

MANASSAS WINS TRACK TROPHY

High School Athletes Capture Championship for Eighth Virginia District.

Manassas High School athletes were again victorious on Saturday, capturing at Alexandria the track and field championship of the eighth Virginia district. Manassas ran up a score of 41 points, a lead of ten over nearest competitors, and was declared the winner, for the second consecutive year, of the championship cup, which, won for three consecutive years, becomes a permanent possession. Alexandria and Leesburg high schools tied for second place, with 31 points each; and Warrenton followed with 7.

Many local fans accompanied the team to Alexandria, according to their hearty support, both moral and vocal, throughout the day's events.

Repeating a feature of the recent dual meet with Alexandria, Manassas furnished the two highest point stars—Ralph Larson and Allison Hooff, who scored 18 1/2 and 13 1/2, respectively. Midkiff, Alexandria's highest point winner, ranked third, with a score of 13.

Larson is to receive a medal offered by a Manassas follower of athletics, whose name has been withheld to the individual point star of the annual meet, provided that Manassas furnish the winning star and team. Larson captured the medal last year, when the offer was first made known.

Two district records were broken. Waters, of the local team, ran the mile in five minutes and four seconds, gaining a second on the record formerly held by Pohl, of Alexandria. Midkiff, of Alexandria, finished the 880 in two minutes twelve and a half seconds. The former record of two minutes eighteen seconds was made before the war by Lynch, of H. M. S., who lost his life on the field in France.

The meet was largely attended and pronounced a big success. Mr. E. C. Haydon, principal of Alexandria High School and a former Manassas student, made the address of presentation and awarded the trophy. Mr. E. Wallace, Alexandria Y. M. C. A. secretary, distributed ribbons to the winners of each event. M. A. Ilch, New York's 220-yard champion, officiated as starter and referee and Magnus Bales, of Alexandria, was clerk of the meet. A luncheon was served to the visiting teams.

Members of the Manassas team who participated were: Larson, Hooff, Waters, Meetze, Merchant, Johnson, McKay and Covington. Larson and Waters, being members of the senior class, doubtless garnered their last scores in a high school meet.

The summary of events follows:
 100-yard dash—Won by Hooff, Manassas; second, Titus, Leesburg; third, Larson, Manassas; fourth, Leesburg. Time, 10 3-5 seconds.

Broad jump—Won by Midkiff, Alexandria; second, Drake, Leesburg; third, Suthard, Alexandria; fourth, Notland, Alexandria. Distances, 18 feet 7 1/2 inches.

220-yard dash—Won by Hooff, Manassas; second, Midkiff, Alexandria; third, Suthard, Alexandria; fourth, Richards, Warrenton. Time, 24 1-5 seconds.

AUXILIARY MAKES PLANS FOR RALLY IN AUGUST

Mrs. Henrietta Calvin, Home Economics Specialist, Will Make Address Here.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, Secretary)
 The Woman's Auxiliary held its regular meeting Friday afternoon at the high school building. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George C. Round, who opened with prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and approved.

In order of business the secretary read a letter from Mrs. Henrietta Calvin, specialist in home economics, bureau of education, who gave Friday, August 12, as the day she could be with the auxiliary for a meeting. The secretary reported that a letter had been written to Mrs. Calvin, accepting the date she offered.

The secretary reported that Mr. R. L. Lewis, president of the county farmers' union, had been seen and that he was ready and willing to co-operate with the Woman's Auxiliary in holding a big picnic and rally on the second Friday in August. Report was also made of plans for the boys' and girls' clubs to join in the rally.

The secretary paid to the treasurer seventy-five cents, dues for Mrs. T. E. Haines, Mrs. A. S. Gibson and Mrs. J. H. Dodge. A receipt for $3 paid for paper toweling for the woman's rest room was turned over to the chairman of the rest room committee.

A balance of $50 in bank was reported and a contribution of $6 from Catharpin to the rest room fund. Mrs. W. L. Sanders reported that the girls' athletic association will give the proceeds from a play to pay the rent one month.

Mrs. Round announced that Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston, considered one of the foremost woman orators in the country, will be here for a W. C. T. U. meeting May 31-June 1. Mrs. Round urged that all present put forth an effort to help make the meeting a success.

The subject of community fairs was taken up and announcement was made of Supt. McDonald's plan to offer a silver loving cup to the community making the best exhibit at the county exhibit in the late fall. It was suggested that the Woman's Auxiliary offer a prize. The secretary made a suggestion in regard to lunch and motion pictures for that occasion.

Owing to heavy rains only ten members were present, but they were an interested group.

