Judging from the picture on the card, Joe saw some of the ball games. . . Detroit vs the Cleveland Indians. Hurry back Joe, need a haircut!

Lots of interest in our schools arising from the big turnout for the first meeting of the Manassas Parent-Teacher Association. Last week. Must be that folks are determined to get behind the movement for bigger and better schools.

Kid's Day, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club here Saturday proved a success. Buttons sold brought in a total of approximately $120, which will be used to further the club's underprivileged child's work in the community. The buttons entitled the kids to a free movie at the Pits Theatre this coming Saturday at 1 p. m.

Sorry to have missed the congregation service of the new Methodist Church at Dumfries, Sunday. Understand there was an overflow crowd on hand to enjoy the impressive service and the good fellowship that followed.

Prince William County is woefully lagging in meeting its September bond quota of $35,000. Through September 15th, total sales amounted to only $2,662.50. A number of counties in the state have already exceeded their quota.

The Journal welcomes to its news staff of correspondents, Mr. Thomas Cole, who will handle news from Centerville and vicinity.

Good hunting on the main drag. Town Policeman James Colbert ran down and killed a 40-pound opossum early Thursday morning in front of Coker's Drug Store. The opossum, which has plagued Manassas residents for almost two years, ran out into the intersection and Colbert, immediately gave chase. Catching up with the huge animal, Colbert kicked it dead and the opossum rolled over, laying dead. Colbert whipped out his blackjack and crowned the opossum, ending its streak of antics in this vicinity. Aren't you opening the hunting season a little early?

Edgar, Rohr is enjoying the annual tour of antique auto owners in the hills and mountains of Pennsylvania this week. He's been covering a lot of miles in his 1912 Buick. Fred Dowell, Jr. started out on his 1912 Hudson but the motor "bunked out" enroute to Pittsburgh.

O-W-L Firemen Net Over $350 From Social

Occoquan - Woodbridge - Lorton firemen netted $365.50 from the raffling of a television set and a turkey and ham dinner last Saturday night at the fire house. R. S. Hall reported that they netted $148 from the dinner and $217.50 from the raffle. Everett Mullins, truck driver from Alexandria, won the television set. Hall estimates that there were between 200 and 225 persons at the dinner, and so amazed at the crowd were the firemen, that they ran out of food. The O-W-L firemen also reported that work is progressing on additions to one of the fire trucks. They are adding sides on it for ladders, and while most of the work on it has been done by the firemen, it is now being welded in Washington and should soon be ready for use.

Circus Date Set By Lions For Oct. 17

Projects occupied most of the business session of the Lion's Club meeting here Wednesday night. The club heard reports on a circus and a spring musical festival which the club sponsors.

The Club is sponsoring the Mills Brothers circus due to hit Manassas Wednesday, October 17. It will be held at either the Portner Estate or at Longview, Howard Church, advertising committee chairman, explained that it is a three-ring circus with menagerie and horse show. Other committee chairmen for the circus are Ned Bradford, arrangements, and Guy Whitmer, ticket sales and accounting.

The Club heard a report from Paul Arrington on the Spring musical festival but did not reach a decision as to what kind to have following a long discussion.

Attendance contest for the club began last night and the group captains elected are C. L. Wheat, Ned Bradford, Vernon Schultz and Allen Fletcher.

Garland Ferris and Bobby Byrd were named "key members" for recruiting new members for the Club.

Big results at low cost with a Journal classified ad.

The Manassas Town Council held its first regular meeting of the new council Monday night and, despite Mayor Davis' plea for brevity, the meeting did not break up till almost midnight.

The Council approved some resolutions but deferred the major portion of business to come before it. For the second straight meeting, Councilman Roy Doggett was absent.

Council rescinded opening an alley between N. West and N. Battle from Ewell to Beauregard streets because a number of citizens in that block protested such a move. Council had voted in August to open said alley.

Town Manager Hunton Tiffany reported that Charles T. Yancy of Waynesboro would visit Manassas in the near future to look the town over and meet with Council. Yancy is a possible candidate for the town manager's position since Tiffany has frequently asked the group to accept his resignation.

A water rate schedule for users outside the corporate limits was proposed by Tiffany but the Council deferred action on the matter.

Council ordered Tiffany to have street markers placed at intersections in the Rob Nel and Portner subdivisions since citizens of that area reported they cannot get mail service there until said signs have been erected.

Permission was given to Robert Wine and Garland Ferris to connect to the town water system. Both live outside the corporate limits.

Birmingham Dairy requested that it be allowed to connect with the town's sewer main immediately since it had to dispose of waste water. On Mayor Davis' suggestion, action was postponed on the request until it could be studied further.

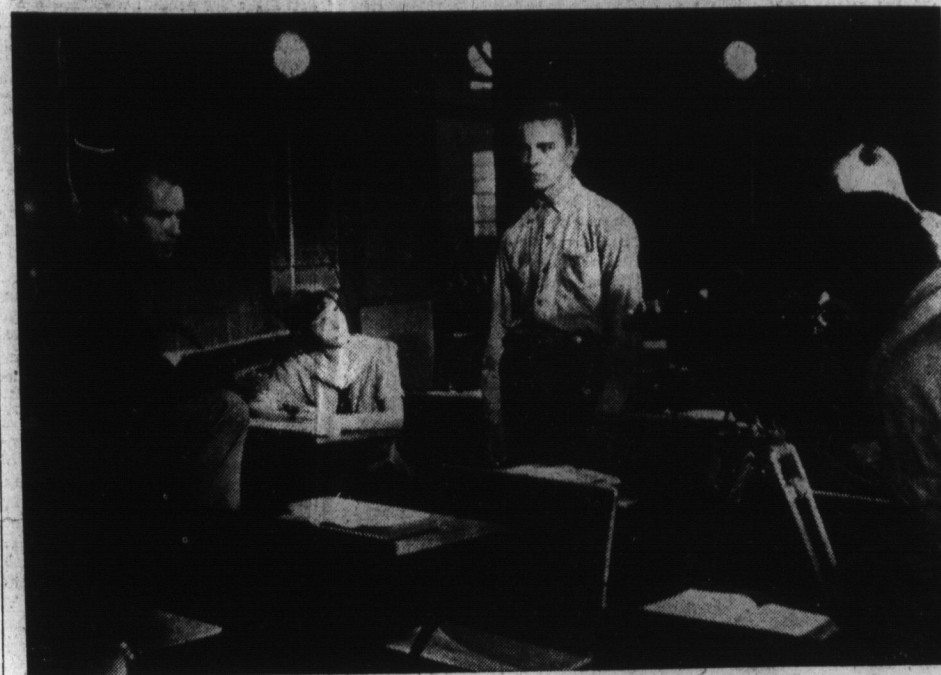

Action on a request by Mayhugh and Watts to install a neon sign in front of its store on N. Main street was referred to the Appeals Board of the Zoning Commission.

