Monday, Aug. 25, Special, the Great Nazimova in "EYE FOR EYE"

A tremendous screen triumph exceeding in brilliance, power and beauty the previous successes of this star of stars on screen or stage. This is taken from the famous stage play called "L'Occident" written by a Belgian dramatist.

Nazimova did not like the French title, so she adopted the Biblical words: "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" expresses the idea of the plot.

Music especially arranged for this production.

The admission will be 25c for all.

BAPTISTS MEET AT NORTH FORK

Session of Potomac Association Is Largely Attended—Officers Re-elected.

The Potomac Baptist Association convened in its sixty-fourth session last week at North Fork, Loudoun county. Many visitors were present from Prince William, Stafford, Fauquier, Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudoun.

Dr. G. W. McDowell, of Richmond, addressed the association on the $75,000,000 campaign which the southern Baptists propose to raise in the next five years for religious, educational and philanthropic work. Virginia's portion of this amount is $700,000 and a great effort will be put forth to raise it.

Reports adopted by the association included Foreign Missions, read by Rev. E. B. Jackson, of Alexandria; Home Missions, by Mr. G. L. Hutchison, of Aldie; Colportage, by Judge C. E. Nicol, of Alexandria; Orphanage, by Mr. S. W. Pitts, of Alexandria, and State Missions, by Rev. T. D. D. Clark, of Manassas.

The officers of the association were re-elected as follows: Moderator, Mr. Edward T. Fenwick, of Falls Church; clerk, Mr. James R. Mansfield, of Alexandria; assistant clerk, Mr. G. L. Hutchison, of Aldie; and treasurer, Mr. G. Harris Field, of The Plains.

The next meeting of the association will be held at Mount Holly, Fauquier county.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT CHURCH OF BRETHREN

Rev. P. I. Garber, of Harrisonburg, Preaches Series of Sermons at Bradley.

Rev. P. I. Garber, of Harrisonburg, began an evangelistic campaign Saturday at Bradley Church of the Brethren. The church has not had such a service since the war, and did not necessitate a sermon to empty benches.

Rev. Mr. Garber's first message was "Laborers Together With God." He asked each christian first of all to realize that only through true loyalty, consecration and full surrender is it possible to build God's kingdom in the world, his firm belief being that it is necessary to be in tune with God before it is possible to lift others to a higher plane.

Prayer, Lifting Up, Jesus, A Message of God's Love, Neglecting the Great Salvation and Tower Building are some of the themes which are to be treated next week. The meetings begin each evening with song service at 8:15 and preaching at 8:30. Everybody is invited to attend.

DODGE SEATED FOR SENATE

Nominated to Run Against Oliver by Republicans at Alexandria.

Prof. J. H. Dodge, of Manassas, was unanimously nominated for the state senate at a meeting of the republican committee of the fourteenth senatorial district, which was held at Alexandria Monday afternoon. Prof. Dodge will oppose Mr. Walter Tammill Oliver, who was nominated in the democratic primary of August 5.

"After the meeting Prof. Dodge stated that while he is not what might be called a 'wet' man, if elected he would vote to abolish the office of state prohibition commissioner and leave the enforcement of prohibition statutes in the hands of the constituted authorities of each city and county.

Dr. F. H. Brooks, of Fairfax, unsuccessful candidate for the house of representatives in the special election in May, presided over the committee meeting.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY

Miss Dorothy Johnson Entertains in Honor of Miss Halcyon Hall.

Miss Dorothy Johnson entertained at Five Hundred Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, on Main street, in honor of Miss Halcyon Hall, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. L. Harrell. An ice course was served and prizes for winning the highest scores were awarded to Miss Catherine Larkin and Mr. W. Carroll Rice.

The guests were Misses Halcyon Hall, Elizabeth Larkin, Margaret Roop, Sallie Norvell Larkin, Catherine Larkin, Lillian Larkin and Louise O'Callaghan and Messrs. Charles Larkin, Carroll Rice, Roswell Round, Peyton Larkin and John Wilcoxson.

MANY ATTEND REUNION OF LEACHMAN FAMILY

At North Fork. Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Elliot Entertain Family Party According to Annual Custom.

