

EASTERN COLLEGE NOTES

The football boys were the guests Saturday evening of the student body of Eastern College. On entering the hall a huge banner bearing the inscription, "Eastern Football," greeted the guests. The parlor never was more attractive than then, when pennants and laurel boughs aided in making it so. Interesting entertainment was provided, and refreshments were served in the dining room.

Coach Honaker voiced appreciation on behalf of the team, at the same time introducing the new captain of the football squad, Dr. Moore, who gave a spirited address.

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. organizations of the pleasure on Wednesday evening of hearing Bishop C. J. Kephart, of Kansas City, Mo., who gave an exceedingly interesting lecture. Bishop Kephart is the uncle of Mrs. Herwin U. Roop, Eastern College.

The dramatic club is contemplating a number of out-of-town engagements for the comedy, "Excuse Me," which was presented in the college auditorium Wednesday evening.

The club was organized for the year, Monday evening, and Miss Martin, head of the department of expression, was unanimously elected president.

The annual banquet given President and Mrs. Roop to the faculty and students took place last evening at the college.

The joint meeting of the literary societies was held Friday evening and was very successful. The debate showed preparation and enthusiasm on the part of each participant.

The question was Resolved, that women should have the right of franchise. Mr. Ramsey and Miss Fetzer supported the affirmative in favor of which the judges' decision was rendered. Mr. Polen and Miss Margaret Moser defended the negative. The judges declared Mr. Ramsey the best speaker of the evening.

As a result of a half-day's hunting, college sportsmen entertained at a game dinner, Monday evening. Those present were Miss Slicer, Misses Ferguson, Clark, Gross and Bushong and Mrs. Richwine, Mr. Richwine and Messrs. Polen, Honaker, Hamm, Ramsey, Dolan and Prof. Grell.

Prof. Mosher's economics class has been enjoying a number of lectures by Hon. C. J. Meets and T. E. Didlake on "Money Banking" and "How the State Appropriations Are Made." These talks are very interesting as well as instructive.

Again for $1—While They Last

This Guaranteed Aluminum Cooker

The cost of Aluminum has doubled since we ordered these lifetime Cookers. At present prices, this offer would be impossible. So, in all probability, after our supply is exhausted, it cannot be made again.

Next week the grocers of this city will once more feature this Quaker Cooker offer. And for the last time, we believe.

We have supplied Cookers now to over 1,000,000 homes. We have supplied these guaranteed Aluminum Cookers for $1 to Quaker Oats users. But this offer ends with our present supply, and probably forever. Unless Aluminum drops 50 per cent, we cannot again offer a Cooker like this for $1.

But next week only we make the offer below. You can get this Cooker for $1, by buying two of our cereals which should be cooked in it.

This offer is made to induce better cooking. To bring you Quaker Oats and Pettijohn's cooked in perfect form, with the flavor kept intact. Our reward will come in your doubled delight in these foods.

We ask the trademarks just to show that you use our cereals. Unless you have the right flakes, right cooking does not help much. But, if you use Quaker Oats and Pettijohn's, this cooker is yours for $1. This is for one week only. Get the packages from any grocer named below.

Pure Aluminum
Extra Large and Heavy
Cereal Capacity 2 1/2 Qts.
A Lifetime Utensil

One Week Only—Your Last Chance

Our Offer is This: Send us two trademarks cut from packages of Quaker Oats and one trademark cut from a package of Pettijohn's—the picture of the Quaker on the front of the Quaker Oats package and the picture of the Bear on the front of the Pettijohn's package—or, if you prefer, you may send us five trademarks from Quaker Oats alone. Send us $1 with these trademarks and we will mail the cooker by parcel post. Trademarks must be mailed next week. This offer applies in this vicinity only. Address

Quaker Oats

The Extra-Delicious Vim-Food
Flaked from Queen Oats Only

All the world over, Quaker Oats holds first place among oat foods. Oat lovers of a hundred nations send to us to get it. A billion dishes are consumed each year. Nowhere in the world do connoisseurs find any oat food to compare with it.

