Letters Voice Opposition To Telephone Toll Rate Plan for Triangle Calls

Whether hearings on the proposed establishment of toll rate for telephone service between Triangle and Manassas will be held by the State Corporation Commission in Richmond or in the two towns affected will depend entirely upon how much pressure the telephone users of Manassas and Triangle are able to exert upon the commission. The commission, according to Commissioner H. Lester Hooker, as disclosed in discussion with the Journal, is not inclined to come to either Manassas or Triangle for public hearings. "It is necessary for two commissioners to hold such hearings," Mr. Hooker stated, "and we do not have the time to leave Richmond."

If the commission holds to this decision then any objections to establishing toll rates or hearing protests about the telephone service will have to be voiced by protesters who are willing to go to Richmond to state their complaints.

Letters received by The Journal from Joseph H. Wall, of Quantico, C. C. Cloe, Jr., of Triangle, and Mrs. Edgar A. Boock of Bristow are indicative of the sentiments of telephone users regarding both the service and the proposed toll rates.

Numerous individuals who are in business have also made comment regarding the editorial in last week's Journal requesting that the commission hold public hearings in Triangle and Manassas. One of the outstanding points feared most by businessmen about instituting a toll charge between Triangle and Manassas is the tendency to drive business in the lower end of the county away from Manassas, the county seat, to Alexandria and Fredericksburg.

One of the main points which objectors to establishing toll rates to Triangle want established is the original cost of the construction of the line to the Central Mutual Telephone Company. It is understood the line was built for military use of the Marines and part of it by the forest service for the fire tower located below Independence Hill.

The federal government is believed to have paid the company handsomely for the use of the line and that the return which the company is now making on the original investment is so great that establishment of a toll rate to Triangle is not justified. Indicative of the enormous profits of the Central Mutual Telephone Company is the fact that stockholders hold the stock of the company at high prices and reportedly none of it is available for sale.

Letters which The Journal has received on the subject of the telephone toll rates and the service generally follow:

We wish to register our objections to the proposed toll charges asked by the Central Mutual Telephone Co., Inc., on calls between the Manassas and Triangle, Dumfries area.

Prince William is a long narrow county and until a few years ago the lack of a good road between Manassas, the county seat, and Triangle greatly restricted business operations between the two towns. Now, with good roads and no toll charges on telephone calls, a substantial business relationship has developed between the two areas, and is continuing to grow, especially the business which formerly went to Alexandria and Fredericksburg.

The Triangle area is continuing to grow and there will be more and more need for communication between it and the county seat. Instituting toll charges on a presently free line would certainly impede such communications and impose hardship on the people in the Triangle area.

We, of course, cannot speak with any authority regarding the financial position of the Central Mutual Telephone Co., Inc., or the return being realized on its invested funds. However, its stock appears to be considered very desirable and we know of none that is for sale. To us, it seems greatly out of line that a corporation appearing to be in as good financial condition as the Central Mutual should require a toll in order to convert a presently free line of about 18 miles in length from steel to copper.

Before any decision is made in this case, we earnestly request that

Very truly yours,

September 4, 1950

Editor, Manassas Journal:
Let me compliment you on your splendid front page editorial concerning the Central Mutual Telephone Co., Inc. which is asking for a rate increase. It is about time that something should be done about the deplorable, antiquated, inefficient system that the subscribers in the Manassas area have endured for many years.

For the past many months there has been much concern about encouraging government and private businesses to consider Manassas as a favorable location. In these modern times one of the first essentials to any successful business is an efficient telephone system and it is an insult to human intelligence to ask any new business to consider Manassas as a business opportunity with the existing telephone system. The reason Manassas is not expanding like other towns within commuting radius of Washington is that there are certain groups within that are static and resist a change. A good house-cleaning is in order and one of the thickest and dirtiest cobwebs to be cleaned first is the telephone system.

It is inconceivable that subscribers in any area have any greater irritations than those in the Nokesville area. The patience of the saints would be exhausted at the trifling, haphazard way that calls are executed. The time that it takes to get the operator and then to get the call through would allow anyone to get to Manassas and back again with time to spare.