The council also directed the Town Manager "to communicate with the town attorney with the view of having him attend all regular meetings of the council." W. Hill Brown is town attorney.

Time of the scene is 1924 which explains the dress of Miss Galleher and Tully. According to the NEA, the movie is "designed to present the teacher as a professional person to the public." ## Draft Quota For County Upped To 10

Prince William's draft quota has been upped to 10 men a month, Mrs. R. Worth Peters, draft board secretary, reported Wednesday.

The Board has received a quota for October asking for the induction of 10 men. Since April, the county's quota has only been one. The October quota will leave here October 30 for induction unless a new order arrives changing this time, Mrs. Peters said.

So far, the men slated to go then have not been picked, but this will probably be done early next week and notices sent out to the inductees, Mrs. Peters explained.

Mrs. Peters also said that Don Ross of Manassas who was slated to report for induction September 18 has been deferred. However, another county boy has been inducted. He is Donald Ashby Tyrell, 22-year-old Woodbridge boy. Tyrell was inducted Tuesday, September 25.

Set Your Clocks Back!

Peace and harmony will again return to Prince William County beginning Saturday at midnight. At this time, clocks in Manassas will be turned back one hour as all parts of the county go on standard time.

A sure sign of the end of summer is when the daylight time system goes out and all clocks read the same. Daylight time will officially end at midnight Saturday, September 29.

Throughout the summer, Manassas and the lower end of the county has been on daylight or "fast" time while the rest of the county has operated on standard or "sun" time.

Car Inspection Begins Oct. 1

Owners of 943,523 Virginia motor vehicles are urged to present their vehicles to official inspection stations early and not risk running past the deadline of midnight on November 15, Captain W. L. Groth, Safety Engineer for the State Police and Deputy Administrator of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee stated today as preparations were completed for the official fall inspection period opening October 1.

With 2,000 official stations and 9,000 certified mechanics, Capt. Groth said there should be no crowding if motorists would avoid the usually inevitable last-minute rush. When this occurs, stations are overtaxed and car owners who cannot procure the new green and red sticker will be subject to arrest if they drive their vehicles.

While every effort is made in approving stations and mechanics and supervising their activities, he pointed out that some irregularities were expected to appear and that the public is invited to make proper reports of them. Since the first of the year, he said, 14 stations have had their privileges suspended and 40 others have received official reprimands. He noted further that defective cars involved in crashes decreased from 8.7 percent in 1949 to 8.2 in 1950.

Extension Courses To Be Offered Here

Manassas Is Asked To Give 125 Pts. Blood

Manassas will be asked to do its part in the Red Cross blood program next week Wednesday, October 3, when the bloodmobile is slated for a visit here.

With blood sorely needed for our fighting forces in Korea, there is a greater demand for the blood plasma than ever before, and Manassas is asked to give 125 pints as its quota, according to Charleston Gnadt, county Red Cross blood chairman.

In making an appeal for 125 blood donors from Manassas and vicinity, Mr. Gnadt, says "we must not let our fighting men down. We must not fail in this emergency." The bloodmobile will be at the Methodist Church from 12 noon until 6 p. m. and blood donors are urged to make an appointment now by calling Manassas 246 or 298-J, or the Red Cross, phone 144.

In past visits of the bloodmobile to Manassas, the response of donors has been disappointing, according to Chairman Gnadt, who feels that next Wednesday is an opportunity for all residents to come forward and show that Manassas is willing and ready to meet its goal.

CANNERY OPEN TWO DAYS

Beginning next week the Manassas Community Cannery will be open only two days a week. It was announced today by R. R. Fishpaw, Thursday is designated for colored patrons and Friday for white.

Firemen Receive Over 200 Answers To Appeal

Over 200 letters have been received by the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department in its current campaign to raise funds, Robert Leith, chairman of the drive, reported today.

Leith said that many of the letters have not been opened yet, so there is no way of telling how much has been raised. Leith said that the department hopes to receive 500 answers from the 1500 letters they sent out requesting financial aid. More complete accounting should be reported by next week, Leith added.

Freedom Drive To Open Here Sunday Night

Manassas Crusade for Freedom Drive will get down to brass tacks starting Sunday with a campaign to follow Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Local churches will observe "Freedom Day" Sunday and a joint non-denominational meeting will be held at the Manassas Baptist Church that evening to hear Dr. Glenn Archer speak on "Church, State, and Freedom."

Campaign chairman Colonel Allen Merchant told the Journal yesterday that the drive hopes to raise $100 and get 500 signatures. This, he stated, is the county goal based on the State goal.

While he is certain that the money will be raised, probably the first day, he hopes that everyone will sign up on the small booklets which will be at various stands in town. Col. Merchant is more concerned with over-subscribing signatures than money. "Both are equally important," he added.

The Senior and Junior Women's Clubs of Manassas have volunteered to man the two booths, which will be set up in Coker's Drug Store and in Pitt's Theater here in Manassas. In addition, the state headquarters of the women's clubs has urged that all clubs have 100 percent membership.

The local Lions, Kiwanis, Legion and V.F.W. organizations are also back of the drive which should insure its success. Coin receptacles will be placed in a number of Manassas business establishments as a convenience to contributors.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise funds and public approval of a private war against communism. It operates several radio stations beamed into Iron Curtain countries telling the truth about the Communists. As General Eisenhower said, "Your contribution, great or small, will help expand Radio Free Europe into a network of freedom stations."

Yorkshire Civic Group Meetings

Civic minded residents of Yorkshire are cordially invited to attend both functions.

Australians Visit Three Dairy Farms

Four Australians visited several Prince William County dairy farms Tuesday to study American methods of dairy production. The group was conducted on the tour by Phil Reading, Nokesville agricultural instructor.

They visited the farms of Joe Hale, L. R. Cowne and J. Carl Kincheloe in the Nokesville area. The four Australians were Mr. and Mrs. Clifton O'Dea, R. R. Ellen and another young lady with the O'Deas. Ellen is commercial counselor for the Australian Embassy in Washington.