The reason is this: Quaker Oats is made from queen grains only—just the big, plump, luscious oats. No puny starved grains are included. A bushel of the choicest oats yields only ten pounds of Quaker.

The result is a flavor which has won the world—a flavor which is matchless. Yet these large and luscious flakes cost you no extra price.

Nature stores in oats a wealth of vitality, which everybody needs. We want you to know this fascinating vim-food, made as we make it and cooked in our way.

Pettijohn's

Rolled Wheat with 25% Bran Flakes
A Modern Bran Dainty

Every doctor advises bran, as essential to right living. It is Nature's laxative. Everybody every day should eat it. It means better health, better spirits, sunnier days. Without it, our diet of fine food forces folks to drugs.

Pettijohn's is made to meet doctors' requirements. The bran is hidden in flavory flakes of wheat. The food is a morning dainty which everybody likes. Yet it contains 25 per cent tender bran.

The bran is in flake form, which makes it doubly efficient. Ground bran will not do.

Try Pettijohn's one week. Note its delightful effects. Never again will you go back to a branless diet.

Then try Pettijohn's Flour. It is 75 per cent fine patent flour mixed with 25 per cent bran flakes. Use it like Graham flour in any recipe.

BY USE OF TANLAC

Numerous Ailments of Norfolk Lady All Fall Before "National Tonic."

Who has not heard of the wonders of Tanlac? Who does not know of the wonders it has done in all parts of the country? Each year brings some new person back to health.

One of these is Mrs. Mary Ferguson, 132 Harvey Street, Norfolk, Va., who said:

"I suffered from stomach troubles, indigestion and felt weak and nervous in general. Gas formed in my stomach after eating and caused me pain in my chest made me so weak that I could hardly get up. I read of the good Tanlac and as I was doing and tried it. Now I am well of indigestion and can do anything I want and have a splendid appetite. I do not suffer with pains in my chest and am much stronger. I am confident that it is a good medicine as I have taken only one bottle and have advised my daughter-in-law to take it and she is getting good results."

Do you seek good health? If you go today to Dowell's Pharmacy, Manassas, Va., and get a bottle of Tanlac and give it a trial.

THANKSGIVING

(Margaret H. Bowen)

Thanksgiving in our American homes is an annual festival instituted to celebrate, not a single event, but to offer gratitude and praise to God, for all the blessings of the closing year. It is to gather up in thought all the manifold blessings of a twelve-month: the bounties of harvest, the increase of commerce, the health, moral and physical, of the nation, in one grand recognition, manifested through divine worship throughout our land.

As now observed, it may be said to be founded upon, or borrowed from the Jewish "Feast of Tabernacles." The Hebrews, under the Mosaic law, celebrated the goodness of God in a harvest festival under branches of trees and tents of palms. They believed, beyond any other people, that the fruits of the land, the bounteous harvests, and all that was needed for comfort and sustenance were gifts of divine beneficence.

There are some national festivals which bear a closer resemblance to this "Feast of Tabernacles" than our own Thanksgiving, which latter often consists of mirthful festivities regardless of the Author of the blessings. Holland holds an annual religious festival in honor of the deliverance of the city of Leyden from the siege of October 3, 1575. The English church holds Thanksgiving service on November 5 in remembrance of the timely discovery of the "Gun Powder Plot."

The German Protestants and Lutherans have the custom of "Harvest Home," with great feasts and rejoicings.

It is claimed by some that this custom introduced here by the Dutch is the foundation or origin of our feast of Thanksgiving. It is, however, historically traced, beyond question, to the earliest settlers of New England. Within a year after the landing of the Pilgrims, 1621, Governor Bradford issued the first proclamation for Thanksgiving. Edward Wilson gives a most beautiful and homelike picture of its first observance. He tells how many turkeys were killed and served, and mentions as guests of special honor Miles Standish (whose courtship by proxy has rendered him immortal), and Massasoit, the white man's Indian friend.

