ROADS, RUTS OR RIVULETS

A Local Pastor and a Church Trustee Need not Be Reminded of Bad Roads.

[By Rev. Alford Kelley]

On Sunday last a local minister was to preach down near Occoquan. A church trustee volunteered to transport the parson in an automobile, but hereafter he will let his pastor go by boat, aeroplane or similar sure agency. Unconscious of what awaited them our two innocents started abroad at 1:30 p. m. Manassas streets and Manassas district highways were all quickly passed over in the Ford and a flying run was made over the four miles of graded pike across the run. One half of the time before 3 o'clock was passed and two-thirds of the distance covered. But what about the last third?

Our heroes, or rather victims, could not have taken longer to get to their destination had they walked backwards. But we anticipate. While discussing church affairs, they quickly changed the current of conversation when the automobile suddenly refused to be mobile by auto or any other suggestion or power. What was the trouble?

Prince William thoroughfares are either roads, ruts or rivulets. When these three R's unite they form the fundamentals of an education in statics that resists any dynamics. Dirt road, dangerous rut and deep rivulet had united to form mud that was gluey and fathomless. After fifteen minutes of chugging backward and forward, and climbing of sandy banks, chains were put on the wheels and another start was made that would land the travelers at church just in time.

But the best laid plans of minister and trustee often miscarry. From one slough of despond to another was a matter of only a few moments. The wheels were deep in water and somewhere in the mighty deep one chain had been lost. It was gone, and even Methodist preachers, who are celebrated for getting money out of deep pockets, would have done no better than this preacher of another denomination in his effort to get the lost chain. Gradually, however, the gasoline got in its work, the machine backed, and again along one bank the escape was made. They would now be fifteen minutes late! They would cut it down to ten by haste, so on they sped over what seemed to be soft but shallow earth, when down, down, and down sank the wheels and another stop was made, as short as that of grandfather's clock. Would the sun, like the clock, never go again? We shall see.

Mud, deep and wide and sticky. The more the wheels turned—the deeper the pit they made. One wheel was jacked up but the others jolted down. Poles were used as levers, but the Ford like the flag "was still there." Both men were now diffused with perspiration and mud. Both said "Fudge," but the thing did not budge at such sweet talk. Vinegary words, it was known, were useless when the candy kind failed. Each of our victims pulled "tons" of soil from the wheels with their hands, but of no avail. Wheels turned but the rest of the machine refused to move. Woods, woods everywhere and not a house in sight. But relief must be sought.

At this juncture our dominie friend set out for aid. He walked and jumped and waded. He turned into a byroad and finally found a house. No man at home and no horse. The lady remarked

NATIVE OF MANASSAS

Laurence H. Green, Secretary to Judge Hughes, Born Here.

Laurence H. Green, who is private secretary to Judge Charles E. Hughes, republican candidate for president, is a native of Manassas. It came to pass this way. About 1885, Lieut. Geo. C. Round with his family removed temporarily from Manassas to his "Belle Air" colonial mansion, the home of the Ewells, near Occoquan, while he was restoring this historic home. During about two years absence from the Bennett home near Manassas, Mrs. L. R. Houchens rented it for a summer resort and young Mr. Green was born in the very room occupied by Mr. Round for over a third of a century. Mr. Round informs us that Mr. Green's parents resided in our town at that time for over a year. His recollection is that Mr. Green's father was at that time a foreman in the Government Printing Office, Washington.

ALUMNI BANQUET ENJOYED

Largest Affair of This Kind Ever Held by Local High School—Fifty People Present.

The alumni of Manassas Institute and Manassas Agricultural High School gathered at the New Prince William Hotel last Saturday evening to take part in the largest alumni banquet ever held in Manassas. Fifty people, most of whom were alumni, including the thirteen members of the class of 1916, partook of the delicious food provided by the hotel management. W. M. Johnson, president of the alumni association, presided as toastmaster. He called upon several for toasts and the responses were both brilliant and varied. The singing of two or three songs added much to the joyousness of the occasion.

The hotel dining room was prettily decorated in the school colors, orange and gold. A pansy bouquet was at each plate and the place cards were hand decorated. The menu was excellent and the manner of serving the different courses reflected much credit upon Manassas' fine hotel. Mr. R. E. Mims, manager of the New Prince William, went to considerable trouble and expense in looking after even the smallest details. To carry out the color scheme, each brick of vanilla ice cream had in its center a heart of orange sherbet.

After the banquet proper responses to toasts were given by Misses Eugenia Osbourn, Lulu Metz, Elizabeth Johnson, and Edith Haydon and Earl Merrill, Gordon Lightner, Rowell Round, Richard and Percy Haydon and Clarke Johnson.

MRS. MARY LOWE DEAD

Wife of Benjamin Lowe, of Independent Hill, Succumbed Yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Lowe, wife of Benjamin Lowe, of Independent Hill, died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of about ten days. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Bell Haven Baptist Church, Rev. R. P. Rixey, of Fredericksburg, officiating.

Mrs. Lowe, who was 41 years old, was before her marriage a Miss Mary Lowe. She was a member of the Bell Haven Baptist Church. Surviving the deceased besides her husband are five children, Minnie, Elmer, Bennie, Edith and Harold; three brothers, S. R., of near Independent Hill; William, of Washington, and Willis E., of Shelby, N. C., and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Holmes, of Kopp.

THIRTEEN PRESENTED DIPLOMAS

Commencement of Manassas High School Held Last Friday Evening—Address by Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest—Talk by County Clerk Tyler—Other Features.

Despite the stormy weather of last Friday evening the commencement exercises of Manassas Agricultural High School were well attended. Many interesting numbers were given, chief among which were the awarding of diplomas to the thirteen graduates of the high school, the presentation of certificates to several students in the business course, the awarding of prizes in oratory and English and the presentation of athletic monograms. The address of the evening was delivered by Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest, of department of education, University of Virginia. Lieut. Geo. C. Round was presented a bronze loving cup, the gift of the alumni of the school and a few other friends. The reading of papers by three graduates and a talk by County Clerk Geo. G. Tyler on "The Normal Course" were also

DR. HALL-QUEST'S ADDRESS

Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest's address was greatly enjoyed. He did not take any special subject, but in a genial, matter of fact way treated of many vital points connected with present day education.

THREE GOOD PAPERS

The papers of Miss Virginia Walker, Alfred Prescott and Clarke Johnson were listened to with close attention. Each of these essays were of very high order. "American Ideals," the paper of Alfred Prescott, deserves especial mention. The fine quality of this paper was the result of much reading and preparation, coupled with a decided literary talent. Miss Walker's subject was "Shakespeare's Ideal of Girlhood," and Clarke Johnson treated "Opportunities for the Agricultural Graduate." This latter essay will be published in our next issue.

