WOMEN ADDRESS PUBLIC MEETING

Red Cross and Home Demonstration Work Represented at Session of Auxiliary.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, Secretary)
The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was called to order at three o'clock last Friday evening by the president, Mrs. J. F. Deagan. After the singing of America, prayer was offered by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson.

In order of business the roll was called by the secretary. Dues amounting to 75 cents were collected from three new members. As the treasurer was absent no regular dues were collected. Six new members were added to the roll—Mrs. J. L. Bushong, Mrs. John T. Deagan, H. L. Hundley, Mrs. Aubrey Mills, Mrs. G. M. Davis and Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, the regular business was postponed for a while, there being such a rare treat ahead in that Mrs. Janet Snape, who has charge of the Prince William course in nursing; Miss Oldfield, head of the Red Cross division department of public health nursing; Miss Nellie F. Oxley, prospective county nurse for Prince William, and Miss Martha D. Dinwiddie, district demonstration agent, were present.

After a few words from Mrs. Snape and Miss Oxley, Miss Oldfield made a most helpful and interesting talk. At this time she explained the work of the Red Cross nurses and told how to go about carrying out the program for the county nurse, advising that the nurse make a survey as she goes into the different communities. She also said that the nurse would carry out the work according to Red Cross regulations. Miss Oldfield also suggested that the office for the nurse be near the rest room. She showed the value of the county nurse and the county home demonstration agent having of this together, or in the same building, and what cooperation between these two people would mean to the county.

Miss Oldfield also told about the work of the Girl Scouts and the Boy and Girl Scouts made $100 for the work in Winchester. She said that the Boy and Girl Scouts made $100 for the work in Winchester.

Mr. Gibson explained the plan for employing the nurse, after which a motion was made that the committee on nursing activities retire and discuss plans to begin the work. This was done. While the committee was out the secretary read the names of the county advisory council, after which Miss Dinwiddie, district home demonstration agent, made a very helpful talk explaining what the advisory council could do to help make the county just what it ought to be. She also showed how the home demonstration agent, with the co-operation of this council, could do better work.

Mrs. Spies reported that the rest room committee was planning to hold a festival on the Lipscomb lot Saturday evening, June 27, explaining the reason for holding this festival and urged that everybody present be a committee of one to help spread the news. Also she told about the home table and urged that all solicit for the same.

The committee returned and Mr. McDonald reported that the nurse would be ready for work by September. At this time the president of the auxiliary made a strong appeal for the work to begin the first day of July. In her talk she showed that it was unwise to put off and made a strong appeal for the health of the babies of the county. It was so ordered that the nurse begin work July 1 if possible.

The hour being late, all other business was postponed and the auxiliary adjourned until the third Friday in July.

LEWIS-GRAVES

Miss Marian Graves, of Norfolk, and Mr. Mars Lewis, formerly of Manassas, were quietly married Saturday at the home of the bride in Norfolk. Following the ceremony, the young couple left on a northern trip, after which they will return to Virginia Beach for the summer.

Mr. Lewis is a brother of Miss Julia Lewis, of Manassas. He is assistant cashier of the Virginia National Bank at Norfolk.

Mr. C. Shirley Leachman and Miss Katherine Smith, of Alexandria, motored to Manassas Sunday to spend the day at the home of Mr. Leachman's father, Mr. C. C. Leachman.

BAPTISTS WILL GIVE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Superintendent and Members of Sunday School to Take Part in Special Exercises.

Christian Education day will be celebrated by the Baptist Sunday School Sunday evening at eight o'clock by the presentation of an exercise entitled "The Church That Went to College." Character parts in this exercise will be taken as follows:

Young man who is to report on meeting of Southern Baptist convention, Mr. Powell M. Metz; superintendent who wants to have a better school, Mr. L. Ledman; lady school teacher who knows the value of a Christian college, Miss Mildred L. Harrell; Miss Smith who says what she thinks, Miss Susan Hutchison; Deacon Positive who usually has his way, Mr. T. J. Broadus; Mary Jones, earnest young woman with missionary inclinations, Miss Marian Clark; Prof. Howell, Baptist educator and wise leader, Mr. Wertz Storke; John, the deacon's son, Mr. John Broadus; Eleanor, his sister, Miss Georgia Harrell; Sam, a hard-working, ambitious boy, Mr. Ralph Larson; Edith and Carrie, girl chums, Misses Susan Ish Harrison and Beulah Whitmer.

Another feature of the program will be the reading of the roll of honor of those members of the school who have attended or will attend a Baptist school.

