Census Begins on Saturday 18 Enumerators Ready to Tally Residents of Prince William

Eighteen census enumerators will begin ringing doorbells Saturday in Prince William county as the Seventeenth Decennial census officially begins.

The census takers, who complete a comprehensive course of instruction at the Middleburg Community Center, Middleburg, on Friday, will be responsible for the tabulation of every man, woman and child, and most of the livestock in Prince William County. Though they are theoretically supposed to complete the count by the end of April, area census officials in Alexandria acknowledge that it may take a month and a half or two months to reach everyone in the county.

Authorized by the constitution and enforced by laws with relatively heavy penalties, the census will chart the county's progress in the next ten years and may result in redistricting of congressional seats in this portion of Virginia.

A total of 26 census takers is authorized for this county, but six will be provided by the Marine Corps for enumeration work on Quantico Base. Of the other twenty vacancies, all but two have been filled.

Enumeration in this county will be supervised by Roy Helms of Yorkshire, crew leader for the district covering the upper end of Prince William and the lower part of Loudoun, and by Edward Wright, also of Yorkshire, crew leader for the central and lower parts of Prince William.

Helms listed his assistants as Mrs. Lucy M. Hartman of Brentsville, Mrs. Bernice Lightner of Haymarket, Mrs. Claudia P. Smith of Stone House, and Mrs. Irene F. Wood of Wood and Mrs. Gladys L. Gardner, both of Gainesville. Wright was not available Wednesday, but Helms gave the following names as the thirteen enumerators under Wright's control:

Mrs. Bauchman, Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. Gladys Bushong, Mrs. Zella E. Cornwell, Mrs. A. Grady, Mrs. V. F. Lambert, Mrs. Ellen Ruff, Michael Oleyar, Mrs. Lois C. Oliver, Mrs. Annie Powers, Mrs. Helen Ralcliffe, Mrs. Wilson, and K. Calhoun.

A variety of question will be asked persons interviewed by the enumerators.

EVERY PERSON WILL BE ASKED: Name, relationship to head of household, race, sex, age, marital status, state or country of birth, citizenship status.

EVERY PERSON 14 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER: Employment, status, kind of job.

EVERY FIFTH PERSON: Place of residence one year ago, country of birth of parents, whether person is attending school, highest school grade attained.

EVERY FIFTH PERSON 14 OR OLDER: Number of weeks worked in 1949, income in 1949, veteran status (for males only), duration of unemployment if out of work.

Other questions will be asked of every 30th person 14 or older: every 30th person neither working nor seeking work; every 30th married or previously married person, and every 30th married woman.

Virtually all farm questionnaires already have been distributed. These are to be filled out by the farmer so as to be ready to hand the enumerator when that official calls. Forty-one different questionnaires have been printed, but only one of these will be distributed to Virginia farmers.

Just to keep the record straight, the census considers you a farmer if:

You have a greenhouse, or a nursery, or 100 or more chickens, or collected 300 or more dozen eggs in 1949, or have three or more hives of bees.

The bureau of the census also apparently took perhaps unwitting notice of the habits of rabbits when it directed that farmers must count their bunnies before April 1.

Smith, Krum Seek Eighth District Seat

Rep. Howard W. Smith, Democrat of Alexandria, announced this week for re-election to his seat in Congress. He will seek the Democratic nomination in the August primary.

Smith is the second man in as many weeks to announce his intention to run for the Eighth District seat. Tyrrell Krum of Vienna, who lost to Smith in the general election of 1948 by 8,000 votes, said last week he would seek the Republican nomination for the seat.

Smith, a veteran of 20 years in Congress, is dean of the Virginia delegation. He is author of the Smith act under which eleven communists: spies were recently convicted in New York and under which all aliens were fingerprinted and registered prior to the late war.

A native of Fauquier County, Smith served for a time as judge of the 16th Judicial circuit.

Krum, a former lieutenant commander in the Navy, set himself up after World War II as a newspaper and radio "veteran's adviser," doing business as Commander "Ty" Krum. In announcing his candidacy last week, Krum said he had substantial support from Democrats as well as Republicans and that he felt "compelled to offer his candidacy."

11 Complete Courses

Eleven women have completed the Red Cross Canteen course sponsored by the Occoquan Red Cross Canteen. With Mrs. Nellie Curtis, home economics instructor at Occoquan High school, as instructor, the women underwent a 12-hour course designed to qualify them as workers in time of disaster, as blood donors, and as bloodmobile attendants.

Those who were recognized as qualified canteen members at a ceremony at the home of Mrs. Fanny Mooney were Mrs. Mooney, Mrs. Rosa Shanklin (co-hostess), Mrs. H. T. Lohr, Mrs. Ellen Ruff, Mrs. Ann Petellat, Mrs. Elsie Good, Mrs. Jeanette Garber, Mrs. Blanche Garber, Mrs. Lela Garber, Mrs. Mary Elita Garber and Mrs. Medrith Garber.

Rate of $1.64 Is Studied By Council

A proposal to increase the town tax rate from $1.25 to $1.64 is under consideration by the Town Council. The council tabled the proposal for thirty days after a revised budget was presented by Town Manager Riller for the coming fiscal year.

During discussion Monday evening, Councilwoman Frances Saunders expressed interest in annexation of outlying areas as a means of gaining revenue. A proposal to borrow funds to make up the difference between tax collections and operating expenses was derided by Mayor Harry Davis as "borrowing from Peter to pay Paul." Davis asserted that a loan at this time would be a mistake, and that the town cannot borrow for operating expenses, which, he said, is all the budget provides for.

Davis favored tax reduction rather than increase, and cited the $1 rate in effect at Culpeper. However, he said, a fund of $8,000 earmarked for a new well for the town's water supply would prohibit a reduction.

Other action by the Town Council:

Accepted the resignation of Town Attorney Arthur W. Sinclair and named W. Hill Brown, Jr., to succeed him.

Reversed its earlier stand against the turning of water to out-of-town property owners and ruled that water could be given to owners eligible to make sewer connections.

Authorized Mrs. Elizabeth Wine to establish a laundry.

Heard a letter from C. Lacey Compton to the effect that the town's title to certain property sought by the Negro American Legion post is not clear. The council referred the matter to the new town attorney.

Authorized, on motion of Mrs. Saunders, an additional trash pickup in the center of town provided merchants seeking such service pay additional money to defray the cost.

Three clerks from Coker's Pharmacy attended a sales school in Washington Tuesday. Held at the Washington Hotel and sponsored by a cosmetic manufacturing concern, the school was an all-day affair designed to instruct in sales techniques and give pointers on cosmetics. Attending were Misses Alma Cooper, Lucy Earls, and Fern Lovenshimer.

Supervisors Considering Health Center

Plans for a Prince William County health center were shelved this week by the Board of Supervisors until the next meeting after the board heard Tuesday from two state health officials that state and federal grants in aid will amount to 55 per cent of the cost of the project.