A reunion of the Leachman family, an annual custom for many years, was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Roberts Lynn on Main street, the hostesses being Mrs. Lynn and her sister, Mrs. E. A. Elliot. About forty members of the family, embracing three generations, and several additional guests were present. The dinner was served by Aunt Jane Thomas, who has been with the Leachman family for nearly forty years.

Members of the party were Messrs. J. P. Leachman and C. C. Leachman, Mrs. J. F. Dogan, Mrs. E. C. Buck, Mrs. B. A. Elliot, Mrs. Roberts Lynn, Miss Katie B. Leachman, of Washington, and Mrs. E. L. Carroll, of Charlottesville; Mrs. Allen Laws Oliver, Allen Laws Oliver, jr., and Jack Oliver, of Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Misses Lillian and Marie Leachman, of Bristow; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cox, of Washington; Mr. Burchell Leachman, Miss Sarah Leachman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn and their daughters, Anne Neville, and Jane Marie; Mrs. Frank Neville Buck and her little son and daughter, Neville, jr., and Jean, of Port Norfolk; Misses Lucy and Elizabeth Buck; Mrs. John L. Elliot and little Miss Jane Love Elliot, Miss Louise Ayres, Mr. Thomas A. Carroll, of Norfolk; Lieut. Claude C. Carroll, of Charlottesville, who has just returned from France; Mr. and Mrs. James Weir Birkett and their little son and daughter, Elizabeth, and James, jr.; Mrs. Thomas R. Leachman, Miss Louise Ashby Leachman and Thomas Richards Leachman, of Lynchburg; Miss Hearie Dogan, of Paradise; Miss M. E. Compton, of Alexandria; Mr. Andrew N. Carroll, of Washington, and Miss Susie Shaner, of Washington.

The officers of the association were re-elected as follows: Moderator, Mr. Edward T. Fenwick, of Falls Church; clerk, Mr. James R. Mansfield, of Alexandria; assistant clerk, Mr. G. L. Hutchison, of Aldie; and treasurer, Mr. G. Harris Field, of The Plains. The next meeting of the association will be held at Mount Holly, Fauquier county.

DAIRYMEN RAISE PRICE OF MILK TO 45 CENTS

October Price Jumps Nine Cents Above Price Previously Set for September.

A meeting of the Prince William County Dairymen's Association was held at the courthouse in Manassas on Friday, the milk situation and prices being the principal topic of discussion. Mr. J. J. Conner, chairman of the association, presided.

As a result of the conference the price of milk will be raised, beginning October 1, to the minimum price of 45 cents a gallon, the scale rising according to the butter fat. The price of milk, which has risen gradually during the summer, this time jumps from 36 cents, the price already set for September. The price during May and June was 32 cents, with a raise of two cents for July and August.

The probability of reorganizing a cow-testers' association was discussed and the members practically agreed to its reorganization. The association has not been active for about two years, as it has been impossible to obtain an official tester.

FARMERS TO BUY A LOT AND ERECT WAREHOUSE

Will Sell Fertilizer, Lime, Flour, Sugar and Other Farm and Home Commodities.

A meeting of the Prince William County branch of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union was held on Friday at the courthouse, the county chairman, Mr. J. T. Flory, of Nokesville, presiding.

The members entered into a discussion of the plans of the union to capitalize the county and purchase a suitable lot for the erection of warehouses from which fertilizer, lime, flour, sugar and merchandise will be distributed among the farmers of the county. Lime and fertilizer men attended and submitted prices.

The executive committee was directed to consider the matter of capitalizing the county and of purchasing a lot. No plans have been made for the management of the warehouses, this and other questions being left for future consideration.

Among members of the executive committee are Mr. J. T. Flory, of the Nokesville local; Mr. W. T. Thomason, of the Manassas local; Mr. R. L. Lewis, of the Wellington local; Mr. W. E. Varner, of the Brentsville local; Mr. E. N. Pattie, of the Catharpin local, and Mr. E. E. Corwell, of the Independent Hill local.

BAPTISTS GREET RETURNING MEN

Service in Honor of Soldiers' Homecoming—Address by Rev. E. N. Gardner.

