Letters To Santa Claus—I am 7 years old and thought I would write and tell you what I want. I want a doll, a little brother, three years old, I want to write you for a letter. He wants a tractor and a teddy bear. He is a little boy.

Mart Plan Announced

Merchants of Manassas, in order to promote more Christmas trade at home, have announced that a Manassas Merchants Mart has been organized.

All that a visitor must do is to stop at one of the local stores included in the group sponsoring the project and sign his or her name on a coupon provided to be eligible for a large number of cash prizes.

Details of this plan are explained in an ad elsewhere in The Journal and we will endeavor to give further details next week.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Route 55 and Carolina Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin, occupants of the car, were taken to a hospital in Warrenton by the Fire Department ambulance where Mr. Austin was given X-rays, after suffering head and face lacerations. The extent of Mr. Austin's injuries has not been disclosed. Mrs. Austin suffered shock.

Mr. Young, driver of the truck, was not hurt.

Poage-Hill Rural Phone Bill Is Signed By President Truman

Five years after it was first proposed, the rural telephone bill, passed in the last hours of the first session of the 80th Congress, was signed by President Truman on October 28.

Authorized by Sen. Lister Hill (Ala.) and Representative W. R. Poage (Tex.), the bill permits the Rural Electrification Administration to make loans, similar to those now being made for rural electric lines, for the construction of rural telephone facilities.

$25 Million Authorized

Congress has authorized $25,000,000 for loans during the present fiscal year, which ends June 30. Written into the law is a provision that during the first year no loans to new companies can be considered until all applications from existing companies already serving in the same area receive final action.

Judging by testimony from small independent companies and mutuals, when Congress was gathering testimony on the rural telephone situation, the need of the small existing companies for loans is so great that there seems slight chance that any new companies will be able to secure loans during the coming months, unless the existing companies are also in making applications.

REA Made Loans

Although the loans are being made by the Rural Electrification Administration and rural electric

New Baptist Sunday School to Be Dedicated

Estimated at a value of over $60,000, the new Sunday school building of the Manassas Baptist Church will be dedicated this Sunday at its morning service.

After a dedication message by the pastor, the Rev. John D. Edens, the members and visitors will be conducted on a tour of the building. The Sunday school officers will be in their respective places to answer questions.

Other Churches Invited

Other churches are invited to come immediately upon dismissal of their own services. The members will be there to greet the visitors; however, open house will be observed until 4 p.m. for the benefit of those who cannot be present at the noon hour.

Ground was broken for the building in April, 1947, and it was sufficiently completed by December 12, 1948, for the Sunday school to begin using it. After completing a week of training in Sunday school administration and organization a newly graded and departmentalized Sunday school began operating. Since then the school has grown from nine classes to 22 and from 18 officers and teachers to 39. The average attendance in 1949 is 158 as compared to 99 for the same period in 1948.

Total of 20 Rooms

The building has a total of 20 rooms on the first two floors. The third floor is unfinished, but will probably be used for already needed Sunday school space when completed. Over 100 people can be cared for easily with its kitchen and dining room space. The pastor's study is equipped with a telephone and

'Mystery Girl' Is Identified

Archie Jordan, commander of Francis Cannon Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, announces that the post "mystery girl" is no longer a mystery.

The winner will be announced at the Armistice Ball to be held from 10:30 Friday night to 2:30 a.m. at the gymnasium of Osborn High School.

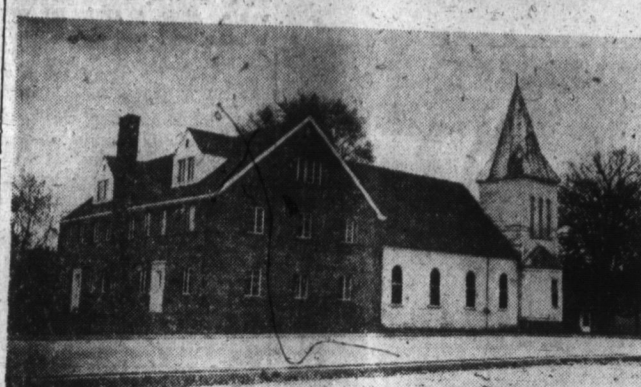

Postmarks Governed

Postmarks were the governing factor, and many people in and around Manassas were able to identify her, although outlying districts found it much more difficult.