Dr. J. C. Neale, Jr., director of local health services, and Ronald Almack, director of the bureau of hospitals and construction, State Department of Health, told the supervisors that the cost of the center was estimated at $71,000 but that the state "was prepared to go along to the extent of 15 per cent over the estimate."

The state will also pay up to $75 a month toward the operation of the health center, Neale said.

The county, according to Treasurer C. A. Sinclair, has an interest of $23,495 in the health center at present. Of this figure, $13,696 was raised by popular subscription and $201 was subsequently withdrawn, and $10,000 was appropriated by the Board in March 1949. Architect fees totaling $2,200 and a lot costing $3,000 were paid for out of this fund, leaving cash of $18,295 in the treasury.

Figuring on the basis of 55 per cent state participation in a $75,000 project the job would require an additional $8,764 of local funds.

Wheatley Johnson, appearing privately before the board, said some individuals who had contributed to early fund-drives might wish their money back for various reasons. He stated he did not believe many of these requests would be justified on the basis of nature of the gift.

E. R. Conner confronted the board to demand refunding of $125 he had contributed to the drive. He explained that he had given the money with the understanding that it was to be used to construction of a health center "Living War Memorial" on the Paul Nelson lot in the gore between Grant Avenue and Sudley Road. He based his demand on the fact that the center, if and when built, will occupy a different site across the street.

Mrs. Waddell Fraley of Dumfries announces a $10,000 fund-raising campaign for construction of a new church building for the Dumfries Methodist Church. The drive has an Easter deadline, Mrs. Fraley says. Checks may be made out to the Treasurer, Building Fund, Dumfries Church.

Modern, Functional Design Is Headquarters' Outstanding Feature; Demonstration Kitchen Of Prime Interest to Women Co-op Members

Statement By Co-op Head

By FRANCIS S. VAN DOREN
President, Prince William Electric Cooperative

The Prince William Electric Cooperative, with its history of nine years of service to its members and consumers, has entered a new phase of operations. With its occupancy of the functionally designed headquarters building in the growing business section of Northeast Manassas, the Cooperative is ready to render continued dependable service.

We of the Prince William Electric Cooperative like to think of our organization as "Democracy in Action." Those who use its services own it. In a significant way, the Prince William Electric Cooperative is patterned along the lines set out for our government. It is an organization "of the people, by the people, for the people."

Robert H. Smiths Mark Silver Wedding At Cedar Grove

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hancock Smith entertained Saturday at an evening reception at their home, "Cedar Grove," in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. Like the quarter-century commemoration, their wedding took place at the historic home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Fontaine B. Hooff, greeted their guests in the drawing room, which was decorated with spring flowers. Many of the guests last Saturday were also in attendance 25 years ago when the Smiths were married.

Mrs. Smith wore a dark blue chiffon and lace gown and a corsage of white orchids.

Presiding at the tea table, which was decorated with white flowers, silver candelabra and tall white candles, were Mrs. A. A. Hooff, Mrs. C. C. Lynn, Mrs. Nina Wade Dalton, Mrs. D. B. Smith, Mrs. William Leachman and Miss Leone Davis.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Smith's aunt, Mrs. Carey Buck and her daughter, Miss Lucy Buck of Washington, Mrs. William L. Buck of Atlanta, Sen. and Mrs. Dennis Chavez of New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Greene, Mr. and Mrs. B. Y. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sullivan, Mrs. Julian N. Prant, Commander and Mrs. Winston Crickenberger, Capt. Charles Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tierney and Mrs. J. P. Leachman, all of Washington.

W. Thomasson. 74. Dies Here

William Trenton Thomasson, of Route 1, Manassas, one of the best known dairy farmers in this area, died at his home Wednesday after an illness of three weeks. He was 74 years old.

Mr. Thomasson was born Dec. 18, 1876, the son of Thomas A. Thomasson, who was a nephew of Jefferson Davis. The elder Thomasson was a standard bearer at the Battle of Manassas when Stonewall Jackson acquired his sobriquet, and held the bride of Gen. Lee's horse, "Traveler," at Appomattox.

Mr. Thomasson lived in this area practically all his life, and married the former Sally K. Conner of Manassas in 1903. Mrs. Thomasson died in 1948.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Leslie Kline, Mrs. C. Lacey Compton, Mrs. Clark Huffman and Mrs. Clay Ball all of Manassas; a brother, Ed Thomasson of Nokesville; and three sisters, Mrs. Emily Speakes of Manassas, Mrs. Susie Holsinger of Baltimore, and Mrs. Ada Stephens of Washington.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Manassas Church of the Brethren, of which Mr. Thomasson was a lifelong member. The Rev. Conrad L. Snively will officiate. Burial will follow at the Church of the Brethren cemetery.

Union Pressure Here Same Old Go-round

Pegler Asserts

The recent invasion of Prince William County dairy farms by union organizers is another chapter in an old story, according to Columnist Westbrook Pegler.

The editors of The Journal sent clippings of a recent story about a labor incident in the Manassas area to Mr. Pegler, who is sojourning at his happy hunting ground near Tucson, Ariz. This week the editors received the following note, signed "Peg":

"Thanks for your letter and the clips. They tried this in California for years. The teamsters claimed jurisdiction over dairy milkers because milk rolls on wheels to market. They were called 'titular teamsters.'"

Mr. Pegler does not mention the status given cows by the union.

Code Id the Doze Gives Coker's New Prescription Record

It's an ill virus that blows nobody good, to mix a metaphor almost beyond recognition.

The somebody that got some good out of the current virus influenza epidemic, it turns out, is Dr. George B. Coker, proprietor of Coker's pharmacy. A new record for prescriptions filled in a single month was hung up this week when Dr. Coker and his store manager, J. Wallace Hook reported that 2,330 prescriptions had been filled up to the close of business March 28.

The previous in the 30-year history of Coker's was established in January of this year, when 2,300 prescriptions were filled. By closing time Friday, Hook predicts, the number of prescriptions handled will top 2,500.

Merchants Will Show Goods in Display Space

The sign of our energized times is the Prince William Electric Cooperative's modern building, an outstanding landmark of 1950 at Manassas. Here the member-owned and operated power-generating system will conduct rural electrical service to five Virginia counties, speeding the production and marketing of rich agricultural resources for the Nation's benefit.

In planning this headquarters, the most efficient standards of management were kept in constant view. Every facility was closely gauged for complete utilization, plan and practice. The handsome buff-brick structure, lighted by numerous windows, is 123 feet long, 41 feet wide. Sturdy, fireproof, it sets back from Highway 28 to afford ample parking space for visitors' car at the front and an attractive piece of lawn. Broad truck yards in the rear will handle the line crew's heavy maintenance equipment.

At the entrance of Prince William Electric Cooperative is a huge plate-glass display window, where the various makes of electrical appliances will be exhibited. Merchants of this power area, covered by the Cooperative, will be invited to show their household, dairy and farm appliances in the window, so that trained advisers may make direct contacts with prospective buyers for mutual interests.