A large congregation attended a celebration at the Manassas Baptist Church Sunday evening in honor of the men from that church who served with the colors here and in France. The church with Old Glory everywhere in evidence made an appropriate setting for the service of welcome and thanksgiving.

Following an organ prelude, by Miss Georgia Harrell, Mrs. E. B. Sprinkel played the processional and the young men, many of them still in uniform, marched up the aisle to seats reserved for them near the pulpit. The congregation rose as they entered the church, led by the ushers, Messrs. Raymond Davis, Worth Storke, John Broadbent and W. E. Trusler and little Misses Meaker Burke and Janet Trusler and Masters Holtzman Davidson and William Trusler, who drew aside the ribbons which marked the reservations at the front of the church.

The congregation, still standing, joined in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," after which Rev. Westwood Hutchison read the Scripture lesson and offered the invocation. Rev. T. D. D. Clark, pastor of the church, offered the words of greeting, expressing the joy of the congregation in being able to participate in such a celebration and a heartfelt tribute to the men in the service.

Mr. George G. Tyler called the roll of thirty names represented by the blue stars on the service flag, which was prominent among the patriotic decorations, and called attention to the happy fact that none of the stars have turned to gold. Mr. H. W. Sanders responded to the roll call, expressing for the men their appreciation of the welcome and urging them to continue as good soldiers in the daily conflicts during the period of reconstruction.

The musical program included a solo, "Mother's Prayer," by Rev. Mr. Clark, two selections by the choir and "America," sung by all present. Miss Susan Ish Harrison gave a reading entitled "When the Boy Has Come Home."

The address of the evening was made by Rev. E. N. Gardner, of Franklin, who spoke of the new era upon which the world is entering at the close of the war, giving as the fundamental necessity in the uplift of civilization an inner righteousness of the individual soul, with humility in the service of the Master and a recognition of duty to self, to neighbor and to God.

The meeting closed with a brief prayer by Mr. L. Ledman, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School. The congregation remained standing while the recessional was played by Mrs. E. B. Sprinkel and the men in uniform marched out.

ALFRED PRESCOTT HURT IN MOTORCYCLE WRECK

Former Manassas Boy Runs Into Tree and Telephone Pole to Avoid Traffic Congestion.

Daniel Alfred Prescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Prescott, was thrown from his motorcycle on the evening of August 16, after it had smashed into a tree and telephone pole on the heading road near Lawrence, Mass. He was taken to a hospital in an unconscious condition, remaining in that state until the following afternoon. While it was thought at first that he had sustained internal injuries, later developments have caused this theory to be abandoned. He is recovering slowly and has been moved from the hospital to a private home not far away.

Young Prescott was riding toward Reading and nearing a corner a competitor carelessly forced him across the road in order to avoid being hit by a large touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Prescott, former residents of Manassas, have been living in Medford, Mass., for several years. Young Prescott returned from France last year and re-entered Tufts College. He is a grandson of Mrs. William Foote, of Manassas, and a graduate of Manassas High School.

HAYMARKET

Miss Frances A. C. Grimes, formerly of the new Westberry Forest, is spending this week here, and next week she will be the guest of Mrs. E. L. Dulaney at her home near Thoroughfare.

Miss Grimes was graduated at Wellesley in June and will teach at Stuart Hall, Staunton, the coming season. Mrs. Charles Cook, formerly Miss Nana Rector, of Quantico, is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. R. Rector.

Rev. E. S. Hinks, of Elk Ridge, Md., is visiting friends here, and will conduct the children's day service at Grace Chapel, Hickory Grove, on Friday.

Mrs. A. L. M. Fuller and Miss Jean Fuller, of Baltimore, are spending several weeks at "Hedgecroft," Visiting in Ohio.

Mrs. W. D. Baker and little daughter, Helen, left on Monday to visit friends near Cincinnati, Ohio.

The lawn party given at Waverley Farm on Wednesday evening of last week was generously patronized by the people of the community, and in spite of the stormy weather and high cold wind which prevailed during the supper hour, and interfered greatly with the arrangements for the comfort and pleasure of the guests, the evening was a very happy one socially, and a successful one as to finances, the receipts being something over a hundred dollars. The Mother Goose pictures under the management of Mrs. C. D. S. Clarkson, in which a number of little girls took part, were very pretty and attractive, and it is hoped that they will be repeated later at an entertainment at the parish hall.