The trip to Prince William was arranged by Floyd C. Davis of Bristow who is with the agricultural economics department of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Reading said that the visitors were particularly impressed with the abundance of grass for grazing in spite of the prolonged dry spell in this area. In Australia, the land for dairy farming is largely barren and must all be supplemented with irrigation ditches. They were also impressed with the dairy barns, houses and silos, Reading added.

Frost Ford Will Remodel Property Here

Plans for improvements and a building addition to the Frost Ford Garage on Center street were announced this week by Stewart Eustace, manager and co-owner of the well-known local enterprise.

Approximately $10,000 has been earmarked for the improvement and expansion program, which got under way a few days ago.

The front of the garage building will be completely remodeled, including new show windows and improvements to the service station.

Adjoining the service department a new, building of cinder block is being constructed to provide space for a complete body and paint department. The addition will be 45x48 feet.

Plans also call for black topping the used car lot and parking area.

J. R. Kemper Appointed New Forest Warden

District Forester D. C. Wilfong, Jr., of the Virginia Forest Service at Charlottesville announced the appointment of Joseph R. Kemper, Route 1, Manassas, Va., as the new Chief Forest Warden of Prince William County last week. Kemper's appointment was effective September 20, 1951.

Kemper succeeds T. Gordon Pattie of aChiarpin as Chief Forest Warden of Prince William County who resigned recently. Due to the great work load entailed in operating his large farm along with the forestry work, Mr. Pattie found it impractical to continue to be active in the forestry work.

The new Chief Forest Warden is very much interested in forestry activities, both fire control and reforestation work. Kemper will head all activities of the Forest Service in Prince William County.

Although he has not been connected with the Virginia Forest Service before, he has had considerable experience in forest fire suppression work elsewhere and this experience will be of considerable value to him in his fire control work in Prince William.

For assistance in any forestry matters in Prince William County, inquiries should be addressed to J. R. Kemper, Route 1, Manassas. For reporting forest fires, Kemper may be contacted by telephone, by calling Manassas 205-J-3.

Eggs' Musty Odor Poses Top Problem

"It will especially pay egg producers and dealers during the next month to keep a sharp lookout for eggs with musty odors," says P. R. Abbey of the Virginia Division of Markets.

Musty eggs pose a special problem in the egg industry. While easily recognized when broken open by the consumer, they are difficult to detect through the usual grading methods.

"The best way for a producer or dealer to check eggs for mustiness is to get right down and smell them," says Abbey. If a case of eggs smells musty, the chances are that all the eggs in the case are in that condition.

Abbey reports that the main causes of mustiness are poor ventilation, heat, and excessive dampness.

Other causes, he said, include the use of ragged, dirty cases that have been kept for any length of time in damp surroundings and the packing of eggs in containers that are in direct contact with a damp floor.

Egg handlers can best avoid trouble with mustiness, says Abbey, by supplying producers with clean, new cases and by making sure that eggs are kept above the floor level and in well-ventilated surroundings.

Swim Movies Shown To Kids At Ratcliffes

A group of young people, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ratcliffe, Jr., on Sunday evening, enjoyed a showing of the movie of the recent Swim Week program of the Manassas Recreation Association.

There were shots of different groups and individuals among the 81 youngsters who took part, showing them practicing their swimming strokes, kicks, rhythmic breathing, diving, and other techniques. The candid eye of the movie camera exposed both unsuspected faults and excellencies of some of our budding young "Esther Williamses" and "Johnny Weissmullers," and their reactions on seeing themselves on the screen for the first time ranged from expressions of delighted surprise to exclamations such as, "Now, I see what I've been doing wrong."

Also included in the film are some scenes of the popular summer sandpile, swarming with tiny tots, and of the midget boys' softball. The movie will soon be available for showing to groups and clubs in this area.

Poultry Bloodtesting Is On Increase Here

Selecting hens for laying qualities and healthfulness and having them bloodtested under the Virginia and National Poultry Improvement Plan is proving profitable for Prince William County poultry keepers.

Five thousand and seventy-eight chicken hens were tested and found to be pullorum clean and up to breed type during the past year in the county. Eggs from these hens were sold to Virginia hatcheries participating in the Poultry Improvement Plan and commonly recognized as Virginia State Certified Hatcheries. It is conservatively estimated that the eggs sold from these hens in approved flocks were in excess of one-half million.

SERVE GLAZED COTTAGE HAM

Glamorize economical cottage ham butt for company dinner by glazing with a tangy and pleasing glaze. Served with the foods so traditionally good with ham—browned potatoes, green peas, scalloped potatoes, green peas, crisp cole slaw, dill pickles, rye bread and cold beer—it makes a festive meal for any occasion.

Shaped like pork tenderloin, and sometimes called by that term, cottage ham is rolled from one to three pounds, the meat is solid without bone or waste and cuts easily for serving into evenly shaped slices. Serve the meal smartly by having the host carve at the table while the hostess serves the vegetables and salad. Add a gala atmosphere by pouring the beer into tall, tapering glasses and passing the relishes in gay, attractive dishes.

Glazed Cottage Ham

3 tablespoons brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons ketchup
1/2 teaspoon cottage ham butt

Combine brown sugar and mustard. Stir in ketchup, onion and kitchen bouquet. Add beer slowly, stirring smooth. Put cottage ham butt in baking pan; pour glaze over ham. Bake 45 minutes in moderate oven (350° F.), basting every 10 minutes with drippings in pan.

HOME-MAKING IDEAS

INTERESTING LUNCH BOXES

Nine times out of ten, sandwiches are the lunchbox mainstay. Let them be humdrum. Plan to vary them from day to day, in fillings and bread.

Here are some suggestions that may help:

To Vary Cream Cheese:
Mix softened cream cheese with chopped, cooked, dried apricots and raisins.

Chopped crisp bacon
Dried beef and minced onion.
Peanut butter, grated orange rind and orange juice.

To Vary Peanut Butter:
Mix peanut butter with chopped up bacon.

Chopped raisins and celery
Chopped dates and lemon juice
Chopped sweet dill pickle and mayonnaise

To Vary Eggs:
Mix chopped hard-cooked eggs with chopped crisp bacon.

Chopped chicken, celery and onion, mayonnaise
Chopped canned corned beef; mustard, pickle, mayonnaise
Sliced frankfurters; chili sauce, mayonnaise

Deviled Ham, chopped pickles, mustard
Tuna or Salmon, celery, pickle relish, mayonnaise

To make lunch boxes especially interesting now and then, surprise them with one of these. Wrap it up and tuck it in an empty corner.