A broad lobby opens toward the demonstration room and model kitchen on the right. This arrangement offers audition space before the theater-like kitchen, a seating capacity of 50 persons for Home Demonstration and other groups, members and friends that are expected to attend power-use programs at the Cooperative. The Electrical Adviser, Mrs. Margaret M. Brown, will have charge of this section, which will be open to the public every afternoon in the week, except Saturday and Sunday, and on other special occasions.

As the Board of Directors' meeting place, the demonstration room serves a dual purpose, although its primary function is to provide adequate space for the member-directors. For such usage, folding doors will close off the room from the main lobby, and the kitchen retires behind a heavy curtain.

Facing the front entrance, set back in the lobby, is the cashier's counter, over which monthly service accounts will be received and incidental business transacted.

The cashier's room opens directly into the manager's office, bringing Reuben B. Hicks into close touch with all members who appear at the new headquarters. The availability of Manager Hicks is a particularly feature in this highly satisfactory planning, because his office is situated at the focal point for both internal control of the concern and external transactions with members and trade visitors.

Next beyond the manager's private office is located the engineer, Harry K. Bowman, his helpers, and the Assistant to the Manager, James J. Barron, who has charge of the plant and outside activities. This extremely active unit is handily in touch with the big combined shop and garage. Here are the scroogum and loading platform, heated, and closed against cold weather by automatic steel sliding doors. Nearby is the linemen's shower room where the mud and dust of highways and byways may be left behind at the end of day.

Another connected unit is the bookkeeping section, under Charles L. Bauserman. These rooms are situated behind the cashier's cage, secretary's area, and flanked by a huge storage vault for records. In the rear of the building, light and airy, these offices are set apart for efficiency.

Nokesville

By Fred T. Shepherd

We want you to know that all those who were connected with the operation of the Bloodmobile Unit from Washington, at the Nokesville Church of the Brethren on March 23 pronounced the results a success.

The ladies of the Senior and Junior Women's Clubs worked very hard to take care of all the necessary details, under the direction of Mrs. N. N. Free and Mrs. J. P. Hale, the local Red Cross workers. The Occoquan Red Cross canteen donated all the food for the donors and helped the Junior Women serve luncheon to all the staff. Quite a few ladies from Manassas were present to do their "bit." We feel quite honored to have had Dr. Edward L. Valentine, assistant medical director of the Buffalo Red Cross Blood Center and Dr. Carter Brown, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., medical supervisor of the Mobile Blood Unit operating from the Buffalo Center, with us to observe in detail all the workings of the Unit. They will go back and complete details for the beginning of the operation of a Bloodmobile Unit in New York State. They asked us to quote them as:

saying that they were very favorably impressed by the spirit of cooperation, congeniality, and Virginia hospitality. We couldn't help but wonder, when on Friday evening, TV news told about 46 pints of blood being flown to Florida from the Washington Red Cross Blood Center, whether some of the pints which we folks gave on Thursday, could have been among that sent there.

When the Faithful Climbers met at the Church on Tuesday evening for their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Willard Wilkins, Mrs. Nunzio Barbera and Mrs. Cleveland Flory acting as hostesses, the following officers were elected for the coming six months: President, Mrs. Cleveland Flory, vice president, Mrs. Fred Shepherd, secretary, Mary Flory, and assistant secretary, Mrs. Wallace Wood.

Rev. B. J. Wampler of Oakton met with the young folks at the Brethren on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evening preceding Easter Day.

May we make an apology? In all of our many, many weeks of writing down happenings in and around Nokesville, we haven't made so very many mistakes in our reportings. Gathering news is no easy job, believe me and we want you to know it can be easy to make a mistake now and then, very unintentionally. Last week we said that Layton Laws and Billy King had purchased a farm near Metz. We were wrong, the farm was purchased just by the B. R. Kings. The Kings have already moved to their new home. We hate to see the Kings moving out of the community for all sports activities of the community. Maybe, Billy, Metz isn't too far away for you to come to take your place on the baseball team this summer.

Those ladies of the Ladies Aid of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren who have birthdays in April, May or June, are already making definite fund-raising plans for the coming three months. The ladies also are asking anyone who has any shrubs, bulbs, flower plants or vegetable plants to give them for sale that afternoon.

may have just learned the problems of pork but we have been experts on the subject for years

However, the Reader's Digest has presented the problem of pork preparation in a very lucid manner and we recommend that you read the article published in the March issue of that magazine.

The crux of the discussion is that there are three ways to make pork safe for human consumption. MANASSAS FROZEN FOODS Plant has the least expensive of these three ways available to you NOW.

A Man With Khoroshi Dom

Marion of Washington has the most unusual job in the industry. He dropped in one day to pass the time of day to a classified ad in the paper about rental of a new house in nearby Fair.

During the conversation he learned that Marion works for the Government Printing Office in a specialized annex in the city of Congress. There, day in and day out, Marion sits at a modern typewriting machine, putting type for library catalogs.

He fell into the typewriting business because he couldn't learn Russian. You don't necessarily have to know a language to set type in it. Marion had progressed far enough in three one-act plays.

That Marion wanted to know, we offered (in exchange for his story) to print his free on Page One—if he gave it to us in Russian.

Marion's khoroshi dom dila vas. This means in English will be in the classified columns of the Journal.

Haymarket - Gainesville Area

This week the Journal visited the E. B. Roland Garage in Haymarket. Mr. Edmund Roland was ill at home with a touch of flu, and his father, Mr. Clifford B. Roland was operating the garage. He told us that Roland's garage opened in 1919, when an automobile "mechanic" was anyone who could change a tire. There was practically no place a person could have his automobile repaired by competent workmen. And if a good mechanic charged more than a few cents, people thought they were being robbed, he said. "Now it's better, but then I couldn't take it and I got out the business and went into general hauling."

E. B. Roland took over the garage in 1922 and has been running it ever since, except for the years he spent in the Army. "Edmund," his father says, "was a boy who could build anything. He built arce-welding and hydraulic lift outfits before he had ever seen a real one. He did it just from books."

Roland's Garage is located in Haymarket. The two Mr. Rolands can supply you with ice, sand, gravel; do welding and auto repairs. They are both natives by now of Haymarket and they are always glad to see their friends, or have them stop in for service.

T. B. Group Elects Fick

The Prince William County Tuberculosis Association held a meeting in the School Board office on March 15 to nominate officers for 1950. The nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Frank D. Cox, Miss Sue Ayres and Miss Naomi Wright presented the following slate: Jack F. Fick, Jr., Quantico, president; George Crumm, Canova, vice-president; Austin Barbee, Manassas, treasurer; Mrs. L. J. Bowman, Nokesville, secretary; Mrs. Paul Espenshade, Manassas, seal sale chairman; Mrs. Cox, publicity chairman; directors: Mrs. Henry Frank, Dumfries; Mrs. Mary Porter, Dumfries; Mrs. A. B. Fleming, Nokesville; Mrs. John Piercy, Jr., Catharpin; Mrs. Beatrice Washington, Gainesville; Mrs. Lillian Roy, Manassas; Mrs. Paul Cornwell, Manassas.