CATHARPIN CLOSER

The commencement exercises of Catharpin School were held Monday evening. Supt. Charles R. McDonald presented diplomas of graduation from the eighth grade to Miss Margaret Pattie, Miss Evelyn Lynn, Miss Rose Sloper and Macon Anderson. The program, which was highly entertaining, also included "The Star-Spangled Banner," a patriotic pantomime, and "Hiawatha" in tableau and song.

Gifts were presented to the teachers, Miss Alice Metz receiving a fountain pen and Miss Mary Trisham ivory toilet articles.

DR. HILL WRITES

—Dr. I. W. Hill, assistant in charge of boys' club work in the south, has expressed his willingness to attend the boys' and girls' club rally at Manassas on August 12, if his schedule will permit the arrangement, according to a letter just received by Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, county home demonstration agent. Dr. Hill leaves for Europe on June 15 with the winning team in boys' club work to attend the English royal livestock show. They are scheduled to leave Glasgow, Scotland, on July 22 on the return trip.

MISS RICE TO RECITE

—Miss Rose Rice has been invited to give a reading, "The Rebel Yell," at the memorial day celebration at Culpeper on June 3. Miss Rice will be the guest of Miss Adella Yowell, secretary of the Culpeper Chapter, U. D. C. She will also attend, as an honorary member of Mosby Camp, the meeting at Fairfax June 1.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

Club Boys Obtain Holstein Heifers—Tie Wool With Paper Twine—Farmers' Sale.

(W. L. Browning, County Agent)
 Now that sheep shearing time is here, I want to urge that every sheep breeder tie his wool with paper twine. This twine can be purchased in Manassas the last of this week from Newman-Trusler and also from Mr. Trenis, of Nokesville. This is a very important part of handling your fleeces. Under no circumstances use binder or sisal twine.

It is the desire of the majority of the wool growers who pooled their wool last year to pool this year's clip and sell the two clips together. We will announce later the days set for the wool to be brought together, at which time all breeders will be urged to come and see the wool graded.

Through the co-operation of Mr. J. A. Hooker and son, of Nokesville, a very fine bunch of registered Holstein heifer calves were distributed to a number of boys in the county to be raised as club calves. I feel that these calves are a much better lot of individuals than were distributed last year, and if fed by the boys, which they will be, they will have an exhibit of dairy animals this fall to be proud of.

I want to call attention to the co-operative sale to be held in Manassas at the Goodwin barn next Wednesday, commencing at 10 o'clock. This sale is for everybody. It is promoted for the purpose of helping you to dispose of your surplus, whether it is stock, implements, household articles, etc. If you have not listed your stuff, please bring it with you to the sale on sale day, and have it sold.

We want this sale to become a regular thing several times each year, and held, if wise, in several parts of the county. It is up to you to help make it a success, so to do that bring what you have and let us sell it for you, and buy the thing you have been wanting and did not know where to find. Communicate with your county agent regarding the sale, or any one of the committee whose name appears on the advertisements.

Dr. Cooper Curtice, who has charge of the government sheep farm near Vienna, gave a most interesting and instructive address at the county farmers' union meeting here on Friday, his subject being the treatment of sheep for stomach worms.

He has proved that these parasites can be eradicated from a flock of sheep while running on infected pastures, provided the treatment is continued.

W. C. T. U. CONFERENCE HERE

Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Hoge Expect to Attend—Two-Day Meeting.

A regional conference of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is to be held here at Grace M. E. Church, South, on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 31 and June 1, with sessions from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. A study in citizenship will be conducted by Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston, superintendent of the department of christian citizenship of the national W. C. T. U. Mrs. Livingston, said to be one of the foremost woman orators in the country, will speak Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, her subject being "The New Citizenship."

Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, of Loudoun county, president of the Virginia W. C. T. U. and national secretary, will also be present. An offering will be received for the work of the W. C. T. U. Everybody is invited to attend.

DAVIS FOR MAYOR

Mr. Harry P. Davis, municipal treasurer, and cashier of the National Bank of Manassas, has announced to the voters his intention to become a candidate for mayor at the municipal election on June 14. Mr. Davis is said to have the support of many representative business men.

MASS MEETING NAMES MUNICIPAL TICKET

J. C. Parrish Nominated for Mayor—Names Certified to County Clerk.

Following a mass meeting at the Town Hall Friday evening, the names of the following candidates for the June election were filed in the county clerk's office:
 For Mayor—J. C. Parrish.
 For Councilmen—J. L. Bushong, J. M. Bell, E. R. Conner, D. J. Arrington, R. S. Hynson, C. J. Meetze, M. Bruce Whitmore, B. C. Cornwell and B. Lynn Robertson.

Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe presided over the mass meeting and Mr. Clarence W. Wagener was made secretary. About forty votes were cast. The names of four candidates for mayor were proposed—Messrs. M. Bruce Whitmore, Clarence W. Wagener, B. Lynn Robertson and J. C. Parrish. Mr. Whitmore and Mr. Wagener, both present, declined to run, and Commonwealth's Attorney Lion announced that Mr. Robertson would be legally unable to serve while holding the office of county supervisor. Mr. Parrish, the sole remaining candidate, after some persuasion agreed to let his name come before the meeting, and was nominated.

Mr. Parrish is a comparative newcomer in the community. He came to Manassas from Duffield, purchasing "Elsinore," the Holden property in Fairfax, and the Manassas property which was formerly the home of the late Representative E. E. Meredith, where Mr. Parrish resides. He has made many friends in the community. Twenty-seven nominations for councilmen were made and the first ballot resulted as follows:
 D. J. Arrington, 28; J. L. Bushong, 28; C. J. Meetze, 26; B. Lynn Robertson, 24; M. Bruce Whitmore, 22; B. C. Cornwell, 19; E. R. Conner, 18; M. A. E. Spies, 18; G. W. Merchant, 17; J. M. Bell, 17; R. S. Hynson, 14; A. A. Hooff, 13; O. E. Newman, 13; Albert Spiden, 13; J. H. Steele, 13; Mrs. A. A. Hooff, 11; J. L. Harrell, 10; C. M. Larkin, 10; J. H. Burke, 9; T. E. Diddlake, 9; W. F. Hibbs, 6; J. L. Mosser, 6; R. M. Jenkins, 6; R. L. Byrd, 5; Mrs. J. L. Bushong, 1; W. A. Newman, 1; G. R. Ratcliffe, 1.

In order to determine the name of the ninth councilman a second ballot was taken, resulting in a tie between Mr. Bell and Mr. Merchant, with 17 votes each, and after a third trial Mr. Merchant's name was eliminated. Mrs. Spies, one of the first ballot nominees who was not present, declined to become a candidate and Mr. Hynson's name was substituted when the candidate's names were filed at the courthouse.

BRIDGE PARTY GIVEN

A delightful bridge was given Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Harrell in West street, with Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Vivian V. Gilham as hostesses. Spring blossoms of many varieties contributed to the decorations, including roses, clover, pansies, peonies and spirea. Highest score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Thomas Elvin Diddlake and Mrs. Joseph Preston Lyon.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments, consisting of fruit punch, salted nuts, cake and pyramids of strawberry ice cream in a setting of greenleaves and topped with luscious strawberries.

The players, engaging five tables, were: Mrs. Diddlake, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Margaret Pringle Lewis, Mrs. W. F. Fewell Merchant, Mrs. Lewis Frank Pattie, Mrs. Frank Gibb, Mrs. J. L. Luxford, Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Mrs. Alexander F. Stoeger, Mrs. James R. Larkin, Mrs. C. B. C. Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Campbell Bennet, Mrs. Francis Norvell Larkin, Mrs. Mark D. Brown, Mrs. Stuart-E. Bevans, Mrs. W. Fred Dowell, Mrs. Howard W. Jamison, Miss Amelia Brown, Miss Daisy Hill Brown and Miss Mary Larkin.

BENEFIT DANCE MAY 27

Manassas society looks forward with much interest to a benefit dance at Conner's Opera House on the evening of Friday, May 27, under the auspices of the social committee of the Manassas Patrons' League. The affair is expected to be one of the largest of the season. While no invitations have been issued locally, it is certain that the dancing set will accord the benefit a liberal patronage. The price of admission will be $2 a couple, or $1 for ladies unattended. Good music, proper chaperonage and everything necessary to make the dance a success are assured.

Among the patronesses are: Mrs. Stuart E. Bevans, Mrs. R. S. Hynson, Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Mrs. Frank Gibb, Mrs. E. R. Conner and Mrs. M. B. Whitmore.

WRECK NEAR QUANTICO

—A northbound passenger express on the R. F. & P. railroad, which leaves Fredericksburg at 5:17 p. m., was partially derailed last Thursday afternoon between Brooke station and Quantico, according to a report from Fredericksburg. Neither passengers nor crew were injured, it was stated, although the occupants were given a sudden and severe shaking up. Spreading rails are thought to be responsible for the accident, which tied up northbound traffic between one and two hours. A wreckage outfit raised the coaches on the rails and repaired the tracks.

ERECT MEMORIAL TO P. H. LYNCH

Employees of Southern to Honor Late Co-Worker—Soldier Son to Be Buried Here.

A memorial erected by nearly 500 employees of the Southern railway to the late Patrick Henry Lynch, employed by the Southern for forty years, will be unveiled at his grave in the Manassas cemetery on Memorial day, May 30. The ceremonies, to which the public is invited, will begin at 10 a. m.