TYLER ON "NORMAL COURSE"

Mr. Tyler, who as superintendent of schools for Prince William several years labored untiringly for the advancement of educational interests in this county, gave a very fine talk on the normal work. He said that the people had hardly realized or waked up to the value of the normal course of the Manassas High School and the excellence

TEMPLE SCHOOL OF MUSIC READY FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Annual Recitals and Commencement of Miss Hopkins' Music School June 24-30.

The closing recitals and commencement of the Temple School of Music will begin tomorrow evening to continue through Friday evening of next week. Five distinct recitals will be followed by the commencement exercises on next Friday evening, when Rev. Robb White, Jr., rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Haymarket, will deliver the address to the students. The presentation of certificates and prizes will be made next Friday evening also. All the events will take place in Conner's Opera house.

The program for commencement has been announced as follows:

Tomorrow at 8:30 p. m.—Piano recital by Miss Mary Elizabeth Pope.
Monday at 8:30 p. m.—Recital by Miss Louise Virginia Maloney, soprano.
Tuesday at 8 p. m.—Students' recital, by pupils of Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins, Miss Francis Elizabeth Spies, and Miss Edna Porter Davis.
Wednesday at 8 p. m.—Piano recital by Miss Mary Kathleen Spies.
Thursday at 8 p. m.—Recital by children's eight singing class, assisted by voice and piano students.
Friday at 8 p. m.—Commencement exercises.

of its work. He spoke of the success that the graduates of this course had met with in their work throughout the county, that it was not so much that they taught so many new things as that they taught the old ones in such a successful way. He spoke of the many lines of community service carried on by Manassas High School and of the spirit of social service that was one of its dominant characteristics; and that this spirit of social helpfulness, of service to the community was what especially marked the teachers who had gone out from its courses. Miss Mildred Harrell, of Manassas, teacher at Bacon Race School the past session, was especially complimented by Mr. Tyler for her fine work along these lines.

DR. HALL-QUEST'S ADDRESS

Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest's address was greatly enjoyed. He did not take any special subject, but in a genial, matter of fact way treated of many vital points connected with present day education. Dr. Hall-Quest soon proved his ability as a speaker and the ease with which he delivered the address was noticed by all. He said that preparation for life must of necessity be thorough, long and broad, and each of these points were well illustrated. Another thing he placed himself on record as advocating was the learning of homekeeping by girls and homemaking by boys. According to Dr. Hall-Quest there is a very distinct need for the introduction of courses in these two subjects in the high school curriculum.

PRESENTATIONS AND AWARDS

Wheatley M. Johnson, president of the alumni association of Manassas Institute and Manassas Agricultural High School, in well-chosen words made the presentation of the alumni loving cup to Lieut. Geo. C. Round, "father of our county school system." Lieut. Round, to whom the presentation came as a complete surprise, made a short but appropriate response.

READY FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Twenty-Three Graduates of Manassas Graded School Presented Certificates.

The postponed commencement exercises of Manassas Graded School were held Monday evening in Eastern College auditorium before a large audience. The program as published in last week's JOURNAL was given with one or two additions. The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. T. D. D. Clark, and County Clerk Geo. G. Tyler presented the certificates to the twenty-three graduates.

One of the most striking features of the program was a rose drill by the eighth grade girls. This number was very highly complimented, as was the singing by the older boys of the school. Rev. T. D. D. Clark concluded his address by singing with the audience "Way Down Upon the Swanee River." Mr. Tyler near the end of the program presented certificates of graduation to Lilla Ashby, Bonham Ayres, Lester Cather, Marion Clark, Sarah Clark, Warren Coleman, Rhoda Compton, Ruth Conner, Elizabeth Covington, Claude Hixson, Jones Jasper, Gladys Johnson, Carrie Kooz, Ralph Larsen, Lanier Moran, Richard Morris, Roy Rexrode, Fred Shenk, Kathleen Spies, Charles Trimmer, Leonard Utterback, Leon Waters and Lillian Wheeler.

DECLINES TO ACT

Judge Thornton Deems It Improper to Act in Case of W. W. Garrison.

The following court order was signed by Judge J. B. T. Thornton Wednesday:

In the matter of the petition of C. J. Meetez et als for the suspension of sentence in the case of W. W. Garrison, who at the April term, 1916, of this court was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary of this state for the term of one year for uttering a forged writing:

The judge of this court has declared of record that he was so situated as to render it improper, in his opinion, to preside at the trial of this case, and having thus expressed himself, feels that it would be highly improper now for him to act on the said petition.

The cases of Commonwealth vs. W. W. Garrison was on Monday, June 5, continued until Monday, June 23rd, when Judge Theo. W. Harrison, of Winchester, will preside.

DIXIE TAKES THE LEAD

Local Motion Picture House to Show "Battle Cry of Peace" Next Week.

Monday and Tuesday you are going to have an opportunity to see one of the greatest pictures ever thrown on the screen, and at a very reasonable price. It was only a few months ago that "The Battle Cry of Peace" was shown in Washington, and many from a distance went there to see it. They paid at least as much as you will have to pay here, many of the seats were much higher priced. Well, all it will cost you to see this wonderful picture at any of the three shows at the Dixie Theatre next Monday and Tuesday will be 25 cents.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is both entertaining and educational. Great armies fight before your eyes and famous men of the past come before you in striking postures. After you see this picture you will be able to decide what all this "preparedness" talk is about. The chances are that right now you have more or less vague notions of just what this much discussed word really means as applied to the present condition and needs of our country. With the United States on the verge of a war with Mexico you will find an added attraction in this great military dramatization. The management of the Dixie is to be congratulated upon offering this great picture to its discriminating patrons.

HEAR MRS. HARRISON MONDAY

Mrs. Mitchell Harrison, of the Greenwich neighborhood, will address the ladies of Manassas and vicinity Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Spies. The purpose of Mrs. Harrison's visit is to organize a local sewing circle to sew for soldiers in Europe. The material is furnished by those who are charitably inclined and furnished to members of the circle. Mrs. Harrison comes to Manassas at the instance of the W. C. T. U., but all ladies of the town are invited to hear the talk Monday afternoon and to learn what is planned to be done.

Services at Manassas Presbyterian Church, Rev. Alford Kelley, pastor, for the coming week will be as follows: Sunday—Sunday school at 10 a. m.; subject: "Review—The Philippian Christians." C. E. meeting at 7:15 p. m.; subject: "Purpose of Our Life on Earth." Children's day service at 8 p. m. Wednesday—Prayer meeting at 8 p. m.; subject: "Cleaving Unto the Lord." A welcome to all visitors.

ST. EDITH FINALS OVER

Last Closing Exercises of Catholic School Tuesday—Promotions and Honors.

The twenty-second annual commencement exercises of St. Edith Academy, Bristow, came to a close Tuesday. The events of commencement week included High Mass Sunday at St. Joseph's Church, sacrament at St. Edith Chapel; cards, music, and dancing Monday at St. Edith auditorium, banquet at St. Anne's Guest House; several business meetings and entertainments given by the young women of the academy. Mass for the deceased alumnae and mass for the living alumnae were said Monday and Tuesday, respectively.