Many times it has taken a good half day to get the operator and at these times to deal just "harshly" with the situation is a very mild reaction. Three times within the past three and one-half years it was impossible to arouse the operator all day and the next morning when she was asked what the trouble could be the reply was that the line was all clear and she knew of none, nevertheless with apparent efficiency within ten or fifteen minutes an inexperienced call came dashing to the scene, turned a screw and the very next day it only took a few hours to get the operator. The next time the lad came I told him that he could turn a screw in the weather but that no such antics could possibly make the line clear one day and not clear the very next day.

I know I voice the sentiments of all the subscribers in the Nokesville area and the only reason no one has done anything about it before this is that farmers are busy people and cannot take the time to start petitions or other efforts to initiate a reform. Just let me say this to the directors of the phone company that the day when anything was just "good enough for those dumb farmers" is long past and you had better sit up and take notice because the farmers have a right to as much efficiency as the town folks. Do you think for a moment the wealthy and influential notables of Warrenton would put up with a system such as ours? Just because they have more money and influence is no reason why we poor folks should have any less. Nobody would oppose a rate increase if we would really get some service but we are not even getting the service that the present rate calls for.

Just look at the telephone posts that lean on the farmers fences at certain places along the country roads. Now, directors of the telephone company please get busy and really do something and break up your clique.

Thank you for having the courage to start a much needed reform and for expressing the voice of the people through your paper. I hope this time everybody will pitch in and give the support necessary to put this thing over. We don't

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Wall:
Replying to your letter of August 28th, in regard to the application of The Central Mutual Telephone Company, of Manassas, pending before the Commission to be permitted to establish standard toll rates, will say that such application is on file with the Commission for these rates to become effective as of October 1st.

I am assuming you desire a formal hearing in this matter and unless I am correct, please notify me promptly; otherwise the order will be entered setting this matter for formal hearing, at which time you and others who may desire to do so may appear and give the Commission your views about this matter.

Yours very truly,
H. Lester Hooker,

Commissioner

Honorable H. Lester Hooker
Commissioner, State Corporation Commission
Richmond, Virginia

Dear Sir:
In reply to your letter of August 28th, in regard to my desire to have formal hearing of the application of the Central Mutual Telephone Company of Manassas to the establishment of certain toll rates, I do not wish to go to the personal expense nor want to burden the Telephone Company with the responsibility of having to be represented at a hearing. The fundamental point of my letter protesting the establishment of additional toll rates is a general protest of the deficient service of the Company at the Triangle, Virginia, Exchange.

Is there a course that a subscriber can take when the service of a Telephone Company is far below par? I have written the Company letters and have talked to the President and General Manager, and have received neither a reply nor any action.

I do not desire as a lone individual to request a formal hearing, however if any additional letters are received by you requesting a hearing, I shall appear and give

School Board Starts Bond Issue Plan On Its Way

The Prince William County School Board yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the Board of Supervisors to join them in supporting the proposed $2,400,000 bond issue for the County schools building program. The Supervisors, meeting today, will consider the school board's recommendation.

If the Supervisors approve the resolution it will then be passed to Circuit Court Judge Paul Brown for approval, and he will set the date for a referendum which Superintendent of Schools R. Worth Peters said he hopes can be held before the November general elections.

As described in the School Board resolution the proposed bond issue would be for $2,400,000, payable not later than thirty years from date contracted and not exceeding six per cent annual interest.

One member of the Board of Supervisors told the Journal yesterday that he would certainly favor the resolution if the interest rate is not too high. He expressed a belief that a rate of two and one-half per cent was as high as the County could afford to pay.

The bond issue would replace funds which might have been granted through the State Literacy Loan had that agency not been swamped with applications far exceeding funds available.

The amount of the approved literacy loan application was several hundred thousand dollars less than the bond issue but did not include revised estimates of construction costs and the proposed Macrae-Antioch school.

