MANASSAS WINS ANOTHER GAME

White Roses Defeat Remington on Manassas Diamond—Close Contest Ending 2 to 1.

Manassas defeated Remington Saturday on the local field by the close score of 1-2 in the best game seen here this season. Both pitchers—Brown, of Remington, and Utterback, of Manassas—gave the best pitching exhibition seen on the local diamond for some time.

Remington scored in the third inning and Manassas in the eighth. Remington threatened in the seventh when, with two men on, the local boys executed a triple play—Larson to Saunders to Trimmer.

The White Roses will play Herndon here tomorrow.

ALUMNI MEET FOR ANNUAL BANQUET

Former Students of M. H. S. Gather at New Prince William—Officers Elected.

The annual banquet of the Alumni Association of Manassas Institute and Manassas High School was held at the New Prince William Hotel Saturday evening. At a business meeting held earlier in the evening the following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary J. Cox; vice-president, Miss George D. Adamson; secretary, Miss Kate N. Wilkox; treasurer, Miss Julia Maloney; executive committee, Miss Mary Lee Chapman, Miss Caroline Beachley and officers previously named.

Mr. Percy S. Haydon presented a plan to raise through members of the alumni a $100 scholarship to be offered by competitive examination to students in other districts of Prince William county. The plan received hearty endorsement and the president was authorized to appoint a committee to take up the matter.

The banquet hall was decorated with flowers in the school colors, blue and gold. The good ship M. H. S., a sturdy sailing vessel three feet long, adorned the president's table, forming the keynote of a nautical evening featuring Friendship and Fellowship.

- To the Fleet—Mr. Richard C. Haydon.
- To the Officers—Dr. C. R. C. Johnson.
- To the Fleet—Prof. J. H. Dodge.
- To the Voyage—Mr. Clarence W. Wagner.
- To the Voyagers—Miss Mary Lar-kin.
- To Fellowship—Miss Elizabeth Johnson.
- To Friendship—Mrs. W. Willis Davis.
- To Those Who Have Crossed the Bar—Miss Lulu Metz.
- Mr. William Hill Brown, a member of the class of 1921, responded to the toast to the voyagers, and other members of the class—Misses Caroline Beachley, Sadie Hixson, Beulah Whitmer and Elizabeth Covington—also made response.

Miss E. H. Osbourn offered a toast to other members of the faculty and presented a plea for co-operation in creating sentiment for the erection of a school auditorium.

Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, who was unable to be present, in a letter read by Miss Mary Lee Chapman presented the need of a dormitory for boarding students and pledged her co-operation.

Mrs. B. T. H. Hodge expressed her interest in the school and her appreciation of a gift of the alumni, offering a toast to faculty and students.

Solos were sung by Miss Minnie L. Swart and Miss Mary Lee Chapman, who were warmly applauded. School songs were sung with spirit by all present.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL ELECTED JUNE 14

AGED RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Father of Hon. C. J. Meetze Passes Away at Age of 86—Six Sons Survive.

John Luther Meetze, a Confederate soldier, one of the oldest residents of Manassas, died suddenly Monday afternoon at the age of eighty-six. His death occurred at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lewis, where Mr. and Mrs. Meetze have made their home for a few years.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Gainesville Methodist Church, of which he was a member and where he was Sunday School superintendent for twelve years. The service was conducted by Rev. Homer Welch, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. A. B. Jamison, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in the churchyard there, his six sons acting as pallbearers.

Mr. Meetze was born in Lexington county, South Carolina, July 10, 1834. He came to Virginia with the South Carolina troops during the war and with his brothers, Major H. A. Meetze and Capt. G. W. Meetze. After the war he settled in Fauquier county, coming to Prince William in 1880. His first wife was Miss Sarah Jerrette Coughman, of Lexington, S. C., who died nearly thirty years ago. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Lizzie R. Clarke, of Limestone, whom he married in 1905.

Besides his wife he leaves six sons, Messrs. Geo. W. Meetze, of Wilmington, Del.; H. F. Meetze, of Richmond; T. W. Meetze, of Stafford; R. M. Meetze, of The Plains, and C. J. Meetze and H. Y. Meetze, of Manassas. He also leaves a brother, Capt. G. W. Meetze, of Meetze, Fauquier county, seventeen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

ROAD IS BUILT AT CHERRY HILL

(H. O. Russell)

After a number of years of wasteful spending in the construction of a road from Cherry Hill to connect with the Washington-Richmond highway, we are pleased to announce that we have succeeded in getting a real road out of Cherry Hill.

