A dash of this and a little dash of that. Mix well and the results would amaze you. At least Russ Cullen proved himself a "master mixer" in producing the 8th Annual Kiwanis Kapers at Osbourn auditorium last Friday night.

A jam-packed house was thrilled by more than two hours of superb entertainment, that kept up a lively tempo from the opening curtain to the finale. The perfect blending of local talent (and Manassas proved especially gifted in this respect), plus just the right dash of professional artistry, made this year's Kapers as delightful a show as one could ask for.

That the production "went over in a big way was evident in the long and spontaneous applause that followed each and every number. Off to a grand start was the singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by the chorus. The end men were right up to snuff. That "Burned and a Peck" number by Lois Cullen and Roy Neely couldn't have been better. Wonderful harmony by that double quartet. Very clever those parodies on local folk by Ralph Spear, and Arnold Service. And Patie Saunders and her lovely voice. Not to say we didn't like "Beautiful Brown Eyes" by Klity Baker, and the tap dancing by Jack Dennett, one of the guest artists, whose talents added much to the entire show.

Let's have quickly to the second part and the Manassas Museum of Art, the inspiration of Pep Gothwaite, offering caricatures of Manassas citizens, and all drawn by local artists.

Always a hit, the Gay Nineties girls were never in better form. No wonder the Kiwanis National Convention has extended them an invitation to come to St. Louis this summer.

Take it from Sidney of The Mayflower that our own Caroline Bule should go far with her wonderful voice. And the same goes for little Miss Winnie Saunders and her acrobatic dance.

An eye-fel Vivian Nicholson and how she could dance. Can't say the same for the "piece de resistance," the Kiwanian hula hulas whose appearance put a riotous ending to a wonderful, wonderful show.

A big nod to Deb Gothwaite and the program advertising he sold, which swelled mightily the Kiwanis coffers for their underprivileged fund.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Keith Lyons of the Bonquet Mart attended the regional convention of the Florist's Telegraph Delivery Association held at Alexandria this week.

ONE of the greatest accomplishments of civilization has been the remarkable progress made in increasing the average life expectancy. In the Middle Ages the average life span was twenty years. In the seventeenth century it had advanced to twenty-five years. Through the years there has been a steady increase until, today, the life expectancy is sixty-three years for men and sixty-six for women. Authorities agree that the most productive years of life lie between the ages of forty and sixty. Medicine and the allied sciences have thus been indirectly responsible for all progress. Good minds that had sickened and died before reaching their zenith now live to apply the judgment and experience of maturity. As pharmacists, we are proud of our function in the distribution of lifesaving medical supplies.

Have Your Family's Needs Outgrown the Refrigerator?

Replacing your Old Refrigerator will Save:

ALTHOUGH the electric refrigerator is about the best appliance friend a family ever had... giving long and faithful service over many years, at low cost... many of them have reached "retirement" age, and replacement will mean time, work and money saved.

For... families do grow, and the 6 or 7 cubic feet of storage space that was adequate ten or twelve years ago just isn't enough space now. But... today's electric refrigerators give you much more storage space in the same floor space! And... the advent of packaged frozen foods that save so much time and work—and provide your family with more food variety the year round—necessitates more storage space at lower temperatures. You get it—in today's refrigerators! Plus dozens of other features that make marketing easier, meal planning more efficient, and food preparation more pleasant. Operation costs are much less, too.

Summer's just around the corner, and that means extra duty for your refrigerator. If it's already "bulging at the seams," it's a good time to

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY

Wilbur Shaw thinks so much of this new Chrysler, he has selected it as Pace Car for the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race.

WILBUR SHAW, AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DRIVER, DRIVES NEW 1951 CHRYSLER—REPORTS TO YOU ON REVOLUTIONARY FIREPOWER ENGINE AND HYDRAGUIDE POWER STEERING

Here are Wilbur Shaw's reactions—in his own words—as taken down by a recording machine in the car:

"The '51 Chrysler has it! With this new engine and power steering, the first on any U.S. car, it's a whale of an automobile.

"I'm completely bowled over by the ease of steering! "This steering combined with the automatic transmission... is the nearest thing to an automatic pilot for a car I can possibly imagine.

"This engine... I can't get over the amount of power and snap in this engine... it's incredible!

