for an original story, with Alva Gardner as his co-partner. Lanza will play a prize-fighter, and Jimmy Durante will also be in the film.

Vanessa Brown isn't letting her career interfere with her education. She has just received her B. A. at U. C. L. A. and plans to go on to get her M.A. There's to be a new Gene Autry.

Once easy-going cowboy is getting tough. Autry's new scripts call for at least two fights a picture—rough and tumble fights, too. Here still won't be too much romance, though, as a favor to his 10-to-10-year-old fans.

Caruso fans will get a thrill when they hear that "Song of Sorrow" will include songs sung by Caruso in his prime. The story is Wanda Hendrix buying a phonograph and falling in love with the voice she hears on one of the records. The "voice" belongs to Enrico Caruso. Paramount's sound engineers took the old imperfect recordings, took the old musical accompaniment out, put in a new and amplified Caruso's voice.

On the SCREEN

Battery's Hurricane.
Richard Widmark, Veronica Lake, and Darnell and John Russell are involved in this romantic quadrangle which is illustrated in a series of flashbacks after Widmark takes off in an airplane to start the progress of a terrific storm which is heading for the last Florida coats. Widmark has the role of a former Navy hero, who had sunk a Jap cruiser single-handed, but who, with Veronica Lake, is working for a wealthy and manufacturer who is also down in Miami smuggling in dope from somewhere in the Caribbean. Darnell, a slinky, sultry siren with whom Widmark had had a previous love affair is now married to an old friend and wartime comrade, Mr. Russell.

The Great Gatsby.
In this backward glance at the past, a serious study of the roaring '20s and some of the peculiar characters and social habits that era produced, is made. The story is a tale of misery in mansions on Long Island. One of the most ornate and expensive is occupied by the newly-rich Mr. Gatsby, who earned his philosophy of life from a self-made man who believed that money could buy anything. Frustrated in love by lack of social position, he heeded his old friend's advice with utter ruthlessness and earned too late, that success can be a bitter fruit.

Alan Ladd has the leading role with Betty Field giving him able assistance. The supporting cast is made up of MacDonald Carey, Shelley Winters, Howard Da Silva and Ruth Hussey.

GREENWICH

Miss Frances Ellis was at home over the Labor Day weekend. Mr. Jack Garner visited Mr. and Mrs. Selma Corder for several days last week.

The Pioneers of the Presbyterian Church are now having their weekly meeting on Sunday evening. Wilbur Soper was the leader at the last meeting.

Rev. William Ramkey spent part of last weekend in Greenwich. He and Mrs. Ramkey moved to Richmond last week where he will resume his studies at Union Seminary and she will teach school.

Mr. Don Cross visited relatives in Washington the past week.

Mr. Charles Book with his parents stepped in Greenwich and Nokesville Saturday enroute to Richmond where he will continue his studies at the Seminary.

Instead of regular services last Sunday at the Presbyterian Church, Mr. Charles Gilliss was in charge of the Devotional, after which a religious film was presented in the Sunday School Building. Rev. Albert Winn will conduct the services this Sunday. From now on, the church will return to its winter schedule with Rev. Winn preaching on the second and fourth Sundays and the student minister on the first and third Sundays of each month.

Miss Rhoda Foster of Portsmouth, spent the weekend and holiday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spittle and family, Mrs. Mary Foster, Miss Rhoda Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb all enjoyed a picnic lunch at the Battlefield park on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Squires of Akron, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Squires for several days last week. Other visitors were Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Hopkins and Mrs. Faye Campbell and Miss Jean Campbell. The Young People of the Presbyterian Church will hold a supper and hayride on Saturday evening at the home of Billy Fleming. This will be a farewell social in honor of those from this group who are going to College in the near future. Sgt. and Mrs. Waltoh and boy visited at the home of Mrs. Maggie Crawford on Labor Day.

BRANDED PEACHES PEACH JAM

In reply to a request, here is our favorite recipe for branded peaches. White Heath peaches are preferable for this.

Into sterilized half gallon clamp top jars, place peeled clingstone peaches alternately with layers of sugar. Either brown or white sugar may be used. Use equal quantities of sugar and peaches. There will be about three peaches to a layer. Pack solidly to within one inch of the top of the jar and seal tightly.

Wrap each jar securely in a whole newspaper and store in a dark cupboard for six to nine months before opening. It will be even better to bury the jars in the earth.

The average count of peaches in a jar is nine to ten.

A good way to use up any peaches that may be somewhat imperfect is to make peach jam. Here is our recipe:

PEACH JAM
1 tsp. cinnamon bark
8 c. peach pulp
6 c. sugar
1/2 in. ginger root
1/2 tsp. allspice
1/2 tsp. cloves
12 peach pits
Juice 2 lemons

Blanch peaches in boiling water, cold-dip and remove skins and seeds. Mash pulp. Add sugar and spices (tied in bag). Cook until mixture is thick and clear. Remove spice bag. Pack into clean hot jars and seal at once.