Mr. Fick, who has served as president of the Association for the past year, will call a meeting next month for the election of officers.

The final report for the annual seal sale will be sent to headquarters this week. Total sales to date are short of the $2,500 goal according to Mrs. Espenshade, chairman of the drive to raise funds for the work of the organization. There are a few more days left for county residents who have failed to reply to their seal sale letters, to send in their dollar donations to count toward the quota. A few more contributions are needed to put the drive over the top.

IMPROVEMENT STARTS WITH LIMING

It is generally agreed that the first step in pasture improvement is the application of the needed amount of Agricultural Limestone. It corrects the acid condition that has developed through years of neglect; stimulates the biological activity of the soil; particularly the nitrogen-forming process; renders and keeps other plant foods like phosphorus more available; and improves the soil structure.

Calcium and phosphorus are the two bone-building elements so necessary in the production of healthy, profitable livestock. Most pasture soils are deficient in both of them and, consequently, the forage is deficient. An application of Limestone supplies the calcium, and superphosphate or rock phosphate supplies the phosphorus.

DO NOT APPLY SUBSTITUTES THAT ARE LUMPY AND CONTAIN FROM 15 TO 25% MOISTURE.

"Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight"

Our ten o'clock curfew lasted for 50 years, but the town council voted it out. I dropped in at the meeting in Town Hall last week just in time to hear Smiley Roberts.

"The curfew is old-fashioned," says Smiley. "We ought to be grown-up enough by now to behave like grownups. Seeing to it that our kids get to bed is the responsibility of each family." Then Judge Cunningham adds, "Most of us are in bed when the curfew horn blows anyway. It wakes me up just when I'm getting to sleep!"

What the Judge said was good for a laugh, but Smiley just about summed up how folks think in this town. We believe that the democratic tradition of "live and let live" is the only way to live.

From where I sit, it's not the American way to regulate your life by a horn—any more than it's right to criticize my caring for a temperate glass of beer now and then. Think what you wish, say what you wish, but don't ask your neighbor to do exactly as you do!

Hadacol Helps Grocer Work Hard, Long Hours

There is plenty of hard work and long hours in the retail grocery business and this is especially true for Paul Earnhardt, 816 South Church St., in Salisbury, N. C. Mr. Earnhardt works long hours at the Earnhardt Super Market in Salisbury, one of the largest and most modern grocery stores in that thriving section of North Carolina.

The grind began to tell on Mr. Earnhardt about three months ago and he wondered for a time whether he would be able to carry on at the same rigid pace. But that was before he heard the blessed news about HADACOL.

"I have been taking HADACOL for three months," said Mr. Earnhardt. "I was weak, run down, nervous, had difficulty sleeping at night, nervous indigestion, gastric disturbances, headaches, suffered with stomach and gas pains around my heart. After the third bottle, I started gaining weight, had no gastric disturbances, headaches or gas pains. I never felt better and work long hours. I recommend HADACOL."

Mr. Earnhardt, like so many thousands of other suffering people, had tried many preparations without beneficial results before he heard the wonderful news about HADACOL.

Mr. Earnhardt puts in long, hard hours at the Earnhardt Grocery store now but is again his usual cheerful self and when his friends comment on his improvement he advises them to give HADACOL a trial.

Mr. Earnhardt was suffering from a lack of B Vitamins and the Minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

A lack of only a small amount of the B Vitamins and certain Minerals will cause digestive disturbances. Your food will not agree with you. You will suffer from heartburns, gas pains, and your food will sour on your stomach, and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of the lack of the B Vitamins and Minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the Vitamins and the Minerals which your system lacks.

HADACOL contains not only one, but 5 of the B Vitamins. HADACOL contains not only one, but 4 of the necessary Minerals. It comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL. So it matters not how old you are or who you are... it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you. Give HADACOL a trial. Accept no substitute.

Insist on the genuine HADACOL. Sold at all the leading drug stores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money—buy the large family and hospital size—only $3.50. We are so firm in our belief that HADACOL will help you that we sell HADACOL on a money-back guarantee. If you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.

BE THRIFTY BUY A '49 INSTEAD OF A '50

Cars take their biggest depreciation the first year... and the wise buyer saves this difference. The '49s run and look like new, in fact, you can hardly tell them from the new models... yet you'll save $400... $500 and as much as $700 and $800 on the car you buy. Just look at the prices listed then come out and see the cars. You'll see right away that it's thrifty to buy a '49 instead of a '50.

DRIVE IT BEFORE YOU BUY IT!

No obligation to buy! We supply the gas! You drive the car for 24 hours or more if necessary. Prove to yourself that these cars are in perfect running condition and well worth the price. If the car does not meet with your approval in any way don't buy it. We want you to be satisfied. All cars are sold with a 30-day guarantee! Look at the low prices... prices that can't be beat.

Garden Talks

By H. V. Anderson

One of the most beautiful flowers displayed at the National Flower Show in Washington last week was the rose. Many thousand visitors, commenting on these lovely flowers, went away resolving to try rose gardening this year.

But it's odd, when raising roses is really so easy, that people often will say, "Oh, how lovely! I wish I could grow roses like this." They don't try because they think it takes the Old Dirt Dauber, himself, to raise them. The fact is, everyone who has a few square feet of lawn or garden, sunlit at least half the day, can become a successful rose gardener. They require little care after once being properly planted.

Another thing about roses — they're reasonable in cost. Cut roses may sell for as much as $24 a dozen at fancy florists, but here at Prince William Gardens we have many varieties and colors in two-year rose bushes being offered as a special through Easter Sunday at 89c each.

There are two chief things the rose-gardener should know: Proper methods of planting and of fertilization.

Proper planting demands a hole about 18 inches wide and 24 inches deep. If your soil has poor drainage several inches of gravel in the bottom will help, since roses will not thrive if roots are too wet. Some well-rotted manure may be placed in the hole, though care must be taken to cover it with topsoil, as roots are easily burned. With the hole filled by gravel, manure, and soil to a depth of about 12 inches, the rose may be placed in, care being taken to spread the root. Then fill up with topsoil, tamping lightly. Water plentifully at time of planting, but not afterwards unless in drought.

Fertilization of roses must be done with extreme care. If the soil is reasonably good no fertilizer is needed the first year, and only small amounts later. The best fertilizer for roses is probably bone-meal. It is nutritious and will not scorch roots. A double handful should be worked into the soil around the plant in the Fall, or early Spring as new growth begins. Commercial fertilizers if used at all must be used sparingly. They damage the plant if placed in direct contact. A small amount can be safely worked into the soil so that it drains down to the roots and never touches them while in full strength. Animal manures, too, are dangerous if much is used. Of these, cow manure is least likely to burn. When well-rotted they can be used as a mulch in Fall.