Bell Family Reunion
"Bell Haven," the home of Mrs. Susanna Bell near Haymarket, was truly worthy of its name on Thursday of last week when forty-two of the family gathered for the day at the beloved and familiar home. Dinner was carried by various members of the family and served picnic style under the trees on the lawn.

Mrs. Bell's nine children, with numerous grandchildren, sons and daughters-in-law, and several other near relatives made up the party.

INDEPENDENT HILL

Work was begun last week on the resurfacing of the Independent Hill road. Difficulty is being experienced in procuring suitable material.

Mr. Clarence Woodyard, of Washington, has been spending a week's vacation with his parents at this place. Mrs. Edward Heming has returned from a week's visit to friends and relatives in the Shenandoah valley.

Mrs. L. E. Merrill and Miss Dorothy Merrill spent several days last week with Miss Myrtle Merrill in Washington.

Most of the local members of the farmers' union attended the county meeting at Manassas on Friday of last week.

Miss Annabel Merrill is attending the short course in home economics at Hebrew Seminary this week.

Rev. W. B. Winslow, who has charge of a mission field of the M. E. Church, South, in this section, has moved from his home near Backhill to the Ben Love farm near Independent Hill, in order that he may more conveniently reach the points on his circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill are the grandparents of a baby girl born last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kraft in Baltimore.

Miss Nabel Fairbanks was the guest of Miss Mae Hill several days last week.

SMITHFIELD

The league at Smithfield will hold a meeting at the school house on Friday evening, August 23, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Richard Barnes will entertain the crowd with his graphophone, and a short program with other music will be given and ice cream will be on sale.

The farmers of this section are busy having their grain threshed. Misses Belle and Annie Kinchee have accepted positions at Quantico.

Mr. John Okeyar, of Alexandria, passed through the upper part of Smithfield yesterday on route to Independent Hill, to spend the week-end with his family.

Owen Keys, Jr., who has been spending some time at the home of his grandfather, returned Sunday to his home at St. Elms.

Mr. Harvey Woodyard, of Brentsville, visited at the home of his brother, Mr. J. Woodyard, Sunday.

Mrs. Mae Beavers, who has been very ill, is out again. Miss Lucille Lunsford is visiting in Catlett.

AGAIN THE FARMER LEADS

The American farmer may be somewhat surprised by the announcement, but he will also own to a feeling of pride, that he is the biggest user of motor trucks in the world. It is a sign of more than average progress on the American farm when it can be said that the American farmer utilizes more motor trucks than his brothers, the manufacturer and the retailer.

The farm trucks in operation last year numbered nearly 80,000—to be exact, there were 79,780—leading not by hundreds but by thousands the number of trucks operated by manufacturing or retail concerns. It is estimated that in 1918 250,000,000 tons of farm products were loaded to market in motor trucks by the farmers of the United States.

WHO WON?

The Ford trial, after three months of evidence, argument, cross-examination and publicity, has come to an end, and the verdict, strange as it may seem, is greeted with expressions of satisfaction by Henry Ford and by the defendant, the Chicago Tribune, which Mr. Ford sued for $1,000,000 for calling him an anarchist. The verdict, which is for Mr. Ford, gives him exactly six cents' damages.

Mr. Ford, happily, announces that the money was the smallest part of his desire, or words to that effect, and that even six cents is all right when it includes a vindication of the charge. The Tribune considers the payment of six cents, when Mr. Ford asked $1,000,000, a decided victory for the paper.

And so everybody is happy and no blood was spilled.

A CORRECTION

By some unfortunate error, for which we are responsible, but for which it is impossible to assign a cause—the kind of error that the editor always wants to blame on the printer's devil—the figures in supplemental returns—from the general primary, given in last week's issue, were transposed, Prince William votes for Mr. Meetsie being placed in Mr. Oliver's column, and vice versa, making it appear that Mr. Oliver had carried Mr. Meetsie's home county, which is untrue, and giving Mr. Oliver a majority in the district to which he is not entitled and which he does not claim.