Happenings In Nokesville

Our town is just like any other small town—just one large family. When "something special" happens to one family it's just in most of us it seems, to rejoice with them. When a family has misfortune we sympathize with them. In our "news" this week we have both examples. For several days, in fact, since last Thursday, we've all been so very interested in the progress of the Crismond twins, born at Mary Washington Hospital at 4 o'clock, September 1. Jane Leon weighed 2 pounds 12 ounces and Cary LaPoint weighed 3 pounds 7 ounces. Their parents, of course, are Mr. and Mrs. Carey Crismond of Spotsylvania and most important to Nokesville folks—the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Trenis. As we write this, the tiny ones are doing all right, despite the fact that they are so small.

To make us feel sad is the fact that Mrs. George Sonafank is ill at the Georgetown Hospital. Della has been ill for three weeks and just hasn't been able to get better. Little Ellen is staying with Mr. and Mrs. William Vance.

Mrs. J. W. Harpline is ill again and had to be taken back to University of Virginia Hospital at Charlottesville. For all who are ill—we do so hope they'll soon be well.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover May of Occoquan, visited the C. M. Hivels on Sunday.

Miss Lois Miller of Tuckahoe, N. Y. and Mr. Floyd McDowell of Johnston, Pa., spent several days at the Hooker home. Lois is the daughter of Dr. Quinter Miller.

Mrs. Zora Wells of near Roanoke is at the Garmans now helping to take care of "Grandma" Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hewitt of Washington, visited the A. D. Sines over the weekend.

Those who remember Miss Hazel Ritchie when she taught here will be interested to know that she and her husband, Ed Bell of Bealton, have a little baby daughter. They have named her Joan Edwina.

You'll be sure to see posters about the Eppley Sisters, a Gospel Quintette, who will be at the school auditorium on Sunday night, September 12—8:00. The program is being sponsored by the District Sunday School Association. We heard these sisters when they were in Manassas a few years ago and we're sure you won't be disappointed if you plan to come and bring the whole family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caton have a new baby daughter born August 31. They have named her Beverly Jean.

Mrs. L. J. Bowman spent Sunday and Monday, the 28 and 29 with Mrs. Mattie Renner in Maryland and Col. and Mrs. Otis W. Snyder in Arlington. On Monday evening Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Snyder, Col. and Mrs. Snyder and sons, Mr. J. C. Snyder and Miss Jean Renner returned home with her for several days' visit. On Tuesday the Messrs. Snyders and Mr. Bowman spent the day saying "hello" to friends around Mathias, West Virginia. Dr. Snyder and Miss Renner recently returned from a week in Miami, Florida where they attended the annual meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Several important dates for future activities have been announced the past week. Rev. Cecil Showalter of Sykesville, Pa., will be the revivalist when the folks at the Nokesville Church of the Brethren begins a week's meeting on Sunday, September 25 and closing with the Love Feast on Sunday night, October 2.

Another very important date for the Brethren folks is the Harvest Festival which will be held at the church November 19-20. Several services will be held that week including a concert by the Washington City Church of the Brethren Jr. Choir. A public supper will be served by the ladies of the church on the evening of November 18, with a Homecoming planned for all day—the 20th.

The family of Felix H. May and Arrianna Moyer May will hold a family reunion on September 25, 1949 at Palsades Recreation Center in Washington, D. C. The sign "Palsades" will be found in the center of McArthur Blvd. at Dana Place N. W., which comes in the 5100 block. Everyone connected to either "May" or "Moyer" family, please, come with a picnic lunch to be eaten at 2:00 o'clock E. S. T. There are plenty recreational facilities at the park so you're assured of a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilkins and Margaret have moved into their lovely new brick home just out of Nokesville. Also moving this week are the M. J. Shepherds into their new home on the farm. The Wade Whetzel's will then take over their newly purchased home and leave vacant the Bowman apartment to be occupied by the Bobby Brittons.

Put October 14—a Friday night—down in your mind and plan to attend the Band supper in the Nokesville Gym. The largest supper ever held in Nokesville was the supper for the benefit of the Band which was given in 1947. We hope this coming supper can equal or even surpass that event.

GROWTH OF POLIO CARE TEAM

Medical care for polio patients is costing the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis more money than ever before—because better treatment is available today than formerly, as the accompanying chart reveals. Until 1938 when the National Foundation was formed, a physician and a nurse usually comprised the best available care. Today, modern polio treatment may include 13 specialized services, provided by an entire TEAM of professional workers. This expanded care has cost the National Foundation Chapters millions in March of Dimes funds. More money is needed immediately to continue these services. Support the POLIO EPIDEMIC EMERGENCY DRIVE to help care for today's polio patients. Send your contribution now to POLIO, care of your local Post Office.

