ENTRIES FOR FAIR

BEGIN TO ARRIVE

Special Train Service to Fair Grounds—Reduced Rates Offered by Railway.

(H. W. Sanders, Secretary)

Make your entries to the Fair as early as possible. The first to be received are those of Dr. V. T. Churchman, of Charleston, W. Va., who will be remembered as the owner of blue ribbon entries in the horse show here a few years ago. Dr. Churchman will exhibit four animals in fifteen classes of the horse department. As soon as you have decided what your exhibits will be, fill out the entry blank and mail it to the secretary.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the management is enabled to announce the completion of arrangements with the Southern Railway company for special train service during the three days of the fair. Reduced rates to be announced by the company will be given between Charlottesville and Washington and from Harrisonburg to Manassas. In addition there will be a special train from Strasburg to Manassas, arriving at the fair grounds at 9 a. m. and returning to leave at 10:30 p. m. For the benefit of passengers from the main line, as well as the people of Manassas and vicinity, a train will be run between the fair grounds and town at regular intervals.

During the period beginning August 2 and ending August 14 a special campaign will be conducted for the sale of season tickets. Season tickets, non-transferable, good for both day and night, will sell for $2. These tickets, as well as those for single admission, will bear a coupon which must be worn conspicuously at all times while the holder is on the grounds. Any person who buys a season ticket will be allowed to bring his car or other vehicle into the grounds free on the first day that the ticket is used.

While the association will greatly appreciate the co-operation of friends and patrons of the fair in helping to make the ticket-selling campaign a success, it will also offer liberal commissions and prizes to those who enter the contest, as shown in the advertisement appearing in this issue of The Journal. Those desiring to enter the contest are requested to enter their names with the president or secretary at an early date.

WOMAN'S REST ROOM

NEEDS ASSISTANCE

Chairman of Committee Makes Appeal for Help in Supporting Local Work.

(Mrs. C. F. M. Lewis, Chairman)
We have just closed our year's account for the Manassas Rest Room and find that through the kind help of the business men, woman's auxiliary and the various good housekeeping clubs we have paid out $223.50, including a debt of $43, which we found when we took charge of the room last year.

We find we are bankrupt to the extent that our June rent of $6, which Mrs. Reid has so kindly reduced from $10 for us, had to be paid by the auxiliary. Mr. Reid has beautified the room and will do the woodwork later, we paying only for materials. The town council, through the kindness of Mayor Brown, has granted us free use of water, for which we paid $16.30 last year.

Now we must have money to run the room and yet every woman on the committee feels a delicacy in going from store to store asking the merchants to renew their subscriptions, but any one who is willing to help us can hand a check to any member of the committee or leave it at the National Bank to be credited to the Rest Room Fund. You cannot imagine what a disagreeable work this begging is. Few of the ladies who are really interested in the room make much use of it, but it is community work. For those who have made long trips through the country, either by rail or otherwise, and are detained, for school girls who have to wait in the town for trains and for women who are employed in the town, we feel it is a good work, and good for our town to be up to date. Help us all you can.

SHOW POULTRY AT FAIR

Supt. Dodge Urges Owners of Pured Stock to Exhibit.

J. H. Dodge, Supt. Poultry Department. Those who have purebred poultry should plan to exhibit at the fair. This advances their stock and stimulates interest in the raising of good poultry. Poultry raising is fast assuming its normal and rightful place as one of the leading sources of the food supply of the country. Now is an opportune time to push this business.

This section of Virginia is naturally adapted to the raising and marketing of poultry, and it should be given more attention by our people. Those who raise purebred poultry should by all means have it well represented in the poultry show of the fair.

As the fair this year comes at an off date for a poultry show, exhibition birds will need to be groomed and given special attention. Don't delay in making your selections and in making entries. Procure a premium list from the secretary of the fair. This gives full and complete directions as to entries and classifications, etc. Birds should be selected according to the American standards, and at this season of the year may need some extra attention to show to advantage, but this can be given and we can have an excellent show if every one does his part. Let's do it.