Those receiving certificates of graduation from the 8th grade were Misses Mary Huleher, Jean Ackiss and Irene Lane. The class rings, offered by W. A. Johnston, of Washington, D. C., to high school students were won by Miss Miriam Rock, first year; Miss Helen Long, second year; and Miss Veronica McGuire, third year.

Certificates of promotion in music were awarded to Miss Bernice Dixon, Dorothy Koehler, Christine Scott, Hortense Stefa, Julia Johnston, Carmen Arnol, Grace Bliley, Harland Johnson and Helen Long. Other honors were awarded as follows:

Premiums—Miss Jean Scott, third grade; Martha Sherman, fourth grade; Jean Ackiss, fifth grade.

Gold honors—Misses Frances Sherman, for special progress; Mary Reid, sixth grade; Miriam Rock, seventh grade; Miss Mary Pamphrey, eighth grade.

Class premiums—Misses Pauline Shinn, first grade; May Judson, Virginia Brightwell and Louise Lane, second grade; Margaret Lane, third grade; Dorothy Koehler and Margaret Baird, fourth grade.

Silver honor—Miss Martha Sherman, fifth grade; silver medal, Miss Helen Cook, sixth grade; premium, next in merit, Miss Ruth Dailey; gold honor, Miss Nora Lane, seventh grade.

Silver honor in deportment—Miss Vivian Stein; premium, next in merit, Miss Christine Scott; gold honor, merited by Misses Louise Muller, Nora Lane and Elsie Puller, drawn by Miss Louise Muller; premiums, Misses Nora Lane and Elsie Puller; gold medal, Miss Miriam Rock; premium, next in merit, Miss Frances Sherman.

Christian Doctrine—Gold Honor, Miss Martha Sherman; premium, next in merit, Miss Margaret Lane; gold honor, Miss Nora Lane; premium, next in merit, Miss Margaret Treason; gold medal for religion in high school, Miss Grace Bliley (donor, Rev. Father Julius, O. S. B.).

E. A. BRAND GOING ABROAD

E. A. Brand, assistant chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Washington, a former citizen of Manassas, will go abroad to investigate methods of trade promotion, also to look into the administrative work of the commercial attaches and to make suggestions to them. In addition, he will examine the work of the special agents and consuls. Mr. Brand will be gone seven weeks and will tour the British Isles, Holland, France, Switzerland, Italy and Spain. He leaves New York on the steamship St. Louis tomorrow over the American line.

There will be a meeting of the Manassas fire department this evening at 8 o'clock at the town hall. All members of the organization are urged to attend.

ROADS, RUTS OR RIVULETS

A Local Pastor and a Church Trustee Need not Be Reminded of Bad Roads.

that a traction engine recently got stuck there three or four days. Many men were needed to dig it out and then a lot of machinery was broken in the struggle. Job's comforter. Another house another quarter of a mile. No men at home and the horses in the field, but a shovel was kindly loaned. The return mile or more was made and the shovel put to work. The county authorities would have been welcomed, even though coming to make an arrest for blue law violation, as they would have needed to help dig the offenders out of the mire, and a "necessity and mercy" plea would have remitted the fine.

A man down near the river is said to keep the roads in bad repair and five mules in good condition. Any connection? Well, he is said to get frequent and big pay for helping tourists who travel in automobiles. If such a misanthropist exists in the neighborhood where the Ford found itself stuck he was too far off to offer his services, so our friends shoveled mud, more mud and then some more mud, working harder than they worked all the previous week put together. Just think! Two hours and a half in that spot. It was now nearly 5:30. After a water supply for thirsty men and machine, the church was reached at 5:45 (it was on the way recommended by a native as better for the return to Manassas).

It is said that Mr. Lo, the poor Indian, became imbedded in this road long ago in prehistoric times. A traveler from a South Atlantic state recently said to a resident of this section.

"Virginia was settled 300 years ago yet the roads are just as they were then."

"Yes," was the reply, "but we spend our time in more important things than making good roads."

"If you made good roads," commented the traveler, "you would have more time to give to important things."

During the war Virginia was the last to secede. It was said: "Poor Old Virginia! Poor Old Virginia! See her swinging in behind!"

Virginia will not be "the first nor yet the last by whom the new is tried." She is planning to take her place soon among the "good roads" states, and it will not be long before such an incident as recorded in this article will be read with historic interest and thankfulness that it can not be repeated.

OLDEST LIVING TREE

Towering, a giant among giants, the oldest living thing that connects the present with the dim past, majestic in its mien, its dignity and its world-old experience, the "General Sherman Tree" is patriarch of the Sequoia National Park of California. It was already 2,000 years old when Christ was born. In the age when the known world was rocking in the throes of the Trojan wars and the time that history tells us marked the exodus of the Hebrews from Egypt, this greatest of sequoia was a flourishing sapling of some 20 or 30 feet in height, and truly under the especial care of the Creator, who held it safe from the lightnings of His wrath as He did from the attacks of earthly enemies.

The "General Sherman" was discovered in 1879 by James Wolverton, a hunter, and named by him in honor of Gen. William T. Sherman. It towers 279.9 feet into the sky; its base circumference is 102.8 feet; its greatest diameter 36.2 feet, and it has developed a diameter of 17.7 feet at a point 100 feet above the ground.—Exchange.

TAXPAYERS NOTE

The following letter to W. N. Lipscomb, examiner of records for the 16th judicial circuit, has been handed to us for publication:

Commonwealth of Virginia State Tax Board Richmond, May 24, 1916.

Hon. W. N. Lipscomb, Examiner of Records, 16th Judicial Circuit, Manassas, Va.

Dear Sir:—Hon. C. Lee Moore, Auditor of Public Accounts, has prepared and is sending to you, forms required by Sec. 508 of the Code as amended by Acts 1916, Ch. 497, p. 826, upon which taxpayers may report and list their omitted personal property, money or income, for the years 1903-1915 inclusive. It is provided by said section that if the taxpayer shall voluntarily report such omitted intangible personal property, money or income, before August 1, 1916, and such report is found correct and the tax thereon paid before November 1, 1916, then such taxes shall not be subject to interest and penalties.

It is very important, therefore, that taxpayers who may be subject to taxes on omitted intangible personal property, money or income, shall be informed of these terms of the statute and be given an opportunity to make such report before August 1, 1916, and to pay the tax thereon before November 1, 1916.

I would advise you, therefore, to use every effort to bring this information to the taxpayers, and especially to ask the local papers in your circuit to give as much publicity as possible to the subject of this letter. I am sure you will find that the papers are very willing and anxious to cooperate with you in bringing the terms of the law to the knowledge of the people.

Yours very truly, C. B. GARNETT, Executive Assistant.