Mr. Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway, will speak. Mr. R. E. Simpson, of Charlotte, N. C., general manager of the Southern, will make the address preceding the unveiling. Other speakers expected are Mr. W. F. H. Finks, of Washington, general tie and timber agent, and Mr. Morris Spero, of Harrisonburg, a general foreman. A quartet will sing "Rock of Ages," "Abide with Me" and "Sweet Bye and Bye." Rev. Louis Smet, of Alexandria, a former pastor of All Saints Catholic Church, will pronounce the benediction.

The stone bears the following inscription:
 "We loved him in life, let us not forget him in death."
 "P. H. Lynch. Born May 22, 1862. Died March 21, 1919. Erected to the Memory of Our Co-Worker by Employees Southern Railway."

Mr. Lynch died March 21, 1919, from injuries received in a wreck near Lexington. He had been with the Southern for forty years, serving in many capacities from track laborer as a boy to the position of roadmaster, which he held at the time of his death, his death occurring in line of duty.

Mr. Lynch was born near Clifton May 22, 1862, and had spent practically his entire life in this section. He was married to Miss Mary Jane Higgins, of Bristow, who survives him, together with two sons and four daughters, Mr. Martin Edward Lynch, now in Texas, and Mr. Thomas Lynch, of Manassas; Mrs. G. W. Berry, of Culpeper; Mrs. Victor L. Emerson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Mamie Lynch and Miss Margaret Lynch, of Manassas, and one brother, Mr. M. Lynch, of Manassas.

It is a strange coincidence that the body of Mr. Lynch's son, George Oliver Lynch, who died in France, is now on its way to Manassas for burial, the ship being due at New York tomorrow. "Ollie," as he was familiarly known, was wounded in the Argonne, hill 474, October 4, 1918, and died in a hospital at Vichy, France, January 13, 1919. He was educated at Manassas High School and Eastern College and is remembered as one of the best athletes Manassas ever produced. He served overseas as a sergeant of Company K, 318th infantry, 80th division.

Appropriate ceremonies will be held when the body arrives.

CHAIRS ARE SCARCE—SEEKS PATRONS' AID

High School Faculty Unable to Find Place to Hold Public Graduation Exercises.

(The High School Faculty)
 The high school is facing an acute problem just now in the necessity of finding accommodations for holding its annual commencement exercises. The two halls that have been generally used, Eastern College auditorium and Conner's Hall, are now nearly without seats, there being none at Eastern and only a little over a hundred chairs in Conner's Hall. The school itself has not over a hundred chairs all told. The courthouse also, which has been used sometimes in former years, now holds little more than the high school itself.

As an audience (including the school) of from 500 to 600 has always gathered at former commencements, the unfortunate dilemma now presents itself—unless some solution of the difficulty be found—of either not inviting the high school students to their commencement, or of not inviting their parents and friends.

The situation is especially unfortunate just now, as the commencement speaker is Mr. Thomas D. Eason, the state supervisor who controls in large measure the distribution of the high school state appropriations.

Through the courtesy of the Manassas papers the difficulty that the high school faces is therefore put before the friends and patrons of the school, in the hope that some solution may be offered, and enough seating capacity be found to accommodate both students and patrons.

PLAN FOR SUMMER WORK

Woodbine Sewing Club Members Discuss Ambitious Vacation Program.

(Goldie M. J. Golihew, Reporter) Promptly at 2:30 p. m. on Tuesday the Woodbine Sewing Club was called to order by the president, Miss Myrtle Cornwall.

Plans for the summer's work were then discussed by Miss Lillian V. Gilbert and the club, as follows: The breadmaking contest, picnics at Manassas and Mount Vernon.

This completed the business part of the meeting, which was adjourned after singing the hymn, "Sunshine in the Soul."

The sewing lesson was then taken up with great interest and enthusiasm. Each girl seemed anxious to make something with her own hands, for herself, or for the furnishing of her room.

One day last week Mr. K. M. Bradshaw captured an owl, whose unusual appearance puzzled the neighborhood as to its class. He sent it to the authorities at the zoological park in Washington and was informed that the bird is a "barn" or "monkey-faced" owl, seldom seen so far north. They did not have any like it at the zoo and were glad to add it to their collection.

 O, listen, good friends, while a story I tell
 Of a lad who was awfully shy
 Of a fair little Miss who was rapture and bliss,
 And for her dear love he did sigh.
 But his secret he kept, he had not the pep
 To declare his passion divine.
 It gave him the blues, it drove him to home,
 'Til one day he dropped in to dine.
 Then this little sinner when he'd finished his dinner
 Had a great idea hatched in his dome.
 Then this young dandy took her Martha Washington candy,
 And now he has her in a nice little home.