AGED WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Sarah Ann Higgins, an aged resident of the county, died Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hixson, near Manassas. Funeral services were held yesterday at the Manassas Baptist Church and the body was laid to rest in the Hixson burying ground near town.

Mrs. Higgins, who was in her ninety-third year, was a daughter of the late Joseph and Susan Woodyard Butler of this county. She was first married to Henry Hixson and later to Joseph Higgins, and had been a widow for the second time for more than twenty years. Mr. Hixson, with whom she had made her home for several years, was a grandson of her late sister.

LIGHTNING KILLS COWS

Two cows standing under a poplar tree on the Portner farm were killed by lightning during the storm Monday afternoon. One was killed instantly and the other is said to have walked about thirty feet before falling to the ground. Two hams weighing about 100 pounds each were recently killed by lightning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Todd, near Manassas. Lightning struck the corn crib on the Todd place, splitting a plank from roof to floor, breaking the bottom out of a bottle of cylinder oil and killing the lambs.

BROWER BABE RUTH OF

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Prince William Boy Makes Good in Baseball—Home Run Record Continues.

Frank Willard Brower, son of Dr. C. F. Brower, of Catharlin, and star athlete a few years ago at Manassas high school, is making a record this year in the International League as a member of the Reading (Pa.) team. The following clipping, under the heading "Minor Sensation with the Marines," is taken from a paper at Rochester, N. Y.:

"There is sojourning in our midst one Frank Brower, for whom practically all major league clubs are bidding. No minor-league player stands higher in the glare today than Mr. Brower.

"Mr. Brower, who plays first base for Reading, is also an outfielder of merit and he can pitch. In 66 games this season he's batting .420. His average today is slightly topping this figure.

"But what makes Brower stand out is his amazing collection of home runs—22—and this is only the middle of July. Babe Ruth reached the 29 mark yesterday, his record for all last season. Brower should go well over 29, in fact over 35.

"Yesterday Brower collected two singles and a triple in five times at bat. The Reading club should get $25,000 for him.

Frank is a native of Gainesville, Va., weighs 185 pounds and stands 6 feet 2 1/2 inches high. He bats left handed and throws right hand.

PET DOG KILLED

The Token neighborhood has been saddened by the death of "Shepherd," a large black and brown collie belonging to Mrs. Harrison Beavers, which was struck by lightning one day last week. The dog was following Mrs. W. L. Beavers as she walked toward her home after a visit to her mother-in-law, and as they drew near the home of Mr. A. C. Beavers a sharp bolt of lightning flashed through the sky and struck the dog, breaking every bone in its body. Mrs. Beavers was unharmed by the stroke but was much distressed over the loss of the big, black, shaggy fellow who had been the favorite pet and companion of her children.

The dog was of prize stock, the mother being "Roxie," an English shepherd owned until her death by Mr. W. J. Richards.

AMERICAN WORKERS BUSY

(Miss Thelma Florence, Reporter)
We are now making our aprons. We hope to have these ready for the Fair. At our June meeting at Thornton school Miss Gilbert gave us a lesson in bread making. This was an all-day meeting. We worked on our aprons, played some games, sang some songs and had a pleasant and profitable day. Before we went home our teacher gave each of us a cake of yeast, so that we could try to make bread ourselves. We all hope to have a good loaf of bread for the fair. At our next meeting we hope to finish our aprons and get some help on canning. We hope to have our mothers attend some of our meetings. Our July meeting was held yesterday afternoon.

INDEPENDENT HILL

An enjoyable party was given by Miss Dora Herring Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herring. A merry crowd of young people spent the evening playing games and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Miss Lillian Greenwood is spending a few days in Washington.

Miss Ruth Linton is visiting at the home of her and Mrs. J. M. Bell in Manassas.

Mrs. W. B. Winslow is on the sick list.

Miss Eugenia H. Osbourn, principal of the Manassas schools, who has been under treatment at the Washington Sanitarium, Takoma Park, Md., for some time, returned to her home in Manassas last week and is very much improved in health. Miss Osbourn was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. George W. Phillips and Miss Lillian Osbourn, of Brightwood, D. C. Miss Osbourn returned to her home this week and Mrs. Phillips is still with her aunt.