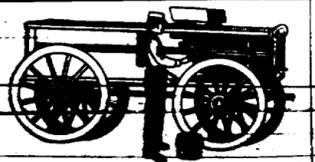

This report must be made direct to the Examiner of Records, who will furnish blanks for same. These blanks can also be gotten from the Clerk's Office of each county and city in my circuit. W. N. LIPSCOMB, Examiner of Records.

LESSON TAUGHT BY HOPEWELL FIRE

Applies to People in Everyday Life—Greatest Lesson Of All.

The Hopewell fire altho a most unfortunate affair, is a lesson to every man and woman in this country. San Francisco was a poor town before the fire compared to what it is now. Galveston has improved greatly since the flood and so will a greater and better Hopewell arise out of the ruins of the recent fire. When people fail to heed the warnings of nature some sickness is bound to break out. Taniac will restore them. One of the Norfolk men to benefit by the use of Taniac is J. D. Mitchell who said, "I was constantly drowsy and very nervous and had lost my appetite and energy. I could not get enough sleep and did not feel like working. Friends advised me to try Taniac and I did so. Now I sleep fine and am not at all drowsy. I have a very good appetite and what I eat does not hurt me. My nerves are alright and my energy has returned two fold."

With returning of health, energy and ambition is renewed with the result that wealth and fortune are your lot. The officials of Hopewell will profit by the experience of Frisco and Galveston. So should you profit by the experience of people who have used Taniac. Go today to Dowell's Pharmacy, Manassas, Va., and get a bottle. $1 per bottle. Adv.

A coat now and then of DAVIS' OLD COLONY WAGON PAINT preserves your wagons and farm implements and makes them look like new.

MANASSAS, VA., FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1916.

THE COMING HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN

Twenty-three graduates of Manassas Graded School now await the ringing of the September school bell before they start upon that rocky road which after four years of toil leads to a much coveted diploma. Take courage, boys and girls, faithful and conscientious work every day during the four years to come will give you the privilege of sitting on the platform and receiving flowers. But Miss Eugenia says you will have to work before this happens.

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

President Wilson last week signed the act that incorporated the Boy Scouts of America, thereby insuring that most useful organization against hurtful exploitation and imitation. In no way will the act of incorporation affect the present standing or policy of the Boy Scouts movement; it will add only a justly due protection. The Boy Scouts have always stood high. They have made themselves valuable in every community where the order has become established, and this recognition of their good services by the President comes as a well-merited recognition. The local troop can well feel proud to be affiliated with a national organization of such high standing.

THE PROPOSED SEWING CIRCLE

Does your charity include any contributions or work for the unfortunate people of war-stricken Europe? Are you doing anything to help the ill-clad soldiers, who day after day, month after month, live in subterranean chambers and trenches where you would not want to keep a dog? If you are a woman and wish to help, even though you have no money to contribute, an opportunity for service is now afforded you. Next Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Spies, Mrs. Mitchell Harrison will endeavor to organize a local sewing circle. During the past few months Mrs. Harrison has organized several such circles in this and adjoining counties, and in nearly every instance good work has been done. Members of the sewing circle will not be expected to furnish the material, unless they desire to do so. So what is there to keep you from joining? We wish for Mrs. Harrison great success in her endeavor to get Manassas women interested in this noble work.

HOW TO GET CLEAN STORES

Did you ever experience that pleasing sensation which comes over one when he enters a clean grocery store or meat shop? It's a sensation that you do not get when you enter a great many places where food is placed on sale. Many and many a time you have wondered why some grocery men and meat men are so short-sighted as to allow dust and cobwebs to collect and to make only a half-hearted effort to keep out the flies. Doubtless the average dealer in food has had his negligence brought to his attention, but with what result? With the result that little or no change has been made. Well, we believe that Manassas can have cleaner stores if the Manassas Civic League will adopt some such plan as the following:

Let the league appoint a special store-inspecting committee (consisting of three ladies who are thoroughly interested in such work and who are willing to give their services to the betterment of local store conditions) to examine all places where food is placed on sale. Where changes are needed let the league secretary notify the business houses in writing, and, if these changes are not made, let the secretary give notification of the matter to the town authorities. In the event the town authorities do not take action let the secretary call upon the State Board of Health for assistance in bringing about these changes. Here is a plan we deem worthy of a trial.

Now none of us ever grows too old to lose interest in working for a prize. Hence, we believe that it would be a good idea for the league to give a card of merit to every store that complied with a certain standard of sanitation to be determined upon, the card to be the property of the store only so long as the conditions on which the award was made remain in practice. Such a card would serve as a good advertisement, and, in striving to gain the endorsement of the civic league, the stores of Manassas would become cleaner. In this matter the Manassas Civic League can render valuable service to the citizens of the town and surrounding country.

AN ECHO FROM THE ALUMNI BANQUET

The banquet of the alumni of Manassas Institute and Manassas High School held last Saturday evening at the New Prince William was the largest affair of its kind ever held in Manassas. Fifty covers were laid and the repast was all that could be desired. But all the good things of the banquet were not listed on the menu. When toasts were called for many excellent responses were forthcoming. One in particular we think worthy of special consideration by all patrons and students of the local high school.

Miss Eugenia H. Osbourn, principal of Manassas High School, cited what she sees to be one of the chief duties of the class of 1916. She pleaded that the thirteen members just graduated take upon themselves the task of persuading the present undergraduates of the high school to remain in high school until they complete their courses. This should not be a difficult task for the class, and yet how much it would mean if every boy and girl entering the high school would work faithfully for four years! In a few cases it may be necessary that a student withdraw from the course before completing it, but seldom do conditions demand a withdrawal. It must not be forgotten that the boy who leaves the high school for the farm or shop is not only recreant in his duty toward himself but also toward his county and state. We trust the members of the class of 1916 will show their appreciation of what Miss Osbourn and the other high school teachers have done for them by carrying out this admirable suggestion.

METHOD IN OUR MADNESS

What's the matter with THE JOURNAL? Why didn't I get my JOURNAL yesterday evening? These were questions fired at us from various angles last Saturday morning; and all because our last issue was not delivered to town subscribers until Saturday morning. Doubtless many of our county subscribers who are in the habit of getting THE JOURNAL Friday afternoon were also set to wondering why the paper was delayed until Saturday morning. Well, here's the explanation.

Over two weeks ago we learned that the alumni of Manassas Institute and Manassas Agricultural High School were going to present Lieut. Geo. C. Round with a loving cup. We knew the presentation was going to be made last Friday evening and we were not content to let this item go by unmentioned. Still, the whole matter was a profound secret and it wouldn't do for us to "let the cat out of the bag." So we decided to hold up the Manassas papers until Saturday morning and to mail the others on Friday afternoon as usual. But things went wrong. Friday morning a big batch of news came in, this made us late in going to press. Once we got to press, however, everything was not to be smooth sailing. To make matters worse, we had two or three minor breakdowns, with the result that none of our readers was reached until Saturday.