Before proceeding with this article, I must give proper credit to those responsible for this excellent work. I also desire to bring to the attention of Prince William people what actually can be done with a small amount of money properly expended.

Early in April a majority of the citizens of this community had finally come to realize the important fact that before another dollar was spent on this road it was necessary to get a man with a thorough knowledge of road building. Mr. Herbert Tubbs, overseer of Coles district, consented to undertake the task. Mr. Tubbs had been highly recommended to the league as a man who could build a good road.

When this work was started, about April 15, the Cherry Hill Good Roads League had on deposit to its credit $134.90—not much money, but plenty of experience with so-called experts in this particular line and above all community courage which was excellent. The people of the community came forward with all of their old-time vim which had stood the test of previous clouded years.

When Mr. Tubbs arrived hundreds of stumps had to be removed before he could proceed to build anything like a road. As stated above, we had little money but plenty of courage. Every night except Saturday (the first week that Mr. Tubbs worked) the citizens volunteered their services to remove the stumps, cut down the banks in deep cuts and all other work necessary to make progress as rapidly as possible.

This work by the citizens was an example of the excellent community progress and co-operation always notable in this community.

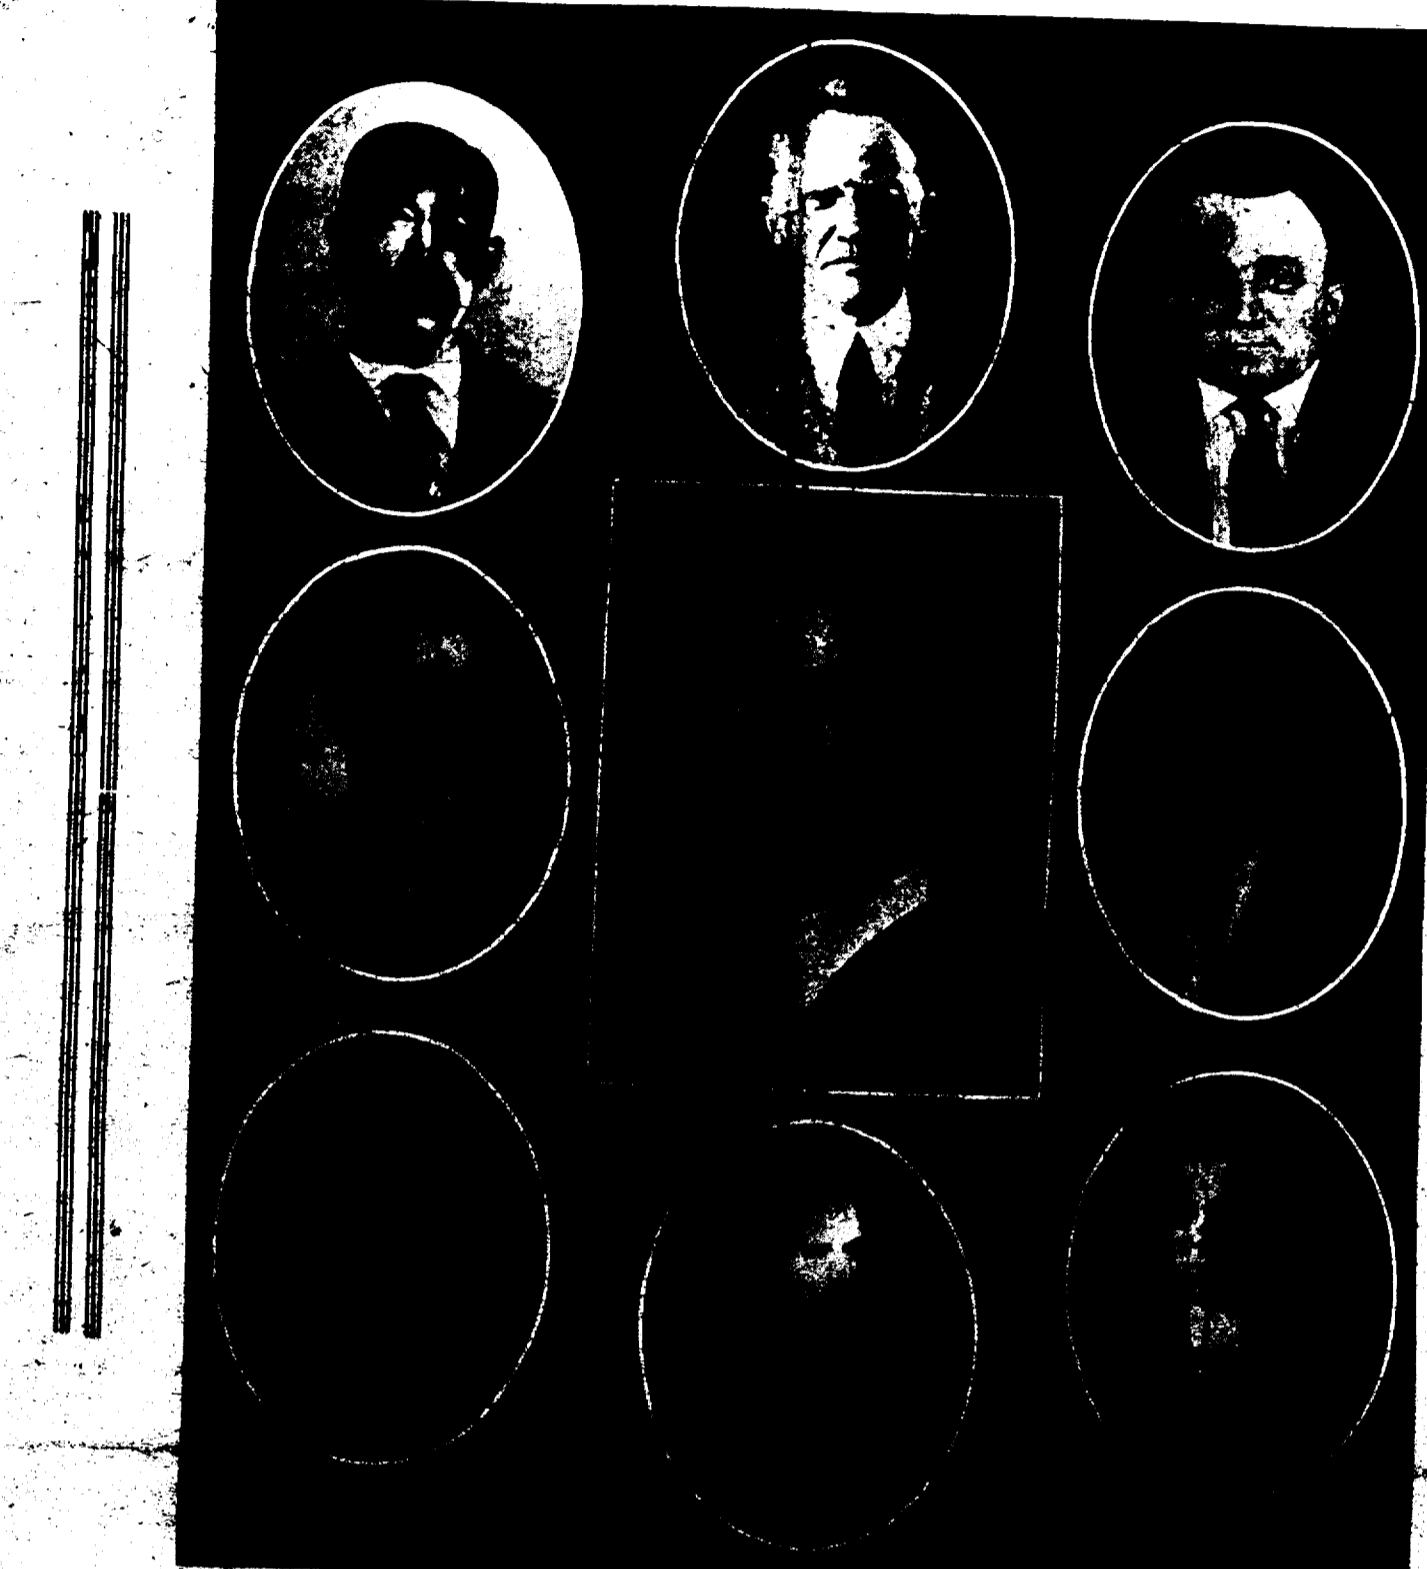

This sacrifice was continued by the citizens for four weeks that the road was under reconstruction and was the means of saving considerable money to the district and neighborhood.