PORTNER WILL

CASE CONTINUES

Family Contests Validity of Will of Paul V. Portner—Many Witnesses Heard.

Court has been in session every day this week, Judge Samuel G. Brent presiding, for the hearing of the Portner will case, which has attracted wide attention. Many witnesses have been examined, including Dr. Thomas A. Clayton, of Washington; Miss Anna Mackrum, of Washington, and Mrs. Charlotte Brooks Millhouse, of New York (two nurses); Mr. C. F. R. Administratrix qualifies, executing $3,200 bond, with Thomas L. and Lucy F. Berkeley as sureties. E. B. Geesons, Philip Smith and W. L. Houser appointed appraisers.

Account of Robert Jarmans, jailer, allowed.
License to sell soft drinks at their respective places of business granted to Rose, Farrar & Johnson, C. C. Clee and J. M. Stevens, Quantico, and Manassas Colored Horse Show Association.

Dr. J. C. Meredith appointed coroner for remainder of term ending December 31, 1923; qualifies by subscribing to oath and executing bond.
C. K. Bodine qualifies as notary public, entering into $500 bond.

Mrs. Ballantyne Patterson has received a message announcing the death of her only brother, Mr. Robert W. Cotto Lay, which occurred Tuesday night at his home in San Antonio, Texas, after an extended illness. Mr. Lay was unmarried and survived by two sisters, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. B. T. H. Hodge, of Manassas. Mrs. Hodge, who was summoned to Texas by Mr. Lay's illness nearly three weeks ago, is spending a short time with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ballfour Patterson, at Houston, Texas.

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Shoemaker and Mr. D. H. Blackwelder were married in Rockville, Md., July 3. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shoemaker, of Brentsville, and has been employed in Washington in the Treasury Department for the last two years. Mr. Blackwelder's home is in Statesville, N. C. The couple probably will remain in Washington until fall, when they expect to make their home in California.

Special Notice To Farmers

One of the most important things ever done by the Agricultural Experiment Station of North Carolina was a test to determine if National Hog Remedy has any value to the Farmer. A bulletin issued about June first tells that in a series of tests some figures were brought out that are startling.

Fifteen pigs of similar weight were bought for a test that was continued at the Raleigh test farm 88 days. One lot of these pigs were given National Hog Remedy and another lot was given the same feed but no remedy.

In the lot where the National Hog Remedy was given the hogs gained .70 of a pound each. In the lot where nothing was given but the feed the hogs gained only .47 of a pound.

Two hogs on National Hog Remedy increased in weight on the same ration as much as three hogs did without it.

Furthermore this test showed and stated that by using National Hog Remedy a saving was realized of approximately $9.00 on each hundred pounds increase in live weight.

National Hog Remedy is sold by all dealers at One Dollar a package. In case your dealer cannot supply you kindly send us your name and we will see you get it. We do not use a filler to enlarge the package and we use high grade chemicals only.

hundred circulation up to twenty-five hundred, with an additional three cents an inch from that point upward.
 A newspaper of five thousand circulation should receive fifty-five cents an inch for its advertising.
 Even at these rates the newspaper publisher is much underpaid.
 Too few country publishers keep cost records, and when they do they are inclined to omit their own salary or "rent" for their building if they happen to own it.
 The publisher cannot afford to give his readers more than fifty per cent reading matter. If the amount of advertising averages less than fifty per cent, the business is bound to be a losing proposition, even at the suggested rates.—American Printer.

 In this connection it is interesting to add that The Journal's advertising rate is fifteen cents an inch, with a substantial reduction to home advertisers under yearly contract. According to the new schedule, our circulation of over 1400 would entitle us to the thirty-cent rate.

Mr. Farmer, much of your success this year depends on the way you treat your stock. Don't let the price worry you, but become a "crank" about quality, and demand it. A cheap feed in price may be very expensive in results. Let us fill your requirements with a product of quality, and insure you against an unsuccessful year.