"I drove 111 miles with the feeling I had expended no more effort than in driving around the block.

"When Mrs. Shaw drove, her comments just about squared with mine. Here's what she thinks of the 1951 Chrysler..."

Mrs. Shaw: "At first I could hardly believe the ease with which I could turn the wheel. That's important... especially in the summertime.

"Often after I have parked a car in the average parking space, I feel I should taxi home, shower and get dressed again. But with Hydraguide Power Steering I parked it with one hand. It practically drives itself."

Wilbur Shaw: "It's hard to describe this new Chrysler without going off the deep end... it has it in every department.

"In fact, I think so much of this car, I've selected it as Pace Car of the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race!" (Mr. Shaw's comments are reprinted through the courtesy of Popular Science Magazine.)

*Mr. Shaw refers of course to standard passenger cars—not racing cars or special models.

News From Nokesville

MRS. FRED SHEPHERD, Correspondent

OFF FOR CAMP

After quite a few very unexpected "interruptions and mishaps", our "trailer families"—at least the men—got off for Georgia soon after noon on Tuesday, with the rest of the men to follow Wednesday morning with their Major, William F. Hale, accompanying them. Leaving early in the morning were Mrs. W. F. Hale and the boys, Mrs. Lila Kerlin, and Lt. Virgil Williams. Taking trailers were Sgt. Welton Albrite, Sgt. Wade H. Whetzel, and Lt. Burns of Manassas, with Private Melvin Slusher accompanying them. Included with those to leave on Wednesday are other Nokesville boys, Cpl. George Fred, Cpl. Charles Miller, Cpl. Roy Keld, Jr., Master Sgt. Miller Whetzel and Sgt. R. X. Corbin.

Mrs. Welton Albrite and the children, Sandra and Scotty, and Mrs. Wade Whetzel and Wade, Jr., will join their husbands soon.

Mrs. Nettie Summers has arrived in Virginia to spend the summer months away from her home in Sebring, Florida. The M. J. Shepherds arrived home Friday evening.

Capt. John Hooker of Chosen, Florida, spent several days in Nokesville the past week. Capt. Hooker is in charge of an infantry division of the National Guard at his home there and also teaches a veterans agricultural class.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reed of the Willson Apts. near 7 Corners, (she was the Home Economics teacher here last year) visited friends here Saturday. They had with them their little baby daughter, Janet Sue.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

The Young People, the C. B. Y. P., of Nokesville, invited their parents on Sunday night to witness the candlelighting ceremony of the installation of the officers for the coming year.

Rev. Fleishman was in charge of the ceremony, installing the following officers: Harry Miller, Jr., president; Ralph Croushorn, vice president; Eloise Sonafrank, secretary; Mary Virginia Thomasson, treasurer; Connie Shepherd, reporter; Myrna Dove, pianist; Nancy Sonafrank, chorister; Vera Sonafrank, program and project chairman; Sara Lee Gay, membership chairman; Nancy Sonafrank, party committee chairman; Sylvia Godfrey and Virginia Wilkins adult advisors.

Others taking part in the evening service, planned by Eloise Sonafrank, were Gordon Fry, Edgar Shepherd, Danny Newland, Peggy Shepherd, Paul Croushorn, and Fidelity Terry. Hostesses for the evening were Sara Lee Gay and Connie Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Davis, Miss Hattie Mae Partlow and Miss Betty Flickenger accompanied the seniors on a trip to Williamsburg, Sunday and Monday.

In last week's column the William T. Vance family was omitted from the list of guests on Mother's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hively. They definitely were there, and thought we should mention it for some of the "far away" relatives, who read this paper, will wonder why their names weren't in the list.

Mrs. G. W. Beahm, Mrs. C. C. Jarring, Misses Ella and Rosa Lee Beahm spent the weekend visiting their many relatives around Harrodsburg and Bridgeport. They had a wonderful time visiting with folks they hadn't seen for many years.

Misses Ada and Sylvia Byler of Delaware are visiting their many friends here, coming just as soon as their school was "out."

Sammy Todd and Lee Yankey are both home for a furlough. Sammy is in the submarine "part" of the Navy and is very enthusiastic about his new work. They seem to be enjoying so much "running around" with their friends here at Nokesville.