Following is an outline of the County schools' building program as revised last month. Total proposed expenditures are $2,400,000 and the total estimated enrollment in schools is 4,065. Bennett, estimated enrollment, 900; alterations and addition, $60,000; Bethel, estimated enrollment 90; alterations and addition, $7,500; Brentsville district, estimated enrollment, 600; alterations and addition, $235,000; Dumfries, estimated enrollment, 500; addition, $100,000; Garfield, estimated enrollment, 400; new $350,000; Haymarket, estimated enrollment, 350; addition, $100,000; Macrae-Antioch, estimated enrollment, 175; new, $150,000; Occoquan Elementary, estimated enrollment, 500; alterations and addition, $45,000; Osborn, estimated enrollment, 600; new, $880,000; Regional high and elementary, estimated enrollment, 350; alterations and addition, $375,000; Woodbine, estimated enrollment, 100; alterations and addition, $7,500.

The Manassas Recreation Association will sponsor a tour of the Dumfries historical area this Saturday. R. Jackson Ratcliffe will lead the group and act as narrator. After leaving from Ratcliffe's office on Battle Street at 9:30 a. m. the tourists will drive to Dumfries and visit sites of early settlements. Included on the agenda are old mill sites, the colonial tobacco inspector's office, granary landings at Newport on the Potomac, "Leaky-vania," the home of "Lighthouse Harry" Lee, and Rippon Lodge, which dates from the days of George Washington.

All the sites are accessible by car and no hiking will be necessary, Ratcliffe said.

Everyone who is interested in invited and Dumfries residents are invited to meet the group there. Officials of the Association ask that those who go bring their cars. Further information is available from Ratcliffe or Rev. H. E. Hudgins.

Manassas To Show Biggest Gain; Most In Elementary

Early registration for attendance in Prince William County School during the coming school year indicates an increase of ten to fifteen per cent over 1949. Enrollment figures are for the first two days of school this year.

Although registration is never complete until a week or more after school opens, Superintendent of Schools R. Worth Peters said definite trends can be discerned by the preliminary figures.

Manassas schools are expected to show the greatest increase, although school officials earlier thought this increase would be most prominent in the Dumfries-Occoquan area.

Osborn high school during the first two days had enrolled 392 pupils compared to 370 in September 1949. Similarly, Regional elementary and high schools have enrolled 472 compared to 450 last year, and Baldwin-Bennett elementary schools have enrolled 716 compared to 657. "There are undoubtedly more to come," Peters said, "since many students fail to register the first few days of school."

On the other hand Occoquan school has enrolled only 423 compared to 494 last year and Dumfries thus far has 370, an increase of only four over September 1949. Both schools will probably exceed last year but the increase will not be as great as expected.

Registration figures for the first two days at County schools follow: The 1949 figures are for membership which is the final enrollment total.

Cornwell Case To Go To Grand Jury

Attorneys for Andrew Cornwell, who is charged with the August 23 murder of Richard Cornwell, 62, yesterday waived preliminary hearing in Trial Justice Court and the case was set for the October term of the Circuit Court.

At the same time charges of murder which had been placed against Richard Watson and Mary Duxon were dismissed. Both were released on $1,000 bond and ordered to appear as material witnesses before a grand jury on October 2.

Richard Cornwell was found beaten to death Sunday afternoon, August 26, on the kitchen floor of his farm home several miles from Manassas. Police, who said Cornwell had been dead since the previous afternoon, officially rounded up Andrew Cornwell, the Dixon woman and Watson and charged them with murder.

The Pastor's Study

By REV. ALBERT C. WINN.

Pastor, Potomac Rural Parish

We come today to the end of the series on the spiritual satisfactions of rural life. There is a spiritual satisfaction, it seems to me, in sharing in the job of feeding the world.

I once heard a speaker say: "I wish I were an artist. I'd like to paint a picture of the farmer. I'd show him standing with both feet firmly planted on the soil. In one hand he'd hold the key to the nation's power and water supply, as he keeps the grass-roots in the soil. And in the other hand he'd hold the world's meal ticket. And I'd step back from that picture and say to myself: 'There's the farmer. He's some man!'"