Clyde Scott, four years old, lies dying on his father's farm near Beckley, W. Va. His pet collie is dead. A vicious sow, bearing the scars of battle to the finish, is so badly mangled that she must be killed, too.

It is one of those simple little stories of a dog to which all human sympathy responds. The boy, playing in the yard, was attacked by the sow, which had escaped its pen. Hearing the child's screams, the collie rushed to the rescue and engaged the sow in a fight. It needs no assurance of the telegraphed item to tell him who knows his dog the details.

The child's mother came into the picture, bearing her torn baby to safety. But the dog remained. His was a supreme duty, that knew no compromise. The infuriated sow was a menace to those whom he loved. It was his business to remove that menace, and into this job he put all the energy of his devoted little soul. He may have known that there could be only one ending. That was not his concern. It was his concern only to remove the menace, and at any cost. His own life mattered not at all, and in the end he lost it, in a noble struggle for what he believed to be righteous as any that ever brightened the annals of the nation.

We do not know the little collie's name. If we did, we should like to print it, in honorable memory of his gallant conduct. He was a soldier and a gentleman; he was a devoted comrade and playmate; he was all that a dog is and that a man should be. We hope that he had a Christian burial, for he was a Christian, if to be Christian implies sacrifice of self and love for others. He was all of that, and he was a hero—a hero on four legs.—Baltimore Sun.

Mr. Edwin T. Newman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richards. Mr. Newman is one of the few surviving charter members of the Clifton Presbyterian Church, having been organist for a number of years in the church and Sunday School. He presided at the organ Sunday morning, evoking a volume of music that the congregation did not dream the instrument could hold.

Mrs. Poindexter and her sister, Mrs. Wittenstein, were Manassas visitors on Tuesday.

Misses Campbell and Davis spent the week-end in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Upp were Fairfax visitors Tuesday evening.

You will then have a bag about five and a half feet long. These bags are better than cloth to protect clothing from dust and moths.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

The Journal today offers a particularly hearty and cordial greeting to one and all, in honor of its twenty-sixth birthday. We have safely passed through the tender years of journalistic childhood and, hoping to have arrived at years of discretion and worth, endeavor to settle ourselves into the firm and steady gait that comes with the acquisition of years and experience.

Our interest in community progress is keen, with admiration for the achievements of the past, with satisfaction in the spirit of the present, and with buoyant hope for the undeveloped opportunities of the future.

We are striving to give you the best paper that can be produced with the revenue at our command and with the whole-hearted interest and co-operation of The Journal force of workers.

Assuring you that we shall continue to strive, to the limit of our ability, to fulfill every mission of a useful county newspaper, we thank you for your cordial and friendly assistance and for your liberal patronage.

THE ELECTION

A regrettable feature of the mass meeting which nominated a municipal ticket on Friday was the absence of many citizens more or less prominently identified with the life of the town. Why they were not present is not understood, but the first assumption that they were disinterested on-lookers has failed of its mark. The meeting was hastily assembled, notice to the public being circulated through the Manassas papers only on the day of the meeting and the day before—which may or may not have arbitrated against a full attendance.

At all events, and perhaps on this account, a growing dissatisfaction with the ticket nominated has manifested itself.

Mr. Harry P. Davis, municipal treasurer and cashier of the National Bank of Manassas, has announced that he will be a candidate for mayor—the first gun fired in opposition to the ticket named on Friday. Mr. Davis does not seek the office of his own accord, but at the earnest solicitation of a number of friends, notably including a large percentage of the business interests of the town. Mayor Brown has declined re-election.

Public sentiment apparently is growing stronger each day in favor of re-electing the present council, or a majority of its members. The old council, excepting only Messrs. Arrington and Robertson, was repudiated by the mass meeting (if this be a proper name for the small aggregation of voters present), the ticket being headed by a man whose candidacy is objected to by reason of his brief residence in the community.

The old idea, which still justly obtains, that it is bad policy to swap horses in midstream, is the controlling factor in the sentiment for holding the present council in office. It is universally realized that this is a critical period. If re-elected, the present council will be able to continue their program of placing Manassas finances on a substantial basis without a wasteful training period which any new set of officials would have to undergo.

The chief criticism registered against the old council is the fact that they have neglected the streets. This is true. But why?

At the expense of the streets the money was used for the benefit of our public utilities, to pay interest on town bonds and to retire a bond as it matured each year. We all know how necessary good streets are, and we know that money collected for the streets should be used for that purpose. But we also know full well that Manassas has in her public utilities an investment—and a bonded indebtedness—of over $100,000, which we can even less afford to neglect at this time. Nor can we afford to allow the payment of bonds and accrued interest to be in default.