Ripe or green olives
Potato or corn chips
Bag of salted peanuts
Tiny box of raisins
Stuffed dates or prunes
Small molasses popcorn ball

Little Enough To Give

With fighting increasing in intensity in Korea and latest American casualties reaching a total of 85,000, plus the danger of another outbreak in the existing Iranian oil crisis, the picture for peace in the world is anything but encouraging.

While America and the rest of the democratic nations face another world war and desperately strive to build armed forces sufficient to meet the Red menace, the civilian economy must be geared to the war effort.

Here, in Manassas, as well as in every town and city throughout the nation, every man, woman and child must play a vital part in the preparedness program. Each of us must give wholeheartedly of time, effort and even money so that we will not be found lacking if and when called upon to do our duty.

At times it may seem a great sacrifice . . . and typical of Americans we'll do the usual griping. But we will not, we must not fail. Our sacrifices, be they what they may, will be little enough compared to that of our fighting men.

Next Wednesday when the Red Cross bloodmobile comes to town, let us be in there "pitching" with our pint of blood.

Facts About Blood Program

An appointment can be made for your convenience in giving blood.

Blood donors are greeted by a Red Cross Volunteer worker upon arrival.

A medical history blank is filled out at the Registry Desk.

A doctor is present at all times.

There are medical technicians present.

Temperature, pulse, blood pressure and blood hemoglobin are taken.

If the donor's physical condition is satisfactory, blood is then taken.

Novocain is given before blood is taken, to eliminate needle pain.

Fruit juice is given before, and sandwiches and coffee are given after the blood is taken.

The whole procedure takes approximately fifteen to thirty minutes.

Blood is available to local doctors for emergency.

Some cases have used as much as ten or twelve pints of blood. Lives have been saved because of this blood program.

How's Business?

By Roger W. Babson

Peace Or War!

Today we are standing at the fork of the world's highway. Which road will we take,—the one that leads to peace, tranquility and amicable international relations, or the one that leads to bloodshed, the slaughter of the youth, chaos, confusion, turmoil, and pandemonium? Unfortunately, the answer to this greatest question affecting the future of freedom-loving people seems to be in the hands of one particular individual—Joseph Stalin! He has the future welfare of the entire world in the palm of his hand. What he does will determine the kind of civilization and government of the world for years to come.

Are there not enough brains and resources in the United States, Great Britain, France and the forty-eight countries that signed the Japanese Treaty to cope with this situation? One of the chief difficulties is that many of the peace-loving nations are honey-combed with communistic ideology. The war of ideology is going on right under your nose. Some of our most brilliant men in high office in the United States are victims of this dreaded disease. No matter if peace is declared in Korea and no matter who signed or refused to sign the Japanese Treaty, the Russian war to dominate the world is going on and gaining vast areas without firing a single shot.

How long will our Congress debate minor problems and high-ups in the Administration fatten their own pockets while our boys are dying in the mud and slush of Korea? Scandal, graft and favoritism crop out from time to time in our various governmental agencies and even with people whom we have elected to office to represent us. We must absolutely stop all these predatory activities and get down to business. We must meet the problem that everyone knows is to determine the future of democratic and peace-loving nations. Nero had nothing on us!

First Baptist Congregation Met Here At Hixson's Corner Back In 1884

By Gladys D. Bushong
(Much of the information for this article was given the writer from the library of Miss Isabel Hutchison, and I am grateful to her.)

In 1884 a small group of Baptists had as their first place of worship in Manassas, what was known as "Hixson's Hall," and it formerly stood at the corner of North Main street and Quarry Road. This group of seven, or perhaps a few more, were not the kind to be easily discouraged or disheartened, and feeling the need of a church edifice for a worshipping place, had "the acting board and minister and deacons association" meet with them.

This was the beginning of the present organization, and the foundation laid by the small group whose zeal and enthusiasm nurtured a church which now has a very large, if not the largest, enrollment of members in Manassas.

The Reverend T. A. Hall, who was also serving the Antioch and Little River Churches in the County, was chosen as pastor, and remained as such for a period of seven years. The original constitution of the church is in an excellent

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Missionary Society of the Manassas Baptist Church held its meeting at the church on Thursday, September 27, at 10:30 a. m. The Day of Prayer for State Missions was observed.

MANASSAS BAPTIST CHURCH

state of preservation, being kept under glass in an attractive frame of hand rubbed walnut. The wording of it is clear, brief, and concise in its meaning.

During the ministry of Rev. Hall, a lot fronting on Center street and extending through to Church street was purchased. A small frame church was erected upon it in the year 1887. This building was sufficient at that time to meet their necessities, and was used until 1906 when the members saw the need for a larger place of worship, as their membership had increased, and they also had a growing Sunday School.

Mr. G. W. Nutt was the first Sunday School superintendent, and from a school of 45 in 1891 it has grown to over 400 to the present time. Consequently, the church building for which they struggled in 1887 was sold and moved out to the farm of what is now known as "Birmingham," and the present church (exclusive of the new Sunday School building and the present remodeling) was erected.

The architect of the building was the late Albert Spieden, whose interest in the work of the church was quite outstanding and very helpful. Mr. Ira E. Cannon was the contractor who erected the church, and while it was being built the membership found another temporary place of worship in Nichol's Hall, corner of Center and Battle streets.

The new building was larger, more spacious and had a greater seating capacity in the main sanctuary, as well as making more room available for the increasing Sunday School. Memorial windows were given, as well as other ecclesiastical necessities, which helped to lessen the financial burden.

Two members from this congregation became ministers—Westwood Hutchison and O. G. Hutchison. It is of interest to know that Mr. Westwood Hutchison was seventy years of age when he was ordained. There has been one missionary to go from this church—Miss Julia E. Trainham, who was the sister of Rev. C. W. Trainham, pastor of the church in 1893.

The present structure was completed in 1906, and the pastor at this time was Rev. T. D. D. Clark, who remained as their leader until 1911 when the Reverend H. L. Quarles was called and remained until 1916. Rev. T. D. D. Clark was again called to the pastorate, and served the church the second time up to the year 1922. From the beginning of the church until the present time, twelve or thirteen preachers have ministered to this congregation, all of whom worked faithfully for the kingdom of God.

In about 1935, the church had a very disastrous fire, which damaged the interior of the sanctuary, as well as a beautiful new organ which had very recently been purchased. Until the repairs were made, other churches shared their edifices with them, in order for them to still have their services on the Sabbath.

