E. Akers, at her home here. Miss Pauline Carter, of Minnieville, is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Athey, near town, while studying at the High School. The Prince William Pharmacy windows are displaying many fine and attractive specimens of corn and apples, grown in this vicinity. We understand that Mr. and P. H. Lynch have sold the property formerly owned by the late Peter Curry to A. M. Yates, of Independent Hill. Torrence Wolford, for the past four years a student at Eastern College, this week entered Western Maryland College, at Westminster, Md. Mrs. L. W. Kaschagen and son, Jimmie, leave next week for Montvale, Va., where after a week's visit they will go to Chicago for a couple of months. The testing of Manassas sewer system is now going on and will be finished by the last of the week. The people will within a short while have full use of the civic improvements. Mrs. Deming, of Rochester, N. Y., and her sister, Mrs. Branch, and her daughter, Miss Roberts Branch, of Atlanta, Fla., are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson on Main street. A series of revival services will begin at Jones Chapel M. E. Church at Bradley on Sunday night, Sept. 27, at 7:30 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Slick, assisted by Rev. J. Hapenny and others. Everybody welcome. Dr. W. H. Heck, of the University of Virginia, is expected to speak at the Teachers' Institute to be held in Manassas on October 2 and 3. The patrons and friends of the schools are cordially invited to come as he will discuss questions of great interest to all concerned in their welfare. A contest for the most popular young lady in Manassas is going on at the Murdoch Brothers show which is playing a week's engagement here. The contest closes Saturday night, and much interest has centered in the affair. The closest competitors are Misses Helen Cannon, Ethel Hiner and Mary Leachman.

Mrs. Pitts, of Elk Hill, Va., was a guest of her son, C. D. Pitts, last week. P. H. Lynch, of Greenboro, N. C., spent several days with his family here. The regular monthly meeting of the Manassas town council will be held next Monday night. Miss Sue Brawner, of Broad Run, was the guest of friends in Manassas last Saturday. Good crowds have attended the Murdoch Brothers shows, which have been held here since the first of the week. Alfred di Zerega, of Leesburg, formerly of the National Bank here, was the guest of friends in Manassas Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. Weir Waters have returned to their home at Culpeper after spending a week with relatives here. Miss Marian Jones, who has been the guest of Miss Alberta Davis, at Brietown, has returned to her home at Front Royal. Walter Shannon, of Norfolk, formerly of Manassas, visited friends here last week. He returned to his home Saturday. Clifton and Catharpin engaged in a red hot baseball game last Saturday in which several former local sandlotters took prominent part. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Clark, who have been guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, returned to their home in Indianapolis, Minn. An enjoyable time is looked forward to by many in Manassas tomorrow night, when the September German will be held in Conner's hall. Great improvement has been made in the Manassas streets during the past two weeks and they are again taking their former appearance. Everything is in readiness for the opening of Eastern College on next Tuesday. The last of this week will find the first commuters drifting in. Large crowds have been attracted by the beautiful military display at Mrs. R. J. Adamson's store today. The opening will continue over tomorrow. A big praise and prayer meeting will be held at Eastern College this evening, to which affair will come a number from Nokesville and other nearby towns. The public is cordially invited. The concrete work at the depot is now nearly finished and it will take only a few days to complete the small amount which is left. This structure when completed will be one of the largest improvements Manassas has had in many years. C. J. Meetze, accompanied by H. Y. Meetze, of Roseville, Va., and George C. Round, motored to Fredericksburg last Sunday, they later going to Bethel Church, Halls Memorial Church and Fal-mouth, where Mr. Meetze delivered addresses. In a baseball game featured by heavy hitting, a team made up of many members of the Cardinal Athletic Club, of Alexandria, defeated Clifton last Saturday by the score of 12 to 8. Douglas Merchant, George and Walter Allenworth were among the line-up, and did much of the heavy hitting. Cross, for Clifton, and Walter Allenworth, for Alexandria, pitched good ball, but were poorly supported at times.

Miss Mattie Weir left Monday for Washington, where she is visiting friends. D. M. Pitts left for his former home at Elk Hill, Va., where he will visit for a few days. E. A. Brand returned from Toronto, Canada, this morning, where he has been in the interests of his department. The residence of Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Herrell, on Battle street, is being improved by the building of an addition. The work of digging the foundation for the new town hall, was begun this week and as soon as possible the building will commence. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meetze, of Limstrong, near Manassas, leave tomorrow for The Plains, where they will be the guests of R. M. Meetze. There will be an important meeting of the W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. E. Spies. A good attendance is requested. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. S. Hopkins, on Grant Avenue, is being improved with the installation water, sewerage and other improvements. H. Y. Meetze, of Roseville, Va., was the guest of his brother, C. J. Meetze, at his home in Manassas this week. Mr. Meetze expects to locate here about the first of the month. The ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Manassas presented the Hon. C. J. Meetze with a handsome cake last Tuesday in celebration of his birthday. A card was attached expressing good wishes and appreciation of his services in the fight for prohibition. The regular monthly meeting of the L. T. L. will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Asbury Methodist Church. The "Harvest Home" program will be given. Mr. Slick will address the legion. Members of the legion are requested to meet at the church Friday immediately after school. Uncle Stotter Minor, an aged and respected colored resident of Prince William county, died in Washington last Sunday after a long illness. The remains were brought here last Tuesday and were later buried in the cemetery here. Uncle Stotter was known in this section over and was one of the oldest negro citizens in the county. After an illness of several weeks Claude Arnold, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnold, died this morning, at about four o'clock at the home of his parents, near Eastern College. The cause of his death was the result of typhoid fever which to the present time has claimed three of Manassas persons. The funeral will take place on Saturday with interment in the Manassas cemetery. The Fauquier county fair to be held at Marshall next Wednesday and Thursday and which is one of the biggest of its kind in Northern Virginia, will undoubtedly be attended by many Manassas people. The fair includes the exhibition of agricultural products, stock and all other display characteristic of these entertainments. One attraction of much interest to Manassas people will be the football contest between the local High School and Randolph Macon Academy to be played on October 1.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS NEXT WEEK. SCHOOL v. RANDOLPH MACON. Game to be played at Marshall. High School Teams in Fit Condition for Games Scheduled.

The Fauquier County Fair Marshall next week it seems probable that Manassas High school will open the campaign of football against Randolph Macon eleven of Front Royal, when arrangements are completed. This contest will be one of the hardest propositions Manassas will encounter, although it is a local trial. Following the week the eleven will be taken to Culpeper, where they will be the high school team of the place, and later Charlottesville. High will be met, together with other preparatory and high schools of this section. Manassas is in fit condition to battle that come if present development in the squad continues. The two weeks has seen much progress in every candidate, and of last year's team, with experience gained in one year are now at their very best. They should be, for upon them rests much of the season's success. The past week has seen a deal of signal practice, and the installation water, sewerage and other improvements. H. Y. Meetze, of Roseville, Va., was the guest of his brother, C. J. Meetze, at his home in Manassas this week. Mr. Meetze expects to locate here about the first of the month. The ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Manassas presented the Hon. C. J. Meetze with a handsome cake last Tuesday in celebration of his birthday.