Our revenue for the past few years, like the revenue of practically every other city and town in the country, has been inadequate for the needs to be supplied. A cut must be made somewhere—there was no alternative. The council chose to save the public utilities at the expense of the streets, choosing wisely what was most essential to our comfort and the damage that could best be remedied when times improve.

Their handling of municipal finances has been such that the treasurer vouches for the statement that our financial condition is improved in a considerable degree, and the superintendent of public utilities declares that in another year, with rigid economy, the plant should be on a paying basis.

If we are to inaugurate a new council in September, following the June election, we shall be obliged to go through a period of reorganization and readjustment, when the best councilmen while new to office are unable to function with the wisdom, dispatch and knowledge which the seasoned councilmen have acquired.

Our present councilmen have studied the situation for two years and are on the brink of having municipal affairs well in hand. Shall we expel them at a time when the need of maximum efficiency is paramount, or shall we bid them finish the job?

THE HALL PROBLEM

The high school faculty in a brief letter in today's issue passes on to Manassas patrons a high school problem which is not a teacher's burden but a community problem for all of us to solve. As the high school commencement—and the commencement of the grades, as well—approaches, the faculty faces the problem of finding a place to hold it.

While Manassas has two excellent halls for public meetings, their seating capacity is practically void on account of the scarcity of chairs. The town apparently does not hold enough chairs to accommodate a gathering of importance, social, political, educational, religious, or otherwise. When meetings are held a wholesale movement of chairs is in order, and after all if the attendance is moderately large there is "standing room only"—and plenty of it.

The college hall could not be expected to invest in new chairs. The owner of the public hall considers the investment too expensive at this time.

It is said that the ordinary cheap chair will cost at the rate of $25 a dozen, which makes the investment involve a greater amount of money than a cursory thought would suggest. The need is no less important, however, and community workers are cordially invited to consider it.

WHERE IS OUR BAND?

What has become of the old Manassas band? Our neighbors at Leesburg are effecting an organization, inviting music lovers throughout Loudoun to join. Culpeper has an orchestra which her citizens mention with patent pride.

Manassas once had a very creditable band. Several attempts to reorganize it have failed. Although several years have elapsed, with attending changes of population, many of those most prominently identified with the old band are still among us. And surely there is no dearth of new material.

Yet the musicians, paramount as their part is, are not wholly responsible for the success of the band. It must have community support behind it. Have we who are not musicians played our part?

THE UNIVERSITY TANGLE

A commission, wisely appointed to consider the wisdom of state support for two medical schools—the medical department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville and the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond—has reported in favor of consolidating the two institutions and continuing the medical college at Richmond. Five members of the board are said to have carried the decision over four dissenting votes.

Charlottesville is wrathful over the prospect, if we may accept as her spokesman the Daily Progress. And Richmond is jubilant, if we may accept the verdict of the press of the capital city.

Aside from this purely local and geographical aspect—if an outsider may be so permitted to view it—the question has two fairly well-defined sides. The development of sentiment in favor of abolishing the medical school at the university was necessarily supported by sound reasons, in order to support the commission's decision.

President Alderman several months ago offered this brief but forceful statement before the commission: "Nothing would justify the separation from a great and growing university of an organic and essential part of the university except incontrovertible proof that the necessary processes of educational work of that department could not with reasonable appropriation and wise legislation be carried on within the university. Any other position would invite general dismemberment and dissolution, as abhorrent to an institution as to an individual."

And, on the other hand, President Alderman very concisely sums up the situation as follows:

"The question before the commission apparently boiled down to the single question, where should the university conduct the medical school, comprising both the medical department of the university and the Medical College of Virginia—on its own grounds or in a distant city such as Richmond? Naturally, the burden of proof would rest upon those who advise the removal of the medical department of the university from the university to Richmond. They must show that medical education will gain, not lose, by this transfer, and that the university itself will be strengthened, not weakened, by this transfer. There are instances in America of medical schools separated from the parent university, but I do not know of one in which the separation took place when the medical school at the university site was functioning at its maximum of efficiency for a century and at a time when not a single one of its graduates for five years have failed before any American state board."

However, the final decision rests with the General Assembly, after the commission's report is submitted.

Let the "Wild Cats" Alone

¶ Every now and then somebody calls to ask for our opinion of some get-rich-quick scheme in which he or she has been asked to invest. For several years past, the country has been flooded with BONANZAS (?), and many people, TO THEIR SORROW, have put money into them.

¶ Occasionally some good but misguided man, who has already bought a "WILD CAT" stock calls on us seeking information. We like always to be encouraging, but on such occasions we feel very much as we imagine the doctor does who has to tell his patient the worst.