The new Educational building was begun in the Spring of 1947, and was completed early in 1949. This building has large Sunday School rooms, nursery, kitchen, dining hall, and pastor's study, the furnishings of which study was a gift from a former pastor, the Reverend R. M. Graham, as a memorial to his son, who died while serving our country.

Remodeling is now being carried out on the front part of the present structure, and the older part is being brick veneered which will enhance its appearance, as well as making it less hazardous from fire.

The pastor is the Reverend John Edens, who is married and lives on Grant avenue. Mr. Edens is President of Prince William County Ministerial Association, Vice-Moderator of Potomac Baptist Association and is President of Potomac Baptist Ministers Conference.

The history of this church can never be understood without a full appreciation of the way in which the various activities of the church have been carried on, and the purpose of the church advanced, by the splendid work of the subsidiary organizations.

Markets Will Be Adequate For Beef Cattle

Adequate market outlets for Virginia beef cattle at satisfactory prices is the forecast for this fall.

J. D. Johnson, associate agricultural economist at V.P.I., says that since no further roll-backs on prices are authorized, prices of beef cattle are expected to remain fairly close to "maximum permissible" prices, even during the heavy fall grass cattle marketing season.

He bases this forecast on a number of conditions.

First, cattle feeders in the corn belt have 195,000 fewer animals in their feedlots than they had a year ago. With the roll-back issue settled, these feeders are expected to fill their feedlots again, because the present feed outlook is good.

The corn-beef ration will enable many feeders to again find cattle feeding a profitable operation. Another factor in the outlook is that the overall demand for meat and beef is strong.

The changed outlook for feeding operations should bring some feeders into the market bidding with slaughterers for certain types of animals, particularly choice calves, and the heavier, top quality, two-way cattle. Feeders are now bidding more for the desirable type two-way cattle than are slaughterers. The presence of feeder buyers in the market should relieve some of the pressure on slaughter prices, when large numbers of cattle start coming off range.

A USDA survey made July 1 showed fewer heavier animals in the feedlots than is normal for the date. This should work to the advantage of the large steer producer. Johnson reports that slaughterers in the concentrated New York-Boston areas who sell beef are likely to use Virginia as a major source of supply.

Tobacco, Dairy Products Top Cash Winners

Milk and poultry products lead the field as major sources of Virginia farm income with each having a value of $93,151,000 in 1950. The estimates, prepared by the Virginia Cooperative Crop Reporting Service, include receipts from sales and value of these products consumed in farm households. Tobacco, however, was the largest cash producer, returning to the farmer $86,863,000.

As estimated by the Reporting Service, some commodities showed a decline over the previous year. These include peanuts, wheat, potatoes, hay, cotton, eggs, hogs, yeasches, and strawberries.

Items showing an increase of more than 10 percent over 1949 are tobacco, soybeans, orchard grass seed, oats, truck crops, apples, forest products, turkeys, sheep and lambs, and wool, the Reporting Service said.

Livestock and livestock products produced 52 percent of the farm income; crops, 47 percent; and government payments, 1 percent. Farm cash receipts and value of home consumption for livestock and livestock products during 1950 totaled about $283,000,000—a 3 percent decrease from the previous year, while crops increased 12 percent to reach $253,000,000.

There will be an Executive Board meeting of the P.-T. A. on Monday, Oct. 1st.

Arts Exhibit At Waterford October 5 - 6

More than 200 Northern Virginia artists and craftsmen will display their handiwork at the eighth annual exhibit of arts and crafts in the quaint colonial village of Waterford on Oct. 5 and 6.

Included will be examples of pantry products, rugs, lamps, shades, furniture, quilts, needlecraft, painted tin, ceramics, china restoration, postal cards, maps, furniture, hammocks, oil paintings, water colors, and drawings.

Among the exhibitors will be persons of all walks of life—farm men and women; commuters who live here and work in Washington, D. C., 43 miles away; school children who are taking their first lessons in ceramics and art; residents of Leesburg, Purcellville and other towns whose hobbies are handicrafts; professional people, and a number of handicapped persons.

Judges at the art show, are three officials of the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington.

The Waterford Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit committee whose aim is to foster an interest in the crafts for which Waterford was famous 100 years ago, sponsors classes in various crafts and arts, among them tile painting, ceramics, braiding rugs, and making Huntley Farm, the home of Mrs. John J. Payette near Waterford, Va., will be one of the old houses on display during the annual Waterford exhibit of arts and crafts on October 5 and 6. Waterford, founded in the 18th century, has remained much the same for a century because it is away from main highways, railroads, and industrial centers.

Planting Of Strawberries Now Unwise

Fall planting of strawberries is impractical for most areas of Virginia.

Bruce Aroian, associate horticulturist at V.P.I., says the main reason for fall plantings in the northern half of the United States is that they get the plants into the ground where they will be set to start early spring growth. This can be an advantage in areas where spring is usually wet and planting dates are late.

If fall planting has any advantage in your part of Virginia, here are a few things to remember.

Fall set plants must be well mulched to prevent heaving from freezing and thawing of the soil. Apply several inches of mulch before the first long hard freeze of winter is expected.

Plants set in the fall will not make a crop the following spring. Strawberries set their fruit buds in late fall. These plants would bear some fruit the following spring, but seldom have enough root growth to support the strain of fruiting. Treat fall set plants the same as spring set plants. Remove the blossoms and do not let the plants bear until the following spring.

Maintain enough moisture. Plants set in the fall often suffer a higher loss than plants set in the spring because of not enough moisture.

Va. Turkeys Show 56 Pct. Increase

Virginia turkey growers, in addition to producing a record crop for the State, have increased production numberwise more than any other state. This year's crop has been estimated by the Virginia Co-operative Crop Reporting Service as slightly over three and one-half million birds—a 56 percent increase over 1950.

Virginia now ranks fourth in turkey production and is exceeded only by California, Texas, and Minnesota. Last year the Old Dominion was fifth but the substantial increase here has pushed Iowa into that spot.

There has been a marked shift from the large, bronze turkeys to the small Beltsville White. Reports to the Crop Reporting Service indicate that approximately two-thirds of the turkeys raised this year will be of the small apartment size type.

Virginia is one of the leading states in the production of the Beltsville White and there has been a large demand for both eggs and poulters from other states. Hatcheries have reported more than one million poulters shipped out of the State this year. In addition, a large number of turkey eggs were also shipped to other states.