The next Thanksgiving day was in July, 1623. A long and destructive drought had prevailed and the Governor appointed a day of fasting and prayer. During these services soft and welcome showers began to fall, which continued for two weeks. So manifest a blessing was followed by a feast of Thanksgiving and rejoicing. In the Plymouth colony, as well as the Massachusetts Bay colony, days were appointed regularly for thanksgiving. The colony and provinces of New York also observed these feasts and the Dutch and English Governors followed the examples of their predecessors until 1760 and 1775.

During the Revolution Congress annually appointed days of thanksgiving, and upon the return of peace general Thanksgiving was observed throughout the country. In 1789 Washington appointed a day of Thanksgiving for the adoption of the constitution, and in 1795 he issued a call for a National Thanksgiving, on Thursday, February 19. In 1789 the Episcopal church prayer book first recognized the authority of the civil government to appoint such a feast. The custom has gradually spread to each state.

Owing to the climate, etc., the Southern States did not take kindly to this New England festival, but since 1858 the Governor of each state has annually issued proclamations for days of "Thanksgiving." Until our great civil struggle (with the exception of Washington's administration) the day was left to the governor of each state. It was Lincoln's prerogative to fix the last Thursday of November as the day of thanksgiving and prayer, which has been observed since 1863. In the Roman Catholic Church this day received no attention until the plenary council met in Baltimore in 1885. In November 1888, Cardinal Gibbons issued a circular recommending that extra prayers be offered on Thanksgiving day for the authorities of the states and nation.

We are told in God's Holy Word to honor the "powers that be," and our duty consists not only in obeying this command outwardly but upon the altar of our hearts we should burn the incense of true love, worship and thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is the medium through which gratitude is conveyed, and no sentiment sheds sweeter fragrance in the human heart. We are creatures of environment and custom, and often let opportunities for thanksgiving pass, waiting for some great manifestation at an appointed time.

The excellency of this duty of thanksgiving will appear if we consider its antiquity. It existed in Paradise before the tempter spread his fiery trail, laden with consuming hate, when all nature, untainted by sin, was one glad song of thanksgiving and praise. It is prior to the graces of faith and repentance. These are the results of sin, sorrow and suffering. Thanksgiving is a source of divine pleasure and joy. It is also an obligation that arises from our duty to God, for the Bible and its ordinances, for the Gospel and its blessings, for the pardon and hope of eternal life.

Thanksgiving will exist when the sun himself "grows dim with years," and will flourish in eternal youth, when this earth and its teeming millions will be more; when faith, hope and repentance are no longer the song of our burdened souls. It develops the soul and heart as nothing else can. It quiets restlessness, enhances enjoyment, soothes distress, allays anxiety, brightens hope, strengthens endurance and makes us brave soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us lift our hearts in thanksgiving to God for bounteous harvests, the prosperity, peace and happiness of our people, and Let not today's thanksgiving be words, idle, light and vain, but adoration, worship, love—the heart's deep, glad refrain.

Great God! Jehovah! Savior! Lord! Accept our thanks, we pray, for all the joy and happiness of this appointed day.

TRIBUTE TO WILSON

The reelection of the President brought from Alfred G. Gardiner, since 1902 editor of the London News, leading liberal daily, the following tribute to a great American:
We rejoice in the election of the most sagacious statesman American politics has thrown up since Lincoln. . . . It is the one indisputable gleam of light in the dark future that lies before the world. . . . It is to establish a society of nations and to change the whole doctrine in the world.

He cannot eliminate force, but it is in his power and the power of the American nation to make force grind the wheels of peace instead of the wheels of war. This will not be welcomed by the militarists of any country; it will be treated as a mere day dream by those who believe war an indestructible characteristic to human society. But it will have the passionate support of the common people of all lands, and it is the only hope of democracy winning an enduring victory over despotism.

THE CALL FOR LEADERSHIP

Dr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, recently made an address on "The Crusade Against Poverty." The closing lines are given here:
Our generation is fortunate in that all over this and other lands there are men of high faith who have caught this vision, men who have enlisted in the crusade against poverty—a crusade whose success they realize depends both upon (1) increasing human efficiency and (2) eliminating social injustice. And in the faith of a modern poet they cry to all others who would join them:

"Dream the great dream, though you should dream—you only,
And friendless follow in the lofty quest,
Though the dream lead you to a desert lonely,
Or drive you, like the tempest, without rest,
Yet toiling upward to the highest altar,
There lay before the gods your gift supreme—
A human heart whose courage did not falter,
Though distant as Arcturus shone the gleam.
The gleam!—Ah, question not if others see it,
Who nor the yearning nor the passion share;
Grieve not if children of the earth decree it—
The earth, itself—their goddess, only fair!"