Everyone is invited to attend the ball, sponsored by the V.F.W.

Jess Pyne's 10-piece orchestra, with vocalist, will furnish music for the ball, which will be semi-formal (optional).

Tickets may still be purchased for $2.50 from Gene Worley at Hynson Electric & Supply Co.; Ruth Shuster, at Gregory's Store; Curtis Polen, at the National Bank of Manassas, and at Metzger, at Cocks's Pharmacy.

DEDICATION WILL BE SUNDAY MORNING

will ultimately be equipped with modern office equipment. A two-room nursery has been in operation for several months. The church wants to make it possible for the mothers of infants to attend Sunday school and church; also it believes that the small child will receive valuable religious impressions. The nursery has two beds for the very young infants.

The church wants to serve Manassas in attaining its best life, and it feels that this new building will contribute greatly to the efficiency of its work.

Stanley A. Owens is the superintendent of the Sunday school.

Baptist Church Group Celebrates Halloween

WOODBINE.—About 75 members of the congregation of Woodbine Baptist Church held a Halloween party at the home of their pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Dick, on October 31.

The home was decorated with the traditional Halloween jack-o'-lanterns, witches and black cats. Mrs. James Shelton, Training Union director of the church, was in charge of the contests, games and pranks.

Prizes were won by Miss Doris Ann Cornwell and James Stanley for the funniest costumes. Before the serving of the lunch, a short devotional period was enjoyed. A good time was had by all.

County Holds Over $3 Million In U. S. Bonds

Prince William County held $3,278,000 worth of savings bonds drawing an estimated $90,000 on bonds outstanding on June 30, it was released recently by the state director from official tabulations received by his office.

Total sales for the County for the month of October of this year were $8,993.75.

Sales in the state for October amounted to $5,977,933.71, with the breakdown as between series as follows: Series E, $4,040,943; F, $316,590; G, $720,400.

Sales Of

In October last year Virginians invested $4,592,027 in Series E bonds out of total sales amounting to $5,992,067 for that month. The drop in Series E sales, in October of this year of more than a half million dollars in comparison to the same month last year would appear to be due, at least in part, to the coal strike.

A sharp drop in sales in the coal producing area is noted.

The best information available to the Treasury Department indicates Virginians held $738,000,000 in U. S. Savings Bonds on June 30, last. It is estimated the current annual interest on these amounts to $20,302,000. The total amount of savings bonds outstanding on June 30 was slightly in excess of 33 billion dollars.

Coming Events

The Occoquan-Woodbridge-Lorton Volunteer Fire Department will hold a Thanksgiving dinner at the fire house on Thursday, Nov. 24, from one to eight p.m. Proceeds from the dinner will go toward the department's building fund.

The annual turkey and oyster supper at Haymarket will be served November 17, at St. Pauls Parish Hall. This year the dinner will be

Feature of the Week:

Local Lad Is Youngest American Boat Racer

Nine-year-old Jackie Lanier, Jr., a cadet at the Linton Hall Military School, is the nation's youngest outboard racer and the youngest ever to hold an American Power Boat Association card.

Jackie, who began big-time racing only a year ago, is the son of Maj. Jack Lanier, a special air missions pilot stationed at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D. C.

Nationally Known

Already the 52-inch-tall, brown-haired racer has won seven trophies and appeared on numerous television and radio shows in newsreels, and has gained national recognition.

His picture and an article appeared in Quick Magazine on October 24, and other writeups have appeared in newspapers all over the United States.

Jackie's latest boat, "Miss Annie Laurie II," was named for his 12-year-old sister. It was specially built in Atlanta, Ga., by the Atlantic Boatworks, and is powered with a 20-cubic-inch Mercury Super 10.

Father Helps Him

Mr. Lanier travels with Jackie and has a special boat trailer which can carry two of Jackie's boats. He was instrumental in getting his son to take advantage of professional instruction in the fine points of racing from Earle Hildebrand, well-known boat racer.