A few tips like these, if followed, will enable anyone to raise beautiful roses. They are a delight in your garden and lovely for cut flowers. There is perhaps no other flower which enriches the gardener so bountifully for so little actual work.

To The Homemaker

Lots of young homemakers (and many veterans of the kitchen, too) are finding oven meals the answer to their problems of saving time, time, energy and money.

If you've never cooked a complete meal in the oven now is the time to begin. All you need is an oven with accurate temperature control and some pans (or heat-proof glass) with tight lids.

Here is a menu you'll find easy to prepare and delicious to eat.

BUDGET MEAT LOAF
GREEN PEAS BAKED POTATOES
SCALLOPED TOMATOES

Set oven at 350 degrees

MEAT LOAF—Mix together and pack into loaf pan: One pound ground meat, 1-4 cups uncooked oats, 2 teaspoons salt, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 2 tablespoons grated onion, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, 1 beaten egg, 1-2 cups milk and 1-3 cup catsup. Place on top oven rack.

GREEN PEAS—Place package of unfrozen frozen peas in casserole or pan with lid. Add 1-2 cups water, 1 teaspoon salt. Place on bottom rack.

SCALLOPED TOMATOES—One can tomatoes, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, 1-4 cup minced onion, 4 tablespoons melted butter, 3-4 cups soft bread crumbs, 1-2 teaspoons sugar. Combine all ingredients except tomatoes. Arrange alternate layers of tomatoes and crum mixture in greased casserole. Do not cover. Place on bottom rack.

BAKED POTATOES—Scrub and grease medium size baking potatoes. Arrange on bottom rack between peas and tomatoes.

Old School Records
Show Low Teacher Pay
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sisson were going through a closet in their

Dumfries home the other day. It may have been spring-cleaning time or it may have been something else, but whatever the occasion, they found a little piece of the past in the recesses of the cupboard.

Mr. Sisson, who has read your Manassas Journal for many years, brought in two old records he and his wife found in the closet. They had to do with school financing back in the early days of this century, and make interesting reading when contrasted with the $568,000 budget tentatively set for the county schools this year.

Here is one of the two documents Mr. Sisson brought in:

Haymarket, May 9, 1910.
"Apportionment No. 2 of County School Funds, to be used exclusively for the payment of teachers' salaries, is $2,100.00; and is divided among the several districts, according to the school population of each, as follows:

"Brentsville District, school population 489, $251.81; Coles District, school population 335, $189.57; Dumfries District, school population 453, $236.35; Gainesville District, school population 865, $489.49; Manassas District, school population 1252, $708.48; Occoquan District, school population 308, $174.30.

"The above apportionment is made upon the basis of .5688 per capita."

The document was signed by George G. Tyler, then superintendent of schools.

Another paper, dated December 1908 and signed by H. M. Clarkson, allotted state school funds in the amount of $2,597.70, as follows: Brentsville, $348.50; Coles, $234.40; Dumfries, $317.00; Gainesville, $605.20; Manassas, $877.00; and Occoquan, $215.50.

Of course, things were a little different then. W. Y. Ellicott, veteran teacher who is now attendance officer for the county, recalls that 1910 was about the time when teachers' pay was raised from $25 monthly for a five-months term to $40 monthly for six months. Ellicott remembers his first job, at Quantico, when after considerable shopping around he managed to find board—"good board, too"—for $10 a month.

Those were the days when money talked. And, incidentally, along with the records (which they gave The Journal) to use the Sissons found a 1910-model $5 bill. It spends as readily as a 1950 model, Sisson says.

Powerhouse Is Big Word; Big Plant, Too

If you stop to consider the strength of that word it has a mighty sound. Yes, there is might at the Prince William Electric Cooperative's generating plant.

Electric energy is produced by three 1140 h.p. Superior Diesel engines, two 300 h.p. and two 500 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse Diesel engines. Every day 2404 gallons of fuel oil is burned to drive these machines, at a cost of $227.18; and 36 gallons of lubricating oil, amounting to $16.20 daily, is used to reduce friction and wear on engines.

Away back in September 1941, when the new Cooperative purchased a unit from the old Bull Run Power Company, James D. Barron came from Mount Hope, W. Va. to superintend the generating plant, then under construction.

The engineer in charge of erection of Prince William Electric Cooperative's powerhouse had sent for Barron by special delivery letter. With Mrs. Barron, he set out directly from Price Hill Colliery company, where he had been wrestling with the problems of stationary engines for years.

The crew of the powerhouse are all alert skilled men. Elwood Woodyard is chief operator, while Alvis Lee Wood, George Grissom, A. T. Hevener, Charles Landes, and Glen Susher are operators.

New Fire Alarm System Is Okayed

A new fire alarm system for Manassas was announced Monday night by E. E. Rohr, President of the Manassas Volunteer Fire Company, in an appeal to the Town Council, for assistance.

At a cost of about $200, the fire company has bought new relays for the alarm system which will make it easier for persons responsible for sounding fire alarms to carry out their duties. The equipment includes push-buttons by which telephone operators can turn on the fire siren without leaving the switchboard, and by which the noon whistle can be blown. Another relay will allow firemen in the downstairs section of the town hall to blow calls for more assistance.

The council agreed to defray cost of installation of the relays, a job estimated at a maximum of $150.

Town Likely To Get Into Airport Plan

A strong hint that Manassas will be included in the "National Airport Plan" for 1950-51 was given the Town Council Tuesday night at a special meeting in Town Manager Ritter's office.

Marlboro K. Downs, District Airport Engineer for the Civil Aeronautics Administration's District of Virginia, with headquarters at Richmond, told Councilmen Doggett, Rice and Saunders, and Town Manager Ritter that "I have every reason to believe there is hope" that when the plan is announced shortly, Manassas' name will be in it. Downs hastened to add that the plan is at present confidential.

Inclusion in the plan would give the town the right to seek substantial grants-in-aid for the improvement of its present airport. The course of discussion indicated that it would take, from $25,000 to $30,000, to develop minimum accommodations for light-plane travel.

The federal government, Downs said, will match funds fifty-fifty with "states, counties or other tax-supported organizations" provided the airport is eligible for development under the national plan. Col. Allen Perkinson, Virginia State Director of Aeronautics, who was also present, indicated the state could be depended upon to grant a sum equal to that raised by the town. The effect of the state and federal grants would be to reduce the local participation to 25 percent of the airport's cost, or from $6,250 to $7,500.

Asked if the value of the land could be considered as a part of the town's contribution toward airport development, Downs said that could be done only if the land had been acquired subsequent to May 1946.