The team and men under the supervision of Mr. Tubbs had to be paid every week, and you will agree with me that the above-mentioned $134.90 was but a small portion of the amount required to carry on the work. However, a further call on the good citizens for financial assistance was met with that progressive enthusiasm that these people are always noted for in the interest of a good cause.

The distance of this piece of road from Cherry Hill to the state highway is three and eight tenths miles over a section of country so rough that only 600 yards is what may be called flat; and to further describe the obstacles to be overcome, the road extends through a dense forest nearly its full length.

Nearly all of the citizens of this community deserve great credit for the part they have taken in making the road a success. They have given thirteen nights' work between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. and have contributed approximately $75 in cash. Dumfries district contributed $50, thus making the cost of the two-way road, approximately three and eight tenths miles long, $425.

BOYS STRUCK BY TRAIN

Harry Rexrode and Robert Sprinkel Slightly Injured—Car Ruined.

Another grade crossing accident occurred Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, near the Catholic Church, when an automobile in which Robert Sprinkel and Harry Rexrode were riding was struck by Southern train, No. 46, running from Harrisonburg to Washington. The boys were cut and bruised and severely shaken up, and the car, a five-passenger Ford belonging to Mr. R. B. Sprinkel, father of the boy who drove it, was completely demolished. The boys were traveling south and failed to see the train which was screened by a car on the siding. The engine struck the back door and bore the car about fifty yards down the track before the train could be stopped. Young Rexrode, who had attempted to jump when he saw the train, was thrown out, and young Sprinkel was found curled up under the wheel. Both were rendered unconscious, the latter recovering in a few hours and the former remaining semi-conscious until early next day. One is nursing an injured hip and the other has a gash in the back of his head, in which two stitches have been taken.

The ceremony took place at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Howard F. Downs, who was assisted by Rev. C. L. Beard, of Round Hill. The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue, with a black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Keys and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cato, of Potomac.

The wedding dinner was served at the Raleigh Hotel, after which the happy couple left on a Norfolk steamer for Newport News and other points of interest. They will be at home Saturday June 25 at Joplin.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN

Without pledging herself in either column, Prince William will welcome the visit of Senator Trinkle on Tuesday in the interest of his campaign. This is probably Mr. Trinkle's first visit to Manassas since he opened a law office here twenty years ago in partnership with Mr. A. O. Portner.

We often feel a great many miles from Richmond, and a visit from our gubernatorial candidates is just the thing we want. We hope Mr. Tucker will give us the same opportunity at an early date.

MR. RUST WITHDRAWS

Friends of Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Rust alike will appreciate the straightforward letter addressed to the voters by Mr. Rust in withdrawing from the county race for the House of Delegates. His letter, published elsewhere in this issue, contains a hearty appeal to his followers to rally to the Sinclair standard.

Mr. Rust's surprise and humiliation will be keenly felt by his friends and even those who regretted his candidacy, hoping for Mr. Sinclair's re-election without opposition, will honor him for the spirit in which he leaves the contest.

THE POST OFFICE WILDERNESS

What has become of the former active sentiment in favor of having a new post office in Manassas? The government has selected a lot and paid for it, and now our citizens sit quietly by while it produces a crop of weeds, waiting patiently for Uncle Sam in his busy life to recall that he owns a lot here and that Manassas really needs a post office.

The weeds are tall and of exceedingly admirable growth. In fact they doubtless would prove a delightful habitat for mosquitoes and other pests and a most inviting prospect for snakes.

No lot under private ownership would be allowed to remain in this condition.

Uncle Sam has more important business to attend to and we can hardly expect him to come to Manassas to look after his premises. It is our business to see that the situation reaches the ears of his agents.

A new post office is one of our transcending needs. We need a building with working space large enough to accommodate our post office employees and the mail which they handle. Without it we cannot expect efficient service.