We agree with you that the "up-to-the-minute" issue of last week was bought at the price of inconvenience to many of our readers, but we believe that the extra news it contained more than justified its lateness. Somehow, we feel as though you really do appreciate THE JOURNAL when you appear to be so put out on account of its not coming out on time. Now didn't we do right by holding back those papers last Friday?

WITH THE EDITOR

Under this heading each week we will treat of matters related directly to The Journal. We trust you will feel free to send articles clearly and thereby gain a more just and better knowledge and a better appreciation of what we are doing to make our paper the ideal paper of the home.

DEEDS OF TRANSFER

In addition to the circuit court proceedings and reports of the meetings of the board of supervisors, there is another item of county interest that we publish each week. Since January 1st of this year we have been giving regularly an account of the transfer of town and county real property, as entered upon the fee book in the county clerk's office. Here again we aim to be absolutely accurate. You will note that we give the names of the parties in the deal, the property transferred (just as on the fee book) and the consideration. When you see an item like this, "500 acres—consideration $10," do not jump to the conclusion that we erred in the consideration. In many a case the consideration is given at one figure while in reality it is another. We regret that this is so, for it not only lowers the news value of the transfer but also causes a false entry to be made upon the record in the clerk's office. The news value in cases where entry is not made until months after the sale is not great, still we believe that it is news to many. After nearly six months, during which time we have given "Deeds of Transfer," we feel confident that this feature is of enough interest to our readers to justify its continuance.

Metz, Miss Ruth Smith and Alfred Prescott left this week for Charlottesville where they will attend the University of Virginia Summer School; Miss Grace Moran left Sunday for Farmville Normal where she will act as book demonstrator, and Miss Sara Donohoe has enrolled as a student at the Harrisonburg Normal.

-The last meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers' Club, held on June 10th at the home of Mrs. Thos. H. Lion, was a very enjoyable occasion. The subject of the day was "Roses," which was strikingly illustrated by three members costumed to represent different varieties of this beautiful flower. A bunch of roses was given each guest as a souvenir of the afternoon.

-The marriage of Miss Mary Emma Haight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haight, of Fairfax C. H., to John Alden Millan took place at the bride's home Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. William A. Henry, of Manassas, a cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. A reception followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Millan left for their wedding trip to Old Point Comfort. Mrs. Millan, it will be remembered, was several years ago a student of Manassas high school for one session.

-The calling out of a large portion of the National Guard this week in order to cope with the turbulent conditions on the border between this country and Mexico has created a great deal of excitement in Virginia and the District of Columbia. The Alexandria Light Infantry, in an endeavor to recruit its company to full strength, sent out corporals to Manassas, Fairfax C. H. and Herndon this week. Corporal Raphael Birrell, who spent Wednesday in Manassas, was unable to induce any local young men to enlist.

-Judge Thornton has entered a decree in Fairfax circuit court sustaining the segregation ordinance of the town of Falls Church, under which the white and colored residents will be confined within boundaries fixed by the town council, under the law providing for segregation. Judge Thornton made a slight change in boundaries so as to include four colored families who would have been compelled to move under the ordinance as passed by the council. With this exception he upheld the ordinance. The case was heard about two months ago, William M. Ellison appearing for Falls Church and Walter T. Oliver, of Fairfax, for the colored contestants.

-Dr. Wayland F. Dunaway, one of the oldest Baptist ministers of Virginia, was taken ill Tuesday afternoon while conducting a funeral service at the Baptist Church at Kilmarnock, Lancaster county, and retired to the hotel, where he died in a few hours. Dr. Dunaway, who was a native of Lancaster county, entered the Baptist ministry soon after the Civil War and served as a pastor of churches in Lancaster county and Middleburg, Loudoun county. Five years ago, when he reached his seventieth year, he retired from the active ministry. Dr. Dunaway is survived by his widow and several children. He was known to many of the Baptists of this vicinity.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that? Come up with a smiling face. It's nothing against you to fall down. But to stay there, that's disgrace.

TOOTHACHE DISHER

Eat onions in May, and all the year after physicians may play.

Creamed Onions With Parsley.—Cook peeled onions in boiling, salted water until tender. For six onions melt three tablespoonsful of butter, add three tablespoonsful of flour, a half teaspoonful of salt and paprika; stir until well blended, then add a cupful of rich milk and half a cupful of the water in which the onions were boiled; cook until smooth and pour over the onions; sprinkle generously with finely-minced parsley just before serving.

Chestnuts With Bermuda Onions.—Select small, even-sized onions, and parboil for 15 minutes; drain and set in a buttered casserole. For six onions take a cupful of tomato puree, chili pepper, cut in shreds, four sprigs of parsley, a teaspoonful of salt and boiling water or broth to just cover the onions; let cook an hour, then add a cupful of sliced chestnuts and cook another hour. Serve when both chestnuts and onions are tender. Thicken the sauce with butter and flour before serving.

Cheese and Onion Sandwiches.—Cream or cottage cheese mixed with seasonings of salt, red pepper, and finely minced onion or chives spread on buttered white bread.

Adelaide Canapes.—Have ready rounds of bread fried in butter, two for each service. Mix a teaspoonful of curry to a paste with four tablespoonfuls of warm water, and let it heat to the boiling point, then add two-thirds of a cupful of cooked chicken and one-third of a cupful of cooked ham. Spread the mixture on the slices and place in sandwiches. On top of each place a ball of parmesan cheese which has been mixed with butter. Place in the oven to get hot. Serve at once.

Shred bacon in fine strips and brown, then add a can of green string beans, turned into the hot bacon, heated and seasoned with a little salt, pepper and onion juice, with a very little vinegar, makes a most tasty dish.

BAPTIST ENCAMPMENT

Ninth Season to Open at Virginia Beach July 4—Closes July 13.

(Special Bulletin)

The ninth season of the Virginia Baptist Summer Encampment will be opened at Virginia Beach July 4th to continue through July 13th. The program is complete in every detail and contains the names of many men and women of national reputation in their departments.

Independence Day will be observed with two patriotic orations, one by Hon. Champ Clark, speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives; the second by Rev. Henry W. Battle, D. D., of Charlottesville, Va.

A special feature of the program will be the lecture of Rev. Chas. R. Morris, D. D., the eloquent negro preacher of Norfolk, on "Progress of the Negro Race." The address will be humorous and informing.

Clarence Poe, the brilliant editor of the Progressive Farmer, published at Raleigh, N. C., will lecture twice on "Problems of the Rural Church."

Many other interesting features are included in the program, among them the Organized Class

Convention, the B. Y. P. U. Convention, the Woman's Missionary Union Conference, the Laymen's Missionary Conference.

The official souvenir program may be secured by a post card request to the General Secretary, Rev. Jos. T. Watts, Richmond, Va.