More later—every patron in the District will be contacted.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sterling and family of Kensington, Md., were visitors at Mrs. Sterling's parents, the C. C. Herrings on Sunday. Also spending several days with the Herrings recently were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Herring of Falls Church.

Recent guests of the Carl Millers at a picnic supper were Mr. and Mrs. Benny Wakeman and family of Manassas, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller and family of Oakton, Mr. and Mrs. Del Thrasher of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. B. R. King and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Williams and little daughter.

Miss Dorothy Marshall underwent an appendectomy at the Physicians Hospital in Warrenton on Tuesday. It was quite an unusual "first day at school"—both she and her mother had to be absent.

Mrs. N. N. Free was elected president for 1950 of the St. Women's Club and Mrs. Floyd Lanier, vice-president during the business meeting when the members and their families of the Senior and Junior Women's Club met at the Carl Miller home on Tuesday night for a picnic supper. An unusually large crowd was present to enjoy an evening of fellowship complete with music by our school band. Mrs. R. T. Gay was elected secretary with Mrs. Harry Van Nort as assistant. Both clubs decided to accept the responsibility to be hostesses to the Achievement Day folks sometime the last of October. The committee appointed to take care of making the necessary arrangements in regard to a place and a luncheon was Mrs. Fred Shepherd, Mrs. Blake Fleming, Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Willard Wilkins. Cards of thanks for recent gifts from the club was read by Mrs. M. J. Shepherd from Mrs. Paul Cooksey and Mrs. Higgs Lewis. And so another evening of fine fellowship came to a close.

Mr. John Devlin is living at the Bowmans again this year. He spent the holiday weekend in New York City.

A very large crowd—a capacity house—attended the Homecoming at the Asbury Methodist Church on Sunday. Many many families, in their entirety were present for the morning service, for the picnic dinner at noon and the afternoon service. Rev. Brittingham gave the morning message while Mr. John H. Rexse, district lay-leader of Alexandria, spoke in the afternoon. During the day musical selections were rendered by Jackie Earhart and Dorothy Marshall, Mrs. William Mallory and Rev. Brittingham. Every member of the H. C. Wood family came to the Wood home on Sunday to celebrate Mr. Wood's 69th birthday. It is the first time the family has ever been together. The children and their families are as follows (we thought you'd enjoy knowing how the family has grown); Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brann (Continued on page Nine)

A PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH THE DATE ON WHICH THE QUAIL SEASON SHALL CLOSE WEST OF THE BLUE RIDGE MOUNTAINS, ALSO IN THE COUNTIES OF CULPEPER, FAIRFAX, FAUQUIER, LOUDOUN, MADISON, PRINCE WILLIAM, RAPPAHANNOCK AND ON NATIONAL FOREST LANDS.

A meeting of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries was held at Richmond, Virginia, August 26, 1949, at which meeting the proposal hereinafter stated was authorized. A further meeting will be held at Richmond, Virginia, September 21, 1949, at which time said Proposal will be acted upon:

That the opening date for quail hunting having been previously established as November 20th, the closing date shall be December 15 in the counties west of the Blue Ridge Mountains, also in Culpeper, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun, Madison, Prince William, Rappahannock and within the boundaries of the National Forest areas in Amherst, Bedford and Nelson Counties.

That all parts of regulations in conflict with the foregoing be rescinded.

By order of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

BEVERLEY W. STRAS, JR., 20-1-c Chairman.

VIRGINIA—In the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia, August 27th, 1949.

Mary Elizabeth McGill, Complainant, vs. In Chancery Frank I. McGill, Defendant.

The general object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant from the defendant on the grounds of willful desertion for more than two years a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, custody of their infant son, and general relief.

And an application and affidavit having been duly made and filed as provided by statute that the defendant is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is therefore ordered that the said defendant, Frank I. McGill, do appear within ten days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interests; and it is further ordered that a copy be published for four consecutive weeks in The Manassas Journal, a newspaper published and circulating in said County, and that a like copy hereof be sent, by registered mail, to the defendant to his last known address as set forth in said application, and that a like copy hereof be posted at the front door of the Court House of said County on or before the next succeeding rule day.

Prince William County Veterans Class Meets

The organized County Veterans Class met on Tuesday night. Their main item of business centered around the F.F.A. and 4-H Club calf show which will be held in Nokesville at the J. F. Hale home on Saturday, September 10.

In charge of the day's events are P. B. Reading, Frank Cox and R. R. Fishpaw. All calves are to be in place by 10:00. Show time is 1:00. A refreshment booth will be tended by members of the F.F.A. Class to raise money to help send a representative to the F.F.A. Congress.

If any boy wishes to enter a calf and hasn't done so—he may still qualify by contacting any of the above mentioned men.