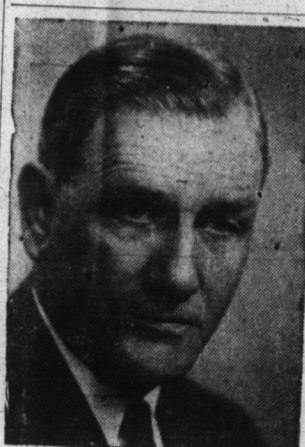

Because of his extreme youth, Jackie has had some trouble entering races. The last part of September Jackie hoped to race on Lake Alfred at the National Power Boat Association races.

After running a few initial time trials, however, he was disqualified just prior to race time.

John S. Battle Wins Governorship; Poll Repeal Is Defeated

NEW GOVERNOR

Good Weather Helps to Record Large State Vote

In the general election Tuesday in which John S. Battle was easily elected over the Republican nominee, Walter Johnson, and the Social-Democrat candidate, Clarke T. Robb, the proposed franchise amendments to the Constitution were defeated by a large vote.

Weather Favorable

For the state as a whole, favorable weather helped in the recording of a large vote, as well as in this County.

Returns early Tuesday gave Governor-elect Battle over 130,000 votes to the combined votes cast for his two opponents of less than 40,000.

The final tabulation on votes cast in Prince William County show a total of 908 votes cast for Battle against 166 for Johnson and 19 for Robb.

In Manassas, 259 votes were cast against the proposed amendments, with 130 for.

County Followed Trend

The total votes cast in the County for other Democratic candidates followed the trend of the state with 927 votes cast for Frank P. Moncure, who was unopposed; 838 for Lewis Preston Collins, and 816 cast for J. Lindsay Almond, Jr.

The final County vote on the proposed amendments by precincts follows:

Precinct	Amendments For	Amendments Against
Aden	3	25
Brentsville	6	16
Catharpin	2	19
Dumfries	6	65
Greenwich	2	18

Speed Boat Enthusiast, Jackie Lanier, with Trophy

prior to November 1, 1949, the American Power Boat Association will make no exception to its 1950 age rule which permits no one under 12 to race. And the only one holding a license under 12 is Jackie.

In addition to racing, the young Linton cadet, has several other interests.

He has been riding a British paratrooper's motorcycle since he was seven years old and has been taking flying lessons for two years from his father and is quite a sket shot for his age.

At the rate the 9-year-old youth is progressing, we will probably hear much more about him in the years to come.

Most speakers would be more careful of what they say if they knew that someone in the audience would question their statements.

Steeplechase To Be Held Saturday At 2

NEW YORK. — The annual autumn session of steeplechase racing will open in this area on Saturday, with the thirteenth annual Fall meeting of the Middleburg Hunt Race Association, to be held at the beautiful "Glenwood Park Course," the well-balanced, five-race program will start at 2 p.m. this Saturday.

Trough Hill to Race
Last year's winner, Trough Hill, owned by Mrs. Stephen C. Clark, Jr., of Middleburg, will return in an attempt to make it two straight victories. An easy winner of the Battleship Steeplechase at Pimlico last week, the horse seems destined to be selected "the steeplechase horse of the year."

In the 48 running, he bested Adaptable, another recent winner at Pimlico, and all indications point to a renewal of the turf feud this Saturday. The latter represents Mrs. Cortwright Wetherill's Happy Hill Farm, Malvern, Pa.

Sunnybank Included
Other events on the day's program include the Sunnybank, a mile and a half hurdle test; the Gerald B. Webb, Jr., Memorial, at two miles over hurdles; the Dresden, a two-mile brush event; and the Brookhill, a mile and a quarter route over the turf. The featured Mary Ellen, carrying an added purse value of $2,000, will be contested over the two-and-one-half-mile brush course.

Sewing Class Slated To Begin Tuesday

All out-of-school youths and adults are invited to attend a sewing class to be held at the Regional High School on Tuesday night of each week.
The class will begin at 8 o'clock, November 15, and instruction will be given to those who desire to learn to sew or improve their sewing techniques.