Leafhopper Injury Rises In State

The three-cornered alfalfa hopper, a small, pale green, sucking-type insect, is believed to be largely responsible for the yellowing of alfalfa reported throughout the State the past few weeks.

S. B. Fenne, plant pathologist, and J. O. Rowell, entomologist, at V.P.I., have visited many alfalfa fields where the trouble was reported, and say that in almost every case there was evidence of injury by the hopper.

In 1950, there was considerable injury from the insect. There also was an outbreak in 1941.

The insects girdle the stems in an irregular and continuous line. The plant juices are lost, stems are weakened, circulation is cut off from the upper part of the plant; and many plants become yellow, break off, and die.

The specialists say that in almost every field visited various leaf-spot diseases were present. However, these diseases did not seem to be causing enough injury to result in yellowing.

Any condition, such as insect injury or improper fertilization, which causes a general weakening of the plant also will make it more susceptible to leafspots.

Rat-Proof Farm

Corn supplies in the crib are now as low as they are likely to be any season of the year . . . and it's a good time to repair rat holes and rat-proof the crib, says J. M. Amos, associate entomologist-plant pathologist at V.P.I.

Sheet metal may be used over the floor and should extend up the sides. Another effective method is to use metal on the floor of a wooden building and enclose the entire area above with 1/4-inch hardware cloth. Be sure no place large enough for rats or mice to enter is left unsealed.

Over 200 Attend First Local PTA Meeting At Osborn High

Over 200 persons attended the opening Parent-Teachers Association meeting for Manassas Thursday night. Mrs. G. Wallace Hook, association president, presided over the meeting and introduced the officers.

They are: Daniel Kelso, vice-president; Mrs. John Harrell, secretary; and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson, treasurer.

Garber spoke briefly listing the three greatest needs in the public school system of Prince William county—a public relations program, a building program, and a better teacher's salary scale.

Following the business portion of the meeting, a social hour was held. School Superintendent Garber was heard to exclaim that he had never seen such a large attendance at any PTA meeting as this one.

The next meeting of the association will be held in the Osborn auditorium October 18.

Miss Ayres Speaker At Garden Club

A very delightful meeting of the Garden Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. J. V. Buffington. Mrs. John Cox, president of the club, presided, and reports of the County Fair were given. An appreciation from the County Fair management for the participation of the Garden Club and their splendid exhibit was noted. This exhibit was quite outstanding and attracted many visitors.

The announcement of coming events of immediate interest was brought before the Club. District Meeting of the Piedmont Section of the Federated Garden Clubs of Virginia will be held in the Old Dominion Room of Miller and Rhodes in Richmond, October 16, 10:00 a. m. Mrs. R. C. Powell and Mrs. V. V. Gillum will represent the local Club. Speakers on that occasion will be Mrs. Hampton Fleming, parliamentarian, and Mrs. George Steedman, who will speak on flower arrangement, while Mrs. George Ballance, president of Virginia Federated Garden Clubs, will give the outline of the program for the Virginia Clubs for the coming year.

Good news from Washington came in the form of a Thanksgiving Flower Festival sponsored by the National Capital Garden Club to be held in cooperation with the firm, Woodward & Lothrop, November 5-10. The Club was invited to participate, and accepted.

Announcement was made that the bird and flower stationery is available, and Mrs. Frank Cox was asked to take over "Garden Gossip."

A highlight of the afternoon's meeting was the very delightful and interesting address given by Miss Sue Ayres, who has recently returned from The British Isles, and spoke on The Gardens of England. Illustrating her address with photographs made one feel as though they were in the gardens, and with a little imagination could almost smell the perfume from the flowers.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Levine, at "Sinclair's Old Mill," when Mrs. Paul Kopp will speak on "The Gardens of Mexico."

Over 100 Manassas women turned out for a joint banquet in the Manassas Methodist Church Monday night. It was a yearly union of the Junior and Senior Women's Clubs of Manassas. Left to right are Mrs. Elaine H. Levine, president of the Sr. Women's Club, Mrs. John Shover, 4th district chairman, from Falls Church, Mrs. Paul Hartz and Mrs. Jane Service.

Annual Banquet Ushers In Busy Season For Women's Club

The Womens Club of Manassas opened its fall season Monday evening with a most successful banquet at Grace Methodist Church.

Members and guests, totaling one hundred, were in attendance to hear Mrs. Arthur Paul Hartz, president of the Virginia Federation of Womens Clubs, make an inspiring and challenging address.

Mrs. Hartz was introduced by Mrs. John Shover, of Falls Church, who is president of the 4th District of the Federation of Womens Clubs, and was also a guest of the local club.

Mrs. Hartz spoke of the rapid growth and development of the work of the Women's Clubs in Virginia, since the first organization of a club in Lynchburg in 1907. The Virginia Federation with a membership of 20,000, stands fourteenth in the states of the United States, and sixteenth in the number of clubs.

She stressed the needs in Virginia for better educational facilities, better salaries for teachers, the needs for better health services, mental hygiene clinics, and urged a better understanding of the States Welfare problems, Aid to dependent children and the aged and blind. She stated that the time has come to be informed on all of these matters, and asked the club and its members to get behind their representatives in the Virginia Legislature when it convenes January, 1952, and see that appropriations are made to cover these.

Mrs. Hartz added that the Narcotic Bill must be made more effective, if these harmful drugs are kept from the youth of the nation. Also we must recognize the necessity of aiding the backward countries of the world, that each of us might earn our rightful place on earth, and have America remain a golden opportunity for all.

Group singing, led by Mrs. Connie Kincheloe, of the Junior Women's Club, and several piano selections by Mrs. Robert Byrd, Jr., were well received and added to the pleasant evening.

One new member, Mrs. Irvin Julisson Breeden, was voted in to fill membership in the club. Mrs. Allen Merchant made an appeal for signers and donations for the Crusade for Freedom drive, which is beginning in Manassas, October 1st.

Mrs. Vincent Davis, chairman, announced that Barter Theatre would be sponsored and presented by the Women's Club. The first play will be given Tuesday, November 20th. They will present Moss Hart's "Light Up the Sky."

An informal reception followed the banquet. Assisting Mrs. Levine were the following hostesses for the evening: Mrs. M. S. Burchard, Mrs. Raymond Fishpaw, Mrs. J. Vincent Davis, Mrs. William M. Johnson, Mrs. Wilson Merchant, Mrs. J. P. Royer, Mrs. John Widmer, Miss Thelma Barnard, Mrs. William D. Gray.