THE POETRY CORNER

The poetry corner, through which Journal readers for several months have shared their favorites with other lovers of good poetry, promises to furnish the opportunity for a reunion of old friends, including ourselves and old residents of Prince William who are scattered over the country and whose only present link with former home and friends is the weekly message of The Journal.

The favorite poem in today's issue is "Duty" by Edgar A. Guest, a fairly new contribution to literature by an American writer whose verse has attained a nation-wide reputation. This poem was submitted by Mrs. John Leboar, 2770 Antistam Avenue, Sausalito, Calif., who with Mr. Leboar formerly lived a few miles south of Manassas. "I certainly miss all my dear friends in Old Virginia," Mrs. Leboar writes, "and send best wishes to them one and all." The poem follows:

DUTY

I shall have done my duty here on earth
 If I have lived up to the best I knew,
 If I have tried at times to be of worth
 And gladly done the little I could do.
 I think I need not fear God's judgment then
 If only I have kept my record clean,
 Have daily walked among my fellow men
 And played the friend wherever I have been.
 I need not have great deeds of which to boast
 Nor point to splendors gained by but the few;
 If I have kept the faith and held my post,
 I shall have done what I was born to do.

There is a deeper pride than strength or skill,
 A greater glory than earth's fleeting fame,
 There is the triumph of a steadfast will,
 An honest heart expels a biased name.

If I shall live up to the light I own,
 Shall keep the faith when tempted and assailed,
 I need not tremble at the Great White Throne,
 Though men on earth may say that I have failed.

NEWSPAPERS

No class has found it as difficult to adjust itself to the great cost increase as has the country newspaper publisher. As a rule, his business has not been of the money-making kind: His object in life has been to serve the community. More than any other professional man, he has lived close to the maxim of the Man of Nazareth: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

In order to produce the publication, the spirit of service had to be shared, to some extent, by his associates—reporters, clerks, correspondents, compositors and pressmen. The entire income of some small town newspapers was less than the salary of a city newspaper editor, and in too many cases less than the income of some city compositors or pressmen. Newsprint could be obtained for a few cents a pound, and other expenses were moderate. There were certain perquisites, such as railroad tickets, show passes, banquet tickets and gifts of fruit and vegetables from the proud farmer anxious for a "write-up." In this manner the small town newspaper publisher obtained recreation and enjoyed life.

Then came the years of inflation. His office associates demanded bigger wages. Newsprint doubled, tripled and quadrupled in price; engraving with which to illustrate his pages increased in cost; his transportation privileges were withdrawn; food and clothing for his family rose to almost prohibitive heights.

All this time the country newspaper publisher, fearing to lose the little advertising patronage he had, hesitated over raising his advertising and subscription. The result was that many quit in their tracks, and others made moderate and inadequate increases.

Recently these men meeting in state and national conventions talked conditions over with one another and this gave them courage to face the facts and to plan to do business at least partly as other business men were doing it. They agreed that an inch of space in a newspaper with five hundred circulation could not be sold profitably under twenty cents an inch; that there should be an increase of five cents an inch for each additional five

BRENTSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Emmons have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Emmons, to Mr. Sanford, of Michigan. The wedding, which will be quiet and attended only by the families of the contracting parties, will take place the last of July. The young couple will make their home in Michigan, where Mr. Sanford is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the bride-to-be last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Springer. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Among the features of the occasion was a wit contest won by Mrs. O. W. Hedrick, who gave the prize—a lovely boudoir cap—to the honoree. Blank sheets of paper were distributed among the ladies and each one present wrote her favorite recipe, all of which were placed in an attractive cover painted by Miss Knevels, a cousin of the bride-to-be.

A two-course luncheon was served and several musical numbers rendered, after which the delivery boy was announced. The new arrival proved to be Master J. D. Springer, Jr., with a beautifully decorated express wagon piled high with presents of silver, china, aluminumware, linen and dainty lingerie with a broom for luck.