Representative Moore has offered his support in congress and assuredly Mr. Moore can hardly be expected to boast with more enthusiasm than we have displayed.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Mr. H. O. Russell, of Cherry Hill, in a letter published elsewhere in this issue, pictures a splendid example of co-operation among Prince William citizens in the common interest of better roads. Such spirit universally exhibited would remove many handicaps, notably including the lack of funds which is our foremost difficulty in Prince William.

LET'S HAVE A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Manassas presents a wonderful opportunity for the organization of a Chamber of Commerce. Our sister towns of Warrenton, Culpeper and Leesburg already have seen its advantages and Leesburg has been particularly benefited by its service.

Such an organization of business men can achieve for Manassas what no unorganized effort on the part of the most public spirited citizens can do. Its functions would not be duplicated by any other agency now in operation.

Closely following the election, this suggestion is offered to the many citizens who have evidenced a keener and broader and more unselfish interest in town affairs than ever before. There is vital need of every ounce of effort which our citizens are willing to expend.

MAKING WAR MORE DEADLY

If all the means to destroy human life in the next war attain the success hoped for by their inventors, armies will not dare to get within range of each other. The saving situation may be in other inventions tending to give greater or less immunization to soldiers against air bombs, gas shells, torpedoes and the other appliances at present guaranteed to kill men by thousands within a few minutes. If an army is able to mask itself against the deadly vapors which artillerists and air forces will shoot against it and fight its way close to the enemy—say an American army—the advancing masses will walk into a hail of grenades fired from millions of rifles in the hands of soldiers waiting to see the whites of the enemies' eyes.

A Roumanian engineer has perfected an apparatus which shoots grenades of highly explosive nature from an ordinary army rifle. At a demonstration of his invention just outside Paris for the education of French military experts who once pronounced his engineering ideas crazy, he fired one-pound grenades more than a mile without injury to the rifle or the man holding it. To complete his device he is perfecting a distance-gauging apparatus which will enable him to fire a high-explosive grenade with negligible error, not greater, he says, than that of the ordinary machine gun. This, however, is a trifle compared to the gases said to have been brought to perfection by the chemical division of the United States army—gases from which, if used now, there could be no escape.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

DIET FOR A HALE OLD AGE

There is nothing particularly new in the dietary advice given yesterday by Prof. McCollum, of Johns Hopkins, to the health conference at the city hall, but it is reassuring to have the simple life at the table set forth by a man of such eminent authority in the field of hygiene.

The marked conquest of infectious diseases and the lowered death rates from them in recent years have been accompanied by a steadily rising death rate from intestinal diseases and those in which hardening of the arteries is a controlling factor. Dr. McCollum points out, as other physicians have done, that the overeating of meat and the under-eating of milk and vegetables is chiefly responsible for these conditions. He would begin his quart of milk a day and his free use of green and salads in early manhood, so that the diseases from which so many business men suffer would never get a start.

But diet, although potent, is not the whole gospel of health. There is just published here a letter from Lord Leverhulme to "Tom" Drier, of Boston, in which he cites an observation of Mr. Gladstone in the old days of stage coaches. Mr. Gladstone advocated level roads for coach routes until he found that the coach horses of the hilly roads lasted half as long again as those on the level, from which the then young statesman deduced that it was "variety and change, uphill and down valley, collar work at one point and no collar work at another that was best for the health of a horse, and, in his experience, best for the health of man." "Variety and vegetables" would not make a bad health slogan.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The cruel waiter said.

TOO POLITE

"He's a terribly polite man, isn't he?"
"I should say so. Why, I believe he would even take off his hat to bow to the inevitable."

HER EXCUSE

Professor—Why weren't you at chapel this morning, Mabel?
Mabel—I have an excuse, professor.
Professor—Yes, I have seen him.—Judge.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN

He (cautiously)—Would you say, "Yes," if I asked you to marry me?
She (more cautiously)—Would you ask me to marry you if I said I would say "Yes" if you asked me to marry you?

DIDN'T ENVY HIM

He had married a widow and all went well for a week, when they had their first quarrel. The next day he came down to breakfast with a mourning band on his arm.
"Oh, I'm so sorry," said his wife, "What is it for?"
"For your first husband," he replied. "I'm sorry he died."