THE OTHER FELLOW

The other fellow ought to do the things I leave undone; I like to hand him precepts true, and counsel by the ton. The other fellow'd find it wise to lead the simple life, to rigidly economize, assisted by his wife. While I blow in the good long green for diamond-studded lyres, for jugs of sparkling gasoline and costly rubber tires. The other fellow ought to buy the cheaper cuts of meat, and feed his children prunes while I the juicy sirloin eat. The other fellow ought to keep within his modest means, and he can make his living cheap by raising spuds and beans. The other fellow ought to sweat and struggle for each dime, while I go blithely into debt and have a bully time. The other fellow ought to know that rainy days will come, and he, to sidestep grief and woe, should save an ample sum. While I blow all my coin away, much faster than it's earned, and say about the rainy day, "The rainy day be darned."

WALT MASON.

Your Wife Should

have a bank account and pay her bills by check. It's the modern, business-like, economical way. It tends toward careful management, gives a better idea of the relation of income to outgo, provides a receipt for each payment, as well as a record of date, amount, etc. And it often leads to the creation of a substantial reserve fund with which to realize a fond ambition or meet an emergency. The lady of the house is invited to call and learn how easily she may open an account in this strong bank, and the conveniences which we place at her command absolutely without charge.

Hon. C. J. Meetze presented the business certificates. Mr. Meetze took the opportunity to tell something about the business course. He stated that it had been in operation only one year, yet so much effort had already been made to bring the work up to the best accepted standards that the course would soon be on a par with that of the best city business colleges.

Rev. Alford Kelley presented the prize offered by him for the best oration. This was won by Miss Sallie Norvell Larkin, of the third year class. He also presented the second oratorical prize, which was won by Miss Mattie Athey, of the second year class. This latter prize was the gift of Prof. B. T. H. Hodge.

The awarding of the Fannie Osborn Metz English prizes fell to the lot of Mr. Tyler. Two volumes were presented to Burr Button, of Farmingdale, N. Y., a member of the graduating class, for the best paper on some original theme. Miss Nancy Green of Paris, Fauquier county, was presented with two volumes for the best paper of a reproductive character.

The prize for German pronunciation was awarded to Preston Moran.

Athletic monograms were awarded by Wheatley M. Johnson, high school athletic director, as follows:

Girls' Basketball—Miss Eleanor Jones, captain; Misses Louise Walker, Hilda Hottel, Emily Round, Mildred Lawler, Lucy Haydon and Elizabeth Buck.

Boys' Basketball—Carter Green, captain; Maurice Harrell, Alfred Prescott, Avery Watson, Clarence Meetze, Claude Griggs and Clarke Johnson.

Track—Clyde Simmons, captain; Ollie Lynch, Carter Green, Alfred Prescott, Maurice Harrell and Burr Button.

In awarding the diplomas to the thirteen graduates, whose names were given in our last issue, Lieut. Geo. C. Round called out the name of Miss Virginia Walker first, saying that Miss Walker, while at the end of the list alphabetically, stood at the head of the list for the best work done throughout the four years.

The University of Virginia scholarship, which carries with it free tuition for the first year work in the academic department, was awarded to Clyde Simmons.

CARLIN AGAIN CHOSEN

Popular Representative, Having No Opposition, Is Declared Nominee.

Alexandria, Va., June 15.—The Eighth District Congressional Committee met in the office of Gardner L. Boothe in the Alexandria National Bank Building this afternoon for the purpose of making arrangements for a primary for a member of congress from the eighth district to be held on August first, provided there was any opposition to Hon. Charles C. Carlin, who is now filling his fifth term as a member of the House of Representatives.

Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper, chairman of the committee, called the meeting to order. There were present R. C. L. Moncure, of Stafford; T. A. Williams, of Fairfax; Gardner L. Boothe, of this city, and Mr. Green.

On motion of Gardner L. Boothe, of Alexandria, Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper, and R. A. McIntyre, of Fauquier, were elected chairman and secretary, respectively.

There was no advice to the committee of any opposition to Mr. Carlin, and he was unanimously declared to be the nominee. This practically amounts to Mr. Carlin's election, as the republican nominee, John L. Crupper, of Alexandria county, who will oppose Mr. Carlin in the general election to be held in November, will have difficulty in holding together the normal republican vote, which is almost of a negligible quantity in this district. The Bill Moozers may have a candidate in the field, as well as the Socialists, but Mr. Carlin is expected to pile up his usual overwhelming majority, which will show the high esteem in which he is held by the residents of the district.

The following resolutions, offered by R. A. McIntyre, of Fauquier, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, held on the first day of May, 1916, in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, for the purpose of naming a day for the holding of a direct primary election in accordance with the law of Virginia, to nominate a candidate for the U. S. House of Representatives from the Eighth Congressional District, Tuesday, August 1, 1916, was fixed as the date upon which said primary election should be held, with the proviso that all parties desiring to enter said primary as candidates for said democratic nomination should, after complying with the provisions of the law of the state of Virginia, on or before the second day of June, 1916, notify in writing the chairman of this committee of said candidacy;

And, as the Hon. Charles Creighton Carlin, of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, is the only person who has complied with the provisions of law and party requirements, the committee, performing its duty, and exercising its powers under the statutes, hereby determines that a primary election for Tuesday, August 1, 1916, is not necessary; therefore, this committee, in the further exercise of the power conferred upon it by law, and this democratic party organization, hereby declares Charles Creighton Carlin, of Alexandria, Virginia, the democratic nominee for the U. S. House of Representatives from the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, to be voted for in the election to be held on the seventh day of November, 1916. Be it further

Resolved, That the Democratic Committee of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, in thus discharging its duty to the party, takes this occasion to express its sense of appreciation of the faithful and highly efficient services that have been heretofore rendered by the Hon. Charles Creighton Carlin as our Representative in the U. S. House of Representatives, and to congratulate the people upon the high position which is now occupied by him among his associates, and express the confident belief that by his future services and career he will amply justify the confidence and trust that has been reposed in him by the people of the eighth congressional district, and we heartily commend him to the people of this district as a public servant who has in every way demonstrated himself to be worthy of their continued suffrage and confidence.

RALEIGH T. GREEN, Chairman.

R. A. McINTYRE, Secretary.

GAME WARDENS TO WORK

Protectors of State Game Will Not Be Allowed to Loaf on Job.

[The News Leader] There will be no "loafing" while on duty as game warden of Virginia, was the statement made Monday by M. D. Hart, chief clerk to John S. Parsons, commissioner of game and fisheries, Richmond. According to Mr. Hart, the office is to be conducted on purely business principles, and any warden who is derelict or negligent in the discharge of his official duties will be dismissed.

At present Mr. Hart is securing all the information possible on the duties and regulations of wardens in other states and similar rules will be adopted in Virginia.

The warden who is employed on a salary basis will be expected to give strict attention to the work of the department. If the warden desires to take a day off and go hunting, for instance, he will have to get permission to do so just as any other state employe.