A collection will be taken in the interest of Christian education. Southern Baptists are planning to raise from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in the next five years to strengthen their denominational schools, and of this amount Virginia Baptists are expected to raise at least $1,300,000. There are ten schools in Virginia under Baptist control.

AGENTS' OFFICE DAY

Miss Lillian Gilbert Will Receive Visitors Every Monday.

Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, County Home Demonstration Agent, will receive visitors every Monday at her office in the Manassas High School Building. It is urged that all who wish to obtain information or have conferences plan to do same on these days.

Owing to the fact that Mr. Sanders, the agricultural director, will be in Blacksburg for six weeks and the farm demonstrator, Mr. E. G. Koimer, will leave the work July 1, it will be very uncertain about finding any one on the grounds on other days. Remember Monday of each week during the month of July.

CHILDREN'S DAY PROGRAM

Presbyterian Sunday School Addressed by Rev. Mr. Wade.

The children's day program was rendered at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at the time of the usual church service. DeForest Wade, and the superintendent, Mr. J. H. Dodge, offered the invocation.

Among those who took part in the program were: Misses Ruth Sharrett, Josephine Coel, Hazel Saunders, Christine Meese, Mildred Creel and Beulah Baker; and Ralph Sharrett, Albert Creel, Bennett Rosenberger, Warren Rosenberger, Charles Lynn, Dennis Baker and Ralph Saunders.

The offering for missions was received by Miss Mary Knevels, Miss Annie Creel, Wilbur Rosenberger and James Wisler.

PRETTY WEDDING IN WASHINGTON

Miss Hildegard Portner Becomes Bride of Lieutenant Derby, of Richmond.

The apartment of Representative and Mrs. Henry D. Flood in Washington was converted into a veritable June garden Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Mrs. Flood's sister, Miss Hildegard Portner, and Lieut. Palmer Derby, U. S. A., of Norfolk.

The walls of the drawing room where the ceremony was performed by Rev. U. G. B. Pierce, were sprayed with asparagus vines, and white ribbons attached to tiny white posts marked the aisle through which the bridal party passed to the improvised altar where the bridegroom and his best man, Capt. Nelson Ege, U. S. A., awaited them. A bowler formed of Shasta daisies intermingled with Australian ferns was placed about the white satin prie dieu on which the bridal couple knelt and exchanged a canopy of pink rambler roses produced a charming effect. The mantles were banked with pink roses and blue delphiniums.

A string orchestra played the wedding marches and throughout the reception which followed. The bride, who was escorted and later given in marriage by Representative Flood, wore a gown of soft white satin, made with a high waist line and panner draperies on the skirt, while the bodice was formed of duchess lace and tulle.

Her veil of exquisite rose point lace, which has been worn by a number of the brides in the Portner family, was becomingly arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and it also formed her train. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and anemones.

Mrs. Augustine Humes, of New York, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and her gown was a Lucille model of filmy lace and insertion combined with embroidery, a bit of blue showing at the girdle. Her leghorn garden hat was adorned with pink and blue flowers and lace and she carried a bouquet of blue delphiniums and pink roses.

Only the guests present at the ceremony attended the reception which followed, when the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Flood, who wore a handsome gown of cream colored lace mounted over rose pink satin with a leghorn picture hat trimmed with pink roses.

Lieut. and Mrs. Derby left later for their wedding journey, the latter wearing a smart tan traveling costume of tricotee with a brown straw hat. They will make their future home at Winchester. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Portner, of Manassas. Lieut. Derby recently returned from eighteen months' service in France.

The out-of-town guests in Washington for the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Portner and Mr. Paul V. Portner, of Manassas; Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Humes, of New York; Mrs. Richard E. Byrd, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flood Byrd, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling Byrd, Lieut. and Mrs. Nelson Page and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Baker, all of Winchester, and Miss Eala Burke, of Upper Marlboro.

The degree of doctor of science was conferred upon Hon. George W. Koimer, commissioner of agriculture for Virginia, at the recent commencement exercises of the Susquehanna University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. James E. Nelson was a weekend visitor in town.

WHEAT CROP IS DISAPPOINTING

Some Farmers in Prince William However, Are Satisfied and Pleased With Yield.

"An overwhelming majority of the farmers in Prince William county are disappointed in the yield and quality of their wheat crop this year," said Mr. R. G. Koimer, county agent, in response to a question from a representative of The Journal. "A few are pleased, one man thinking he will get a yield of thirty bushels on his best field."