A HIP-POCKET ESSAY ON FOOTBALL

Football is four fifteen-minute fights waged by twenty-two husky, raging giants on one lonesome, loose-jointed referee, who usually does what the biggest man on either team says. This game is usually played in the fall, frenzy state, and padded armor that would make the steel-plated Richard Cour de Lion think he was in his pajamas. In it they use an oval-shaped ball about the size of a dozen dark eggs, and pumped as full of wind as Teddy R— on a political rampage.

New Wall Paper

immediately begins to run toward all four points of the compass at the same time. Six hundred and four men from the opposing eleven hit him simultaneously, and the grandstand yells its appreciation as he gracefully plows a six-inch furrow in the frozen ground with his Roman nose. For emergencies there are held on the side lines a batch of substitutes, three doctors, a preacher and two tombstones, and all relatives and friends of the players are allowed on the field after the game to collect the pieces. When the stands begin to bubble over with the efforescence of femininity, and the rooting contingent starts yelling so loud that an Apache Indian chief of the days of '49 would back up into his tepee and dig out both ear drums with his big toe nails, then do the heroes of the mole skin place their faces up against those of their opponents, and jump so hard that the Rock of Gibraltar wouldn't have any more chance than a celluloid rat in the fiery furnace with an asbestos cat after it.

John Paul vs. C. C. Dove and Thos. H. Lion, Trustee. IN CHANCERY

The object of this suit and the attachment sued out therein is to recover of the said C. C. Dove for the said John Paul the sum of $67.00, with interest thereon from January 25, 1915, until paid, and ten per centum cost of collection thereon, and the cost of these proceedings, and to attach the estate of the said C. C. Dove, in the said county of Prince William, especially that certain tract or parcel of land, lying and being situate near Nokesville, on the Nokesville-Greenwich road, in Brentsville District, said county and state, containing one hundred and eleven acres, more or less, and adjoining the lands of Jas. Bailey, F. L. Foeter, Nanie Yankey and others, and being a portion of the land conveyed to said C. C. Dove and Addison Dove by Mary E. Edmonds et al, by deed of October 13, 1910, recorded in clerk's office of said county in D. B. 61, p. 403, and subject the same to the payment of the liens binding thereon, especially the complainant's debt aforesaid, either by renting or selling the same, as to the Court may seem proper, and applying the proceeds therefrom to the satisfaction of said liens, and the said attachment having been returned executed, and it appearing by affidavit duly filed before me that said C. C. Dove is not a resident of the state of Virginia, it is therefore ordered that the said C. C. Dove appear within fifteen days after due publication of this notice, and do what is necessary to protect his interest. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in THE MANASSAS JOURNAL, a newspaper printed and published in said county, and that a copy hereof be posted at the front door of the court house of the aforesaid county on or before the next succeeding rule day after the entering of this order.

A NEW PIG RECORD

Subscriber Asserts His Ability to Raise Hogs at Less than 7 1/2 Cents.

EDITOR THE JOURNAL:—Will you please give space in your highly appreciated paper that I may tell your readers how I can raise hog meat at less than 7 1/2 cents a pound. I have the facts before me and can assure you that I accomplished that feat this year.

On the 29th of November, 1915, I bought 2 small pigs, paying $5 for the pair. I had a worm sty with a good, dry bed; fed them milk and scraps and 2 1/2 cents worth of middlings bought at $1.50 per hundred, but no corn.

On the first of May I found that they had gotten too large for me to keep. On the 6th of May I took them to Manassas and exchanged with Mr. Conner.