EVE

"Adam was certainly fortunate."
"How so?"
"We only cost him one bone."

PULL THE TRIGGER

Judge—What is the charge?
Policeman—Intoxication, your honor.
Judge (to prisoner)—What is your name?
Prisoner—Gunn, sir.
Judge—Well, Gunn, I'll "discharge" you this time, but don't get "loaded" again.

THE LURE

"How do you get so many girls?"
"I sprinkle some gasoline on my handkerchief."

A PINCH HIT

Prof.—Why did America lose so much time in entering the war, Mr. Gooch?
Mr. Gooch (coming to suddenly)—Not prepared, sir.
Prof.—Exactly.

LOGICAL

"Why do you call your car Regular?"
"All other cars go by it."

CUT RATES

"Why, you're only blind in one eye."
"Well, make it a nickel, then."

Patience—How would you like to go for your honeymoon in an airplane?
Patrice—Not me—I should hate to miss the tunnels.

"I thought you said your husband would see me?" he said.
"He has seen thee," responded the Quaker lady, "but he did not like thy looks, so he went another way."

FLOUR

YOU, TOO, WILL LIKE

It is not a "guess" on our part to say that you, too, will like White Rose Flour, once you give it a thorough trial.

Northern Virginia—that White Rose is a high-grade, all-purpose flour which makes excellent loaf bread, cake, pastry, biscuit and all oven products—is convincing evidence of the all-round merit of this flour.

For family use, where nearly all women do not wish two or three brands of flour taking up room in the kitchen or pantry, White Rose Flour is the one flour that serves satisfactorily. With the high point of excellence this flour has reached, there is no more need for the purchase of special flours.

And why pay the higher price? White Rose, being ground at Manassas, under most modern conditions, and with the freight charges on the flour amounting to considerably less than on the Western brands, it is not surprising that the price of White Rose is lower than on many of the equally high grade flours to all of Northern Virginia users.

Order a sack of White Rose today. If your grocer can not supply you, send us his name and address and we will fill your orders direct until he can supply you.

SENATOR TRINKLE COMING

GRADUATES HEAR MR. EASON SPEAK

Supt. McDonald Presents Diplomas at Manassas High School Commencement.

A large gathering of patrons and friends witnessed the annual commencement exercises of Manassas Agricultural High School Friday evening at Eastern auditorium. Mr. Thomas D. Eason, state supervisor of agricultural high schools, made the address to the graduates.

Mr. William Hill Brown, a member of the graduating class, delivered an address of welcome extended on behalf of the school to the superintendent, trustees, families of students and friends. Miss Caroline Elizabeth Beachley read an essay on "Some Needs of Our High School," which was very well received.

Miss Beachley was awarded the Fannie Osbourn Metz English prize and Miss Annabelle Merrill received the Elizabeth Quarles Johnson mathematics prize. The English prize, offered annually by Miss Osbourn, the principal, in memory of her late sister, by whom it was formerly offered, was awarded in an essay contest. The Elizabeth Quarles Johnson prize, offered by Dr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson in memory of their daughter, is awarded to the pupil who attains the highest average in mathematics for the year. John Holt Merchant was accorded honorable mention. Rev. A. Stuart Gibson presented the prizes.

A medal offered annually by a friend of the school whose name is withheld to the individual point winner of the eighth Virginia district athletic meet, provided Manassas win the meet and furnish the point winner, was presented by Rev. William Stevens to Ralph Larson.

Miss Mary Lee Chapman, representing members of the alumni who had been especially interested in music and expression, presented to Mrs. B. T. H. Hodge, a former member of the faculty, a purse, leaving to Mrs. Hodge the selection of a gift expressing the affection and esteem of her former students.

Superintendent Charles R. McDonald, who presided, presented diplomas to the following graduates: Miss Caroline Elizabeth Beachley, Miss Beulah Lee Whitmer, Miss Sadie Caroline Hixson and Mr. William Hill Brown, jr. Miss Elizabeth Ashby Covington received a business certificate.