This table was printed last week as we were unable at the time of the first issue after election to obtain the full Fairfax vote, and while the Prince William county vote was given correctly as first published, we re-print last week's statement with corrections, and with apologies to Mr. Meetsie.

	Oliver	Meetsie

The window cleaners are the latest to join the strikers in New York, and all they want is $5 for one day out of a 44-hour week. Having the greatest admiration for good window cleaners, we suggest this opportunity to some of our school teacher friends who may desire to increase their income without losing too much time on additional education.

In these days of profiteering, when the high cost of living is a reality, whether high living or not, it is nevertheless entertaining to read the result of some of the investigations made in the interest of enlarging the dollar and helping the poor man in the pursuit of happiness. There is the apparently true story that a fine bag butchered twenty-five years ago has been kept in storage until this day of fancy prices, and a Boston report says a pair of shoes sold by a manufacturer for $4.50 was displayed in a store 400 yards from the factory and marked $12.

Mr. J. R. Coverstone has purchased the general merchandise business of Mr. W. Atlee Wood at Wellington and took possession last Friday. Mr. Wood has purchased the business of Hulfish & Clarkson at Haymarket, which opened under the new management on Monday.

Miss Julia W. Lewis has sold the property on Prince William avenue, now occupied by Tompkins & Wine, to Mr. Benjamin Elsher, of Scottsville, Albemarle county. The property includes the home and about twenty-eight acres of land. Mr. Rinker will take possession October 1.

Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, majority leader in the senate, is again undergoing treatment at a Charlottesville hospital. Physicians attending him say he is making good progress and will soon be able to return to his home. This is Senator Martin's second visit to the hospital this summer.

Mr. Herbert H. Moon and wife (formerly Miss Annie Dean Mitchell), now residing at Wilmington, Del., are now contemplating a return to the farm which was presented to them as a wedding present by their father, Mr. H. H. Moon, says the Burke correspondent to the Fairfax Herald. Mr. Moon is a graduate of Manassas High

PERSONAL MENTION

Bill Bailey, the well-known race horse owned by Mr. John Thayer, of near Licketts, fell at the track on the steeplechase at Berryville on Friday last and was instantly killed, his neck being broken by the fall. His colored jockey, Coolie Morris, of Leesburg, sustained a badly smashed arm, but fortunately was not otherwise injured. Loudoun Times.

Friends of Dr. Charles F. Russell, who was defeated by Mr. Franklin Williams in the Fairfax race for the House of Delegates, have given up the idea of contesting the election, according to Fairfax and Loudoun newspapers. It was claimed that irregularities existed in the Vienna precinct, which gave Mr. Williams 134 majority. After counsel had been engaged conference was held and the plan abandoned.

Plans are being slowly matured for the bringing of electric lights and power from Alexandria to Vienna and Fairfax. It is proposed to buy the current from an Alexandria lighting company and to sell it to the people of Fairfax county along the proposed extension. To do this a stock company with a capital of about $30,000 will be formed. Fairfax Herald.

A camping party which left "The Hermitage," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Lee, last week, has been enjoying a stay near Charles Town, W. Va., fishing, bathing and motoring over the fine roads near Charles Town. Members of the party include Miss Carolyn H. Lee and Miss Calla Gosnell, of Washington; Mr. Frank Cockerille and sister, of Greenwich; Miss Virginia Lee and Messrs. Frank and Robert Lee and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fitzhugh, of Greene county.

An automobile belonging to Mr. Mr. C. C. Carlin, in which were the family of Mr. Carlin and two friends, was run into near Frederick, Md., by a sidecar motorcycle in which were two Baltimore men. Only the expert driving of the Carlin car chauffeur, who stopped his car just as the wheels were touching one of the men on the ground, prevented a serious accident. No one was injured, though the bumper of the automobile had to be removed to free the fork and the handlebar of the motorcycle. Fairfax Herald.

Mr. Robert W. Adamson, who has been in Washington for several months, has returned to Manassas and is now in partnership with Mr. George B. Cocke, of Cocke's Pharmacy. Mr. Adamson, who is the son of Mrs. R. J. Adamson, is also a registered pharmacist. He was born and raised in Manassas and was first employed as a boy at the drug store owned by Mr. Walter Shannon, now of Norfolk, who sold his business here to Mr. W. Fred Dowell. Both Mr. Cocke and Mr. Adamson are sons-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nash.