Campaign to Be Held At Buckhall Church

An evangelist campaign will be held at Buckhall Church, starting at 8 p.m. November 13. The Rev. L. C. Messick will be the evangelist for the first week. He is a former pastor of this work from 1916 to 1920 and is presently on the Martinsburg, W. Va., circuit. The Rev. Mr. Messick is the oldest in point of service, with 42 years in the Virginia Conference.

Catharpin

Members of Sudley Methodist Church are rejoicing this week over the reassignment to their church and to the Gainesville Methodist Church of their pastor, the Rev. J. W. Duley, following the annual Methodist conference.

According to general comment in the community, the Rev. Mr. Duley, a student at American University and resident of Cherrysdale, has done most valuable work in building up the Sunday School and developing young people's work in the church.

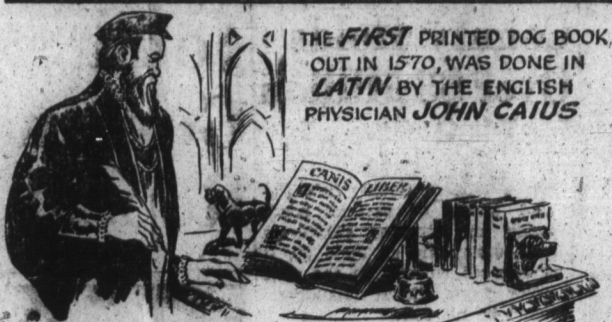

At present the young people are beginning work on the annual Christmas program to be presented in December, and the Woman's Missionary Society, with Mrs. Robert Wheeler as president, is beginning plans for some improvement in kitchen facilities at the church.

At a called meeting of the WMS last week, final reports from the annual Sudley Church dinner gave church members further cause for rejoicing. Mrs. Rumsey Light, Mrs. Luther Lynn, and Mrs. J. D. Harrover, report that the church took in more than $800 from the many friends who jammed the church for the dinner, in spite of the pouring rain. Of this, more than $560 was clear.

It is possible that hours for Sudley Sunday school and church may be changed to enable the Rev. Mr. Duley to expand the program of services at the Gainesville church, but at present Sunday school is held on the first, second and fourth Sundays at 10 a.m., and church services are held on the same Sundays at 11 a.m.

Aldie Presbyterian Church was reorganized in October with the Rev. Henry Willis as minister, according to Mrs. Curtis Lanham of Catharpin, and regular church services are held now on the first and third Sundays at 2:30 p.m.

Members are planning to attend a Thanksgiving service on November 20 at 2:30 p.m. at the Furnace Mountain Memorial Presbyterian Church, which is also one of the Rev. Mr. Willis' charges.

Mrs. Lanham, Mrs. Taylor Flynn, Mrs. Monie Davis, and Mrs. Olive Carroll attend the Aldie services regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McDonald of Oklahoma are visiting Mrs. McDonald's grandmother, Mrs. Fanny Cross, near Sudley Church. Mrs. McDonald is a graduate of Manassas High School and this is her first visit home since they moved to Oklahoma more than a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harrover, Warren Harrover, and Will Brower plan to attend the Thanksgiving Day football game between V.P.I. and V.M.I. at Roanoke. They will bring Billy Brower and Jimmy Harrover, freshman cadets at VPI, home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey returned Tuesday from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Alvey and their four-month-old son, Frederick Hampton Alvey, Jr. (Ricky), in Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Guilfrie, Mrs. Guilfrie's daughter, Mary Ellen Graves, and Mrs. Curtis Lanham drove to Newmarket last Saturday. The Guilfries have been living in Catharpin about a year, in the ranch-type eight-room house they have built on "Gobbler's Knob" on the old Downs place. They entertained guests from Washington during the week-end.

Mrs. C. L. Nelson will drive to Front Royal next Wednesday, November 15, for the district meeting at which county reports on the public education in Virginia survey will be assembled for transmission to the State Board of Education.

Comments from Prince William County citizens are being assembled this week by the County Federation of PTA's, with Mrs. John Powell of Occoquan as president, and will be presented at the Front Royal meeting by a delegate to be chosen at the Federation meeting in Dumfries next week.