Superintendent McDonald also read a letter from Dr. E. A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia. The letter, addressed to Mr. McDonald and dated June 18, follows: "I have recently seen a letter from Dr. J. M. Page, Dean of the University, commending the Manassas Agricultural High School. I have the desire to endorse very heartily the sentiments expressed in the letter of Dr. Page, and to assure you that I regard the Manassas High School as one of the best schools in the state. It deserves to be strengthened and developed and carried forward in the finest possible way."

The musical numbers rendered by the chorus class under the direction of Miss Minnie L. Swart were particularly well received. The quality of the singing, shading, time and expression elicited much favorable comment, as did the assistance given by the boys' glee club, which has been a special feature of high school assemblies this year.

Mr. Eason, who was introduced by Superintendent McDonald, took as his first theme, "Growth and Development." All living creatures, he said, are the result of two factors, heredity and environment. People come into the world with a certain set of abilities. On their environment depends the development and improvement of these abilities. Here is where the tremendous importance of the school comes in, for all real improvement and development, both for society and the individual, come through education.

The chief aim in life for most people, after their own place in the world is secured, can only be for the development and welfare of their children, and hence any community may have no greater concern than for its schools. After a number of illustrations as to the attitude of various communities towards their schools the speaker passed on to a consideration of conditions affecting the local high school and said in part:

"The people of Manassas do not realize the unique advantages of their high school. In the first place it has (given by the state) an unusually fine equipment for both agricultural and home economics teaching, the former including the first and only high school dairy laboratory in Virginia. The Manassas teachers of home economics and agriculture are among the ablest and best trained in Virginia.

"The school also is unusual in the variety of work it offers, giving opportunity to the different types of pupils to obtain the training best suited to their capabilities and needs. It not only has the fine departments in home economics and agriculture, but an excellent business department as well. Moreover, the academic side of the work is not neglected, but is kept up by untiring effort on the part of the teachers to the best standards of high school work in the country."

"The people of the community should also realize that this variety and quality of work is being done at very much less cost than for the same results obtained elsewhere. Manassas is getting the type of school she has, not for what she puts into it, but because of devoted effort on the part of her teaching staff.

"More building accommodations are also badly needed. A number of communities in the state, no larger than Manassas and in some instances smaller and situated at a distance from the railroad, are erecting $40,000 and $50,000 buildings for the use of their schools. Manassas not only has no school hall but, like the dodder in the plant world which lives on the juices of other plants, has to use the resources of a private institution for her public school meetings. At little individual cost and effort her high school might easily have a hall of its own.

In the course of the address the speaker referred to the valuable work the school is now doing in the series of vocational guidance talks that have been given to the students during the last two years. In this work, just being introduced into the high schools of the state, Manassas High School is leading the way, he said.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY:

Dear Friends:—It has just been called to my attention that I failed to pay my poll taxes prior to May 7, which renders me ineligible as a candidate.

In my defense will state that I failed to pay my taxes last fall. On May 2, 1921, I sent the county treasurer a check for part of my taxes and failed to ask that he apply part of this to my poll tax. This check was for bill on real estate and did not include poll tax and was credited correctly on the books, as they will show.

I am absolutely to blame for this unintentional neglect to do my duty as a citizen, and assume all the responsibility, as humiliating as it is to me. I have been a voter for twenty-three years and this is the first time that I have ever lost my vote. I have been accustomed to paying my taxes in a lump sum; that is the only excuse I can make for my mistake.

I want to thank my good friends for all the trouble they have been on my account. I am deeply indebted to each one of you, and I beg that you be as lenient as possible in your criticism of me in this matter.

I have always tried to stand for the right thing and therefore ask my friends to what I cannot do in full, and that is for one and all to come out and vote for Mr. Sinclair, and during his term of office uphold his hands, that his services may be of real value to our county. Yours truly, R. A. RUST.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING

To the Electors of Prince William County, Virginia, and to All Qualified Voters of Prince William County who are in accord with the principles of the republican party and are in sympathy with its aims and purposes and who will pledge themselves to support the nominees of the convention hereinafter called:

You are hereby notified that in pursuance of instructions given by the republican State Committee a county mass meeting will be held in Conner's Hall, Manassas, Va., Saturday, July 2, 1921, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates and alternates to the State Convention which will be held in Norfolk, Va., July 14, 1921.

By direction of the Republican County Committee for Prince William County, Va., at Manassas, Va., this 21st day of June, 1921.