While the bearded varieties have much shorter heads this year than the smooth sorts, they are better filled with plumper grain, according to Mr. Koimer. The grain in the smooth varieties is small and shrunken, part of the head having nothing in it at all. There is a fine crop of straw, which on account of light heads and absence of storms stood up remarkably well.

"While we are not prepared to assign a reason for this comparative failure of yield and quality in the grain," Mr. Koimer concluded, "we are inclined to blame it on the seemingly unfavorable supply of heat and moisture during the last two months." Harvest is well under way at this time. The weather for the most part has been decidedly favorable, but in many cases the scarcity of labor is a serious handicap.

Much of the wheat in Loudoun county is reported to have been so badly damaged in the recent wet weather that it is feared that only a little more than a quarter of a normal crop will be harvested in some localities. A great deal of wheat has been found infested with smut, and in many othercases the heads rotted before maturity. Conditions are reported to be much better in the Shenandoah valley section, although some rust has been detected.

WELCOME CELEBRATION

Fredericksburg Plans to Greet Soldiers on Fourth of July.

The counties of Spotsylvania, Caroline, Stafford and King George and the City of Fredericksburg will hold a joint celebration on July 4 at Fredericksburg, in honor of the men from those communities who served in the war.

The program includes a big parade, participated in by service men of all branches, which will end at the handsome and specially erected court of honor, where the crowd will be addressed by a United States senator. The line of march will be beautifully decorated. Other attractions are two baseball games, fire works, racing, tournaments, open air street dancing, a carnival, airplane flights, open air singing and other free attractions. Music will be furnished by three brass bands. Judge Allen Bell, of Culpeper, who served as a private in the front line trenches at the age of sixty and who claims to be the oldest private in the American army, will be present and will speak. Free dinners will be served to all service men, both white and colored.

The city is planning to entertain one of the largest crowds in its history.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

The seven-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Shoemaker, living near Bristol, died early this morning from burns received yesterday. It is said that the accident was caused by making a fire with kerosene. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at Valley View church.

HOME NURSING COURSE BEGINS AGAIN JULY 17

Red Cross Nurses Will Return to Manassas—Time to Apply for Admittance to Class.

The classes in Home Hygiene, given by the Prince William Red Cross under the direction of Mrs. Janet Saxon Snape, will begin again on Thursday, July 17. A fee of $2 will be charged for admission to the class, this money to be used by the Red Cross toward the expense involved.

A room in the M. I. C. Building is to be equipped by the first class, twenty-five members of which have recently received certificates for completing the course. Those who have not quite completed the first course will be permitted to take the required number of lessons to make them eligible for the examination without payment of an additional fee, and it is hoped that those who have not completed the course will take advantage of this opportunity.

The nursing classes to open July 17 will be held as before every Thursday morning and afternoon. It is expected that a class of Girl Scouts will receive instruction in the morning and a class of women in the afternoon. Applications for admittance or for any information pertaining to the class should be addressed to the secretary of the Red Cross committee on nursing activities, Mrs. J. L. Bushong, Manassas, Va.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR WOMAN'S REST ROOM

Festival Nets Small Amount and Further Support Still Required by Committee.

The festival given Saturday evening by the Woman's Auxiliary committee for the benefit of the woman's rest room in Manassas netted about $22, a disappointing result to the committee in charges which had hoped to clear the indebtedness on the room and to raise a sufficient balance for future work. This report was made at a meeting of the committee at the rest room Monday afternoon, when ways and means for the future were considered. Appeals will be made to housekeepers' clubs throughout the county and to the merchants of the town.

Arrangements were made to place a bulletin board in the rest room for "wanted," "for sale" and other notices. It was suggested that cards bearing the words, "Woman's Rest Room, Main Street," be posted in public places in the town. The rest room committee is composed of Mrs. C. F. M. Lewis, chairman; Mrs. E. D. Wisler, Mrs. E. R. Conner and Mrs. J. A. Hill.

Mrs. W. Powell Merchant entertained three tables of bridge Wednesday morning at her home on Battle street in honor of Mrs. Ralph Holt, of Chattanooga, Tenn. The other guests were Mrs. Francis Norvell Larkin, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Mrs. T. E. Dillaka, Mrs. Howard W. Jamison, Mrs. L. Frank Pattie, Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, Mrs. Stuart E. Bevans, Mrs. Suzanne Sherman and Mrs. J. P. Lyon.

Miss Emma Goodwin, who with Mr. and Mrs. Harper occupies the Robaugh property on Grant avenue was paralyzed late yesterday afternoon.