Mrs. Nelson emphasizes the importance of the Front Royal meeting to all those interested in better schools for Virginia. She says that she will be happy to take all the interested persons her car will hold to the meeting, and expresses the earnest wish that others will make up parties to attend.

Neighborly Yours

By Maggi Marchand Brown

Just beyond Buckhall, a new sign announces that the fire-sweep Raymond place has become "Chimney Hill Farm," the recently purchased property of Mr. Elton J. Layton.

The Journal's editor asked me to interview Mr. Layton, who is the prominent clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, in his handsome office at the Capitol. Mr. Layton declared himself, and Mrs. Layton as enthusiastic settlers of this community for they intend to establish a permanent home here.

Hope to Build
Although the Laytons are still living in Arlington, they hope soon to build on the site where the old Arthur Raymond house was destroyed last spring. Meanwhile, Mr. Layton is improving the beautiful slanted fields and orchards, and he spoke to me in nice terms of the fine help he has found in the neighborhood.

This summer, soon after he bought the land, it was necessary for Mr. Layton to go to Europe with his committee, but whenever possible he spends a day or a week end on his new farm. Before he is ready to retire from the Capitol scene, he expects to have Chimney Hill restored as a country home. Both he and Mrs. Layton think they have acquired one of the prettiest locations in the county. Particularly, they are pleased with the splendid neighbors around Buckhall, the friendly charm of Manassas and its bright prospects.

"I began work as a stenographer on my sixteenth birthday," Mr. Layton told me. "Never in all these many years have I had a vacation. But I'm looking forward some day to have one at Buckhall, where I can well enjoy myself in the fields and woods."

Mr. Layton, who is a lawyer and a member of the Virginia bar, was born in Wayne County, Pennsylvania. Shortly after he came to Washington, he was employed as secretary to the Quartermaster General of the Army. His is a story of tireless work and devotion to duty while he studied toward advancement in his Government career. Thirty years ago he was given the important clerkship of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, a position that carries an immense burden of responsibility, and requires the broadest knowledge of world-wide trade. From his extensive travel, he has often been written up in periodicals as an authority on rail, air and motor transportation.

Visited 17 Countries
During two recent trips to Europe Mr. Layton traveled in 17 foreign countries. Also he has made several trips to Alaska, Mexico and Bermuda, besides touring Canada, Panama, Haiti, El Salvador, Cuba, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico. There have been repeated journeys throughout the United States. Before long he expects the Committee work to take him to South America and later to Panama.

Mr. Layton belongs to the Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities. As an expert fisherman, he was featured on the cover of an Alaskan sportsman's magazine, looking like a complete angler in swift glacial waters.

The Prince William Electric Cooperative, Manassas, sent three delegates to the State meeting of Electric Cooperatives held at the Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, on October 27 and 28.

Those representing the local cooperative were Francis S. Van Doren, secretary-treasurer, and also director for the State Association: R. B. Hicks, manager; and W. Hill Brown, Jr., attorney.

85 Per Cent Electrified
It was announced at the State Association meeting that 85 per cent of the farm families in rural America now have electricity, whereas only 7 per cent of these families had electricity when the Rural Electrification Administration was created.

Great progress has been made in electrifying rural Virginia, however,

Virginia Fans To See 3 Games This Weekend

WILLIAMSBURG. — Only three state games are on tap for Virginia grid fans this week, as the giants rest 'and all-America tension mounts.

Virginia Tech is at Richmond, Delaware at Washington and Lee and Hampden-Sydney at Randolph-Macon. VMI travels to The Citadel and unbeaten Emory and Henry invades Western Carolina in the other two games.

Virginia's unbeaten Cavaliers, after scoring a smashing 26-14 upset over Penn, held the state spotlight. Art Guepe's team whipped Penn for the first time in history and it couldn't have come at a more opportune moment. While Penn played a seven and eight man line to stop Johnny Papit, quarterback Whitey Michels ran and passed them dizzy, and Papit's All-America chances increased tenfold.

N. C. Edges W. & M. The state's big game saw North Carolina edge William and Mary 20-14 on a desperation pass, three minutes before the game ended. After the Indians had held the upper hand almost all afternoon and the 20,000 customers who crammed Cary Field had seen Buddy Lex outshine Charley Justice and Vito Ragazzo continue his touchdown pass-catching, Billy Hayes of Arlington looped a pass to Art Weiner from 13 yards out on fourth down and the Tar Heels had a victory.