Farmers are a small group nowadays—less than 20 per cent. of the population of our country. And that small group feeds all the rest. They make food; what could be more vital and significant than that? Other occupations may tear down and destroy, but the farmer builds, feeds, and saves life. Isn't that a real satisfaction?

If I were a farmer, I would hear now and then the words of him who said: "I was an hungry and he gave me meat. . . . Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Let us hear now the conclusion of the whole matter. The farmer's life, with its roots in the soil, its management of animals, its understanding of the Bible, its partnership with God, its service to the hungry, can be a daily and hourly spiritual adventure. Not every farmer makes it so, but every Christian farmer should.

To be sure the farmer who understands this spiritual view of his work will go to church. He will want to all the more. But church will be for him like the coach's pep-talk between the halves. He'll go back from church to play the real game, to practice his real religion, on the farm.

For her traveling costume, the bride chose an ivory wool suit with matching black velvet accessories—hat, gloves, bag, and shoe and an orchard corsage.

The bride and groom have returned from their wedding trip to New York City and are temporarily residing at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Reid.

LET IT SNOW! LET IT BLOW!

A "WINTER-IZED" truck can take it and keep on rolling!

Trucks have to keep going—as long as the roads are open! The best way to protect your truck against the hazards of winter driving is to bring it in for our complete, bumper-to-bumper "Winter-izing" service.

We'll change the oil to a winter grade, of course. And we'll add antifreeze after cleaning out the cooling system. But we'll do much more.

We'll go over the entire engine to make sure it's running right. We'll lubricate the entire running gear with correct grade of lubricants and check the brakes and springs. And we'll be on the lookout for things that might cause trouble later on.

For the best "Winter-izing" job in town, bring your truck here!

P.S. We have a complete line of International-approved winter accessories, too.

Davis

made farm real estate loans an aggregate amount of $12,360. The prosperity of the state's farmers is shown by the fact that $28,177,000 in real estate loans are outstanding at the beginning of this year.

The total of all bank-held farm loans in Virginia on January 1, 1950, was $54,331,000.

Mr. Davis noted that one of the greatest aspects of the present farm debt situation is the small size of the average loan, indicating the fact that banks are rendering the services of small farms in particular. The average loan for production purposes was only $1,092. The average loan made on farm estate was only $2,000.

"With the pent-up demand for farm equipment caused by World War II, a larger and larger percentage of farm borrowings have been going into other long range improvements. These improvements, along with the growing trend of Virginia farmers to practice modern conservation and land management, will assure the importance of the state in the agricultural picture for years to come."

Red Sox Win Championship

The Manassas Red Sox walked away Labor Day with the town baseball championship as they defeated the Macs 3-0 in the rubber game of two teams' three game series.

Red Sox pitcher "Squeezer" Polen limited the Macs to two hits while his teammates got three off Shiflett, who also added three wild pitches and two walks that figured in the scoring.

Earlier this season, on the Fourth of July, the Red Sox took the Macs by a score of 3-1 after dropping the first game of the series 4-1 on Memorial Day.

Following the Macs' easy win on Memorial Day they became the odds-on favorites to win the town championship. But the Red Sox, a much stronger team in the second half of their season, took the second game with little effort and looked good to win the last.

There was little doubt as to the outcome of last Monday's game after the Red Sox opened the first inning with two runs.

Merchant led off with a single and then, almost incredibly, scored on three consecutive wild pitches by Shiflett.

Dallas Posey, second Sox batter, walked, stole second, and went to third on a fly to deep right by Shiflett. Carlin Posey rapped a grounder down the third base line and Posey came home as the play was made at first.

The third Red Sox run came in the sixth as Dallas Posey pulled up at first on a fielder's choice and then a few moments later came racing home as Carlin Posey drove out a long double.

The Macs lighted only one spark during the game and that in the sixth as they loaded the bases.

But they failed to get any runs across as pitcher Polen kept them well in hand, and retired the side.