W. E. TRUSLER, Chairman. C. S. SMITH, Secretary.

If our prices and merchandise are not right, tell us. If so, tell your friends. We want to serve you. Farmers' Exchange.

ROAD IS BUILT AT CHERRY HILL

Mr. Tubbs assumed full responsibility for the work and was granted all necessary assistance by the citizens. I want to emphasize the fact that Mr. Tubbs' coat was off at all times and for ten hours each day and longer if necessary.

This statement would be misleading if I fail to mention that not all of this road has been top-dressed; however, all bad places were surfaced to insure safe traffic at all times.

In 1920, $1,400 was wasted absolutely, as the work done was of no particular advantage to the road—the stumps were not removed and the road was built around them. In 1919 a large sum was spent, of which I have not the figures, as no statement has been rendered to the road league by the former treasurer of the league.

There is no question in the writer's mind but that our principal trouble in road building in all communities is a lack of proper management. It is absolutely necessary to put some one in charge who has the proper knowledge of road building and the community interest at heart. The people of Cherry Hill have found out to their disadvantage that nine men out of every ten you talk with about road work will tell you that they know something about this work, but when given a chance they will prove miserable failures. We all know a good road when we see one, but how many of us can build one?

HOLCOMB—HORNBAKER

Miss Mabel Hixson Hornbaker, of Manassas, and Mr. Alfred Holcomb, of Kalispel, Mont., were married June 15 in Stryker, Mont. The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. E. L. Hornbaker, of Manassas. She left Manassas a year ago to visit her sister, Mrs. George A. Parker, of White Fish, Mont., and has been employed there as a telegraph operator. Before leaving Manassas she was a popular operator at the telephone exchange. Mr. Holcomb is employed by a Montana railroad.

AIR COMPRESSOR ARRIVES

A new air compressor for the municipal well, purchased with money loaned by citizens of the town, has arrived and is to be installed at once. If the new pumping facilities fail to produce an adequate supply of water, plans for an additional well will be taken up without further delay.

FAMOUS TWINS VISIT US

Those interesting twins—Appre Tite and Appre Hension—paid us a visit this week. Appre Tite was enjoying his usual health, and his sister, Appre Hension, was in her usual mood. 'Twas only after much persuasion on her brother's part that she ate her dinner. After that she felt better and by the time she had her dessert—the Velvet Kind Ice Cream—she was feeling very much better and bought a pound of Martha Washington at the new price of 87c, which tickled her so that she promised to tell her cousin, Appreciation.

COAL, LUMBER AND BUILDING MATERIALS

THE BEST ADVERTISING COMES FROM OUR CUSTOMERS

From time to time buyers come in our office and make purchases for building and improving who tell us they do so because our material is so well spoken of by those who have dealt with us in their community and this has happened a number of times recently from buyers who are much nearer large cities.

Where there is a rather large number of people grouped in an organization like ours who are all working hard to maintain a high standard of quality and service at fair prices it is difficult for the customer to fully understand how much those who deal with us appreciate their telling their neighbors of their pleasant transactions with our company.

Aside from the purely business feature it is very pleasant to constantly make new friends for our company and we wish to assure each of our customers who are instrumental in bringing us new business that we appreciate their telling their neighbors of their pleasant transactions with our company.

When there's quick baking to be done

IN fact, the New Perfection Oil Cook Stove does all kinds of cooking perfectly and economically. With a New Perfection Oven it is possible to bake the fluffiest of cakes and light, crispy-browned biscuits.

Note the long blue chimney on each New Perfection burner. This provides a draught which drives clean heat produced by the white-tipped flame forcibly against the cooking utensil, without sooting it. Soot is simply good heat gone to waste.

And remember that the white-tipped flame gives the most heat. Through the mica door in the chimney you can always see the flame and wick and adjust them in a second.

Busy housekeepers appreciate the small amount of attention that the New Perfection requires. No coal or wood to bring in, no ashes or litter to sweep up and take out. It stands up well above the floor and you can dust under, and around it in an instant. Select the four-burner size with cabinet top and New Perfection Oven. It is made also in five, three, two and one-burner sizes for any who prefer them.

You will always get perfect results from your oil stove if you use Aladdin Security Oil—it's pure kerosene.