William and Mary had driven to a touchdown early in the first period, with Lex passing to Ragazzo for the score. Lex kicked the point and the margin held until Carolina recovered Ed Magdziak's fumble on the second half kick-off. The Heels scored on a pass from Justice to Verchick, and kicked the point. They went ahead two minutes later when Justice returned a punt 75 yards on a disputed play. The Indians came back and took the lead on the first series of plays in the fourth quarter when Lex passed to Madziak, then kicked the point.

Lead Changes 3 Times The lead held until the final three minutes, and even after Carolina went ahead, Ragazzo almost snatched a long pass from the midst of three Carolina defenders. It was a heartbreaking loss for Rube McCray's Indians, for they had Carolina stopped most of the time, and last Jack Cloud early in the second quarter. Cloud had been playing one of the best games of his career, and his absence on defense was sorely felt.

In other games, W&L's Gil Bogetti passed for a touchdown in the waning moments to give the Generals a 6-6 tie with VPI. VMI rolled over Davidson 47-6, mainly on the throwing of Joe Veltri, N. C. State downed Richmond 20-6, Catholic U. mauled Gallaudet 33-13, Sewanee beat Hampden-Sydney 12-2, and Washington College 27-9.

With three weeks remaining in the grid season, the big questions appeared to be: Could Virginia beat Tulane and North Carolina for an undefeated year, would Johnny Papit make All-America and the Cavaliers a bowl, and would William and Mary's senior stars continue to receive national recognition? Lex and Ragazzo are among the nation's statistical leaders.

However, if cyanamid is used, a complete application now is preferable.

Mastitis Cases May Increase In Dairy Herds

RICHMOND. — With colder weather coming on, mastitis cases may increase in dairy herds, the American Foundation for Animal Health today warned cattle owners.

"Mastitis frequently follows teat or udder injury," a foundation bulletin says.

"Many animals which have spent much of the day on pasture are being confined to barns at this time of year as pastures taper off. This means that mastitis hazards are greater."

Advise Steps
To safeguard cows, the Foundation advised these precautionary steps:

Check the barn for high sills, protruding nails, or any objects which may injure teats and udders.

Have a veterinarian examine all animals for the disease. Infected cows should be put at the end of the milking line and milked last.

Milk Rapidly
Practice rapid milking, making sure that teat cups are not left on any longer than necessary. Check vacuum gauges; too much vacuum is responsible for numerous teat injuries.

Disinfect the milking equipment and see that the cows teats and udders, and milker's hands are washed and dried, since these are the paths by which mastitis infection travels from diseased to healthy animals.

Keep a close lookout for signs of trouble. If called promptly, veterinarians can save many cases which otherwise might soon become untreatable.

Unidentified

Mrs. ... was seen wearing a gray skirt, yellow-green coat, and black patent leather shoes at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday afternoon in front of The Journal office.

If she will come by The Journal office again within one week we will pay her one dollar.

Last weeks mystery man was Jack Ratcliffe who collected his dollar at The Journal office.

REAL COOPERATION

LEAF RIVER, Ill.—It was real community cooperation recently when almost everybody in this town — doctor, minister, barber, factory worker, beauty operator, teacher, postmaster, etc.—gathered at a vacant lot. They dug, raked, hammered, sawed and by nightfall had produced a playground, complete with swing and see-saws.

It Is Here

It's a bute—this Cocker dog that this week strayed through the front door of The Journal office. Despite the barking and attention it must have, we are enjoying putting up with it; but unless the owner comes along pretty soon and puts in a claim this little doggie will be earning room and board via the printing trade.

NICKEL PLUGS THROAT

Granby, Col. — Six-year-old Frank Bathrick's daddy gave him two nickels for being a good boy. The boy began juggling the coins while lying on the floor. One slipped from his hand into his mouth and down his throat, choking him. His father, Ralph Bathrick, sped the boy to a hospital where the surgeon obligingly fished out the nickel, returning it to Frank.