Mrs. Welton Albrite hasn't been well the past few days, so she and the children were unable to leave with Welton when he left on Tuesday.

Because Major William F. Hale had to accompany quite a few of the National Guard when they left on Wednesday, Mrs. Lila Kerlin made the trip to Camp Stuart with Mildred and the little boys.

Mr. and Mrs. LeWine Kerlin and the W. F. Hales were Monday evening supper guests of the Clay Wood, Jr.

SURPRISED BY CLASS

The Wade H. Whetzel was completely surprised on Sunday evening when the members of the Faithful Climbers Sunday School class and their families, came to the Whetzel home, bringing very delicious dishes of food which everyone enjoyed. The warm friendship shown Gayle and Wade by the class makes leaving their home here a little easier for they know they are leaving behind many friends who will be thinking of them often.

Mrs. Ruby McDaniel of Elkton is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilkins, while doing some accounting work for Wheat Chevrolet in Manassas.

THE COLVIN FARM

We enjoyed a very nice few hours with Misses Florence and Callie Colvin at their home on Tuesday. It's been quite a few years since we had been taken over this farm, part of which has seen all the wars that our country has been in. In the same room, we saw the first "lights" of our forefathers, the candles, lamps of all kinds (they burned electric oil), and our modern-day electric lights. We saw the burying ground of the Indians who had the land (all forest) before the Foote family acquired it. The Colvin family has owned it for many, many years. Recently Miss Florence Colvin has had many improvements made on the farm. The house has a lot of new cement work and looks so nice with a new coat of paint. The family cemetery has a high wall around it which was built to last for many years to come. In it are buried several generations of the families who have lived on this lovely old farm, rich in the history of those who lived before us.

DINNER FOR GUARDSMEN

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Sr., entertained very graciously in their home on Friday night in honor of quite a few of the guardsmen and their families. Mrs. Whetzel was assisted in the planning and serving of the supper by Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Jr., Mrs. Harry Whetzel and Mrs. Mary Lee Brown. Those who enjoyed the evening were the W. L. Albrites, the W. F. Hales, the Wade Whetzels, the Miller Whetzels, Rex Corbin, George Frew, Melvin Slusher, I. B. Heineman, Claybrook Gilley, Miss Elizabeth Parlor, Mrs. Ratliff and the hosts and their families.

The band will take part in the Field Day on Saturday at Bristersburg.

Mrs. A. D. Sines, Mrs. Willard Wilkins, Mrs. David Somers, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Fred Shepherd, Mrs. Clifford Bear, Mrs. Ed. Michael, Mrs. James Earhart, Mrs. Jacob Flory and Mrs. Raleigh Nelson attended the Women's Rally of the District at the Cannon Branch, Wednesday.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harpine entertained on Sunday in honor of her father, J. T. Shenk, on his 82nd birthday. Those who enjoyed the day with the Harpines were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shenk, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shenk, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shenk, all of Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shenk and daughter Peggy Ann of Luray, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shenk, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harpine, Jr., Charlottesville; Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and Janet Sue, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reading and family, Stanley and Freddie Harpine and Betty Harpine.

Happy birthday to George Beahm, who this week will be seventy-eight years old!

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Hotte will be moving soon to the home they bought from Mrs. Annie Reedy. Many of our "oldsters" remember the Hottes. All will be glad to welcome them into our community.

A carload of relatives from Harrodsburg spent Wednesday with Mrs. Elnora Showalter and the Dewey Godfreys. The ladies visited during the day, while the men folks went to the circus in Washington.

Clifton

The Clifton Auxiliary Fire Department held its dedication exercises on Saturday night, May 19th. The invocation was by the Rev. Howard Cavness, followed by a musical interlude and selections by the Fairfax High School band. There was an address by Senator Andrew Clark, and other prominent speakers. This was followed by a dance which was greatly enjoyed by the young people.

Mrs. Laurence Sheldon of Washington spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Bessie Buckley, who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Davis has returned to Clifton after a delightful visit with their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Bloom in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore of Falls Church were dinner guests of the Jack Detwilers on Saturday.

Randolph Le Gallais is quite sick with a throat infection. Mrs. Charles Robert Buckley is also on the sick list.

Mrs. Pearl Emmet of Baltimore and Mrs. Maude Edmonds of Church were guests of Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Inez K... Sunday.