By Dorothy Acord

Well here it is time for all the little boys to unbuckle their 45's and the little girls to put up their dolls and settle down to another nine months of school work. All of us mothers can heave a big sigh of relief and maybe get something done. Two things are certain: our children will be getting an education and we can keep our sanity a little longer.

All joking aside, though, I think most of the children are glad school has started. I know my little boy is and several I have asked say they are, so I guess it isn't so bad on them.

I see we have some new teachers

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

I'm torn betwixt and between: whether to doff my hat for outstanding achievement to Grandmother or to the men who work with copper and brass? If it seems a peculiar contest, let me tell you what started the quandry. By accident I came upon a magazine put out by a research association featuring on the covers a full-color model kitchen. Womanlike, with that fascinating come-on, I plunged into the pages. It turned out that the researchers were drawing comparison between housekeeping in 1900 and 1950. It was enough to make your hair curl to realize what today's brides have come to take for granted!

Just for fun I tried to count the number of electrical labor-saving devices that Grandmother didn't have when she was a dewy-eyed bride. I got to seventeen, then checked the magazine and found there were six more. Don't peek at the upside-down list 'til you've tried to determine what housekeeping was like in 1900!

And why does copper and brass come in for hat-doffing? If you've been taking today's miracles as much for granted as I had been, you'll be surprised, too, to discover that most of the mechanical marvels listed (plus radio and television) were made possible by copper and its alloys. It seems that the rustproof, durable, heat-conducting red metal was of major importance in taking us out of the ice man, coal stove and wooden wash tub era. I don't think I stagger easily, but it was overwhelming to read that in the manufacture of electrical appliances slated for 1950 alone, more than 200 million pounds of copper and copper-base alloys will have been used!

When you say it fast, 50 years wouldn't seem to make a tremendous difference in the scheme of things but I, for one, am delighted to be a 1950 keeper of the home and hearth!

4-H Clubbers and FFA Make Veterans' Fair Worthwhile

The Prince William County Veterans' Farm Club Agricultural Fair of 1950 was not a financial success but it was a tremendous success for the 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America members who entered their prize cattle in one of the finest demonstrations of dairy cattle raising by the junior element of the county. The fair was in progress at Longview Park Speedway from August 31 to September 2 and more than 1000 persons came to witness the show.

Adult farmers gave little support to the exhibition but this did not deter the veterans who saw in the enthusiasm of the 4-H Clubbers and the FFA the possibilities that exist behind the campaign to keep the youth of the country on the farm.

The prize winners at the Veterans' Farm Club Fair were:

Squint's Drumming For Fair Play!

Squint Miller's mighty proud of the lot he owns that fronts on River Road—one of the prettiest spots around here. He's been in a stew about it lately, though. Seems that trash-dumpers take one look at his property, stop their car or truck, and out goes a load of rubbish, spilling all over his place and the roadside, too. Wouldn't that make you mad? Last night Squint dropped by the house. Over a friendly glass of beer, he tells me what he's done. "I put a couple of empty oil drums

Mrs. Alma Kincaid, 2125 East Adelaide, St. Louis, Missouri, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin, has turned into a regular clock-watcher since she has been taking HADACOL. Yes, she keeps her eye on the clock all day long, just waiting for breakfast, dinner and supper time. Imagine how unbearable life can be without enjoying good, wholesome food.

Here is Mrs. Kincaid's statement: "I have been taking HADACOL for over a year. Before taking HADACOL, I had stomach distress for quite sometime. Imagine how awfully hard it is to live a normal life when you can't eat such delicious things as tomatoes, oranges, grapefruit, etc., or drink milk without getting horrible cramps and upsetting your stomach. One day I took my husband's advice and got some HADACOL. A good friend of his told him of the fine results he had gotten from HADACOL. And now, since I have been taking HADACOL, I can eat anything I want and really enjoy it. I have a wonderful appetite, too—thanks to HADACOL. Naturally I recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