Among those present were Mesdames Emmons, Earhart, Buck, Knevels, Hedrick, Mowry, Varner, Perry, Gibson and Cooksey and Misses Marjorie Emmons, Mary Knevels, Florence Owens and Pauline and Daisy McKay.

Rev. Mr. Weiner, of Bealeton, will preach in the Union Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The young people's meeting will begin at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. The subject is "Sowing and Reaping," with Mrs. W. E. Varner as leader. The preaching service will be held at 8 p.m.

During the severe storm last Saturday night lightning struck a shade tree in the yard of Mr. O. W. Hedrick, throwing parts of the tree on the porch of Mr. Hedrick's house and stunning a valuable cow. The cow though injured is expected to recover.

Mr. H. P. Young and children, of Manassas, visited Mr. Young's daughter, Mrs. Paul Cooksey, Sunday. A large crowd attended a dance given in the hall Saturday night.

Miss Gladys Sanders, of Washington, is visiting Miss Louise Southard. Mr. Clyde Wolf, of Indian Head, Md., spent the week-end with his family here.

Miss Pearl Snow, of Washington, visited Mrs. K. M. Bradshaw Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ruth McKay has returned from a visit to friends at Culpeper. A number of Brentsville people attended the children's day exercises at Valley View. A good program was rendered.

Mr. J. W. Hedrick, of Washington, spent the week-end with his family here.

CLIFTON

Rev. Thomas MacLeod preached an excellent sermon Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church. The Woman's Missionary Society met in the afternoon, at which time the year's work was discussed in a general way. The secretary read an interesting letter from Miss Isabel Kelley, describing the bi-centennial meeting held in Philadelphia in May.

Mrs. S. C. Edwards left last Friday, after a two months' visit among friends here and at Vienna, expecting to spend the week-end with a friend in Washington and leave early Monday morning for her home in Yonkers, N. Y. Having sold her place here, Mrs. Edwards was obliged to mix business with pleasure, packing and shipping books and the remainder of her personal belongings. Most of the library, with the book cases, was sent to the granddaughter of Mr. Edwards in Delaware and the rest was sent to Mrs. Edwards' home in Yonkers.

Mr. John Hunsberger and son, of Trappe, Pa., were visitors here last week, coming to see their father and grandfather, Mr. A. H. Hunsberger. The elder Mr. Hunsberger is so much improved in health that he was able to attend church last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield, of Philadelphia, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Hunsberger. Mrs. Wakefield being his daughter.

Mr. O. S. Southard was brought home from the hospital Monday evening and is still in a critical condition. Mr. Lawrence Kincheloe recently suffered a dislocated hip when a horse which he was riding fell on him. Dr. Sanford rendered first aid.

Miss Elizabeth Detwiler, who was quite ill for several days, is able to be out again.

Rev. H. J. Beagar has broken ground for a ten-room house on his lot on Main street in the village.

Rev. Edward Taber filled his usual appointments in Clifton Baptist Church Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Taber was in the neighborhood on Tuesday making calls.

Mrs. Quigg and her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Brooks, spent the day with Mr. S. C. Hunsberger and family at Midland last Wednesday.

The printer made an error in two items in last week's Clifton letter. The two items which were printed as one, with several missing lines, should have read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Crewe and son spent the week-end in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Edgington and two daughters are spending the summer at Mrs. Seuber's.

Mrs. Ida Hill Hayes leaves this week for a visit to relatives in Minnesota. Mrs. Carrie Flanders and several members of her family are having their annual outing and vacation at their country home near Woodbine school.

"That's Pretty Good Stuff, Mom!"

"I like it. And Gosh! Do you know since I've been taking Nujol I've been feeling fine. The fellows say I'm showing real zip on our team now."
 "Yes, indeed, Son, and you look so much better. It is because Nujol has enabled your intestines to eliminate the poisonous waste regularly and thoroughly."
 "But don't castor oil, pills, salts and other things do the same thing, Mother?"
 "No. As the doctor explained, these drugs whip the bowels into unnatural action and they cause irritation and weakness as well. Eventually the system becomes so used to them that it won't work at all without the use of one of these cathartics."