Junior Woman's Club Will Present Variety Stage Show

Mrs. Arnold Service, president of the Junior Woman's Club, announces that arrangements have been made by the club to present "Going Places," the new musical stage show, on October 11 and 12.

Mrs. Service says that the show has come highly recommended, as it has met with outstanding success in other communities.

The show is something entirely different in home talent entertainment, for in it the audience participates, and the show is packed with colorfully costumed acts to keep the audience laughing.

The leading character of "Going Places" is Uncle Billy, station master of Hometown, U. S. A. Uncle Billy is a typical character found in most towns, a man with a sense of humor and a fine philosophy. As the show opens, Uncle Billy is retiring after fifty years as station master. As Uncle Billy leaves through his clippings in his scrapbook, the interesting events and celebrities he remembers come to life on stage.

A group of children come to the station to give him a special program of songs and stunts, and the highlight of the scene is the story of Cinderella, enacted by boys and girls wearing colorful satin costumes and colonial wigs. Featured are Cinderella, Prince Charming and the Fairy Godmother.

Uncle Billy remembers when Bob Hope staged a warbond rally in Hometown, as he tells of it, a prominent local man appears to impersonate the wise-cracking comedian. Another celebrity is Al Jolson, impersonated by a member of the local cast in songs the Jazz singer made famous.

Hollywood Starlets are high school girls wearing special costumes and singing clever songs, as they perform unusual dance routines. In one outstanding scene, a fashion show is set to rhyme and rhythm, with young women as Paris models. In still another scene, girls in Oriental costumes dance and sing lyrics written especially for "Going Places." In the Professor Quiz show, silver dollars and prize awards are given to the members of the audience who compete in the local presentation of the most famous of all quiz programs.

A "Kitchen Queens" Band gives a concert with instruments made from pots, pans, skillets and household gadgets. The high point of comedy in the show is the scene in which local businessmen appear as "The Sultan's Beauties."

In the colorful finale, Uncle Billy is presented with the Key to the City, as the complete ensemble pays a stirring tribute to all home towns.

Reports from other towns are most enthusiastic about this stage hit, which contains none of the usual faults of a home talent show, because of professional staging, handling and costuming.

● Osborn Post Mortem . . . Culpeper outweighed the Yellow Jackets 13 pounds per man on the line. Culpeper averaged 184 pounds while Manassas averaged only 171. Twice, signal caller Haynes Davis lost count of the downs and did not punt on fourth down. Tom Kelso, Yellow Jacket end, suffered a slight concussion—he didn't remember anything after the kickoff and he was in the game most of the first half. Culpeper is a good drawing card for Manassas—officials estimate the attendance at 2,000.

● Too Much Depth . . . George Washington JV squad numbered 68 men when they visited Ocoquan last Saturday. Coach Johnny Suren was dumb-founded when he compared the size and number of GW's to his own boys who numbered slightly over two full teams. The GW depth told the story as far as the game was concerned with GW finally wearing Ocoquan down and scoring in the last minute of play to win, 13-12.

● Disappearing Daylight . . . With Woodbridge Brick leading 7-5, their game with Manassas Ice & Fuel was called on account of darkness down at Ocoquan Thursday. Ice & Fuel scored five runs in the first, but couldn't touch Ocoquan pitcher Avery Reid for a run after that.

● Softball Twin Bill . . . Woodbridge Brick will probably get together with Manassas teams in the next couple days and schedule a double-header for Swavely Field, playing V.F.W. in the opener and Ice & Fuel in the nightcap.

Ocoquan Loses Opener 13-12; Culpeper Romps Osborn 40-0

High school football fans are in for another weekend doubleheader of football with both Osborn and Ocoquan playing at home.

Osborn, scoreless in their opener with Culpeper, hopes to reverse the trend and put Charlestown through the hoop in their battle Friday night. The Osborn-Charlestown game has developed into a rivalry—Osborn won over the West Virginians last year.

Coaches Jim Leo and Joe Fortuna are working hard to develop more offensive punch in the squad. At times, Osborn's defense was creditable against Culpeper, but the offense lagged terribly with Osborn penetrating Culpeper's territory only twice in the entire ball game.

At Ocoquan, Coach John Suren is also working on his offense and plans to spring a few new plays at Warrenton when they meet on Ocoquan's field Saturday afternoon. While Suren was pleased with the team's performance, especially on defense, he's hoping to spring Smith and Williams loose more often.

Ocoquan's ground gain clicked for short gains last week but Suren would like to see Smith and Williams go all the way. Smith made the only long run of the game for Ocoquan and that was called back because of an off sides penalty.

Game time for Osborn Friday night at Swavely Field is 8 p. m. Standard time, while Ocoquan plays Saturday at 2 p. m. daylight time.

kickoff from Corder on his own 25 and raced down the sidelines to the Osborn 32. An unnecessary roughness penalty against Osborn on the play moved the pigskin to the 17 yard line where Hawkins took over. Hawkins deftly passed off to Dick Coates who drove over his own left tackle to score from the four. "Klicko" Hedrick, 235-lb. sophomore tackle, kicked the extra point.

Culpeper scored gain in the first quarter, adding two touchdowns and a safety on a blocked kick in the second quarter to lead at halftime, 28-0. The safety followed a valiant goal line stand by Manassas after Culpeper had recovered an Osborn fumble on the nine, Frank Hoss, Ron and Richard Black and Bobby Payne starred on defense to hold the heavier Culpeper boys from scoring.

Osborn took over possession on their own five and after three running plays had netted no gain, Culpeper blocked Corder's punt for a 2-point safety.

The Osborn defense stiffened in the second half after a tongue-lashing by Coach Jim Leo at intermission and Culpeper scored but once in the third period and once in the final frame.

In the fourth period, Manassas made its one serious scoring threat. Following Culpeper's last touchdown, Ayres returned the kick to his own 34. Payne picked yards off tackle and a pass by Bobby Reid to Dave Barbee netted a first down.

A fifteen-yard penalty against Culpeper moved the ball down to midfield to Culpeper's 46. Ocoquan picked up two yards, and Payne made a first down on two off line slashes on the Culpeper 30.

Culpeper's line stiffened to hold the Yellow Jackets one yard off a first down. Corder was stopped for no gain, but Payne drove up five off tackle. Payne drove the 21 on third down, but was stopped for no gain on fourth down. Culpeper taking over on their 21.