Yes, HADACOL is Truly Wonderful

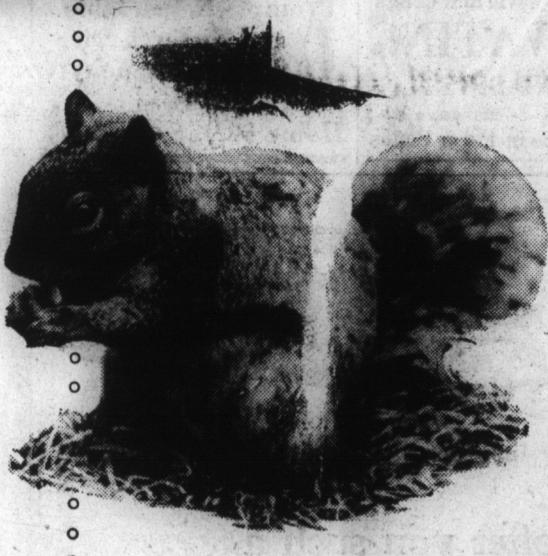

In the way it has helped countless thousands of folks whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin. HADACOL can help you, too, if you will just give HADACOL a chance. If you suffer from stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies, let HADACOL help you as it has helped others all over the country. Even hundreds of doctors are now recommending HADACOL to their patients suffering from such deficiencies.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel great after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY

We haven't been fiddling...

In the past ten years, the Southern Railway System has spent more than $150 million for new locomotives and cars.

We bought 643 modern Diesel locomotive units, 17,609 freight cars of all kinds and 145 lightweight streamlined passenger cars. On top of that, additional thousands of cars have been built or rebuilt in our own shops.

But this is only part of the story. Other millions have been spent to improve roadway and track... to build new bridges and shops... to enlarge and modernize yards.

This betterment program will continue. Because we know that in the future, as in the past, a strong, progressive Southern Railway System will be an important factor in the growth, progress and strength of the Southland... and of all America.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Payne of Nokesville, who lived near Aden for many years attended the Homecoming at the Ashbury Methodist Church on Sunday and have been their friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Griffith of Falls Church are the new folks on the Coverstone place here in Nokesville. They have four little children, Curtis, Jr., Dennis Ray, Ralph and Roxanne. The Fred T. Shepherds and Miss Marian Poole spent Wednesday at Colonial Beach.

We hardly know what to say about the County Fair. Certainly all Nokesville folks can be proud of the fine cooperation they showed. In our opinion if the whole county had cooperated as did our District it would have been much bigger and better. Those in charge worked hard. We hope next year the whole county will cooperate for certainly a Fair would be a great asset to this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Garman of Hollens and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rader of Troutville spent several days the past week with the George Garman family. Also visiting the Garman family were Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Garman and family of Frederick, Md. and Leo Garman of Washington. It was Leo's birthday.

He and his wife, Ella, who survives him have three children, Dr. Harold, who lives at New Iberia, La., Ira, Jr., who is a lawyer in New Orleans and a daughter, Miss Frances Flory. Mr. Flory was retired from teaching in January because of ill health.

When the word was received of Mr. Flory's passing, our neighbor, Mr. Saylor Diehl got out a picture taken at the Prince William Normal School at Brentsville in 1899. In this picture sitting on either side of Mr. Diehl is Mr. Flory, who passed away on Sunday and Ben Hedrick who passed away about a month ago. As we looked at the picture we recognized, mostly by the close resemblance of their children today, the pictures of many folks who now live around here. We know there are many folks who will read this who will be glad for me to recall for them some of those who were going to the school at that time. The teachers were I. N. H. Beahm and sitting beside him is his wife, recently deceased and four of their oldest children, Esther, Anna, William and Sarah. W. C. Read who passed away several years ago; J. C. They came home within the hour of the arrival of both of the teachers, Miss Barbara Ware and Miss Alma Watts, who will be spending the school year with them.