¶ It is for the reason that there are very bad as well as very good securities that we advise prospective investors in any issue to INVESTIGATE it thoroughly.

I HAD A FRIEND

By EDMUND VANCE COOKE
Author of Impertinent Poems

I had a friend.

He was straight as a string.
His conscience pricked at the slightest thing.
He was former Sec. of the Untown "Y."
But now he was flourishing, living high,
And letting his friends in on a deal
To float a new make of automobile,
Which had one H. Ford so badly scared
He was buying in, so's to be prepared.
Well, the stock certificates looked first rate,
With a round, gold-seal, and a notary's data.
So I bought this non-assessable stock,
Which was as "good as the wheat," and "firm as a rock."

But on which no bank would borrow or lend,
And I have it yet.

And I have a friend.

Unexcelled for Baking

White Rose Flour, which is made by us only, is unexcelled for all kinds of baking. It is milled for average year-round family use—loaf bread, biscuit, pastry and cake. It is ground from good, clean grain that is thoroughly sifted and is packed in the most sanitary manner.

An all-purpose flour is what the average housewife most appreciates. To know that a sack of White Rose furnishes the basis for all baking is indeed a comforting thought in many a Northern Virginia home. Are you one of the happy users of this high-grade flour?

White Rose is Reasonably Priced

In these days of practical economy, the old saying "a penny saved is a penny earned," carries special significance. Buyers of White Rose flour save money, in comparison with other high grade flours. And they get all that the average cook asks of a flour—adaptability to all types of baking.

White Rose is now for sale in most sections of Northern Virginia. Very likely your grocer has it in stock right now. If he has not, send us his name. We will gladly take care of your orders direct until he can supply you.

LATE NEWS NOTES

Thomas Wilkinson, a farmer living in Virginia, was killed by lightning while driving a wagon. The mules he was driving were not injured, but one was instantly killed.

A meeting was held at Leesburg Sunday to organize a brass band. The organization is not only for Leesburg residents, but also for musicians throughout Loudoun who are willing to work for it.

It is claimed for a game rooster owned by John A. Robb, of King George county, that he goes out in the pasture and brings in the cows at evening.

Col. Frank White, who was recently sworn in as treasurer of the United States, is a son of Joshua White, who went to Illinois from his home near Hillsboro, Loudoun county, just before the civil war. Col. White is president of the Middle West Trust Company and an overseas veteran, and also served in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war. Soon after his return from the war he was elected governor of North Dakota, his adopted state. Col. White has many near relatives in Loudoun, among them being Leigh White, of Wheatland, and Josiah R. White, of Hillsboro.

R. B. Mitchell, of Edinburg, a practicing chiropractor, charged with practicing without a license, was found guilty by a jury in the Shenandoah circuit court at Woodstock. The case had been brought from a decision of a magistrate's court, where Mitchell was fined $25. It is understood that his defense was inasmuch as he was a practicing chiropractor, a method of the profession which does not prescribe drugs and is not amenable to the law for medical practitioners.

R. C. Haydon, principal of Alexandria High School, appeared before the school board, making an interesting report of the recent meeting of high school principals at the University of Virginia. Among the subjects discussed, he stated, were closer relations between school boards and principals; too many subjects being taught; teaching not thorough enough; the shortening of the school day, and vocational courses recommended.

Reports of the finding of a gold mine in Appomattox county are accepted at face value, says a dispatch from New Canton, for it is known that Buckingham, Fluvanna and Appomattox are fairly full of gold-bearing quartz veins, many of which were worked profitably before and since the civil war. There are at least fourteen old gold mines in Buckingham county which have produced gold in small or large quantities. The old Booker mine was worked for many years and produced thousands of dollars' worth of gold. The Bondurant mine was also worked for years, as was the London and Virginia mine and the Gilliam mine near Andersonville.

Determination of Judge T. N. Haas, presiding over the circuit court of Rockingham county, "to enforce the prohibition law as long as it is a law" was evidenced when two violators of this statute were given the maximum penalty—six months in jail and a fine of $500—and required to give bond in the sum of $3,000 each not to repeat the offense within twelve months, according to a dispatch from Harrisonburg. The court declared that failure to execute the bond would mean six months additional in jail.

A $100,000 fund for the improvement of the old Washington-Leesburg pike will be asked of Washington and Virginia residents. It is planned to raise the amount within the next few weeks and have the improvement completed by fall. In a meeting of Georgetown business men, presided over by Col. Robert N. Harper, a resolution was adopted in which Georgetown residents will be asked to contribute $25,000 to the fund. The Leesburg chamber of commerce is looking after the raising of Virginia's share.