The People's National Bank of Leesburg is exhibiting two bank checks which are believed to be the oldest checks now in existence drawn on an American bank. The first, dated May 19, 1788, and drawn for the sum of $44.96, is signed by Aaron Burr, who afterward was vice-president of the United States in Jefferson's administration and who killed Alexander Hamilton in the famous duel at Weehawken in 1804. The second check, which is for $15, is dated Jan. 26, 1792, and is signed by the famous Baron Steuben, who was the old drillmaster of the continental army in the American revolution. They are the property of Lieut. Gordon Williams, U. S. A., a brother of Mr. Harrison Williams, of Loudoun.

VETERANS AND FAMILIES WILL ATTEND REUNION

Harrisonburg Extends Special Invitation to Wives and Daughters of Soldiers.

Mr. George H. Smith, adjutant of Ewell Camp, Confederate Veterans, has received a letter from Harrisonburg inviting members of Ewell Camp and their families to attend the state reunion of Confederate Veterans, which is to be held in that city on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 2 to 4. The state normal school dormitories have been engaged for the accommodation of visitors and room and meals may be had at the special rate of $1.50 per day. The Harrisonburg committee has expressed a desire to make this one of the most enjoyable and largely attended reunions ever held in Virginia and for this reason the wives and daughters of Confederates are especially invited to attend.

Ewell Camp will hold a meeting at the National Bank on Saturday, August 30, at 11 o'clock, at which time arrangements for the trip will be completed and the adjutant will be enabled to advise the Harrisonburg committee concerning the attendance from this section. All Confederate soldiers are invited to attend this meeting. Sons of veterans are especially invited to attend and join the camp in memory of their fathers who served with the Confederacy in the war between the states.

CAPT. EARLY'S HARD LUCK.
It seems that ill luck has a grievance against our genial friend, Capt. John D. Early, says the Greene County Record. Constable Shifflet having forgotten his promise to come over and help put the hay away, Capt. Early recently mounted the hay loft and said Eddie could go to the blazes. Finks Early and Will Collier hauled the hay up. The trio were making fine progress when Captain happened to arouse some bees that had a nest in the loft and forthwith they attacked him. Mr. Early bent such a hasty retreat that he either fell or rolled through the hay hole to the floor below with about a hundred bees urging him on with their stingers. As a result his left leg was painfully hurt. Capt. Early broke a toe trying to kick the house cat through the front door. His feet came in contact with a rocking chair which he had not observed was between him and the cat.

we are merely evolving our belief in these methods. This Counter means that your meat—the meat you eat—is always in a clean, cool place, where no hands can touch it or the pesky fly swarm over it; and you can see what you are buying, or make a selection before buying.

Listen! IT'S ALL BEFORE YOU!

Seriously, don't you feel that you owe it to yourself to buy clean, wholesome meats? Come in and look at this beautiful display of meats, anyway.

CLIFTON

A large congregation attended the ordination of Rev. Edward Tabor, pastor of the Clifton Baptist Church, Monday morning at 11 o'clock. The ministers who took part in the service were Rev. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Alexandria, who preached the sermon; Rev. Westwood Hutchison, of Manassas, who delivered the charge to the church; Rev. T. D. D. Clark, pastor of the Manassas Baptist Church, who delivered the charge to the candidate, and Rev. V. H. Council, of Warrenton, who presented the Bible. Rev. Mr. Council and Rev. Mr. Clark are former pastors of this church.

Rev. J. H. Macleod preached in the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Rev. Edward Tabor preached at the Baptist Church Sunday evening and also held an afternoon service for men only.

Clifton Visitors.

Mrs. R. L. Harrison, her two sons and daughter spent Sunday with relatives here. They were accompanied home by Miss Frances Buckley, who will visit them for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Washington, were also week-end visitors. Mrs. Davis, who will be remembered in Clifton as Miss Rose Bigelow, favored the congregation with a solo at the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Frank Ford returned on Saturday from Emergency Hospital in Washington, where he had recently undergone a serious operation. Mr. Ford is in much better health and apparently is on the road to full recovery.