The new game law became operative Saturday. The appointments of district wardens will be made as rapidly as possible. Some of the wardens will be paid a salary of $50 a month and allowed certain fees for arrests and convictions. Other wardens will be employed on a commission basis, and over these the department will have no occasion to grant a leave of absence. If there is complaint of a warden employed on a commission basis of not attending to his duties, the matter will be investigated and dealt with as conditions justify.

Mr. Hart will give any and all information regarding the new law that may be desired.

Sanitation in Meat and Grocery Stores Essential to Wholesome Food Supply.

(U. S. Department of Agriculture) The food officials of many states are giving attention to the sanitary condition of country and city grocery stores, according to the officials engaged in the enforcement of the federal food and drugs act who recently have investigated the matter. The country store is both a collecting and distributing agency of foods. It sells foods of many kinds to the farmers and at the same time buys from them for shipment to the city butter, eggs, fruits, vegetables, poultry, and other products of the farm. If the shelves and counters are laden with dust, if cobwebs hang in every nook and corner, if flies, bugs, and vermin inhabit the place, the food products are certain to be more or less contaminated and likely to become dangerous to health. The reports from various state officials indicate that many stores have been found in the past to be in such a condition.

A CLEAN STORE PAYS

A clean, light, well-ventilated store attracts customers, and the progressive merchant needs no other incentive to keep his floor, shelves, and counters spotlessly clean, which includes screening from flies and the elimination of all other insects. Some storekeepers seem to require prodding from food-and-health officials to induce them to maintain that degree of cleanliness which will insure that the food they handle will be free from contamination. Some of the states have very effective sanitary laws, which require frequent inspection of all establishments where foodstuffs are put up or kept for sale. Other states depend upon the general provisions of pure-food laws which require that foods shall be free from contamination. A few of the states lack either a law that will reach the unclean store nuisance or means for enforcing the law.

COOPERATE FOR CLEANLINESS

State food and health officials have used various means to control effectively the sanitary condition of places where foodstuffs are sold. One of the most effective means that has been employed is that of securing the cooperation of women's clubs and civic organizations. When a delegation of women customers calls upon a merchant and suggests that he clean up, he is compelled to put his store in good condition and to keep it so. When the groceryman in a town find that a large portion of the housekeepers are buying only from the cleanest stores, there arises a wholesome form of competition. A food inspector can, under even the best conditions, inspect a store but a few times during the year, because of the number he has to visit. The customers come every day, however, and when they act as unofficial sanitary inspectors the merchant with the unclean store can not escape detection and punishment in loss of trade.

"AN APPLE A DAY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY."

The acids of the apple diminish the acidity of the stomach and tend to prevent and cure dyspepsia. They help to drive out the obnoxious matters that cause skin eruptions and thus are one of nature's most glorious complexion remedies. They help the blood to neutralize the deleterious elements that poison the brain and make it sluggish. The amount of phosphorus in the apple is not only great, but it is present in a form immediately available for use by the brain and nerves. Eat a ripe apple every day and you will disarm disease of half its terror.

APPLE AND POTATO GALETTE

5 apples, 1 cupful of sugar, 1/4 lemon juice and grated rind, 2 baking potatoes, 2 eggs, 1 winged salt, 1/2 cupful of unweetened custard, 1/2 cupful of butter, 1/2 cupful of sugar, 1/2 cupful of flour, 1/2 cupful of milk, 1/2 cupful of cream, 1/2 cupful of raisins, 1/2 cupful of currants, 1/2 cupful of almonds, 1/2 cupful of walnuts, 1/2 cupful of hazelnuts, 1/2 cupful of pecan nuts, 1/2 cupful of chestnut nuts, 1/2 cupful of macadamia nuts, 1/2 cupful of pineapples, 1/2 cupful of strawberries, 1/2 cupful of raspberries, 1/2 cupful of blueberries, 1/2 cupful of blackberries, 1/2 cupful of cherries, 1/2 cupful of peaches, 1/2 cupful of plums, 1/2 cupful of apricots, 1/2 cupful of pears, 1/2 cupful of quinces, 1/2 cupful of loquats, 1/2 cupful of figs, 1/2 cupful of dates, 1/2 cupful of figs, 1/2 cupful of dates, 1/2 cupful of figs, 1/2 cupful of dates.

APPLE PIE

4 or 5 tart apples, 1-3 cupful of sugar, 1/2 teaspoonful of salt, 1/2 teaspoonful of butter, 1/2 cupful of lemon juice, few gratings lemon rind. Line pie plate with paste. Pare, core and cut the apples into eighths; put row around plate one-half inch from edge and work toward center until plate is covered; pile on remainder. Mix sugar, nutmeg, salt and lemon juice with grated rind and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet edges of under crust, cover with upper crust and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

PRESERVED APPLES (WHOLE)

Peel and core large, firm apples, place in water as pared. Boil the apple parings for fifteen minutes, allowing one pint of water to one pound of parings. Strain and add three-fourths pound of sugar to each pint of water, as first measured, with enough lemon peel, orange peel or mace to flavor. Boil until clear and pour boiling hot over the apples, which must be drained in which water they stood. Let apples remain in the syrup until perfectly cold. When cold cover closely and simmer over slow fire until they become transparent. Place in jars and seal.

IRISH APPLE PIE

Pare and core apples and cut each apple into four or eight pieces, according to its size. Lay apples in a baking dish. Season with brown sugar and any spice preferred. A little quince marmalade gives a delicious flavor to this pie. Add a little water and cover with puff paste. Bake for one hour.

APPLE MERINGUE PIE

Stew apples and sweeten to taste. Mash smooth and mix with meringue. Fill crusts and bake until just done. Do not put on top crust. Take the whites of three eggs for each pie and whip to a stiff froth. Sweeten with three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar. Flavor with vanilla and beat until it stands alone. Spread it on the pie from one-half to one inch thick. Set pie back into oven until the meringue is well set.

APPLE PUFFETS

3 eggs, salt, 1/2 teaspoonful of baking powder, 1 pint of milk, 1/2 cupful of sugar, 1/2 cupful of flour, 1/2 cupful of butter, 1/2 cupful of raisins, 1/2 cupful of currants, 1/2 cupful of almonds, 1/2 cupful of walnuts, 1/2 cupful of hazelnuts, 1/2 cupful of pecan nuts, 1/2 cupful of chestnut nuts, 1/2 cupful of macadamia nuts, 1/2 cupful of pineapples, 1/2 cupful of strawberries, 1/2 cupful of raspberries, 1/2 cupful of blueberries, 1/2 cupful of blackberries, 1/2 cupful of cherries, 1/2 cupful of peaches, 1/2 cupful of plums, 1/2 cupful of apricots, 1/2 cupful of pears, 1/2 cupful of quinces, 1/2 cupful of loquats, 1/2 cupful of figs, 1/2 cupful of dates, 1/2 cupful of figs, 1/2 cupful of dates.