Ralph Coffman, of near Woodstock, and William Young, aged twenty-three of Pittsburgh, Pa., were found guilty of four charges, one of burglary and three of housebreaking, and were sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary by a jury at Woodstock. Coffman and Young for several weeks played the part of "night-riders" in that section. Coffman, who is said to come of a good Shenandoah family, went to Pittsburgh, where he met his accomplice, and they began their active work by stealing an automobile, from which they operated.

After about 275 men had searched day and night for two days for the two-year-old son of George Getz, living in Hampshire county, W. Va., who had wandered away from his home, it remained for the family dog to find the child lying among some leaves, in the mountain, three miles from home, according to news from Winchester. The child's absence was discovered after several hours and during the night parties scoured the thickly wooded hills. The search was continued the following day, with no results, until finally the family dog, hearing the child's cries some distance away, located his master's son, and greeted him with a wagging tail.

Despite the handicap of being handcuffed together, John Chapman, fifteen, and Clarence Elkins, seventeen, Russell county boys who escaped on April 23, jumped from a moving train on the outskirts of Petersburg while being taken to the state reformatory at Laurel, having eluded the police of Petersburg, Hopewell and Prince George county. The police in that section are of the opinion that persons in the county, sympathizing with the boys, cut the steel bands from their wrists and they are now in the home neighborhood.

A diamond ring belonging to Mrs. S. Russell Smith, of Culpeper, was recovered from a negro arrested in Washington, where he was trying to dispose of it to a pawnbroker, according to the Culpeper Star. The pawnbroker offered the negro $150 for the ring and, becoming suspicious when he refused to sell for that sum, rang for a policeman. The prisoner, who gave the name of Robert Dixon, said he had gotten the ring from a colored girl in Culpeper named Jessie Johnson who, when accosted by the sheriff there, said it was a loan from another girl, Lillie Fry, employed as Mrs. Smith's cook. After being questioned, in a trial of the three before Justice Hill, Lillie Fry finally admitted that she had stolen the ring from Mrs. Smith. Being under eighteen years of age, she was ordered sent to the reform school in Hanover county. The other two are held for the grand jury.

WILL HAVE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Bristow Boys and Girls Decide to Organize Sunday Afternoon.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, County Home Demonstration Agent)

At the last meeting of the Bristow boys' and girls' club on May 7, the possibility of organizing a Sunday School was discussed and it was decided that an effort be made to do so. Since then a number have promised to help with the work. It is hoped that everyone in the community will cooperate.

With the boys and girls and their faithful teacher, Mrs. T. E. H. Dickins, behind the movement, it must be a success. Three o'clock Sunday afternoon is the time appointed for the first meeting. Rev. J. M. Bell will be present to organize the Sunday School. Be sure to come. Tell your neighbor to come.

In the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia.

Charles Herrman Hamilton, Complainant

vs. IN CHANCERY Stella Marie Hamilton, Defendant. ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce a mensa et thoro on the grounds of desertion, with a right to apply to the court at the end of three years from November 11, 1918, to have such decree merged and enlarged into a divorce a vinculo matrimonii as provided by statute and for general relief.

An affidavit having been filed that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, the Clerk doth grant and enter this order of publication this 29th day of April, 1921.

It is therefore ordered that the defendant do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

FORD PRODUCING 4,000 CARS A DAY

Present Production Greater Than for Same Period Last Year.

Ford is building cars at full speed. And, according to an official statement from the factory at Detroit, the demand for Ford cars and trucks still exceeds the output, despite the fact that a new high level of production has been reached.

By the first of May the figures representing daily production were in the neighborhood of 4,000 a day, so the May schedule was set at 101,125 cars and trucks, not including the output of the Ford Canadian plant or any of the foreign assembling plants. The output mounted daily; May 12th brought forth 4,092, the greatest number that have been produced in one day so far this year. Since the month has 25 working days, present indications point to a new high record.

A comparison of Ford production figures for 1920 and 1921 discloses the fact that for April, 1921, the output was greater by 34,514 than for the corresponding month of a year ago. The output for May, 1921, will probably overshadow May, 1920, by between fifteen and twenty thousand cars and trucks.

Approximately 43,000 men are at work in the Detroit plant of the Ford Motor Company. The factory is operating on full time, six days a week and three shifts a day.

"We were never in a better condition than we are right now," said Henry Ford recently.

I'd walk a mile for a Camel

The pleasure is worth it. There's no substitute for Camel quality and that mild, fragrant Camel blend.

The fellow who smokes Camels, wants Camels. That's because Camels have a smoothness, a fragrance and a mildness you can't get in another cigarette.

Don't let anyone tell you that any other cigarette at any price is so good as Camels.

Let your own taste be the judge. Try Camels for yourself. A few smooth, refreshing puffs and you'd walk a mile for a Camel, too.