He gave 9 cents and charged me the same. Mine weighed 300 pounds and the two I bought of him weighed 147 pounds. I fed them the same, seeding about 1 1/2 acres in 2 pounds rape, one peck corn and the same of oats, turning on the 20th of June and taking off at night.

I judge from tusks and ear marks that the two I bought of Mr. Conner were one or two years old and had been turned in to the forest to "root, pig, or die."

The dairy men around Bristow in June and July stopped shipping milk and I bought milk, (separator), 10 gallons for 25 cents delivered, and I fed them morning, noon and night. On the 20th of October I gave them corn, all they could eat—and killed them on the 17th of November.

The platform scales of Messrs. Carr and Brother placed their weight at 215 and 180 pounds. Counting the difference of what I paid for the two pigs and what Mr. Conner paid me, the two cost me less than 7 1/2 cents per pound. Bristow, Va. T. C. ANDERSON.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Three strong reasons urge you to buy the Ford car: First, because of its record of satisfactory service to more than fifteen hundred thousand owners; Second, because of the reliability of the Company which makes it; Third, because of its large radiator and enclosed fan, streamline hood, crown fenders front and rear, black finish, nickel trimmings, it is most attractive in appearance. To these must be added its wonderful economy in operation and maintenance—about two cents a mile; likewise the fact that by reason of its simplicity in construction anyone can operate and care for it. Nine thousand Ford agents make Ford service as universal as the car. Touring Car $330, Runabout $245, Coupelet $305, Town Car $395, Sedan $445—f. o. b. Detroit. On sale at

OUR COLORED NEIGHBORS

Notes of Manassas Industrial School and Its Community—Football News.

One hears on every hand these days words of praise and sincere admiration for the work being done by our neighbors at the Industrial School, and particularly for the service that the school is striving most intelligently to do for those who live just out side its door. Long ago the white citizens of the community learned to recognize the School as a positive agency for good in its midst; now it is highly gratifying to note that all the colored citizens are becoming more and more to evidence toward their own institution a genuinely cordial friendship and spirit of mutual helpfulness.

On Monday and Saturday afternoons from two o'clock until five free instruction in sewing and dressmaking is offered to mothers and housekeepers. A most helpful feature of this work is that it stresses the renovation of clothing and the making and making-over of children's clothing. The teacher of dressmaking in charge is a Pratt graduate, and is rated as an expert in her line.

On four evenings weekly free instruction in grammar school work may be had in the regular evening classes at the school. This opportunity is open to adults and young people alike.

By far the most interesting and helpful feature of the community work, however, is the kindergarten. Daily, at noon with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, the school's 'bus may be seen going from home to home for the little folks to carry them to school, and again at four o'clock returning them. The enrolment in the kindergarten is forty-two, with an average daily attendance, despite the prevalence of whooping-cough, of twenty-five. The kindergarten itself is modernly equipped in every respect and is in charge of a trained kindergartner. It is doubtful if there is to be found anywhere else in the State a kindergarten for negro children. And this like the sewing and evening classes is absolutely free. All in all, the Industrial School is highly to be congratulated upon these and its other most worthwhile activities. It possesses already the sympathy and good-will and moral support of all good citizens, both white and black.

The Manassas Industrial School Football Eleven closed its season Monday by defeating the strong Warrenton Athletic Club 41 to 0. The team won every one of its six games during the season, and its schedule was considered a difficult one. Only two opposing elevens succeeded in scoring against Coach Pinn's well-trained machine, the Cubs and Dunbar High School, while all the rival teams agree that it has indisputably earned the championship. In the history of the school no team has approached this year's in form or actual ability. The first string men are:

L. E. Turner, Miller; L. T. Frye; L. G. Ashton; C. Lovell; R. G. Johnson; R. T. Cosby; R. E. Butler; Q. B. Gaines (Capt.); L. H. G. Watson; R. H. Elliott; F. B. W. Watson.

The following scores of games show the team's record for the season:

Industrial School	Opponents	Score
35	Cubs	41-0
27	Morgan College	0-0
25	Howard Prep	0-0
6	Armstrong High	0-0
6	Dunbar High	6-0
41	Warrenton A. C.	0-0

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them.

The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.