"Well, where's the diff, Mom, between them and Nujol?"
 "Why, Nujol works on an entirely different principle."
 "Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This helps all those tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding as they should, to squeeze the food waste along and out of the system."
 "Oh, I see. And does it make the bowels stronger?"
 "Exactly. It assists them back to normal action."
 "If you have any difficulty with constipation when you are away at school next year, remember what I have just told you. Nujol will always help you."
 "Righto, Mom! I'll remember it."

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing the Nujol trade-mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger."

"Plowing—reaping—no matter what the farm work—Blue Buckles are the overalls to wear."

(Signed) Fred McCulloch

Leading corn grower of Hardwick, La., who raised an 88-bushel-per-acre crop.

PUTTING a hundred acres into garden truck—working on a thirty-story skyscraper—dashing along the rails in the cab of the Twentieth Century—every one of these workers is doing a different kind of job.

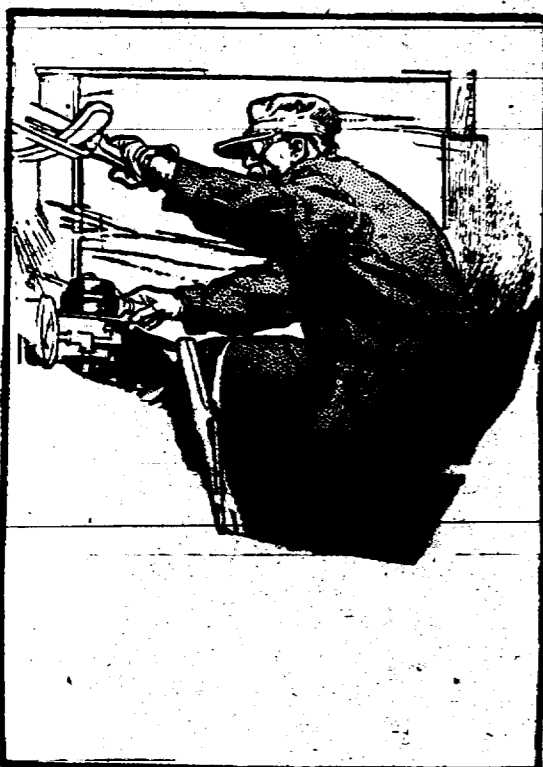

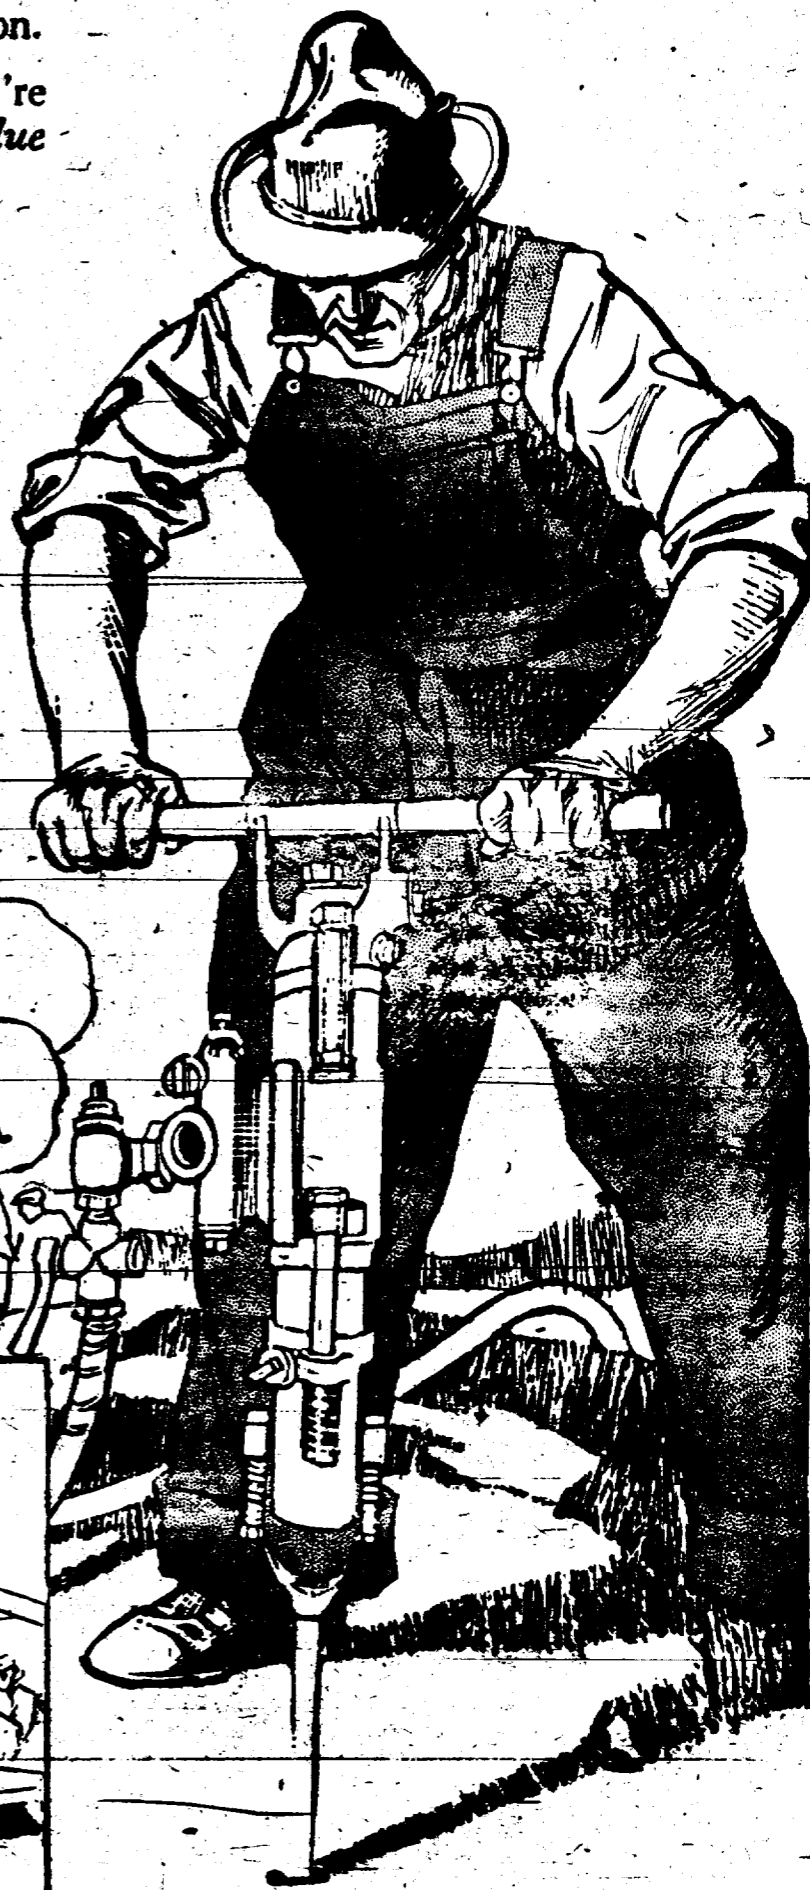

But when it comes to the best clothes for a man to wear on the job—that is one thing they all agree on.

They've all tried a lot of overalls, but today they're all strong for just one brand. They all wear Blue Buckles.

Like millions of other men on big jobs everywhere, they know that Blue Buckle Overalls meet every test of every kind of work. That is the reason Blue Buckles are the biggest selling overalls in the world.

Long wear is woven into the tough, thick denim cloth. Every pair is always big and roomy—always comfortable. The wide, double-stitched seams never rip. The heavy brass buttons and buckles don't rust or break. Every detail has the same sturdy, first-class workmanship—the same careful attention.