TEMPLE SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Music and Expression Students Present Annual Programs at Conner's Hall.

The fifth annual commencement of the Temple School of Music began Monday evening in Conner's Hall with a recital by the pupils of the elementary department. The programs each evening during the week have been well attended by families and friends of the participants, who have been generous with applause and other forms of appreciation.

The stage is decorated with cut flowers and potted plants against an outdoor background of summer meadow, trees and shrubbery, which makes a pretty setting for the sixty young students who appear singly and in groups. Two pianos are given the place of honor in the foreground on the right.

The final program tonight, which is the commencement proper, includes readings and musical numbers and the commencement address and presentation of certificates of promotion by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson. Rev. DeForest Wade will offer the invocation and the benediction will be pronounced by Rev. William Stevens.

The program Monday evening included a musical reading by Misses Margaret Cornwell and Rose Rice, a duet by Misses Hutchinson and Harrison and piano solos by the following students: Katherine King, Mary Ryland, Anna Fately, Emma Ellen Ledman, Mabel Payne, Rose Sibling Ratcliffe, Lucy Athey, Charles Webster Hopkins, Cora Louise Merchant, Annie Laurie Merchant, Lona Todd, Marie Broadus, Mildred Mills, Virginia Green, Hazel Saunders, Lyla Arey and Ruth Hutchinson. Little Miss Rose Ratcliffe sang a solo, playing her own accompaniment, and the primary class sang "The Spring Heart."

The piano recital of Miss Virginia Nelson Spelden, pupil of Miss Frances Elizabeth Spies, and Miss Helen Newell Cannon, pupil of Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins, took place Tuesday evening. The young pianists were assisted by Miss Mary Christine Moser, reader, a pupil of Mrs. Grace Norman Rosser.

The pupils of the piano and expression departments took part in Wednesday evening's program. The expression department was represented by Miss Elizabeth Burr, who gave "Sweet Day of Rest;" Miss Margaret Cornwell, who gave two short readings, "Maybe" and "The Land of Fairy Tales;" Miss Muriel Norvell Larkin, who gave "Peaches," a thrilling story of a race, and Miss Rose Rice, who gave "Daddy Long Legs," summarizing, with character parts, Jean Webster's famous story of that name.

The school sang "Faith in the Future," Misses Waters and McCoy rendered "Silver Spring," arranged for two pianos, and piano solos were rendered by the following students: Misses Ardath Evans, Edythe Gregory, Mary Lee Arrington, Anna Weir Waters, Margaret Cornwell, George Waters, Louise Ayrb, Jessie Payne, Lillian Larkin, Elizabeth Burr and Garnett Brown.

The program Thursday evening also was given jointly by the piano and expression departments. Piano numbers were given by Misses Lanier Meran, Sara Danahoe, Catherine Weir, and Elizabeth Pope. Twelve girls in costume sang a Japanese song. The expression department was represented by Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins, Miss Catherine Larkin, Miss Elizabeth Covington and Miss Susan Ish Harrison.

Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins, director, has announced that the school this year will conduct a summer session, continuing through the summer months until the opening of the fall term. Miss Frances Elizabeth Spies, assistant, will be in charge while Miss Hopkins is taking a six weeks' course in public school music and playground work at the Harrisonburg normal.

The daylight saving law which was in operation last summer as an experiment and which was put into operation again this summer by a law aiming to make it a regular yearly practice has been repealed by congress. The practice will terminate with the expiration of the present session of both Senate and House, the repeal entering the record on March 19, 1918, said a large number of laboring men who were on strike during the summer.

PLENTY OF MONEY IN SIGHT
 Although announcement was made at the time of the Victory Loan that the administration contemplates no further appeals to the people for money, Secretary Glass of the Treasury has found it necessary to repeat this assurance twice within the last week. Statement after statement has been made, apparently from responsible quarters, indicating that the Treasury must float more bonds.

Mr. Glass, better than anyone else, is able to speak with authority and his statement should be accepted as the final word on the subject. From present indications the Congress now in session will authorize appropriations amounting to $3,000,000,000 or $4,000,000,000, but it must be remembered that practically all war taxation is still in effect and that more than $3,000,000,000 a year now comes into the Treasury from the daily earnings of the people. The fact that the billions represented by the Victory Loan were spent before actual subscriptions were received is not to be taken into account in this respect. The money at the time it was needed was raised by Treasury certificates of indebtedness carried by the banks of the country, and these certificates are to be redeemed by the Victory Loan.