Mr. Clinton DeBusk of near Lynchburg, who is the eighth grade homeroom teacher is now making his home with the W. J. Newlands. O. J. Fitzwater is building a large building to house machinery and to be a paint shop in connection with his garage. This is just another one of the many new buildings which are helping greatly the appearance of our little town.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Gibson of Leesburg, spent the weekend visiting their many friends they made while living here. Bobby Caton, our newlyweds, are about settled in their home at the Bowman apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Nort and Mr. Elwood Long spent Friday attending the Angus-Aberdeen Show at Charlestown, W. Va. They purchased several head of stock.

Two new lakes are making our countryside more beautiful and helpful to the farmers. The W. R. Press and W. W. Tschiffelys have recently completed lakes with quite a few more farmers talking about building them, on their places.

On Sunday the 27th, the members of the Junior I Sunday School class of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren were entertained in the George Sonafrank home by their teacher, Miss Vera Sonafrank. Those present for the nice dinner and recreation which followed were Lonnie Wood, Lyle Croushorn, Peter Wayne Herring, Blanche Houston, Margaret Hooe and Jane Crummitt. Also present were Mary Wood, Myrna Dove, Kay Dove and Roger Vane.

Bobby Sterling of Kensington, Md., is spending several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Herring.

Seems nice to have Jimmy Davis, who for the past year has been greeting people at Coker's Pharmacy, teaching at our school. Although Jimmy is quite sure he will be called soon into the service, we truly hope he can stay here all year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sonafrank and Edward Allen, Jr. of Manassas, spent Tuesday evening in the George Sonafrank home.

All you folks along the Nokesville Rural Route served by our faithful mail carrier, Mr. E. C. Owens will be glad to know that he seems to be recovering satisfactorily from a major operation at Doctors' Hospital on Saturday. Why not send him a card?

What's the MEASURE of a Bull?

Pedigree and type of a bull are only indicators of the kind of daughters he should sire. His true measure lies in his ability to get daughters that will produce on a high level. Every Sire in the American Breeders Service studs that furnish our semen is Proved Great. Their average index, of over 500 lbs. B.F., ranks them in the top 2% of all bulls proved by D.H.I.A. daughter-dam comparisons.

The sure, economical way to improve your herd production and type is to call our technician and breed your cows to SIRE'S PROVED GREAT.

New Social Security Law Is Explained By Alexandria Manager

By Ruth G. Duffy
Manager, Alexandria Social Security Office
The NEW Social Security law, signed by the President on September 8, 1950, became effective on September 1, 1950. Under a provision of the new law, increased payments will go to everyone now receiving old-age or survivors insurance payments. If you are now receiving payments, you have received or will receive a postcard giving the following information:

1. YOU WILL RECEIVE MORE MONEY—The new Federal Social Security law entitles you to large monthly insurance benefits starting with the check you will receive early in October.

2. YOU NEED TAKE NO ACTION—Your increase will come automatically.

3. YOU WILL BE ABLE TO EARN MORE MONEY IN EMPLOYMENT COVERED BY SOCIAL SECURITY AND STILL RECEIVE YOUR BENEFIT CHECK—Beginning September 1, 1950, you may earn as much as $50.00 a month. If you are 75 or over, you may earn any amount.

4. PLEASE DO NOT INQUIRE ABOUT YOUR INCREASE—Those of you who are now receiving monthly payments do not have to do anything to get the increase. Wait until you receive your check in October to find out the exact amount of your increased payments. If in October your check shows no increase, the delay will be temporary—a later check will make up the difference.

*The above applies to those persons who are NOW receiving monthly payments.

Also under the new law persons 65 or over will be eligible for insurance benefits, beginning September 1, if they have been paid wages of $50.00 or more in six or more different calendar quarters for work covered by social security. Roughly, this is a year and a half. There are a number of persons in Prince William County who can qualify for payments under this protection. No payments can be made until an application is filed. If you are 65, not receiving monthly payments, and have worked in covered employment and have been paid wages of at least $50 in six different calendar quarters, you should get in touch with the Social Security office in Alexandria, Va.

At the same time the Society during the first six months of this year had increased its intake of