Miss Miriam Buckley, with her friend, Miss Sara Crews, is spending the week at Atlantic City.

Mr. W. H. Mathers has broken ground for a new residence between the Presbyterian Church and Clifton House.

Mr. O. C. Southard has installed a gas lighting plant at his home. Mr. O. L. Detwiler and others are getting ready to install them.

Clifton Men Elected.

Clifton stood well in the late democratic primary, furnishing one county officer and two district officers.

Mrs. Lucy Payne is back home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Whaley, in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wren and their little son, of Herndon, accompanied by Mrs. Wren's mother, Mrs. B. J. Holden, were recent visitors.

Mrs. LaMont A. Williams, of Washington, accompanied by several ladies, made a visit to Ivakota, the Florence Clifton Mission, last week.

News has been received from Mr. Alford Kelley, who is now at Brad-dock Heights, Md., that he is very much improved in health and will soon be able to visit his Clifton congregation, as he was preparing to do when he was suddenly stricken with his long illness.

The lion which was loose and causing so much terror in the county during the past month is now reported as having been captured several weeks ago, before he was last reported as having been seen on several occasions.

BUCKHALL

Splendid work was done by the citizens of Buckhall community last Friday, when they met to clear-up the cemetery. How much can be accomplished when each one does his part was clearly demonstrated by the result. A few more hours to burn the refuse and the work will be completed. The committee which arranged for the community gathering has expressed its appreciation of the substantial service rendered.

Mr. Anton Lund and his son, Herman, are building a barn for Mr. Will Young, near Manassas.

Mrs. Will Fry returned to her home in Baltimore Saturday, accompanied by Master Ted Koozts.

Mrs. J. T. Speakes returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Washington and Baltimore.

Mr. A. Lund has moved his household effects from his farm house to the house recently purchased from Mr. Boughton.

Mrs. Thomason, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of her husband, Mr. James Speakes, and family.

Mr. A. M. Gray and family, who lived on the Smallwood place, sold their household goods at auction last week and have gone to West Virginia to live.

Messrs. H. H. Koozts, W. G. Branner and F. J. Chandler spent the Sunday at their home here.

Mrs. D. E. Kincheles is again on the sick list.

Mr. William Colbert has returned to his home in Washington, after a visit to the home of his cousin, Mr. Lee Colbert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Evans are visiting relatives in Washington this week.

Mr. H. M. Robinson led the prayer meeting Thursday evening at the Methodist Church.

Camel CIGARETTES

CAMELS supply cigarette contentment beyond anything you ever experienced! You never tasted such full-bodied mellow-mildness; such refreshing, appetizing flavor and coolness. The more Camels you smoke the greater becomes your delight—Camels are such a cigarette revelation!

Everything about Camels you find so fascinating is due to their quality—to the expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos.

You'll say Camels are in a class by themselves—they seem made to meet your own personal taste in so many ways! Freedom from any unpleasant cigarette after-taste or unpleasant cigarette odor makes Camels particularly desirable to the most fastidious smokers. And, you smoke Camels as liberally as meets your own wishes, for they never tire your taste! You are always keen for the cigarette satisfaction that makes Camels so attractive. Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

(Contributed)

The mass Sunday School convention at the Asbury U. B. Church last Saturday was a marked success as far as splendid music and intelligent discussion of the subjects presented could make it so. Several things conspired to prevent the attendance from being as good as it should have been. Most of the Manassas pastors were out of town and it being Saturday many of the ladies were absent who otherwise would have attended.

The morning session was presided over by Rev. L. C. Messick, pastor of the church, and the afternoon session by Mr. F. M. Smith, while during the recess the ladies of the U. B. Church and others presided at a lunch table bountifully laden with food for the body.

The subjects discussed were: "How to interest the boy in Sabbath School."

"Does the Sabbath School meet the demands of the age?"

"How to interest the infant class."

"How can the business man aid the Sabbath School?"

"How to get the young man into the Sabbath School and keep him there."

"The Teachers' Training Class" was presented by Dr. H. U. Roop, while Prof. Crandall, Messrs. D. P. Bell, W. I. Steere, J. H. Dodge, G. D. Baker, F. M. Smith, J. L. Lineweaver, S. T. Hall and J. J. Conner and Mrs. Kate Randall made short addresses and entered discussions of the subjects named.