Welfare State Trend Is Blasted as Path Toward Communism

"We must turn the strong tide of Socialism now sweeping the world and preserve the system of free enterprise handed down to us by our forefathers," Marchant Workman told the Clearinghouse Association at Stonewall Jackson Hotel Tuesday night.

Workman, secretary of the Virginia Bankers Association, addressed the bankers of Prince William, Fauquier, and Loudoun counties on the topic "Opportunities and Responsibilities of Chartered Banking."

Recent years have seen the emergence in America of a political ideology, Workman said, which is infringing upon property rights under the guise of guarding human rights. This ideology of "planned economies" and "welfare states," Workman continued, ignores the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as guaranteed by the Constitution. The pursuit of happiness is dependent on property ownership, he added.

The philosophy of the "welfare state" is so similar to strategy for "creeping revolution," adhered to by Communists, that "I for one suspect the present of a guiding hand."

Workman listed eight objectives outlined in the Communist Manifesto and said that present trends in America are toward all these. They were: 1. Abolition of property and land. 2. Abolition of right to inherit property. 3. A graduated scale of income taxes. 4. Centralization of credit in the Federal Government. 5. Centralization of transportation and communication industries. 6. Extension of State ownership of factories and industries. 7. Free education for all children in public schools. 8. Equalization of rights and duties to work.

Milk Is Reduced One Cent a Quart

A drop of a cent a quart in the retail price of milk has been announced here.

In a notice to the public being prepared this week, a local dairy revealed that the price of pasteurized milk will be lowered from 21½ cents to 20½ cents a quart, and that homogenized milk will sell hereafter at 21½ instead of 22½ cents.

The reduction, the dairy said, resulted from notification by the Maryland and Virginia Milk Producers that effective April 1 there will be a reduction in the price paid to dairy farmers.

Purcellville's non-appearance at the finals Saturday marked the first forfeit in the tournament's history.

After the finals, all-tournament teams were announced. The first team was made up of Birch, Leesburg, and Satchick, Nokesville, forwards; Zavada, Nokesville, center; G. McGaha and B. The Quantico Lions ball team held their first workout of the season on Sunday. There were about fifteen players on hand for the opening practice. There were many new faces on hand but coach Howard Mountjoy would not reveal any of the new names; he is not going to tip his hand till the opening game which is tentatively set for May 30 with the opponent yet to be announced. Coach Mountjoy told this reporter that the other five clubs had picked their spots as first place but that his team had layed claim to its some seven months ago.

At Occoquan District High School the Intramural tournament goes into its final week with boys and girls teams participating. The baseball team is going through practice daily and shaping up very nicely. Opening game is tentatively set for April 16 with the probable opponent James Monroe of Fredericksburg.

The Quantico Indians held their second practice of the season at Brown field on the Marine base on Sunday. The accent this year is on the youth of the community, with the majority of the players still in their teens. More on this next week.

About the Prince William Electric Cooperative

WHAT WE ARE . . .

A native industry in Virginia, the Prince William Electric Cooperative is a power generating and distribution business, supplying electricity to members of the organization. Every member shares the responsibility for direction of this enterprise by voting for member-officials at the annual meeting, held in November of each year. Our affiliation with the National REA is on a loan basis, for money borrowed to establish the cooperative, and which will be repaid. No more strings are attached to the Government than any private lending agency would require.

Complete rural electrification is our purpose and goal. We are proud of the part we have accomplished in getting electricity which was desperately needed in our area. This great dairyland of Virginia needs the electric power which we are carrying to the farmsteads, on the high roads, but we have not neglected the low roads. These are the pioneer extensions of service lines, making a brighter way in the country.

The broad reaches of power by this member-controlled business have made our community a more pleasant, prosperous place. We are producers of energy, primarily for rural users, for whom the benefits of electricity were long denied. The web of electrical lines was homespun by PWEC members.

WHERE WE STARTED . . .

The old Bull Run Power Company had secured a loan from Rural Electrification Administration for $86,000 on March 15, 1937, under the Act of Congress of the previous year. It was one of the first loans made by REA for the integration of private power generation facilities.

In the spring of 1941, by purchase agreement by the enlisted membership of Prince William Electric Cooperative, the Bull Run Power Company's facilities were purchased and the loan assumed for the new mutual enterprise.

All plans were made by the elected Board of Directors, local farmers and businessmen who had clean visions of the growth and development of this important agricultural area.

Construction of a modern Diesel operated plant was approved. Building was started at once by Rockingham Construction Company, Harrisonburg, at a cost of $157,861.47.

H. B. Lee, REA Field Engineer, supervised building the modern powerhouse, situated off Route 28, close to the Southern Railway for ease in handling machinery and fuels. Several motors from the obsolete plant of Bull Run were used for a while, but were later replaced by more dependable equipment. Energized lines were extended into the country in every direction; existing lines were rephased for increased voltage. Starting from 440 kilowatts as the peak of generating capacity at the Manassas plant, power production was steadily and purposefully increased to meet the constant demands within the area served by Prince William Electric Cooperative.

HOW WE HAVE GROWN . . .

The original members of this Cooperative numbered 553, all rural patrons in need of electricity. Since that memorable year, 1941, the membership has grown to 2700. The towns of Manassas, Clifton and Vint Hill Farms are counted each as a single member, so that the total number of members and patrons is far beyond the figure of 2700.

From 440 kilowatts, the power plant's capacity has grown to four thousand two hundred and forty kilowatts. Energy is generated by seven modern Diesel engines, with a consumption of 2404 gallons of fuel oil each day. The plant is operated by the most practicable economical means, but no method of adequate service is sacrificed.

Employment of maintenance personnel has kept pace with the locally-owned power industry. In the dangerous business of supply energy, the highly skilled workmen of Prince William Electric Cooperative are organized into a Safety Council. Regular meetings are held, where every new and recognized safety device is discussed along with demonstrated first aid measure for the injured. Consequently, few accidents happen among these competent workmen.

A linemen and metermen's course was sponsored by the Cooperative at the Manassas Technical School a year ago, under the direction of O. L. Heath, REA job training and safety adviser. Another course will be offered within the next few months.

HOW WE OPERATE . . .

The Board of Directors, elected at each annual meeting inaugurates the policies of this Cooperative. The Board meets at headquarters on the second Tuesday of each month.

The manager is selected by the Directors, to whom he is directly and solely responsible for complete supervision of the Cooperative's property, employment, supervision of personnel, and the whole operating structure.

The assistant to the manager in charge of the plant has supervision of buildings and all operators at the powerhouse, line and maintenance crews.

The office manager is responsible for business personnel in the bookkeeping department. Under him are five comptometer operators, and clerks, and secretaries.

The electrical engineer has charge of construction and line maintenance, furnishing expert advice and plans for extensions in service.

The electrical adviser supervises the model kitchen at the new headquarters, gives demonstrations of dealer's appliances on display at the Cooperative or in individual homes, and produces published articles on power usages in rural areas and works with any member interested in new electrical equipment.