MR. KOINER LEAVES
 It is with real regret that The Journal announces the early departure of Mr. E. G. Koiner, county agent. Mr. Koiner goes back to his former home in Augusta county with the good wishes of a host of friends throughout Prince William who appreciate the quality of his service among them. In these days of rapid development, particularly along agricultural lines so far as Prince William is concerned, a good specialist is a man to be highly valued. Mr. Koiner has combined with the qualities of a good specialist an all-round interest in every matter which affects the public welfare, and his ready assistance and co-operation will be greatly missed.

AN HONOR EARNED
 While it is not so rare today for the public service of a newspaper to win recognition, the profession is keenly interested in the award of the Joseph Pulitzer prize "for the most distinguished and meritorious public service rendered by any American newspaper during the year." This prize offered by a great journalist to a profession whose ambitions and possibilities he was well fitted to understand, was recently awarded to the Milwaukee Journal. The effective campaign of the Journal against Germanism, when the German element in Wisconsin became most aggressive, is given as the reason for the award.

TO DAD
 They think of us soldiers as heroes,
 And praise our names up to the skies;
 They've prayers for the one who is wounded,
 And tears for the one who dies;
 They write songs of our pals and our sweethearts,
 And mothers so brave and so sad;
 But name a great singer or poet
 Who's mentioned a word about dad!
 Poor dad, with his check-book and troubles,
 He hasn't a look-in at all—
 It's mother, and pal, and sweetheart,
 And Sammy who answers the call;
 But dad must be thinking and working;
 In a store, in a mine, or a mill,
 To get the old remold iron dollars
 To pay the big family bill.
 He buys the new bonds by the dozen
 Though his shoes are run down at the heel,
 And his overcoat's old and looks shabby,
 But you never hear old daddy squeal.
 He doesn't write much of a letter
 To the boy who is going to France,
 But sends him a crisp five or ten spot.
 Whenever he has a good chance,
 And evenings, when reading his paper,
 A-smoking his pipe or cigar,
 He thinks of his boy clad in khaki
 Says, "I hope it is well where you are."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Lloyd McGill Allen, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Allen, who died June 18 at their home near Nokesville. He was 13 months old and was sick only six days, but though loving hands nursed him faithfully they were powerless to save.

Our dear baby, you have left us, And the loss we deeply feel, But the God that has bereft us He can all our sorrows heal.

Oh, we tried so hard to save him, As we watched the whole night long, But God wanted another angel, So he took our baby home.

And the home is sad and lonely Since God took our baby home, But we hope to meet our dear one When our work on earth is done. By his loving aunt.

Col. Lee is a lawyer and a son of Gen. W. H. F. Lee, of Ravensworth, Fairfax county.

He knows every fish by its Latin name, and he has caught them all. Read the interesting story of this extraordinary man in The Washington Sunday Star, Sunday, June 29th.

NEAR DEATH FROM BEE STINGS

Edgar H. Gentry, one of the oldest rural carriers in point of service in Albemarle county, is critically ill and his horse is expected to die from the effects of bee stings. While returning to Charlottesville along the Scottsville road Mr. Gentry suddenly ran upon a swarm of young bees that had left the parent hive. The insects first attacked the horse. Mr. Gentry ran to a clump of underbrush but the bees were too fast for him, and when he emerged he could hardly be recognized. The horse was so badly swollen that he resembled a wooden horse. Traffic along the narrow roadway was blocked for nearly two hours.

A DUSTY OCEAN

Is the Ocean dusty? Marines aboard the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, now in port at New York, will say it is.

"The salt in the air crystallizes on the decks and bulk heads," Corporal William H. Allen explained to a reporter. "It is then ground under foot and becomes dusty so although we throw overboard a couple of cans of dust there is the same amount the next time we sweep down."

The Guaranteed Dairy Ration

THERE SHOULD BE nothing mysterious about a proper dairy ration. We all know just what it should contain in order to produce the desired results. The experiment stations settled that matter long ago. It's simply a question of getting the best ingredients, in unvarying quantities, at a price that will permit of a fair profit for the man who feeds it.

We have such in LARRO-FEED. It is a complete ration ready to feed, palatable and bulky, and the various ingredients of such a quality and so well proportioned that in spite of all the different conditions under which dairymen are feeding, we are willing to guarantee one of three propositions:

- (1) More milk; (2) or lower cost of feed; (3) or greater convenience without added cost or decrease in milk. Just what you can do with LARRO-FEED depends on how good a ration you have; but it will have to be a pretty good one if LARRO-FEED cannot beat it.