White Oak, Manassas Win

Barnstorming in the lower end of the county, the Manassas Macs took a 7-3 decision from Triangle Sunday. The league season is officially over, but the game was played for the benefit of the Triangle Volunteer Fire Department.

Jackie Saylor's paced the Manassas attack when he doubled and stretched it into a round-tripper with the aid of two Triangle errors. DeWitt Mayhugh and Floyd shared the mound duties for Manassas.

Triangle scored all three runs off Mayhugh in the opening frames of the game, but Mayhugh blanked the home team in the third, fourth and fifth innings and did not give up a hit. Floyd took up where Mayhugh left off and hurled no-hit ball for the remaining four innings.

While Manassas was winning, White Oak romped to an 18-2 decision over Warrenton in the first game of the 3-game playoff series. White Oak batters mauled Warrenton pitchers Hugh Walm and Pat O'Leary.

The second game of the series will be played Sunday at White Oak with a third game, if necessary, to be played on a neutral field, probably Manassas. Sunday's game was played at Middleburg because the diamond at Warrenton had been dismantled for the opening of the football season.

With Smith holding, Bauckman booted the extra-point try, only to see the ball strike the left goal post and bounce back.

Bauckman Sets Up TD
Ocoquan, playing heads up football, scored again before the half-time whistle blew. Jackie Keyes kicked off to GW and on the first play, Bauckman recovered a GW fumble on GW's 23 yard line.

Smith danced to the 16 and Williams cracked to the GW 3 for a first down. Bauckman carried to the one on a quarterback sneak but a backfield in motion penalty moved the ball back to the 6. Williams again drove to the two and Smith repeated his performance by cutting over his own left tackle for the score, pushing Ocoquan ahead 12-6. The extra point try was blocked.

Ocoquan started on another scoring drive which reached the GW 38 but the half was over before they could score again.

After an exchange of punts, GW

Seed Directory Now Available

Virginia's 1951 certified seed directory is now available from the Virginia Crop Improvement Association at V. P. I., Blacksburg. Seed Certification Agent J. Garland Sanderson says the new directory lists all growers of certified seed in Virginia. Included among those are growers of certified wheat, rye, barley, oats, soybeans, red clover, fescue, tobacco, peanuts, hybrid corn, and sweet potatoes.

All of the light, utility, cross-ventilation, convenience, and comfort that can be offered in a small five-room home is shown in this house plan.

The kitchen-workroom combination is especially convenient. The closet and lavatory in the workroom will provide a place in which the field hands can wash up and leave their outside wraps. If modern equipment is used, the laundry can be done and the family meals prepared at the same time. The four windows offer an unusual amount of window space making the kitchen very light and cool. There is 16 feet of counter space in addition to the table. The table arranged by the two large corner windows will provide an especially nice place to serve the family meals.

The bedrooms are very conveniently located—each with corner windows, thus leaving plenty of wall space for attractive furniture arrangement. Two large closets in each bedroom provide ample storage space; also the linen closet in the hall.

By arranging the living and dining area together, the effect of a very large room has been achieved and the space permits an attractive arrangement with the least amount of furniture. The large fixed window, which opens onto the entrance, could be replaced by ordinary window units or by use of glass block—either is very attractive.

The screened porch on the back has an outside door and gives easy access to the living room; yet it is away from the entrance and the barn. Hence the greatest possible amount of comfort and privacy is provided. A door opening into the adjoining bedroom could be very easily arranged if it is desired. The plans on this house show a hip roof; however, the house would be equally attractive with a gable roof if the pitch on the rafters was not steeper than 5 inches rise per foot of run.

Paul Revere made George Washington's first set of false teeth.

Handy Jim's KIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

How to Save Old Shutters

WHEN old wood shutters start creaking and falling apart, they may be saved for many more years' service by a simple remedy. Their appearance, too, will be modernized. Here's how it's done.

Just leave the old louvers as they are and square up the framework. Cut a piece of Masonite quarter-inch thick to fit the exact size of the opening, level lightly and attach with brass wood screws applied through drilled holes. The hardwood will keep the framework square.

From another piece of the panel material, scroll saw a figure, such as a bird, deer or ship, so it may be attached with glue to the upper third of the modernized shutter. Of course, there may be saved right out of the old which forms the new surface. Use the scroll saw.

Apply a prime coat of paint to both sides of the shutter and the decoration. Now add a finish coat, or perhaps two coats, to the shutter, and finish the new in a contrasting color. Attach the shutter with waterproof glue.

Now fasten the modernized shutters to the side of the house with brass screws. You'll be amazed at this improved appearance of your home.

Local Farmers Begin Seeding — Should Finish By Oct. 15th

The first of next year's small grain crops will be seeded by Virginia farmers during the next few weeks.

W. W. Lewis, agronomist at V. P. I., says winter oats are the first of the small grains to be planted. Most of them will be seeded by October 15. Winter oats should be seeded about four weeks before the usual wheat seeding date.

Farmers in Piedmont Virginia and west of the Blue Ridge should have their oats seeded by October 1. However, in eastern Virginia, they should be seeded by October 15.

Generally, the best time to plant barley is two weeks before wheat seeding time. For Piedmont and west of the Blue Ridge, that means usually no later than October 1. In eastern Virginia, barley seeding dates are October 10 to October 15.

Seeding dates for wheat. Dates west of the Blue Ridge: October 1 to 25. . . . eastern Virginia, October 1 to November 15.

The National flower of the States is the goldenrod.

Skip Makes a Slip

Miss Gilbert, the teacher, was telling me how Skip Lawson almost went to sleep in her physics class.

She noticed him nodding and since they were discussing electricity—said in a loud voice: "Now maybe MR. LAWSON will explain what electricity is." Skip started up, looked around wildly, and blurted out, "Gee! I used to know, but I forgot!"

"What a loss to science!" sighs Miss Gilbert. "No one to this day knows what electricity really is, and here we have a genius who could explain it—but forgot!"

From where I sit, I hope this taught Skip that you're better off if you admit you don't know all answers. Some grownups haven't learned that yet—like the ones who are always telling other people what's best and what's right and what's wrong. I like a temperate glass of beer, myself, but if you prefer buttermilk I won't argue. I've seen too many "know-it-alls" turn out to be wrong!

GAY LITTLE FLATS FOR THE Young in Heart

Grosgrain ribbon traces the graceful curve cut of this gay little flat pump that's attuned to the young in heart. A smoke button centers a tiny bow at one side. Black nysuede.