However, each employee is trained by the management to handle a separate job, so that no undertaking is halted by illness or vacancy. All employees belong to the membership.

WHERE WE SERVE . . .

We are rural electrification in practical operation. Operated as a locally-owned, locally-controlled business, our objective is to get electricity to every farmer in our area who wants it.

WE DO NOT USE TAXPAYERS MONEY TO GIVE FARMERS ELECTRICITY. We'd like to point out that Prince William Cooperative electricity is not costing a cent of the taxpayer's money. The loans which the Rural Electrification Administration makes to rural electric systems like ours have to be repaid—with interest.

Five years from the date we receive a loan, we have to begin repaying it. At the end of thirty-five years, we will have repaid about $1.35 for every $1.00 we borrowed from the Government. Together with other rural electric systems, we have already repaid more money—in principal and interest—than was loaned during the entire five years before June 30, 1940.

We are indeed owned by those we serve.

WHOM WE SERVE . . .

Our energized lines, radiating from the powerhouse at Manassas, serve five Virginia counties.

Manassas, through the Town Council, purchases power from Prince William Electric Cooperative. Along Route 28, our lines supply Yorkshire, reaching out to the edge of Centreville.

Clifton and all surrounding territory and the rural districts at Fairfax Station have Co-Op electricity.

Our power is furnished to Buckhall community, Canova, Independence Hill, Minnieville, two Marine camps and the National Park Service in the vicinity of Dumfries. The outlying rural sections near Bristow, Nokesville, Bethel, Hoadly, Brentsville, Dumfries and Triangle are served, as well as the Hartwood area of Stafford County.

The lines carry power along Route 211. Vint Hill, Greenwich, Sowego, Beverly Mills, Belvoir, Catharpin and the region along Bull Run Mountains have PWEC power, which also is carried to surrounding country near Haymarket, Marshall, Gainesville, The Plains, Bristersburg and Elk Run.

Part of the load of electricity for use of Northern Piedmont Electric Cooperative at Culpeper is supplied by Prince William Electric Cooperative.

"Owned By Those We Serve"

OUR COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY . . .

The Prince William Cooperative is an independent, practical enterprise, conducted by its local membership through the elected Board of Directors.

We want to keep it independent of outside control and we want to give you the best service possible. Although we now have an excellent, adequate power plant, someday this area may need the opportunity to purchase low-cost power in extra quantity. For that reason, your cooperative belongs to state and national organizations of rural electric systems that help defend you and your cooperative against efforts of private utility companies to weaken REA's authority.

It is our responsibility to furnish electricity by adequate and increasing voltage to every community and farmstead in this chosen area.

It is our responsibility to employ local personnel, belonging to the membership, under working conditions that are sound and safe, at the highest local wage level.

It is our responsibility to give advice to members and friends on power usage, equipment and appliances, and extension of lines.

It is our responsibility to stimulate the market for locally-sold electrical equipment throughout the area, for the mutual benefit of dealers and our own organization.

It is our responsibility to conduct a reliable, fair organization, for the satisfaction of each individual member of Prince William Electric Cooperative.

HOW WE CAN SERVE YOU . . .

Our objective is to supply electricity where you want it, when you want it, and the capacity you want. The first step toward this accomplishment is membership in the Prince William Electric Cooperative.

When you send in your meter card promptly after the 20th of each month, you are serving yourself through the Cooperative's facilities for handling an enormous business load.

When you pay your electric bill promptly, you are again serving yourself through the Cooperative, because the funds enable our organization to pay accounts at a discount, and you support the general financial structure.

We serve you directly by furnishing advice on changes and extensions, water systems, sewage disposal, means to safety, appliances and equipment for home and farm.

We serve you by efficient, inexpensive operation of the powerhouse and headquarters: by judicious purchases of line crews' materials; by attention to every detail in this complicated organization.

Every minute of every day and night, Prince William Electric Cooperative is at work. Touch the switch, and we are with you! We serve you, and you are welcome to that service.

OUR PLEDGE . . .

The Directors and Management of Prince William Electric Cooperative are working continually on sound business principles and procedures to supply rural electrification for this important agricultural area. Primarily, the PWEC was founded for members, but we deal as squarely with patrons of the public enterprise.

We intend to operate the power plant, headquarters, and distribution lines on the most economical plan, without sacrificing any means for improved, modern service for the electrical user. Nothing shall be left undone which ought to be done in keeping the system in certain operation and maintenance, regardless of weather conditions.

Outside of supplying energy, we shall cooperate with local equipment dealers for the best interests of all the people, showing neither favoritism nor prejudice toward any trade-marked appliances on sale within this area. Our advice on the uses of electrical goods will be extended over the district.

Electric lines are life lines! From the source of labor-saving energy at the powerhouse, through every stage on the way to delivery of electricity at homes and farms, we realize that our power promotes the welfare of rural people by a brighter way of life.

We pledge ourselves in service, as bearers of God's great gift of light and might.

LET'S FIX THE BLAME WHERE IT BELONGS

A loud, crowing noise seemed to issue last week from the news columns of the so-called "liberal" Washington Post. A House Committee has approved a $2,475,000 fund for the construction of 150 sets of quarters at the Marine Base adjoining Quantico. This fund, the Post implied, spelled the beginning of the end for rent-gougers in the lower county. And who can be thanked for this happy circumstance? You? good, liberal, and faithful friend, the Washington Post, of course.

Though it's hardly worth the ride if your purpose is to check the accuracy of a report in the Post, we went down to Quantico last week to investigate. And here is what we found:

The construction of 150 sets of quarters on the Marine Base will have little or no effect in the relief of substandard living conditions for troops in that area.

The new quarters won't be a drop in the bucket compared to requirements.

The Post did not ferret out the bad housing conditions at Quantico, but was handed a cooked-up story on a platter by the public relations officer of the base, whose fine Spencerian hand was guided by the Marine Corps general in command of Quantico base.

There has been a lot of talk about the town of Quantico and surrounding communities. The voice of the lower county is small, while that of the armed services is large; the Pentagon shouts vilification at the civilians of the Quantico area, while the civilians can do little more than whisper their replies.

Let's examine the facts and place the blame where it belongs.

Quantico Town embraces about 65 acres of land, on which nearly 1,500 people live. The town is crowded—an average of 23 people inhabit each acre—and cannot expand. Conditions at best are not good.

According to the public relations people at Quantico it would take more than 500 new sets of quarters ON THE BASE to furnish living space to every person entitled by law to receive it.

The occupants of the worst examples of lower county housing are low-ranking Marines who are not entitled by law to receive quarters, and who get no monetary assistance from the government in the form of rent.

What happens when the 150 new sets are built on the base? The billeting officer will parcel them out, according to his inscrutable whim, to the colonels and majors and captains and sergeants. The corporals and privates will remain out in the cold. No new housing for them; no money allowance in lieu of quarters. The law forbids it.