The music of the Cannon Branch octets club is worthy of special mention. The club consists of Mr. J. J. Conner and daughters and others whose names were not obtained by the reporter. The song of little Miss Mary Snook and Master Fred Snook was also fine.

The convention was fortunate in having present a minister from the Valley, Rev. P. I. Garber, of the Church of the Brethren, who talked ably upon several of the subjects.

Mr. Powell M. Metz, president of the Manassas District Sunday School Association, was unable to be present, but made it known that he was in hearty sympathy with this mid-summer meeting and regretted much his inability to attend. Mr. Metz assures us that the regular fall meeting of the district organization will be conducted in due time.

SWIMMING PARTY AT MILFORD

A party of young people enjoyed a swimming party at Milford Monday evening as the guests of Mrs. J. L. Harrell. The young people after going in the water toasted marshmallows and roasted "wienies" and returned later to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrell on West street, where the remainder of the evening was spent with music, games and dancing. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. Harrell's guests were her niece, Miss Halcyon Hall, of Little Rock, Ark., in whose honor the party was given, Misses Anselma and Daisie Brown, Sellie, Catherine, Lillian and Elizabeth Larkin, Dorothy Johnson and Louise O'Callaghan, Messrs. Peyton, Charles and George Larkin and Gilbert Spies, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Norvell Larkin and Mrs. M. R. O'Callaghan.

BRENTSVILLE

Rev. J. R. Cooke, of Greenwich preached here last Sunday morning. Mr. Elmer Landis, of Washington, spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Edith Johnston, of Manassasville, Md., visited her cousin, Miss Francis Spitzer, during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brooks and their small son, Clarence, of Balti more, are spending the week with Mrs. Brooks' sister, Mrs. Cora Beaver.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Spitzer, with Mrs. E. Shaver and children, of Adam, visited Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Long, of Independent Hill, Sunday.

Mrs. James Lovelace and her son, Mr. Wright, of Washington, visited relatives here Sunday.

TO PARENTS

Parents, are you interested in a school for young children? If you are willing to pay for your child to be taught obedience, to have individual instruction, short hours of work and supervised play, all taught in accordance with the most modern methods, please address X, care The Journal. If a group of eight or ten children can be secured for the course, this can be made possible. State age of pupil and grade he expects to enter. 14-1

MARSHALL FAIR NEXT WEEK

Fat Cattle Show, Horse Show and Races—Airplane Exhibition.

The ninth annual fair of the Fauquier County Agricultural Society will be held at Marshall on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, and according to reports from that vicinity it will be the most successful fair in the history of the association.

While the fat cattle show is advertised as the feature of the fair, other attractions are the exhibition of other live stock and farm products, the woman's department, horse show and racing and an air battle between two hostile airplanes. The horse show classes and races have filled well, according to announcement of the secretary and the beef cattle exhibit is expected to be one of the finest ever made in this section.

The officers of the fair are Mr. H. M. Luttrell, president; Mr. A. Y. Reel, secretary, and Mr. J. W. Slaughter, treasurer.

NOKESVILLE

The girls' canning, poultry and pig clubs of Fauquier and Prince William are holding a session at Hebron Seminary this week and all seem to be having an enjoyable time. Miss Gilbert and Miss Ambler are with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Graybill, missionaries home from Sweden, Thursday evening gave a lecture at Hebron Seminary on the manners and customs of the people of that country. Mrs. Graybill exhibited some of the costumes worn by the women and children there. The large audience present was highly entertained.

The Methodist Sunday School will hold its annual picnic Wednesday on the farm of Mr. Sheppard, a mile distant.

Mrs. W. R. Free, jr., and her daughter, Miss Christine Free, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit to friends in Norfolk.

Miss May Hooker has returned from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bedine motored from Washington Saturday and spent the week-end with Mrs. Bedine's parents here. They were accompanied by Miss Marjorie Green, of Falls Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Flory have sold their property here and will leave in a few weeks with their family for Louisiana. Mr. Flory having accepted a position as teacher in a university at Baton Rouge.