CHEESE APPLE PIE

Choose a good flavored English or American ripe cheese. It should be somewhat dry. Grate generously over an apple pie and heat in the oven just long enough to make the pie hot and to melt the cheese.

FRIED APPLES

Melt enough butter to cover the bottom of a frying pan or a griddle. Fill the dish with apples, pared and quartered. Sprinkle over them one-half cupful of sugar. When hot place the dish in the oven and cook slowly until tender. Turn out on toast and serve hot.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.

(Anna A. Gordon, President National W. C. T. U. and One of the National Prohibition Amendment Commission.)

In order to win national constitutional prohibition two-thirds of the members of the United States senate and house of representatives must vote in favor of a bill referring the question to the various states for ratification through their legislatures. When 26 of our 48 states through a majority vote of their legislatures ratify the measure thus referred it is adopted and becomes a part of the United States Constitution. Such a prohibitory amendment is surely in harmony with the spirit of the Constitution of the United States, which, as its preamble declares, was established "to promote the general welfare and secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

Nineteen commonwealths have already gained the high, dry ground of statewide prohibition. Six states—Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, California, Idaho and Michigan—voted on the question on November 7, Idaho in the endeavor to change its statutory prohibitory law to constitutional prohibition. The territory of Alaska also closes a prohibition campaign on November 7. If we can win this additional prohibition territory and call a roll of 26 prohibition states we shall be within ten states of our national goal. The fact that more than half the people and more than three-quarters of the area of this country are under prohibitory laws is assurance that we are fast nearing national constitutional prohibition.

All states will benefit by the amendment. All will still have power to go just as far as they desire in prohibiting any phase of the liquor traffic and will have the aid which comes from a national policy. Our greatest difficulty today is the difference in policy between the nation's government and the prohibition states. With a similar prohibition standard in the nation and the states federal and state officers would furnish "a frank and candid co-operation for the general good."

FOR THE SAKE OF BOYS.

Rev. John Empringham, an Episcopal clergyman of New York, became, as he expressed it in an interdenominational meeting of 500 ministers, filled with the thought of "how much power might be added to the anti-liquor forces if the Episcopal church would lend some of its strength," and, realizing that "none of the present antisaloon speakers have the entree to its pulpits," volunteered for the work. He said to his wife: "For the sake of our five boys, I am going to wage war against the liquor business." She replied: "My sister in Canada has sacrificed her two boys in the trenches for England. The foe destroying this country is more dangerous. I am willing to make any sacrifice." "Three of those five boys," said Mr. Empringham, "are preparing for West Point, and if the need ever came, I would be willing to see them give up their lives in defense of this country, but I am not willing to see them go down to the gutter, victims of the saloon."

RUSSIA'S FOUNDATION.

Pierre L. Bark, Russian minister of finance recently declared that Russia's prosperity is rapidly on the increase. "Russia's finances rest upon the most solid foundation in the world," said Mr. Bark. "The economic prosperity of the Russian people is now greater than was ever conceived possible before the beginning of the war. There is nothing illusory or specious about Russia's prosperity. It rests upon the incontrovertible fact of the Russian people's increased earnings and savings. When a year ago the savings banks showed a monthly increase in deposits of 50,000,000 rubles, it was regarded as phenomenal. But that was only the beginning." Savings deposits have increased over 1,000 per cent under prohibition. This greatly changed condition of Russian finances, Minister Bark explains, "is accounted for principally by the growing thrift and economy of the peasants since the enforcement of prohibition."

CURSE OF MISSIONS.

In China the government is careful to label all poisons and it is stated that the liquor shipped from this country is labeled "The Japs Poison." In Japan drunkenness was practically unknown until after the revolution of 1868, and now when a drunken man is seen on the street the natives say, "Here comes a Christian."

THIS IS GINGINATI.

When the National Lumbermen's association had their annual banquet recently in Cincinnati no liquors were served. The menu card pictured three beer steins, and under them were the words, "Nothing Doing!"

GREATEST ENEMY SLAIN.

When the province of Alberta, Canada, went dry, the leaders of the prohibition forces sent the following message to Hon. Lloyd-George: "England's greatest enemy has been slain by the voters of Alberta."

CURSE THOSE ODD JOBS!

"I sometimes feel that I am called upon to do great things," remarked Mr. Dubwaite in the early hours of the morning, as he looked about for a clean collar.

"Indeed," replied Mrs. Dubwaite, in the negligence for which she is locally famous.

"Quite so, my dear." "Well, while you are waiting for a repetition of the call, I wish you would go down to the cellar and demonstrate your versatility and grasp of detail by putting some coal in the furnace."

Doubtful Popularity. Blondine—I wish I knew just how popular Gerty Giddigad is.

Brunetta—She seems to have plenty of callers.

"That's what mystifies me." "Mystifies?"

"Yes; I don't know whether they are gentleman friends or installment agents."

KIND.

"There goes a kind man. The last time I went to him I didn't have a cent, and he gave me all he could."

"What was that?" "Thirty days."

Natural History. A gripe germ's ways are very sad. His intellect's obtuse. He has a disposition bad. And kindness is no use.

But She Roasted Him. Sapleigh—I was aw—weading the othah day about a twibe in Atwicka that aw—eats woted monkeys, doncher know. Beasly dweadful, doncher think, Miss Knox?

Miss Knox—Yes; but why should you care; you are not thinking of going to Africa, are you?

One of Many. Pat—O'm asking yes, Melk, was you liver struck by loightnin'?

Mike—Manny's th' toime, me by.

Pat—Yes don't mane it!

Mike—Sure, an' O' do. Hovest O' been married these fin years, b'gorry?

Her Last Request. Mrs. Newed—Well, if you must go downtown tonight dear, promise me you will get one thing.

Newed—All right, dearest. What do you want me to get?

Mrs. Newed—I want you to get home before ten o'clock.

Cool. "I hope your father doesn't see me kiss you," said the young man.

"Why not?" asked the sweet young thing.

"He might object to you kissing a strange man."

"Well, he never has."

He'd Noticed It, Too. Redd—They say that most of Japan's pearl divers are women who begin to learn the trade at the age of thirteen or fourteen.

Greene—Well, I've noticed it's the girls who begin looking for pearls and diamonds at an early age over here.

EMBARRASSING QUESTIONS.

"I suppose you think once each party many embarrassing questions?"

"Yes, they are just like their mother."

Follow His Example. A prudent man was William Mara, who traveled mostly on his feet. He'd always look for motor cars. Before he'd start across the street.

How They Love Each Other. Miss Fayette—When Jack proposed to me last night he acted like a regular fool.

Miss Blunt—Naturally! He was doing a very foolish thing.

A Knock. He—Yes, I once thought of going on the stage, but friends dissuaded me.

She—Friends of the stage, I presume.