It is the Marine base's practice to "commute" the rations—which means giving money instead of food—to married Marines of the lower grades. This gives the Marine a total of perhaps $130 a month with which to support his family. What can he rent for $130 a month and have enough left over to feed himself, his wife and—like as not—his two or three children? A shack, of course. He lives in a shack and eats beans and fat back.

And the Marines scream that their troops are not being treated right by the civilian population.

Yet with the same voice, the Marines say, "If he's a private he shouldn't be married; he shouldn't have a family. It's not our responsibility to support his wife and kids."

The heck it isn't. Whose responsibility is it?

The government—and especially the military establishment from Louis Johnson down to the public relations officer of Quantico base—is the biggest bunch of buck-passers in the world. More and more it becomes clear that everybody's out of step but Louis. He is building a big military establishment. Why doesn't he build homes to quarter his military families in, instead of demanding that the civilian population do his job for him? If 500 sets of quarters costing maybe ten million dollars are needed, why not build them? And why not acknowledge that the underprivileged families of privates and corporals ARE his responsibility, and face that responsibility to the extent of (1) getting the government quarters law amended to include them or (2) granting these lower-rank married men discharges for dependency or hardship?

Don't run to the Washington Post with your story, Mr. Johnson. When the buck starts passing furiously, it all too often comes back to the man who started passing it.

Pastor's Study

By the Rev. John D. Edens

Anne Morrow Lindbergh tells about Edward Sheldon, in whose life arthritis and blindness worked together for good. Young Sheldon was a successful playwright when he was attacked by a cruelly painful and progressive form of arthritis. And in his late 30's he became blind. But instead of rebelling against life, he threw his arms around the tragedy, as Saint Francis embraced the leper. He had inner peace and a radiant smile which captivated and amazed all who visited him. They came with pity for him, but before they left they were pitying themselves, for Sheldon had such a wholesome and cheerful attitude towards life.

The Bible says that "to them that love God all things work together for good." Things in themselves—the good, the ugly, the mean, the unfortunate, the tragedies, the physical infirmities—will not work out for good. Instead they often wreck and ruin human lives; they crush and break the heart and leave one bitter and rebellious; they lead to disillusionment, despair, and suicide. But to a person who is devotedly surrendered to Christ, God will use the bad things to purify, elevate, refine, bless, and use the personality. It is God who make these experiences count for good. Greasy shortening by itself does no good and will make a person sick. Neither does a spoonful of salt taste good. And who would prefer to eat sticky dough? But a skillful cook can blend all the ingredients together and bake them in an oven and have crisp brown biscuits. Just as it is the cook can make the greasy fat, the bitter salt, and the sticky dough work together for good, so it is our skillful Heavenly Father who can make the bitter and hard experiences of life work out for good.

Many inexplicable experiences come into our lives. After years of hard work all our life's savings go up in a burning house. Just when the family is complete the mother is taken by some malignant disease. When our son is our pride and joy he is killed in war. With a family to support and debts to pay the father is stricken with paralysis. Oh, God! How can it be fair! Why do these things have to happen to us? Why does God treat us so? Surely God is unfair!

But it is faith that trusts when it cannot understand. "Though he slay me, yet will I trust him," is the attitude of the true Christian. God's plans, like lilies, pure and white unfold;

We must not tear the close-shut

leaves apart—
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold. And if, through patient toil, we reach the land,
Where tired feet, with sandals loosened, may rest,
Where we shall clearly know and understand,
I think we shall say, "God knew best."

It is the good of God's kingdom that both God and Christians desire. And God will make all the experiences of the Christian work out for the good of God's eternal purpose, which is to bring redeemed man into the moral and spiritual image of Christ.

William Carey, the father of the modern missionary movement, a divine call to go to India. He that the work would require going without his family. After a heartache his wife finally came for him to go. So Carey journeyed to the port, but to his dismay, he had to wait six weeks for the sailing date. And, to his utter dismay, he was taken off ship before it sailed. But God working out something better for him. Later Carey got another ship and this time was able to sail. True that when we see a more comprehensive view of dealings with us we shall see God's will what God said at creation: It is good.

Shoppers and Buyers Guide

By Lee Roy Peters

This week as in the past we will give you a few of our own suggestions and hope that you may be able to do your shopping with a little more ease and pleasure.

To start off this week we suggest a visit to the Quantico Pharmacy. With Easter approaching it is important to start thinking about those nice goodies that the Easter Bunny brings. At this store they will make up the basket of your choice with no extra charge. They have a good selection but "Tony and Julius" do not expect it to last long. Their supply didn't last year.

The Nation-wide grocery is featuring this week a special on "Chick" roast and those famous Eskay brand hot dogs. This meat is really something to see, and they are always glad to cut the meat to meet with your requirements. In the ham line (which is traditional around Easter) they have such brands as Swift premium, and Cudahy. An additional service of the Nation-Wide is free delivery. You can call in your order and never leave the house.

One of the places to buy that famous make television set is the Firestone Home and Auto Supply. They are also well qualified to service and install the set of your choice with only a small down payment and monthly finance charges to your liking. They are the sole distributors for the famous make "Hot Point" appliances in this area. I am sure that Mr. W. C. Merchant can be of service to you whether you are looking for home appliances or something for that car of yours.

Another of our drug store patrons is the Stevens Drug Store. Louis Ferlazzo, the owner informs me that he has the largest and best selection of Easter supplies of any store in Prince William County and by observation I agree. Here you also may find the Easter card of your choice, start at 5c to $1.50, whether it be for a friend, mother, father, sweetheart or other relative. The store is the only place in the area where you can buy those Panagrama eggs. These are imported from Czechoslovakia.

To our readers we would like to bring to your attention the first-class quality workmanship of the Paris Auto Service in Quantico. Any repair on your car, whether it be collision or motor repair, may be done in their shop. If it is a new or used car that you are looking for you can deal with Nick Katsarelis with confidence in your purchase. The atmosphere of friendliness is always prevailing at Paris Auto.

The sanitation service of the Gnad Sanitation company is truly a blessing to this community. It is the desire of the owner Gnad to give not only the best of service but also consideration to your property when these pick-ups are made. If you are not pleased with your present service why not give Gnad Sanitation a chance to prove its worth.

The Dixie Grill in Quantico is the place of good food and truly real Southern Bar-B-Que. You will find, as I have, that their food is hard to beat, not to mention their prices. When you have one of their luncheon specials you will wonder just how they can afford to serve such a meal at the price of only 50c.

For your entertainment pleasure we offer that of the Lyric Theater in Ocoquan operated by Harold Welcher. At this theater you will find only the top grade entertainment, one thing that strikes me as being so interesting is that they do not open on Sunday. It is their policy to keep closed on Sunday so there will be no interference with the churches. This truly is an evidence of interest in the community and in their interest of you and your family.

Well readers this is all for this week but be sure an dtake note. There is something big coming your way. Perhaps we can tell you about it next week.
